STATE MOBIL X-RAY UNIT TO BE HERE TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

All residents 15 years old and above, living in the Clarendon area, are reminded that the State Mobil X-Ray unit will be in Clarendon next Tuesday and Wednesday, August 11th & 12th at the Estlack Machinery Co. to take free chest x-rays of all those desiring this service. The hours for taking the x-rays will be from 8:30 a. m. til 5:30 p. m. each day. Members of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will assist in the clerical duties.

Local physicians are urging one hundred percent participation in this program. It will take only a few minutes of your time and the report you receive from your x-ray will be very important to you whether positive or negative. This free service was designed to help stamp out Tuberculosis and should you have TB it is much easier to combat when detected in the early stages. It is always a good feeling too, to know that your chest is in good condition.

Dr. J. Gordon Stewart, county health officer, pointed out that it is not necessary to undress for the X-ray, taking only a few minutes to register and have the x-ray taken. The report will come direct from Austin within a short time and is strictly confidential. Several hundred had their chests x-rayed last year when the Mobil Unit was here and it is hoped that the number will increase this year. Doctors recommend that everyone have their chest x-rayed at least once every year, so keep the above dates in mind and be sure to participate in this program that is designed for your own personal benefit.

Residents of the Hedley area are reminded that the Mobil Unit will be in Hedley at the Lions Club Den on Friday and Saturday, August 14th and 15th to render this free service. Everyone around Hedley is urged to have their chest x-rayed also.

Bro. Dillard was here last summer for the youth revival and it is because of the whole-hearted response of the local membership, and at their insistent invitation, that he is to be here again.

Bro. Dillard will be available for personal consultation and will have group meetings with the youth each evening to answer their questions and to guide in finding the solutions for problems of our day.

Sid Stewarts Are New Residents Here

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Stewart and three sons, Jerry 10, Stephen 5 and Mike 4, formerly of Victoria, Texas, have moved to Clarendon and are making their home in the late Mrs. Laura Taylor residence on east 2nd street.

Mr. Stewart is a member of the Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home staff. He is a licensed embalmer and funeral director with a number of years experience. He is not new to this locality as he was previously employed by the late Mr. J. W. Murphy at Memphis.

Mr. Stewart has been with the local funeral home the past four weeks. Prior to his death, Mr. Murphy had made the statement that Sid came nearer to doing everything the way he did than any other funeral director he had ever worked with.

The Leader joins other residents of this area in welcoming this new family to Clarendon and know they will enjoy making their home here.

Dusters Lose To Claude, 4 to 2

The Clarendon Dusters had more trouble hitting the ball last Sunday and were downed 4 to 2 by the Claude team in Duster Park. There was never over one run scored by either team at any time at bat. Claude started the scoring with one run in the 1st, one in the 3rd and one each in the 8th and 9th innings. The Dusters were able to score only in the 3rd and 9th. In other games reported, the Air Base defeated White Deer in a 17 inning affair and Hedley poured it on Canyon 22-0. B. F. Dorman worked on the mound being relieved by Eddie Reynolds in the 9th.

Dusters To Play Canyon Sunday At Canyon

The Dusters will hit the road again Sunday to play Canyon at Canyon. They will be out to bag this game, for they need another win to put them in the season play-off games and it's time for them to show a comeback in their hitting power as well as fielding. Canyon has been unpredictable all season and for the most part have given the top teams plenty of competition. After being drubbed by Hedley 22-0 last Sunday, they may be hard to handle.

Make Plans Now To Fill Trench Silos Says County Agent

If we get more rain and make a forage crop this fall, County Agent H. M. Breedlove, advises that it will be the time to put this feed in a trench silo. Cane, sargo, hegari, other grain and sweet sorghums will make good silage and this is the cheapest way to feed your cattle this winter. There will be a definite shortage of feed this winter and silage will be a big help and one of the cheapest methods to winter cattle. Breedlove urges that you make plans now to fill a trench silo if we make any late feed. This could relieve the feed situation a great deal for livestock producers.

They returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. June Taylor is a patient in Northwest Texas Hospital.

