"FASTER" THAN ITS AMMO—Believed to be the first such night photograph ever taken, this picture shows an F-89 jet fighter apparently racing ahead of its own ammunition. Tracer streaks from six 20 millimeter cannons registered on the film before the plane was "frozen" by a powerful stroboscopic light flash which lasted less than 1/5000 of a second. The unusual picture was taken at Edwards Air Force base, Hawthorne, Calif.

Locals Defeat Panhandle 8 to 7

The Clarendon baseball club defeated Panhandle, the top team in the Caprock League here last Sunday afternoon in a thrilling game that had a little of most everything exciting throughout the nine innings. The final score was 8 to 7 in favor of Clarendon.

The game was quite close throughout the first seven innings with Panhandle leading 3 to 1. The visitors broke loose with four runs in the first of the eighth but as it so happened, both teams changed pitchers and the game went wild with the locals making six runs in the 8th and putting over the needed score in the 9th.

Dorman was relieved in the 8th by Coach Tom Harrell. Both did a fine pitching job.

The local team has an open date for this coming Sunday and no game will be played unless a game can be matched between now and Sunday.

Farmers Have Begun Poisoning 'Hoppers'

H. M. Breedlove, county agent says that farmers in the county have begun to poison grasshoppers in the past week. The best poison to use at this time when the foliage is green and being eaten by the hoppers is toxaphene. This poison should be applied at the rate of one and one-half pounds per acre regardless of the amount of water used. The container will tell whether the toxaphene is four or six pounds of the actual toxaphene per gallon. If it is four pounds per gallon then use one and one-half quarts per acre; if it is six pounds then use one quart per acre.

Toxaphene used at the rate above will not harm livestock and can be used in the pasture. Breedlove says that toxaphene is best to use because it is cheaper than chlorodane and BHC and these three chemicals have about the same characteristics as far as killing power is concerned.

Breedlove also says that plenty of sodium floussilicate is on hand in the county to be mixed with wet bait and be given at no cost, but the farmer must furnish the bran. This type poison is not effective until the foliage becomes dry on plants and hoppers begin to move into greener fields.

Toxaphene will give a kill for about one week depending on the weather.

If any one needs information be sure to call on the county agent.

Bond Issue Explained To Lions Club

Jimmy Faulkner, manager of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, addressed the regular Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Lions Club, 'The Civic Improvement Bond Issue', on which an election has been called for Saturday, June 21st, was the topic of Faulkner's address. In his remarks he answered several questions that have been being asked quite frequently by Clarendon citizens since the resolution calling the election was passed by the City Commission on May 29.

"The passing of the bonds for road and street improvement does not mean that the City is automatically plunged $47,000 in debt. First, property owners in each block must get together and decide if they want paving by their property. Their share of the cost is one third which they will have to pay. Then enough of the bonds will be sold by the city to pave the alleys and intersections for the number of blocks that individual property owners want paved. Maybe one half, one third or all of the bonds will be sold but it depends on the number of blocks that the people want paved as to the amount of debt that will be created," Faulkner explained.

Undoubtedly this question will arise. What is the present financial condition of the City of Clarendon? The answer is—good. Mr. J. M. Stensaas, a Financial and Bond expert, who represents the Bonding Firm of R. A. Underwood & Co. in Dallas, reported to the city officials this week that the City of Clarendon is in much better financial condition today than most of the towns of equal size and larger where Bond Issues elections have carried, and that the City of Clarendon could support this issue without an increase in taxes. He also stated that Clarendon's needs seemed to be greater at this time than most towns of her equivalent.

The present tax rate is a maximum of $1.50. However, the city is only charging the taxpayers $1.35. The interest and sinking fund uses seventy cents while the general fund uses sixty five cents. These figures will remain the same, Faulkner continued.

Willard Skeltin, member of the City Commission, later verified that "no across the board tax increase" would be made. Skeltin added that the City Board of Tax Equalization would sit June 18 and 19, two days before the date of the special bond election. The Equalization Board will be instructed to "forget" that a bond election is in the offing. They will be guided in their work by the following: "Are the values represented in each valuation, in line with the values of other property in Clarendon as it has been rendered for taxing purposes?"

