

DUSTON'S

OUT PRICE

LE

L SWING

MAKING FAIRLY YELL OUT

COM NOW

"Where It Pays to Buy"

The greatest corn crop in history will be harvested in America this year. The present promise of 3,216,192,000 bushels of corn is over 90,000,000 bushels in excess of any crop ever grown and nearly 300,000,000 bushels more than was produced last year. The condition of the crop as predicted by the Crop Reporting Board of the Department of Agriculture is 24.3 points higher than the average and the highest since 1906.

FOR SALE

A team of big mules, weigh about 1400 each, an oil wagon and harness, brand new and the best money can buy; also a 1200-lb. mule, ten or eleven years old; one Reo touring car, in tip top condition. For sale at a bargain. See Jimmie Morgan, at Liberty.

Stage Line May to C. Plains.

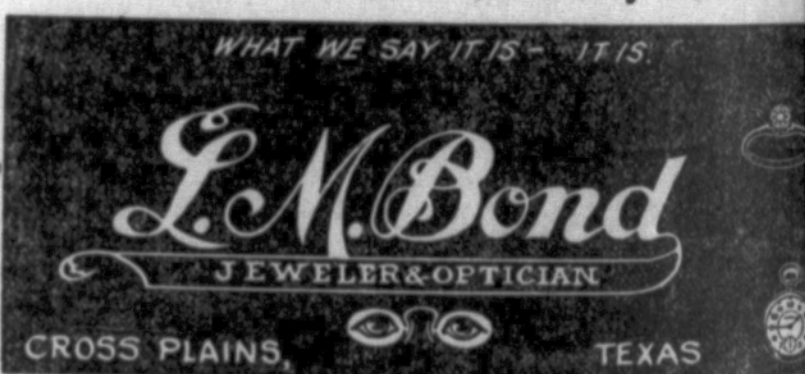

Meet train and Rising Star stage line at May, every day except Sunday. See or phone, A. Gaines, Cross Cut.

MICKIE SAYS

SAY, DIDJA EVER NOTICE THAT WE BOOST SOME ADVERTISERS MORE THAN OTHERS? WELL, THERE'S A REASON. THE FELLERS WE BOOST AIN'T ALL THE TIME TRYIN' T' GET CUT RATES ON THEIR ADVERTISIN' 'N CROWDING A $3 AD INTO A 50 CENT SPACE.

Here is the best place in the world to suggestions for Xmas, wedding, birthday or other gifts. Our stock is so complete, the prices so varied, that every taste and pocketbook is sure to be suited. We have many inexpensive but dainty little novelties here, which make excellent gifts. Your selection is made easy here.

CALLAHAN & WHELOCK

Auto Electrical Experts
We Specialize on Automobile Batteries and Automobile Electrical Equipment.
Any Make Battery Recharged, Rebuilt, or Repaired.
ALL WORK GUARANTEED.
CALLAHAN & WHELOCK
Corner 9th and Main streets Cross Plains, Texas

Car Owners

This garage is agent for the Champion Spark Plug. There are none better on the market. We can supply them for your car.
If your car needs a doctor, bring it to us, where you can get mechanics with years of experience in the best garages in the country. We do none but good work, and make REASONABLE charges for same.

Chandler Garage

The Cross Plains Review

CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOV. 5, 1920

No. 36

want this, in the highest sense of the term, to be a Bank of Service to its friends.
makes no difference whether or not you are a customer. If we can serve you in our lines, call on us freely, remember us in your every banking need. Your visit or will always be appreciated here.

PERSONAL SERVICE ABSOLUTE SAFETY
FARMERS NATIONAL BANK
MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS
W. E. BUTLER, Sec'y.

ELLOWS HONOR SERVICE

Fellows of Cross Plains honor service Nov. 12. This service is in compliance with a resolution issued by Grand T. Savage of Dallas, and the purpose of permitting the members of the Order to be witness degree work at a real good meeting. The will confer the First and Second degrees on this occasion. The members of the lodge who attendance will bring some of their brothers who have not attended the meetings, as the "faithful few" have members of the Order burning room by their regular and by their sublime duties ideals of mutual help and have now grown old and have not been able to attend lodge meetings. It is these men that will attend this honor service and again enjoy the association of Odd Fellows.

For Sale.

My farm of 125 acres two miles east of Cross Plains. Good title, clear of debt.
H. P. Faulkner, Dublin, Texas.
Don't forget R. E. Wilson when you are thirsty.
Fresh lime & cement.
Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.
Galvanized iron & rubber roofing.
Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.
Window glass & putty.
Don't forget R. E. Wilson when you are thirsty.
Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.
Campbell quality paints & pure linseed oil.
Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.

Our Friends and Customers

We invite you to visit our store. We are making reductions of from 20 to 40 per cent on all our dry goods and are offering a few special bargains.
200 yards of Gingham, linen finish, was 50c, now 25c per yard, while it lasts.
500 yards of our 40c and 45c Ginghams for 25c while it lasts. These are bargains. Better get some of them at once.
Another Bargain—200 yards of Blue and Black Serge, a good value at $4.50 the yd, now $2.50.
Lots of other bargains. We will meet anybody's prices, quality of goods considered.

Don't forget the Grocery Department. Joe and Alex will smile and be pleased to fill your order and give you better goods for the same money, same goods for less money.

Cross Plains Merc. Co.

