Reveal New Russian Jet Plane

NEW YORK—Here is model of one of Russia's newest twin jet war planes, believed to be a fighter or ground attack craft, as visualized by the trade journal, Aviation Age. One jet engine is visible alongside fuselage, above wing. This plane has been seen in Poland, but not as yet on the Korea front.

Pheasant-Shoot To Be Held At Country Club

A Pheasant-Shoot will be held this coming Sunday, January 20, on the trap range at the Clarendon Country Club.

The shoot will start at 1:30 o'clock P. M. instead of the previous time of 2 P. M.

Two pheasants will be given the winner in each round, and the pheasants will be dressed and frozen. Hams and sides of bacon will also be given as prizes. No turkeys will be given.

Previous turkey-shoots held at the Country Club have been quite successful, and the attendance, both in spectators and participants in the shooting, have increased with each shooting match.

This pheasant-shoot is not limited to persons who are supposed to be good shots, and a beginner does not have to shoot against such persons. There are usually five persons shooting in each round, and all you have to do is select the group which you think are of like shooting ability.

The trap range set up by the Country Club is one of the best trap ranges, both in equipment and in background, in the state. Come out and see the shooting whether you want to participate in the shooting or not.

Participants in the shooting may either furnish their own ammunition, or it is available at the Club. The Club will furnish the clay targets.

Family Marks Anniversaries

A triple celebration was held recently by members of the R. O. Reynolds family who marked Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds 50th wedding anniversary, the birthday of their twin son and daughter, Loyd Reynolds of Amarillo and Mrs. Bertha Vanmeter of Kilgore, and the 16th wedding anniversary of another daughter, Mrs. Floyd Guthrie of McLean.

The party was held at the home of the Reynolds daughter, Mrs. George McCracken of Albreed.

The couple was married at Gurdon, Ark. They now make their home at Clarendon.

A turkey dinner was served to 56 members of the family and other guests.

The Reynolds are the parents of 11 children, all of whom were present except one daughter, Mrs. Ella Wells of Gurdon, Ark. They have 40 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Reynolds of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reynolds and daughter of Gurdon; Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Reynolds and family of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vanmeter and daughter of Kilgore; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds and family, Alamogordo, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Price Webb and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reynolds and son, all of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Sellkirk McAnear and family, Goodnight; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Guthrie and family, McLean; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Reynolds, Clarendon, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop and family, Memphis.

Part of Loot In Local Robbery Recovered

A part of the loot taken from Hudson & Taylor's early Christmas morning has been recovered and two Lawton, Okla. youths Dale Boone, 17 years old and Roy Cantrell, 17, are being held in connection with the robbery. The youths were picked up for questioning at Albuquerque, N. M. last week.

Willard Hudson, partner of the firm, accompanied Sheriff Guy Wright to Lawton Tuesday where the youths were questioned. According to Hudson, the youths had spent all the money and that only about fifty percent of the stolen goods had been recovered to date. Another youth stole part of the loot from Boone and Cantrell which has complicated recovery of numerous items, although practically all the guns were recovered. The youths told Hudson that they spent about an hour and a half looting the store and used flashlights to see their way around.

The youths will stand trial in Oklahoma before they are brought here to face charges.

SIMS P.T.A. TO MEET TODAY

The Sims P.T.A. will hold their regular meeting, Thursday, today, at 3 o'clock in the Junior High School Auditorium.

Students of the fourth grade will present the program. The public is invited to attend.

Only 12 More Days To Pay Poll Tax

After today there will be only 12 more work days to pay your poll tax. If the average number of tax receipts are to be issued, tax officials will have to write an average of around 70 receipts each day for the next twelve days that the tax office will be open. The total receipts issued to date is 1,030. This is an important election year, so don't wait until it is too late and be one of those persons that will say, "I sure wish I had taken time to pay my poll tax as I sure would like to vote for that candidate or vote against some unforeseen issue that had unexpectedly come up for vote."

Pay Your Poll Tax Now and avoid the last minute rush.

Fire Department Thanks Public

The Fire Department wishes to thank the people of Clarendon for the way in which they conducted themselves when going to a fire during the past year. We know that we can expect the same courtesy during the coming year. The first few minutes of a fire are the most important if the fire is to be put out. Please wait five minutes after the alarm is sounded before attempting to go to the scene of the fire as this will give the truck and firemen a chance to get to the fire with out trying to get through a lot of unnecessary traffic. Also, please keep your cars one block away from the fire and fire truck so that there will be plenty of room in which the firemen can work. We wish to thank you again for the splendid cooperation you have shown us.

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department.

ILLNESS KEEPING SCHOOL ABSENTEEISM HIGH

Flu and other types of illness is keeping absenteeism at a high mark in the local school system with the majority of absentees being reported in the lower grades. The total for all grades for the week ending January 11th was 194 days at a cost to the local school system of $174.60. Other schools over the Panhandle are reporting equally as high a number or a greater percentage than here in Clarendon.

