New Telephone Number System to Be Effective Here September 16

Clarendon telephone customers will be using a new numbering system beginning September 16, the date set for distribution of General Telephone Company of the Southwest's 1961 Clarendon directory.

Known as the All Numerical Calling Plan (ANC), each telephone number will be composed of seven digits. R. L. Brewer, district manager, explained that the new system will replace the more familiar two letter-five number (2L5N) system inaugurated when the telephone industry first launched its long-range program to permit operators and/or customers to dial direct from one city to another.

The present Clarendon prefix is TRiangle 4. Under the new ANC plan the "TR 4" will be replaced by "874." For instance, the Donley County Leader number, which is now TR 4-2043 will become 874-2043.

"The old 2L5N system requires a prefix such as POrter or CHerry," Brewer stated, "however, because no words in the English language begin with the letter combinations WK or WY or JK or JL, telephone numbers beginning with 99 or 55 could not be utilized, thereby limiting number assignments."

As the number of customers begin assigned 2L5N numbers throughout the nation increased, the necessity of using all possible number combinations on the dial also increased.

"In some areas," Brewer said, "we are running out of possible letter prefixes."

As a result of this realization, a study was undertaken in Wichita Falls, Texas, to determine whether assigning seven digit numbers proved satisfactory to telephone customers and operators. Conclusion of the extensive study was that the ANC plan not only was satisfactory, but even eliminated some previous dialing errors resulting from confusion between the numeral "1" and the letter "I" and the numeral "zero" and the letter "O."

Brewer emphasized that the new numbers represented a "paperwork" change in most instances since the old "TR 4" prefix and the new "874" numbers require identical pulls of the dial.

Brewer pointed out that all customers will be mailed new telephone number stickers to be attached to their telephones.

Beef Cattle Association Barbecue Meet Saturday Night

The Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association will hold its annual barbecue and party this Saturday evening at 6:00 p.m. at the Clarendon Country Club says Bill Cooke III, president of the organization.

From all invitations mailed out by the officers of the association, there will be approximately two hundred or better present. H. M. Breedlove, secretary and county agent says that all plans are complete and that the planning committee has all details taken care of and ready for the barbecue.

The Farmers State Bank of Clarendon is host for the barbecue and Flip Breedlove and his crew will do the cooking.

Mr. Cooke says that a good program is in store for all present. Mr. Charlie Cook of McLean will show some films in color of a big game hunt in Africa and some of his pictures of a round-the-world-trip he made a few years ago. The pictures and program will be over around 9 o'clock in the evening.

The business of the organization to be handled will be election of officers for the organization for this year. The ball sale this year has been set for December 7.

LITTLE LEAGUE STANDING

According to a report Wednesday morning, the Hedley Little League team is now in first place with three wins and the outcome of their game Tuesday night was unknown; Lakeview has a 1-2 record; the Clarendon Sox have a 1-3 record and the Cubs a 2-2 record.

The Cubs defeated the Sox 8-7 in a closely played game Tuesday night of this week.

Friday night the Cubs will play Hedley here and the Sox will go to Lakeview. The Sox will play an exhibition game with the colored team Thursday night. If you want to see some good baseball, drive down to the Little League diamond near the Jr. High School and watch these young fellows play. They have a keen competitive spirit and show lots of hustle. Each team is showing considerable improvement over last year as they gain additional experience.

Local Group Presents TV Program Saturday Advertising Celebration

The TV program over Channel 4 last Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. was a big success reports Douglas Shelton, president of the Rodeo Association. Over seventy-five people from Clarendon were on hand at the station to advertise the celebration and barbecue on July 4.

Everyone met at county agent Flip Breedlove's office at 12 noon and went in a body to the studio at Amarillo. All different chairmen of departments of the 4th celebration were interviewed by Cotton John and all the queen candidates were on hand and put on a good show. Judge R. E. Drennan, Jack Pritchard and Noland Chandler played western music and did a bang-up job.

Everything went off fine says Shelton and we want everyone to get into the spirit and really get ready for our big celebration this July 4. If you do not have a job on some committee for the 4th and want to help out then just see some of us working with the celebration and we will sure give you a job to help.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

Our crop reporters will soon be in the field measuring and classifying crops under the Feed Grain and Allotment Programs. We would like to remind you of the importance of the job to be done by both you and the reporter.

It is very important that you show the reporter the crops and the diverted acreage under the Feed Grain Program. He does not know where the land is that you are diverting, neither does he know the number of acres you intend to divert. Where a part of cropland field is diverted, it will be your responsibility to show him the dividing line between the diverted area and the area diverted. The reporter is not authorized to pre-measure acreage, such as measuring a definite number of acres to be diverted.

The reporter will have no helper other than himself. Try to make a point to go with him when he calls at your farm. If for some reason you cannot go with him, by all means send your representative in order that the job can be done and the necessary information may be supplied. We will appreciate your cooperation. We believe if you will give your assistance and cooperation the reporters will be able to do a better job for you and a more economical job for the committee. We find that fewer errors are made and fewer farmers request remeasurements where the farm operator accompanies the reporter.

