Moisture Total Continues To Grow; Warm Dry Weather Needed

It looks like it can rain just anytime now. Our local weather man shows that here in town we received 1.03 moisture on the 25th and .06 on the 28th. This brings our total for the month of May to 7.19 and the total for the year so far to 17.68 which is more than we received for the whole year of 1956.

J. C. Ashcraft reports .90 on the 25th for Goldston and this office was unable to contact Mrs. M. W. Hatley due to the phone line being out of order, so we do not have a report from her at this time.

Our temperature recorded for the month looks like this: Highest maximum on the 15th—83 degrees; lowest maximum on the 4th—82 degrees; highest minimum on the 15th—39 degrees, and the lowest minimum was on the 5th—40 degrees.

High School Students Receive Special Awards

Five Clarendon High School students, three of them seniors, were honored with special awards at the Commencement Exercises last Thursday night. The seniors were Margaret Cushing, Glenda Borden and Doyce Graham. The other two were Richard Vallance, a junior and Joan Bennett, a sophomore.

Miss Cushing received the Knorrp Cup Award which is in recognition of her outstanding contribution to Clarendon High School during her four years in high school. The award is based on scholarship, general attitude toward school, all-around citizenship, leadership and extra-curricular activities participated in during her high school career. Margaret finished with a four-year average of 95. She was editor of the school annual this year and was a member of the staff both her sophomore and junior years. She was also on the newspaper staff this year and was secretary of the senior class. She was a member of the F.H.A. organization all four years.

The American Legion Awards went to Doyce Graham and Glenda Borden. This selection was made by a committee from the American Legion and included the things listed above with the addition of athletics. Doyce had a four year average of 88.3. He played football, basketball, track and volleyball all four years in high school and was an outstanding member of the F.F.A. organization. Glenda finished with an 88.1 four-year average. She participated in basketball, softball, and was a very active member of F.H.A.

The other special awards were the Fighting Heart Award and the Best Girl Athlete award. These awards, along with the Knorrp Cup Award, were presented by Mr. Walter B. Knorrp, secretary of the school board. The Fighting Heart Award went to Richard Vallance. The selection was made by the coaches along with Mr. Knorrp. It is given in recognition of the boy who seemingly has put forth the most effort for the team. It also includes general attitude, citizenship, leadership, and scholarship. The big award, which will have Richard's name engraved upon it, will remain at the school and Richard received a gold key to keep.

The Best Girl Athlete award, which also takes in the things mentioned in the Fighting Heart Award, went to Miss Joan Bennett. A large trophy will remain at the school with Joan receiving a smaller trophy to keep. Joan, while only a sophomore, has been an outstanding member of the basketball team the past two years. It is not meant to leave any kind of an impression that Clarendon High School has only five outstanding students. These selections were very difficult to make and several other students were given serious consideration for each award, but these students, in the opinion of the selecting committees, were the most outstanding.

So The People May Know!

There seems to be quite a bit of uneasiness among the citizenship of Clarendon about the condition of our dams. I wish to state that we have inspected every dam from one end to the other and found they are all in tip-top shape. Two of the dams did need a little work and we have done that. In my opinion there is absolutely no need for uneasiness. We shall be glad for anyone who is interested to go out and make their own inspection.

