Thriller Sunday Afternoon Keeps Locals In Baseball Championship Play

The second game of a three game play-off series between the Clarendon baseball club and the Amarillo Sports was played on the local diamond last Sunday afternoon and the locals are still in the running for the championship after winning the game 9 to 3 in the bottom of the 13th inning.

The locals were holding the lead in the game until the top of the ninth when Amarillo banged in two runs to tie the score and each inning was a breath-taker after that until the 13th when Don Lloyd stepped to the plate with two men on and got a good solid hit into right field to bring in the winning run.

Clarendon started off in grand style, racking up five runs in the first inning. After that they added 2 in the 5th, 1 in the 6th which was a home run hit by Billy Roy Blackman, and then the winning score in the 13th. The Sports scored 3 in the 2nd, 2 in the 6th, 1 in the 7th and 2 in the 9th.

The game was acclaimed by local sports fans to be the best of the season but it was sure nerve wrecking when it stretched out until 7 o'clock. Roy Blackman pitched the first five innings but was relieved in the sixth by Eddie Reynolds who went the remaining innings.

Amarillo won the first game 8 to 5 on the neutral field at Groom. This gives each team one win each, so the next game, which will be played this coming Sunday, will be played on the neutral field at Groom again. The game time will be 3 o'clock. Local players are inviting all you fans to go along and watch them do their very best to win the championship of the Caprock League.

Clyde Wilson Building New Service Station

Construction was started this week on a new Texaco Service Station two blocks west of the stop light. Clyde Wilson will be the owner of the new station and John Jones is the contractor. The estimated cost of the new structure, including a 27 x 48 foot building and a 36 x 115 foot drive way, is $15,000. Mr. Wilson stated that the new station would be modern in every respect with all new, modern equipment. Probable completion date has been set for December 1st.

Mr. Wilson recently purchased lots on 3rd and Koogle and moved his home there from the new station site. Plans call for remodeling of his home throughout.

ROBINSON REGAINS TITLE

NEW YORK—Middleweight champion Randy Turpin, of England, is down in the tenth round of his title bout with Challenger Ray Robinson. Turpin got up after a nine-count, but the referee soon stopped the fight and awarded Robinson the crown he had lost to Turpin last July. (Sept. 12)

FORMER RESIDENT RECEIVES WAF COMMISSION

Miss Naomi McCracken, former resident and granddaughter of Mrs. M. M. McCracken and niece of Mrs. Jim Heckman, recently received her commission as 1st Lieutenant in the WAF in an elaborate ceremony at Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C. Miss McCracken has been associated with the college for the past three years and was the first to receive her commission from the state of South Carolina under the new enlistment program for the Women of the United States Air Force. Miss McCracken was sent to Lackland Air Force Base Sept. 15th for an eight-week indoctrination course.

The new stepped-up enlistment program gives direct commissions to those qualified young women who have college degrees with three years professional experience for second lieutenants or five years or more professional experience for first lieutenants.

Flip Breedlove To Receive Highest Award

H. M. (Flip) Breedlove, county agent, was recently selected one of the top seven agents of Texas to receive the coveted Distinguished Service Award to be presented by the National Association of County Agents. The presentation of the award will be made at the National Convention in Memphis, Tenn., which will begin October 27th and last for 5 days. Over 500 agents from over the United States will be present.

Flip is certainly deserving of this award, for he has never shrank his job as agent or refused to help any other organization or community project whenever possible. Any time a group needed a speaker, master of ceremonies or an outright worker, Flip was always ready at a moment's notice to do whatever he could. He has promoted the up-building of 4-H Club work, promoted Fat Stock Shows and the County Fairs, and has always done everything within his power to help the farmer and rancher with his many problems. The Leader wishes to join Flip's many friends in congratulating him on this distinguished award and his trip to the National Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smallwood and family of McLean visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pittman and family.

"We are about sixty tickets short", commented Mrs. Frank Phelan, Sr., President of the Donley County Mutual Concert Association yesterday. "Perhaps some people have not bought, thinking that they will buy their tickets as the programs come to town, but this is not possible," she continued. "There will be no ticket sales preceding the programs and only holders of the seasons tickets will be admitted." The DCMCA has affiliated itself with the Southern Town Hall of Dallas this season and is offering to its members five concert programs by nationally known screen and stage stars and an address by former congressman Martin Dies. All of these entertaining programs will be held in Clarendon, on the stage of the High School Auditorium.