Please remember that the diverted area is not to be grazed after May 31, 1961, and that the diverted land must be cropland that was devoted to extensively cultivated crops during at least one of the years, 1958, 1959 or 1960. Please feel free to call on this office on any phase of the program(s) you do not understand.

FARMERS REMINDED OF CONSERVATION RESERVE COMPLIANCE
Farmers who have Conservation Reserve contracts were cautioned about compliance with those contracts during the current cropping and grazing season. The contracts call for no grazing or harvesting on the designated acreage and for planting within the permitted acreage of Soil Bank base crops on the farm.

Before the planting season started, each farmer with a Conservation Reserve contract was sent a notice of his permitted acreage of Soil Bank Base crops. All small grains, oilseed crops, and most row crops are considered Soil Bank base crops under the Conservation Reserve program.

The annual Fourth of July celebration edition of the Leader will be published next Thursday June 29 prior to the beginning of the celebration Saturday night. All advertising and news copy for this edition is requested just as early as possible as it is quite a chore to publish several extra pages.

CELEBRATION EDITION TO BE PRINTED NEXT WEEK

Featured in the celebration edition next week will be numerous articles pertaining to rodeo events, explaining functions, rules, etc. which will be quite interesting and informative and will allow those not fully acquainted with rodeo rules and regulations to get more out of a rodeo performance.

Voting Beginning To Pick Up In Rodeo Queen Contest

According to a report from the Rodeo Queen contest committee, voting is beginning to pick up among the eight contestants and is expected to increase daily as celebration time approaches. Now is the time to get behind your favorite candidate for less than two weeks remain before the celebration starts.

Queen Contestants are busy at present selling tickets for the big Pre-Western Week dance which is slated for Saturday night in the Legion Hall. Each ticket they sell costs 25 votes so be sure to buy your dance tickets from one of the queen contestants.

According to a vote count released Monday afternoon, the standing is as follows: Jeanette Crutchfield 431; Andra Pinkerton 303; Sue Yankie 203; Sherry Montgomery 142; Sue McCord 132; Jane Lowe 104; Jackie McClellan 93 and Janis Smith 86.

Services Held Friday For Mrs. F. F. Caraway

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Church of Christ for Mrs. Sula Vashti Caraway with Eugene Clapp, local minister, officiating.

Mrs. Caraway, 71, died Thursday in Groom Memorial Hospital after an illness of several weeks. She had been a resident of Donley County since 1918 and was the wife of the late F. E. Caraway who died in July, 1959. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors are a sister, Mrs. J. Thurman of Walters, Okla.; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Al Dever, Mark Allen, W. D. Higgins, R. O. Thomas, Coleman Shields and Carl Saye.

Burial was in Citizens Cemetery with the Murphy Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Lelia Lake to Have Community Meet Friday Night

There will be a community gathering at the Lelia Lake School house Friday night at 8 o'clock of all residents in the Lelia Lake community.

At this time there will be an organization of the community so the school house and grounds can be deeded back to the community for use as a community center. The Lelia Lake School district recently voted a consolidation with the Clarendon school district and it has been the policy in the past in such instances to leave the school building as a community center so closer community relations can be maintained.

All interested residents of Lelia Lake are urged to be present.

Plans Progressing on Schedule For Annual Celebration

Clarendon's annual Fourth of July Celebration will get under way here in less than two weeks and according to Douglas Shelton, president of the rodeo association, all preparations for the big event are shaping up on schedule.

Bill Porter reports more beef is needed for the big barbecue on the fourth and contributions toward the beef are still being accepted. Flip Breedlove, barbecue king, reports that his crew is all set to get the big barbecuing and cooking job under way and all committees have been named.

Ray Palmer stated Wednesday

Pre-Western Week Dance Saturday Night

Shelton stated that Charlie Grimes orchestra had been secured to furnish the music for the dance. Admission will be $1.50 per person and ticket sales are being handled by the eight Rodeo Queen contestants who will receive 25 votes for each ticket they sell.

If you like to dance, be sure to make your plans to attend Saturday night and help get the celebration started off in grand fashion.

that several good box seats for the rodeo were still available but would be going fast as the rodeo time approaches. Pete Borden reported a few car parking spaces still available also but you had better sign up right away if you want one.

Ernest Kent is getting all set up for the old timers reunion the morning of the fourth and also for the Fiddlers contest the afternoon of the Fourth. Joe and Ray David and Jack Pritchard have already said they would be present for this event which is open to any fiddlers in the area.

Joe Robinson, secretary of the association, reported yesterday that a new policy regarding the rodeo was set up at a meeting of the association Monday night regarding admittance to the rodeo grounds and events therein.

All contestants and grand entry riders must have tickets to get in and must enter through the contestants' gate on the east end of the arena.

Workers and wives will be furnished badges for each performance. Badges are to have workers name on them. Workers are classified as men who work on chutes or in arena.

The Boy Scout Master will apply for badge type passes for men and boys who work in the concession stands.

Each contestant and wife will be furnished free tickets for the performance that he is entered in. No contestant will be passed in on his number.

