Bond Assumption Election Set For February 20

DATE POSTPONED AS ISSUE CHANGED SAYS LEO VARNER

School Superintendent Sets Out Main Phases Of Vote In Statement For Review

The Schoolhouse Bond Assumption election which was previously scheduled to be held on February 9th has been reset to February 20th, the third Saturday in this month.

This election will in no way effect the amount of school taxes that property owners in this district have been paying. The constitutional limit on the amount of taxes that may be levied against a school district is one dollar ($1.00), on the one hundred dollars valuation and this cannot be changed by the people of the district in any way.

The proposition in the first order and notice of the election providing for a revoting of the one dollar tax on the school district was found to be unnecessary and has been omitted on the new order and notice. Local school officials, after conferring with the authorities in Austin, found that since a one dollar tax had already been voted on the entire district as it now exists, no end would be gained in revoting the levy.

The purpose of the bond assumption election is to prepare the school district for a refunding issue which would reduce our interest rate on outstanding bonded indebtedness from five percent (5%) to three and one-half percent (3 1/2%). The amount saved on the difference in interest will be two hundred dollars ($200.) per year without any cost to the school or taxpayers.

This will in no way effect the amount of taxes that you pay nor will it effect the assessed valuation of your property. It is, in fact, merely a redistribution of the dollar tax that you are already paying. It does mean that the school is attempting to put itself on a more substantial financial basis and for this reason the proposition merits your earnest consideration.

Abilene Defeats Cross Plains 29 21 Friday Night

For a change Abilene won with comparative ease from the Cross Plains Buffaloes at the Eagle gym Friday night. The score was 29-21. After trailing through much of the first quarter and finding some difficulty in the second, the Eagles picked up steam toward halftime and won about as they pleased in the last two periods.

Whatever chances the Buffs may have had were just as they shot from every conceivable angle in the last half. None of their chance tries landed. They either went out of bounds or Abilene took them off the backboard.

It was the third victory for the Eagles over the Buffs. The first two were hard-earned, in sharp contrast to the latest.

BURKETT TEAMS LOSE HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Cross Plains raised $29.75 for the nationwide fight on infantile paralysis as a result of a double headed basketball game staged in the high school gymnasium here Saturday night. Cross Plains boys and girls teams won decisive victories over the Burkett squads.

Texans Asked To Produce 1,600 Eggs And 1,000 Gallons Of Milk Every Minute Nation Is At War

Eggs sufficient to completely cover a highway across Texas from El Paso to Texarkana and milk enough to float the Navy are only part of the production goals of Texas farmers for 1943, according to Robert A. Mainre, director of Vocational Agriculture of the State Department of Education.

Mainre, who is also director of Rural War Production Training, pointed out that Texas farmers are being called on to produce 1,600 gallons of milk, 1,000 eggs and 1,000 pounds of pork per minute. These enormous demands on the ability of Texas farmers to produce are made, notwithstanding the rationing of farm machinery and the scarcity of farm labor.

"Evidence that the farmers of Texas are making ready for their momentous task is found in the attendance of more than 21,000 farmers at the Rural War Production Training courses operating through the Vocational Agriculture

FUNCTION HELD AT LOCAL CHURCH ON TUESDAY EVENING

76 Men From All Sections Of County Present; American Legion Arranges Function

A banquet for Callahan county boys who are soon to enter military service was held here Tuesday night in the basement of the Presbyterian church. 76 men, from all sections of the county were in attendance.

Principal speaker for the occasion was Dr. Thomas Taylor, president of Howard Payne College at Brownwood.

The banquet was in keeping with the established custom of the Callahan county American Legion Post in feting all boys with a farewell party before they depart for the service. Expense of the function was borne, however, by the Chamber of Commerce Luncheon Club here.

The meeting was opened by Leo Varnar, president of the luncheon club, and then turned over to County Judge B. H. Freeland, commander of the legion post. Judge Freeland introduced all of the boys who are to soon enter service. Several of the group made short, but impressive talks. Others heard from during the course of the program included officers and members of the legion post, B. L. Russell, member of the Callahan county draft board in 1918; S. C. Barr, member of the present draft board; S. F. Bond, Clevie Calaway, Sgt. Leonard Ray and others.

