Museum directors stress proper way to donate historical items

The Board of Directors of the Saints' Roost Museum has announced the clear need for people to follow procedures when donating items to the museum.

It is very important for donated items to be cataloged and categorized properly. Museum pieces aren't much good if no one knows what they are or where they came from, and unfortunately several items have been left at the museum without any identifying information whatsoever.

The directors ask that persons wishing to donate to the museum please call ahead of time at 874-2746 to make arrangements. Museum hours are 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday through Sunday.

Clarendon High School Senior Korey Knorpp, 18, signed a letter of intent Friday to continue her basketball playing career at Clarendon College.

Knorpp, the daughter of Todd and Donna Knorpp, was a four-year starter for the Lady Broncos and was named to the District 2-2A All-District team for four consecutive years.

This past year, the point guard was named to the Region I second team.

She was named the Most Valuable Player for the Lady Broncos her sophomore and junior seasons and was recognized as the Defensive Player of the Year her senior season.

Knorpp also played in the Golden Spread All-Star Game in Amarillo in April.

"She's a good player, and we wanted to keep a local girl here," Lady Bulldog head coach Joel Zehr said. Zehr predicts Knorpp will play either at point guard or two guard.

"She's gotten better and better, and with Steve's (Schmidt, Lady Bronco head coach) coaching the last couple of years she's improved. She does have room to grow as a basketball player."

Knorpp joins Kasey Parks of Motley Co., who will play at forward, transfer student Becky Smiley, a forward from Phillips University of Oklahoma.

Zehr also planned to sign two El Paso players.

City urges citizens to support VFW's Buddy Poppy Program

Mayor Tex Selvidge recently issued a proclamation urging the citizens of Clarendon to recognize the merits of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies on the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of appreciation for the sacrifices of our honored dead.

Mayor Selvidge also urged all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men and women of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by Governmental leaders since 1922.

The VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fundraising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

Issue Update
with Mac Thornberry

This week the Pentagon plans to formally release the results of its Quadrennial Defense Review. This review is basically a blueprint for the future that will shape defense policy for years to come.

But with recent reports indicating that Defense Secretary Cohen plans to recommend another round of base closings, along with more cuts in troop size and weapons programs, I have a real concern that this review will be less a blueprint for the future than a repeat of past mistakes.

As it stands now, we have the fewest number of men and women in uniform since the eve of Pearl Harbor. And our defense budget — which has gone down for the past 13 years — is now at its lowest level since the eve of the Korean War.

With the Cold War over, we all recognize that there's been a need to reshape our military strategy. But with troops being deployed more often in recent years than at any other time in recent history, we've also got to recognize that we're asking our soldiers to do more and more but giving them less and less.

If we're going to make any cuts in the military, then let's start at the top. In other words, before we take the meat out of our Armed Forces, let's cut the fat out of the Pentagon bureaucracy.

That would not only be a good way to begin reshaping our defense strategy, it would also be a good beginning to any blueprint we write for the future of our military in the United States.

For more information on this or any other issue before Congress, please write Rep. Mac Thornberry at 412 Cannon Bldg., Washington, DC 20515.

DPS asks drivers to be safe during Memorial Day weekend

Memorial Day weekend is the gateway holiday to warm weather activities. There will be cookouts and campouts, swimming and fishing, hiking and biking. Nearly all of these will require traveling, whether it be a few blocks or several miles. The Texas Department of Public Safety urges motorists to take time to prepare for safe driving this holiday.

Trooper L.B. Snider, Public Information Officer for the DPS Amarillo District, offers the following safe driving tips:

- Have the vehicle properly tuned.
- Driver should be rested and alert.
- Use safety belts properly with the lap belt low and across the hip bone and the shoulder belt over the shoulder for maximum protection and have safety seats firmly secured.

- Use headlights day and night; it is as important to be seen as to see.
- Drive a safe speed. The faster we drive the greater the risk of serious injury or death from a wreck.
- Develop a safety space zone, allowing two seconds for the vehicle ahead to pass a certain place before you reach the same if you are in a car or pickup and four or more seconds if in a larger vehicle.
- Keep calm; don't let careless drivers rattle your composure and wreck your travel plans.

Snider reminds motorists that DPS troopers along with officers from area agencies will be out this holiday weekend watching for errant drivers and motorists needing assistance. Snider adds that if a motorist needs assistance in a remote area and has access to a telephone, that they may call toll free 800-252-5555 for assistance.

When calling this number, please give accurate location information as possible, such as road number or name, last town driven through, direction of travel, and what assistance is needed. If it is an emergency, Snider recommends calling 9-1-1 with the same information.