Child tickets will be 50 cents for children ages 6 to 12. Adult tickets will be $1.25. Tickets for the various rodeo performances can be purchased prior to the show at Greene Dry Goods, Palmer Motor Co., Wallace Monument Co. and Pete Borden's Boot Shop. Queen contestants will also be selling tickets prior to the performances.

Those wishing to enter something in the parade July 4 are requested to contact J. G. McAnear or Judge R. E. Drennan. The pre-western week dance this coming Saturday night will get celebration activities under way and the Legion is sponsoring dances each night of the celebration which will be July 1, 3 and 4.

COUNTRY CLUB POOL TO BE DRAINED SUN. NITE

It has been announced that the Clarendon Country Club swimming pool will be drained Sunday night, June 25 so the pool can be cleaned prior to the Fourth of July Celebration time.

The pool will be cleaned Monday and the refilling process will begin Monday night. It takes approximately 68 hours to refill the pool but there should be ample water for cooling off by late Wednesday.

THE AC-1 CARIBOU, largest fixed-wing transport aircraft in the Army aviation program, prepares to land during a recent demonstration at the Army Aviation Center, Ft. Rucker, Ala. Built by De Havilland Aircraft of Canada, Ltd., the CARIBOU carries 32 combat-ready troops or three tons of cargo. The aircraft has three significant features: (1) short take-off; (2) short landing and (3) ease of loading or unloading through the rear ramp. It will be used for transporting supplies and personnel to and from short, improvised airstrips in field Army areas.

THE AO-1 MOHAWK, latest reconnaissance aircraft being introduced into the Army inventory, is demonstrated at Ft. Eustis, Va., for the annual convention of the Army Scientific Advisory Panel. This two-seat, twin-turbo-prop plane is designed for operation from small, unimproved fields in the forward area. It is noted for its extremely short takeoff run and sharp angle of climb. The Grumman Aircraft Engineering Company supplies Army with the MOHAWK.

WHAT WE CANNOT AFFORD

"A productive nation can afford generous aids to people in adversity. It cannot afford to undermine the industry of its people, their willingness to seek out and accept jobs waiting to be filled, their provident self-reliance and adjustability.

"Prosperity does not come from well-paid indolence. Money is worthless unless people will work to earn it."

Those quotations are taken from a hard-hitting speech by Ernest Swigert, president of the Hyster Corporation. He is particularly concerned with the concentration of monopoly power in the big labor unions, and in labor's proposed welfare program. This last, he said, if fully enacted, would cost some $27 billion a year above the present budget. And it would turn this country into a welfare state with a vengeance.

The money cost of such a state could be ruinous. But the cost in the irreplaceable coin of national character would be even more serious. The purpose of a welfare state is to divide what wealth there is, instead of working hard to create new wealth. Independence and self-reliance, on the part of the individual and the family, are undermined or destroyed. The something-for-nothing attitude affecting millions of people spreads like a plague.

So freedom dies. And, ultimately, a bankrupt, spineless nation dies with it.

PASTE UP A DOLLAR BILL

We are now feeling the effects of a generation of extravagance and inflation. The causes of it are paying for work not done, paying for over-production of crops which could not be sold, higher and higher taxes, federal and state debt, skyrocketing peacetime federal spending above defense needs and promotion of the welfare state philosophy.

It doesn't take a Sherlock Holmes to discover that our national policies are penalizing savings, pricing our products out of world markets and constantly increasing the cost of living, as the purchasing power of the dollar is driven down.

Paste a dollar bill on your wall and mark off half of it with a red line for purchasing power already lost. Then as taxes and government debt, local and federal, go higher and higher, mark off more of it with red lines as the dollar value decreases. Also depreciate the purchasing power of your insurance, your savings account, your pension or any other fixed dollar asset as you add red lines to the dollar bill on your wall.

The future value of the dollar rests with the people through the interest they take in politics, labor, industry and economic policies.

WARNING SIGNALS FLASHING

Every time government forces wage increases on the public by law, it automatically forces price increases, no matter what argument is used to disguise this effect.

As the process is repeated over and over, the inevitable day comes when government will set not only wages, but prices by law — then the free market, free labor, free industry and freedom of action in our daily lives is gone. And all this will be done step by step, ostensibly in behalf of the "common man" who, before he knows it, winds up the pawn of a dictator government.

Over the centuries this process has been repeated time and time again. In a short lifetime millions of people over the world have seen the "common man" who, in reality, is all men, engulfed by big government until his freedom was wiped out by bureaucracy, and the beneficent benefits promised left him a helpless ward of the state.

Government is being injected more and more into the affairs of private citizens and industry in the United States. It is promoted in many ways, generally with strings attached, which restrict or remove individual opportunity. How far will we permit it to go in our own land? We are not immune from the penalties exacted by it.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

BRUSH CONTROL

One of the most obvious problems that appear in the Donley County SCD this time of year is brush infestation. Formerly this whole section of Texas had very little brush. Now mesquite, sand sagebrush and shinnery oak are prevalent. Many thousands of acres within the boundaries of the Donley County SCD are in need of brush control.

