1878 A COUNTY - WIDE PUBLICATION SERVING DONLEY COUNTY AND ITS TRADE TERRITORY 1961
New Series—Volume 31 Number 13 CLARENDON, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1961 A Common Paper for Common People

MRS. LUCILE POLK NAYLOR
Chairman of History and Art Department
Clarendon Junior College

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following biography was written for the local selection committee composed of Mrs. Gladys Seago, Mrs. Ethel Cox, and O. E. Patterson who nominated Mrs. Naylor, "Junior College Teacher of the Year" to compete with nominees from the other 33 junior colleges in the state for State Junior College Teacher of the Year 1961. The selection will be made prior to the next annual convention of the Texas Junior College Teachers Association.

Mrs. Lucile Polk Naylor, a native Texan, was born near Koss in Limestone County. Her forefathers on both sides of the family were farmers, ministers, or teachers. From early childhood Lucile often remarked that she wanted to be a teacher, but that seemed almost an impossibility in a large family and with the nearest high school 20 miles away. However, dreams do come true. An older brother who was serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France sent money home to be used on her education. (This brother gave his life for his country when the 36th Division went over the top in October, 1918.)

The money was saved, and as soon as she was old enough to get a teaching certificate, she attended summer normal at West Texas State College, took the state examination, and received an elementary certificate. From then on she worked her way through high school and college.

She taught the elementary grades in the Elba School for two years where she had finished the ninth grade. During the summer she attended the Academy at Clarendon Methodist College and took correspondence courses while teaching until she had sufficient credits to be admitted into college. By teaching during the school term and attending summer school, with the exception of two full terms, she completed three years of college before the Methodist Conference decided to move the school from Clarendon.

Lucile moved with her parents to Brownfield, Texas, during the middle 20's and taught four years in the Union and Johnson Schools. (Then her parents moved to Clarendon where a son, John Wesley, was studying for the ministry.) Lucile returned with them and accepted a teaching position in the Martin School, Donley County, where she taught for nine years. In the meantime she transferred her credits to Texas Technological College at Lubbock where she took her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education with enough advanced education to get a permanent high school teaching certificate.

In 1938 she began teaching first grade in the Clarendon Public Schools. She spent her summers attending West Texas State College in Canyon, taking subjects that she wanted and also (See NAYLOR, Page 8)

Bill Porter Heads Beef Committee for Annual July 4th Celebration

At a recent meeting of the Outdoor Entertainment Association, Bill Porter was named to take over the job of securing the beef for the annual free barbecue here July 4. This job has been taken care of in previous years by Pete Kunz who had to decline the chore due to his health.

Porter stated that he was now making the rounds of local ranchers and business men who have furnished the beef in previous years and anyone desiring to donate a half or whole beef is certainly urged to contact him at the earliest convenience as the beef list needs to be made up before advertising goes out on the celebration featuring the free barbecue.

Douglas Shelton, President of the Association, reports preliminary plans are going well at present and the stock for the rodeo has been contracted for. We are going to need lots of help in putting on a first class celebration this year and when you are called on to do a job, your full cooperation will be most welcome and appreciated, Shelton stated.

Bank Deposits Show Increase over 1960

According to financial statements appearing in the Leader this week of the two Clarendon banks pursuant to a bank call for condition as of April 12, 1961, showed that total deposits of the two banks was $540,353.37 more than the total listed March 15, 1960.

Total deposits as listed by the two local banks April 12 was $6,706,362.53. The total amount in loans for the same call dates was $3,213,865.29 for 1961 which was $189,096.02 more than the total of $3,024,769.27 listed for 1960.

This is a very good showing for our local banks which offer the widest range of facilities for a community of this size anywhere in this entire area.

COLLEGE GROUP VISITS NEARBY SCHOOLS

Wednesday of last week the college Music Department and Speech Department joined hands in presenting an hour long program of music and drama to four of our area schools.

Those making the trip were: Alice Johnson, Nancy Shields, Neal White, Thomas Phelps, Ida Lou Dickson, Jewell Quisenberry, Pauline Masten, Jean Welch, Linda Self, Sandra Pinkerton, Elaine Behrens, Jo Ann Woods, Francis Long, Jo Ann Edens, Betsy Chamberlain, and Rosalie Welch.

The program by the two departments under the direction of James Childers and Mrs. Velma Weaver accompanied by Mrs. Dee Williams was received in each of the four schools with much enthusiastic applause, and in each case the administrators of the schools were gracious enough to ask them back with a return program next season.

Feed Grain Program Meetings Well Attended

The Feed Grains program, which is a new program for 1961 has a great deal of interest for Donley County farmers says County Agent H. M. Breedlove.

A total of five meetings have been held on this new program since March 27 when the Agriculture Clinic was held in Donley County. Recent meetings, where the county agent and the ASC office manager explained the new program were at Groom, Texas, where a joint meeting with Carson County was held for farmers on the county line, April 17. This meeting had 80 farmers present.

The next meeting was held at McLean, Texas and was a joint meeting with farmers from both Donley and Gray counties and 42 were present. This was on the night of April 21. The meeting at Hedley was held on the night of April 24 with 47 farmers present and the last meeting was held in Clarendon on the night of April 25 with 107 present.

Counting the first meeting on the morning of March 27 when 141 farmers heard the first news and explanation of the Feed Grains Program, a total of 425 farmers have received information on the new feed grain program. Breedlove says that everyone showed a great deal of interest in the program. Mrs. Mildred Ritter, local office manager for the ASC attended the meetings and explained how individual farms could vary in the program and how payments would be made.