Faulkner will complete one year as manager of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce on June 15th. He recently announced that he will be a candidate in the July primaries for election to State Representative of the 88th District of Texas. The District includes Donley, Hall, Childress and Motley Counties.

Farmers Warned To Be On Lookout For Cotton Insects

Cotton over the entire county is looking good at this time and county agent H. M. Breedlove warns farmers to be on the lookout for cotton insects. The cotton flea hopper, aphids, leaf worms, boll worms and many others can harm your cotton. The county agent says that arrangements have been made for plenty of poison to be stored in the county and you can buy it from local dealers. When you first notice cotton insects working on your cotton be sure to call by the office of the county agent and work out a dusting or spraying program. The infested fields will be gone over with the county agent and the farmer and work out the best poisons according to the insects for control measures.

The time to control cotton insects is when they first start, so be sure to keep on the lookout and start early on the poison work.

Two Martin Ladies Die In Two-Car Collision Sunday

A two-car collision shortly after noon Sunday at the road crossing at Martin claimed the lives of two prominent ladies of that community, Mrs. Guy Sibley and Mrs. Chester Talley. Injured in the accident were Mrs. Sibley's two daughters, Jo Anne and Wanda of Clarendon and Joy Sibley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horton Sibley of Amarillo. Their conditions are reported not serious at this time. Also injured were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hawthorn and Dee Townsend of Wellington. Their injuries which included cuts and bruises and knee fractures, were described as not serious.

The accident happened shortly after noon. Mrs. Sibley, Mrs. Talley and the three girls had just left church services at the Martin school house. The Sibley car was traveling south on the country road west of the school house and the Hawthorn car was traveling east on Highway 237. Officers described the accident as just one of those things that happen with poor visibility a contributing factor. Long skid marks on the pavement gave evidence of the effort made by Hawthorn to avoid the collision. The Sibley car was struck broadside, throwing the occupants from the vehicle. Occupants of the other car were thrown into the windshield and the front of the car was smashed. Occupants of both cars were rushed to a Memphis hospital for treatment in Murphy-Spicer ambulances.

This accident marks the second tragedy to strike this area in less than 45 days at which time the lives of two prominent ladies were snuffed out in each case and both accidents occurred within a half mile of each other. Mrs. L. E. Thompson and Mrs. Forrest Sawyer died in a similar accident Thursday night, May 1st a short distance beyond the Martin crossing. On each occasion the cars in which the ladies were riding were struck broadside.

W. M. Montgomery Harvests First Wheat

W. M. Montgomery, prominent farmer and long time Clarendon resident, took off the honors this year, harvesting the first wheat here. His acreage was small but the wheat was good taking everything into consideration. He harvested 3 acres which was grown in the south part of Clarendon where he lives. It produced 31 bushels to the acre, tested 62 with 11 1/2 moisture content. He sold the wheat to Clarendon Grain Co. for $2.07 per bu.

At the present time it is estimated that approximately 24,000 acres of wheat will be harvested out of 30,000 acres planted to wheat.

To The Voters of Donley County

I regret that due to circumstances beyond my control I am forced to take this method of bringing to you my candidacy for reelection as your county Judge. As most or perhaps all of you know, I was in the hospital almost four weeks and have been home some three weeks. My doctors tell me they were agreeably surprised and gratified at my rapid recovery and steady improvement. However they warn me that undue fatigue or physical exhaustion must be avoided for some time. I feel physically fit except of course I haven't had time to regain my strength. When I announced around the first of the year I meant to try to contact each and every voter in the county before the primary. That of course is now impossible. I realize I must stand or fall on my record of almost four years as your county Judge. I am not ashamed of that record. However I feel that I am much closer to the needs and requirements of my County than I was four years ago. I would again thank each and every one who aided and assisted me in the discharge of my duties as your County Judge. I very earnestly and respectfully solicit your vote and influence both now and on July 26th, 1952. Sincerely, Your County Judge. W. J. Williams

When we issue from seventy to 151 books and magazines per day for three consecutive weeks you can imagine the rush we have during the 3 hours per day we are open. However, as the boys and girls adjust themselves to vacation their interest in reading will decline.