Leader Shop Foreman Leaves For Service

Jim McKee, shop foreman for the Leader the past seven years, joined sixteen other men from the Pampa district at Pampa Wednesday morning for service with Uncle Sam under the Selective Service. McKee's services will be missed considerably and publication of the Leader may be off schedule for awhile until we are able to find a regular all-around printer to take his place. At the present time, Claude Hearn, of Amarillo, a former staff member of the Leader, will be with us part time to help out until we can find a good printer to fill McKee's place.

It was understood that Duane Littlefield left Wednesday with the group also. Since we have no definite reports from the Pampa office we may miss others that have left. It will help us at all times if you have information regarding service men or men going into the service, to call it in to us.

John M. Bass Jr. In Race for Governor Of Colorado

John M. Bass, Jr., a native of Donley County, has pitched his hat in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Colorado.

Mr. Bass went to Colorado a few years ago where he established his ranching interests in Powers County and only last year became manager of radio station KLMR in Lamar.

This is expected to be a hot race if the present governor Dan Thornton is re-nominated as the Republican candidate, for both men are natives of this section of the Panhandle. Mr. Thornton lived in Hall County until 1921 and later moved to Slaton before becoming a Coloradan.

Mrs. George Thompson and Mrs. Homer Estlack were Amarillo visitors Friday.

Gabie Retts Burton Library Notes
 By May L. Prewitt

This week we purchased "The Greatest Book Ever Written" by Fulton Ousler. This book has run as a serial in several daily papers, and quite a few were interested in the installments, therefore we considered a copy for the Library would be money profitably spent. There is a copy here of "The Greatest Story Ever Told," that is also by Fulton Ousler.

You adults that enjoy "down to earth stories" will be eager to read "Twelve Cows & We're In Clover" by George Rehm with an introduction by Louis Bromfield. George Rehm was 53 when he quit his career of 30 years as a newspaperman and decided to become a farmer. Read the book to find the great personal charm in its pages, made lively with anecdote and humor.

"The Caine Mutiny" by Herman Wouk has been a best seller since an early date in 1951. It has been reprinted thirteen times with a total production of 240,000 copies, conclusive evidence it has attracted many readers. You may read the Library copy.

"Savage Son" by Oren Arnold is a very unusual story of an Apache—Apache Carlos Montezuma. This is a story of Chicago's leading society doctor who developed tuberculosis and returned to his people to die. Exceptionally interesting but sad.

"The Bright Bright Water" by William Case may prove a total disappointment as the writer is young and apparently radical in his ideas. He has worked for News Week and other familiar publications.

Children's reading material and junior section has had no addition other than periodicals. This week—Our magazine friends have given a generous helping hand since the holidays. Our magazine stand is very interesting—even former Clarendon friends have contributed to some of these as Hobart E. Stocking's informative story

NOT BY A DAM SITE—Up until the present, Indians have had exclusive rights to fish in these falls at The Dalles on the Columbia River in Oregon and have won many legal battles to retain them. But the construction of The Dalles power dam will force the Red men to retreat from their ancient fishing grounds. The area will be flooded to make way for a 60-mile-long lake and spear-fishing for salmon at Celilo Falls will fade into history, another loss for the American Indian.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

A reader sends in the following clipping that gives the definition of the different Isms:

Capitalism — If you have two cows you sell one of them and buy a bull.

Socialism — If you have two cows you give one of them to your neighbor.

Communism — If you have two cows you give them to the government and the government gives you milk.

Fascism — If you have two cows you keep the cows and give the milk to the government.

New Deal — If you have two cows you shoot one, milk the other, then pour the milk down the drain.

Fair Deal — If you have two cows, you let them starve so you can buy your milk in can, thus making business better.

If I were adding a verse I would say that finally you had to skin the dead cows to pay the government the rest of your back taxes.

Recent political speeches sound to me like the usual political razzle-dazzle. "Give me more taxes, more votes and I will continue to give you some of your own taxes back to you in doles; chump that I am."

Dr. Henry C. Link says that the moral and spiritual decline in this country has followed in exactly the same proportion and we have cheapened our dollar. If he is right our moral values are worth 39 cents on the one time dollar.

A friend of mine was stopped on Polk Street recently and asked the following by a fellow who was rather on the moochy side: "Loan me two dollars until my brother straightens up." My friend was somewhat impressed and led the man into a conversation and finally asked him what was wrong with his brother. "Oh, he's a hunch-back" calmly replied the beggar.

New song dedicated to the new postal card: "Only One Penny More; Only One Penny More."