The county committee, community committees and the office force also attended the meetings. Breedlove advises that all farmers needing further information on the program can call at his office or the ASC office. The ASC office has all records of the individual farms and will be glad to figure out your farm for you and you can determine the amount of money you will receive for taking part in the new program. The county agent pointed out that the feed grain program is a voluntary program and whether you participate or not it will not affect your cotton allotments.

New Stop Lights to Be Installed; Law Enforced

In a joint meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors and members of the City Commission last week, plans were made and announced to help eliminate the hazard in connection with the stop lights at the intersection of Main Street and Highway 287.

The Chamber of Commerce agreed to buy two new stop signals to be installed where they can best be seen from either approach on the highway. This will make two facing lights visible to the through traffic where there will be only one facing light to traffic traveling on Main Street. Poles on the corner of the Farmers State Bank and Bob Moss Pharmacy will be moved out so the lights can be seen.

It was also announced by the City that stricter law enforcement would be put into effect immediately in regard to running stop lights and signs and also for running the amber or caution light at the Main Street intersection.

This main street intersection has become a very dangerous spot with numerous minor collisions and lots of near misses being reported. Some of these near-misses could easily have turned into tragedies and efforts will be made to eliminate or ease the situation and prevent possible serious injury. Mayor H. T. Burton stated.

If you have been guilty of running the red light, caution light or of failing to stop at the various stop signs over town, it will mean less trouble and less fine money if you begin now to obey all traffic rules.

LOCAL DOCTORS ATTEND MEDICAL MEETINGS

Dr. George W. Smith, Mrs. Smith, Janis, Charlie and Laurie, returned home last Thursday from Miami Beach, Florida where Dr. Smith attended the American Academy of General Practice 1961 Annual Scientific Assembly.

Dr. Smith had the opportunity of hearing 25 of the nation's top medical authorities discuss new developments and progress in the fields of therapy and diagnosis. He also had the opportunity of seeing 120 scientific and 300 technical exhibits that report research results and display new drugs, instruments and equipment. The Smith's report a very educational and enjoyable week in Miami Beach.

After Dr. Smith returned home, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Gilkey left Saturday for Galveston where he attended the Texas Medical Association Meeting April 22-25.

County Judge R. E. Drennan set Saturday, May 6 as the date for the Hedley-Lelia Lake School Consolidation Election.

Petitions from the voters of each of the districts concerned were presented to Judge Drennan April 14 asking that an election be called to determine whether or not each of the districts desired to consolidate with the other.

The outcome of this election will decide the future of each of the districts and the decision will be made by the majority of the voters. Both districts will have to have a majority of votes for consolidation before such a combination can be formed.

If you are a qualified voter and live in either of the above mentioned districts, it is your privilege and your obligation to go vote. There will be only two voting places, one at Hedley and one at Lelia Lake.

Little League Meeting Slated for Tonight

The Little League baseball season last year was a great success with several teams organized in the various age groups. Interest of spectators was high throughout the season.

All parents of youngsters interested in playing and all other interested adults are urged to be present for this meeting.

Top Junior College Student Named

Albert Motsenbocker of Dodson has succeeded in achieving the highest scholastic ranking for two years of college work at Clarendon Junior College with an average of 94 per cent according to the figures released by Dean Abel.

Albert is a graduate of Dodson High School and returned to Dodson between his first year and second year to marry Joan Balentine who is at present a student in Dodson High School.

Albert's unusual grades are a further credit to his ambition and abilities because he is a mathematics major.

The second highest ranking student in this year's class of 35 graduates was Jo Ann Edens of Clarendon. Jo Ann's average was 93 which projects unusual honor to Jo Ann because circumstances prevented her from completing high school, and she entered college on the individual approval of Dean Abel. Furthermore, her husband, Steve, is the bus superintendent for the Clarendon Public Schools and College, and they have three lovely children at home which required the normal amount of attention even though Jo Ann is enrolled in school. As a further compliment to Jo Ann's abilities and ambitions, she has completed the required number of college hours for a diploma in less than the four prescribed semester hours.

ENCOURAGE U.S. INDUSTRY

There was a time when the main concern of management was production and marketing of a product, but that time has long since disappeared over the horizon of history.

"In recent years," says the chairman of a major oil company, "the involved legislative, political, and social problems of this country and the world have placed new and different obstacles in the path to successful business operations."

Even as consumer demands for the many products of the oil industry increase in astronomical proportions from year to year, the steady growth required to meet this demand is constantly threatened by the actions of government.

Percentage depletion has been a major factor in maintaining the oil reserves on which the petroleum industry and our oil-driven economy are built.

SHAKE OUT BOONDOGLING

Senator Byrd of Virginia, who is chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and a top national authority on fiscal affairs, is "deeply concerned, both as a tax-paying citizen and as a public servant," over the entire $40 billion dollar Federal Interstate Highway Program.

The Senator's views are presented in a magazine published by the Sun Oil Company. In just five years, he points out, the estimated cost of the program has risen from $23 billion to $39.9 billion—a jump of 73 per cent.

This informed view should certainly be of top interest to the country's 60-million-plus users—who now pay $8.8 billion a year in highway related taxes, including some $5 billion in federal and state gasoline taxes.

The urgent current need, Senator Byrd emphasizes, is for both state and federal governments to look long and hard at the program, and take the steps that are necessary if each dollar of expenditure is to buy the people a dollar's worth of road.

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

Social security benefits may now be paid to survivors of workers who died between March 31, 1938, and January 1, 1940, if the worker had at least a year and a half of social security work before he died, says Hal Gellor, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Administration District Office.

Before the Social Security Amendments of 1960, no monthly benefits were payable to the survivors of a worker who died before 1940.

Under the new law, if such worker had worked under social security for at least a year and a half, benefits are payable to his widow and dependent mother at age 62, to his dependent father at age 65, and to his disabled children who were disabled before they became age 18. This is true even if the family had collected the "lump sum" at the time he died.

