Two Big Poultry Meetings In Donley County Scheduled For April 17th

Poultry raisers from Donley County and surrounding area are invited to attend two big poultry meetings in Donley County on April 17th.

H. M. Breedlove, county agent, says that two meetings on cage layer production of eggs will be held on that date; the first meeting to be held in Clarendon at the Mulkey Theatre starting at nine o'clock in the morning and the other meeting to start at two o'clock in the afternoon at Hedley in the Lions Club Hall.

Two top specialists in poultry production will be on hand to give all persons interested in cage layer production of eggs all available information on this subject and also to answer any questions that they might want to ask.

Mr. Bob J. Griffin, poultry husbandman for the Texas A&M College Extension Service of College Station and Mr. Kermit Schlamb, marketing specialist for the Extension Service will be the speakers on the program. Breedlove says that all angles will be discussed, including cost, size of operations, markets, feeds, care of flocks and building of the units for cage layer production.

Remember the dates and time and places of the two meetings and attend the one that is most convenient for you and bring all your neighbors and attend these two educational meetings.

Breedlove says that many farmers have requested this information and are interested in cage layer production of eggs as a supplement income for the farm due to reduction in cotton acreages.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

PREMEASUREMENT OF COTTON ACREAGE

Each farmer who requests his 1956 cotton acreage to be premeasured must make an application at the Donley County ASC Office on or before April 15, 1956. At the time he makes his application, he will be required to make a deposit of $12.00 per farm plus $3.50 for each additional plot over one. The measurement will be made soon after his application is taken, and will be guaranteed if the farmer plants within the premeasurement stakes. If the acreage is not planted exactly as staked, the premeasurement will be disregarded and the cotton acreage remeasured when performance is checked.

Farm operators who make application for premeasurement service will have to help make the premeasurement or have a representative to help. The operator will have to have stakes available to be used in the staked out acreage for cotton.

REPORTING COMPLETED PRACTICES

There has been some misunderstanding as to reporting completed practice on permanent type practices such as terraces, etc. SCS makes a final report to the ASC Office, but the producer still has to make a report back to the ASC Office as soon as the practice is completed. Please keep this in mind because it is very important for our records.

There are some producers who ask for certain practices but fail to carry them out for some reason, those cases need to be reported to the ASC Office as well as completed practices. If you will please remember these few items it will help us keep a more up-to-date file on our records.

If you take your dog to the Court House lawn on either of the above named days, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. you may receive the rabies vaccination for your dog for only $1.50 and the city dog tag will be only 50 cents. Local FFA Members Start Calves For 1957 Stock Shows

Six calves were started the past week by members of the Clarendon F.F.A. Chapter for the 1957 spring stock shows. Jimmy Philley, James Mahaffey, and Claude DeBord were youths starting this group of calves. The calves are all Angus and were secured from the herds of David Hudgins and Ronald Salmon. One of the calves is a registered angus heifer and will be fitted for the Houston Show. At least four other calves will be selected and started on feed in the near future according to Vo-Ag Instructor J. R. Gillham. A number of top angus calves are to be selected from the herd of Milo Wolrab of Mt. Vernon, Iowa. Wolrab has been a top exhibitor at the International Livestock Show for years. He is also considered to have the most outstanding herd of berkshire hogs in the United States, and the success of the local youths with his line of breeding in hogs prompted him to agree to let the local chapter members feed a number of his calves.

Annual FFA Banquet Set For May 1st

The Annual F.F.A. Father and Son Banquet was set for May 1st at a meeting of the Clarendon Chapter last week. The group voted to hold the banquet on that date and to invite at least one businessman from each firm in town in addition to their fathers. The chapter members realize that much of their success this year has been due to the support of the business men of Clarendon and the banquet will be one of their means of recognizing this support.

The banquet will be held at the Lions Club Hall, and the menu will feature barbecued chicken and (home made) ice cream prepared by the chapter members. Mothers of the chapter members will assist in preparing and serving the food. The program will be given by chapter members.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

There are still some farmers and ranchers in the Donley Soil Conservation District with the impression that to sign a cooperative agreement with the District means signing an agreement with an agency of the Federal Government. However this is not true, as Soil Conservation Districts are local units of government managed by farmers and ranchers themselves, and are a highly effective device through which the people and their government can team up to get the conservation job done, without the Federal Government becoming the dominating member of the team.

The major responsibility for carrying out a sound, vigorous program of soil and water conservation rests with the people who own and operate the land. A nationwide program, however urgent its need, cannot have force in our democracy unless it is accepted as the individual responsibility of the people.