Leader Mystery Farm Feature Starts Today

"A beautiful farming area" is the way the Zekan-Robbins aerial photo company describes the country around Clarendon after taking 52 aerial farm photos here a few days ago.

These photos are taken for the Donley County Leader and Clarendon Furniture Co. and the cost of the photos and the engravings from which they are printed is paid for by the sponsoring firms.

In so doing the Leader and Clarendon Furniture Co. are recognizing farming as the big business it is today, and also creating a friendly guessing contest among readers of this newspaper.

Nobody knows whose farms the photographers snapped with their big aerial cameras. It is up to the readers to let the Leader know whose farms are published each week. The publishers and sponsor do not know whose farms will be printed—even the photographers do not know.

However, the photographers charted a course to include farms throughout the area around Clarendon, and they can come back and take more photos without duplication.

A beautiful enlargement of the original photo will be given free to the operator of each farm as soon as it appears in the newspaper. However, the farm operator will have to call at the newspaper office and identify his farm, in order to receive the photo.

The first person positively identifying the Mystery Farm each week, will receive a free subscription to the Leader. The second person and the fifth person identifying the farm will receive a free show ticket through the courtesy of Mr. Lee Bell and the Mulkey Theatre. We would like to stress again that the Leader nor the sponsor know who these farms belong to, so we will need positive identification prior to the next weeks publication.

Everyone recognizing the farm is asked to let the newspaper know, so that the identity can be published the next week. The names of the first ones to call or write, will be published. Recognizing farms from aerial photos is tricky business requiring a good knowledge of the building layouts and a keen sense of observation. Who will be first to identify the farm each week?

In taking the "mystery farm photos" here, the photographer flew nearly 300 air miles back and forth across the area served by this newspaper. Farms were selected at random.

The most hazardous form of flying, at low altitudes, was performed in obtaining the series of pictures for the Leader. The Zekan-Robbins photo company has a waiver from the Civil Aeronautics Commission for their commercial pilot, in order that he may fly at altitudes of from 100 to 200 feet and get "close up" views.

Zekan and Robbins learned their trade in the United States Navy where they flew in aircraft carrier based planes in the South Pacific, using cameras similar to those used over the peaceful agricultural area here.

"The green and white state" is their description of this area with its numerous clusters of large white buildings against a background of green pastures, fields and trees. But while enjoying the scenic beauty of this part of the state, as viewed from the air, the photographers are also impressed by the big business that farming is today—big investments in buildings, land, livestock and machinery.

"Our photos carry the message that farming is a business," the photographers said, "and they cement the friendship between the businessmen in town and the businessmen in the county by portraying the community's greatest asset—good farms."

Watch for the "mystery farm" each week in the Leader. Your farm may be next!

No County Fair Says Show Board

The Donley County Show Board met in the office of County Agent H. M. Breedlove on Tuesday morning, August 4th and voted not to have the county fair this year due to the drought and shortage of crops. C. L. Lewis, President, presided at the meeting and the county fair was discussed in full and decided not to have the fair for this year only, and asked that all communities make plans for the county fair in 1954. There will be a swine show for the club boys but the rest of the fair will be passed for this year only.

People in the communities who have worked on the fair say that it will be hard to get products in the communities this year.

H. M. Breedlove will have a county exhibit at the Amarillo Fair this year and any one who has any products that they would like to display on the county booth should contact him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franklin of Wayside visited Monday afternoon with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Payne.

Tolleson - Morrow Nuptials Read Saturday

In a sunrise, double-ring ceremony read Saturday morning, August 1, in the First Methodist Church parsonage, Clarendon, Miss Jeanette Tolleson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tolleson became the bride of Earl B. Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow. Rev. I. E. Biggs officiated.

Vows were exchanged against a background of flowers and greenery accented in colors of white and blue.