For more information regarding this new provision, write your social security office, 1006 Adams Street in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Estlack and David of Austin, and Mrs. Joe Estlack and Gary of San Antonio visited the week end with his father, J. C. Estlack, and other relatives.

PONY EXPRESS HOPES FOR ROUSING SEND-OFF HERE SATURDAY MORNING

CHILDRESS, Texas (Special)—The Childress Home Show Committee hopes that residents in surrounding cities will give their "Pony Express" riders a rousing send-off in those cities Saturday morning, April 29, the final day of the big annual show here.

Each Pony Express Team of four horses and three riders, will start the race at 8:00 a.m. on that date from Vernon, Shamrock, Clarendon, and Matador, and race toward the City Auditorium at Fair Park in Childress.

Final clearance has been made on allowing the Pony Express riders to pick up postage-stamped mail along the main route from those towns into Childress, bring the mail to Childress, stamp it with the "Pony Express" cachet and post it here.

Mail-pickup places will be announced at each of the four cities for those who would like to mail "Pony Express."

Team captains are Bill Helms for Vernon, Bill Johnson for Clarendon, Duke Holland, Sr. for Shamrock, and C. D. Nickerson for Matador. Riders will race 60 miles from the starting points to the gate of Fair Park entrance, traveling along each highway or route from each town.

Area residents are invited to the Home Show of exhibits, entertainment, carnival attractions and demonstrations that begins on April 27 and continues through Saturday night at the Auditorium. There is no admission charge and numerous free prizes will be given away.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Sometime between now and August 31, the Texas Legislature must come to a showdown, do-or-die, back-to-the-wall decision on a big new money-raising bill.

But many lawmakers believe the situation will have to have reached the desperate, no-choice-left stage before such a decision can be made. To meet current needs, say some lawmakers, the tax bill will have to be a big one and it's bound to bring static from voters.

Only way they can survive, said one, is to be able to say, "Look, I don't like this bill either. But what can we do . . . close the schools?"

In this climate, the House postponed floor action on the general sales tax measure by Reps. John Allen of Longview and Forrest Harding of San Antonio. Gov. Price Daniel attacked the bill as "obnoxious and inequitable," hitting everything "from the cradle to the grave."

Governor Daniel urged compromise through a "package" bill. Ingredients for the package, he said, might be gotten from Rep. George Hinson's omnibus tax bill and Rep. Ben Atwell's selective sales tax measure.

Hinson's bill would hit in many areas — watches, jewelry, power tools and machinery, construction materials, natural gas, restaurant meals, non-essential beverages, etc.

Atwell's bill is akin to a general sales tax except that it names the hundreds of items it would tax rather than making a blanket provision.

SENATE COOL TO TAX—With less than bubbling enthusiasm, Senate State Affairs began hearings on the first tax bill sent over by the House.

It is Rep. Charles Ballman's "loophole bill" designed to raise some $43,000,000 toward retiring an expected $63,000,000 deficit in the general revenue fund.

Senators listened with seeming sympathy to witnesses who criticized the bill's provision for a revised franchise tax formula and a gift tax. They listened, too, to a lengthy pro-sales tax discussion by Tom Sealy of Midland, chairman of the Citizens for a Sales Tax group.

Under the Ballman bill's broad caption, the Senate could add extensively to its revenue-raising features, but most observers doubt the Senate will be eager to seize the initiative at this stage.

CAMPAIGN LIMIT KILLED—A bill to limit campaign expenditures to $25,000 in a race for the U. S. senate or congressman at large was killed by the House, 83-to-50.

Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin was sponsor of the bill which passed the Senate.

Supporters of the measure said that as things are "a rich man can buy his way into office." Opponents said the limit was unrealistic and that a newcomer to politics could never become known with such restrictions on a statewide race.

INSURANCE CHANGE FLOUNDERS—Sen. Grady Hazlewood's bill to set ground rules for the state's merit rating auto insurance has had at least a temporary set-back.

Senate voted 16-to-13 to take up the bill. However, a two-thirds majority is needed to begin floor action.

Prior to this action, the State Board of Insurance announced extensive changes in the rating plan, effective August 1. Such violations as running a red light or stop sign, illegal passing or turning, negligent collision and breaking of drivers' license restrictions were removed from the list of actions causing a driver to pay higher insurance rates.

Senator Hazlewood was not satisfied with the changes. He criticized the removal of red light running from the list and the keeping of penalties for speeding, no matter how slight.

FREIGHT RATE BILL PASSED—A bill to simplify rate setting for railroads and truckers was passed on second reading by the House.

Under present law, the Railroad Commission has to pass on every rate change request, no matter how trivial. Under the proposed measure, the rail or truck line would publish the proposed new rate and if no one objected, it would go into effect. If there were objections, the Railroad Commission would call a hearing and decide the matter.

CONSOLIDATION OKAYED—A bill designed to encourage consolidation of school districts received final Senate passage.

It provides that common school districts which consolidate into one will continue to receive, for 10 years, the same amount of state aid they would have received if they had not merged.

Sen. Thomas Creighton of Mineral Wells is sponsor. He said it would promote better schools and in the long run, economy.

JEFFERSON REPORT "BLOWS IN"—Release of the House General Investigating Committee's report on its study of vice in Jefferson County blew the lid off a long-smoldering controversy.

Report accused Atty Gen. Will Wilson of failing to follow up vigorously on reports to him of flourishing prostitution and rackets in the Beaumont-Port Arthur area.

It also criticized Liquor Control Board Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. for merely demoting an agent accused of failing to stop liquor law violations by private clubs in Jefferson County.

House committee completed its study last year and was automatically dissolved at the beginning of this session, but the report was delayed.