The Soil Conservation Service's primary function in conservation operations is to provide technical assistance to farmers and ranchers through Soil Conservation Districts. The effectiveness of the work depends directly on the working relationship between the District and its Leaders, the land owners and operators, and the various agencies created to help put Soil Conservation on the land.

Teamwork is essential if our efforts are to be most effective.

An Amendment To New Farm Bill Wins Senate Approval

An amendment to the new farm bill sponsored by Senator Price Daniel to relate price supports on grain sorghums, barley, oats, and rye to their feed value equivalent to corn has won approval of the Senate.

Providing different formulas for 1956 crops and those produced in succeeding years, the amendment would generally increase 1956 support levels on feed grains recently announced by Secretary of Agriculture Benson and would bring about substantially higher supports thereafter.

Daniel sponsored the amendment for himself and Senators Johnson of Texas, Chavez of New Mexico, Humphrey of Minnesota, and Young of North Dakota.

PLENTY EASTER HAMS

THE LION'S TALE

By Carl Allmond

The club did not fall apart during our absence of two weeks, in fact, the attendance was better than usual. Boss Lion Lowe was away Tuesday, so Lion Spier presided.

Lion Secretary Messer read the minutes of the last directors' meeting. The club was asked to approve the following: buy a record player for the Youth Center, sponsor a Queen for the District Convention to be held in Amarillo, and at an early date, promote another wrestling match. All recommendations were approved by the club.

Rev. Brimberry extended a cordial invitation to us to attend the revival now in progress at the First Christian Church. He will have two students to assist him from Sunday through next week. It is our understanding that the Methodists, then the Baptists, will follow with their revivals. If each church would designate a special night for Lions, do you suppose more than five would make a special effort to attend?

We need help—during our trip to Mexico, we attended the Lions Club at Zimapan, Mexico. We asked the secretary to notify our Secretary Messer of our attendance. The notification arrived, but so far, we haven't decided what it says exactly—anyone here translate Spanish? Boss Lion Spier didn't help any; he said one word looked like it meant "jail". That won't work—they didn't meet in jail, and we didn't wind up there, but we did attend their meeting. We found the Zimapan Lions to be an enthusiastic group of Latin Americans, who made the evening lively, from 9:00 to 12:00, with jokes, good food, and a program very much like some of ours; one man got the floor, and was very persistent in stressing his particular viewpoint.

For the program Drennan asked Lion Gillham to present his F.F.A. boys who won so many championship honors at the Houston Fat Stock Show. Their banners covered the hat rack, and there were enough trophies for each table in the hall. Three boys explained the technique for setting up a stock show; they also mentioned a few side-lights of trips taken while in Houston.

Guests were Lucie Wayne Connor and Kenneth Lamb of Amarillo, and Robert Forrest of Canadian.

PARENT-TEACHER TALK

The Sims P.T.A. met in a regular meeting Thursday, March 15th at 3 p. m., Mrs. T. M. Caldwell, Jr., presiding. The meeting was opened with the College Choir singing three beautiful numbers.

The Rev. Clarence Tilley brought the devotional which was followed by a business meeting. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Bray Cook; Vice President, Mrs. Lloyd McCord; Secretary, Mrs. Cleo Hubbard; Treasurer, Mrs. Stina Cain; Historian, Mrs. Weldon Goar; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Fontayne Elmore.

Miss Ruth Lowes of Canyon gave a wonderful talk on "How to Develop Happy, Wholesome Personalities."

The next meeting will be a night meeting, April 19th.

Disaster Years Will Be Considered In Computation Of Soil Bank Payments

In reply to questions propounded on the Senate floor by Senator Price Daniel, leading members of the Senate Agriculture Committee gave assurances that drought, flood, and other years of natural disaster will be excluded in the computation of Soil Bank payments under the new farm bill. Daniel had offered an amendment for himself and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson to state that "average production" in disaster years would not be considered "normal production" within the meaning of the Soil Bank law. He pointed out that the Southwest had experienced a prolonged and severe drought, making the financial condition of farmers "even more precarious than that in other farming areas of the United States."

"At least some of these farmers would like to participate in the acreage reserve program," the Texas Senator continued, "but they will be penalized further if their return is figured on average production in recent years." Daniel was assured by Senators Ellender of Louisiana, Agriculture Committee chairman; Aiken of Vermont, ranking Republican member; and Humphrey of Minnesota, a leading Democratic member, that it is the clear intent of the Soil Bank legislation to exclude disaster years and that Agriculture Department officials had agreed to follow this interpretation.

"When we were formulating the bill, the matter was discussed in the committee with the officials of the Department of Agriculture," Senator Aiken, chief spokesman for the Soil Bank plan, reported. "It is thoroughly understood that if a community suffers from drought or other disaster, and if it has a crop failure or almost a crop failure, full allowance will be made, and that year will not be counted in arriving at the average production over a period of years."