Mrs. Cleve Ingram of Amarillo attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a pastel blue dress complemented by white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Ira Kenneth Morrow was his brother's best man.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta ballerina length dress with a fitted bodice and full skirt. The sweetheart neckline was filled in with a yoke of nylon net. She wore a white half-hat and a corsage of white rosebuds. Tradition was carried out in something old, new, borrowed and blue.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tolleson chose to wear a navy blue dress with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Morrow, mother of the groom, wore a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a coffee was held for relatives and the wedding party. The tiered cake was decorated in blue and white. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. C. W. Tolleson of Clarendon and Mrs. David Kelly of Baycity, Texas.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Morrow attended Clarendon schools. Mrs. Morrow has been a member of the F.H.A., pep squad and girl's basketball team. Mr. Morrow was a member of the graduating class of 1953, a member of the football team and track team. He is now studying Telegraphy at Draughts Business College in Amarillo.

Notes from - - - CITY HALL

Since the good rains, the grass and shrubbery in our city park looks much better. We have a very nice little park so let's keep it that way. Let's keep it clear of livestock. Everyone is asked not to ride, lead or drive any kind of livestock in or across the park as this damages the turf and is prohibitive by city ordinance. Let's observe these rules and keep our park looking nice.

We have been getting some complaints of air gun shooting and some damage has been reported. Youngsters should be cautioned to not repeat this act. It's disobeying our city ordinance. Thanks.

Major B. Hudson, Mayor.

Finds Ancient Altar

PALENQUE, Mexico—(American Peoples Encyclopedia News Service) — A noteworthy recent archaeological discovery is that of the Mexican archaeologist, Dr. Alberto Rux Lhuillier. Deep within the pyramidal "Temple of Inscriptions" at Palenque he exposed an elaborate sacrificial stone, surrounded by six skeletons. Beneath this "altar" was a burial chamber of an ancient priest or ruler, on whose head, neck, and chest was a wreath of jade. A jade mask with emerald eyes covered the face; in the mouth was a huge pearl; in each hand, a jade ornament; and, at his feet, were two figures, also of jade.

and SOCIAL SECURITY

During the past 3 months, according to J. R. Sanderson, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office, that office has issued each week about 150 original social security cards, 60 duplicate cards to replace lost cards, and 35 duplicate cards on account of marriage or divorce resulting in a change of employee's name.

Each person receiving a card, original or duplicate, is advised to "Use it, don't lose it". Since his social security number is the key to each individual's wage account, he should show the card to each new employer so the name and number can be copied directly onto the employer's payroll records. It is to the interest of both employer and employee that this be done, because it is the best possible way to insure correct reporting.

Unless needed when looking for work, employees are advised to leave their cards at home in a safe place. The card has only one purpose and that is the maintenance of the employee's wage account. It is one of the poorest types of identification and should not be used or accepted for that purpose. Since lost cards are relatively expensive for the Government to replace, and require several days of waiting time for the employee, social security cards should receive the same care as insurance policies and other valuable documents.

Cattle Prospects
 Texas Dept. of Agriculture

Texas farmers and ranchmen, surveying their parched, brown earth and gaunt cattle, can very easily get a distorted picture of their future prospects. The situation is bad—but not hopeless.

Cattle owners must carefully consider their long-range plans. If you rush stock to the market which could be held, you may be cutting your income unnecessarily.

A larger part of our cattle back-log has been wiped out through quick marketing than many persons realize. Over 3½ million more cattle and calves were slaughtered during the first six months of 1953 than at the same time last year. In many cases, even the foundation herds of cattlemen have been cut drastically or eliminated entirely.

There is always the danger of going too far. Although the extremely favorable prices of the last few years may not return soon, measures are being put into effect which should add some strength to the market and encourage conservation of our foundation herds.

Some relief is on the way in the form of drought hay purchases, reduced railroad fares for transportation of necessary fodder, and loans. Cottonseed pellets and meal is expected to sell to needy stock farmers at emergency prices of $35 a ton, corn at $1 a bushel, wheat at $1.10 and oats at 50 cents.

In addition, all efforts are towards quick and effective sale of beef through consumer advertising campaigns, government purchases and foreign exports. It seems likely that supplies of beef will continue high the next few years but that there will be very little increase in herd sizes. The long range effect is expected to help stabilize the market.

The stocker's chief problem will be in determining what part of his herd to sell and what to keep for continued production. Growers in the hard-hit areas should try to hold on to as many cattle as it is economically feasible to feed. Those with good pastures, principally in East Texas, may find this a good time to buy a few more head, depending on the size and condition of their range.