Don H. Morris says in an editorial appearing in the December "Horizons"; a small magazine published by Abilene Christian College that we are trading our spirit of frontier-awareness for a safe bed. New worlds to conquer are traded for a safe bed in our home. We have lost our drive to get out on our own." Not only that but he continues to say that we are developing a kind of a mass uniformity. We consider it something to be ashamed of to be different. And how right he is. Do you remember how that if we had stuck our head out on the street and shouted "Down With W. Lee", half the town and part of the country would have been around our neck with a rope in no time at all. In a few short months you can't find a person who even remembers the great lover of the common folks. Some people even began to not like the term "Common", thinking he meant the Bible interpretation of "Unclean". Anyway, he says that we need folks who will take a courageous stand for what is right and stick by it. And I guess he is right, so much has happened in our lifetime that I sometimes think we stand sort of shocked; afraid to believe or disbelieve anything for fear the impossible will happen.

There is one thing that we must not forget; this month is poll tax paying time. Our right to vote is the only thing that the politician will listen to, and it is one of our great freedoms that we still have and as long as we have it we can still right any wrong that has been thrust upon us. Anyway, pay your poll tax this year for sure. Everybody may be running for something before the year is out and I can already think of several that I want to vote against. Pay Your Poll Tax and be ready when the polls open.

An organization of women is springing up over the country known as the Liberty Belles. Have you heard of them? Reckon they would let us men in? Their program includes the following:

1. The eradication of Communism, Socialism and corruption.
2. Revision and reduction of taxes and of government spending.
3. Return to Congress the right to declare war, and fix it so that never again at the whim of a president will American sons be

and SOCIAL SECURITY

Self-employed persons were reminded today by John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration that coverage under the new law is mandatory and not voluntary. He said, "While it is true that certain professionals are excluded from coverage, the exclusion is by law and not by choice."

Self-employed men and women who are not excluded by law, will have to report their 1951 "net earnings" for social security purposes on their income tax returns which will be filed on or before March 15th. The social security tax will be paid at the same time.

In the meantime, those businessmen and women who are now covered for the first time under social security should get social security numbers if they have never done so.

Anyone whose net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more in a taxable year is "covered" under the new law, unless the earnings are derived from the operation of a farm or the practice of an excluded profession. Among those excluded are doctors, dentists, veterinarians, full-time practicing public accountants, professional engineers.

Booklets listing all of the excluded professions can be obtained without cost from the Amarillo social security office.

A representative from the social security office will be in Clarendon at the Dept. of Public Welfare on Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 9:00 A. M.

Donley County Soil Conservation District News

Farmers in the Donley County Soil Conservation District are missing a good opportunity by not using more sweet clovers for both soil improvement and forage.

Biennial sweet clovers are probably best adapted for this area. Planted in the spring, biennials will live for two years making only vegetative growth the first year and producing seed the second year.

Either yellow or white blossoming species may be used; however the yellow sweet clover may have greater tolerance to drought and unfavorable climatic conditions during the seedling year.

Madrid, a variety of the yellow blossom sweetclover, is probably the best for a combination grazing and soil improvement program. Madrid is shorter, leafier and finer stemmed than other common biennial sweet clovers.

Both yellow and white blossom sweetclover have grown for years in Donley County along the road sides and in the borrow ditches. There is no reason why they would not grow and do well in our fields and pastures if we would only plant them.

The value of sweet clover as a soil building crop is well known. Being a legume it has the ability to take nitrogen from the air and to store it in the plants and in nodules on the roots.

No other legume so well penetrates the plow sole and subsoil and opens the soil for aeration and moisture penetration. Its ability to bring up minerals and plant food that have leached to lower depths is important especially to the medium and sandy textured soils. The nitrogen fixing ability of sweetclover is very high, averaging about 117 pounds per acre.

Sweet clover can well be used in pastures and other grazing lands. It produces forage high in protein which can be grazed moderately the first year but has a high carrying capacity the second year. It is especially beneficial in mixtures with grasses.

Seeding may be early spring with no covering or late spring after a crop of weeds have been killed by plowing. For late planting seed should be covered about one-half inch.

The District has a fair supply of Madrid Clover seed which has been placed with local seed stores in Clarendon for sale at 30 cents per pound.

Among the Shriners from Clarendon to attend were Homer Estlack, Lee Bell, Heckle Stark, L. L. Wallace, Frank Whitlock, C. B. Morris, Charlie Bairfield and George Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner Wester announce the arrival of a 6 lb. 2 oz. son at Clark Hospital in Memphis, Saturday, January 12. The young man, named Rickey Lee, and his mother are doing nicely and were able to be moved home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Naylor underwent surgery at Clovis Memorial Hospital, Jan. 3, and at this time is improving nicely. After leaving the hospital, she will visit with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Arnold, and sister, Mrs. Carl Hall at Forrest, before returning home.

Sgt. Roy L. Gerner who has been in Korea the past 18 months with Company 92nd. M. P. Bn. is to be home in February according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Ed Gerner.

Carroll Brumley returned to his home in Miller, Missouri after visiting two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brumley. His sister, Shirley Brumley, accompanied him home for a visit.