Early Returns Indicate Landslide For Harding

CROSS PLAINS PAYS HIGHEST PRICE FOR COTTON

Cross Plains merchants are paying more for cotton than are the merchants of any of the near-by towns, if what we can learn from farmers who are selling the fleecy staple is correct. The managers of the branch stores at this place say that they pay better for cotton here than their stores do at other places. Farmers are daily marketing cotton in Cross Plains who live several miles nearer other towns larger than ours. You never see a regular cotton buyer on our streets. The merchants pay more than he can, nearly every bale is bought at a loss on the then market. One or two men who live in Cross Plains who are buying cotton for a livelihood, hie to Cisco and other near-by points, where they have a chance to buy cotton at its real worth. All this to show that Cross Plains is the best cotton market in the country, and the people who live in this trade territory should give what business they can to the merchants here who are doing all they can to make this a good market place. Do your part in helping make this still a better town. Trade at home, to the end that Cross Plains will be the best town in all this section, if not in size, then in service.

NEW M. E. PASTOR HERE

The new M. E. pastor, the Rev. Mr. Bailey, and his family have moved to Cross Plains and are occupying the parsonage. They came from Caps in Taylor County. His predecessor, Rev. Tyler, has moved to South Florida, where he was reared. We are glad to welcome Mr. Bailey and his family here.

INSTALLS NEW EQUIPMENT

C. G. Harrel, garage man, has put in a new gasoline pump at his filling station, one that has a glass container that shows the amount of gasoline you are getting. It is quite an improvement over the old pump he had. This pump is popular in other towns. Claude has had added quite a few other improvements also that make his place modern and up-to-date in appointment.

Cullins-Connelly.

L. F. Cullins of Coleman and Miss Callie Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Connelly of Dressy, were married in Cross Plains on Sunday at the home of J. M. Harlow, who officiated. We are not advised as to where the young couple will make their home. We join their many friends in extending congratulations.

Dr Hales Here Nov. 11.

Dr. J. H. Hales, optometrist of Brownwood, formerly the Brownwood Optical Co., will be in Cross Plains on Nov. 11, Armistice Day, at Robertson's Drug Store, where he will be glad to see you for any kind of eye trouble. He is a graduate physician and has had much special experience in treating the eye. Remember to see him if you want the best that scientific medical skill can do for your eyes.

Nation-wide returns from yesterday's election indicate a substantial lead for Senator Warren G. Harding, republican candidate for president. These unofficial reports show that the democrats failed in this election to carry any of the states that were even normally republican in the election of four years ago. Returns indicate that the state has rolled up its usual democratic majority for Pat Neff and other nominees of the recent primaries.

GOOCH MAKING 120 BARRELS

The Livinger et al Gooch No. 1, four miles east of town, has been on the pump for several days and has made by test this week 120 barrels one day and 124 another. The well will not be drilled any deeper at present, but will be pumped. A pumper is due to arrive this week to take the job permanently.

The Odoin seven miles west of town finished setting the 6 5-8 inch casing on Wednesday, and is now ready to resume drilling. The well stands now 2605 feet in depth, and is on top of sand that promises production.

The Cox well, by the Texana Co. et al, at the northwestern edge of Rising Star, was given a 300 quart shot Tuesday afternoon at a depth of about 3,200 feet. It is impossible to tell what the well will do yet, as it bridged about 150 feet. Before the shot there was a splendid showing of oil and some gas. At this writing the drillers are cleaning out and the gas flow is increasing and the oil in the slush also increases as the bit goes down.

Much interest is centered in this well, owing to its nearness to our town. The drillers say that the showing before shooting would indicate a good pumper even if the shot did not bring a gusher.—X Ray.

Beeler's Mill Opened.

Beeler's mill has been reopened for business under new management at the same location. Well located and well prepared to grind your corn, wheat, etc. First class service guaranteed.

L. R. Carroll.

Fresh lime & cement.

Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.

Fourth Roll Call.

Governor Wm. P. Hobby, in a proclamation just issued by him, praises the American Red Cross and endorses the purpose of its Fourth Roll Call which will begin on Armistice Day, November 11, and close on Thanksgiving Day, November 25.

Beta Freeland of Cottonwood has sent the Review for six months to A. T. Stephens of La Junta, Colo.

Campbell quality paints & pure linseed oil.
Clay & Butler Lbr. Co.

Window Glass

ANY SIZE and QUANTITY

Wind Shields for Cars
Building Papers
Rubber Roofing

Painted and Galvanized Roofing
Floor Paints, Stains, Varnishes

Varnish your Linoleum and note how much better it looks—also prolongs the life of it.

Yours for service,

JOE H. SHACKELFORD'S

Lumber and Paint Store

CROSS PLAINS

TEXAS

GRAND AND PETTIT JURORS FOR NOVEMBER TERM

Callahan County District Court will convene at the court house in Baird, Monday, November 8. The following is the official list of grand and petit jurors:

Grand jurors—F. L. Alvord, Baird; Tee Baulch, Clyde; L. T. Anderson, Admiral; W. P. Brightwell, Baird; J. H. Coats, Cottonwood; L. J. Cook, Putnam; T. J. Cross, Cross Plains; H. D. Taylor, Baird; A. G. Hobbs, Rowden; H. W. Caldwell, Clyde; A. Hickman, Baird; Henry Jones, Clyde; G. L. Harper, Putnam; W. B. Hicks, Baird; W. W. Licenum, Oplin; Dorsey Odum, Cross Plains; Ed Alexander, Baird.