The books to arrive this week are "The Highland Hawk" by Leslie F. White, and "The Adventures in Two Worlds" by Dr. A. J. Cronin. This latter I have spoken of before, and "The Highland Hawk" is a period novel by the author of "Lord Johnnie" that was very popular.

Barker - Morris Vows Read In Church Service

In a pretty service in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church at 3:00 Sunday afternoon, Mary Lou Barker and Royce Morris were united in marriage. Rev. I. E. Biggs, pastor, officiated for the single ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged beneath an arch entwined with greenery and white sweet peas and centered with an arrangement of white wedding bells and satin bows. Flanking the arch were baskets of white lilies. Vases of garden flowers completed the setting.

Mrs. Doyce Graham played a piano prelude of nuptial selections including Berlin's "Always," D'Hardelot's "Because," and De Koven's, "Oh Promise Me."

The bride wore a light blue crepe street length dress with pink rosebuds. Her maid of honor, Sandra Bownds, was attired in a pink organdy dress with white accessories and blue corsage. The groom's attendant was Frank Jones.

The couple were graduates of Clarendon High School this spring where they were very popular students. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barker of the Hudgins community, was football co-queen of the 1951-52 squad, an officer in the senior class, a member of the Kappa Sub Debs, and a member of Jr. Beaux Arts. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Morris of Berkeley, California and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Cap Morris of Clarendon.

The couple will make their home in Berkeley, Calif.

The word "alibi" literally means "elsewhere."

Miss Patsy Jackson, daughter of Mr. J. F. Jackson and Mr. Glenn Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reid were united in marriage June 5th at the J. F. Jackson home in a single ring ceremony. Bro. C. T. Williams performed the ceremony.

Miss Bertha Mae Reid, sister of the groom attended as maid of honor. She chose a pale green organdy dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Weldon Talley attended as best man.

A reception was held in the J. F. Jackson home afterwards.