The programs for this season are believed to be appealing to all persons and not to just the few who like 'grand opera'. George Jason, the first guest artist to be brought here by the DCMCA is a humorist and a magician as well as a pianist. His billing is Music, Magic and Mirth and he will be presented Sunday afternoon, October 28th. Lovely Lucille Manners, a beautiful star of both stage and screen will be the second attraction on this seasons billing. She will come here on December 3rd. The other programs, which will come after the Christmas Holidays are the Dream Dusters, a male quartet of ex-GI's singing ballads and popular numbers; Shirley Arnoff, a popular pianist and Virginia Sale, sister of Chic Sale who we all remember for his wit and mannerisms. This years program is definitely not a "high-brow" presentation but five good nights of entertainment by stars of the screen, radio and stage already known to the movie patrons and radio listeners of Clarendon.

Clarendonites who like real, live entertainment on the stage will have their last chance Friday and Saturday at the Donley County Fair when members of the DCMCA offer seasons tickets from their booth located in the Merchants Building. "We have extended the ticket sale to Saturday and it will definitely end then," said Mrs. Frank Phelan, Sr., DCMCA President.

Seasons admissions are $4.00 for adults and $2.40 for Senior High School and Junior College students. Junior High School and Elementary school students are admitted free if their parents are holders of seasons tickets.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schollenbarger and family visited Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Schollenbarger at Perryton. Sunday they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Roper at Darrouzett.

Baptist Revival Continues Despite Pastor's Illness

The Revival at the First Baptist Church is continuing this week despite the fact that the Pastor and evangelist for the services, Rev. L. A. Sartain, became seriously ill and has been bedfast since last Saturday. He is reported improving at this time but his illness will probably hold him away from the services the remainder of this week. Dr. A. J. Quinn of Amarillo immediately volunteered his services and is carrying the revival on through according to schedule. J. C. Arthur of Amarillo is in charge of the singing. Rev. Earnest Phillips of Martin preached Saturday night and Sunday night with J. C. Arthur filling the pulpit Sunday morning.

Services are being held from 7:20 to 7:50 a. m. and at 8 p. m. with the Sunday school departments meeting each evening at 7:30 for a period of Bible study and prayer.

Noblitt Sales Co. Celebrating 8th Anniversary

The Noblitt Sales Company, owned by Ray J. Noblitt, has an advertisement in this issue of the Leader featuring their eighth anniversary in Clarendon. This business has grown considerably during the past eight years and is now located on the highway west of main street. The business has several different departments which include the Studebaker agency, Butane-Propane dealer, service station and other associated items. Read their advertisement in this issue for further particulars.

Absenteeism Costing Local School System

Absenteeism in the local school system is quite costly according to information compiled during the week of Sept. 10th through the 14th. According to the school roll call, 114 school days were missed during that week by students who were ill or taken out of school for other reasons. Each day a child misses school, the local school system is penalized or charged 90 cents per student. Absenteeism cost the local schools $102.60 during the week mentioned above. School officials are in hopes of eliminating (with the aid of parents) a part of the above loss. The 90 cents is charged against the local system regardless of whether the child is actually ill. In numerous instances the child is taken out of school to go shopping or visiting away from home and if this could be eliminated the schools would profit considerably. The above is a part of the Gilmer-Aikin law and the state aid the local schools receive is based on many regulations such as the above. Over the period of the entire school year, several thousand dollars are lost that could certainly be used to a good advantage in improving the local school system.

Out of the 114 days missed, 64 days was credited to the Elizabeth Stevens Ward and the Jr. High and 50 days were credited to the Senior High. School trustees and teachers are asking all parents to help on this and see if the local schools can't raise their attendance during the remainder of the year and add this money to the local operating budget.

Motorists Warned Regarding Passing Of School Buses

The Leader has been asked to remind all motorists of the state law in regard to the passing of school buses while such bus is in the act of loading or unloading. A motorist is liable to a heavy fine if he fails to stop while a school bus is picking up or unloading passengers in addition to the possibility of injuring or killing an innocent child. This law covers all areas which include all rural roads as well as highways. Bus drivers have been instructed to take the license numbers and report all violators to local authorities in order to protect our youngsters who are riding the buses to school.

Another regulation pointed out by school officials is the parking situation in front of the Junior High School. Parents who pick up their youngsters at the close of school in the afternoon are asked to park north of the regular roadway in front of the school and leave the area directly in front of the school for the school buses when they drive up to pick up their load. A number of youngsters have had narrow escapes trying to get to their respective bus when the area has been congested with a large number of autos parked every which way. Local motorists are cautioned also regarding speeding in front of the schools. If drivers do not slow down of their own accord, the areas will be patrolled and violators will be fined, it was stated. Take a little more time and protect the lives of our youngsters.

China Missionary To Speak Here

The Panhandle Baptist Association will meet at the First Baptist Church here Thursday, September 27th. The featured speaker for the 11 o'clock hour will be Miss Blanche Groves of Bridgeport, Texas. Miss Groves was a missionary in China for 30 years and was a prisoner of the Japanese for some time during the last war. She was under the communist rule for two years. She will give some of her more interesting experiences in her message.