Daniel then withdrew his amendment, pointing out that his colloquy with Senators Ellender, Aiken, and Humphrey would be printed in the Congressional Record and would accomplish the same purpose in clarifying the matter.

Mineral Production In Texas Last Year

AUSTIN—Mineral production in the state last year reached an all-time high of more than four billion dollars, an advance summary prepared by the U. S. Bureau of Mines and the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology reports. The summary indicates a 1955 production valued at $4,115,949,000, Dr. John T. Lonsdale, director of the University Bureau, said. Mineral fuels accounted for 93 per cent of the state's total mineral value last year, Dr. Lonsdale noted. The top mineral materials in order of value were crude oil, natural gas, natural gas liquids, sulfur and cement.

The summary reported a substantial increase in the production of lignite, resumption of quicksilver production in West Texas and expansion of production capacity for a number of commodities, including aluminum, cement and helium.

Natural gas production set a new record last year, 8 per cent above the previous high in 1954. Texas' proved gas reserves were the largest in the nation, and the industry maintained an active exploration program which sustained those reserves.

Crude oil production increased 7 per cent in volume and 10 per cent in value over 1954. Crude oil was produced in nearly 200 counties.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The books to announce the first of the week are Paul Wellman's "Trampling Herd" given by Mrs. Meryne Rhoades in memory of Mrs. Wesley Knorpp. This book is recommended as desirable for all Libraries of the Southwest. Also in memory of Mrs. Knorpp are "Some Prize Stories of 1956—The O. Henry Awards" selected and edited by Paul Engle and Hansford Martin. I gave this book.

Texas has published her awards for the past year to Texas writers. We have Fred Gipson's "Recollection Creek", and perhaps one or two others.

One of the most practical books for people interested in farming and livestock is Louis Bromfield's "From My Experience or The Pleasures and Miseries of Life on a Farm." It follows in line with "Pleasant Valley" and "Malabar Farm."

Did you read in the Readers' Digest that fewer books are read in the United States than any English speaking democracy? In England three times as many people are to be found reading books as in America. You would be astounded at how few people read less than one book per year.

Please don't forget your fine when your books are over due. It is only 1c per day, and all but two are three patrons bring their pennies when late. It all helps. We have some good material when you desire to read.

Postscripts of National Tournament

By W. W. Pinkerton

The members of the basketball team want to express their sincere thanks for the fine gesture on the part of the Business Men and other friends of Clarendon for getting up the pot of spending money for the girls. Each girl was able to receive $10.00 for their personal needs. It certainly was appreciated and made the girls feel that Clarendon was supporting them 100 per cent.

While in St. Joseph, we received 15 telegrams from people in Clarendon giving us their best wishes and urging us to fight harder for victory. These telegrams were deeply appreciated.

The bus ride to and from St. Joseph was both tiring and pleasant. Lynn Payne did all the driving and handled the bus like an expert. Some of the girls slept most of the time. Virginia Wallik was especially sleepy-headed and even told us of her dreams when she awoke. We had a little bus trouble in Liberal, Kansas, on the way back which delayed us about three hours.

Louise Short was well publicized in St. Joseph. Being the Tournament Queen last year, her picture (large framed ones) were placed in most of the leading cafe's, hotels, lobbies, etc. Also, her picture was in the St. Joseph paper a couple of times.

The team had one good workout at Savannah, Missouri. That is Vernie Ford's home town just ten miles north of St. Joseph. The people treated us royally.

The girls had "skull" practice each morning, usually ending with a prayer from some member of the team.

All in all the trip was very nice. The girls conducted themselves as young ladies should at all times. They went up there for one purpose, that to play ball. They kept a fine competitive spirit all the way. They defeated a good team and were in turn defeated by a good team. They have nothing to be ashamed of—they gave Clarendon all they had. Their best just wasn't good enough.

Donley County Leader, $2.50 year

NOT RESTIN—JUST TESTIN—Specialist Second Class Edwin L. Weston, left, Montrose, Va., participates in a U. S. Army hearing test at Fort Churchill, Canada, to help determine what effect arctic conditions have on the ability to localize sounds, often a life-or-death matter for a soldier. Various noises are broadcast from behind Weston; his reaction time and accuracy of identification is being recorded by Corporal Richard Kalla, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Local Youths To Apply For FFA Honors

Several members of the Clarendon Future Farmer Chapter will make application for the State Farmer Degree in the FFA work this spring. Doyce Graham, Claude DeBord, W. T. Elliott, Kenneth Evans, and possibly one or two other members will make applications for this degree. In order to receive the degree, the member must have completed two years of vocational agriculture and be in at least his third year of study and must have had a good project program over the period of the three years.