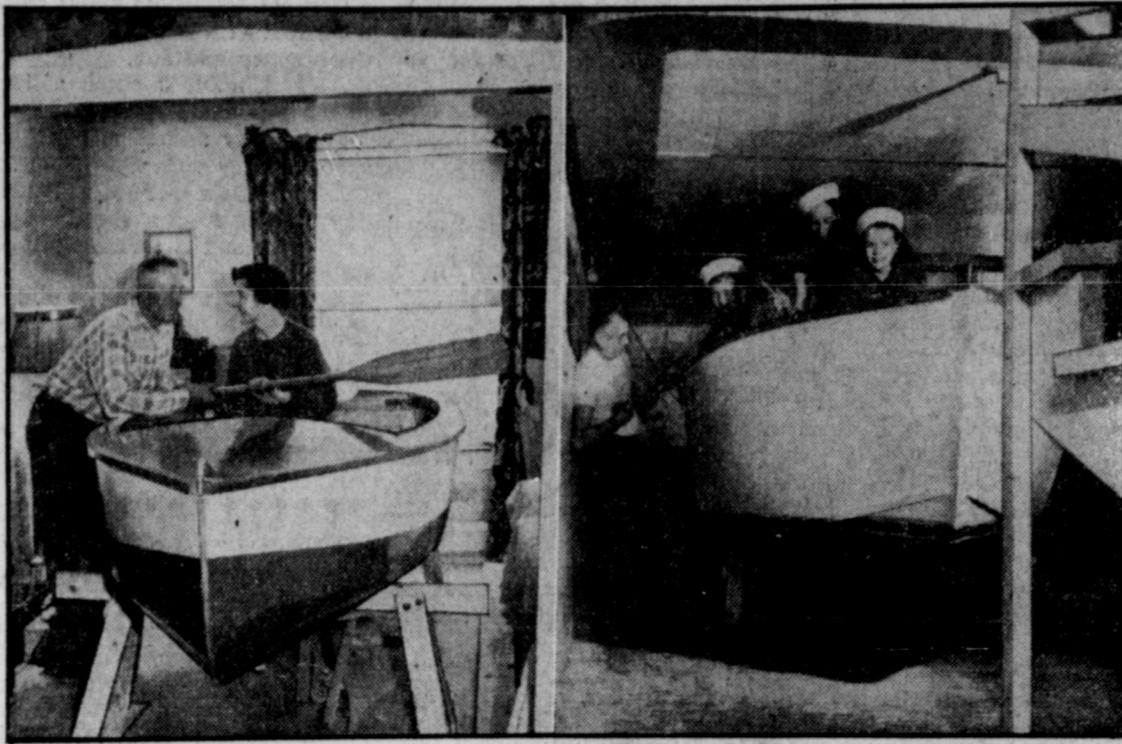

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Clarendon where the groom is employed at the Donley County Frozen Food Locker.

HIGH AND DRY IN CHICAGO—Almost as if by design, Ernest Karlsson and Ruben Markstrom, both of Chicago, are confronted with identical problems. They both spent the winter building boats in their houses; Karlsson in his basement, Markstrom in his second floor living room. At right, the Karlsson family enjoys an imaginary cruise in their 21-foot motor boat as dad applies some finishing touches. He'll have to remove the stairs, at right, and knock an eight-foot hole in the basement wall to extricate his handiwork project. Markstrom, left, with his wife, plans to lower his 14-foot, 225-pound ship out the window.

June Is Dairy Month In Texas

AUSTIN—June is dairy month in Texas and the multi-million dollar industry is seeking to focus the eyes of some 7 million Texas consumers on the greater use of dairy foods as the road to better health.

In cities large and small, in homes and on farms, consumers are being told through a 30-day industry-wide observance that butter, cheese, ice cream and milk are "roads-to-good-health musts" on the family table 365 days of the year.

Governor Allan Shivers in proclaiming June as Dairy Month in Texas emphasized importance of milk and dairy foods as essential to the diet of defense workers.

The Dairy Products Institute of Texas, coordinating the June program, released figures citing the contributions of the industry to Texas.

Last year dairying produced more than $200 millions in farm income for 3 out of 4 Texas farms with some 12,000 commercial Grade A dairies dependent upon milk as their chief income. Some 60,000 farm units, the Institute said, depended upon milk and milk products for their income.

The Institute estimated that the dairy industry contributed $400 millions annually to the commerce of the state with some 500,000 persons earning a livelihood from production, processing, distribution and sale of dairy products.

"Housewives spend more than 15 per cent of their food budgets for dairy products," said Floyd Jensen, State Chairman for June Dairy Month program. "For this they get 30 per cent of the food consumed in this state. And in this one-third of the family food, the housewife provides her family with three-fourths of its calcium, one-half of its ribo flavin, and substantial quantities of every other nutrient vital to human development."

Service clubs, like Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions, are sponsoring programs in June to assist their members in a better appreciation of the services of the dairy industry. Many conventions and special meetings over the state will discuss the industry and the part it plays in the Texas economy.

such items are not considered lost. The proper custodian to hold them for the owners return would be the proprietor or other person in charge. Remaining unclaimed, the property sometimes goes to this custodian, sometimes to the finder. The distinction here appears to be whether the place it is found is private or semi-private, or a place used by the general public.

Every month or so we see a newspaper item telling how some gullible person has learned the intricacies of the shady game known to police as "pigeon drop", at a cost of several hundred dollars. This confidence racket has many variations, but generally runs something like this.

A pair of smooth operators sidle up to their intended victim on a downtown street. Strangers to each other, they have just found a billfold containing a large denomination bill or a large check, say $1000. They want to split the find, but neither has the money to buy out the other's interest. Now, if the victim can get hold of some cash, they are willing to split three ways, or even to give him more than one-third.

When the sucker produces the money in anticipation of a quick return on his investment, complications develop. One of the confidence workers may have consulted a fictitious employer in the absence of the victim. Now the billfold, its contents and the victim's money must be left in the employer's custody a few days in case the owner appears. Then the division is to be made. He takes the money to turn it in to the employer — just up the street a few doors — and disappears. His co-worker also judiciously takes his or her leave.