Texas Parks & Wildlife reminds boaters to be safe on area lakes

AMARILLO — Coming soon to a lake near you: Texas game wardens and the high-profile patrols that tend to put boaters on their best behavior.

As boaters prepare for Memorial Day weekend and the traditional beginning of the recreational boating season, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reminds operators, "Don't be a Pain in the Boat."

Following last year's successful $1.2 million boating safety initiative, TPWD is conducting another summer of law enforcement patrols on busy, high profile lakes, rivers, and bays. In the Amarillo area, game wardens will begin their saturation patrols on May 16 on Lake Meredith, Lake Greenbelt, and other area lakes.

For the boating public, the three critical messages of the initiative again are: wear a personal flotation device (life jacket) at all times; obey Boating While Intoxicated (BWI) laws; and be especially careful on personal watercraft.

"Our consistent, highly visible presence on the water last year really proved to be a deterrent to reckless behavior," said game warden Capt. Trent Anderson of the TPWD Amarillo office. "People heard, through the grapevine, that we were out each and every day. This isn't a surprise or covert operation - we want everyone to know we'll be out there throughout the summer, daily."

Recreational boating safety is primary area of responsibility of Texas game wardens. In addition to checking boats for equipment required under the Texas Water Safety Act and monitoring boating activities to ensure safe operation, wardens make a major effort to enforce the BWI statute.

During the initiative last year, game wardens made contact with more than 150,000 boaters and 450,000 on Texas waters. Wardens filed nearly 13,500 water safety citations and filed 168 BWI cases.

The initiative is funded through revenue from boater registration and titling fees.

Everyday is Poppy Day for hospitalized veterans

For hundreds of long-term disabled veterans in Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries, and in State Veterans Homes, every day is VFW Buddy Poppy Day.

These are the men who assemble the Poppies, tie them in bunches of ten and pack them in boxes of 500, 1,000, or 2,000 for shipment to the over 10,600 Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts and Auxiliaries throughout the nation.

Poppy assembly is a year-round project in some 10 veterans facilities and a part-time program in others. Some are under the direction of the VFW organization in the state in which they are located, and others are supervised and directed by the National VFW Buddy Poppy Department.

The assembly procedure varies aspects of the program by the project director.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars pays the disabled veterans for his work. In most cases, the money provides extra income for the disabled veteran to pay for the little luxuries which make hospital life tolerable.

Sometimes the Poppy assembly is used as the therapy program, under direct supervision of hospital personnel, to provide exercise for fingers and hands crippled by wounds, disease, and the effects of old age.

One of the successful adaptations of the Buddy Poppy assembly program is its use as a step toward their habitation of psychiatric patients. The experience and training in concentration and supervised work in assembling Poppies has led to more complicated duties and eventual discharge.

From the time it leaves the hospital until it graces the coat lapel or dress front of the individual citizen, the Poppy provides care for the widow and orphans of deceased veterans at the VFW National Home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan; provides funds for veterans rehabilitation services on the State and National level; pays for direct relief to the families of needy and deceased veterans; and serves as a memorial to the dead of all wars of the U.S.

More than 18 million Buddy Poppies will be assembled this year and will be sold by VFW Posts and Auxiliaries throughout the nation. Each of them will have traveled a long way, and each will have helped to make someone happier.

The annual sale of Buddy Poppies is the only public solicitation conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The sale in this area will be now through Memorial Day.

Entitled C<sup>3</sup>, this fun-filled computer camp will focus on computer education, leadership training, field trips and future careers. Students will gain hands-on training in desktop publishing, Internet exploration and more! The camp is made possible through a grant from Panhandle TechPrep.

"Both Clarendon College and Panhandle Tech-Prep have wanted to offer a computer and career camp, such as C<sup>3</sup>, for a number of years,"

Skeleton found on La Salle's shipwreck undergoing facial reconstruction

COLLEGE STATION — A skull found on the Belle, a 311 year old ship which belonged to famed French explorer Rene Robert Cavalier, Sieur de La Salle, will soon have a new face.

The yet to be identified sailor, whose remains were among the artifacts found by Texas Historical Commission archeologists, underwent a CT scan at the Scottish Rite Hospital for Children in Dallas last month. This information was transferred to a computer, and a reproduction of the skull was made using new laser cutting technique. The mold can now be given tissue measurements and a face reconstructed. Scientists also hope to take tissue samples from the remains Michelle Hughes-Wilson, CC Coordinator of Counseling and Testing Services said. "Our hopes are that the camp will fulfill a need for the students of the Texas Panhandle."

Students who will be 7th and 8th graders during the 1997-98 school year are eligible to attend C<sup>3</sup>. Cost of the camp is $30, which includes meals, lodging, and educational supplies. Financial assistance is available, and interested parties are encouraged to apply.