What most everyone agreed to be the meat of the program was an address delivered by Dr. Thomas Taylor, president of Howard Payne College at Brownwood. The well known educator expressed an optimistic note in predicting what could be expected of the post-war American. Delivered in a humorous vein his talk kept the audience on the edge of their seats for almost an hour. Only occasionally did he inject serious thought into his discourse but they were so perfectly timed and so capably directed that their meanings were greatly enhanced.

Early Day Citizen Laid To Final Rest In Bluffdale Friday

Final rites for Mrs. S. C. Baldwin, 88, of Cross Plains, were held at three o'clock Friday afternoon, January 29, at the First Baptist Church in Bluffdale, with Rev. M. E. Davis, Dean and Bible instructor of Howard Payne College at Brownwood, and a life long friend of the deceased, officiating.

Mrs. Baldwin succumbed at her home in Cross Plains at 1:30 a.m. Thursday morning, January 28, after an illness of only four or five days. She had made her home in Cross Plains for the past ten years. Born at Clarksville, Texas, September 26, 1854, Mrs. Martha E. Baldwin was at the time of her death 88 years, four months and two days of age. She came to Erath county in 1868 and was married in 1877 to S. C. Baldwin who preceded her in death thirty four years, having died on August 5, 1908. To this union were born eight children, six of whom survive. They are: W. B. Baldwin, Cross Plains; Mrs. Foy Johnson, Bluffdale; Mrs. Myrtle McElroy, Mrs. Eva Sellers, Lowell Baldwin and Curtis Baldwin, all of Fort Worth. She is also survived by eleven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Mrs. Baldwin professed her faith in God and joined the Baptist church in 1888, with Rev. Johnny Lockhart pioneer Baptist preacher conducting the services, and was a devoted worker as long as her health permitted.

Funeral services: Cuts Yarbrough, Hunter Watson, Ralph Glenn, Preston Fallin, Johnny Jenkins and Coy Oakes, life-long friends of the Baldwin family.

Interment was made in the Glenn Cemetery near Bluffdale, with Truett Funeral Home of Stephenville in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pierce and daughter, Adell and Frances and Kathryn Anderson were Cisco visitors Wednesday afternoon.

H. D. CLUB WOMEN TAKE INVENTORY OF '42 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Home Demonstration Club women took inventory of past accomplishments at a recent meeting of Calhoun County Home Demonstration Council. In a report given by Mrs. Carl Cook of Midway, Chairman of the Education Committee of Council, work of the 14 home demonstration clubs was summarized.

Emphasis was placed on home food production and conservation during 1942, 90 per cent of the women having home gardens. Incomplete reports showed a total of 25,754 quarts of food canned. Checking pressure cookers, cooking with sugar substitutes, dehydrating foods and canning and preserving food according to a food preservation budget served as the basis of work in food preservation throughout the year. 103 Women reported definitely improving their family's diet.

In home improvement homes were remodeled, sewage systems installed, storage space in form of bedroom and linen closets added, kitchen equipment and arrangement improved, and arrangement of other rooms made more convenient and attractive. Sanitary toilets were installed and doors and windows screened. A total of 137 women reported having made these improvements through home demonstration work. 31 others reported having improved yards in attractiveness and convenience in care.

Red Cross sewing was an outstanding activity for some of the clubs during the winter months. A total of 682 garments were made and 99 knitted by clubs during 1942. Quilts were pieced for the Red Cross and one club sent a box of shoes to the Crowell tornado areas during the spring.

Other war work included buying war stamps and bonds, assisting in the waste paper, scrap metal, rubber salvage campaign and initiating the fat salvage campaign in Calhoun County. They cooperated in the Victory Book Campaign and aided in cancer control work. Numerous articles for patients' use were sent to the base hospital at Camp Bowie with 10 clubs participating in this activity.

The Home Demonstration Council, consisting of the president and elected delegate from each club and the council officers and chairmen of standing committees, was active in Calhoun County throughout the year. Serving as a means of assisting the home demonstration agent with carrying on work in the county, the council held 9 meetings during the year sponsoring war-time activities for the women in each of the clubs.