Wilson hotly denied that he had failed or refused to take any action within the power and scope of his office. He said the criticism of him was "politically motivated" by Rep. Tom James of Dallas, vice chairman of the committee.

Meanwhile, the House — rather wearily, perhaps — voted against a bill that would set up House and Senate investigating committees every session, as a matter of law. Better, they decided, to establish such committees by resolution when special circumstances seem to warrant.

HOURS CUT APPROVED—A bill to cut the work week of state hospital employees from 44 to 40 hours was voted out unanimously by the Senate Committee on State Departments and Institutions.

SOMETHING YOU CAN DO

Commenting on the tax question, the Cipsco News of Springfield, Ill., says: "A tight circle has been raising costs and taxes for every business and every businessman . . . heavier government spending leads to deficit financing which of course leads to more inflation . . . and more inflation leads right back to higher costs and taxes. One of the likeliest ways to break the circle is to cut out federal spending that is clearly unnecessary."

"Take the tax cost of putting the government deeper and deeper into the electric business. This program has cost about $5 billion so far — a large part of it paid out of business taxes. Yet spending for federal government power may increase — $10 billion more has been proposed! And it may go through . . . because most Americans don't know that a great deal of this money would come out of their federal taxes."

"On any grounds, more spending for so-called 'public power' is unnecessary. The hundreds of independent electric companies are able and ready to supply America's growing needs for low-price electricity."

"When enough people realize that federal 'public power' takes a lot of their tax money, this kind of spending will come under wider study."

Frist Baptist Church of Amarillo To Sponsor Literacy Workshop

How many people — friends, neighbors, and relatives of YOURS — do you think reside in the Texas Panhandle area who cannot read or write? Believe it or not, but there was a staggering 7,902 such people in our Golden Spread according to the 1950 census. Though recent statistics are not available, it is estimated that this figure now approximates 10,000. The implications of these figures are far more important than the figures themselves. Fantastic and incredible, but true! What can we do?

All persons in the Panhandle area, particularly civic and service groups, social workers, church leaders, and retired teachers and educators, are invited to attend a two-day literacy workshop scheduled for April 28 and 29 at the Frist Baptist Church, Amarillo. This workshop is being sponsored under the auspices of the District 10 Womens Missionary Union of the Texas Baptist Convention. Mrs. H. C. Burke, 4127 Monroe, Amarillo (DRake 4-1363) is chairman of the Literacy Project Committee.

Mrs. Robert Likins, Associate Director of the Baylor University Literacy Center, Waco, Texas will conduct the workshop for prospective volunteer teachers in this regional literacy program. It is hoped that a permanent Literacy Council, such as has been established in some 25 other Texas cities, will be the outgrowth of this effort and that plans can be made to pursue the problem on an effective basis. Workshop sessions have been scheduled for 1:00 to 3:30 p.m., April 28, as well as an evening session from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m. On April 29, a session will be held from 9:30 to 12:00 noon, and all sessions will be open to anyone who can attend. Mr. Likins states that volunteer teachers need not be college graduates or have teacher certificates. Any literate adult may assist in this community program and it is hoped that each organization in this area will send at least one interested representative to the workshop sessions.

Mrs. Burke points out that the Laubach method, created and used by the famous Frank Laubach Literacy Center of Baltimore, Md., will be utilized in training these volunteers, called "new reader assistants." The Laubach method has been translated into over 90 languages and dialects.

Likins is well qualified to conduct such workshops, having participated in dozens of such efforts in many states and most cities in Texas.

Since writing and reading classes for adult illiterates must be limited to one to three students per class, there will be an urgent need for volunteer teachers. The teachers need spend only two hours per week (two one-hour lessons) with their students, and it promises to be a worthwhile and rewarding opportunity for both.

The Challenge of the Hour

The Page News & Courier, of Luray, Virginia has printed an editorial whose theme is well told in its headline: "Individual Freedom: The Challenge of the Hour." It says, in part: "Unfortunately there exists in America today a far reaching and false sentiment that only through collectivism can there be achievement. The pressure is felt in the halls of Congress from so called lobbies and various 'blobs' and this sentiment is prevalent, far and wide, with the people back home, who in the effort to gain their end, feels they must get in stride. Thus they fall an easy prey to ambitions which they fail to recognize as the seducer of their liberties.

"Our political future, if the trend continues, will be irrevocably bound with policies which we cannot retract and it could very well be that in the end it will mean a new type of government, foreign to all which Americans hold good and wholesome in a free society . . .

"It is to be hoped that the dynamic life of modern times in America can be re-oriented and directed to the importance of the individual as a vital force in our society, our politics and hopes for the future. When that revival takes place, many of the problems of this distorted and bewildered world will be solved." Once the individual is submerged in a faceless, collective mass, all the material gains of which anyone can conceive become meaningless. To save America from this is, indeed, the challenge of the hour.

Average life expectancy in this country has increased by more than 22 years during the present century, according to Health Information Foundation.

GEORGE'S WIFE

By "Sarah"

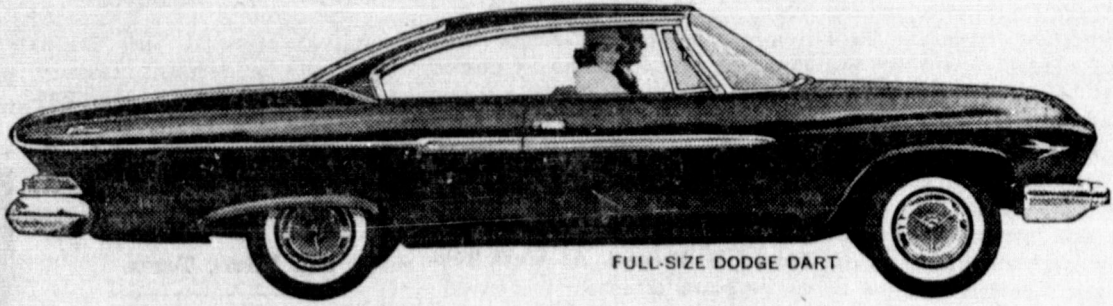

Since we told all our Washington connections, "Don't write us, we'll write you" our mail has been pretty short from up that way. We did this to save money. Instead of being on a few Congressmen's mailing list, we subscribed to the Washington News Service, and get most all their views one time or another. In the latest issue we found an article by our own Walter Rogers. Since we failed to find this one in any of his letters to the people, and have his permission to use it, here 'tis.