To enroll in C<sup>3</sup> or for more information, please contact Clarendon College at 874-3571.

The camp is limited to 30 students and the deadline for applications is May 27.

for DNA testing. Those results could be matched with that of possible descendants living in France today.

Excavation of the Belle was completed earlier this month. The next major phase of the La Salle Shipwreck Project will be the conservation and analysis of the 700,000+ artifacts, including the skull, at Texas A&M's Conservation Laboratory in College Station, Texas. Conservation will take approximately 3 to 5 years before all the artifacts are ready for viewing. For more information contact: Renee Peterson, Director of Conservation, Texas Historical Commission, 512-463-7096.

Seed viability, vigor important for cotton stand

by Leon J. Church, Donley County Agent

Planting time is quickly approaching for area cotton producers. One of the goals of producers is to have a good stand (two and a half to four plants per foot of row on 40 inch rows irrigated, or one and a half to two plants per foot of row non-irrigated). Optimum plant populations translates into high yields at harvest.

One of the factors that affects the stand is the viability and the vigor of our seed. It is desirable to use this year's seed; however, it is also a fact that year old seed is planted. This seed needs to be tested for germination and for vigor. Germination tests determine what seed will sprout; but if you have low vigor, these seeds will not come up in cold soils. Paymaster Gin in Lelia Lake will test the seed for you. Give them a call if you need this service.

Other cotton planting tips are: 1) Wait until soil temperature reaches 65 degrees at a 4 inch depth, 2) Early planted fields will be breeding habitat for weevils; extremely late planted fields will get weevil migrations and carry larger populations into the fall and over winter. (Usually the preferred time to plant is mid to late May into early June), 3) Use boll weevil traps for early season monitoring, 4) Have seed tested for Cool & Warm Vigor Index and germination, 5) Be cautious of the miracle working chemicals and fertilizers. Remember there is not a cure all. Read labels of these products and compare them with proven products. Always compare price.

Farm/ranch business management computer training course set

by Leon J. Church, Donley County Agent

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is offering two computer shortcourses during May.

A two-day shortcourse on Quicken for Windows 95 will be held May 28 & 29, while a one day course is being offered on May 27 for BUDPRO.

Cost of these shortcourses is $75 for the two day course and $45 for the one day course.

Quicken for Windows 95 is an expensive easy to use record keeping program that is widely used by agricultural producers. Participants will learn about this program and will use a case study to learn in a hands on setting. No prior computer experience is necessary.

BUDPRO is a new software series that is utilized in projecting budgets for corn, wheat, sorghum, cotton, stocker cattle, and cow-calf enterprises.

In addition, the package calculates break-even prices and provides sensitivity analysis for varying prices and quantities produced. Participants will learn how to use this package and receive the software, a $100 value.

Check It Out

By Mary Beth Nelson

Each time I visit Burton Memorial Library, I'm usually concerned with books. I rarely give much thought to magazines. Big mistake! Last week, I discovered what I have been missing.

There is no way to inform you, in one article, of every type of magazine included in a large variety located against the library's north wall. Let's just say you'll be very pleased with what is available for your enjoyment.

Special collector's editions, Texas magazines, Time, Life, Consumer Reports, ladies' magazines, science, country, western, architecture, Readers Digest, gardening, travel, and leisure are among numerous others.

You can imagine the wealth of information and photographic beauty compiled in many National Geographic, dating back to 1953; some categorized under special topics. Special editions concerning one subject are also obtainable. For example, with National Geographic outstanding style, the thirteenth "special," entitled Water, reveals use and abuse, potential supply, and prospects for the future. Teams of photographers, writers, and editors spent two years crossing the nation exploring people's habits, perceptions, and attitudes concerning this subject.

Various aspects of film history, music, biographies, architecture, ecology, anthropology, art, exploration, literature, and world cultures are authentically related by American Heritage Publishing Co. in a series entitled Horizons. What a world of knowledge can be gained from over seventy of these lovely hardbacks, approximately 130 pages in length, easy to find, in the magazine section.

All periodicals may be checked out for two weeks. Incidentally, to the left, as you enter the library, you'll find a special section of Sports Illustrated, Texas Highways, and National Geographic, each of which may be purchased for 10¢.

High quality children's magazines to interest your child are in the youth section.

Burton Memorial Library continues to appreciate magazine donations from community citizens. Thanks for sharing to benefit others.

If magazines are your preference, why not check it out?