Farm and ranch people have demonstrated their cattle in asking only for the type of aid and relief which they could eventually pay back. With this kind of determination behind it, our cattle market will regain its solid footing.

Lots of Scholarships
 WASHINGTON — (American Peoples Encyclopedia News Service)—U. S. Office of Education figures disclose that 1,200 colleges and universities offered 124,000 scholarships valued at $27 million and 14,000 fellowships worth $9.25 million in the academic year 1950-51. The report states that the largest number of scholarships, 3,183, were offered in the field of music. Offerings in the theological field, which totaled 1,361, topped available fellowships.

Two Plans Outlined For State Program Of Drouth Relief

AUSTIN—Attorney General John Ben Shepperd Thursday of last week outlined two plans for a state program of drouth relief.

In a 30-page memorandum written at the request of the Governor, Shepperd listed steps that can be taken without calling a special session of the Legislature and defined a program which a session could put into operation.

He said the state's Civil Protection Act of 1951 and the recently enacted Interagency Cooperative Laws allows the Governor to declare a disaster condition in drouth-stricken Texas and utilize facilities of various state agencies in the emergency.

Under the program possible without a special session, Shepperd included aid to be furnished by cities and counties, technical assistance to be provided by state agencies, relief on freight rates and transportation of feed and seed, rain-making projects, and a water conservation policy.

He suggested the possibility of a more lenient veterans' loan system, loans on livestock to sharecroppers, a voluntary price support system, loans from soil conservation districts, and a distribution system for surplus commodities.

Shepperd said a special session of the Legislature could bring about direct grants and loans to individuals and governmental agencies for relief purposes, long term credit and low interest rates, extension of credit and a moratorium on debts subsequently contracted, and extension on tax payment deadlines.

A special session could also plan a water conservation program and finance a rain-making project.

Shepperd suggested a constitutional amendment by the next regular session to permit the Legislature to propose changes in the Constitution at a special session to meet future emergencies similar to the present one.

Even in big cities we notice that every little movement has a candidate all its own.

Anyway, it was a great time together. The Celebration and the good times of visiting that all enjoyed at Claude last week. Fifteen hundred passed by in revue at the barbecue stand which is quite a number for a town this size.

Lots of things happened that would be worth repeating if we could just remember them all. One thing rather comical happened while State Senator Andy Rogers was speaking. A certain young lady was sitting by Mrs. Rogers and not knowing who she was remarked, "Wonder why they didn't have something more entertaining for an occasion like this; who wants to hear a political speech?" This actually happened, and Mrs. Rogers told it good naturedly before leaving town. The young lady also came to us with the sad story of her blunder. Later she saw Mrs. Rogers with the Senator. Folks did enjoy the Senator even if they were so busy seeing old friends that it was hard to listen. Everyone enjoyed meeting him and the Mrs. and thanks a million for being with us.

After all this excitement of the week we were supposed to meet the Brother-in-law at the Park in Amarillo for lunch after church. This is the brother-in-law without the appendix. Anyhow, even though we were worn out from the week of busy activities we thought we sort of taper off on our eating by taking on some of his chuck. Also, we meant to snooze a little while he was telling us about his new son-in-law, and while we listened another time to the cuteness of his grandson. But he didn't come. Through some turn of fate the signals got confused and 1:30 came with no brother-in-law. Mama and me were famished, so we feasted on the contents of our own basket, using our own imagination as to the latest antics of his grandson. Can't guess what could have gone wrong unless the price of lunch meat has gone up again.

This week we received two new members to our Ain't Smoking Right Now Society. E. O. Worley of 3431 1/2 Granada St., Dallas, Texas. Most of you will remember him, especially from the good eats that he used to serve when he lived here. Also W. A. Lamm of Sudan, Texas who reads our efforts in Crop & Stock. Glad to have them both as members and very best wishes. Excuse the short column, and don't say you're glad.

Survey Indicates Teacher Shortage

AUSTIN—A survey just completed by the Texas State Teachers Association indicates that there will be only 2,550 new teachers available for approximately 8,000 vacant teaching jobs in Texas next September, Research Director E. L. Galyean announced Saturday.