"Principle vs. Greed . . . It seems that we are living in an age of 'aid.' The dictionary defines this much-used word as follows: 'To help; to further. That which promotes or helps in something done; an extraordinary subsidy.' I suppose there must have been eras of seeking 'state aid,' but for the last several decades the trend seems to be away from local and state levels and advanced to Federal level. It seems that all segments of our economy are pointing their efforts toward Washington for aid of some kind. And I would point out that there are no exceptions when all the facts are brought out in the open. It is not only the poor and low income groups that are seeking aid from the Capital City. The fact is many very wealthy individuals and giant corporations who daily preach free enterprise and contribute generously to publications and programs bitterly denouncing government help and aids, maintain high-paid lobbyists in the National Capital for the sole purpose of obtaining fat contracts and lucrative purchase orders that are to be paid for out of taxes wrung from individual Americans.

During the recent debate on area development bills, letters and telegrams were received by Members of Congress from Chambers of Commerce all over the country, many of whom have soundly denounced excessive Federal spending and socialistic trends in Federal government. It is difficult to understand how socialistic programs become less socialistic simply because one is allowed to participate in it."

We could tell Mr. Rogers, like "The Country Parson" says: "Humanity, like a field of wheat, can't yield much if too many heads fail to mature."

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

WHEAT PERFORMANCE
Wheat producers who have overplanted their wheat acreage allotment are reminded that May 10, 1961, is the final date for disposing of the excess acreage. As soon as you have destroyed the excess, please report it to the county office so that a final check of the acreage may be made.

ACP PROGRAM
Now is the time that applications may be filed for ACP cost-share assistance for practice D-2, establishing Legumes for Summer Protection from Erosion. Be sure to file your application with this office BEFORE starting the practice.

COTTON PRODUCERS
You have been notified of your revised cotton allotment. Those who released all got a zero notice, those who released part of the allotment got a revised notice showing the amount of the allotment not released, and those who asked for additional acres got a revised notice showing the final acres for their farm.

FEED GRAIN "PERMITTED" ACREAGE

Each cooperating farm under the 1961 feed grain program will have a "permitted acreage" for corn and grain sorghum. This "permitted acreage" will be the largest of corn and grain sorghum that may be produced on the farm in 1961 in order for the farm to continue as a cooperating farm. Under the feed grain program, the producer of corn and grain sorghum agrees to divert acreage formerly planted to these crops to a conservation use. For this diversion, he received a special payment, and he qualifies for price support on the normal production of his 1961-crop corn and grain sorghum acreage. He also becomes eligible for support on other 1961-crop feed grains — barley, oats and rye.

The program calls for diversion of at least 20 per cent of the "farm base" to an approved conservation use. The farmer may also divert additional acreage under the program up to a farm maximum which depends upon the size of the farm base.

Payments under the program will also vary according to the size of the farm base and the relative productivity of the farm acreage. Farmers who wish further information about the 1961 feed grain program are urged to get in touch with the county ASC office. With wide participation, the feed grain program will mean more income for farmers, lower costs to Government, and less grain in storage.

Blowin' Out the Corners
by Uncle Zeb

The lives of many of our young people can be an inspiration to us when we take the time to understand them better. We cannot blame them for most of our problems of today. Mostly the trouble stems back to our generation. The following was written by a high school senior, and a young person of whom we are very proud. It is called My Philosophy of Life.

"Have faith, hope, and charity — That's the way to live successfully." I suppose if my philosophy of life could be condensed into one sentence, it could not be expressed better than in the words of the popular song, "Faith, Hope and Charity" by Dale Evans Rogers. I think that through faith anything that is good can be accomplished. Just as one should have faith in one's country, in God, or in one's betrothed, one should have faith in himself.

One should have hope. Hope for peace, for love, and for things to "turn out all right."

One should have charity above all other emotions. The modern or recent conception of charity means love. To me there are many types of love: love for one's self, love for one's country, for one's God, for one's fellowman, the love one feels for a child, and the romantic type of love. One must strive to obtain the proper balance in his life of all the kinds of love, and to know their importance and significance.

An important part of my philosophy of life is that I want very much to contribute something good to the world. It is an obsession which I want to strive for. I want to give comfort to people, to love people, to have faith in people, and to give hope to people. If I realize this goal during my lifetime, I shall feel that my life has been lived successfully."

Need we say more, and we couldn't say the above in a better way.

According to the late P. T. Barnum, "There is a sucker born every minute." He believed this with all his heart and proceeded to make a fortune out of the sucker business. Perhaps even this sucker theory failed in the long run because this great fortune slipped away from the grasp of this great showman.

If P. T. should take a look at our complicated government program of cradle to the grave "Taking care" he would want to re-write his whole philosophy of life. He would think that the sucker population had grown out of all proportion, and the sleight of hand boys were even less adept at taking money from your pocket.

Paying money into the common treasury with the hope of having it come back to us in time of greater need is somewhat like trying to fill up a leaky barrel with water using a busted bucket. Not only are there leaks between the taxpayer and the treasury, but even the foreign countries have their own special drain on our storehouse.