Numerous twists, not too credible in print, but all sounding very plausible when suggested

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

The old rhyme, "finders keepers—losers weepers," is not always strictly accurate under the law. It is sometimes difficult to define the rights of a finder in court, and much confusion on the subject exists in the mind of the public generally. Confidence men have many times taken advantage of such confusion to "fast talk" unwary individuals out of large sums of money.

There are some rather fine distinctions and exceptions to the "finders keepers" maxim that have plagued the courts—and finders—for generations. In the first place, the finder is not entitled to keep the property unless the original owner is not known and cannot be located. Neither may he keep it unless the object is truly "lost", and not merely "mis-laid." In general, property is legally "lost" when parted with involuntarily—through accident, neglect, forgetfulness or any other unintentional circumstance. Property is not lost in the legal sense when voluntarily left by the owner, intending to pick it up later—even though he fails to do so. Such property is "mis-laid."

Thus, if one loses a watch on the street by having the clasp break, not knowing where or when it was dropped, it is legally "lost." The same is true of a fountain pen falling through a hole in one's pocket unobserved. In such cases, the finder owns what he has found against all but the true owner.

But when articles are left on a train or bus, in a public hotel room, or even when dropped on a shop floor, under circumstances indicating that the true owner will later return to claim them,

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

1952 LOAN PROGRAM

Under the 1952 Loan and Price Support Program, County PMA offices will be authorized to accept and process loan and purchase agreements, write sight drafts, retain custody of loan papers, accept repayments and schedule remittances direct to Federal Reserve Banks. The new plan places the entire operation of the loan program on the PMA County Committee and is designed to offer farmers better service. This new program is one result of the FARM POLICY REVIEW made in all the counties in every state last year. Farmers recommended that the county Committees be given more authority where the loans were concerned so that those who had loans could have better and faster service.

The Loan Rates for Donley County are as follows:

Wheat: $2.16 for No. 1 wheat.
Grain Sorghums: $2.33 for No. 2 or better

Cotton: NOT LESS THAN 30.91 cents per pound, basis Middling 7/8-inch.

The County Committee, the Administrative Officer and the Loan Clerk from our office attended a meeting in Amarillo on Thursday and Friday of last week to learn the details of the new loan and price support Program. This new Program should prove to be of great benefit to those producers who take advantage of the loan programs.

1952 CONSERVATION PROGRAM

A total of 265 Donley County Producers have taken advantage of PMA assistance on good soil and water conservation practices this year. The amounts issued are as follows:

- For Terraces: $1889.00
- For Diversion Terraces: $2817.
- For Waterways: $100.00
- For Erosion Control Dams: $94.00

Soil Conservation District News

The harvesting of small grains in the Donley County Soil Conservation District is just around the corner. Farmers will soon be making plans for plowing the land following the combines. The method used in plowing this stubble is very important in regard to protecting the land from both wind and water erosion as well as to future crop yields.

Plowing the land so as to leave most of the crop residue on or near the surface is the proper method.

This organic litter on the surface is beneficial in many ways. It serves as a barrier to soil removal by any force. It cuts down the rate of evaporation, serves as a protective coat to the soil against extreme temperatures, and keeps the soil open to allow better penetration of water. Also the organic content of soils are maintained or improved through the use of the crop residue or stubble mulching practice.

The sweep type plow is the most popular implement for this type of plowing. Clogging of the straw may be prevented with rolling coulters set in front of the sweeps to cut the residue and weeds.

The District has a sweep plow of this type which is available for rent at 20¢ per acre. The District Supervisors are anxious for a number of farmers to try this machine and to see the advantage over the conventional methods of plowing.

Sen. Taft seems to feel that he has the "Cow by the tail and a downhill pull" for the nomination on the Republican ticket. Right now General Ike has the support of more of the people. If the election was soon and the Republicans would by pass tradition and nominate him, there is little question but that the General would be elected. In my opinion he could beat anything on either ticket getting votes. But will they do it; will they forsake party tradition of sticking by the party faithfuls? That's the big question. Truman is good and stirred up because of the supreme courts rebuff. It is entirely possible for him to change his mind and stay in the race. If he thought that he was the only socialistic minded democrat that could be elected he would agree to run again in the twinkling of an eye, in spite of all that has been said.