"Miss Groves is a very talented speaker and I am sure it will be to your interest to hear her," stated Ernest Phillips, Association Moderator. Everyone is cordially invited, he added.

More than 20 priests from the diocese will attend the ceremony and many former parishoners are expected to revisit the 60-year old church.

Recently the building was repaired and enlarged. A new sanctuary was added with two new sacristies. Gothic windows were installed and the interior finished overhead with an arched ceiling. New altar carpeting has been laid and the old chapel floor covered in harmonizing color.

Preceding the dedicatory service a High Solemn Mass will be offered by the Reverend John Steinlage of Amarillo.

Soil Conservation Supervisor For Sub-division Three To Be Elected

October the second will be the date for the election of a supervisor for the Donley County Soil Conservation district in sub-division three, which includes all land east of the Jericho highway and north of the river in Donley County. The election will be held at the gym in Alanreed on the second of October at 8:00 P. M.

Breedlove says that he and Carman Rhode of the Soil Conservation Service have planned a program in connection with the election and all persons that have land in the area stated above are invited to attend and bring the entire family.

Remember the date and be present as this election of your supervisor is for a period of three years and is very important to you and be of great service to you in assisting in your soil conservation problems by serving on the board of Supervisors for the district.

The horse show will be held Saturday morning at 9:00 A. M. at the Rodeo Grounds. All other departments of the fair will be held at the fair grounds buildings located on the Brice highway in Clarendon.

All judges for the various departments are from out of town and the show board met in the office of the county agent on Monday night of the seventeenth and approved all judges and made use final arrangements before the starting of the fair.

FARM NEWS

From the County PMA Committee

COTTON AND WHEAT ACREAGES

If you have not reported your cotton and wheat acreage please come by the office when you are in town and do so. We want to keep your farm record sheets up to date.

1952 DEEP PLOWING

Have you forgotten to make application for deep plowing under the 1952 program? Remember that September is the only month that you can make application and if there has been deep plowing on your farm in the past you are not eligible for assistance under the 1952 program.

WHEAT LOANS

There have been 4 wheat loans made in this County. They were for E. L. Littlefield, Ernest L. Lamb, R. A. Lehman and G. A. Myers for 3047.66 bushels.

WINTER LEGUMES AND RYE

If you want to seed Austrian Winter Peas or Hairy Vetch as a cover crop come by the office and get an approval to do so. The payment rate is $0.05 per pound for Austrian Winter Peas and $0.12 per pound for Hairy Vetch.

When applying superphosphate to these cover crops of winter legumes, 200 lbs. to the acre must be applied.

The Rye must be seeded at 60 lbs. to the acre when seeded with a regular drill and the payment rate is $2.00 per acre, or Rye can be seeded between rows of cotton and Grain Sorghum with the row seeder that Soil Conservation Service has with the payment rate of $1.00 per acre. This way only 30 pounds to the acre has to be seeded.

1952 GOALS ANNOUNCED

Donley County has been assigned 35,000 acres of wheat, 5,000 acres of Oats for Grain and 1,000 acres of Barley to be planted for harvest in 1952. Farmers are urged to meet these goals if possible.

Something to think about—We can't get away from ourselves by going somewhere else.

There are three basic reasons why farmers in this hour of national peril should be full of pride and confidence, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan told a group of farmers recently.

"The first reason," he said, "is the fact that their Nation, the United States, is the most powerful Nation in the world."

"The second reason is the fact that their own industry, agriculture, is the foundation to that great power."

"The third reason is the fact that the great strength of the United States—and with it the strength of American agriculture—is being guided in the right direction. Our national policies are sound policies. Our foreign policy has been set squarely on the correct course."

The Secretary pointed out that, in the short space of about 5 years, while fighting a war on two fronts, this Nation practically doubled its industrial economy. And, he added, one of the significant economic factors upon which our strong industrial economy has been built is agriculture's ability to produce efficiently.

Commending farmers for their efforts to meet the 1951 production goals, Secretary Brannan said that specific crop goals are expected to be met on all but a few leading crops if weather is normal for the rest of the season.

Library Notes
By May L. Prewitt

We receive two books every other month from the Doubleday Dollar Book Club. The September and October books are "The Iron Mistress" by Paul I. Wellman, and "A Woman Called Fancy" by Frank Yerby. The first is the life of James Bowie our American frontiersman. The story chronicles brilliantly the epic historical saga which was Bowie's career. Yerby's book will be in demand as all his books have been in the past. In the story of Fancy Williamson, poor white from Carolina Hills, the Brantleys meet their match.