Little by little but, with ever increasing regularity the average citizen feels the urge to lean a bit heavier on the government. To trade a small part of the freedom which he still has left in exchange for a measure of security seems both expedient and the popular thing to do. Politicians have found that by promising larger chunks of public pie to various groups makes being elected a cinch.

After all it's not the politician's funeral. He is not the one who must fill up the leaky barrel with a busted bucket. With his place at the public feed trough he can afford this security.

If the memories of some past girl friend stands out in your mind after lo these many years then likely it would be better not to discuss the subject with your wife. Unless, of course, it happened to be your last romance and you are still madly in love with the one you married. In this case things should be on a share basis. We wonder how many of you in the past middle age group can remember the first sweetheart of your school days. Ours was a most exciting romance. We were only five and the young lady was a thrilling six years. Not that our heart was affected to any degree but we were tickled pink to think that this pretty brown-eyed darling looked upon us as her future-intended.

To make life more romantic was the fact that her father owned the country store just down the road from the school. We had to pass that way on the way home. We will never forget how the young lady's imagination would run wild. She would tell all the girls that I was her future husband and that for a wedding present her Daddy was to give us a buggy which they owned and my father was to furnish the horse. She had seen a horse in our pasture that she admired.

It made a good story and all the youngsters listened with open ears. I could just picture my future made happy by having a right to reach into the candy counter. We had started to school under age and tragedy struck the budding romance when my father made a land trade and we moved across the county after only six weeks of education. Fifteen years later we traveled some 400 miles to visit the boyhood home. We visited with her over a soda pop but the spark of love had long since gone out. Such is life's tragedies.

Leader—Local rate, $3.00 a year

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Whom the Gods Would Destroy They First Make Mad

The above statement was made by the Greek philosopher, Euripides, many, many years ago, but has been quoted and re-quoted time and time again, because its soundness has been established and re-established throughout history. It is as true today as when it was uttered. Many meanings could be placed upon these words, but to me they have always meant that self-control is the most effective weapon a person can possess.

One hundred and eighty-six years ago a new government was being born—a government based upon the philosophy of the freedom and dignity of man as an individual, and dedicated to the fulfillment of that doctrine. That government, nourished by the patriotism of those who properly appreciated and understood it, has grown and flourished through the years. In the early 1940's the country that started this philosophy, our own dear United States of America, was catapulted into the leadership of the free portions of the world. These free portions of the world were made up of many countries — some older than ours in years but not in philosophy to which we subscribe; some much younger than ours in point of time, both as to existence and as to the adoption of our type of government; and others that had only recently assumed their position as separate sovereign powers. This group represented one of two conflicting ideologies of the rights, the privileges, the powers, and the immunities that should be enjoyed or exercised by an individual. The other ideology is Communism. It is between these two ideologies of government that new countries being born each year must choose. Which they choose will in many cases depend upon the manner of presentation of the case to the people who are wholly unfamiliar with self-government, its trials, its tribulations, and its responsibilities.

The Communists have no difficulty in presenting to these people a glowing picture, because of the suppression by the central government of all activities that might be contrary to the presentation they desire to make. And, it might be added that the Communists are novices at focusing the attention of these newcomers on those things that will be appealing, such as material matters which the people of these new countries have not enjoyed, and in blinding the audience as to the price that will be paid under the Communist form of government. The Communist officials have full control of how their program is presented. Information contrary to their presentation cannot come from inside the Communist countries, because there is no freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion, or any other kind of freedom that might conflict with the dictates of the leaders. And it must also be remembered that the Communists making the presentation can criticize and defile our way of life without fear of contradiction from their own countries.

On the other hand, our job is measurably more difficult. In dealing with other nations, both free nations want within our orbit, we must recognize certain facts. Because we do have the freedoms not enjoyed by the Communists, we cannot present a false front in order to lure these people into action. These new peoples can weigh us, not by what some official tells them, but by viewing us as individuals, by reading our newspapers, by viewing our television by listening to our radio, or by discussing freely and openly any issue with any American. Under these circumstances, any internal bickering in this country becomes a matter of world interest and world knowledge within the matter of a few minutes. It can and does become fuel for the Communist propaganda machine.

There are many, many trouble spots on the face of this globe in which a gigantic struggle between the two ideologies of government is being waged, including Laos, Cuba, and others. There is no angle from which we are not being watched. And especially are our actions being noted by the Communist propaganda groups. Certainly we have our differences and we express those differences, and we will continue to exercise the freedoms that permit us to do this — so long as we have those freedoms. But let us not forget that the intemperate use of a right, a privilege, a power, or an immunity could bring about its loss or severe restriction.

There has never been a time in our history when a unified front by the people of this country was more needed. It would behoove each of us to consider well our actions and our conduct, and what effect they may have on our own wellbeing as a country. Internal strife and bickering can lead only to bitterness and chaos. We should all practice self-control and the Golden Rule, especially as between ourselves, lest we run the risk of history recording another example of proof of the truth of the statement of Euripides.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas Senate now has a tax bill — one designed to wipe out about half the deficit that is expected to be about $63,000,000 when the new fiscal year starts Sept. 1. Revenue-raising measures must be passed by the House before they can be considered by the Senate, and the upper chamber has waited with polite impatience for the House to send it something to work on.

Passed 85-to-60 by the House was the so-called "loophole bill" by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger.

It is a sort of catch-all bill that (1) plugs up some leaks in the revenue bill passed last session, taxing central air conditioners, juke boxes, etc., (2) provides for a transfer of 1 per cent of the permanent school fund to the available school fund, (3) sets up a two-factor formula for corporate franchise taxes and (4) levies a state gift tax of one-half the federal gift tax.