The Ground Observer Corps which is eligible to draw equipment from the Texas Surplus Property Agency, which is Government Surplus, has drawn a number of items for Civil Defense and Disaster use. "We feel that we are able to do a better job in time of an emergency with the equipment we have received. There was just one thing that was misunderstood in getting this surplus property and it was that the GOC was told that there would not be a charge on this property of any kind. I know that this was told me in good faith and the Sgt's not knowing the complete details himself," stated Basil Smith, Post Supervisor. "We were told that the Schools and Medical Institutions had to have to pay handling charges which are on each item but that any civil defense organization could draw the same with no charge at all. A bill was received Tuesday from this Agency on the following equipment for handling: Cots, mattresses, blankets, sleeping bags, rescue tools, food lights, stretcher, office table, desks, chairs, rope, lounge for post, helmets, generator for power, filing cabinets, tarps, and pup tents. The total Government acquisition cost for all the property we received is $5377.12 but the charge to us was only a percent of this in which the Chamber of Commerce took up the tab and volunteered to pay this bill for us. The GOC wishes to thank the Chamber of Commerce for this wonderful thing they have done for us and the wonderful things they have been doing for us in the past and for the community. We also want to thank Edd Moorring for letting us take the County truck over to Lubbock to pick up this equipment. We have not forgotten Mike McCully either for what he has done to help us. Thank you, Mike for everything. We would like to say that if the Chamber of Commerce can use us, please call on us at any time," Mr. Smith concluded.

The above property is to be used only for emergency except the chairs, desks, and such that goes in the Post. When the bedding or anything that is used for emergency goes out, it must be returned to the GOC and will be put back in storage and be ready for the next emergency. This property can not be sold, leased, or given away and we have to keep a record of it. Smith said. In closing Mr. Smith said, "let me say thanks again to the Chamber of Commerce from the bottom of our hearts."

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES By May L. Prewitt

This week we have a helpful and attractive book from "Brown's House of Books" that is entitled "Our National Parks and Monuments." This is by Devereux Butler, and contributed by 1926 Book Club in memory of Mr. Frank Phelan. There is a wonderful addition being made to the Library as a memorial to Mr. Phelan—this is a new set of "World Books." We have needed and wished for these since the establishment of a Library. Our present World Books are 1922 editions. The new ones will arrive, probably the first of next week. Several memorial gifts of money made it possible to acquire this, and the family requested the fund be used in this way. The patrons will greatly appreciate this gift. At present we have a complete Funk & Wagnel's set of encyclopedias that was given us a few years ago. It has been used extensively and filled a required necessity. A junior member of the Library gave us six copies of Caroline Keene editions that will be useful in replacement. The Handbook for Small Libraries was received this week and while the state goes to considerable expense to put out these Handbooks they would think it impossible to maintain books and magazines on our income of about $200.00 per year for expenditures. Then too, they advocate only reference, science, etc. for teenagers.

while our little people enjoy "Bobby Twins" and the girls and boys read teenage mysteries, Lone Ranger, Hardy Boys, etc. You cannot "persuade" these children to read the books they don't enjoy. I read "The Little Colonial" series, "Elsie Densmore" and others discarded now, or suggested for discard. At present we have quite a few children and teenage patrons. Summer is our busiest time of the year, and they read all these old sets of series that are suggested for discard.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE SOUTH HAS RISEN

The saying, "Save your Confederate money, the South will rise again," came true last week insofar as the South rising, but I am afraid that very little effect will be in order as far as the value of Confederate money is concerned. The incident was occasioned by the remarks of the President of the United States and a British Field Marshall who were visiting the Gettysburg battlefield and reliving the battle from a military standpoint. The remarks of these two gentlemen created a violent reaction in this area almost immediately when they appeared in the newspapers. Most of the reaction was critical of both the President and Viscount Montgomery. The majority of the people here seemed to feel that the remarks were inadvisable if not inappropriate. Whatever happened at Gettysburg did not change the hero status of General Robert E. Lee insofar as the South is concerned, nor did it change the deep and profound respect in which General Lee was held by all of his contemporaries, whether Confederate or Yankee. The fact is that the South lost the battle of Get-

THEY SLEPT HERE—Lincoln, Lafayette, and Generals Grant, McClellan and Butler are among the famed guests of Quarters No. 1 at Fort Monroe, Va., home of the Continental Army Command and some of the landing of the Jamestown settlers in 1607. The building was completed in 1819, the year work began on the Old Fort. It is still in use as the assigned quarters of a general officer.