PETIT JUROR, NOV. 15th.

Petit Jurors—Roy Kendrick, Clyde; J. P. Bryant, Baird; B. J. Camp, Route 1, Cisco; C. N. Morgan, Clyde; J. F. McCarty, T. S. Walker, Rowden; J. T. Miller, Baird; J. R. Hart, Baird; J. F. Browning, Baird; V. Hughes, Baird; Henry McCool, Putnam; A. H. Turville, Clyde; B. E. Higgins, Admiral; A. G. Evans, Cross Plains; M. G. Farmer, Baird; W. D. Wilson, Cross Plains; J. E. Tatum, Cross Plains; A. Betcher, Clyde; H. W. Kennard, Clyde; L. D. Barnard, Clyde; J. T. Baskett, Route 1, Moran; J. H. McIntyre, Oplin; W. L. Cutbirth, Cross Plains; N. A. Bagley, Cottonwood; Alvis Jones, Cross Plains; E. A. Hailey, Atwell; J. D. Barkley, Cross Plains; John Hancock, Baird; J. C. Rucker, Oplin; R. W. Mahan, Rowden; Elbert Clemer, Putnam; D. M. Thomas, Potosi.—Baird Star.

2,285 BALES SHIPPED FROM CROSS PLAINS IN OCTOBER

Agent W. C. Wilkinson states that the Katy shipped 2,285 bales of cotton from Cross Plains during the month of October. Up to that date about 2,500 bales had been weighed at the local yard. At least 5,000 bales should be marketed here this season. Seven thousand were shipped out of Cross Plains in 1914, the fall that the war ruined the price.

Baby's life is hard enough at the best. The little aches and pains that we know nothing of are big to him.

We have gathered here every proven article in our line that will help to preserve the freshness, sweetness of Babyhood and relieve its "downs" and pains.

If it's something you want for baby's health and gain you'll find it here, of quality the best.

FAINING AND DIZZY SPELLS

The Cause of such Symptoms and Remedy Told in This Letter.

Syracuse, N. Y.—"When I commenced the Change of Life I was poorly, had no appetite and had fainting spells..."

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moreover this reliable remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and cures its efficiency to the medicinal extracts of the native roots and herbs which it contains.

Great Ignorance. A Pittsburgh lawyer was conducting a case in court not long ago and one of the witnesses, a burly negro, confessed that at the time of his arrest he was engaged in a craps game.

"Wass dat?" asked the witness, rolling his eyes.

"Address the jury, sir!" thundered the lawyer, "and tell them just how you deal craps."

"Lemme often hear," cried the witness, uneasily. "Just thing I know this gen-man grime to ask me how to drink a sandwich."—Boston Transcript.

It is not always the best fighter but the best runner that wins the political battle.

Don't Go From Bad to Worse! Are you always weak, miserable and half-sick? Then it's time you found out what is wrong. Kidney weakness causes much suffering from backache, lameness, stiffness and rheumatic pains...

WATCH THE BIG 4 Stomach-Kidneys-Heart-Liver Keep the vital organs healthy by regularly taking the world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—

GOLD MEDAL HARBLEN OIL CAPSULES The National Remedy of Holland for centuries and endorsed by Queen Wilhelmina. At all druggists, three sizes.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED "Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson of Buffalo. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

Dear Sirs:— "I was an untold sufferer from old running sores and ulcers. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the ointment I am cured. The ulcer was 4 inches by 6 inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again."

COMRADES OF PERIL

RANDALL PARRISH

Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co.

"OLGA CARLYN." Synopsis.—Tom Shelby, a rancher, rides into the frontier town of Ponca looking for a good time after a long spell of hard work and loneliness on the ranch. Instead, he runs into a funeral—that of Dad Calkins, a retired army man of whom little is known.

CHAPTER V.

The Wedding. It was an exceedingly busy afternoon, so filled with details of preparation as to leave Shelby slight opportunity for reflection. He had never contemplated marriage, or imagined himself a benedict. He knew practically nothing as to the disposition and character of the girl or what she might require of himself.

He stood there alone, staring down at the team of broncos and the heavily laden buckboard incomprehendingly. Yet slowly it all came back to him and his mind began to arouse from blank stupor. His attention was attracted by the approach of a horseman trotting steadily up the deserted street toward the hotel.

"Sure, Well, thunder, you're Shaunessy of the Sixth. What're you doing here?" "Thought I knew you, Tom, when I first came up the steps, but wasn't quite sure till I got a side view. Must be six years since you left us, ain't it?"

"No, out on the Cottonwood." "What—north? Say, old man, that ain't no horse to be in a fight, Well, if I was you, Tom, I'd run those cows over into the Bad Lands an' lie out here awhile. We'd get the injuns of course; but there is bound to be some killin' first, unless I'm crazy. I've got to go in and get something to eat." He started to turn away, but Shelby halted him with a question.

"How long you been in the army, Pops?" "Twenty-two years." "And with the Sixth cavalry?" "Fifteen." "Did you ever know a sergeant named Calkins?" "Jeff Calkins; he was my first 'top' after I joined; he left the service 'bout ten years ago. There was a 'shootin' scrape or somethin' down at Barker. Sorter icky story, though I've forgotten just what it was all about now. Calkins got out of that right, but when his enlistment was up he quit; he didn't get on good with the men. Do you know whatever become of the ol' duffer?"