Museum Messenger

by Saints' Rooster
Fan Letters

The museum received a sheaf of letters from Clarendon First Graders who visited recently. The letters were complimentary and fun to read. It was obvious; however, that "Museum" is not a word that grade is familiar with. Students gave it their best shot; however, and came up with such variations as "Newsim," "Museum," "Nuewzem," "Moosem," "New Zeem," and "Mashin." But a young man named Stephen deftly sidestepped the difficult word and simply wrote, "I like all the old stuff."

The Rooster Slips Up

You heard it here folks, the Rooster made a mistake! In last month's Messenger he reported that the windmill tower had been donated by John Morrow. Not so. The tower was donated by the T.L. Roach family. John Morrow donated the labor and time to move it to the museum.

New Exhibits

The museum is proud to announce it has two new exhibits, one concerning Goodnight College and one concerning the JA Ranch buffalo herd. These exhibits were both entered in the UIL competition by Clarendon High School students and made it all the way to state finals. The Goodnight College exhibit is the work of Paula Jackson, and the buffalo exhibit is the fine work of Chandra Ford and Mark Howard. Be sure and drop by to see these new additions.

A Lonely Kewpie Doll

On a shelf in our toy room stands a very lonely little Kewpie doll. She would love some company and our younger visitors would love to see the dolls their mothers and grandmothers played with. If you have any dolls hiding in an attic or packed away in a truck, give a little thought to donating them or loaning them to the museum. We need all manner of older toys, but dolls seem to get more lonely than cast iron trucks.

Virginia Browder Memorial

The Museum Board of Directors is planning a memorial for the late Virginia Browder, who was a good friend to the museum, Donley County, and Clarendon throughout her life. She wrote Saints' Roost Saga as well as the history of the county. The memorial will most likely take the form of a specially dedicated "Virginia Browder" room with a display of appropriate artifacts. Stay tuned.

Summer Hours

Saints' Roost Museum is now operating on summer hours, open Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. A portion of our past is captured at the museum, so come on out and see our stuff.

Callers

If the Northwest Texas Museum Association frowns on the word "visitors" and for some reason "guests" seems to stick in the Roosters' craw, maybe we can step back in history and call those stopping by our museum "callers."

Recent callers included Arthur Oakley, who remembers swimming in a makeshift pool on the Goodnight Ranch as a boy. Oakley said that the pit had been dug to get material for road construction. The pit had filled with water, and the local kids used it as a swimming hole. Goodnight tried to warn the kids away but finally assigned a ranch hand to keep an eye on the bathers.

"We were the only boys swimming in the Panhandle that summer," Oakley recalled.

Donations

O.C. Edwards donated a wealth of material on Goodnight College, some of which was used by Paula Jackson to assemble her award winning display. Edwards also donated a painted backdrop used in the Saints' Roost Saga. It is a large backdrop, and we haven't figured out a place to display it yet.

All it takes is seven numbers to get the latest news that affects you.

Local's grandson receives award

Shannon Rushing, grandson of John McCrary of Clarendon and a former McKinney Lions baseball player, was just awarded his second consecutive All-Conference College Baseball award in as many years. Shannon has been a student athlete at Eastfield Junior College in Mesquite, Texas, for the past two years. He is the son of Dee and Ilene Rushing of McKinney and the grandson of Dollie McCrary of McKinney and the late Rev. H.O. and Mary Rushing of Blue Ridge.

After his freshmen season, this switch-hitting outfielder was awarded All-Conference Player and All-Region Player and was selected to play in the Texas-New Mexico Junior College All-Star Game. After completion of his second season at Eastfield, he again received All-Conference and All-Region. During his two years at Eastfield, Shannon hit an impressive 321 over a span of 327 bats. Other statistics include 105 hits, 76 RBI, 63 runs, 24 doubles, 8 triples, 8 homeruns, and 16 stolen bases.

Shannon intends to continue his playing career. He has been contacted by several universities for playing baseball, but he is leaning toward Monticello University in Arkansas. They have offered him a 65 percent scholarship to play baseball there.

Shannon has two brothers, Jason, who was a starting pitcher for McKinney Lions in 1992, and who attends West Texas A&M in Canyon as an Art Major. Jason pitched two years for West Texas. Nicky, a younger brother, is a senior at McKinney High School, and pitched his freshman and sophomore years at McKinney. Nicky will attend Quachita Baptist University at Arkansas next semester as a Music Major.

Hayes' home to be featured during Senior Citizen's "Tour of Homes"

The Donley County Senior Citizens is proud to sponsor our second annual "Tour of Homes" to be held on Saturday, June 21, 1997. This event will both benefit the nutrition program and give the public a wonderful opportunity to view five beautiful homes. We will be touring the homes of Kay and James Hayes, Audra and Jack Hall, Gayla and Phil Fletcher, Dee Ann and Weldon Sears, and Phyllis and Douglas Sheldon.