The 8,000 figure is an estimate based on previous records, Galyean explained. The survey showed that there were 3,508 vacant teaching jobs—almost 1,000 more than the supply of new teachers—as of June 1st.

"There are usually more than twice as many teaching jobs vacant on September 1 as on June 1," Galyean said, "because so many teachers find new jobs, outside the teaching profession, during the summer."

The survey showed that the annual turnover in teaching personnel is nearing 25 per cent. Records of the Texas Education Agency show that schools made 12,754 replacements during the 1952-53 school year. That means that one out of every five Texas teachers changed jobs during the past school year.

Answers to the survey questions were received from 944 city and county superintendents. Practically all of the larger school districts reported, producing information from schools representing more than 88 per cent of the total professional personnel in Texas public schools.

The fifty-one senior colleges and universities were surveyed on the supply of new teachers that will be available. Forty-nine of these replied, reporting that 3,660 graduating seniors were eligible for teaching certificates. But they also reported that only 2,550 said they would accept teaching positions. More than 30 per cent of those trained to teach said they planned to enter other fields.

The survey of superintendents showed that the teacher shortage is less critical in large cities which pay salaries considerably higher than the minimums required by state law. School districts with less than 2,500 students reported the greatest percentage of teaching vacancies.

Approximately 2,100 of the new teachers to be in demand next fall are needed to take care of an anticipated increase of 60,000 in the state's scholastic population.

By subjects, the shortage of primary teachers is the most critical with 354 schools reporting a shortage. Mathematics teachers are needed by 290 schools, science teachers by 287, English teachers by 166, physical education teachers by 156, music teachers by 150, and home economics teachers by 148.

"A great many schools will be forced to go on half-day schedules next fall," Galyean said, "because of the critical teacher shortage. Most of these half-day schedules will involve pupils in the first two grades."

"We have all the faculty except two and hope to have them in the near future," stated a Clarendon school official.

Mrs. Winnie Wester and Jeanette and Mrs. Emery Morris of Pampa were in Denton recently where Jeanette enrolled as a Junior for the fall semester at TSCW.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

TROUBLE ON CAPITOL HILL:

Look for something to happen in the present engagement between McCarthy and the White House on Central Intelligence employees being subpoenaed before McCarthy's committee. It is going to be a tough decision for the White House. McCarthy has played his cards so that the White House would be in a corner. If the White House lets these employees testify, a great risk will be involved concerning the possible leakage of secret information. If it refuses, McCarthy can charge the White House and the State Department with defending one Bundy, who happens to be the son in law of Dean Acheson and who is alleged to have contributed $400.00 to the Alger Hiss defense fund. Lots of trouble could come out of this.

POSTAL RATE INCREASE:

There is much opposition on the Hill to the postal rate increases proposed by Postmaster General Summerfield. Strong opposition will be encountered in the Post Office and Civil Service Committee; much general opposition on the Floor. This may subside. Opposition argues that first class mail pays its own way; that increasing this from three to four cents is making the average letter writer subsidize big magazines and periodicals.

THE TAX MORATORIUM:

Last week I mentioned the fact that a tax moratorium had been voted by the House for the whiskey distilleries on whiskey still in storage. The moratorium is for four years and it is estimated that it involves approximately 185 million gallons of liquor. At $10.50 a gallon tax, it would indicate that the collection of over 2 billion dollars was postponed for four years. While at the same time, it was argued that the excess profits tax, which could only bring in 800 million dollars, had to be extended to balance the budget. The issue is so hot that the Senate committee will probably table the bill.

The admissions tax on movie theatres will be repealed by the time you get this letter, or soon thereafter. This tax repeal bill was brought out under a closed rule. This means that the bill can not be amended on the House Floor. It must be accepted or rejected as written. I regretted this rule as there were several amendments that I think should go on the bill to give some tax relief to some who are equally in distress.