We received the November book announcements and they too, will be entertaining reading, so many of these club books are worthless that one worth reading is appreciated.

To the Garden Club section

we have added "The African Violet" by Helen Van Pelt Wilson. For the light romance readers we offer "Dr. Jerry" by Peggy Gaddis.

A subscription to "Air Trails" was given recently in memory of Tom Goodner. This was thought to be more useful than a book added to his memorial shelf. "Open Road" for boys is another monthly magazine in his memory.

We have the new issues of "Popular Mechanics" too. Our periodicals are all good.

Pvt. J. M. Fowler left Amarillo Sunday night for his base at Seattle, Washington having been transferred from Camp Carson, Colo. after training at Yuma, Arizona. He has visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. T. Fowler on a delay enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Benson of Quitaque were guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beverly.

Bronchos Defeat Mustangs 25-0

The Clarendon Bronchos won their second game of the season last Friday night by topling the Claude Mustangs to a tune of 25 to 0. The Bronchos opened up their attack in the first quarter and scored twice with Duane Hearn skirting left end for 27 yards for the first tally and Arlis Mooring going thru center for 39 yards and the second score. Both tries for extra point were fouled up. The Claude Mustangs held the upper hand in the second quarter and still held the Bronchos from scoring in the third, but the tide changed again early in the fourth when Myers pitched a nice pass to Mooring for 39 yards and the 6 points. Mooring kicked the extra point. The last Bronco score was made near the end of the game when Lefew broke thru the center of the line and raced 31 yards over the goal stripes. Myers try for the extra point was no good.

The Broncho line showed some mighty fine blocking and tackling throughout the game and held the Mustangs good when a scoring threat was on. The Bronchos made 16 first down to Claude's twelve.

The Bronchos will be idle this week end. Their next game will be Sept. 28 with Wheeler here.

A Common Paper for Common People

No word has been received from the Dalhartian requesting our presence with him on his trip up the Potomac. Guess he is determined to be a lone wolf. At that, where on earth would the wheat farmers get good sound advice on whether to plant cotton if I should be promoted to a higher office.

We dedicate the following poem to some of the Ain't Smoking Right Now Members who have fallen from fellowship:

Tobacco is a filthy weed—
I like it.
It satisfies a normal need—
I like it.
It makes you this, it makes you lean,
It takes the hair right off your bean,
It's the worse darn stuff I've ever seen, I like it.

The latest thing in men's clothes this year is women; according to a news item in our paper.

When company stays too long we can start treating them like home folks and they will soon leave.

Smoke and the world smokes with you; swear off and you smoke alone.

A negro saying: "It ain't the things you don't know what gets you into trouble, but the things you know for sure what ain't so."

The first part of our life we are bossed by our parents and the second part by our children.

Most of us who belong somewhat to the old school in the theory of economy and thrift going hand in hand with prosperity find it just a little hard to stand up in an argument with some of the youngsters who cut their eye teeth in the early thirties. You can tell them from now on that all the prosperity we have had is still owed for on the books of the government; you can tell them that if we had to pay our national debt tomorrow the government would have to confiscate all our personal wealth. You can tell them that if it had not been for the pump-priming tactics of these rain-barrel politicians, we would have all gone ker-plunk long before now, but it makes no impression at all. The main fact as far as they are concerned is that they have a job and more money than was theirs under the old system, and no matter how big the bubble grows it is just going to have to "burst" before they will believe it. Anyway, we are going somewhere in a hurry and few people will argue that there is any place to stop, much less turn around and go back. When we get there some will say "I'll be dog-goned", and some will of course say "I told you so". You can argue that the country is going broke by leaps and bounds until you get hoarse, and as long as your opponent can feel money in his pocket, and as long as that money will buy the things he wants, he will refuse to be perturbed. If the new idea of spend your self into prosperity works we will have to re-write many of the old proverbs. Anyhow, it is something to watch and to think about. In the old civilizations that fell in Europe it is said that when their debts passed 40% of their potential wealth they collapsed. According to reports we owe around 33% of our potential resources. It is something to think about.

What is your opinion on the above? Send us a short statement that you would not mind our using in the column that others may have the benefit of your thinking on the subject.

Much of the bounty that greets the eye along the roadside fields and orchards hereabouts in the Fall was made possible in many instances by the partnership of farmers with this bank. Tractors, barns and equipment were purchased long before harvest time with bank loans. The increasing use of bank credit by farmers in this county has made for stability, enterprise and prosperity.

Donley County Soil Conservation District News

Many farmers throughout the District are seeding cover crops now that we have received good moisture over most of the area.