This week's featured home is the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hayes, 800 West 6th Street. Their two-story brick home is located on the east half of Block 161 of the Original Town of Clarendon. The house consists of approximately 5,000 square feet plus a basement, garage, and a small guest room and bath attached to the garage.

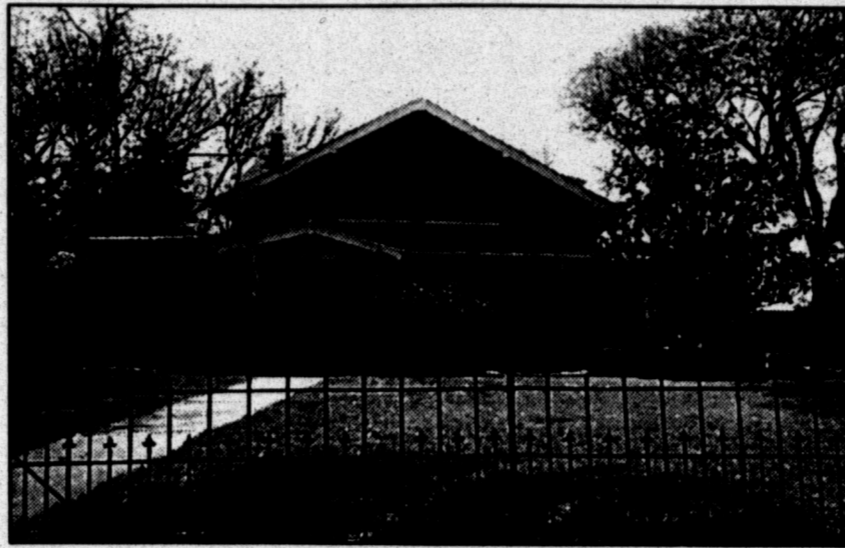

The home was built by H.S. Swearingin in 1909, sold to James L. McMurtry in 1915, sold to Jo H. McMurtry in 1962, and purchased by the Hayes in 1969. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have lived there since that time and have raised their three children, Rick, Spencer, and Muzzy in the home.

Most of the structure of the house is in its original state. With the exception of modernization of the kitchen, no structural changes have been made. Painting, wall papering, and carpeting have been the only attempts at changing the decor of the house. The basement is in its original condition with the exception of paint to the walls of one large room which housed the meeting of the cub scout den some 25 years ago. Also in the basement is the original furnace which heated the home as well as a nearly full bin of coal.

In 1941, a tornado which destroyed many homes and damaged many others stuck this home also. The second story of the house was blown away while several family members slept. A careful study will show the replacement line of brick when the repairs were made.

The home is furnished with both

The home of Kay and James Hayes is one of five homes that will be featured on the Donley County Senior Citizens "Tour of Homes" on June 21, 1997.

modern furniture and antiques from both sides of the family. Most of the bedroom furniture and many of the couches and chairs are modern. The dining room furniture and most tables and lamps are from James Hayes' family home in Lubbock County and Kay Hayes' family in Central Texas. Some of the rugs are modern, and some are antique. All are in keeping with the Victorian feeling of the house.

Kay Hayes said, "The home is comfortable and obviously has enjoyed many years of young people as well as adult friends of the family."

The Clarendon Enterprise will preview one of the featured tour homes each week. For tickets or more information contact the Donley County Senior Citizens Center at 874-2665.

Dietitian: Some fat in your diet is good for you

Believe it or not, some fat in your diet is good for you.

"Certain dietary fats are essential to maintaining life," said Lynne W. Scott, a registered dietitian and director of the DeBakey Heart Center's Diet Modification Clinic at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Fat has several important functions in the body, according to Scott. It is the most dense source of calories, providing more than twice the calories of carbohydrates or protein. Fat spares protein so that protein can be used to build and repair tissue instead of being used for energy. Fat also helps with absorption of vitamins like A, D, E, and K.

Fats comes in three types - saturated, monounsaturated, and polyunsaturated. Saturated fats are found in meat with fat, whole milk dairy products, and vegetable fats such as coconut and palm oils.

Common oils such as canola, safflower, corn, and olive oil contain all three types of fat. These oils all have the same amount of fat and calories. Canola oil has the lowest amount of saturated fat.

Besides its health benefits, fat helps satisfy your appetite, Scott says. "People like the taste of fat. It adds to the palatability of food," she said. "Fat slows down the rate at which food leaves the stomach and produces a feeling of fullness after a meal."

Although ingredients such as egg yolk, sour cream, and cream cheese may be satisfying, they are also high in saturated fat. The key is moderation.