A Sunday School teacher was asking the beginners about the Bible characters. Do you know who Matthew was? There was silence. Do you know who Mark was? Still there was silence. Surely you know who Peter was, asked the impatient teacher. "I know that," said Johnnie. "I think he was a rabbit."

Received quite a lot of comment pro and con on the rule for planting cotton that we had in this column the other week. Several gave me other rules; every thing from when grand-ma's rheumatism stopped bothering till when the younguns began kicking the cover off in the spring. Much of the advice was unfit for publication. I remember what one of our neighbors used to say about planting hegar. If you have ever planted it you know that if the wind blows a little it will dry out; if it thunders a couple of times the stuff will crust in. Anyway, this neighbor would always say: "If you can't look back behind you down the row and see it coming up, you just as well turn around and

What's the big idea of DYNAFLOW DRIVE?

THERE are all sorts of "drives" and "shifts" on the market.

Some still operate entirely by hand. Some depend on shifting gears, but do this automatically. Some feed the power through oil, but use a lock-out device at cruising speeds.

But we still think that Dynaflo* is the best of all for this simple reason:

The big idea of Dynaflo Drive is to make life easy for the driver.

In traffic, you can start and stop, slow down, accelerate with complete and infinite smoothness—because no gears have to shift, ever, in Dynaflo Drive. So there's no lurch, buck or bobble. Dynaflo always feeds power with a steady, willing swoop—at 3 miles an hour or 30—or as high as it's legal to go. On hills, you get the same sure, steady, unfaltering power-feed for the same reason. No gears ever shift.

On a long day's drive, you can ride with wonderful freedom from tension—your foot relaxed on the throttle—because you always drive through oil.

And at any speed you get a smoother ride, in part because Dynaflo Drive provides such a smooth and gentle linkage between that mighty Fireball 8 Engine and the rest of the chassis.

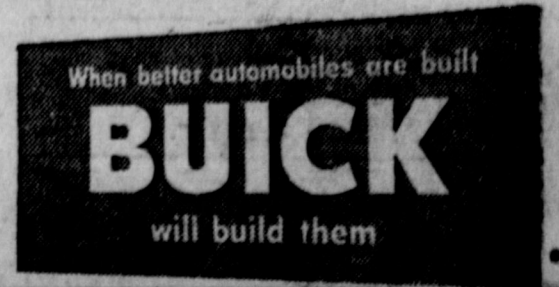

But this is not all. Our service records show that Dynaflo also makes life easier for your bank account. It saves wear and strain on the engine, banishes the cost of clutch repairs, saves strain on the transmission and even on the rear tires.

There are a lot of other good reasons for buying a Buick—its style, its room, its ride, its power, its thrift, its durability—and its price.

When you can get all this—plus Dynaflo Drive—why be a holdout? Come in and give Dynaflo a try today.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

One Big Day for FATHER

Gruff Old Dad! Surely, he doesn't want a day to honor him! Ask for an x-ray picture of his heart, and you will know better. He may be tanned of face and rough of hand, but his big heart is Very tender. Yes, let's observe Father's Day. Let us keep it with enthusiasm! He will appreciate it all the more because we have neglected him so long.

What strange and wonderful people these Fathers are! They may look old, but on the inside they are still boys. They are ready for the pleasures of their childhood. Surprise them and you will catch them when the guards of age and dignity are down. They will be easy victims of love's attack. Give them a whole big day when they receive... instead of give.

Wise and appreciative women and men could find no better word for their Divine Creator, than this name, "Father." He is more like God than any other. Treat him that way for one day, "Father's Day," and gladden his heart for all the days to come. Yes, give him one whole big day. It is Father's Day.