"He was buried here yesterday—killed himself; left a daughter 'bout nineteen—"

"Now, then," he called, "a couple of you unble those brutes and jump. They're bad starters." The broncos amply justified his prediction and the party went tearing down the main street, pursued by yells of enjoyment and cat-hoofs of derision. Shelby struggling with the reins in an endeavor to keep the maddened brutes off the sidewalks.

He stood there alone, staring down at the team of broncos and the heavily laden buckboard incomprehendingly. Yet slowly it all came back to him and his mind began to arouse from blank stupor. His attention was attracted by the approach of a horseman trotting steadily up the deserted street toward the hotel.

"Sure, Well, thunder, you're Shaunessy of the Sixth. What're you doing here?" "Thought I knew you, Tom, when I first came up the steps, but wasn't quite sure till I got a side view. Must be six years since you left us, ain't it?"

"No, out on the Cottonwood." "What—north? Say, old man, that ain't no horse to be in a fight, Well, if I was you, Tom, I'd run those cows over into the Bad Lands an' lie out here awhile. We'd get the injuns of course; but there is bound to be some the army, named Shaunessy. He'd been up in the Sioux reservation, watchin' 'em ghost-dance, and he says the bucks up there 'fraid to raise Ned before long, an' there ain't no troops 'nnowhere 'round sufficient to hold 'em, it's Ol' Sittin' Bull who is stirrin' 'em up."

"Not to Ponca—no; they wouldn't go in that direction. But they'd be mighty liable to come raidin' down the Cottonwood. That's what Shaunessy said; he told me I'd better run my stock over into the Bad Lands, and lie out for awhile, till the soldiers

"Somehow I Don't Just Like Him." got the devils rounded up again. I been thinkin' ever since I ought to tell you about it, so, if you thought best we could turn around an' take you back to Ponca."

"And then what would you do?" "Me? Why go on o' course an' take care o' the cattle. 'Tain't the first time I've seen Indians."

"Then I am going with you," she said firmly. "I am not the least afraid. I wonder if you have an extra rifle out there?"

"No, o' course you didn't. I never asked, but everybody thought you must be. What was the old man to you, anyhow? I reckon I got a right to know."

"No, o' course you didn't. I never asked, but everybody thought you must be. What was the old man to you, anyhow? I reckon I got a right to know."

Double Cane Bottom Chairs

Furniture Prices Great Reduced

We Have Reached the Floor

In our fight on the H. C. of L. We have gone up the last floor and invaded our Big Furniture Department with our pruned prices in this section fully conforming with present prices stock is complete and we can furnish your home from kitchen to parlor.

Cane Bottom Chairs $1.00

45 Pound All Cotton Mattress

Linoleum Bargains

$7.50 Springs For $4.50

DON'T DO IT

45 Pound All Cotton Mattress $1.50 Linoleum, Four Inlaid 120 Coil, Oil Tempered Springs for $1.50 Cane Bottom Chairs

Higginbotham Bros of Texas CAPITAL $1,500,000

st, unless I'm crazy. I've got and got something to eat. I tried to turn away, but Shelby with a question. long you been in the army, y-two years." "With the Sixth cavalry?" "a." "You ever know a sergeant dkins?" "he was my first 'top' joined; he left the service years ago. There was a scrape or somethin' down at Sorter ugly story, though I just what it was all about him got out o' that all right, his enlistment was up he didn't get on good with the you know whatever become duffer?" "I buried here yesterday—self; left a daughter 'bout

the army, named Shaunessy. He'd been up in the Sioux reservation, watchin' 'em ghost-dance and he says the bucks up there 're goin' to raise Ned before long, an' there ain't no troops anywhere around sufficient to hold 'em. It's O' Sittin' Bull who is stirrin' 'em up." "But surely they could never get down here?" "Not to Ponca—no; they wouldn't go in that direction. But they'd be mighty liable to come raidin' down the Cottonwood. That's what Shaunessy said; he told me I'd better run my stock over into the Bad Lands, and lie out for awhile, till the soldiers

"Somehow I Don't Just Like Him."

I he did! Jeff Calkins never; not before he left the show. I know because I th him nearly two years an' a lot about himself. He lady's man at all. 'Say, devil is goin' on here?' been a wedding." Shelby explain, but the outflowing his sentence in two, and I soldier, stepping back to the way, was instantly e, while the gang poured even, separating the two. The bridegroom found e more the center of fer- tulations and only escaped a passage down the steps is outfit waited for depar- e moments later she joined pained by her bodyguard, long duster which almost ground and a close-fitting down over her smooth hair, helped her into the seat board, joining her grimly ng up the reins in his finen," he called, "a couple those brutes and jump starters." as simply justified his pre- the party went tearing in street, pursued by yell- it and cat-hows of deris- struggling with the reins or to keep the maddened sidewalks. the steep ascent of the plunging animals to and by the time they ted the ridge and struck trail leading across the were willing enough to the swift trot they were to take on long journeys, ed his grasp on the leath- back in the seat, ven- gance at his companion. ll gripping the iron rail ut evidently felt no fear. ll, that bronco," said Shel- the necessity of speech his whip lash at the back- vil eyes was peering mall- vard, "worst horse I ever Kid back there seems onco ouster and I'll let uck when we get out to got some outlaws there."