The applicant must have been active in F.F.A. and student activities. The applications are checked by the district committee, then by the area, and finally are passed upon by the state committee at the state convention. Clarendon ranks among the leaders in Area I in the number of Lone Star Farmers and American Farmers it has produced.

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority at Texas Tech hosted its 16 new initiates at the annual White Violet Breakfast recently. This climaxed Zeta week, which included a skating party, a chapter meeting, a Pledge-Paddle Party, and three days of initiation. Among the new members was Janice Benson of Clarendon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen and Jerry moved Monday to Amarillo where they will make their home.

College Comets Lose To Omaha Team In Quarter-Finals

The Clarendon Junior College Comets returned to Clarendon last Friday morning from St. Joseph, Missouri, where they participated in the National AAU Women's Basketball Tournament. The Comets drew a first round bye in the tournament, then defeated the Cincinnati Rebels 44 to 27. In the quarter-final round they met the Commercial Extension School of Business of Omaha, Nebraska, and were defeated by a score of 37 to 28.

The Comets played very creditable ball in their first game. The Cincinnati team was the Ohio State AAU Champions and came to the tournament with a record of 21 wins and only two losses over the season. However, the Comets featuring the shooting of Louise Short and Jo Ann Crawford and the speed of Short, Dianne Templeton and Patsy Vincent proved too much for the Ohio champions. Marjorie Irlbeck did an outstanding job of guarding the Rebel's post forward, Mary McKinney. Miss McKinney, who was also the coach of the Ohio team, stated after the game that "Clarendon has by far the toughest team we have faced all season."

In their second game of the tournament, the Comets met the tough Commercial Extension team of Omaha. Commercial Extension was the second seeded team and had back the same team that went to the finals last year with Wayland College. The Omaha girls threw a baffling zone defense at the Comets who were unable to break in for very many short shots. Most of the scoring for both teams came from outside shooting as the Comets also used a very effective zone defense. The Comets' inability to hit from outside told the story of the heartbreaking defeat.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Estlack and Jackie and David Patterson of Groom returned home Sunday after visiting several days with Mrs. Estlack's mother, Mrs. Faye Scoggins, and grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Tyree, in Phoenix, Ariz.

The Donley County Leader, $2.50 a year.

Hammond Brands Accusation As False

WACO — The president of the Texas Farm Bureau has branded as an "inexcusable misstatement of facts" a charge that he testified before the Senate Agriculture Committee in favor of flexible price supports.

J. Walter Hammond made the statement in a letter to Ernest Joiner, editor of The Ralls (Crosby County) Banner. Joiner had charged in his paper that Hammond had double-crossed Texas Farm Bureau members by testifying in favor of flexible price supports in Washington. Hammond emphatically denied this. "Had you bothered to check the Senate Agriculture Committee records, which are public property, you would have known that I did not testify as you so stated in your column," Hammond said in his letter to the West Texas editor.

The Texas Farm Bureau leader told Joiner that "The real tragedy of your prevarication is that you have apparently fallen into the hands of those who would like to set farmer against farmer. This is the old technique of 'divide and conquer'."

Hammond further stated that regardless of what farm organization farmers belong to, it is important for them "to think for themselves, using facts, instead of blindly following some rabble-rouser whose chief concern is increased circulation instead of increased farm income."

CONFIRMATION ELECTION MAY 8, 1956 Greenbelt Municipal And Industrial Water Authority QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The Board of Directors of the above Authority has requested the State Board of Water Engineers to call an election for the confirmation of the organization of this Authority for Tuesday May 8, 1956, so it is now in order to place before the citizens of the various towns such information as can be provided for their consideration in voting upon this project.

This information can best be presented by a series of questions and answers calculated to outline the origin and purpose of the Authority; how your City can become a participating member of the project, as well as how it can withdraw or vote to stay out of the organization. It is time for a definite decision by each City which has participated in the various group meetings heretofore held.

(Continued from last week) QUESTION: How was the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority created? ANSWER: The committees from the interested cities employed McCall, Parkhurst & Crowe, Bond Attorneys of Dallas, Texas, to direct the entire legal procedure required for the origination and final completion of this project; whereupon the attorneys prepared a Legislative Act creating a conservation district under Article XVI, Section 50 of the State Constitution. Through the cooperation of the Representatives and Senators within the area, this bill

AND NICHOLS of Fort Worth are the engineers. They are quite familiar with water problems in all of Western Texas.

