SIX CLUB STEERS BRING $5,293 AT EL PASO LIVESTOCK SHOW

Donley County 4-H club members did a good job of representing Donley county at the Southwestern Livestock show at El Paso, Texas says county agent Flip Breedlove. 4-H club members took 10 steers to the show, five Angus and five Herefords. The show only sells 36 steers of all breeds and 4-H club members of Donley County had seven steers eligible for the sale but pulled one steer out of the sale to take on to the Houston show.

This made six steers in the sale. Tracy Sanders had the grand champion steer of the entire show and his steer was bred by Tommie Potts of Memphis, Texas. Tracy's steer weighed 867 pounds and sold for $2,300 per pound, plus $35.00 premium money, making his steer bring him $2,029.10. Rod Stone of Clarendon had the reserve champion Angus and his steer was bred by Sid Ewing of Hollis, Oklahoma. Rod's steer weighed 872 and sold for one dollar per pound, plus $25.00 premium money.

Rod's steer brought him $897.00. Gene Floyd of Hedley had a second place Hereford steer which weighed 878 pounds and sold for 80c per pound, plus $23.00 premium money made his steer bring him $725.40. Don Ray Mooring of Lelia Lake had a second place Angus steer weighing 838 which sold for 70c per pound, plus $22.00 premium money and his steer brought $609.60. Susan McAnear of Clarendon sold her Hereford steer, which placed third for 75c per pound and the steer weighed 709, plus $21.00 premium money her steer brought $552.75.

Darrell Holland of Hedley sold his steer for 60c per pound, his steer weighed 768, plus $19.00 premium money made his 4th place steer bring him $479.80. Three steers from Donley County will go to the Houston show the latter part of the month says Breedlove, Wayne and Beverly Leathers will take Hereford steers and Susan McAnear will take an Angus steer.

SALT FORK DAM RECEIVES BOOST

AUSTIN, Feb. 15 — The water committee of the Senate Tuesday approved a bill designed to help the Greenbelt Municipal Water Authority construct a dam on the Salt Fork of the Red River in Donley County.

The Greenbelt is one of 24 water authorities and political subdivisions expressing interest in borrowing from the state. Its project, estimated to cost $9 million, could be financed completely with a state loan at 4.06 percent interest if the bill passes. The bill would raise the present $5 million ceiling on state loans to $15 million and would wipe out the limitation on the state financing more than one-third the cost of a project.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — A proposal that would take the monkey off the backs of the legislators who campaigned on a no-sales-tax, no-income-tax platform has been made by one of the State Capitol correspondents.

It is the feeling of many persons in Austin as well as over the state that the public is ready for a definite, long-time tax program, whether it be a sales tax, an income tax or the Governor's proposed payroll tax.

They are convinced that the state has to take some drastic financing steps. And they are ready to foot the bill. Many legislators realize this fact.

Trouble is that a goodly number of them campaigned on a no-sales-tax, no-income-tax platform. Many legislators felt at the time that such was a popular campaign theme; that the public did not want either type of tax; that their resentment to either would be bitter.

It is the opinion of a number of the legislators that the people are far ahead of the lawmakers in this type of thinking; that they understand the problem better than the legislators realize; and that they are willing to face the facts.

But the legislators as a whole are hesitant. They are not sure the people are ready. They are fearful that they will get all the blame. Richard Morehead of the Austin bureau of the Dallas News suggests that legislators feel the public pulse by ordering a referendum on the April 4 ballot. Voters will be going to the polls anyway to vote for a new U.S. Senator.

Morehead's proposed referendum would point out the state's need for at least $100,000,000 a year in new revenue. Each voter would be asked to check which of the three tax proposals he preferred . . . a payroll tax to be paid equally by employer and employee, a general sales tax, or an income tax.

Such a referendum would give the voters a voice in the tax program . . . an opportunity to express their own preference in the matter. And at the same time it would life the problem off the shoulders of the legislators.

As Morehead points out, there are other ways to raise money but informed people generally agree that some variation or combination of the three methods outlined herein is going to be passed by the legislature. And by April 4 the voters will have heard many sides of all proposals.