tsburg, which proves that something went wrong. The further fact is everyone knew that General Robert E. Lee was leading the Confederate forces in that battle. I dare say that no more than one per cent of the people in the United States had any idea that General Meade was even in the battle before reading the remarks of President Eisenhower and Viscount Montgomery. In fact, very few people even remembered there was a Yankee general named Meade. In any event, the losing General is the one who has gone down in history as a hero. This proves there is glory even in defeat when one fights for his principles. Montgomery certainly did not exhibit much foresight by his remarks, because he had already accepted an invitation to speak in Montgomery, Alabama, the first capital of the Confederacy. Although the Civil War ended almost 100 years ago, there is still deep feeling regarding the issues over which this nation was almost torn apart on the battlefield. Expressions of caustic criticism have been plentiful, cartoonists have had a field day, and the punsters who are always present around Washington have found a new source of material. Chances are that much will be heard about these off-the-cuff remarks of Eisenhower and Montgomery for some time to come. One fellow here remarked that if Montgomery had come over to help President Eisenhower in advancing his foreign aid program, his words at Gettysburg certainly started him off with his foot in his mouth. Actually, in view of the precarious position in which the foreign aid funds are now lodged, I feel sure the British must have considered the Viscount's actions in poor taste. It might also be pointed out that the ruffled feelings of the South concerning the Administration's Civil Rights Bill were not smoothed by hindsight criticism of the No. 1 hero of the Confederacy. Tempers are already short because of the attempts to push through legislation which is admittedly directed at the Southern states. Digging into past wounds could be equivalent to adding insult to injury. In fact, there are a number of groups gathering in Washington May 17 for the purpose of celebrating the 3rd anniversary of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States denying to the states the rights which they had enjoyed under the "separate but equal doctrine" in providing school facilities for white and colored children. These are the groups which feel they are the beneficiaries of that decision. One columnist wrote in a Washington paper that such a public demonstration might be considered a demonstration of emotions that could eventually bring about serious consequences. He pointed out that the "American" branch of the Communist Party, through the Daily Worker in New York, had been issuing exhortations to its members and fellow travelers to join in the affair on May 17. Whether or not this will be done can be determined by the time you receive this letter. These ex-

PRESCRIPTION PRICES

How are prescription prices determined? We have a policy in this matter, the only one we can follow. We do not offer bargains in prescriptions - there is no cut-rate way to health. Nor do we pretend to under-sell. Prescription prices simply are determined by the cost of the ingredients and operating expense. The prices we charge are as low as satisfactory service and effective drugs will allow.

BOB MOSS PHARMACY

a Dog's Life

THE FAT DOG by Dr. E. M. Gildow Director, Friskies Research Kennels Overweight in a dog has the same general effects as in a human. It's an almost sure guarantee that his life span will be shortened. The best solution to the problem of overweight in a grown dog is the preventive approach. Dog of the Week: KERRY BLUE TERRIER Average weight: 35 pounds; height at shoulder: 18 inches; coat: soft, dense and wavy; color: any shade of blue-gray or gray-blue, with darker to black shades on muzzle, head, ears, tail and feet. Check his weight regularly. Feed him just enough to keep him in good condition—making sure his diet is not only sufficient in quantity, but also that it contains all the minerals, vitamins and other essentials for his health. Practical experience will be your best guide in determining how much to feed him. Just remember that dogs, like people, tend to eat more than they need. If your dog continues to gain or doesn't lose weight when you reduce his diet, you can be sure that someone is feeding him on the side, either members of the family, a neighbor, or he is visiting garbage cans. If he's fat, cut down the amount of food and give him regular exercise—easy at first, then gradually increasing in amount. It won't hurt to starve him a little. He can live off his surplus fat part of the time. Puppies, of course, should be fed generously, several times a day, all they will eat of a balanced diet. A mature dog may be fed once a day only. However, this is not inflexible. In-between-meal snacks should always be avoided. Feeding Tips: If your dog's ears get into his food when he eats, you can hold his ears against his neck with a garter or the top of a stocking. Just be sure it isn't too tight.