FOREIGN AID:

The pressure is on to prevent further cuts in the foreign aid program. The President had recommended 5.4 billion dollars. This was trimmed by the House to just under five billion dollars. It was raised by the Senate to 5.1 billion. This was the authorization. The big worry now is whether or not the appropriations committees will make further cuts in providing actual funds. Incidentally, the Senate raised the House version by more than 150 million dollars. This raise alone is more than has been asked in the way of money to be used for loan purposes in meeting the drought disaster.

PRICE SUPPORTS FOR CATTLE:

A tremendous grass roots movement is afoot to place price supports or a floor under cattle. This is a decision that must be made by the Secretary of Agriculture who presently has the authority to invoke such floor or supports.

The proposal to adjourn Congress by July 31st does not leave sufficient time for Congress to work out a mandatory program on this subject.

THE FARMERS:

So much attention was paid to the cattle business on the drought question that the little farmer was almost forgotten. Most of the laws concerning credit in the disaster program apply to the farmer as well as the cattleman. I have called this to the attention of the House several times during recent weeks and have also tried to impress upon the House that the credit should not be limited to a select few. There are many young people, and especially veterans, who have been hit by this disaster and who have not been in the business long enough to establish themselves as well as they would have liked. They are sons and daughters of farming and ranching people and it is their business. They should not be discriminated against.

The proposed regulations concerning eligibility for emergency feed are highly unsatisfactory. These may be changed before they are released. A release is due shortly after this letter is being written.

WINDING UP THIS SESSION OF CONGRESS:

The drive for early adjournment of Congress is under full steam. Committee meetings are being crowded together in the mornings and the House is staying in session late every day. Many of the committees are meeting while the House is in session in an effort to complete action on much pending legislation. The President's "must" legislation includes two bills that may cause a substantial delay in adjourning this session.

The bill to admit 240,000 refugees into this country is due for rough sledding in the House. Its main support will come from the extreme liberal wing of both parties and those who feel constrained to follow the President's recommendations, regardless of what they might be. The Southern Democratic bloc will oppose this legislation almost to a man. This bloc and the general scattered opposition throughout the country will cause the vote to be very close and could defeat the measure in the House. This same type of legislation was losing much support during the latter days of the Truman administration and many of those who opposed it then will not go along with it now just because it is endorsed by Eisenhower. It is risky legislation that could cause much trouble in this country if passed.

The other controversial bill is the proposed postal rate raise. The general consensus seems to be that this proposed raise penalizes the users of first class mail, which has always paid its own way, while second, third and fourth class mails have not paid their own way. Many members feel that it is unfair to put an added burden on the backs of the individuals who are the large users of first class mail in order to extend what constitutes a subsidy to the users of second, third and fourth class mails. This bill will be highly controversial in the House but will probably meet even rougher sledding in the Senate. A substitute bill has been proposed to place rate fixing powers in the Postmaster General. It is doubted that Congress would pass this type of legislation.

The odd thing about the postal rate raise bill is that the opposition before the committee is coming from users of second, third and fourth class mail, which is not presently paying its way. Since first class mail is used by Mr. Average American, who does not maintain a lobby in Washington, vocal opposition to this added tax on him has come from the many members of Congress who realize what is going on.

The big argument for raising the rates is the $700,000,000 postal deficit. Approximately nine times the amount of this deficit, or six-plus billions, has been allocated by the House for foreign aid for the fiscal year. This amount will probably be upped by the Senate. This six billion dollars plus the amounts on hand in that fund totals 14 billion dollars for foreign aid. The question is "Are we going to increase the burden on the already overtaxed John Q. Citizen by a postal rate increase, that is nothing more than a new tax under a different name, while we are sending billions of dollars of tax moneys overseas?" Not by my vote.

To Study Tornado Detection Methods

AUSTIN—Improvement of tornado and hurricane detection methods will be a primary concern of international meteorology and electronics authorities, meeting November 9-12 at the University of Texas.

The convention will combine the American Meteorological Society's 125th national meeting with the Fourth annual meeting of the Radar Weather Conference and meetings of committees from the Institute of Radio Engineers, the International Scientific Unions and International Scientific Radio Union (correct).

The convention agenda also will include discussions of ways radar can be used to record rainfall more accurately, weather effects on television and radio transmission, and other weather recording and forecasting problems.