OTHER TAX PLANS ADVOCATED — Lawmakers have proposed numerous methods for raising additional tax money. Rep. W. W. Glass of Jacksonville suggests a constitutional amendment authorizing a one per cent levy on the gross income of all businesses. He estimated it would bring in $100,000,000 a year.

A 10 per cent tax on the gross receipts for trading stamp firms was suggested by Rep. Henry A. Fletcher of Luling. A graduated levy on gross income at the wholesale level and on income from personal services — for an estimated $300,000,000 yearly — was put forward by Rep. Lloyd Guffey of El Campo.

Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio took the opposite approach by proposing a constitutional amendment that would prohibit either a state income or payroll tax. Racist suggestion came from Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio who, as he promised in his campaign, introduced a bill to legalize horse racing and pari-mutuel betting and to levy a tax on the track proceeds.

As bills dropped into the hopper, State Treasurer Jesse James announced that the general revenue fund deficit has risen to $95,381,122.

SAVINGS SOUGHT — Legislature is also considering proposals aimed at cutting expenses. Texas Research League, reporting on a study made at the request of the Legislature, made 19 recommendations for reducing the cost of collecting taxes.

Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria has proposed a bill that would set up a commission to study the agencies of state government with a view to eliminating duplication and bringing about maximum economy and efficiency. It has been dubbed the "Little Hoover Commission."

LOAN CONTROLS URGED — Drive to enact loan company regulations got new push when the State Supreme Court made final its ruling that the "certificate plan" for loans is not legal.

Under this plan a borrower had to buy an investment certificate from the loan firm and pay for the certificate as well as pay off the loan.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said it is urgent that the Legislature set up a guide by which loan companies can operate legitimately. Several lawmakers have announced plans to sponsor such bills. One would allow for total charges (interest plus other charges) of 3 per cent per month on the unpaid balance of the loan.

Short Snorts Sen. Jarrard Secrest of Temple is back with his proposal for "flexible rating" of automobile insurance rates. It would allow individual companies to set up their own rating plans rather than following uniform rates set by the State Board of Insurance.

George Corse of Graham, who sought unsuccessfully last session to get his own job of county superintendent abolished, is back for the same purpose. Corse says eliminating the county school superintendent in counties with no county schools would save the state $711,000.

A bill to allow rural electric cooperatives to continue serving an area after it is annexed by a city has been introduced by Senators Culp Krueger and Charles Herring in the Senate and by Rep. Alonzo Jamison Jr. in the House.

Texas' 1961 state highway maps, full color and packed with information, are off the press. Free copies may be obtained from district highway offices or by writing the Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5064, Austin.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Organized, but in some quarters, highly disgruntled, the Texas House of Representatives is down to business.

Speaker James Turman did what comes naturally. He gave committee chairmanships, down the line, to those who supported him in his race for speaker. Key committees have a solid majority.

Among chairmen of major house committees are these: Revenue and Taxation, Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger; Appropriations, Rep. James M. Cotton of Weatherford; State Affairs, Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline; Constitutional Amendments, Rep. Charles Sandahl Jr. of Austin; Education

Rep. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso; Agriculture, Rep. Grainger McIlhany of Wheeler; Livestock and Stock Raising, Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogoches; Insurance, Rep. Murray Watson Jr. of Mart; Congressional and Legislative Districts, Rep. C. W. Percy of Temple; Highways and Roads, Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton; Judiciary, Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi; Banks and Banking, Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas; and Game and Fisheries, Rep. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur.

Le. Gov. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine had named his Senate committees several weeks ago. Sen. Wardlow Lane of Center heads the Senate's State Affairs Committee. It's a post he held four years ago for the 55th Legislature.

This is the committee that will consider new tax bills after they have passed the House. Money raising measures must originate in the House.