1952 PROGRAM YEAR

If you intend to carry out any kind of conservation practice that was approved for Donley County for the 1952 Program Year, you must come by the office and file an intention sheet. These sheets were mailed to you earlier. If you do not have one and have not mailed one back to the office, come by and let us fill out one for you. REMEMBER THAT ONE OF THESE INTENTION SHEETS MUST BE ON FILE IN THE COUNTY OFFICE BEFORE AN APPROVAL CAN BE ISSUED TO YOU UNDER THE 1952 ACP PROGRAM.

1951 COTTON ACREAGE

A Reminder card was mailed to all producers who had not reported their cotton acreage. If you got a second notice, be sure to fill out the card and mail it back to the office as soon as possible.

APPLICATIONS FOR PAYMENT

If you carried out a practice under the 1951 ACP Program, please come by the office and sign your application for payment. All applications are ready for your signature.

CONSERVATION—COVER TO COVER

Anyone who has observed the difference in run-off and erosion from a field that is protected by a cover crop and one that is not, doesn't have to be "sold" on the value of good cover to protect the land between crops.

The winter grazing provided is an added source of feed and farm income and the resulting livestock products help meet the Nation's increased food requirements. Almost as much soil building results when a cover crop is grazed as when it is turned under. This is not true, however, when the cover crop is cut for hay and hauled off the land.

Naturally grazing should not begin so early that the cover crop does not have a chance to get a good start. Too early grazing results in a minimum of protection to the land and the feed value is reduced.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 4

In making my announcement for re-election for county commissioner, I wish to thank my friends for their fine support and cooperation in the past. In serving the public for the past five years as county commissioner it has been a pleasant experience in most instances. In some decisions I was compelled to go contrary to my fellow citizen but in making these decisions I made them to the best of my ability. For this I have no apology to make.

If re-elected county commissioner I will continue to serve precinct No. 4, likewise the county, to the best of my ability. With these few remarks I solicit your support for the coming Democratic primaries. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Mr. Massengill, immediate past president of the Texas Press Association, will be in direct charge of all releases to Texas newspapers and radio and television stations, Mr. Wooten said. UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

Many letters are being received in opposition to Universal Military Training. You will recall that the last session of Congress authorized exploration into the field of Universal Military Training. The matter will be presented to the Congress for final determination during this session. Very few, if any, congressmen would support a universal military training program that would regiment young men of this country into a military establishment under the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the military segment of our life. They realize that the Americans are not warlike people and that our civilization has not been built on the methods of Prussianism. On the other hand, we all realize that some sort of sound program is necessary if this country is to meet the continual attacks against it by other nations whose sole objective is the destruction of our government and our economy. There are a number of proposals concerning universal military training that will be debated when this matter comes before the House. One of these is in keeping with the basic ideas that I have always held. That is, a program in connection with the studies of the students in the schools, similar in many respects to the ROTC program, a program that would afford the student the fundamental and basic military knowledge that would be of great benefit in the event military service became necessary. This fundamental training would be supplemented by summer training camps. It is the thought of many that such a program would adequately answer the need and at the same time would not interfere with the education or civilian pursuits of these young men. I do not believe that any program will pass the Congress unless the control of the same is left with the duly elected civilian representatives of the people. It is certainly a matter of utmost importance to every citizen of this country, and I earnestly solicit your advice or comments on the subject.

CHIROPRACTIC

The Natural Method to Health

While the wide scope of Chiropractic is amazing to the uninformed, we do NOT recommend Chiropractic as a cure-all. Chiropractic is effective in those cases only where the cause is found to be defective in organic energization due to spinal misalignment (subluxation). Most all of our cases are those which had previously resisted ordinary methods of healing. Our examination is designed to eliminate those we cannot help. Case histories published here are from the files of chiropractic offices throughout the United States. They are related here to show the extent of Chiropractic.

RHEUMATISM

A 43-year-old man came to a Chiropractic Clinic complaining of A DRAWING PAIN IN HIS RIGHT GROIN AND ABDOMEN CAUSING A LIMP, WAS NERVOUS AND UNABLE TO SLEEP, HAD BAD HEADACHES, LEFT EAR THROBBED AND HAD GAS PAINS. Spinal analysis and X-rays located the subluxation causing the nerve irritation and interference. Corrective adjustments restored alignment and removed the interference. When case was discharged, he reported no symptoms remained.

STOMACH TROUBLE

A lady of 48 years was brought to a Chiropractic Clinic from her bed suffering from NERVOUS EXHAUSTION, STOMACH ULCER, CAUSING GREAT STOMACH DISTRESS VOMITING AND PAINS, AND FEVER, HEADACHES OF LONG STANDING, DIZZINESS, CHRONIC CONSTIPATION, AND A VERY TENDER AND SORE GALL BLADDER. Regular treatments had failed to help her, instead she gradually became worse. Examinations revealed a neck vertebra out of alignment causing defective energization and functional disorders. After adjustments restored alignment, this case went to work daily and when discharged she reported no pains or discomforts, all symptoms gone, and normal good health. She was well and happy for the first time in many years.