AUSTIN—"A natural disaster and public calamity" exists in the drouth areas of Texas, according to an official proclamation by Governor Shivers.

The proclamation was a legal requirement for putting the state drouth aid program into action. Using his emergency powers, the governor set up a state defense and disaster relief council to administer the program. Most of the council members are heads of state agencies.

From Victoria, Claud McCan, state PMA chairman sent telegrams to county committees telling them that they have wide discretion in screening applicants for federal drouth relief.

Applicants do not have to sign a pauper's oath, said McCan.

That assurance also came from President Eisenhower, Governor Shivers, and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Their statement was in reply to the complaints of many Texans who had interpreted a U. S. Department of Agriculture directive as meaning that applicants would have to swear they were broke before receiving aid.

The President said in a telegram to Governor Shivers, that the decisions respecting the distribution of feed will largely be the responsibility of local committees within the framework of regulations prescribed by the secretary of agriculture.

And by telephone, Benson told Shivers that the agriculture department had not thought of asking for either paupers' oaths or financial statements as a prerequisite for aid to farmers and ranchers.

Members of the local committees will be farmers, ranchers, bankers, and agriculture experts, able to judge each application on its own merits, Shivers said.

He added that work is going forward on the drouth aid program at the state level.

A meeting of the Texas A&M College board was to follow conferences between representatives of the attorney general and the college on a plan to furnish hay to drouth areas.

And the State Department of Health surveyed water supplies as related to health.

In Washington, Senator Price Daniel of Texas, following a visit to the drouth area, said "our great need today is for a long-range state-federal program of drouth control."

Temporary relief in time of emergency solves no permanent problem, Daniel commented, and "We must control drouths by joint effort or else, in the not too distant future, drouths will control us."

While the drouth-relief program was getting started, hard rains fell at scattered points over much of the state, bringing joy to some of the people in parched places and cooler weather to most sections.

The rains, however, were not general and it was not considered that the drouth was broken.

The state property tax this year will remain at 42 cents per $100 valuation — 35 cents for schools, 5 cents for the college building program, and 2 cents for Confederate pensions.

For September, the Texas draft quota is 1,232 men, state selective service headquarters announced.

That's two more than the August call and 54 below the number of draftees in the July quota.

Thirty doctors of medicine will be inducted in August, largest number for any single month to date, said Brigadier General Paul Wakefield, state draft director.

There was one political development: State Senator Searcy Bracewell of Houston said he might run for lieutenant governor next year "if it is an open race."

By that he meant he would not run if Ben Ramsey, the incumbent in that office, seeks reelection.

And the "if" in that sentence is a big one in the state political picture.

Ramsey is considered a sure starter in the race for governor "if" Shivers does not run. Shivers has said that he might ask for a third term.

On Shivers' decision rests the candidacy of more than one hopeful, not only for the governor's office, but for other places that might be vacated in the political shuffle.

UT Engineers Studying EHF

AUSTIN—University of Texas engineers are studying the highest known broadcasting medium—extremely high frequency.

EHF is what scientists call the third "band" of radio waves above very high frequency (VHF), the band used for most telecasting. In between are ultra high frequency (UHF), also used for telecasting, and super high frequency (SHF), used by telephone companies in micro-wave-relay transmission. Both UHF and SHF are used in radar work.

So far, University engineers have found EHF waves operate efficiently with smaller antennae than other frequencies, can be "beamed" like microwaves to a certain spot, and can penetrate fog, Dr. A. W. Straiton, project director, said.

Financial Aid To Drouth-Stricken Farmers-Ranchers Promised Soon

Financial aid to drought stricken farmers and ranchmen of Texas was promised immediately by State Director L. J. Cappelman of the Farmers Home Administration from his office in Dallas upon being informed today by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson that details of Public Law 38, Section Two, the new special livestock loan are complete and that lending procedure has been announced.