Appropriations, the other half of the money raising-money spending puzzle, will be handled in the Senate by the Finance Committee, headed by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney. Other Senate committee chairmen are: Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, Agriculture and Livestock; Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston, Banking; Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, Claims; Sen. Louis Crump of San Saba, Constitutional Amendments; Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Contingent Expenses; Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, Counties, Cities and Towns; Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress, Education; Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Game and Fish; Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi, Insurance; Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock, Interstate Cooperation; Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, Jurisprudence; Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford, Labor and Management Relations; Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, Legislative, Congressional and Judicial Districts.

TAX REFERENDUM PUSHED — Two gills have been introduced to allow voters to express their tax likes and dislikes directly in a referendum at the April 4 senatorial election. Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa introduced a measure which would allow voters to make a choice between a sales tax, income tax or payroll tax. Rep. Henry Fletcher of Luling introduced a similar bill with the additional choice of selective sales taxes.

Meanwhile, these have been added to the money-raising measures introduced in the House. A 2 per cent general sales tax, exempting groceries, school lunches, prescription drugs, farm machinery, seed and fertilizer, by Rep. John Allen of Longview. Estimated yield: $80,000,000 a year.

A revised formula for franchise taxes on interstate corporations, by Rep. Franklin Spears Jr. of San Antonio. Estimated yield: $10,000,000 a year.

A temporary (one-year) increase in the gas production tax from 7 to 10 per cent, by Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola. Estimated yield: $22,500,000.

SS FOR LAWMAKERS — Social security deductions from Legislator's salaries will be paid by the state under a bill finally passed by both Houses. This bill stirred up fireworks in the House where it passed only 76-65. Rep. R. A. Bartram of New Braunfels was spokesman for those who deplored the legislators' spending more money on themselves in the face of the recent salary raise and the state's need for more money.

SPEAKERSHIP PLAN PROPOSED — New ground rules are being pushed for one of the hardest-fought, most trouble-causing races in Texas politics. A proposed constitutional amendment would allow newly elected House members to meet and elect their speaker at least a month before the regular session opening day. Reps. W. T. Dungan of McKinney and Ben Lewis of Dallas are sponsors.

This plan would give the winning speaker time to name committees and be ready to begin work on an organized basis at the start of the session.

Proposed amendment would also limit a presiding officer to one term, bar campaigning in the House and require monthly reports on campaign contributions.

Also proposed is that the post be an elective one the same as the Lt. Governor's office. That would let the people decide and settle the matter early in November.

CROWDED CALENDAR AHEAD — Hundreds of bills on almost every conceivable subject have been launched on the legislative waters. Some never will be heard of again. Some may change your way of living. Among these are proposals to: Up minimum retirement pay for teachers with 20 years' experience to $1,800 a year; Remove the constitutional ceiling on state payments for the needy aged and increase the ceiling for payments to the disabled; Abolish the requirement for a wife's separate acknowledgment on property transactions; Allow a woman owning property before marriage to continue to manage it without her husband's consent after marriage; Set penalties for giving false testimony under oath to legislative committees; Set a state minimum wage of 75 cents an hour.

GEORGE'S WIFE

By "Sarah"

Noticed in the papers this week where they were giving lie detector tests to job applicants, and it's a growing national trend. Truth Verification services are also used by employers trying to determine who stole the six radios from the stock room, or who took the $56 from the cash register, or the whisky bottle from room 432 of the hotel, etc.

Seems like they are going at it backwards with this truth testing trend. They had better start testing the employers to see if they are the kind of people a fellow wants to work for.

The electrical anti-trust case for instance, The White Flannel Suit Gang, as they have been so aptly named. Their price fixing, rigged bids, even dividing the business between themselves, sure makes the petty-thievery of a job seeker look like pikers.

Things are bad all over, or at least they are changing pretty fast. The "Sunday" swearing in of officials is something new, except when that date fell on Sunday, even then it was a private affair, then re-done publicly the next day. One small item of protest is all we have been able to uncover, on the bar that was in evidence, serving vodka, whisky and champagne to all who wished to indulge, at this swearing-in party.

In the last news conference, when asked what he would do about the bills coming up in Congress, he said he would use the White House moral authority, or position of influence to get them passed. Maybe the White House should use the latter, since that's what they have more of, because there are a bunch of U. S. citizens who might question the moral authority.