This problem seems to be met by numerous ranchers and stock farmers within the district. Joe McMurtry, E. L. Sitter, Jay Gould, McDowell ranch, Forrest Sawyer, Hagy Ranch, Ray Holland are among those who have had brush control done on their land. Forrest Sawyer, E. L. Sitter, McDowell Ranch, and Hagy Ranch have had mesquite sprayed. Jay Gould, Ray Holland, and Joe McMurtry have had sand sage and shinnery control.

The benefits realized from any form of brush control on range-land includes a reduction in the cost of handling and caring for livestock. It also increases the carrying capacity of the land and reduces the hazards of death losses. Also the use of sound range and livestock management practices are often not feasible in pastures heavily infested with brush.

It is often said that for every dollar spent more benefits and returns are derived from brush control than any other conservation measure.

For further information concerning brush control and methods of government assistance contact the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Donley County SCD.

CONSERVATION CROPPING SYSTEMS

Planting time is here again with land preparation and getting the seed in the ground the primary objective of all farmers.

Most farmers are concerned with putting as much back into the soil as they take out. In other words this means to keep the land permanently productive. Permanently productive land requires a good conservation cropping system, rotating crops and types of crops in such a manner as to maintain the fertility of that field. By maintaining soil fertility, each acre will produce more net profit over a period of time than it will if continuously cropped to a soil depleting crop, such as cotton.

However, this does not mean that cotton cannot be grown on the same land every year. Say for example that this cotton acreage has a winter cover crop of the high residue soil improving type such as rye, planted in the cotton middles in the fall. Then this rye is killed and left on the surface or turned under as a green manure crop before the cotton is planted the following spring. In this manner the soil fertility is maintained and put back. The land is also protected from wind erosion damage.

However this is not the complete answer nor does it apply in every case.

In many cases supporting measures such as terracing, contour farming, waterways or others may be needed to completely control erosion.

The Donley County Soil Conservation District provides trained technicians to advise land-owners of the best cropping systems on any soil. Each piece of land is usually different and has different problems. The Soil Conservation Service technicians, who assist the Donley County SCD will be glad to work with a farmer to determine the best cropping system on his soils.

GOODYEAR TIRES & ACCESSORIES

If we really love our children we won't spoil them. Not if we think seriously about the matter. In the first place when they are grown up a bit there will be a resentment toward the fact that they were allowed to be a spoiled brat. No one wants to be a stinker and as you are responsible for their actions as a child then they can rightfully put the blame on the parents.

Looking at it another way, if we love our children we will also want others to love them too. This they won't do if we allow them to become spoiled.

Going all the way back to the greatest book of all we find that "Whom the Father loveth, them He also chasteneth." If we receive no chastisement and feel no nagging at our conscience then we have no right to believe that the Heavenly Father loves us.

We remember the punishment coming from our own parents and their saying that: "This hurts me more than it does you." We didn't believe that then but later knew from our own experiences that it was true. Of course it didn't hurt in the same place but much deeper in the region of our loving heart.

Our children have a right to expect that we be fair and just in our punishment. If we do this then we can know from our own experiences that the grown-up child will not hold his being corrected against us. Children may yell but they will not rebel if we with fairness and love correct them for their own good. They will thank you later for not letting them become spoiled brats.

Minding one's own business has always been the best way to stay out of trouble. Small wonder then that our country has so much trouble with the gimmies of other countries. We have our fingers in the pie all around the world, and in most cases we are furnishing the pie.

We wonder what would have happened to the world if we had stuck with the Monroe Doctrine and directed all our efforts and money toward the building of friendship in the western hemisphere. We wonder just how strong we would have been if all our efforts to fight were around the world would have been spent on defenses around the western world.

Likely as not we would never have been known as one of the three great powers but we might have been loved and respected to a greater degree by more people. We wouldn't have had the job of playing Santa Claus to peoples around the world. But, if our give-away program leads to our own need we wonder who would come to our rescue.

We wouldn't have had the satisfaction of helping wipe terrors such as Kaiser Bill and Hitler from the earth; neither would we have had to contend with the even greater menaces of Stalin and Khrushchev.

All we can do now is wonder. There seems to be no turning back. We are loved by some and hated by many around the world. Will the friends we have bought return that friendship should we come to distress? Would it have been possible to have stayed out of trouble by staying in our own back yard? We can only wonder . . .

Looking to a higher power seems to be a natural instinct of man. He has this ability that is given to him only among all living creatures. With the Indian of long ago it may have been the sun which to him represented the emblem of a higher power. With the savage it may be only a crude image that has been passed along from generation to generation. What a blessing comes to our nation in that we have the knowledge to know and worship the true God.

How thankful we ought to be that we know a Higher Power that is real. How careful we ought always to be that we give thanks often for this blessing. So often we look to our God for help in time of need and then forget to return and say thank you for His protection.

We know that for the most part as a nation we do believe in the true God. This true God whose commandments have stood the test through the ages. Whose doctrines are based on love one toward another. This God who has given us deep and abiding principles to live by. Principles based on faith, justice, charity, and a desire to love and be loved.