QUESTION: Were the water rights secured from the State Board of Water Engineers? ANSWER: Yes, these water rights were granted by the State Board of Water Engineers under the condition that the program would show definite progress of development before January 1, 1955.

QUESTION: What location for the proposed dam has been selected? ANSWER: The dam location, subject to engineering review, has been tentatively established just below the junction where Whitefish Creek flows into the Salt Fork of Red River. This is the eastern edge of Donley County about 8 miles north of Hedley and about 17 miles north of Memphis.

QUESTION: How much water will be the capacity of the proposed lake? ANSWER: The lake will have a capacity of 100,000 acre feet with a depth at the dam of about 60 feet. The lake will have a drainage area of around 750 square miles, or about 5/6 the size of the average county in the Panhandle.

QUESTION: How many gallons are in an acre foot of water? ANSWER: There are 325,829 gallons in an acre foot of water.

QUESTION: What will be the approximate size of the proposed lake? ANSWER: Present plans indicate the lake will be in an elbow shape with about 5 miles North to South and about 5 miles East to West.

QUESTION: How can this be compared to some other water supply lakes which might be familiar to people of Western Texas? ANSWER: The most likely comparison would be Lake Worth at Fort Worth. Lake Worth has a capacity of 24,000 acre feet of water. This proposed lake with 100,000 acre feet of water would be four times as large.

QUESTION: What do the engineers estimate will be year-round average availability of water which can be obtained for the members of this Authority? ANSWER: Twenty-five million gallons daily.

QUESTION: What will be the size of the pipe line to be used in transporting this water to the various cities? ANSWER: The engineers plan to provide a pipe line of sufficient size that will be capable of delivering twice as much water as the present maximum summer-time use in each city.

QUESTION: Who has a right to vote in the confirmation or other elections of the Authority? ANSWER: Property owners only, who have paid their poll tax, have the right to vote in these elections.

QUESTION: What will be the cost of water purchased by each City, and what will be the rate of tax to be levied? ANSWER: This is a question which has not been determined by the Engineers, nor can it be known until the confirmation election of the Authority has been held and by such it is ascertained just what cities vote to become or not become a member of the Authority; or withdraw before the election. Necessarily the cost of the water must be calculated on an equitable basis with each city carrying its proportionate share of construction and operating costs. Ordinarily, in projects of this nature each city purchasing water is required to pay a fixed minimum with lower prices on increased usage. It is contemplated that such a pattern will follow on this project. Therefore, the price would be flexible to the extent that after fixed debt service requirements have been acquired through additional sales of water, the Board of Directors can revise water rates downward as the occasion justifies. This project being entirely new, it is necessary to make a fixed minimum dollar amount in order to provide security for payment of the debt service on the bonds. However, in order to encourage initiative and aggressiveness by each member city of the Authority, it is contemplated that when each city finds a market for an amount of water above its fixed minimum, that the price to the city for this additional water should be reduced, according to quantity of water used. In other words, the more water each city can use, the cheaper will be the gallonage price, thus giving encouragement for water sales to industry.

QUESTION: Does the Authority have any immediate prospects for sale of industrial water? ANSWER: Yes, the Authority has an immediate prospective customer for about one million gallons per day, year-round, with possible increases in succeeding ten-year periods. There are also some other industries in the area which should be good for a purchase of substantial amounts of water.

QUESTION: Since it is understood that this is not an election to vote on bonds or to purchase water, when the bond election is called will full information be supplied to the voters of the Authority as to the terms of the water purchase contracts and the amount of tax to be levied? ANSWER: Yes, this information will be made available and the Board of Directors of the Authority will have the responsibility of executing and completing these contractual agreements and levying and collecting the required tax.

QUESTION: What will be the interest rate on the bonds proposed to be issued? ANSWER: The actual interest rate cannot be determined at this time because price of money fluctuates, and the rate can only be made at the time the bonds are ready for the market. It is contemplated, however, that these bonds will carry such rates as are comparable to those of other similar construction projects which require some two years to construct and maybe another six months to implement an adequate amount of water. On such projects which do not have historical earning records as a market predicate, it cannot be expected to receive as low an interest rate as the well-established credit of long time operating counties, cities and school districts.

QUESTION: What will be the security pledged to the payment of these bonds? ANSWER: This is a natural and logical question for in its answer you can determine just what the cost will be to your city and its citizens. The answer is that there are definite fixed annual requirements for principal and interest which must be paid as it becomes due. Therefore, since the income to the Authority must come primarily from the cities, there must be fixed agreements with the cities. Each city will be expected to enter into a long term contract to purchase a minimum amount of water from the Authority. It has been estimated that the present daily usage of water in the various cities is 100 gallons per day per capita. However, it is reasonable to contemplate that with an abundant supply of good water the gallonage usage can be expected to increase, through industrial usage and factors of population growth.