Farm women have shown that they are capable of adequately feeding, clothing, housing and training their families in addition to serving as farm hands during a time when hired labor is scarce.

HOW TO GET THAT CREAM FOR WHIPPING Although OPA has banned whipping cream for the duration, there are some fairly satisfactory substitutes, according to the Department of Agriculture.

"If I wanted whipping cream very badly and I couldn't get genuine whipping cream, I would use the top cream of a regular bottle of milk," said C. J. Babcock, milk specialist of the bureau of dairy industry. "It contains about 25 per cent butter fat. Whipping cream has 30 per cent.

"Let it stand 48 hours, and whip it in a temperature not more than 40 degrees F. in a bowl packed in ice, if possible.

OPA has limited the sale of cream to that containing not more than 19 per cent butterfat.

From the bureau of home economics it is learned that the California extension service of the Department of Agriculture has advanced a method for whipping evaporated milk.

Coffee cream is too thin to whip into more than a froth. It may be stiffened, however, by adding a little evaporated milk to give it body, and viscogen, a combination of lime, water and sugar, which increases the whipping quality.

Powdered milk on the market will not whip; some types of powdered cream will, but there is not much to be had because it has been shipped overseas.

Another group of hints on whipping comes from the bureau of dairy industry. Raw cream whips better than pasteurized cream. Homogenized cream has practically no whipping quality. Age and low temperature improve the whipping quality of all cream.

Every man has his price—and he ought to spend it for war bonds!

I Give You Texas

If you heard a throat growled in your ear as you stood at a bar and turned to find yourself facing your worst enemy with a knife in his hand, what would you do?

A friend of mine tells of an uncle of his in frontier days who found himself in this situation.

"In going to kill you," his foe said, through clenched teeth. "The man's face didn't change as he remarked, in a casual tone, "All right."

Then he added, "At least, give me the privilege of examining the knife that is going to kill me. And he coolly extended his hand, took the weapon from his amazed enemy.

At one time, I was probably the youngest traveling salesman in the world. At the age of ten, I sold portable adding machines.

My father really was the agent but I went along. We would walk into a store, say in D'Ilanis, Sabinal or Honda — and he'd tell about the device, then I'd climb up on a high stool and demonstrate.

On one occasion, the merchant already owned a Burroughs — a big machine — but just to show any way, what our "vest pocket" contrivance would do, I sat at the counter and combed with the cashier. The storekeeper called off a long flock of numbers and, while the cashier punched the keys and pulled a lever, I simply slipped little chains with a pencil-shaped stick and when "Total" was called, the amount was right there in front of me whereas my rival had to pull the near the heart. Those near the heart are round and compact and considered more desirable. They spoil quickly and should not be kept long. Sweetbreads should be plunged into cold water (1 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon vinegar to 1 qt. water) for 20 minutes. Then broil them, dip in egg and cracker crumbs and fry, or cut into small pieces and heat in white sauce.

Calf's and lamb's hearts are more tender than those from beef or veal of the heart. Since they cook long and slowly with some liquid added. They must be boiled or steamed and used in combination with other foods.

Here are some of the suggestions that may help the homemaker with preparation.

Calf and lamb tongues are most desirable but tongue of older animals may also be used. Scrub the tongue and simmer it until tender. Remove the skin and trim the thick or root end. Then finish by baking or serve as it is with highly seasoned sauce such as the Spanish sauce.

Calf brains are more desirable but others may be used. Soak in cold salted water for 30 minutes. Remove and cover with fresh water and simmer for 15 minutes. Remove fiber and outer membrane. Then brains may be creamed, breaded with white sauce and bread crumbs, scrambled with eggs or used in other ways.

Small organs, or the variety which are not included in the share which we are asked to limit our eating, according to Marjorie Brown, County Home Demonstration Agent. We can eat all the liver, sweetbreads, heart, tongue, brains we can get without counting them in the two and one half per week for each adult and one and one half for each child 6 to 12 years old.

Small organs are very high in food value, supplying more minerals and vitamins as a rule, than other cuts. They can be very tender and should be included in the diet. Here are some of the suggestions that may help the homemaker with preparation.