CHRONIC CATARRH

A lady, 63, COMPLAINED OF FEELING TIRED ALL THE TIME, PAIN BETWEEN SHOULDERS AND ACROSS HIPS, LEGS ACHING, HEADACHES OVER EYES, SWOLLEN EYES EVERY MORNING, CHRONIC BRONCHIAL CATARRH, FREQUENT COLDS, NERVOUSNESS GROWING WORSE, CONSTIPATION, AND INDIGESTION. She had gone to doctors more or less continuously for years until finally she came to a Chiropractic Clinic for examination. Spinal analysis and spinal X-rays located nerve interference and spinal misalignment causing defective nerve control of various organic areas. Adjustments began to correct the cause and in a few months this lady was discharged, "feeling better than I had in 30 years," to use her own words. All complaints had vanished when normal energization was restored. REMEMBER: IT IS NOT TRUE TO SAY "WE DID EVERYTHING POSSIBLE" UNLESS CHIROPRACTIC WAS INCLUDED.

Designates January As "Hand Signal Month" In Texas

AUSTIN—Gov. Allan Shivers has urged the automobile drivers in Texas to learn proper hand signals and apply them while driving as a means of lowering the "death and injury toll on our streets and highways". This appeal is contained in an official memorandum issued by Shivers which designates January as "hand signal month" in the Lone Star State.

"The use of proper hand signals," said Shivers, "is a most effective weapon in the curbing of traffic accidents. The hand-signaling motorist is the courteous motorist. I am firmly convinced that if all drivers were courteous while at the wheel, our traffic toll would be reduced to the minimum."

"When a motorist applies hand signals in his driving, he automatically becomes conscious of all aspects of traffic safety and courtesy - - the protection of pedestrians, the danger of weaving in traffic, the death-dealing results of speed, the folly of hogging the highway, the importance of yielding the right-of-way. So, I urge all motorists to acquaint themselves with the proper hand signals and to apply them diligently. The hand signal is the mark of a courteous driver; he doesn't keep the other driver guessing."

Shivers stated that a number of cities and towns in Texas have carried out campaigns on hand signal education, and in practically all cases, these points have become recognized for their "court-cous drivers".

The state-wide hand signal campaign is sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, Inc. and is patterned after the project conducted jointly last September in Dallas, by the Citizens Traffic Commission and the Dallas Civitan Club. Highway posters and other media proclaimed the slogan: "Right turn—hand up. Left turn—hand out. Slow or stop—hand down."

The hand signal month in Texas is to be promoted by the press and radio facilities throughout the State and is to be directed by J. O. Musick of Austin, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association; Bruce Cunningham of Dallas, representing the Dallas Civitan Club and the Citizens Traffic Commission, and Weldon Hart, formerly of Governor Shivers' press staff.

The Tidelands Issue Will Be Called To Attention of Texans

February will be "Tidelands Defense Month" in Texas, the Statewide Tidelands Committee announced today through its Chairman, Guy C. Jackson, Jr., of Anahuac.

Attention of Texans will be called to the tidelands issue by means of newspaper advertisements and stories, radio broadcasts, magazines and other means, the Chairman said.

Funds will be sought to carry on a national campaign for Congressional action quit-claiming the tidelands to the states.

"We are faced with a determined fight in Congress this next session", Jackson said. "We must carry the facts of the tidelands case to the people of every state in the nation. We must finance the cost of sending nationally-known Texans into every state to carry the facts to the people. Then we are confident Congress will act favorably on legislation which will nullify the effects of the Supreme Court decisions."

"Monthly magazines of the participating organizations will print a four-page pamphlet in the February issue to help their members to participate in the drive for funds", Jackson said.

The House of Representatives passed quit-claim legislation in August of 1951 by a vote of 265 to 109. The Senate is expected to consider legislation in the current session. Funds raised by the Statewide Tidelands Committee will be devoted to a national campaign to awaken the country to the dangers of the tidelands decisions and to secure strong support in every state for Senate approval of a quit-claim bill.

Do You Want a Boom In Your Community? Well, Here's How!

AUSTIN—If you want a boom in your community, check its natural resources, a University of Texas researcher says.

Wilfrid C. Bailey points to the oil boom at Snyder, the new aluminum plant at Rockdale—established because of lignite deposits—and the irrigated-farming boom at Cotton Center as typical examples.

Under joint support of the University of Texas and Harvard University, he has spent two years surveying Cotton Center, a farming community of approximately 300 persons in Hale County, located in the High Plains irrigated belt.

"Their boom occurred in the 1940's simply because farmers, taking stock of their water resources, discovered they could economically irrigate their land from wells, turning marginal-producing fields into real profit-makers," Bailey says.

"Many Texas communities can do what Cotton Center has done by checking their resources scientifically," he adds.

"University of Texas researchers in such divisions as the Bureau of Business Research, Department of Anthropology and School of Architecture, which specializes in community planning, can give valuable assistance to any group wishing to make such an investigation," Bailey notes.