Rye, wheat, hairy vetch, and Austrian peas are the crops being planted. These are all winter growing plants and will help to protect the land from blowing next spring as well as add some needed organic residues to the soil.

With our short feed crop this year some farmers and ranchers are looking to these crops for winter and spring pastures as well as for soil improvement.

The row seeder the District purchased recently is becoming quite popular with many farmers who have used it or seen it operate. This is the implement designed for planting cover crops in the middles of cotton or sorghums without damaging the growing crops.

Some of the farmers having used this seeder are: L. E. Blankenship, Ted Maddox, Oscar Moore, Kermit Evans, Joe Kennedy, and Edwin Eanes. These men are all highly enthusiastic about this drill as well as the virtues of this practice of seeding cotton and feed land to winter cover crops.

With our large acreage in cotton this year we are almost certain to have severe blowing on this land next spring unless precautionary measures are taken. Chiselling on the heavier soils and deep plowing of the sandier soils have proved effective in most cases; however, a good turf of a growing cover crop on the land offers the best protection of all.

All farmers are invited to visit the Soil Conservation Service office for additional information or on-site technical assistance in seeding cover crops or other soil conservation work needed on your land.

In addition to the row seeder, the District has the following equipment for rent to farmers: eight grass drills (also suitable for seeding alfalfa), two combination fertilizer-grain drills, one brush beater, one tractor and sprayer, and one sweep plow. Anyone wishing to use any of this equipment should contact the SCS office.

OPS Specialist To Be Here Sept. 26th

A price specialist from the Office of Price Stabilization will be here next Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 26 to remind business men whose firms are covered by Ceiling Price Regulation 7 of a new amendment which requires a supplementary filing with the district office not later than September 25.

That amendment to the regulation which covers sellers of wearing apparel, furniture, variety store merchandise, sporting goods jewelry and hardware, now requires the filing of a pricing chart which includes toys, games, Christmas decorations, laces, yarns and ribbons.

Price Specialist W. C. Pratt, who will visit Clarendon next week to help merchants of this immediate area, will be able to answer questions concerning all types of businesses who seek information regarding compliance with regulations.

While here, he will maintain offices in the Chamber of Commerce office, located in The Farmers State Bank building.

The Robin Redbreast

There are few of us who are not familiar with the saucy but friendly Robin whose appearance each year on our front lawns and in nearby parks is usually one of the very first signs of Spring. We are familiar with him, of course, but how much do we really know about him?

While the Robin may do some damage to fruit trees and vegetable gardens, his constant war against insects and other pests makes him a valuable ally to the farmer and the home gardener. In fact, in the North and in some parts of the West, the Robin is one of the most cherished of our native birds and is a welcome and helpful visitor.

According to the National Wildlife Federation, an organization designed to preserve America's birds and wild animals, the technical name for the Robin is Turdus migratorius. He feeds on many kinds of insects with no particular preference for any one type, although he is always happiest when he has captured a good sized earthworm, which he will either eat quickly himself or carry home to his babies.

Aside from insects, wildlife experts at the Federation tell us that more than half of the Robin's daily food is made up of fruits. Thus it would seem, at first glance, that he would not be too welcome to the farmer who raised strawberries, peaches, apples or any of the other fruits. The wise farmer, however, will not shoot the Robin for what might well be called a bad trait.

Rather he will cultivate in his orchard or near his fruit trees, small patches of wild berries, which Robins will eat and enjoy just as well.

If the farmer does this, he will tend to keep the Robin from destroying his fruit trees, and will have a well trained, fleetwinged policeman, to eat up many of the insects which do real damage to his crops. To prove that this method works successfully, it has been reported that in the state of California in certain years olive crops have been saved from hungry Robins only through great effort.

Olive growers, however, were smart enough to recognize the usefulness of Robins, and are convinced that all possible means should be exercised to keep them active so that they may be free to carry on their natural war with the more dangerous crop-destroying insects.

In size the normal healthy Robin should be about 10 inches long from the tip of his tail up to the point of his beak. He hatches his eggs in all parts of the United States excepting those states in and around the Gulf of Mexico. In addition he may be found in abundance in Canada, Alaska and Mexico. His winters are spent in many of the United States, and he will travel as far South as Guatemala, Central America.

Excitement Growing Over Opening of State Fair of Texas

With less than a month before the 1951 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21, opens for its 66th great show, thousands of people throughout the Southwest are already getting excited about the great annual fall festival of merry making.

That excitement is demonstrated in the orders pouring into Dallas for the fair's great entertainment features — "Guys and Dolls" and "Ice Cycles of 1952"—and for the three bigtime football games during the fair.

"Guys and Dolls" tickets are selling faster than the ducks to last year's "South Pacific" did in 1950, and "South Pacific" made theater attendance history.