QUESTION: How are the Board of Directors to be named? ANSWER: The governing body of each city in the District will appoint one property owning taxpayer who does not hold any other public office as a member of the Board of Directors.

QUESTION: What cities now have definite membership in the Authority? ANSWER: Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis, Wellington, Childress, Paducah, and Quanah.

QUESTION: Are the above named seven cities the only ones in which confirmation election is to be held? ANSWER: Yes, these are the only cities named in the legislative act. However, this does not preclude other cities from purchasing water from the Authority or by legal process hereafter becoming a member of the Authority.

QUESTION: By what Authority is this confirmation election being called? ANSWER: This election is being called and held under the direction of the State Board of Water Engineers.

QUESTION: Should this confirmation election fail to carry, will this water supply still be available to this area for later consideration? ANSWER: This is questionable for the reason that information comes that the State of Oklahoma is vitally interested in this water supply for irrigation purposes and a plan has been suggested to acquire this water supply in lieu of allowing water from South-eastern Oklahoma to be transported into the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. Now is the time to acquire this water supply before it goes elsewhere.

QUESTION: When is this confirmation election to be held, and will it be held in each city on the same day? ANSWER: This confirmation election is to be held Tuesday, May 8, 1956; and is to be held in each city on that date.

AUSTIN — Possibility of convention harmony in the Texas Democratic party has taken on a new aspect. House Speaker Sam Rayburn has proposed that U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson head the Texas delegation to the national convention.

At the same time, Rayburn suggested that Johnson be designated the state's favorite son candidate for president.

The former proposal brought conservative leaders up short. Executive Committee Chairman George Sandlin already had proposed that Gov. Allan Shivers head the state delegation.

Liberal-loyalists immediately lined up behind Rayburn's plan which seemed designed to freeze out conservatives. Johnson himself said the suggestion came as a surprise, but promised to "consider it carefully."

Sen. Price Daniel joined in boosting Johnson as Texas' favorite son candidate, but passed the choice of a delegation head on to the people. "I would not undertake to suggest what the people of Texas should do in the May conventions," he said.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, who had the support of both Shivers and Rayburn in becoming national committeeman last fall, gave cautious, limited approval. He said he favored the favorite son part of the proposal, and "if Johnson were selected by the delegation as chairman, I would be happy to cooperate with him."

Legislative Inquiry Not Over
Most explosive stage of the house-senate inquiry into US Trust and Guaranty may be yet to come.

After a two-day hearing, the house committee voted to "invite" senators who received fees from US Trust to appear before it. Subpoenas were not mentioned. Chairman Wade F. Spillman of McAllen did say, however, that senators who appeared would be put under oath and cross examined.

This action defied the long-standing tradition that each house shall investigate only its own members. It seemed to make pointed reference to the fact that the senate committee neither questioned nor put under oath senators who came before it.

Senate committee hearings also will start again soon, said Chairman William S. Fly. He declined comment on the house move to question senators.

"More than six" legislators will be asked to refund fees they received from PS Trust, State Liquidator J. D. Wheeler told the house panel. He noted that two, Sen. Carols Ashley of Llano, and Sen. William Shireman of Corpus Christi, already have made or offered restitution.

Meanwhile, the insurance commission announced that 85 companies, first to qualify under the statewide solvency survey, had been given renewed licenses. Of these, 23 were Texas-based companies.

Destruction of One Million Rats Is Goal of Nation's Farm Youth

This is the time of year when publicity materials like those above appear as part of local rat and mouse control campaigns conducted by farm youths. Both boys and girls take part in the campaign — part of a full-scale national program to make all communities aware of the damage and disease caused by rats and mice.

There are many reasons why the nation's farm youth groups are conducting campaigns aimed at killing a million rats. Each rat, it is estimated, costs the farmer $20 per year. Rats destroy about 10 times more property and food than they eat, and their contamination of grain cuts its market value. Moreover, rats carry and spread numerous human and livestock diseases. Mice are only slightly less destructive.

Rural youth groups everywhere are making plans, selecting committees, talking to local bait dealers, to other businessmen, to town or city officials, and to the general public, urging them to help control rats and mice. Now available to all youth organizations is a wide variety of campaign aids, prepared in connection with the national rat and mouse control campaign. Posters,

A 46-point code of ethics for state officials and employees and a three-member commission to enforce it has been proposed by Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd. Gist of the plan is to pay legislators substantially increased annual salaries and to outlaw fees, gifts or favors from outside interests for use of a state employee's official position.