Contrast this belief with that of the communist. He trusts no God, only some man-made creed. He believes in no power except the strength of the sword. He has no faith except in the things he can touch. He believes in no justice except in getting his share by force. He does not give and he has no love for his opposition. When we think on these things we know that in some way our true God and His Way will win out. The safe way is to keep close to His Way . . .

GEORGE'S WIFE

Most out-of-staters when paying their bill usually have a fist full of pennies like they were going to spend them also, but when we ask what else they need we find the pennies are for tax. They are always surprised that Texas has no sales tax—showing that is.

One family was so surprised they just had to know how we supported such fine highways, etc. All we could think to say right off was . . . "Oh, Texas has oil you know . . ." they didn't wait to hear about the cattle, cotton, grain and all the others. Guess the oil did it, and sounded like a typical Texas brag. We nearly always tell them to come back next year we will in all probability be able to take their pennies.

Guess they hadn't read about the ultimatum delivered to the oil industry just before the Presidential election. Human Events says, "What do you big oil men gain by supporting Nixon. He has promised you retention of the 27 1/2 per cent oil depletion allowance. If he wins, you're okay. But what if Kennedy wins. Then you'll need friends. Dear Lord, how you will need friends. So here's the layout. You support the Democrats and see that Texas goes democrat; then we'll go to bat for you. But if Texas goes for Nixon, and the election goes Kennedy, you can all go, you know where! And don't come around then asking us for any favors."

After reading this bit of news, it made us realize just how upsetting the Tower-Blakely election must have been to the lifers Texas is noted for in Congress. At least there will be a younger one who can out do them all in staying power, because he's getting a head start, age-wise.

We can't help but wish to see a more united America, and not so many labels flung far and

EGG QUALITY — USE VS. PREFERENCE

Many homemakers prefer eggs of higher quality than those they use at home. This finding, reports V. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist, comes from a recent study in Illinois.

Homemakers were asked to choose the eggs they preferred from a display of unlabeled eggs out of the shell. Their choices were the high quality eggs. Yet a check, the specialist said, of the eggs in their kitchens showed that only 26 per cent had eggs of AA or A quality on hand; about 43 percent had eggs of B quality and 31 percent had eggs of C quality or below.

Interviews with the homemakers showed many did not understand what U. S. egg grades meant. They frequently associated size with grade. Most of these women said they wanted to buy the "best" possible eggs. Most of them knew that Grade A was superior to Grades B and C. Though they had recognized the characteristics of high quality in the eggs out of the shell, they were uncertain of the quality characteristics of the different grades, Beanblossom pointed out.

It was the belief of those making the study that women shoppers should understand that AA and A quality eggs are suitable for all purposes but are especially desirable for cooking in the shell, frying and poaching because of their delicate flavor and attractive appearance. These top quality eggs have a high-standing yolk well centered in the egg and surrounded by thick, high-standing albumen.

It was also pointed out that shoppers need to know it pays to buy eggs from refrigerated cases and get them into the home refrigerator as soon as possible. Eggs left in a warm automobile, while the homemaker is on an extended shopping tour, lose quality just as they do when left in a warm room. Keeping eggs covered in the refrigerator helps to prevent their acquiring off-flavors from other foods.

Beanblossom suggests to homemakers who would like more information on egg quality, grades, size or weight, labels and other buying tips that they obtain a copy of B-906, Know Egg Values, from the local county agent or home demonstration agent.

The "isms" have been defined in this fashion: Socialism: If you have two cows, give one to your neighbor. Communism: If you have two cows, the government takes the cows and gives you some of the milk. Capitalism: If you have two cows, you sell one and buy a bull.

Driver-Hudgins Nuptials Read in Church Service

In a candlelight ceremony performed Friday evening, June 9, in the First Methodist Church, Memphis, Texas, Miss Betty Ann Driver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Driver, Memphis, became the bride of Gary Don Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hudgins, Brice, Texas.

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony before an archway entwined with fragrant and flanked by floor bouquets of white pom-poms and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Pre-nuptial selections were played by Mrs. L. G. Rasco, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Wilson Lane, vocalist, cousin of the groom, as she sang "Always" and "Whither Thou Goest." Mrs. Rasco also played the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of taffeta and lace. The fitted bodice of Chantilly lace, enhanced by sequins, featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves tapering to points at the hand. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion edged in lace was attached to a crown of lace studded with pearls and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and a white Bible.

Miss Brenda Driver, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a sheer frock of white tulle and a white wrist corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Hudgins served his brother as best man. Ushers were James McAnear of Lubbock and Jerry Rasco of Amarillo.

For the daughter's wedding,

DeBord, Hedley, in a double-ring ceremony June 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel of the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock. Vows were solemnized by Bob L. Hoover, minister of the Vandelia Church of Christ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over taffeta with seed pearls and sequins sprinkled over the neckline and at the waist. The gown swept into a chapel train with white taffeta roses scattered over the back of the gown and down the train. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with her wedding bouquet.

Maid of honor was Miss Louise Whately, Lubbock. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Ann Kennedy, Hedley, and Miss Deana Rasco, Lubbock. The bride's attendants wore identically styled dresses in pastel colors.