We don't think we'll be jailed for the above, but just might be caught by internal revenueurs for what we said last week. The 29 per cent we have sent up there would come nearer running us a month instead of the year, as we said then.

Glancing over the headlines we had to back up on this one and read it over, however it comes out about the same either way. It said, "Castro's Sugar Crop Is Proving Troublesome At Start of Harvard."

Southwest GROWTH

Excellent yardstick to determine plant location

In the past decade a quiet revolution has taken place in the Southwest. Suddenly the region is booming with growth. In addition to a population increase 27% higher than the nation . . .

- Personal income rose over 67%
- Real estate increased 64%
- Value added by manufacturers up 65%

This phenomenal growth means there is profitable opportunity here for industry today, and above average potential for the future.

As an industry operating in and serving the CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST, we benefit from and contribute to the growth of the area. Our KWH increase of 140% in the past decade is a vivid picture of the industrial opportunities.

Because we are a part of the area, we have information about markets, labor, taxes, climate, distribution, community activities and growth factors. We are prepared to compile market data, business facts and plant location studies designed for your specific needs.

Let our area representatives start to work for you in confidence and without obligation.

Write, wire or call today for our information folder on Southwest Growth Factors. Public Service District, West Texas Utilities Company, Telephone TR 4-3321, P. O. Box 614, Abilene, Texas.

The advertisement reproduced above is appearing in a number of national publications to promote the industrial advantages of this area. It is the first of our 1961 area development national advertising schedule which is to run throughout the year.

THIS year, West Texas Utilities Company is expanding its area development activities because we believe the growth opportunities ahead demand it.

We believe our service area faces growth unlimited because we are the center of the Southwest, and the Southwest is growing faster than the Nation.

This is the kind of story we are telling American industrialists in our national area development advertising. It is being supplemented by colorful folders depicting the industrial advantages of the area, and by personal visits which our representatives will make during the year.

Through the expanded area development program, we are working to help build this community, because as the Southwest grows, so should West Texas Utilities grow . . . and the communities we serve.

YOUNG PEOPLE of today have a right to complain. In far too many cases we have given them a bum deal. We have showered their lives with entertainment, and far too little responsibilities. We have cluttered their life into a rat-race of activity, and at the same time failed to teach the value of worthwhile work.

We have depended too much on some organization to teach moral principles, while we were busy clinging on to some social circle which we wouldn't want them to attend. We have hurried them off to Sunday School without proving that our excuse for staying at home was justified.

They have been given money for entertainment in order to get them from under foot. This time should have been spent teaching ways to earn their own money. They have been brain-washed with all manner of lies from our everybody-does-it social order. We needed to convince them about the true facts of right living.

By failing to teach that the path of life was straight and narrow and that the road was uphill, we have left the implication that life was an easy-going affair. This even reaches the point they can believe the world owes them something. We have done a great injustice if we have failed to teach that working and saving was the best policy. By failing to give a challenge we have caused them to miss great opportunities.

Yes, Youth has a right to complain. We have been too good with the wrong things. We have failed to challenge them to do their best. When they were out looking for some place to go, we have failed to make home the very best place of all.

MONEY is a medium of exchange. We have heard this statement since childhood and further verification can be found in the dictionary. Another fact which is even more easily proven is that a medium amount of it won't exchange very far in this day of inflation. It used to be that folks did without things in order to have money; now they go without money to have things. It seems our entire economic system has reversed itself at times. It was the custom to live saving when we first started out in the hopes of having things easy later on in life. Nowadays, if we keep up with anybody we must have most of the things to begin with and then work and plan to pay out later.

There was a time when you could tell how much money a man might have by the model of his automobile. Now if you could tell anything at all by judging the car it would be the amount he might owe. The banker in days past frowned upon people buying cars on the credit. Now most banks are in the car financing business.

We used to get a curious look when we asked for credit. Now most every clerk will ask if the sale is cash or credit. We are not condemning modern day business. This we know, that if all credit should be suddenly stopped we would just that suddenly be in serious trouble economically. Likely the best idea would be to mix a little old-time caution with modern day practices. Spend some and save a part for the future. Remember, "Things turn out for the best—especially if we make the best of the way things turn out."