The Press Battles for its Freedom

JOHN PETER ZENGER was arrested "for printing and publishing several seditious libels dispersed throughout his journals or newspapers..." Zenger was a New York printer in the days when Governor Cosby ruled the colony. Governor Cosby ruled in such an autocratic, overbearing manner that several indignant citizens started a newspaper to arouse the public against his tyranny. Zenger undertook to publish the newspaper, and his bail was fixed at $00 pounds, a large sum for those days and quite beyond his ability to furnish. He stayed in jail for months, and his situation appeared hopeless. The case finally was called to the attention of Andrew Hamilton, a distinguished Pennsylvania lawyer, who took up Zenger's cause as a public service. Hamilton forced the case to trial, and his speech to the jury, which led to Zenger's acquittal, is a ringing statement of what the press in America must still vigilantly fight for. "All men have the right," Hamilton maintained, "publicly to remonstrate the abuses of power... and to assert with courage the sense: they have of the blessing of liberty... and their resolution at all hazards to preserve it." Today in our country encroachments by governments and private interests alike upon freedom of the press are counter to law. Nevertheless, even today the press must battle constantly to keep that freedom intact.

community that we have not been in the cyclones that have been so near us. We do feel sorry for our neighbors who have had the loss from the storm. Now is a fine time for all of us to be a good neighbor and help those who suffered the loss of material things.

We were back to the kerosene lamp since the electricity was off. We don't appreciate our modern way of life until it's taken from us.

To stop and say a prayer not only for ourselves but our unfortunate neighbors who have lost loved ones and others who are injured would be a fine thing for all of us to do. Who is Our Neighbor?

First Baptist Church Burns
Sunday afternoon around 4 o'clock the Baptist Church was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin. Due to high wind the fire spread rapidly. Fire departments from Hedley, Memphis and Clarendon kept the fire from spreading to near by dwellings. All efforts failed to save the church; estimated loss $30,000. A meeting of church members to discuss future plans is being held tonight (Monday). The Baptist would like to say thanks to every one who helped in any way.

Through quick thinking and plenty of help quite a bit of furnishings were saved. Books from pastor's study were all saved; also the entire kitchen equipment. Thanks to all who helped.

which we have had lately came when we received a request from Miss Mable White of Strahan, Iowa for permission to use parts of our column in a little magazine which she prints on a mimeograph and sends to those who are handicapped or shut-in. It is called 'The Handicapped's World'. We are so glad and appreciative of having our feeble thoughts go out to these few real special subscribers. May rich blessings come to Miss White in this work. If you would like a sample of her little publication just drop a postcard to the above address. Thanks a lot, Mable.

Cal Farley Says; "Happy contented children are those blessed with parents who taught them to mind."

As for me the above is the actual truth. When we are children we may feel pretty badly about being corrected right at the time, but not long afterward, usually within hours we come to admit that our folks were right and that the decision was for our own good. Then as the years pass by we know all the more certain that all of the correcting done by our parents paid off in a better life for us later on.

Once we were amazed rather than amused as we listened to a group of young people talking about as how they were just having a lark in a certain teacher's class at their school. Finally one voted this last day. This tax amendment was added by a Conference Committee on H. B. 620, which is the right-of-way program. This will be a very good piece of legislation, as it would require the State to pay 50% of the cost of purchasing the right-of-way for all primary and secondary highways. I supported H. B. 620, but I did not desire to place this 10% increase in license fees on the people of the State.

NEW TAXES NEXT SESSION

If our current spending level is maintained, there certainly will have to be a big tax bill at the next session of the Texas Legislature. I hope that before the next meeting some good, reasonable, and constructive tax recommendations will be made. Most of our Texas people do not really mind paying taxes as long as they are reasonable and fair and the people are getting value received for their money. However, we are all, of course, opposed to anyone's having an unfair tax burden. (In Texas we DO have taxes which are not very fair, and a revision and codification of all our tax laws needs to be made.)