Entries for the Quarter Horse

Show will close Sept. 24 and other livestock entries were to be closed Monday, Sept. 10. Thousands of entries are pouring in for the great 26-breed livestock exposition, headlined by the Pan-American National Hereford Show, Oct. 6-11.

Hundreds of entries from ten states, Missouri, Kentucky, Kansas, Tennessee, California, Wisconsin, Iowa, New York and Minnesota as well as Texas have been received for the Women's Show. Deadline is Sept. 29.

Exhibits are going up fast in the fair's huge exhibition buildings and rapid progress is being made on the new $125,000 livestock judging pavilion.

The trees, shrubs and flowers that make State Fair Park one of the most beautifully landscaped spots in the Southwest have survived the worst drought in Texas history wonderfully. Fair visitors will find the park an oasis of natural beauty bedecked with gay trappings of a mammade fairyland.

Hundreds of gallons of colorful paint are being splashed across the face of the fair to give the park a sunny smile to greet its visitors next month.

The State Fair expects its biggest attendance in history for the 1951 exposition — 2,300,000 during the 16-fun-filled days of the world's greatest state fair. Last year's attendance was 2,176,519, more than twice that for any other state fair.

Marvin Camras
Inventor of the first practical wire recorder

Surrender on V-J Day Recorded on Wire

Valdemar Poulsen, a Danish scientist, is credited with having invented the first wire recorder. It was a scientific achievement but of little practical value because the playback could be heard only feebly with the aid of ear phones. Poulsen was awarded the Grand Prix for his invention at the Paris Exposition of 1900. For 40 years, other scientists struggled to improve this device. But it was not until the beginning of World War II that a practical wire recorder was invented by Marvin Camras, a young student at the Illinois Institute of Technology. To supply the demand of our armed services, licenses were granted to 48 manufacturers to make wire recorders under the Camras patents. Over 10,000 units were delivered. Since the war, magnetic recording has added tape as a substitute for wire. Today magnetic recording is in use wherever sound recording is required.

National Farm Loan Association Annual Meeting Sept. 12 Well Attended

One hundred forty-two members and guests gathered in the Clarendon Lions Club Building Wednesday evening, Sept. 12 for the Donley County National Farm Loan Association's annual stockholders' meeting.

Mr. Alva T. Simmons, President, was in charge of the meeting, which was opened with an invocation by Rev. John A. English, followed by a welcome address by Director John R. Gillham. An interesting report on the years operations by the directors was given by Mr. Simmons.

Mr. Rayburn L. Smith, Secretary-Treasurer, reported on the financial condition and the loan activity. Special attention was given to the uses being made of the member-owned credit facilities. He stated that whereas formerly a Federal Land Bank loan was usually for the purchase of land, a good portion of loans last year were for improvements such as remodeling and building of houses, barns, fences and for other agricultural purposes.

Speaker of the evening was Dr. C. J. Whitfield, who is head of the Amarillo Experiment Station, and an eminent authority on Soil Conservation. His remarks were timely and much enjoyed by all present.

Musical entertainment was furnished by Miss Moss, Mrs. Bevers and Miss Patricia Usrey of Hedley. A number of encores provided the audience appreciation of their performance. Especially enjoyed was Miss Usrey's rendition of a novelty arrangement of "Shorten'n Bread."

After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served and much visiting was done by friends and neighbors. Plans are already under way for next year's meeting.

NOTICE

The Defense Department order, under which Selective Service registrants who have had their pre-induction physical examinations can volunteer for a service of their choice, has been extended once more. This extension, which was announced by the Amarillo Navy recruiting station today, will last until November 30th.

This order was first put into effect June 15th and extended July 15th and July 31st.

"Sons of the Pioneers" will be in Amarillo in person to appear twice a day at Tri-State Fair in an entertainment packed program at 2:30 o'clock and 8 o'clock each evening, September 24 through Sept. 29.

New Order Defines Status of Ice Cream

AUSTIN — Texans now will know whether they are eating ice cream or the competitive vegetable fat frozen dessert—mellorine.

State Health Officer George W. Cox has issued an order that defines, sets standards and gives a legal status to the vegetable fat product. After October 1 all frozen desserts sold in Texas made with vegetable or other edible fats—rather than with butterfat—must be called "mellorine". With the order, the millions of ice cream eaters in the State will be assured of getting real ice cream when they ask for ice cream—not a vegetable fat substitute product. George M. Clarke, executive vice president of the Dairy Products Institute of Texas, this week praised Dr. Cox for his action in clearing a problem that has plagued the dairy industry—and confused the public—for many months.

He said Dr. Cox's order was the result of recommendations submitted by the Texas ice cream industry. The ice cream manufacturers made a six months study of the problem during which time they held numerous conferences with technical experts from Texas A&M College, Texas Tech and the State Health Department.