Liver: Calf's liver is often considered a choice in tenderness and flavor. Lamb's is equally as good. Liver is good and even beef liver is acceptable if properly prepared. Calf and beef liver requires special preparation but lamb and pig livers are usually scalded to improve the flavor; Cook at moderate temperature and no longening necessary. Liver may be chopped up in casserole with onion sauce, stuffed with bread and prepared like veal or fried.

Brains: Calf brains are more desirable but others may be used. Soak in cold salted water for 30 minutes. Remove and cover with fresh water and simmer for 15 minutes. Remove fiber and outer membrane. Then brains may be creamed, breaded (with white sauce and bread-crumbs), scrambled with eggs or used in other ways.

Heart: Calf's and lamb's hearts are more tender than those from beef or veal off the heart. Since they are cooked long and slowly with some liquid added. They must be boiled or stuffed with bread stuffing and baked. Boiled heart may also be chopped and used in combination with other foods.

Tongue: Calf and lamb tongues are most desirable but tongue of older animals may also be used. Scrub the tongue and simmer it until tender. Remove the skin and trim the thick or root end. Then finish by baking or serve as it is with highly seasoned sauce such as the Spanish sauce.

Calves: Calves are very high in food value, supplying more minerals and vitamins as a rule, than other cuts. They can be very tender and should be included in the diet. Here are some of the suggestions that may help the homemaker with preparation.

Local H. D. Club Meets Friday In Westernman Home

By Mrs. Merrel Burkett

"With so many ways to substitute and extend meat dishes, two and one-half pounds or less per week, per person should be plenty for anyone," stated Miss Marjorie Brown, county home demonstration agent, in a regular meeting of the Cross Plains Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. L. W. Westernman, Friday afternoon, January 29.

Eggs, milk, cheese, beans and peas are some of the substitutes mentioned at the club meeting. An American Chop Sney was given for extenders and vegetables, macaroni noodles stuffing will make meat go further. A savory bean loaf with tomato sauce was given in demonstration.

After Miss Brown gave several recipes, she called on the club members for their favorite recipe. Mrs. Dunlap gave a recipe for Spanish rice; Mrs. Jim Barr hamburger steak and Mrs. Ida Graves a recipe for rice patties.

"Each person should set aside a corner or small portion of their garden for raising herbs. Most of our herbs come from China or foreign countries, such as sage thyme, cummin seed, and they can be raised in a small place here," stated Miss Brown.

During the recreation period, Mrs. L. L. Howell gave an imitation of the radio program, "Mirandy." Mrs. Westernman read a poem on the damage that can be done by fault finding.

Refreshments were served to the following members and guests in attendance: Mrs. Ida Graves, Mrs. J. W. Dunlap, Mrs. Roy Hayes, Mrs. Jim Barr, Mrs. L. L. Howser, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. L. H. Hall, Mrs. Jeff Clark, Mrs. A. W. Wright, Mrs. Kate Davidson, Mrs. Charlie Taylor, Miss Marjorie Brown and the hostess, Mrs. L. W. Westernman.

The club met for a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. L. L. Howser on Wednesday, February third.

The next regular meeting of the club will be in the home of Mrs. Grady Whitehorn on Wednesday, February 10.

 BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS *****

This Sunday is the beginning of my sixth year as pastor of the Baptist Church in Cross Plains. We have accomplished a great many things during the past six years, however, there is one thing that we must correct and that is the indifference of the people of the church toward the church.

We want to urge that all people attend church services while in good health and while they are able to help others, rather than waiting until there is sickness or death among members. Come to church services now.

We had a good congregation last Sunday and hope to have a much larger crowd this Sunday. Somehow or other, you manage to meet all other obligations on time, so why can't you be at Sunday School and church on time? Try to be in your place Sunday morning by 10:00 o'clock.

The finances of the church have been excellent for the past six months. I am praying and asking all members to unite with me and help make this the most outstanding year of my pastorate. Remember the Church schedule, Sunday school 10:00 a.m. Preaching at 11:00 a.m. Training Union at 7:00 p.m. and preaching at 8:00 p.m.

Cordially yours, C. E. POE, Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ray Cox, of Okra, visited relatives and friends here the past week end.

Mrs. Electra Morton and daughter, of Coleman, visited relatives and friends in Cross Plains Sunday afternoon.