Immediately the School Land Board, Veterans Land Board, State Banking Board, State Depository Board, and seven other boards, adopted a provision of the code. It requires affidavits of all persons appearing before them on behalf of others. Some of the affidavits require not only disclosure of the client and the fee paid, but whether any fee was paid anyone else, and "what contacts" had been made with any legislator or any board member on the matter.

To Interpose or Not to Interpose
Interposition, which Gov. Allan Shivers overnight made Texas' No. 1 issue, is being debated over the state.

Newspaper editorial writers have gone all the way back to Thomas Jefferson, in seeking ways to explain, approve or condemn it.

Many officials and would-be officials are pouring over law and history books and sounding out constituents before deciding on a stand.

Gov. Shivers said he will campaign aggressively in and out of Texas for acceptance of interposition. A study of the idea now is under way by the legal subcommittee of the State Advisory Committee on Public School Segregation.

School Apportionment Raised
The State Board of Education raised the per capita school apportionment $3, to $76 per student for 1955-56.

The board approved an estimate of $278,240,000 as the cost for the minimum foundation school program. By law, the local districts must contribute 20 per cent of this, or $55,480,000.

Each county and each district's obligation to the foundation program will be apportioned on the economic index.

INVESTIGATIONS

The much discussed investigation of lobbying activities in the Senate is now on a high center and all four wheels are spinning. A lot of noise is being made, but nothing is being accomplished. It presently appears that there will be a lot of fanfare and trumpet blowing, charges and counter-charges, and that the entire project will wither on the vine.

THE FARM BILL IN THE SENATE

While this newsletter is being written, the Senate is debating amendments to the farm bill. Three weeks ago it was almost a sure thing that the Senate would vote 90 per cent supports for basic commodities. During the past three weeks, one of the hardest hitting propaganda and lobbying campaigns has been carried on against the American farmer that you can imagine. The Department of Agriculture has been on the move to defeat every attempt to restore mandatory stability to the price supports. They want the discretionary power that gives them economic control over the American farmer. One of the worst mistakes that has ever been made in our history was the delegation of too much power by the Legislative Branch to the Executive Branch. As long as this power is exercised in a reasonable, sound manner, there isn't much to fear; but an abuse of it can cause wide-spread hardship. At the present time it appears that the campaign of the Administration against 90 per cent props has been successful. We will know the answer before you get this letter, but it will depend upon what some Southern Senators do. If they switch over and support Benson and the flexible, the Administration will win and the American farmer will lose.

It seems certain that the soil bank provision will remain in the bill in some form or another. There are many, many misgivings about this type of operation. In theory, it is similar to parts of the old Brannan Plan that was so soundly condemned by Benson's crowd in the past. However, the recommendation of it by Benson did not surprise many of us, simply because he has been following the Brannan Plan, in so far as wool was concerned, for some time. He seems to be trying to win a legislative battle at the risk of losing an economic war.

CIVIL RIGHTS

There is an old saying that politics produces strange bed-fellows. There is another philosophical gem to the effect that "if you will just wait, that which is unpopular today will soon be popular, and vice versa." Both of these sayings were certainly proven beyond any doubt this last week in Washington. There was a "Leadership Conference on Civil Rights" scheduled for March 4th, 5th and 6th. A request was made by the Department of Labor to the General Services Administration that the Interdepartmental Auditorium be provided for this conference. The use of the auditorium is supposed to be restricted by regulations to the following: "a. Agencies of the Federal Government and the Government of the District of Columbia, for official use. b. Officially recognized agencies, clubs, or educational units of the Federal Government or the Government of the District of Columbia." See GSA R3-282-November 1953. Regulations and policies in the past have prohibited the use of this auditorium for "special meetings, meetings of a political, sectarian, fraternal or similar nature". The General Services Administration granted the use of the auditorium to the Civil Rights Conference.

Several of the Members of Congress, including myself, joined in a wire to the President protesting the use of the auditorium for that purpose, because the propaganda leading up to this meeting clearly indicated the political nature of the meeting. The New York Communist Daily Worker of February 14, 1956, made the following appeal: "Support the mass lobby for Civil Rights in Washington March 4th, 5th and 6th." The Chairman of the Conference made the following public statement: "The influence of the assembly on the Congress will depend less upon the number of individual delegates in attendance than upon the number of states and congressional districts represented." In other words, the purpose of the meeting was for lobbying activities, yet the Administration granted the use of the auditorium. Needless to say, all of the signers of the telegram to the President were Southerners.

The meeting almost turned into a cat fight, because representatives of both the Republican and Democratic Parties got into a word fight as to who could take the most credit for desegregation and all of the trouble that it has caused in the last few years. The big question is—why have the Republicans suddenly adopted the Truman Civil Rights Program and tried to expand it. Looks political from here.