MUCH GOOD ACCOMPLISHED AT THIS SESSION

I feel that this Session of the Legislature has accomplished much good. We have passed much good legislation, we have exposed some unscrupulous members, and we have appropriated additional money for new and expanded services for the citizens of the State of Texas. It has been a great pleasure to have had a small part in what I consider a constructive legislative program. The interest which all the people in our district demonstrated has been gratifying, and your cooperation is most appreciated. I shall continue to serve you during the interim to the best of my ability. Please let me hear from you if I can ever be of service at any time.

CLOCK TICKS LAST SECONDS

As this is being written the clock is ticking away the last few seconds of the Regular Session of the 55th Legislature. The last several days of the Session have been hectic, trying, and terribly rushed. Tempers have flared and angry words passed between opponents and proponents of various measures as the time drew near for the final gavel.

SMILES TODAY

However, this last day has been very pleasant. Smiles have been prevalent on the faces of all members. Some of the Governor's most ardent opposition sipped coffee and exchanged pleasantries with Governor and Mrs. Price Daniel. Members of the House who have been at odds all Session have been inviting each other to visit during the interim.

SOME TALK OF SPECIAL SESSION

Some members have been talking of a possible Special Called Session today, but I understand that these are ordinary rumors that crop up at the end of every Session of the Legislature. The Legislature has either passed or rejected all major legislation, and I do not believe that any major issue has been left pending. The only possible reason for a Special Called Session later on would be the necessity for a tax bill. If our estimated revenue fell short then, of course, we would not have enough money for our present and new operations in the state.

TAXES - TAXES

Speaking of taxes, it seems to me that this Session of the Legislature has accomplished a great feat in providing a record TWO BILLION DOLLAR budget for the state without a new tax bill.

LICENSE FEES INCREASED

Though we did not have a new tax bill this Session, a 10% increase in auto license fees was of them said that they wished they could settle down and learn something. Even though the teacher permitted it, and they took a leading part in it all, deep down on the inside they were wishing that the situation was different. Deep down was a strong respect for authority and right.

The best way to do something about one's past is to begin doing something about the future.

NOBLE DEEDS

Better than all our prayers, my dear,

Better than all our creeds, Is an honest life and a loving heart

With a record of noble deeds. For the prayers may be but words, you know,

And only words are creeds, But a perfect life and saving faith

Will be shown by its noble deeds. Author unknown

We read this someplace; "Most live wires would be dead except for their connections."

Life can be beautiful, Life can be sad, We could make life better If we only had--

We catch a glimpse of sadness in the eyes of the young folks at this time of year when schools are turning out. Especially the girls and fellows that graduate from high school. We can't help but feel it along with them. It must be catching sort of like the mumps. This is one of the greatest changes that comes in most lives. Pupils Enjoy Picnic Recital

Saturday morning, May 25, the pupils of Miss Mantic Graves and their guests met in the Graves Studio for a "picnic recital."

The recital consisted of solos, duets, duets, trios, quartets, sextettes and songs with some child announcing the name and composer of each number. The "idea" of this recital was to prove to the pupils and their parents that if a child works diligently during the school year to "learn music", they can easily prepare a program from what they have already learned. Very little practice went into the preparation of this program.

Taking part on the program were Frances Wallace, Gayle Bones, Jerry Bones, Adelle Barnhill, Dianne Moore, Melinda Moore, Robert Moss, Mary Jo Moss, Louise Caldwell, Mel Ryan, Chris McMurtry, Barry Hudson, Glynell Hoggatt, Karen Knorpp, Sharon Smith, Janis Smith, Margie Fraser, Sharon Williams, Carol Cornell, and Pamela Palmer.