The American Heart Association recommends a diet with no more than 30 percent of calories from fat. For example, an adult requiring 2,500 calories a day should get no more than 80 grams of fat a day.

Knowing what kind of fat to choose is important in making wise fat choices.

Scott, who has authored a book, The New Living Heart Diet, offers the following tips on choosing low-fat, yet nutritious foods:

- Read the food label and check for calorie and fat content. A low-fat food has three grams of fat or less per serving.

- Choose lean types of meat like chicken breast without skin, fish, and the leanest cuts of beef and pork.

- Prepare food with little or no added fat. Cook vegetables with fresh herbs, spices, garlic, and onions. "Paint" your cooking pan using a paper towel with a small amount of canola oil or olive oil, or use a non-fat cooking spray.

- Don't mistake fat-free foods for calorie-free foods. Some brands of fat-free cookies, for example, are higher in calories than their regular counterparts.

The DeBakey Heart Center is a joint project of Baylor College of Medicine and the Methodist Hospital supporting cardio vascular research, treatment, and education.

'Always... Patsy Cline' returns to ALT

You loved her when she appeared in your community - now she's coming back home, and you're invited to celebrate with us!

After a stellar opening on the Amarillo Little Theatre stage in January and playing to sold-out houses throughout the Panhandle, the touring company of "Always...Patsy Cline" returns to the ALT stage for one last limited engagement!

"Always...Patsy Cline" is based on the true-life friendship between the legendary country singer and her #1 fan Louise Seger. The ladies met, quite by chance, and stuck up a friendship that lasted until the time of Patsy's untimely death. The show interweaves two dozen favorite Cline tunes through a 90 minute monologue that covers Cline's musical career as well as offering a rare glimpse of her personal life. Every song evokes strong memories and emotions. It is a simple, heartfelt tribute that centers not so much on Patsy's biography, but rather on how her music affected the lives of people who still find her classics fresh and vital today.

Performance dates for "Always...Patsy Cline" are June 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, and 21, at 8:00 p.m. with matinees scheduled for Sundays, June 15 and 22 at 2:30 p.m. The ALT Box Office will open for "Always...Patsy Cline" on Monday, June 2.

Ticket prices are $12 for adults, $8 for students and senior citizens (age 62+), and $6 for children under 12. Reservations may be secured by dialing (806) 355-9991.

MORE LAKE MEREDITH BOAT TAX NEWS

The public's reaction to last week's stunning announcement about a three-year tax experiment on the boaters at Lake Meredith has spread across the Panhandle like a roaring prairie fire.

Ignited by newly-appointed Superintendent John Benjamin's arbitrary decision to tax only the boaters at our largest Panhandle reservoir, this normally placid group is making their feelings be known with a flurry of phone calls to local talk radio stations, irate letters to newspaper editors, and more than a few calls directly to Mr. Benjamin himself. (It is not too late for changes in his initial proposal. The correct office number to reach Mr. Benjamin is 806-857-3151.)

The most valid objections to this unusual tax scheme fell into three general categories:

First, the average citizen thought a series of public meeting should be held BEFORE any increases were finalized. On November 26, 1996, Secretary of Interior Bruce Babbitt, Benjamin's ultimate boss promised that "...the Department will solicit opinion and advice at each identified site through a public outreach and involvement project." By not having a single public meeting, Benjamin simply refused to follow the wise counsel of Secretary Babbitt. As a former Governor of Arizona, Secretary Babbitt correctly predicted, "Public input, suggestions, ideas, and feedback are critical to the success of this three-year demonstration project." In the real world of private business, disregarding the boss's orders will get an employee fired, but in the bureaucrat's world of the "tax-and-spend" federal government Mr. Benjamin has little to fear.

Second, as more and more boaters learn that only they will be slammed with these new taxes, it is reasonable to expect that they join the ranks of the crowd that is disillusioned with the policies of the Clinton Administration. Campers, picnickers, hunters, bank anglers, motor cyclists, and all other users get a free ride on the backs of the boating public.

Third, and probably most importantly, the top government officials at Lake Meredith failed to provide any documentation of (1) the amount of annual revenue that these new taxes might generate, (2) the projected costs of "much needed repairs and improvements that have been delayed because of budget shortfalls," and (3) the details of their pet project to establish a "Trail of Indian Battle Grounds" that will be paid for by boaters.

IN MY OPINION: One look at the fancy split-rail fences that adorn the new parking lots at Lake Meredith is good cause to question the "need" for more tax dollars at Lake Meredith.

In summary, while 80% of these tax dollars will stay at Lake Meredith, there will never be enough money to do ALL the things that career bureaucrats "want" to do, they must be satisfied to spend the hard earned dollars ripped from the taxpayers on the things that "need" to be done.