Disappointment can come to us in many ways. It comes in various degrees and strikes at all ages. On top of all this even minor disappointments can seem mighty important at the time. Those that come to us as a child can stay in our memories for all of our life.

Thinking back on moments of disappointment as a child one incident stands out above all others in our memory. Leaving out of course these that dealt with tragedy and death of loved ones. We wonder if just about everyone has some small incident that seemed major in importance as a child.

This incident which has popped into our mind thousands of times in our life happened at the supper table. Our favorite dish if you could call it that was fresh sweet milk and cornbread. Day in and day out for the night meal we would never take a second look at the left-overs from the noontime but would reach for the cornbread and start crumbling it into our glass of fresh sweet milk.

On this occasion which happened right after hog killing time my mother did something that was unusual. She tried her hand at making crackling bread. For the benefit of some who might not understand this meant taking the brown bacon rinds after all the grease was rendered out and crumbling bits of it into the mixture of corn bread. We never realized the full calamity until we had broken the bread into the glass of milk. The grease began to form on top but we proceeded to taste it anyway. Our feeling of being mistreated knew no bounds. To this day we can remember the taste.

Inflation is a state of affairs when you never had it so good or parted with it so fast.

Beautifully built to set trends in styling and savings beautifully built to take care of itself

This is probably the most imitated Look in automobiles today. Take the roofline, for instance. (Most other cars have!) Yet it looks best on its original setting, the Ford Galaxie. The roof and all the rest of the car were designed to go together. This is what makes the Classic Ford Look.

Moreover, this car is as beautifully built as it is beautifully shaped. As Ford takes care of itself, it takes care of your budget.

See the roster at right, and you'll conclude: This is the Ford in your future. May we open its door to you . . . soon?

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only $4.00 and take about 20 minutes).

Cleans its own oil—You go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter (which filters better through specially packed fibers).

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and shimmed to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

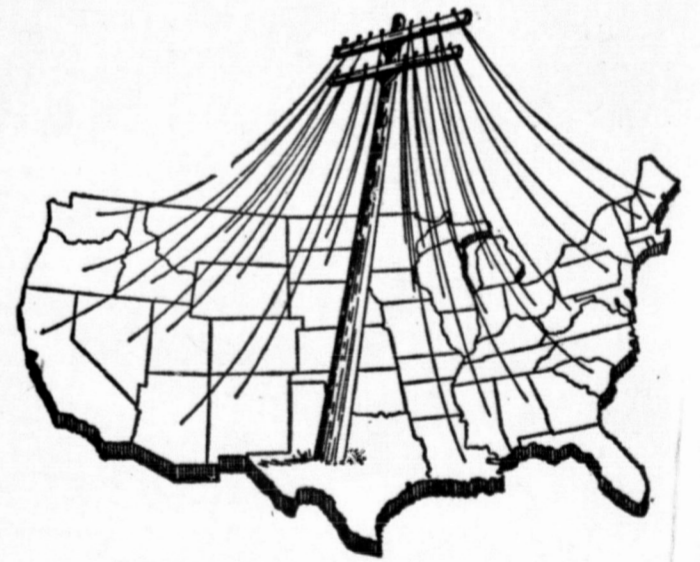

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish and it will continue to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Extended Warranty—Each part of '61 Fords, except tires, is dealer warranted against defects in materials or workmanship for 12 months or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first. Owners remain responsible for normal maintenance service and routine replacement of maintenance items such as filters and ignition parts.

Every '61 Ford, like the Galaxie Club Victoria above, shares an honor to be proud of. It is the medal presented by the international fashion authority, Centre for Alta Moda Italiana, to the 1961 Ford for functional expression of classic beauty.

F.H.A. VALENTINE BANQUET AND FROM HELD SATURDAY EVENING

Miss Jackie McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClellan, was crowned Queen of Hearts at the annual Sweetheart Banquet, February 11, and reigned at the prom which followed. She was escorted and crowned by William Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Clark of Miami.