Following the program each pupil was presented with a statuette of some Old Master in music, then the group went to Wayside Park near Memphis for fun and a picnic lunch. The "picnic recital" is one of the highlights of the music year for young people and everyone had a lot of fun.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Laws are fine, so long as they have no teeth in them. Apparently that's the feeling of 74 members of the Texas House of Representatives. At least that's the way they voted as they came down the home stretch to final adjournment. House members had their best opportunity to express their opinions about putting teeth in Texas laws when Senate Bill 55 by Sen. Preston Smith came up for House consideration. Previously it had passed the Senate with flying colors; it was given a "do pass" recommendation by the House State Affairs Committee; and it carried Gov. Price Daniel's endorsement. SB-55 pertained to publication laws. But only to laws already on the statute books. Specifically only those laws ignored by those public officials who dislike to report their activities to the home folks. No new public notices were called for in the bill. All SB-55 did was strengthen existing laws. It merely pin-pointed WHO was responsible for printing public notices—so that the people might be informed. Present laws provide that any public official who flatly refuses to follow the requirements of existing laws shall be subject to a fine or removal from office. That's already on the statute books. But Texas laws fail to designate specifically WHO is responsible.

The new bill was even more considerate than existing laws—for it even allowed for delays due to oversights or plain carelessness.

Actually SB-55 applied only to those public officials who intentionally violated the law. It required numerous "warning". It would therefore affect only those public officials whose attitude was "The public be damned. I'll spend their money as I please. I'll tell the people ONLY what I want them to know."

SB-55 was one of the BETTER GOVERNMENT bills proposed by the Texas Press Association. House sponsor was Rep. John R. Lee of Kermit, Texas.

The vote was 74 against and 56 for the bill. We think the public is entitled to know the names of those who voted in their interest.

Although in the minority these Representatives fought to open public records to public view. They made a sincere effort to tighten Texas laws against further secrecy in governmental operations.

Here are the staunch advocates of Freedom of Information in the Texas House of Representatives: Louis H. Anderson of Midland; L. L. Armor of Sweetwater; Robert W. Baker of Houston; Charles L. Ballman of Berger; Raymond A. Bartram of New Braunfels; A. J. Bishop Jr. of Winters; H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock; Robert L. Bowers Jr. of Brownfield; Obie Bristow of Big Spring; Joe Burgett Jr. of Kerrville; Joe N. Chapman of Sulphur Springs; Criss Cole of Houston; Carl C. Conley of Raymondville; R. H. Cory of Victoria; J. C. (Jimmy) Day of Brookshire; Eligio De la Garza II of Mission; Virginia Duff of Ferris.

Also Wilson Foreman of Austin; W. W. Glass of Jacksonville; L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi; Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline; Edgar Hutchins Jr. of Greenville; Obie Jones of Austin; Moyne L. Kelly of Afton; Homer Koliba Sr. of Columbus.

Also Tony Koriath of Sherman; John R. Lee of Kermit; George W. McCoppin of Texarkana; Grainger W. Mellhany of Wheeler; Frank E. Mann of Houston; Carlton Moore Sr. of Houston; Jim Moore of Arlington; Bob Mullen of Alice; Menton J. Murray of Harlingen; Ted W. Myatt of Cleburne; W. T. Oliver of Port Neches; Robert R. Also Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth; Hershel C. Sherrill of McDade; Richard C. Slack of Pecos; Max C. Smith of San Marcos; Wade F. Spilman of McAllen; Ted B. Springer of Amarillo; Richard C. White of El Paso; Joe Ed Winfree of Houston; W. N. (Bill) Woolsey of Corpus Christi;

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

1957 CONSERVATION RESERVE PRACTICE PAYMENTS

Sight Drafts are being issued to farmers with Conservation Reserve contracts who have completed one or more parts of the practice to be carried out. Out of 137 agreements 132 have made application in writing for a permanent practice. Out of this 132, 24 Sight Drafts have been written for the first part of the practice. If there are others who have completed the seedbed preparation, you should come into the office and report this so that a payment may be made to you. And, certainly, if you are one of the five who have not made application for a permanent practice, you should come into the office immediately and take care of this.