her head and glanced gh the cloud of dust. ? One of your men?" ust hired him, down at is to be a mighty good ame is Macklin, but ev- him 'Kid.'" I don't just like him," y, but I have that feeling t the same." le no answer and they ce through the circling f the skyward and embay e to think of anything up conversation and in- us of the peculiar situa- they found themselves, t stole a surreptitious t her, but her eyes were ough in avoidance, gaze dull vista. To Shelby on her part, this half him seemed particularly was doubtless sorry al- voice; this drear expanse was more than she counter—she was dread- a approach to the Cot- had been a fool to even could ever satisfy her untings. Well, it was a turn back. He would and learn the truth. steadily forward, en- emulate some pleasant ee, his mind inevitably to that late conversa- ressy and the doubts it Ought he to permit exposed to a possible Was it not plainly explain fully the exact I then that other man- Old Calkins? Surely it to make that clear? ned up, clearing his e glanced about, dis- vey by his action. I it all is," she said, o speak, "and yet the ind loneliness has a ke this out on the Cot- exactly. It's lonely at is broken country, to rest the eyes on, ough you're goin' to be don't?" honesty. "I ng alone at all. I've close, so that won't different," he insisted eside, I heard some- in Ponca that makes no business bringin' t?" "Before we come away did friend o' mine in got the devils rounded up again. I been thinkin' ever since I ought to tell you about it, so, if you thought best we could turn around an' take you back to Ponca." "And then what would you do?" "Me? Why go on o' course an' take care o' the cattle. 'Tain't the first time I've seen Indians." "Then I am going with you," she said firmly. "I am not the least afraid. I wonder if you have an extra rifle on there?" "Sure," he said, grinning. "I sorter like that kind o' talk, little girl. Can you shoot?" "Yes," she said, her voice trembling slightly in spite of every effort at control. "I would rather not be left out here."

"All right; this is the path; don't be afraid. I won't let you stumble. Now, one step up; that's it." The unexpected mention of Calkins stirred Shelby to ask a further question. She was going on with him, that was evident, and the mystery between them must be cleared away. "What was your name?" he asked soberly. She glanced up into his face, surprised at the abrupt question. "My name? Why, don't you know?" "I never heard of it; seems sorter odd, maybe, but I never did." "It is Olga." "Olga—Olga what?" "Why, Shelby, I suppose." "No, I didn't mean that. Of course, it's Shelby now, but what was it before today? 'Twasn't Calkins."

The smile had deserted her lips and he eyed her very serious. "Just what do you mean, please? Have you heard something?" "Well, yes. This here soldier Shaunessy has been in the army a long while; he was fifteen years in the Sixth cavalry. Now I happened to learn, accidentally from McCarthy, that Old Calkins was once a sergeant in that outfit, so naturally I asked Shaunessy if he ever knew him." "And did he?" "Sure; they were bunkies once an' he said Jeff Calkins never was married an' didn't have no daughter." "Well, did I ever say I was his daughter?" "No, o' course you didn't. I never asked, but everybody thought you must be. What was the old man to you, anyhow? I reckon I got a right to know."

saw him very often. He was a man with iron-gray hair and mustache once I saw him in uniform. "An officer, likely." "I think so. I was at school and I am sure the lady principal him colonel. I never lived with but, always at some school, first and then another. I am sure I me and took me away. That is ally everything I know about it; then we've just moved around o place to place." "They fell into silence and rode thus for hours, seldom speaking, engrossed in their own thoughts, ward sundown they came into a rolling country, with patches of grass, and the trail wound in and among shallow depressions, yield- greater variety of scenery. Just fore, dark they toiled up over a ridge and from the summit looked some distance down the valley of Cottonwood. The trail ran slanting down the side of the bluff, zigzag here and there in search of easier sage, and it was necessary to descend slowly. Consequently it was an hour after dark when they finally drove to a small cabin surrounded by trees a hundred feet back from the street and the driver announced their arriv-

CHAPTER VI.

A Blow of Treachery. It was a desolate home-coming, the great stars overhead, the twinkling of distant water, the silence and blackness all about, and the dim outlines of the cabin barely visible amid the surrounding trees. The girl held her breath with lips pressed tight, staring around into the vague shadows as permitted Shelby to gently swing her between the wheels to the ground. Some way that was necessary to get a hundred feet back from the street and the driver announced their arriv-

"Is there no one here?" he asked, afraid to venture a step in the gloom. "It is terribly dark." "I'll remedy that in a minute," he said, pretending a cheerfulness he was far from feeling. "Hey there, Kid, stake out yer horse, and come here and hold these broncs until I light up inside. Don't move, Olga; there is a steep bank just beyond. I'll only be gone a minute." "But where is your header?" "Out with the cattle, probably; he doesn't sleep here, and had no idea when I would be back. Now hang on tight to these reles, Kid, and I'll be you presently. Would you rather e with me, Olga?" "Yes," she said, her voice trembling slightly in spite of every effort at control. "I would rather not be left out here."

"All right; this is the path; don't be afraid. I won't let you stumble. Now, one step up; that's it." The unexpected mention of Calkins stirred Shelby to ask a further question. She was going on with him, that was evident, and the mystery between them must be cleared away. "What was your name?" he asked soberly. She glanced up into his face, surprised at the abrupt question. "My name? Why, don't you know?" "I never heard of it; seems sorter odd, maybe, but I never did." "It is Olga." "Olga—Olga what?" "Why, Shelby, I suppose." "No, I didn't mean that. Of course, it's Shelby now, but what was it before today? 'Twasn't Calkins."