Funds are available from a revolving fund containing up to $150,000,000; and the purposes for which loan funds may be used include a long list of essential ranch operating purposes such as feed, grazing lease charges, crop land rentals for production of feed, purchase, hire and repair of farm machinery, building or repair of fences, transportation of cattle to and from grazing lands; payment of one year's operating interest on debts secured by liens on chattels or real estate; and payment of one year's taxes on real and personal property, purchase of livestock for replacement or restocking, but not expansion of normal operations; for water supplies, living expenses, normal maintenance of farm and ranch buildings and other operating expenses, but not to refinance secured or unsecured debts nor to establish a man in livestock operations.

Interest rate on Special Livestock Loans for ranchmen is 5 percent and repayment must be scheduled within three years, because of the difference in the type of loan. Present FHA County Committees will certify Special Livestock Loans until such time as the Secretary of Agriculture may set up Special Committees.

Cappelman in his statement referred also to the crop Disaster Loans administered by the Farmers Home Administration that are being made at the rate of more than $1,000,000 a month now. $12,000,000 of these Disaster loans have been disbursed in the last twelve months. These loans made under Public Law 38, Section One, are available in all areas suffering from the effects of production losses caused by reasons beyond the control of the farmer. The Texas disaster area was proclaimed two years ago when lack of rain and other natural causes placed farmers in serious plight because of the losses sustained.

The FHA Disaster Loan available under Section One of Public Law 38, provides funds for the production of crops and normal expenses of such production. Any farmer who has suffered a production loss and needs more credit than is available through his local bank or other lending agencies is eligible to apply for the FHA crop disaster loans.

Mr. Cappelman has instructed county FHA supervisors to give priority to Crop Disaster and Special Livestock Loans and to call into session county loan committees as often as necessary to pass on the applications and expedite the loan making procedure. He emphasized that money is available for the purpose of obtaining seed and other necessary supplies to start a new crop and to carry farmers and ranchers through this emergency, and take care of their normal needs.

The Farmers Home Administration is ready to receive applications and process loans immediately. The entire state is already a designated disaster area and loans can be processed without delay to purchase feed and to meet crop production needs in any county. While offices are already staffed, Cappelman said additional men needed in FHA offices in any area of Texas to take care of the emergency disaster loans have already been transferred or can be moved in from other parts of Texas at once. The regular disaster loan program is being used to finance the production of wheat and other small grain crops in the western area of Texas, he said.

Cappelman also pointed out that funds for the use of the regular program of the Farmers Home Administration are available, including production and farm operating, farm ownership, farm housing and water facilities. In addition, the agency insured mortgage loans are offered. This is a loan where private lenders provide funds for farm purchase, insured by the government. Each of the different types of credit are available to the limit of funds appropriated.

Wouldn't it be nice if it took as long to spend money as it does to save it?

Advice seldom helps. If we are dumb enough to need it, we haven't sense enough to use it.

There is considerable difference between substantial food and lovely refreshments.

CHAMBER SPECIALS

By Johnnie Allen
Of the many things needed in Clarendon, one thing needed is a working and effective Solicitations control program. The Chamber of Commerce would like to carry on such a program if the citizens of Clarendon would be in favor of such a program. Millions of dollars are donated to disreputable organizations and dishonest persons each year in the United States. We could not weed out all undesirables this way but could cut down on the amount given to dishonest persons greatly.

Each business in town would have a card hung in a prominent place that stated that they were cooperating with Clarendon's solicitations control program and all they would have to do would be to direct solicitors to the Chamber of Commerce for clearance before they could make solicitations in the City. The Chamber of Commerce would clear each solicitor through a committee before granting them a permit to solicit funds in Clarendon. Housewives could also direct any solicitors who did not have clearance to solicit, to the chamber of commerce. The one thing that would make this program successful would be the strict demand on the part of businessmen and housewives that every solicitor have a clearance through the chamber of commerce.

If you are in favor of and would cooperate with the chamber of commerce in an effective Solicitations control program please drop a card to the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce stating your willingness to cooperate in such a program. In such a program the chamber of commerce has the duty of demanding the solicitors credentials and being doubtful as to the solicitors being worthy, turn them down. The citizens have the duty of contributing only to solicitors who have clearance through the chamber of commerce and reporting to the chamber of commerce solicitors who try to solicit without proper clearance. Again, I would like to have your cards and letters stating whether you are in favor of or against such a program.