I am happy to say that the only ones that have come straight down the middle of the road on this issue are the Southerners, and I am proud to be numbered among them.

And when you take the wheel and "give the gun" to its mighty, aircraft-type, Super Red Ram V-8 engine, your enthusiasm will burst all bounds. For the Texan boasts a power-plant just like the sturdy Dodge that made automotive history on the celebrated Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah.

Surely you've read or heard recently how a '56 Dodge stock car shattered 306 AAA records for endurance and speed in that sensational 14-day, non-stop run. In this officially witnessed performance, Dodge covered the first 10,000 miles at an average speed of 105.43 miles per hour... then went on to cover more than 31,000 miles of round-the-clock driving at a record-breaking clip. This is the greatest distance at the fastest pace any car has ever travelled.

Now this handsome, flair-fashioned, specially trimmed Texan offers you the same rugged endurance and the same eager power as the Dodge that established these records. What's more, your biggest surprise is still to come!

Most likely, you'd expect to pay a pretty price for a great car like this. Not so! The Texan is priced right down with the so-called "low-priced three." Yet it's big and powerful and luxurious... actually rivaling cars costing as much as a thousand dollars more!

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS
by Uncle Zeb

Speaking of men needing an ego-builder and we did last week. We heard the following which could be called a pride-buster. It seemed the man was sitting before the mirror (of all things) putting the finished pats on his almost bald spot. In all seriousness (I am sure) he asked his wife the following question and received the then following answer.

"Honey, do you know how many really important men there are in the world?"
"No dear, but I know this there is one less than you think."
No comment, please.

Not long ago, Weldon Lewis of Borger sent us the following poem written by a member of his church, Mr. J. D. Rutledge. Weldon is Music Director of the Calvary Baptist of that city. Thanks a lot to both of you. It goes like this,

When I was a boy, down in Arkansas,
I lived on a farm with my Ma and Pa.
I split rails and fence posts too,
And went the whole year without any shoes.
I worked the old mare to the single stock,
I plowed the ground and turned the rocks.
When we planted the corn we dropped it by hand;
When our work was done at the end of the day,
We went to the house, we never got to play.
We ate our supper by the old coal oil lamp.
Then we went to bed to get our nap.
We slept a few hours on enrod

strawbed,
Got up in the morning, still half dead.
But when the sun came up and begin to shine,
We were in the field working, we were always behind.
One day my Ma, said to my Pa, You gotta buy that kid some shoes or leave Arkansas.
Pa hooked the team to the old two seated hack,
We went to town, I didn't want to come back.
But Pa bought me a new pair of shoes,
And I went back home to spread the news.

We also heard of the man that boasted that when he got married he would be the boss or know the reason why. Now he is married and knows the reason why.

Someone has said; "Consider the oyster, with a little grit he produces a pearl of great value."

Several times we have asked for our readers to send in their favorite saying. Each time we always get another good supply, but I guess it is a hobby of ours but we continue to be fascinated by old time sayings. So again, we ask that you send us your favorite. If we haven't already used the one you send in, we will do so. Then in our opinion we will pick out the best three and send the senders a free subscription to our favorite Farm Magazine. So hurry them in and see what happens.

Like this one; "Years wrinkle the skin, loss of enthusiasm wrinkles the soul."

The first of March we had been writing this column for 10 years. It doesn't seem that long to me just looking back. But from the first humble try in the first issue of the Claude News under new management in the first week of March, 1946 until now would surely add up to ten years. An awful lot has happened to the world to me in that space of time.

If I should start out to tell of the many many ways that the Lord had blessed us, and been so wonderful and good to Mama and me it would take a whole book to tell about that. Then when we think how wonderful and good the church, the community, and you the readers have been to both of us we just feel like shouting for joy. So many little things are always happening. Say for instance we feel sort of down in the dumps on some occasion; just nearly every time we will get a nice letter or some of you will come by for a friendly visit and all of a sudden we are feeling wonderful again. Anyway, it has been a precious ten years of our life; the very best of any ten year period so we say Thank You, and God Bless You Every One. Write us often.
Signed,
Uncle Zeb & Mama

SOCIAL SECURITY INFORMATION

Under new Social Security regulations, sharecroppers are considered self-employed individuals for Federal tax purposes according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the local Social Security District Office.

A sharecropper is any person who works a crop for a share of that crop, if his share depends upon the amount of crops or livestock produced. This includes such persons known as half-hands, half-renters, half-tenants, and half-croppers, providing their income also depends upon the amount they produce. Such self-employed persons must pay their own social security tax when they file their income tax return, even if no income tax is due. This tax amounts to three percent of