To The People of The 18th District

By Cong. Walter Rogers

THE TIDELANDS VETO:

The veto of the tidelands bill by the President came as no surprise. The veto message reached the Senate at two o'clock on May 29th. At the time I was sitting in the Senate Chamber along with Congressmen Poage, Ikard, Pickett, and Teague. We received some of the first copies of the message after it was delivered to the Senate. The reason that the message went back to the Senate rather than the House of Representatives is because the bill that was finally passed was a Senate bill, S. J. Res. 20. The Senate will vote on the question of overriding the veto sometime between June 5th and June 10th under present plans. Should the Senate override the veto, the matter will then come to the House of Representatives, where there is no question about overriding the veto. That is, if the Senate overrides the veto, the tidelands question will finally be settled right. Should the Senate fail to override the veto, the matter will not come back to the House of Representatives, and the tidelands legislation will have suffered another setback. I say "another setback" for the reason that a failure on the part of the Senate to override the veto does not mean that the issue is settled. This fight will never be relaxed until this matter is settled right and these lands returned to their rightful owners. Much has been said about the present President of the United States being set in his ways and obstinate. Some say this is a basic Missouri trait. Be that as it may, I can tell the President of the United States and all other interested parties that they don't know the meaning of the phrase "set in their ways" or the word "obstinate" until they try to run over a bunch of Texans. That is exactly what they have done and they can get ready to take their medicine. If they think for one minute that we as Texans have ever entertained the idea of submitting to this rank and flagrant misuse of property rights and this legalized larceny on the part of the Federal Government, they are in for the saddest awakening of their questionable careers. The President's veto message clearly exhibits that the INFAMOUS GREED that prompted this attempted theft in the first instance is still the only grounds upon which they stand in their sordid attempt to justify an act that has no parallel in the criminals annals of this nation. The tidelands steal that began with the reversal of position by Harold Ickes will go down in the history of this country as the greatest crime that was ever perpetrated by a government upon its patriotic and law-abiding citizenry. Nothing can ever erase the black mark caused by the warped philosophy that prompted centralized government scoundrels to make this raid. It can, however, be dimmed by a full restoration of the property stolen, the acknowledgement that a wrong has been committed, a confession by these wrong-doers that they have violated the spirit and the word of the Constitution and the written law of this great land, and a humble request by each of them that they be allowed to re-dedicate their lives to the basic philosophy of truth, honesty and Americanism.

The House of Representatives stands ready, able, and willing to meet its responsibilities to the people of the coastal states who have been subjected to this unethical and ignominious treatment at the hands of the Federal Government. I only hope and pray that the Senate of the United States will permit the light of Truth to shine upon its chambers and measure up to the glorious traditions of fairness and justice so necessary for the survival of our union.

Mrs. Edith Longan went home with her daughter Mrs. Stephens Sunday to visit in Plainview. She will also visit with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Corder and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Edith Longan.

Mrs. Alta Bellamy of Austin is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Williams and Judge Williams.

Mrs. Edith Longan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Estlack, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Longan and boys enjoyed a birthday supper for Harley in the Harold Longan home. It was also a farewell supper for Mrs. Harold Longan and family who are moving to Hot Springs, Arkansas to make their home.

June Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Day left Thursday night for San Antonio where he will receive his basic in the Air Corps.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
"Good Neighbor Policy"

Remember one time when I told about the old loose-stone wall that separated Easy Roberts' property from Handy Peterson's?
That was when they decided they really didn't need the wall between them in the first place—so they simply stopped repairing it.
Now I hear where a fellow, who bought the old Johnson place, wants to buy all those stones. It seems he figures a stone wall is just what's needed on his property.
From where I sit, if that fellow wants to build himself a stone wall, that's his business. But if it's not really serving any useful purpose he may sooner or later discover—just like Handy and Easy did—that he'd be just as well off without one. Even the old-fashioned walls of prejudice are disappearing—like those that would deny a person's right to a friendly glass of beer now and then. Most Americans are learning that "walls" can get in the way of the persons inside as well as the persons outside.

more for your money

EVER buy a telephone? Ever receive a bill for telephone repair or maintenance, or the many feet of wiring that connect your telephone within the house? The answer, of course, is no. These are items of cost you never have to contend with.

Now, ask yourself the same questions about any of your other home appliances—refrigerator, kitchen range, radio, water heater. Original cost and month-to-month maintenance of such items amounts to a sizable investment

But, you don't have to buy the telephone or its wiring—that's part of your telephone company's investment. And, monthly telephone bills take care of all operating expenses, as well as a return to investors. No matter how often you use local telephone service, you pay the same for it each month.

Considering all this, don't you agree that telephone service is the biggest value in your budget?