Five Blocks South of Palmer Motor Co.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Final week of the Legislature's 57th regular session was like most — with minor bills tumbling out in an avalanche and major bills tied up in conference committee.

Under now-or-never pressure, lawmakers searched desperately for compromises, but found their differences deep and hard to bridge.

Small loan regulation — stickiest of many sticky problems — bogged down in the Senate State Affairs Committee. It was an issue on which feelings seemed to run stronger and divisions deeper as time went on.

But many other bills "made it," or appeared to have, by receiving final passage in both houses as the session drew to a close. Among them were bills that would:

Outlaw selling liquor by the drink under the "front" of a private club and provide for licensing and regulation of bona fide private clubs by the State Liquor Control Board.

Pay members of the State Board of Insurance annual salaries, not to exceed $20,000, instead of the present $50 for each working day. Salaries were pegged at $16,000 in the appropriations bill.

Regulation importation of milk from other states. Result here did not make milk producers happy. It would allow milk to be imported into Texas if an inspector from the producing state certified its purity. Texas producers sought a bill require-ing certification by a Texas inspector.

Make an emergency allocation of $650,000 to the Department of Corrections, hard hit financially by overflow prison populations and crop failures on prison farms.

BACK PAY PONDERED — Members of the Legislature are constitutionally entitled to receive $400 a month salaries dating back to November 25, 1960, according to an attorney general's opinion.

But whether to accept this money is a question of another sort.

November 25 was the effective date of a constitutional amendment authorizing $4,800 a year salaries for legislators. Amendment was not put into effect until the Legislature met January 10 and voted a salary appropriation.

House had its payroll start January 1; Senate's started January 10. Two House members have since refunded to the state $116 each, an amount covering the period from January 1-10 when the Legislature wasn't in session.

Most members have indicated, ruling or no ruling, they have no intention of trying to get pay dating back to November 25 — when some weren't even in office.

UH BILL FINALLY PASSED—Mammoth University of Houston will become the 20th member of the state supported college system in September, 1963, if Governor Daniel signs the bill passed by both houses.

Bill was hard fought by those who felt the state already has more state colleges than it can take care of. It was filibustered there for a month in the Senate and had to pass the House twice. It made it through the last round in the House with a bit of help from Speaker James Turman—who held up announcing the vote until enough members had changed their minds to put the bill through.

SAFETY BILLS PUSHED — In the waning days of the Legislature, Governor Daniel made a strong plea for highway safety legislation.

Reduction of traffic deaths has been a cause for which the governor has worked unstintingly during all his years as chief executive.

Texas, he reminded the Legislature, has lost 4,707 lives to traffic accidents in the past two years. Had all these deaths occurred in a single disaster, said the governor, the Legislature would be swift to take emergency action.

Daniel asked for passage of bills to revise the drivers' license law, provide for driver education, allow chemical tests to determine drunkenness, set up a system of traffic courts and increase number and salaries of state highway patrolmen.

WELFARE BILLS PASSED—Two bills to give extra help to persons on the state welfare rolls have received final passage from both House and Senate.

One, already signed by the governor, would increase by $1,800,000 a year the amount that may be paid out by the state to the aged and blind. This puts the annual spending up to the $47,000,000 ceiling.

Another provides for medical care up to $12 a month for those on old age assistance. Payment would be made directly to the "vendors" — i.e., doctors, hospitals, nursing homes.

Senate backed off from a proposed constitutional amendment that would have completely removed the $47,000,000 a year ceiling on state welfare payments. It amended it to provide for a $5,000,000 a year increase. This measure, if approved by the House, will have to be voted on by the people.

ANTI - OBSCENITY BILL SCUTTLED — Objections of theater operators allegedly caused a House-passed bill aimed at obscene literature to be sidetracked in Senate committee.

Rep. Tom James of Dallas, sponsor, protested, declaring the bill wouldn't "touch" commercial movie houses. He said it was aimed at distributors of filthy books, magazines, pictures and records.

VET LAND DECISION DUE—Also up to the people in 1962 elections will be a decision on whether to let the state sell off — to non-veterans, if necessary — land forfeited under the veterans land program.

It is in the form of a proposed constitutional amendment which passed finally in both houses.

In some cases the state has had to re-possess land because of failure of the vet buyers to keep up payments. Much of the re-possessed land was involved in the "block deals" that caused the "land scandals." Sponsors of the proposal say it will make it easier for the state to "move" this land and get its money back.

"DE NOVO" OKAYED — People will be called on to vote in November, 1962, on a proposed constitutional amendment that would guarantee "trial de novo" on appeals from administrative board decisions.

Many will not understand it, but those affected feel strongly about the issue.

Trial de novo means trial anew. This means that anyone dissatisfied with a decision of a state board — such as the State Water Board, Insurance Board or Railroad Commission — could appeal to the courts and have the whole case heard over again from the start with the court's deciding how it should be settled.

Present practice has been to have a judicial review of administrative decisions under the "substantial evidence" rule. In effect, the court looks the matter over to see if the board had "substantial evidence" for ruling as it did.