Oh yes, to add insult to injury, this new Superintendent has NO PLANS to improve the fishing at Lake Meredith.

LAKE CONCHAS REPORT In more pleasant news, the walleye, largemouths, and smallmouth bass are biting at this great New Mexico lake, located west of Tucumcari. Last Sunday, I witnessed a fleet of nearly 100 boats that were trolling the area west of Little Green Island. They were catching walleye, lots of tasty walleye. I tied on my trusty Rat-L-Trap and caught four keepers in less than an hour.

Congratulation to JACK RICHARDSON and MIKE KELLEY of Amarillo for winning $750 at the Honey Hole Team Tournament at Lake Conchas. They caught a five-bass limit that weighed 14.15 lbs. and included $150 for big bass at 5.91 lbs. They used Slug-Go's and buzzbaits at sunrise, before switching to jig-n-pigs during the heat of the day. Second place prize money of $450 went to Amarillo's ROD HASSELOFF and RANDY MASSUCCI with a five-bass limit that tipped the scales at 9.72 lbs. Third place team of RON SMYER and GARY CARTER finished the day with 9.41 lbs. and took home $350. Twenty-five teams entered the tournament, and 65 bass were caught during this Sunday morning event.

For the Record—What are the fees for using Lake Conchas? Three dollars per vehicle per day. Campers pay $6 per day. The Army Corp of Engineers does a terrific job of managing both Lake Conchas and nearby Ute Lake. Years ago, that branch of the federal government solved the problems that Lake Meredith is facing by making every vehicle pay a small fee.

According to one government employee at Conchas, they have never considered taxing just the boaters because their greatest management challenges come from the campers.

Wonder if the Corp of Engineers would like to take over managing Lake Meredith?

Til next week, Good luck and Good fishing.

USDA automates home loan servicing

TEMPLE — A state-of-the-art computerized loan-servicing system is now on-line which will enable the U.S. Department of Agriculture to improve service to its 27,000 home-loan borrowers in Texas.

"This project represents a major stride forward by USDA to meet the promise of Vice President Gore's National Performance Review initiative to improve the efficiency of the federal government," said Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman.

"The dream of homeownership is closer to a reality for many rural Americans as a result of USDA's centralized-loan system," said Glickman. "Texas families will have better service and easier access to mortgage information, and employees can provide better follow-up and tracking of payment progress."

The new loan system relies on one center in St. Louis, Missouri, to provide loan servicing nationwide. USDA has been using a network of 1,200 field offices to service home loans for 550,000 low-income rural borrowers nationally. Steve Carriker, Acting State Director for Rural Development in Texas, described the old system as "an antiquated process where employees filled out forms on index cards, making tracking of mortgage payments labor intensive."

The new system will modernize the application process and will provide easier access for borrowers to receive information about their accounts. New USDA home-loan services include access seven days a week to account information through a toll-free number which will be provided to their customers in future correspondence, customer service representatives available ten hours a day, escrow for real estate taxes and property insurance, and a new automatic payment service.

"There is no other program in rural America that enables so many low-income families to achieve the dream of homeownership," said Jill Long Thompson, Under Secretary for USDA's Rural Development. "USDA's 502 direct single family home loan program offers 'supervised credit' that provides borrowers with lower payments, deferred payments, and financial counseling to help borrowers not only buy their own homes, but also keep payments current on those homes. By reinventing our loan program for rural families with low incomes, we're showing how responsive and flexible USDA can be."

When fully implemented, the computerized loan system will save USDA $250 million over five years. In addition, the new loan system cuts red tape for low income home borrowers, replacing 16 regulations covering 290 pages with one regulation on 30 pages.

Rural Development, as an equal opportunity lender, makes loans or grants to individuals or groups and guarantees to approved lenders without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, and handicap. Complaints of discrimination should be sent to: Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Programs provide life saving solutions

The week of May 19-26, 1997, has been declared Wireless Safety Week by the Cellular Telecommunications Industry Association. The goal of Wireless Safety Week is to recognize past cellular safety successes and encourage future use of cellular technology as a form of safety.

Wireless Safety Week is coupled this year with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's program "Make the Right Call." The "Make the Right" program is an ongoing campaign designed to educate the public about how to alert emergency medical personnel and law enforcement officials at times of crisis.

Cellular technology provides a perfect link to emergency help no matter where one might travel. However, with the disparity between cell phone boundaries and local jurisdiction boundaries, cellular users must learn special instructions for emergency calls.

1. Learning these simple instructions could mean the difference between life and death.

Unlike traditional landline 9-1-1, wireless 9-1-1 does not provide emergency personnel with either your location or identification. Therefore, these simple steps are necessary when placing an emergency call from a cellular phone.