Caption of the Ballman bill is broad enough that a variety of other money raising plans could be added to it should legislators be able to agree to them.

Meanwhile, the House Revenue and Taxation Committee still has a lot of other tax bills in the mill. Three sales tax bills were sent to subcommittee, as well as a hotly debated proposal to levy a 10 per cent tax on trading stamps.

A trading company spokesman said there is only three per cent profit on the operation and that a 10 per cent tax would put them out of business.

On the other hand, stamps were attacked as "counterfeit money" and an unnecessary burden on both merchant and consumer.

STRIKE THREE — Texas Supreme Court made short work of a 1959-passed tax law that many lawmakers had hoped would be a potent future revenue raiser.

Without issuing an opinion, the high court agreed with the trial court and civil appeals court that the severance beneficiary tax on gas is unconstitutional.

Although three state courts have turned hums down on the gas tax, the last chapter remains to be written by the U.S.

Supreme Court. As passed in 1959, the gas tax was low (1½ per cent of market value), but supporters had indicated that if the law survived its court battles, the rate would be raised to bring in more money.

LADIES SCORE IN HOUSE— House has passed and sent to the Senate a proposed constitutional amendment that would automatically erase all statutes that treat women differently from men.

Rep. Ben Atwell's very brief amendment states that "equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex." It passed the House 135-to-10.

Senators have misgivings about causing such sweeping changes in the law. Some 44 statutes would be affected.

LOAN FIGHT SHAPES UP— House members are coming to grips with one of the session's touchiest issues — regulation of small loan companies.

House Committee on Banks and Banking reported to the floor a bill authored by Rep. Criss Cole of Houston. It is being subjected to widespread criticism, but Cole, long-time veteran of the loan regulation effort, declared that no bill was going to satisfy all the interested factions.

Cole's bill sets up a sliding scale that would allow interest rates of just under 40 per cent on loans of $100 and dropping gradually to about 11 per cent on a $3,000 loan. It also allows for "reasonable insurance charges," at rates set by the State Board of Insurance.

Abner McCall of Waco, spokesman of a statewide committee for sound loan laws, said the interest rates were too high and that the limit on credit insurance charges should be clearly defined.

BREWERIES (PRO & CON)— Legal restrictions on breweries and the desirability of having breweries at all came up for spirited discussion before the Senate State Affairs Committee.

Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth is author of the House-passed bill that would give brewers of ale the privilege, as beer makers, to continue their operations in a territory after it is voted dry. It would also increase from one year to three years the time allowed a brewery to begin production after it got its license.

A large out-of-state manufacturer of ale is planning to build a $20,000,000 plant in Tarrant County. Any change would, of course, affect the whole state.

Supporters of the bill emphasized the new jobs and payroll it would create. Opponents, mostly ministers and church leaders, declared it would contribute to the problems of alcoholism.

PHONE RATES STUDIED — House State Affairs Committee is studying a bill by Rep. Dan Struve of Campbellton that would place regulation of telephone service, within the state's borders, in the hands of the Texas Railroad Commission.

Representative Struve says Texas is one of two states that do not have this sort of regulation and that other states have lower rates.

Other witnesses testified that a long distance call within Texas borders costs more than one of the same distance that crosses the state line.

PRE-PAID FUNERALS DEBATED — Funeral directors and cemetery operators clashed before both House and Senate committee over a bill to restrict pre-paid funeral arrangements.

Funeral directors declared that their only desire was to protect the public by requiring that money paid in advance for funeral expenses be put in a trust fund.

Cemetery and mortuary operators retorted that the funeral directors wanted to discourage pre-paying of funeral expenses. They contended that families who make funeral arrangements at the time of bereavement spend more money than if arrangements are made in advance.

SHORT SNORTS — A test vote in the Senate indicated that Sen. Dorsey Hardeman's proposal to abolish the Court of Criminal Appeals and transfer its duties to the State Supreme Court, is short of enough support for passage. . . Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston says he will introduce a bill to allow nurses registered in other states to practice in Texas, thus to help alleviate the shortage of registered nurses.

FIREMEN'S BILL KILLED — House killed by a 73-to-66 vote a bill that would have set up a procedure for arbitration of wage-and-hour disputes between firemen and city governments.

Passage was urged by firemen but opposed by city officials.

Bill would have provided for an arbitration board and if necessary an election once a year to consider firemen's requests. Supporters contended it would have enabled firemen and city officials to settle their problems on the local level instead of battling before the Legislature, as in years past.

Opponents objected to the possibility of frequent, costly elections and argued that it would give firemen a privilege not enjoyed by other city employees.

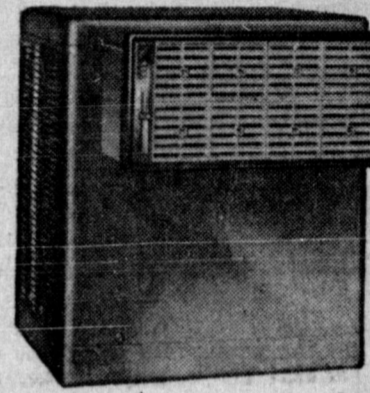

"KID" DRIVERS TARGET— House Highways Committee is considering a bill that would take 14-year-olds off the road — as drivers of cars or motor scooters.

A motor scooter seller objected on grounds that many working youngsters, such as newspaper carrier boys, needed scooters for their jobs.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

AUSTIN — Governor Daniel ably this week by vetoing House upset the Legislature consider- Bill 59.

This measure, which provided exemptions for agricultural trailers, had passed the House and Senate by handsome margins.

The bill, which I co-sponsored, was to give farmers a break in hauling their produce since they are using trailers only for a short time each year.