NEW ADJUTANT GENERAL — Brig. Gen. James E. Taylor, former state senator and House member, has been appointed state adjutant general to succeed Major Gen. K. L. Berry.

Taylor's appointment by Governor Daniel was followed by swift Senate confirmation. This was done in a wind-up session in which the Senate approved all the governor's pending appointments.

Taylor is formerly of Kereus where he was a newspaper publisher. He served with the 36th Division during World War II.

General Berry, who will retire as a lieutenant general on July 1, had served as adjutant general 14 years.

GRAVEYARD? — In the final days of the session, these bills were among those apparently too bogged down to get final passage:

1. A new graduated tax on gas by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. House killed the bill which aimed at putting a progressively higher tax on those holding long-term contracts for gas at low prices.

2. A bill setting limitations and regulations on annexation by cities, by Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo. Senate apparently gave the bill a death sentence by refusing to take it up.

3. "Little Hoover Commission" bill, which would have set up a commission to study ways to economize in government, introduced by Sen. Bill Patman of Ganado. Senate refused to take it up, also.

4. Allowing 10-to-2 jury verdicts in civil cases, by Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin. Senate refused to take up.

5. Provision of more pay for a longer period for unemployed workers, by Rep. Tony Korioto. Bill was passed on second reading, then it was found the increase would cost employers a much-higher-than-planned $17,000,000 a year. Last-minute compromises were sought.

An Unpleasant Picture — During the campaign, President-elect Kennedy said that, in his belief, military expenditures will have to be substantially increased — by perhaps as much as three billion dollars a year.

An increase of this size (to say nothing of possible increases in spending for other projects would throw the budget far out of balance, and add fuel to the ever-present fires of inflation — unless taxes were raised to close the budget gap, or unless non-military government spending, existing and proposed, were reduced.

It's that simple. These are the only two alternatives.

At present taxes, direct and indirect, consume about a third of our earning power, which means that the average man works four months for government during each year. And never think that substantial increase in government revenue could be gained by raising the taxes in the high or even the middle brackets. The rates there are almost confiscatory now. The great bulk of any additional tax revenue would have to come by a broadening of the tax base — which is a pleasant term for hitting the lower income brackets still harner.

That's the picture and it isn't pretty.

Short Count — If all the good resolutions that are kept were placed end to end they wouldn't reach very far into the new year.

Last Word

When it comes to home rule dad may be the chief executive, but mother is usually speaker of the house.

ogized that the author of such devilry must be wholly devoid of character and integrity. Nevertheless, many people in this country took the position that the humanitarian thing to do was to accept the offer and thereby show to the world that this country, in pursuit of its Christian principles, considered human life as the property of God, and would do whatever was necessary to prevent its destruction. Others took the position that this was not the issue, but that the whole matter was a question of pure and simple blackmail in which no individual in this country should have a part. This controversy has raged during all of the negotiations, and will probably not be settled regardless of what is done.

Looking at the matter objectively as it presently stands, it would seem to me that the recent statements and demands of Castro prove beyond any question of doubt that he had no intention of ever releasing the prisoners. His sole intention was the same as that which usually prompts the pirate, the extortionist, and the blackmailer. That is, to get hold of the material wealth demanded and then destroy the victim. In my further opinion, his greed has caused him to overplay his hand. When he was able to have a visit from negotiators, he probably felt that he may as well ask for more, so long as people were willing to deal with a scoundrel. This, in my opinion, is where his greed completely condemned him. He has now proven beyond any question of doubt that his Communistic beliefs underwrite the proposition that material is superior to human life, and that he is completely devoid of any character or integrity.

Assuming that there was some justification in the first instance to try to meet the requirements of the "iron for flesh" offer, it should now be clearly evident that the chances for the salvation of these prisoners will not depend upon whether or not tractors or bulldozers are delivered to the Bearded Wonder. If ten thousand bulldozers were delivered to Castro tomorrow, the lives of the prisoners in Cuba wouldn't be worth a plugged nickel. If these prisoners, or any of them, are saved, it is going to be because the world recognizes what has happened. The world should be told now in unmistakable terms that Castro has not only made the offer but has openly admitted it, and has now reneged on it and is trying to extort more and more. Under the circumstances he has convicted himself completely under any system of law ever employed by mankind. Hence, it would seem to me that the time is ripe to tell Mr. Castro that there will be no tractors and there will be no bulldozers, but that if he harms even one of the prisoners he has attempted to use as pawns, he must stand condemned before the bar of world opinion and every judicial system in existence as an international murderer, and that he should expect to pay the same penalty as has been paid by other international murderers—to wit: Hitler, Mussolini, and company.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

Blackmail Backfire

Castro's sordid attempt to blackmail this country has gone far enough, and should be branded before the entire world for what it is and what he stands for. His "iron for flesh" deal was recognized by all decent human beings as nothing more than an act of international piracy and a perfect example of the philosophy that constitutes the difference between our way of life and that to which he subscribes. This pronouncement, above all others, clearly demonstrates the basic principle upon which Castro and his cohorts operate. The dignity of the individual has no place in his ideology, except as regards his own person, which is usually the case with dictators.