TERMINATION OF 1956 EMERGENCY FEED PROGRAM

We were advised by the State Office that upon recommendation of the National USDA Disaster Committee, the hay, roughage and grain assistance programs were terminated on May 15, 1957 in all cases where it had not been previously terminated.

All producers for whom purchase orders were filled will be expected to take physical delivery of all emergency feed by June 15, 1957. In any instance where it is determined that physical delivery has not occurred by June 15, 1957, the FHA office will be requested to review their case and make a determination as to whether or not they were eligible for the feed approved in the first place. The producer is advised that a list will be maintained of feed not delivered and this information will be kept on file for consideration if he applies for assistance under any future Emergency Feed Programs. Producers who do not intend to take physical delivery of all feed for which they have received credit for constructive delivery, should so inform the dealer in order that the dealer may make a refund to the County ASC Office for the assistance obtained on undelivered feed.

1958 WHEAT ALLOTMENTS

The Donley County ASC Committee has received the county wheat allotment for 1958. We received a raise of 19,360 acres over last year's 17,781 acres. One change which will affect farmers most is that allotments for wheat are in acres and tenths of acres. In the past, wheat allotments were established to the nearest whole acre and measured to the nearest whole acre. Work is being done now on the 1958 Wheat Listing Sheet and the allotments will be mailed to the producers around June 10th.

WHEAT MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

Wheat Marketing Quotas have been proclaimed for the 1958 wheat crop, as required by law under the present supply situation. In a National Referendum set for June 20th, wheat growers themselves, will make the final decision on whether the quotas will be in effect next year. At least two-thirds of those who vote must favor quotas, if they are to be in operation. The polling places will be announced later. We urge all eligible voters and their wives to vote on June 20th and help make the decision that effects your farming operations. Let's put Donley County among the top voting counties in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mauldin of Borger visited relatives in Clarendon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Bain of Amarillo are the proud parents of a 6 lb. 3 oz. son. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Regan Bain of this city and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Ashtola.

Mrs. W. H. Price and daughter, Shirley, of Belleville, Ill. left Friday morning for their home after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Patman and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hedgepeth of Danville, Ill. and his sisters visited Miss Elizabeth Stevens Wednesday of last week. They are all former residents of Clarendon.

Historic Moment at Jamestown Relived in Painting by W. R. Leigh

"Pocahontas," the Rescue of Captain John Smith

JAMESTOWN and the crowds of tourists that the Festival celebration of its 350th anniversary is bringing to that area will recall with greater significance than ever previously the dramatic part Pocahontas, the beautiful Indian girl, played in the establishment of this first English settlement in America. Added to this romantic situation it is sometimes overlooked that the late William Robinson Leigh, N. A., (co-founder with his wife of the Traphagen School of Fashion in New York), who re-created the famous scene of Pocahontas and Captain John Smith pictured above, was a direct descendant of this truly American heroine. This picture is now the property of the Woolaroc Museum in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, founded by Frank Phillips, and left by him to the State of Oklahoma. Whether you go to Jamestown or not, it is indeed worthy of a patriotic pilgrimage to see W. R. Leigh's conception of Captain John Smith's rescue by Pocahontas. Other Indian and Western paintings by Leigh are on exhibition at Grand Central Art Galleries, New York, N. Y., of which he was a member.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Donley District has lost more soil from water erosion the past few weeks than nature can replace in several centuries. Both new and old terraces failed on many farms to withstand the exceptionally heavy rains following other rains which had the ground saturated. The resulting loss of soil from fields without adequate cover was severe. Farming the land will hide many of the scars left by the erosive action of the water, but cannot bring back the soil that has gone down the river.
 This damage serves to point out the fact that man made terraces are not adequate to prevent erosion. They are only a supporting practice. The answer is nature's way of covering the soil with vegetation. Of course a cover cannot always be maintained on cropland, but most farmers can do a much better job than they are doing—by better rotations, soil improving crops, and maintaining more crop residues on the surface following harvest.