Why the veto? The governor sent out a two-page report outlining his reasons for sending the measure back unsigned. But many of us are wondering if he is not taking a vindictive attitude towards the House.

In the many aspects of handling the deficit, the governor has suggested removing Farm-to-Market Road funds from a priority position. This brought a storm of protest among the rural members who don't care about seeing the vital road program changed in any manner.

It certainly looks as though the governor is continuing his attitude of battling with members. There has been much of this during the session with more actually coming on salvos being shot back and forth on tax matters.

A Blow to Members
With so much bickering and dicker going on about taxes, it was indeed a blow to have the trailer bill vetoed.

Since the legislative process is so cumbersome at times, it really hurts to push something through both houses only to have the executive department refuse its passage.

With some readjustments, we hope to get this bill back through and eventually have it signed into law.

The Brighter Side

This week wasn't without its brighter side, however, for Monday we were happy to host Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany for an address to a joint session of the Legislature.

Escorted by Vice President Lyndon Johnson, the Adenauer group was well accepted by an enthusiastic packed gallery that many times interrupted speeches with applause.

Retired Admiral Chester Nimitz was in the group and he, too, drew a standing ovation when he was introduced.

Everyone in Austin seemed happy to welcome the German chief of state who has guided his country so well in its economic recovery since World War II and has been one of the staunchest leaders of anti-communism in a troubled Europe.

Pony Express To Carry The Mail Again Saturday, April 29

CHILDRESS (Special) — The Home Show Committee hopes that residents in surrounding cities will give their "Pony Express" riders a rousing send-off in those cities Saturday morning, April 29, the final day of the big Annual Show here.

Each Pony Express team, of four horses and three riders, will start the race at 8:30 a.m. on that date from Vernon, Shamrock, Clarendon and Matador, and race toward the City Auditorium at Fair Park in Childress.

Final clearance has been made on allowing the Pony Express riders to pick up postage-stamped mail along the main routes from those towns into Childress, bring the mail to Childress, stamp it with the "Pony Express" stamp and post it here.

Mail pick-up places will be announced at each of the four cities for those who would like to send mail "Pony Express."

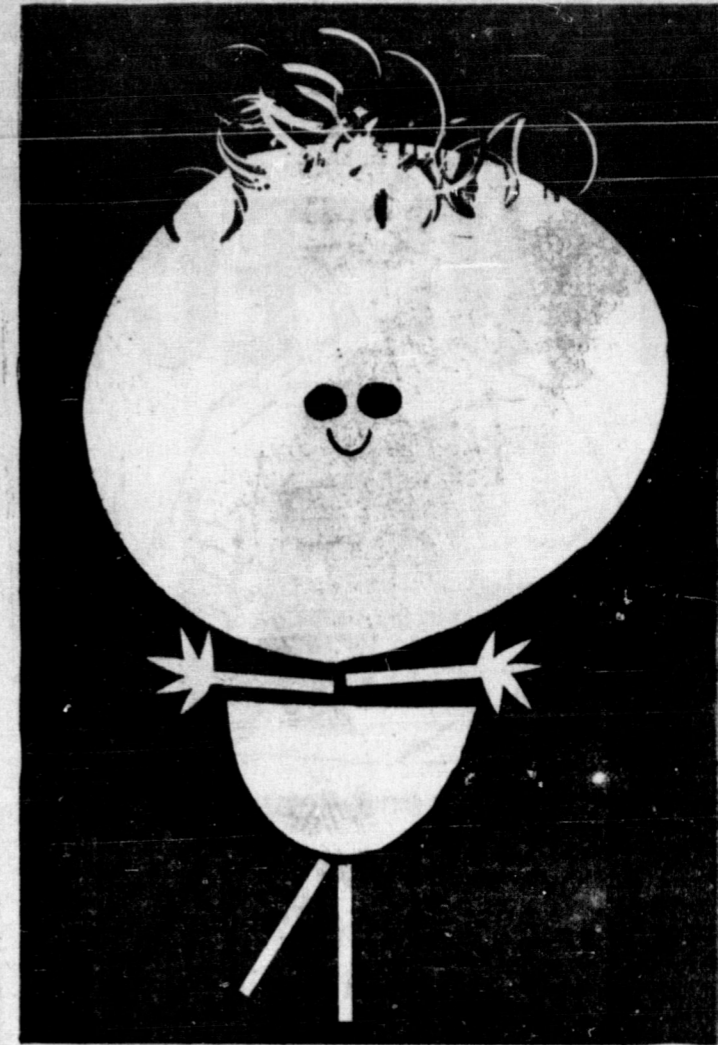

Team captains are Bill Helms for Vernon, Bill Johnson for Clarendon, Duke Holland, Sr., for Shamrock and C. D. Nickerson for Matador. Riders will race 60 miles from the starting points to the gate of Fair Park entrance, traveling along each main highway or route from each town.

Area residents are invited to the Home Show of exhibits, entertainment, carnival attractions and demonstrations that begins on April 27 and continues through Saturday night at the Auditorium. There is no admission charge and numerous free prizes will be given away.

Economic Intelligence says, "There are two ways of handling maturing debt; either retire it through accumulated Treasury surpluses; or refinance it by issuing new securities. Most of the time the treasury is forced to use the second alternative." Intelligence concludes that advance refunding does not solve key problems of debt management, but it provides greater flexibility to the Treasury and is a valuable innovation. Such refunding is all right as long as too many don't take it for granted as a way out of paying the national debt.

Just 20 years ago the average American ate only 1.97 pounds of broiler annually. Ten years ago the figure stood at 8.65 pounds per capita, but today, says Marshall Miller, extension poultry marketing specialist, the figure stands at 23.65 pounds. A remarkable growth, he adds, because of widespread and popular acceptance of broilers by consumers.