News From The Office of Price Stabilization

The Office of Price Stabilization has moved to relieve the critical situation facing livestock growers and feed dealers in Texas, Oklahoma and other southwestern states caused by local shortages of cottonseed meal, hulls, cake and pellets.

Alfred L. Seelye, OPS Regional Director, said that the revision of supplementary regulation 31 to the general ceiling price regulation is expected to alleviate shortages by permitting dealers to add to their cottonseed feed ceilings actual increases in transportation costs, caused by bringing in feed from other parts of the country. This should result, he said, in dealers being able to build up their feed stock to take care of their customers without undue financial hardship.

Growers have been feeding a record number of livestock much earlier and heavier than usual, Seelye said, due to the lack of hay and grass caused by drought conditions and insect infestation. Despite the fact that there is no actual shortage of cotton seed in the cotton producing areas, mills operating at capacity have been unable to crush seed fast enough for the huge demand.

Local stocks of cottonseed feed products in the hands of dealers largely have been depleted, ac-ording to the OPS Regional Director, creating a situation which could result in a reduction of the beef and lamb supply, since many animals might be sent to market too soon.

Price ceilings on cottonseed feed generally are established on local production with moderate, or in some cases, no freight charges included.

However, Seelye said, many southwestern feed dealers now are forced to obtain their supplies from surplus feed areas, principally the southeastern states, resulting in large increases in transportation costs.

Under the OPS emergency adjustment, effective until May 1, 1952, dealers can add the difference between these increased costs and the average of feed transportation costs during the base period of December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, to the retail ceiling price of each quantity of feed they have purchased.

From The Office of Price Stabilization

In a move to check sharply rising prices consumers are paying for white potatoes, the Office of Price Stabilization has issued a regulation placing dollars-and-cents ceilings on this most important single vegetable in the nation's daily diet, it was announced today by the Lubbock District OPS office.

The action will result in some price decreases at the retail level, price officials said.

OPS announced that the action is the first in a series of regulations to be issued covering those fresh fruits and vegetables which have recently shown marked price increases.

Potato prices have more than doubled during the past year. The latest available published figures show that grower prices were 105 per cent of parity on December 15, 1951. Subsequent data indicate further sharp rises have occurred since that date. OPS is prohibited by law from establishing ceilings on potatoes at less than 100 per cent of parity.

The white potato ceiling price regulation sets dollar-and-cents ceiling prices at country shipping points and at wholesale levels. OPS announced that amendments to the grocery ceiling price regulations, CPR's 15 and 16, will be issued in the immediate future setting markups to establish retail ceiling prices for potatoes. While the ceilings represent rollbacks in the prices of higher priced potatoes which have advanced rapidly in recent weeks, they reflect to producers at least the parity price as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture. OPS said that when the full effect of the regulation is felt, retail prices consumers pay for white potatoes should be below present levels.

The regulation is being made effective January 19, 1952, in order to permit disposition of current stocks now in the hands of distributors.

"White potatoes constitute approximately a third of the nation's total consumption of all fresh vegetables," OPS Director Michael V. DiSalle said in issuing the regulation.

"This regulation is designed to accomplish three objectives." First, to protect the consumer against further rises in the price of this major food item, second, to establish reasonable and equitable limits to distributive margins, and third, to reflect 100 per cent of parity to producers.

"The brake this regulation will apply to the accelerated rise in potato prices will save the consumer millions of dollars."

The regulation establishes dollars-and-cents F.O.B. country shipping point ceiling prices for each producing area. These prices are adjusted for grade, size, and packaging differences. Intermediate handlers, such as wholesalers and jobbers, are limited to a maximum distributive margin of 60 cents a hundred pounds.

An amendment to SR 15 to GCPR, which is being issued simultaneously, removes the present exemption from price control of service charges in connection with the marketing of white potatoes.

The regulation gives special consideration to unusual crop conditions which reduced the yield of higher grade potatoes in the State of Idaho. An upward adjustment was made to compensate for the abnormal quality yield and for the increased cost of grading these potatoes. This amendment is similar to special relief which has been granted for other farm products hit by "disaster conditions."

They are feeding us so little in restaurants nowadays that when they invite us to come back again we feel like accepting the invitation immediately.

The first newspaper west of the Alleghenies was the Pittsburgh Gazette, founded by John Acull and Joseph Hall in 1786.

Before 1800 there were 21 newspapers attempted west of the mountains and eight of these were in Kentucky.

In 1801 there were about 200 newspapers in the United States; in 1833 about 1,200. Today there are almost 12,000.

Hall County Wins 4-H Merit Plaques For Safety & Electricity

Hall County has been doubly honored for reporting the most outstanding county-wide 4-H Farm and Home Safety, and Farm and Home Electric programs in Texas during 1951. The selections were made by the State Club office. General Motors presented the safety plaque, while Westinghouse Educational Foundation awarded the plaque for outstanding work in the electric program. The county also won the Westinghouse merit plaque in 1948 and 1949.