"Mellorine is a good product," Clarke said, "but it is to ice cream what margarine is to butter."

"The important thing about Dr. Cox's order, however, is that it legalizes the manufacture and sale of the product Mellorine. The public now will have a clear-cut choice. Junior won't be buying a product sold as ice cream when in reality it is not. Ice cream—historically and by law—is made from butterfat."

Clarke emphasized that "mellorine" is not a trade name. All companies will use the word to label their frozen food products made with vegetable oils.

He predicted that the Health Department order will meet with wide-spread approval of the ice cream buying public.

Word "Oyster" Deleted From Title

AUSTIN—Under new legislation increasing the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission from six to nine members, the word "Oyster" was deleted from the title. The change will not be made until September when the new act becomes effective.

Legislators authorized the change to simplify the title and make it "Texas Game & Fish Commission." They also acted because oysters are considered as shell fish, such as shrimp, and therefore are covered under the appellation "Fish."

The Legislative act stirred some sentiment among the older residents of the state, who recalled that the first designation was that of "Office of Fish and Oyster Commissioner" created by the Legislature in 1895. Emphasis then was on marine fisheries since oysters comprised a major fishing industry.

In 1904, Texas produced approximately 200,000 barrels of oysters which would be worth more than $2,000,000 at present-day prices. The oyster crop dropped off gradually until the latest annual harvest total showed 7,000 barrels.

Marine biologists describe the decline of oyster production in Texas as a typical example of man's exploitation of a natural resource. Other major causes in the decline are erosion. Silt washed down streams and rivers raise havoc with oyster reefs by covering them. Research now is being undertaken to try to determine means of restoring the oyster industry but the name has gone forever from the game commission title.

Texas Hunters Given Support

AUSTIN — The case of Texas sportsmen, as concerns improved waterfowl hunting privileges, will be presented to Federal authorities this year with new backing.

The Texas Game, Fish & Oyster Commission vainly tried last year to have Texas zoned for the waterfowl hunting season. Now, the Commission in preparing to renew its request will have the backing of the newly organized Outdoor Writers of Texas.

The Executive Secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission who was invited to attend the journalists' organizing meeting, said the new group's support is timely.

Several of the outdoor reporters have contacts in other states and some of them know officials of the United States Fish & Wildlife Service, the agency which decides waterfowl shooting regulations.

The Game, Fish & Oyster Commission tried last year to work out a more satisfactory season for Texas nimrods. At the Commission's May meeting, it asked to have Texas divided into a northern and a southern zone.

But in August of 1950, the Wildlife Service held the zoning plan would not be desirable from a conservation viewpoint.

In the end, Texas got a 45 day season beginning November 3. Thus, when the season ended December 17, the shoot in the coastal areas was just beginning.

The Executive Secretary said the state is so large that an ordinary statewide short season is bound to work a hardship on the sportsmen in either the northern or southern part of the state.

Gonzales Warm Springs Campaign Started Sunday

GONZALES, Sept. 16—A statewide campaign to raise funds for the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children starts today in all portions of the state. It is slated to continue through September 30, according to plans announced by Ross Boothe, Foundation President. Governor Allan Shivers is gen-

The fund drive starting today seeks to enable the Foundation to expand its facilities, thus extending its medical program to a greater number of physically handicapped youngsters.

"The people of Texas are deeply concerned with the welfare of our crippled children," Ross Boothe, Foundation President said. "They know the money contributed in this campaign will be used in Texas to help Texas children. I know they will respond generously."

A moment of carelessness with a match or cigarette can destroy a forest that nature has been developing for a century.

The first goal in forest protection is the prevention of forest fires. If fires don't get started, we don't have to fight 'em.

Thirteen Southern States have three-fourths of the forest fires in the United States.

Nearly three-fourths of the forest fires in the South occur on land without organized fire protection.

The simple practice of plowing around fields before burning would keep many field fires from becoming forest fires.

In the final analysis everyone is ignorant. Only the subjects differ.

1951 Tri-State Fair To Feature Galaxy Of Stars Sept. 24-29

"Lots to do and plenty to see" in Amarillo Sept. 24-29 is a 1951 Tri-State Fair promise!

A galaxy of stars will be on exhibit day and night at the Fair grounds for six full days. Stars of the "Fair Family" will congregate from stage and screen, radio, art studio, farm, range and kitchen—all equipped with their best wares to put on a real extravaganza.

High on the entertainment list is the two-hour show twice daily at the indoor arena—starting at 2:30 o'clock afternoons and again at 8 p. m. presented by stars from stage, screen and radio.