Miss McClellan and her attendants were selected by popular vote of members of the Future Homemakers of America, Clarendon Chapter. Attendants and their escorts were Connie Martin, Phillip Abel; Agatha Wallin, Alfred McHabb; Judy Benson, Joe O'Neil; Sue Yankee, Neel Carter; Jamie Ross, Lynn Spier; Sherry Montgomery, James Semrad; Sally Groom, Mike McClesky; and Paula Adams, Melvin Housdon.

Jo Ann Wood and her escort, Sam Barber, lighted the candles. Miss Wood reigned as Valentine Queen last year. Special music for the occasion was given by Carolyn Wallin accompanied at the piano by Andra Pinkerton, chapter pianist.

Cupid's, hearts, and pom-poms were used to decorate the lights and doors. The red rose, flower of the organization, centered each individual table. The stage was decorated to carry out the prom theme. A beautiful quilted, satin heart furnished the background. The queen was crowned before an arch entwined with red roses. Janie Smith served as Mistress of Ceremonies and Judy Pittman, as Cupid passed on bits of information to entertain the group.

The prom and coronation is sponsored each year by the honorary members and Chapter Parents. Special guests included past Valentine Queens, Chapter Parents, Honorary Members, Chapter Beau, and school officials, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cox, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ledger. Rep.

Official Texas Highway Maps for '61 Now Available

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 29 — The 1961 Texas Official Highway Travel Map — with "Over 60,000 Miles of Motoring Pleasure" as its theme — is now available to the general public.

Free copies of the new Texas motoring may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5064, Austin, or at highway district offices and travel bureaus. County tax offices have map cards on hand for requesting copies of the map.

Multilane - divided highway miles now completed and charted on the map total 2,067 miles, and include the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways located in the state. More than 350 farm-to-market and ranch-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,000 miles of the state's nearly 34,000-mile Farm-to-Market Road System are shown on the map. All of the 26,857 miles of Interstate, U.S. and State Highways are shown. Roadside parks having full picnic facilities are marked on the map with a green dot—830 in all on the new 1961 map. A total of 52 State Parks are also shown, their location indicated by a green triangle. Two new recreational State Parks have been added to this year's map — Eisenhower State Park at Denison, and Atlanta State Park at Atlanta.

Major lakes and reservoirs are shown on the map, as well as countless rivers, creeks, and streams.

Cities and towns on the map total 1,827. City route maps for the state's dozen largest cities are also included — Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

Panoramic Texas stretches out on the reverse side of the map in 14 full-color photographs which give a glimpse of the car-window views along the more than 60,000 miles of the Texas Highway System.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" boils down the essential data on Texas' terrain, history, and industrial and recreational diversity.

BULLDOGS BOW TO BRONCHOS

In a wild and wooly game which was played whistle-stop fashion with 55 fouls being blown by the officials and 60 points scored from the free throw line out of a total of 190 points made by both teams in the game the Bulldogs became heroes before the faithful few who sat in the stands fearing for the life of the "mighty mites" of Coach Young at the hands of the towering beef of the "Bronchos" of New Mexico Military Institute.

After overcoming a quick lead at the beginning of the game by the NMMI in the first two minutes of play, the Bulldogs fought their way to a lead and held to the middle of the second quarter. The score at end of first quarter was 27-23 with the Bulldogs holding the advantage. During the first half of the second quarter fouls by Bronniman and Humphrey began to slow down their effective defense, resulting in replacement. With 7 minutes to go in the first half a charging foul was called on Humphreys while he was driving in for a layup. NMMI's conference leading scorer was granted a one and one chance at the free throw line. He made them both to put the Bronchos in the lead at 31-32.

A foul by Lesley and a foul by Humphreys, his fourth, gave NMMI 2 more chances at the free throw line. Both chances were missed but again Roger Ronner the 6-foot-5 235 lb. giant of the conference rebounded both missed free throws to turn them into field goals. A field goal by Buddy Jones who had just replaced Humphrey's brought the score to 33-37 with 5 minutes to go in the half. This lead was stretched to 43-53 at the intermission.