The 4-H safety program attracted widespread interest among farmers in Hall County. A list of commonly overlooked hazards was given to each of the 243 4-H Club members enrolled in this project. After checking with parents and neighbors, graphs were made showing the average number of homes which applied to everyday safety measures. A second survey made a month later showed outstanding improvement. The overall picture in the county graph showed that 455 families had removed fire hazards; 322 families were using information on preventing farm and home accidents and 322 fam-

The 4-H Farm and Home Electric program was carried on in five 4-H Clubs with 315 club members participating. Club demonstrations were given to show how electricity can be used to eradicate flies and other insects; also how to repair electric appliances, motors and farm machinery. The interest created by club members among the rural people has led to a county-wide electrification program, reported County Extension Agent W. B. Hooser, who directed both programs.

These programs are under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

After 15 years' operation, old-age and survivors insurance is paying over $113,000 in monthly benefits to about 4,000 beneficiaries in the Texas Panhandle.

John R. Sanderson, manager of the social security office here, noting that the Federal insurance program commenced operations January 1, 1937, described it today as "a national institution, reaching more people in this area than any other organized program for family security."

From its comparatively modest beginning in 1937, the system has developed in a decade and a half into the largest single insurance operation the world has ever known. In 1940, the first year in which monthly benefits were paid, total benefit payments for the year were approximately 35 million dollars; for the fifteenth year, ending December 31, 1951, total benefit payments were 1,900 million dollars ($1.9 billion), paid to nearly four and one-half million people.

The greatest increase in benefit payments occurred in the program's fifteenth year. This, as Sanderson points out, was caused by higher payments to individual beneficiaries, and by the large number of people made eligible for benefits under liberalized qualifying requirements. Increases in benefit payment rates to retired workers range from 50% to 100%. "Nearly everyone in this country has a stake in this contributory insurance system", says Sanderson. Three out of every four persons gainfully employed or self-employed are engaged in work covered by the law. Sixty-two million people are now insured under the program, which is providing life insurance protection to 3 out of every 4 of the Nation's mothers and children.

Health Notes

This season of the year brings with it an increase in the motor vehicle traffic. Thousands of persons, enjoying a vacation, are on the highways at this time. Like public health, and a great many other things, traffic safety depends upon effective partnership. Whether you are at the wheel or on the highway or street, your safety and that of the other fellow, depends upon both of you. The speed mania and reckless driving, and all that they imply, in the lack of self control, disregard for laws and for the rights and lives of others, are responsible for a large part of the tragic deaths and unnecessary suffering. In the face of the hazards involved, absent-mindedness on the part of the driver or pedestrian, also becomes a vice, with notorious record for destructive consequences. Motor transportation has become an inherent part of our daily lives. To reduce the hazards for ourselves and for others the least we can do is to admit our obligation as partners in the Safety Traffic business, and to accept our responsibilities as drivers and as pedestrians.

One would not wish all persons to be in a state of constant dread to the extent that every act be considered a source of possible accident; but we can be sensible and intelligent and since we are creatures of habit we can teach ourselves and our young people to recognize certain situations which represent hazards and to act in such a way as to prevent them.

Salvation Army To Launch World-Wide Campaign In 1952

The Salvation Army is launching a world-wide campaign in the year 1952, which will be called, "The Midnight Cry," based on the words of Matthew 25:6, "At midnight there was a cry made." Every Corps in the State of Texas will co-operate in this great Spiritual Crusade. Lt.-Colonel John A. Morrison, the State Commander said. In commenting on the Crusade the Colonel continued:

"What time is it? If we could imagine a great clock whose hands recorded the passing of the hours of light and darkness in the moral and spiritual history of mankind, what would we read there? Are we living in days of righteousness, God-fearing, and the clear shining of faith? What think you: are the nations of the world standing in the brightness of His glory, whose reign is one of truth and peace? Would my contemporaries say that the state of the world is better now than it was, say fifty years ago? Or would they agree with me that aside from scientific developments and improvements — the world is uneasy, restless, frightened and troubled and, over wide areas, very dark."

The Army, will, the Colonel stated, make definite plans in every Salvation Army Corps to promote the campaign. People will be urged to read the Bible, especially the words of Jesus on these significant issues: To re-establish the family altar in the homes; to attend the church of their choice; to practice Christian virtues in their daily living; and to recognize the necessity for emphasis on the moral and spiritual standards of the Christian religion as the only sure way of the survival of this nation thru these times of crisis.

Arbor Day Will Be Observed Jan. 18

Arbor Day will be observed in Texas January 18, according to a proclamation issued by Governor Allan Shivers.

In his proclamation, Governor Shivers said, "In full appreciation of the great value of our Texas forests, shade and ornamental trees, I hereby designate Friday, January 18, as Arbor Day in Texas, and urge Texans to observe the day by planting trees and shrubs and otherwise marking the occasion in a proper manner."