The smile had deserted her lips and he eyed her very serious. "Just what do you mean, please? Have you heard something?" "Well, yes. This here soldier Shaunessy has been in the army a long while; he was fifteen years in the Sixth cavalry. Now I happened to learn, accidentally from McCarthy, that Old Calkins was once a sergeant in that outfit, so naturally I asked Shaunessy if he ever knew him." "And did he?" "Sure; they were bunkies once an' he said Jeff Calkins never was married an' didn't have no daughter." "Well, did I ever say I was his daughter?" "No, o' course you didn't. I never asked, but everybody thought you must be. What was the old man to you, anyhow? I reckon I got a right to know."

"You certainly have, but I cannot tell you much. Frankly, I don't know. I could not explain even how I came into his care. That sounds strange, perhaps, but it is true. I wasn't much of a girl when he got me first and I've scarcely been out of his sight since. We asked him a thousand times, but he never would explain. Once he said it would come out all right after awhile. It seemed to anger him for me to ask questions, so, at last, I stopped." "That's mighty queer. Did he ever tell you what your real name was?" "Oh, yes; there wasn't any secret about that—it was Carlyn."

"Olga Carlyn," he repeated the words slowly. "Sorter Norwegian-sounding, ain't it? That story sounds rather funny to me." "My idea is he was hiding me from someone; trying to keep me from being found. I decided that was why he moved about from place to place and always lived in such poverty and alone. I believe he had money or could always get some when needed. Then he seemed to be afraid all the time and watching for something to happen." "And you don't have no recollection whatever of either your father or mother?" "Not of my mother; she may have died when I was a baby, but I can remember my father, although I never Struck down from behind. (TO BE CONTINUED.) Clear Field. "Ah, here is a letter from the old folks." "What does it say?" "Come home your tailor is d... PARSON'S WEEKLY.

Double Cane Bottom Chairs $1.00

Furniture Prices Greatly Reduced

We Have Reached the Top Floor

In our fight on the H. C. of L. We have gone up the last flight of stairway and invaded our Big Furniture Department with our pruning knife, leaving prices in this section fully conforming with present prices of cotton. Our stock is complete and we can furnish your home from kitchen to parlor. Come quick before our stock is broken.

Cane Bottom Chairs $1.00 You'll find our stock of chairs and rockers very complete, ranging from the plainest up to the most luxurious rockers. As an example of value giving, we call your special attention to our heavy, well made, double cane bottom kitchen chairs. Our September price on these chairs was $1.50. Present price $1.00.

45 Pound All Cotton Mattresses Some of you have been paying $15.00 for this 45 pound all cotton mattress, and it was well worth the money based on 40c cotton; but we are now making the price conform with 20c cotton, hence the half price. Now this is a good mattress, covered with extra good ticking, roll edge, full length, full width, and it is yours at nearly half price, $8.50.

Linoleum Bargains We can supply you with floor coverings ranging from the beautiful Art Square down to the kitchen Linoleums. As a special inducement for an early visit, we are offering several rolls of splendid linoleums, not imitations, in various popular patterns at an extra special price. These patterns are well worth former prices of $1.25, $1.35 and $1.50 per yard, but you now have the unusual opportunity of choice of patterns at per pard $1.00.

$7.50 Springs For $4.50 This is a close woven spring, made of best oil tempered spring steel and contains 120 uniform coils, making a very luxurious spring. We have had no kicks at former price of $7.50, but now they are yours for $4.50.

DON'T DO IT Don't forget that our big fall dry goods sale is still on. We are supplying the needs of many hundreds of our friends throughout the county at prices entirely satisfactory to them. We'll be glad to have your business, too, based on our much appreciated co-operative plan. Come and see-

- 45 Pound All Cotton Mattress $8.50
- $1.50 Linoleum, Four Inlaid 1.15
- 120 Coil, Oil Tempered Springs for 4.50
- $1.50 Cane Bottom Chairs 1.00

Higginbotham Bros. & Co. of Texas CAPITAL $1,500,000.00

Review and Farm News $2.25.

Claude Harrell, and Broad Bond, made a trip to Brownwood last Saturday, Broad staying for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Westerman, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones made a trip to Brownwood last Friday.

Jim Allison of Sweetwater is the guest of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Causey. Jim is now in the service of motor manufacturing concern at Sweetwater.

Good nice juicy hamburgers at R. E. Wilsons.

The big folks, all young of course played "Spooks" at the home of Mrs. T. W. Anderson's on last Monday night. The younger bunch also took in things.

Do not forget to attend the big sale at the Model Store.

Don't forget R. E. Wilson when you are thirsty.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland, of Ranger were here on Sunday the Guests of L. L. Camp and family. The two families were friends in West Virginia.

S. E. Settle and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Clyde, the guests of Mrs. Settle's folks.

P. Smith and L. C. Duncan attended the 5th Sunday meeting at Clyde Saturday and Sunday, as delegates from the Cross Plains church.

Mrs. Jim McGowen, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, is reported some better.

Dr and Mrs. Q. A. Griffin of Dumas, are visiting old-time friends at Cottonwood, where they formerly lived for years. Dr. Griffin has recently sold his lands, he a few years ago bought, on the plains, doubling on his investment.