"Sons of the Pioneers", famous sextet specializing in western ballads, are a guaranteed treat. They have become known as "Aristocrats of the Range" for their sophisticated presentation of range harmonies.

Polly Bergen, a Hollywood starlet, TV star and recording artist, singer and dancer, will be here to demonstrate her talents. She made her screen debut in "That's my Boy", singing with Dean Martin. She was first summorsed for television shows after successfully recording "Honky Tonkin'" and other off-beat jazz tunes.

The daring Ortons, an aerialist team will appear on the regular 2-hour show as well as present some daring feats in outdoor free exhibits.

"Uncle Willie", a teen-age negro comic who became famous on the Dallas night club circuit and went to Hollywood from there, will present his best imitations, songs and dances.

Two thousand men and women from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma—all "stars" in their specialized fields—will present a dazzling array of prize livestock, poultry, rabbits, farm produce, bake goods, handwork and artistic achievements in painting, silk screen, metalwork, jewelry and allied fields.

Peter Hurd, international famous painter of the Southwestern scene, will have an exclusive exhibit.

Bill Hames' midway, a familiar feature at Tri-State Fair for 25 years, will provide extra entertainment for young and old.

A cutting horse contest is scheduled as a full feature the last three days of the Fair. Of the $15,000 premiums going to fair winners, $1,000 goes to the best cutting horse.

A new V-8 custom Ford Victoria will be given away the last night of the Fair. Don McMillian, Inc., Amarillo's friendly Ford dealer, has donated the green Victoria for some lucky registrant who attends the Fair and whose name will appear on the slip to be drawn from a sealed barrel.

All the exhibits will be open from Sept. 24th through the closing day.

Texans over 17 years of age must have hunting licenses providing, of course, they hunt beyond their own home county. All residents entitled to hunt in their own home area without a license must have an "exempt license" before hunting deer and turkey on the land of their residence.

Little fires soon become big fires if left alone, so the motto of forest fire crews is "get 'em while they're small."

In 1947 there were more than 48,000 forest fires on protected land in the South.

Burning and over-cutting of forest land reduces the quantity and quality of the range for wildlife.

Forest insects and diseases, although usually not spectacular in their invasion, may kill as much timber as do forest fires.

Federal Age Certificates On Increase

DALLAS — More than 5,000 Federal certificates of age had been issued in Texas during 1951 when the public schools opened here this week, according to William J. Rogers, Regional Director of the Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the U. S. Department of Labor in Dallas. Federal laws make it unlawful to employ children under 16 years of age in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce, or in processes or occupations directly essential or closely related thereto.

"So when youthful-looking applicants try for jobs, they generally arm themselves with an age certificate to prove to prospective employers that they are old enough for the job," Mr. Rogers said.

He added that an increasing number of employers are requesting such certificates of age before they venture to hire youthful job aspirants. He commended that practice as one by which they could avoid unintentional violation of the Federal law.

Most such certificates of age in Texas are issued by the 83 offices of the Texas Employment Commission through arrangements with the U. S. Department of Labor here. The Employment Service is in no way connected with the enforcement of the law and issues these certificates simply as a service function to aid employers and workers.

Such certificates also may be issued by the Federal Issuing Officer in the Wage-Hour Division of the U. S. Department of Labor. Actually, however, about two out of three of the 5,314 certificates issued this year have been issued by local offices of the Texas Employment Commission.

The total for June, when most schools were dismissed, was the biggest month for such issuances thus far this year. The total for June was 1,600 as contrasted with the low figure of 306 for January.

Whereas a minimum age of 16 is required by law for employment in interstate commerce, the minimum age for employees of firms engaged on Government contracts is slightly higher. There the minima are 16 for boys and 18 for girls.

Penalties for the illegal use of child labor may be applied for the employment of under-age minors in interstate commerce jobs and a penalty of $10 a day for each under-age employee may be assessed by law for firms performing Government contracts.

Being a Baby Is a Real Hazard Says State Health Officer

AUSTIN—"Being a baby is a real hazard in either winter or summer but much can be done to avoid or at least lessen some of these hazards that are associated with hot summer days," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Summer is the season in which death from intestinal disorders has in the past exacted its greatest toll.

"To guard the infant against such danger, care must be taken that his food, especially milk is pure and kept safe. If there is any uncertainty concerning the water supply, the baby should drink only water which has been boiled and cooled and kept covered. The baby and all his food must be protected against flies. "Baby himself and all the things which he comes in contact should be kept as clean as possible. Plenty of fresh air and sunshine are essential for the best health of the infant. The baby's body should be gradually exposed to the direct rays of the sun; begin with exposure of only part of the skin surface for three to five minutes and slowly increase the area of skin and time once or twice daily.