The starting lineup went back into the game to begin the second half, two of them with 4 fouls each, and again outscored the Bronchos in the first five minutes of play to cut the lead to 6 points at 54-60. During this surge to overtake the Bronchos, Bronniman, DeBord and Humphreys accumulated their fifth fouls and left the game for good. With these three Bulldogs on the sideline the Bronchos increased the lead to 63-72 at end of third quarter.

With only 4 minutes to go NMMI had stretched their lead to 16 points at 74-90. The Bulldogs never quit, instead, following the lead of Martindale, the littlest of the "mighty mites" they put on one of the fiercest full-court presses of the season. With only one minute to go the score stood 81-97 but the full-court press was taking its toll of the "big bruisers" from the Institute and during that last one minute the Bulldogs canned 8 points to end the game with 89 points, which is the greatest number of points scored against the NMMI Bronchos this season. Final score: 89-101. The 8 points scored in the last minute of the game were made by Lesley, 4 which brought his total for the game to 20 and his total for the last 4 games to 96, and an average of 24 points per game against 4 of the tough conference teams. Alexander scored two to bring his total for the night to 25 and Jones hit two from the free throw line. Humphreys, though fouling out early in the game led the

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

The State of the Union Message

The new President of the United States of America, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, made his appearance before a Joint Session of the Congress on January 30, 1961 at 12:30 p.m. to deliver to the Congress his first State of the Union message. The audience in the chamber included members of the President's Cabinet, members of the Supreme Court, present and former members of the Senate of the United States, and present and former members of the House of Representatives of the United States, together with the representatives of foreign governments authorized to be seated in the House chamber during such a session.

The State of the Union message was a hard-hitting, realistic presentation of the condition of this country on both domestic and international issues, as viewed by Mr. Kennedy as the new head of state. He did not beg the question, but spoke straight from the shoulder. His observations were hard, cold approaches to tough problems. Whether one liked or disliked his observations or his conclusions, no one would doubt that he pursued the accepted practice of the umpire at the baseball game; he called them as he saw them.

His message was sprinkled throughout with clear and concise statements of basic generalities to which most everyone could subscribe. For example, in the very beginning of the speech he said, and I quote:

"To state the facts frankly is not to despair the future nor indict the past. The prudent heir takes careful inventory of his legacies, and gives a faithful accounting to those whom he owes an obligation of trust. And, while the occasion does not call for another recital of our blessings and assets, we have no greater asset than the willingness of a free and determined people, through its elected officials, to face all problems frankly and meet all dangers free from panic and fear."

resolving our many problems, both domestic and international.

We in the Congress look forward to many heated debates, with the votes as close, if not closer, than was the 217 to 212 vote on the proposal to enlarge the Committee on Rules.

Some of the Members thought perhaps the President had reference to these potential battles when he said: "Life in 1961 will not be easy."

There were few, if any, subjects of primary concern to the nation which were not treated at length or, at least, by reference in the State of the Union message. The President ran the gauntlet from the economic problems of the farmer, the laborer, small business, large business; thence to unemployment, the dollar gap, the outflow of gold, foreign investments, and inflation. He then moved to the current Federal budget for 1961 and that submitted for Fiscal 1962. He discussed the housing problem and referred to a new "Housing and Urban Affairs Department." This will no doubt be highly controversial, but will probably be adopted because of the overwhelming concentration of population in the metropolitan areas, which will be the main recipients of the benefits flowing from such a department. He moved into the problems of the schools and the shortage of classrooms and teachers and a number of studies which he feels have been neglected. He touched on medical care, which is assured of a controversial trip either in or out of Congress; thence to our polluted streams, juvenile delinquency, our military status, our diplomatic problems, and the measures which he feels will be most effective in fighting the cold war against Communism.

It was different from the proverbial Mother Hubbard, which was said to have covered everything and touched nothing. It not only covered everything, but touched it with austerity.

We had the pleasure of a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Triplehorn this week during their stay in the Nation's Capital.