The article quoted below, written by Bob Kerr, a former Soil Scientist for the Soil Conservation Service has much food for thought. Read it, think about it, and DO something about it—both on your place and by encouraging your friends on their place.

IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK By Bob Kerr

Remember the song that was so popular a year or so ago—"It's Later Than You Think"? Well in many ways it is later than you think, and for sure it's time for us to stop and take inventory of our resources in the way of our soils, plants, and water.
 Any successful business man will tell you that an inventory every so often is necessary for him to stay in business. As farming is one of the biggest businesses in the world it follows that we as farmers should be the first to complete that inventory.
 In the past too few farmers stopped to do this. That is one reason we have the great amount of erosion we have today. Did you know that every year over 5 billion tons of topsoil is washed and blown from our farms? Did you know that every year over one billion tons of topsoil washes down the Mississippi River alone?

 If this soil that washes down this one river was put into 10-ton trucks and they were parked bumper to bumper they would stretch from the northern most tip of Alaska to the southern most tip of South America. Now let us stop to realize that it takes nature from 300 to 1,000 years to build one inch of topsoil, depending upon the parent material. We all know that the topsoil is where our "dollars" come from. When we think about this erosion it no longer puzzles us why some of our yields have been decreasing.

At the present time we have about 170 million people in these United States. In 1975—not even 20 short years away—it is estimated that our population will have increased to 221 million.
 Right now there is less than 3 acres to produce food for each person. In 1975 this will have decreased to about 2 acres per person. Now with our population ever increasing and our fertile farms ever decreasing, when will our abundant America cease to be the land of plenty?

This is not a problem that will be in the future. It is with us now. Our sons and daughters are the ones who will have to live with our mistakes of today—our mistakes of soil erosion.

Some of you have heard the story of the small community in which there lived an old gentleman that some people regarded to be the smartest person in the world. One day a couple of small boys who doubted this claim decided to see for themselves if this was true. One of them said "I know where there is a nest that has a small bird in it. Let's get the bird and cup it in our hands where the old man can't tell what it is. Then we will ask the old man what it is that we have in our hands. I know he can't tell us, but if he does we will ask him if the bird is alive or dead. If he says it is alive, we can just squeeze it, and if he says the bird is dead we will show him it is alive. That way we know he won't be the smartest person in the world." The plan was carried out and as the boys approached the old man one of them asked "Old man what is this we have in our hand?" The old man saw a tiny blue feather sticking out and said "Well son, that's a bird you have in your hand." The boys were very surprised and then asked "Well, is that bird alive or dead?" The old gentleman immediately saw through their plan and answered, "Sonny, in your hand you hold a way of life. With that life you can either make it useful and productive or crush it and make it forever worthless."

This is our position of today.
 In our hands as farmers we hold the very future of the world. Are we going to make this way of life useful and productive or forever worthless. There are many people available today to help work out the problems of soil erosion.
 Among these persons and agencies are the Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the Soil Conservation District in which you live. You are urged to take advantage of this technical service.

Do you know that every four

FLOOD BATTERED, BUT IT'S HOME

ABILENE, TEX. — Familiar surroundings outweighed all flood discomforts with Mrs. Gertrude Hurd, 75-year-old blind resident of the flood-struck North Park area here, who insisted on returning to her home as soon as waters went down sufficiently, despite urging from friends and Red Cross workers. Here she sits in her favorite chair from which she says she can find her way to anything in the house. Helping her is Estell Johnson, one of the 56 trained Red Cross national disaster workers who have been dispatched to the Southwest storm area to assist chapter volunteers in helping disaster stricken families restore homes, furnishings and other living necessities. Red Cross relief operations have been constant throughout the month of April in Texas, with workers now spread through eight tornado swept counties and 18 other counties affected by floods.