State Highway Engineer Welbourne last week went over the various routes between Dublin and De Leon with a view of recommending the best one for a permanent highway.

Porter Davis of Cross Cut was in town on Monday en route to Sipe Springs, where he spent a few months this year drilling in the shallow field. He is going to take up drilling for a while.

M. E. Waketield returned on last Friday from a trip to Granbury and other points in that section, where he went to see after some farm lands he has bought. He says that a very light crop of cotton is being harvested on his lands.

L. R. Carroll, who during the boom leased the building occupied for some time by Beeler's mill, has reopened this mill at the same location, and is ready to grind corn, wheat, etc., for the public, doing regular grist mill work.

Chester E. Green, assistant pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Sacramento, Calif., writes that he is getting the Review every week and that it is like a letter from home.

The Rev. Robert Williamson, M. E. pastor at Proctor, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williamson.

Singer Sewing Machines.

Cash or easy payments. Old machines taken in, Accordion plaiting. Prompt attention to mail orders. Chas. M. Logan, Singer Agt.

A BIG SALE ON AT THE RACKETSTORE

Ladies' and Children's Hats at One-half Price.

25 per cent off on all Shoes.

All Bolt Goods, Gingham, Outings, Cotton Flannel Shirting and Percales, at One-half Price.

50 per cent off on all Gingham Dresses, Ladies' and Children's.

Everything going at a big saving for the person shopping in Cross Plains the next 30 days.

And don't fail to visit this Low Price Store.

THE RACKET STORE G. W. CUNNINGHAM

Made-To-Measure Suits AT PRE-WAR PRICES

Effective at once we can sell you a suit made to measure by the celebrated Lamm Tailoring Co., at greatly reduced prices—equaling those before the war.

- Sixty-nine samples at $50.00 and less, all three piece suits.
- Nineteen at $35.00
- Eight at 37.50
- Thirteen at 42.50
- Twenty-four at 50.00

All other suits cut in proportion This is the first high-class tailoring company to offer big reductions to the trade, giving you an unusual opportunity to dress up for the winter with suits of the best material and made by the best tailors in the land. Quality, fit, everything Guaranteed.

The City Tailor Shop A. D. McDONOUGH, Prop.

Amicable Life Insur. Co. Capital & Surplus, over $1,500,000

We Are Congratulating Ourselves

On the very enthusiastic manner in which you responded to the announcement of our fall merchandising campaign. It is our very great pleasure to serve so many of our good friends and know that they are pleased. It has always been our desire and pleasure to co-operate with and assist the farmer when possible. We acknowledge our complete dependence on the farmers of this section. We are only acting as necessary distributors of supplies to you and of your produce to the consumer.

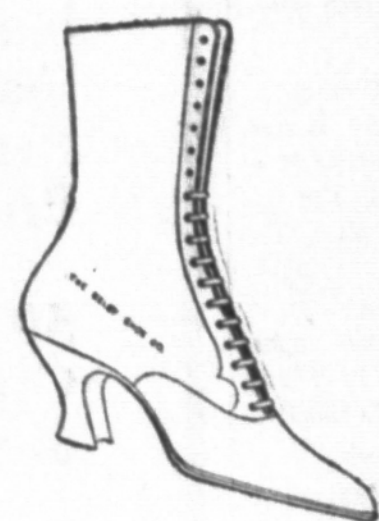

Our interests are identical and necessarily mutual. We deplore such calamity as has happened to you this year, in short crops and short prices and likewise rejoice with you in your prosperity. It is our pleasure to give you real help now. Just keep in mind, always, that regardless of extravagant claims of others that the time tried and reliable house of Higginbotham stands ever ready, willing and waiting to protect your interests under the most severe adverse conditions. Give us your business.

Staple Dry Goods Department

It must be interesting to you to sit down and compare prices made in various advertisements in circulars and papers. "The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof." By comparison you'll find that we are serving the only genuine unadulterated pudding now being served in Cross Plains. The closer you compare prices the better it suits us. Read!

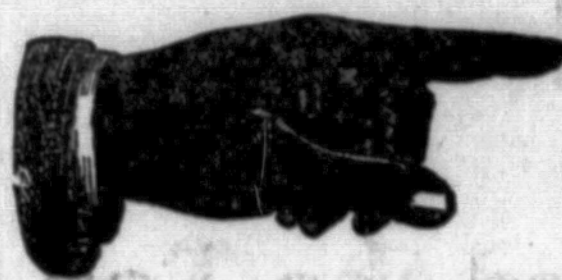

- ACA Feather Tick 60c
- Pepperel 10-4 blchd sheeting yd..... 85c
- Pepperel 9-4 blchd sheeting yd..... 80c
- Pepperel 8-4 unbleached, yd..... 80c
- Good grade dress gingham, in plaids stripes and checks, best bookfold gingham, good smooth finish, 40c grade..... 25c
- 35c grade now..... 20c
- Best Red Seal and Toile du Nord gingham, 50c grade..... 30c
- 36 in best grade percale, in light and dark patterns, reduced from 50c to 25c
- LL sheeting domestic, the best brown domestic on the market, 25c grade at..... 25c
- Good size Turkish bath towels, sold at $1.00 the pair, now..... 70c

Extra large Turkish bath towels, reduced to..... $1.30

$5.00
Shoes
For
$2.95

Our job shoe counters are still attracting lots of attention. You'll be surprised, too, at the many pairs of splendid shoes on these counters at $2.95. Many families are supplying their entire needs from these counters. Former prices $3.50 to $5.00, nothing under $3.50, size 2 1-2 to 7, choice 25-95

Everything Cut in Shoes Except Quality

Remember that every shoe in this house has been greatly reduced, including New Fall Julian Kokenge for women, Packards for men and Billikens for boys and girls.