In Texas the need for observing Arbor Day was first recognized in 1889 at Temple, a community which had comparatively few trees. This year Arbor Day offers special opportunities for schools, garden clubs, civic clubs, youth groups, and other organizations to recognize and observe January 18 as Arbor Day. The Texas Forest Service has arranged special Arbor Day radio and television programs.

D. A. Anderson, head of Research and Education Department of the Texas Forest Service, makes these suggestions: "There are many ways in which Arbor Day can be observed. It is not essential to plant trees and shrubs. Actually," he said, "it is more desirable to protect growing trees than to plant additional trees without providing adequate protection. Any program designed to acquaint Texans with the economic value of forests would be a creditable observance of Arbor Day."

Arbor Day originated and was first observed in Nebraska in 1872. J. Sterling Morton, then a member of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture and later United States Secretary of Agriculture, conceived the plan and the name. This plan was adopted, and on April 10, 1872, the first Arbor Day was celebrated. Thus Nebraska became known as "The Tree Planter's State."

Chevrolet's Smart New 'Face'

Marked changes from previous years give the 1952 Chevrolets a freshness that assures their continued popularity in the low-price automotive field. Apparent in this front-end view is the redesigned grille which features five distinctive "air foil" fins mounted on the center bar. Parking lamps have been broadened to eliminate the former slotted grillework and the hood emblem carries the name, Chevrolet.

HEALTH TALKS

The common cold, one of mankind's oldest and most prevalent afflictions, gets shoved around more than any disease, not only from one "kerchoo" to another but also by the written word. Reams of material have been written about the cold, millions of dollars have been spent by the public to cure the cold and by scholars to find a cure. Everything about the cold is stupendous, colossal, gigantic. And not a whole lot more is known about it than was a century or two ago.

They've changed the name of it, even, trying to pin it down to something else. Catarrh, which meant a flowing down (quite graphically), must have been a bit too board for some noses because the cold now goes by the name of "the common cold" in most circles, though it may masquerade as an acute upper respiratory infection, rhinitis, or coryza (which sounds like a sneeze).

The very first sign of a cold is felt in the nose or back there at the top of the throat. It may be an itchy or tickling feeling, a dryness or rawness, but if you're real observant, you'll take that as the signal that you've got a cold coming on. And you feel a little chilled or a bit irritable along with that tickle or itch.

If you'd tuck yourself in bed, drink lots of water and take an aspirin at this point, you probably would nip that cold in the bud. Chances are you won't or you can't, however, so about 24 hours later you can expect that cold bud to burst into full bloom.

A full bloom cold is not a pretty posy. There is sneezing, sometimes much and strenuous sneezing. Your eyes water, as does your nose. You drip. Your nose is a one-way street with traffic only moving out, no air going in, so you breathe through your mouth, making your throat feel rough and dry. You are weak, ornery, chilly, headachy and feel feverish but usually can't even have the satisfaction of finding any fever registered on the thermometer.

If you'd tuck yourself in bed, drink lots of water and take an aspirin at this point, you probably would get rid of the cold within 24 hours. Chances are you won't or you can't however, so about 24 hours later you can expect that cold to make you feel even worse—but you most likely will have company because someone else has probably caught your cold by then.

About the third day of your cold, your nose quits dripping, it starts getting tighter with a heavier discharge congesting the nasal traffic even more. You may add a cough at this period and your throat may get quite rough and itchy. Despite that, you may start feeling better and progress, minus sneezes and chills, back to good health, except for that nose which might stay thickly clogged for days or even weeks. Eventually the congestion may clear up or it may be the ringleader in your cold developing into something more serious. At which point you will HAVE to tuck yourself in bed, drink lots of water along with much medication, and wish that you had taken to your bed back there in the early stages.

You can't get around rest in bed as the best treatment for a cold. There is no pill, salve, nose drop, gargle, rubbing remedy, ointment, or vaccine known to the medical profession which is reliable in preventing or curing the common cold. If you have many allergies, which seem in some way connected with susceptibility to colds, you may build up your resistance to the allergies by the anti-histamine tablets when the allergic manifestations appear. Aspirin is often advised for a cold to make you feel better while you're "laying out" the cold in bed. Whiskey has no known medicinal value for a cold, though it is claimed by some that it makes you feel better. Gargling warm salt water might make your throat feel better when too much mouth-breathing has roughened it up a bit. Inhaling steam seems to have a soothing effect upon the congestion in the nose. You usually are thirsty during a cold because you're losing so much fluid by the drip of your nose, so you drink fluids as your thirst tells you to.

But first and foremost, tuck yourself in bed. You reduce the severity of your cold, limit its spread to others and cut down the possibility of complications by simply going to bed when you have a cold. If the cold still gets worse, call your doctor and follow his advice, but bed rest is the first treatment for the common cold.