When you call, be ready to answer the operator's questions such as:
• What is your emergency?
• What is your exact location?
• What is your name and wireless phone number?

For more information stop by your local Dobson Cellular Systems store location for more information or call 1-800-882-4154 for the location nearest you.

Abdullah wins state UIL tennis title

Editors note: Because of deadlines, a complete story on Kareem Abdullah's UIL Class 2A State Tennis Championship was not included in last week's edition. The story in entirety follows.

Junior Kareem Abdullah captured the Class 2A state championship title after a marathon 3 hour and 45 minute match over San Saba's Mark Lewis in three sets, 5-7, 6-4, 6-0.

Abdullah accomplished the feat after resting only 45 minutes after a 2 1/2-hour semifinal round where he polished off Koy Grote of Mason, 6-2, 1-6, 6-2.

"That middle match (Grote) was one of the longer matches, and (Lewis) had maybe a two-hour rest," said head tennis coach Wade Wilson. "(Lewis) was definitely a lot fresher. The coach told (Lewis) to volley with Kareem. Their plan was to wear him out. You can't wear out (Abdullah)."

On the last point of the first set, which Abdullah lost, 5-7, Wilson and Abdullah noticed that Lewis had a cramp in his leg. Abdullah also was playing with a cramp in his back.

"After (Abdullah) saw that kid was in pain, you couldn't have been able to tell (Abdullah) was in pain," Wilson said. "(Abdullah) wore this kid completely down.

"It was mind over matter. When (Lewis) hit the ball into the net, (Lewis) walked slow up to the net and (Abdullah) would sprint up to the net. When he finally won, I told him we came here for a reason. It was a real great feeling."

Abdullah's first match was against a young Jon Michael Cline of Elkhart. "He has a real severe cowboy grip, and he's left-handed," Wilson said of Cline. "It took (Abdullah) awhile to get on top of him and then the (Cline) kid finally gave in."

Abdullah won the match in 6-4, 6-1.

In the semifinal round against

Grote from tradition-rich Mason, Abdullah used the pro-Mason crowd to his advantage, Wilson said.

"When Mason plays, the crowd is as loud as they are at a football or a basketball game. It was nip-and-tuck (6-2, 1-6, 6-2) and (Abdullah) built off the crowd, and it pumped him up."

Wilson describes the state championship win as a "great feeling." "(Abdullah) has been a real joy to coach," he said

First Graders present stories to parents

Mrs. Fowler's and Mrs. Perryman's First Grade class presented a Young Author's Day for their parents on Friday, May 16.

The students each wrote their own stories and read them. Then they presented two plays. Mrs. Fowler's class performed The Sky is Falling, and Mrs. Perryman's class presented Wolf, Wolf. The students did an excellent job, and all of their hard work paid off.

The first graders from Clarendon Elementary who presented a Young Author's Day for their parents were (back) Abby Patten, Destiny Smith, Scott Fowler, Hadley Mann, Stephen Fowler, Dalton Askew, Paul Goetze, (front) Stephanie Boling, Kati Steen, Madison Shields, Amy Judd, and Brittney Hayes.

Girl Scout Camp has few openings available

Registration for summer resident day camps at Girl Scout Camp Kiwanis is in full wing; a few openings are still available.

Girl Scout Camp Kiwanis is open both to Girl Scouts and non-Girl Scouts ages 6-16 throughout the Panhandle. Those who are not registered Girl Scouts must pay an additional $25 fee or join Girl Scouts for $6. The camping sessions run from June 8 to July 25 with sessions from two or three days in length to one or two weeks.

Camp fees range from $50 for two days to $160 for 13 days, with most one-week (6 day) sessions costing $100. Specialized programs like water aids or advanced horseback riding cost more. A canoeing unit is available, as well as a "Cameras, Lights, Action" session for would-be performers. Other camp activities include swimming, tennis, volleyball, archery, horseback riding, and arts and crafts. Interested persons may obtain a camp booklet with details of the various camp sessions from the Clarendon council field office, 416 S. Goodnight, phone 874-3372 or 1-800-687-8740.

The camp accommodates about 90 girls per week, and "popular sessions fill up quickly," said Natalie Stephenson, Camp Director. Children with disabilities are welcome. Parents or guardians of children with special needs should contact the council to discuss the best placement for their child. Financial assistance is available.

The first graders from Clarendon Elementary who presented a Young Author's Day for their parents were (back) Gabby Lunsford, Bradley Sanchez, Jill Cornell, Zan Burks, Desirée Lewis, Quinton Phillip, (front) Corey Ritchie, Trisha Hewett, Myndie Miller, Christopher Herndon, and Trevor Leeper.