- $6.50 men's shoes..... $5.20
- 4.00 men's work shoes..... 3.20
- 7.50 men's work shoes..... 6.00
- 17.00 men's Nunn Bush..... 13.60
- 7.50 new fall fine shoes..... 6.00
- 16.50 women's new fall Kokenge 13.20
- 12.50 " " 10.00
- 10.00 women's fall style fine shoes 8.00
- 7.50 " " 6.00

GROCERIES

Pre-War grocery prices now prevails on many staple grocery items.

Many staple articles at same price as when cotton was worth 7c.

We want your grocery business and will get it if you have the least regard for your hard earned money.

Higginbotham Bros. & Company

CROSS PLAINS

DO YOU INVEST
—or just Speculate?

WHEN you buy a tire it is almost like buying a watch. You have to lay out a substantial sum of money.

The tire you buy has to justify your expenditure by quality and performance.

It must pay back your principal, with interest.

Lee Fabric Tires do this.

Because they give you long, sure service Lee Fabric Tires prove a good investment—guaranteed a first mortgage on tire satisfaction.

You'll find certainty of service in Lee Fabric Tires—and I'm always here to see that you get it.

The Lee Tire Distributor

C. C. HARRELL GARAGE
CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS

LEE Tires

Smile at Miles

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912:

of The Review, published weekly at Cross Plains, Texas, for Octob., 1920 State of Texas, County of Callahan, ss. Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared L. P. Henslee, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor and owner of The Review, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing-editor and business managers are:
Editor, L. P. Henslee, Cross Plains, Texas.
2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.) L. P. Henslee, Cross Plains, Texas.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state.) None.

L. P. HENSLEE, Editor.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 23rd day of October, 1920.
TAYLOR BOND,
(My commission expires June 1, 1921)

FREE AIR SERVICE CAR

HARRELL MOTOR CO.

LOCATED JUST WEST OF POST OFFICE

Carry in stock at all times:

All kinds of oils & gasoline:
Lee Casings & Howe Tubes.
Full Line Auto Accessories.
GENUINE FORD PARTS.

We Do All Kinds of Auto Repairing.

C. C. HARRELL, PROP.
CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS.

THE FARMERS GIN

Has Cleaner in Operation

We have installed our Murray standard cleaner which enables us to put out a much cleaner and better sample of cotton. Come and give us a trial and you know you'll be satisfied. We turn out as good a sample as you can get.

Our Gin Makes a UNIFORMLY GOOD Turn-out.
Located in south Cross Plains.

J. H. McDONALD, Mgr.

Tan-No-More
The Skin Beautifier.
It stands in a class by itself
Insures a protection for the most delicate skin and a faultless complexion. Sample for the asking. The smallest is authorized to order if Tan-No-More fails to give satisfaction.
BAKER LABORATORIES
Memphis, Tenn.

Don't Neglect Your Skin
A few days' treatment with CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will make your skin more clear than at any other time.
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS
A few days' treatment with CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will make your skin more clear than at any other time.
When Friendship Ceased.
One day I was walking with a relative acquaintance of mine. In fact, acquaintance was so recent that I had not even known my new acquaintance's parents by sight. As we were strolling along I noticed a man across the street who I thought looked funny. I drew my acquaintance's attention to him by saying: "Look at that fellow looking over across the street." My acquaintance said: "That's father."—Chicago Tribune.

FOR WOMEN
Constipation is women's worst enemy. DR. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS regulate and cleanse. The great remedy for women's special ills.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

Acid Stomach for 10 Years
NOW A DIFFERENT WOMAN
Earnestly Praises Antonio

To abort a cold and prevent complications take

Calotabs

The purified and refined calomel tablets that are nauseous, safe and sure.

Medical virtues retained and improved. Sold only in sealed packages. Price 35c.

Catarrh
A local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. CATARRH MEDICINE is a Blood Purifier. By cleansing and building up the System, CATARRH MEDICINE restores conditions and allows Nature to work. Circulars free. Caney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Poser for Mother.
Subject of the Sunday school was the golden rule, so during the week when little Anna was and her mother had to use real hard and put her in a perfect, she asked Anna what she thought of it. Anna replied: "Do into others as you want to be into you. You don't want to be into you, do you?"

THE BEST YET.
I have never used Vacher-Balm, but know how quickly and pleasantly it relieves the head, or soreness can be relieved by this harmony.

Light Plant—Perhaps.
The plant which is somewhat common shows a remarkable luminous quality. It can be seen for a distance of several miles. Scattered near one of these plants it is possible to see the plant and to perform other things which require a light.

Remarkable Wild Flower.
The plant grows a wild flower which has a floral image of a human face. The breast is green, the nose, the head and back all white.

Baby Coughs
A remedy with a cough that cures. Price in each box. Ask your druggist for it.

MURINE
Night Morning
Keep Your Eyes Clear—Clear and Healthy
W. N. U., DALLAS, NO. 45-1920.