At the time Castro proposed this unconscionable and inhuman trade, everyone should have recognized that the author of such devilry must be wholly devoid of character and integrity. Nevertheless, many people in this country took the position that the humanitarian thing to do was to accept the offer and thereby show to the world that this country, in pursuit of its Christian principles, considered human life as the property of God, and would do whatever was necessary to prevent its destruction. Others took the position that this was not the issue, but that the whole matter was a question of pure and simple blackmail in which no individual in this country should have a part. FISH OF SALT WATER SPECIES TRIED IN TEXAS

Several months ago, Game Department biologists, with an assist from the Air Force at Wichita Falls.

This was an experiment to find out if this salt water species would survive and thrive in the waters of North Texas with heavy salt content. Notices were put out to fishermen in an effort to keep a close check on the import.

Last week, the first news of the strippers came out. One was found in a white bass, another is a crappie and the third was taken by a fisherman.

An effort is being made to acquaint the fishermen of the area with the stripper, which in general appearance is a great deal like the white bass (sandy they call 'em in North Texas). It is hoped that the strippers may thrive in the salty waters, thus giving fishermen another species.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird —sired the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

SAVE with the Ford that makes saving fun!

Pioneer Resident Honored on Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. N. L. Jones, a pioneer resident of Donley County, was honor guest at an open house Sunday afternoon, June 18, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jean Hester. The occasion commemorated her ninetieth birthday. Hosts for the afternoon were her children, Mrs. George McKee, Mrs. Jean Hester, John Jones, all of Clarendon, and Mrs. John Humphrey of Pasadena. One son, J. N. Jones, of Chattanooga, Tenn., was unable to be present.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Hester and presented to her mother. Mrs. Jones' great-granddaughters, Shirley Earl and Gail Hester of Amarillo, presided at the register. The entertaining rooms were decorated with beautiful bouquets sent the honoree for her birthday.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and centered with a floral arrangement of white mums. The white birthday cake was decorated with pink rosebuds and was inscribed with the lettering "90 Years." Appointments were crystal. Mrs. Jones' granddaughters presided at the table.

Approximately eighty friends called during the afternoon. Mrs. Jones received many lovely and useful gifts, flowers, cards, and telegrams along with all the good wishes for "many happy returns of the day."

Mrs. Jones has been a resident of Donley County for some fifty-five years and is an active member of the Methodist Church. Making the occasion a happy one for her was the presence of four of her five children, her grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and children of Washington, D.C. have arrived to visit her mother, Mrs. John Goldston. Mrs. Miller and children will remain here while Mr. Miller goes to San Antonio for two weeks training in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Texas Has Many Tourist Attractions

Why not see Texas this year from a tourist's point of view?

That is the vacation suggestion offered to Texas residents by the State's official tourist agency, the Texas Highway Department.

"Many Texans have never seen their own State through a tourist's eyes," explained State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. "Some Texas residents plan out-of-state vacations because they are unaware of the wonderful variety of scenery, recreation, and historical attractions in Texas."

Greer offered these vacation hints: For more relaxation and enjoyment, plan your vacation early.

For help in planning it, write to the Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5064, Austin 31, Texas.

The Highway Department maintains a complete file of descriptive and informative literature on points of interest and special events throughout the State. This material, including Highway Department publications such as the 1961 Official Highway Travel Map, is available free of charge to prospective Texas vacationers.

Vacation outings ranging from full-fledged trips of a week or more down to shorter drives on holidays or weekends can be planned with the help of these free informative pieces. Vacationers writing for information should specify the area of the State they wish to visit and indicate their preference of things to see and do.

Once the vacationer is on his way, more than 60,000 miles of smooth Texas highways make quickly and easily accessible points of historical, scenic, and recreational interest.

"Yet Texas tourist attractions often pass unnoticed by many Texans living only a few miles away," he said. "It is like the famous 'acres of diamonds' story in which a man traveled all over the world seeking wealth, only to discover that he could have found it in his own backyard."

Mrs. John Humphrey of Pasadena spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. N. L. Jones, and other relatives.

Texans who know their State are aware that the Lone Star State has an unequalled variety of scenery, climate, and tourist attractions within a few hours' drive. It is unfortunate that we have no funds to make these attractions known to residents of other States through tourist advertising.

Texas has one National Park (Big Bend), four National Forests, more than 600 miles of coastline, more than 50 mountains over 6,000 feet high, and numerous scenic underground caverns, Greer said, as well as many man-made attractions — artificial inland lakes, old cattle trails, restored forts, monuments, and museums. More than 50 State Parks are available for outdoor recreation including water sports and camping.

The Texas Highway Department maintains some 1,000 Roadside Parks offering travelers a chance to rest or picnic.

"Plan your vacation with the aid of the free travel information available through the Highway Department," Greer urged, "then drive on a Texas highway to see Texas from a tourist's eye-view."

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Carmichael and Eddie were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vaughan, Mrs. Delphia Ballentine, Terry and Gerry, Shirley Ludlam of Springhill, La., Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson, Donna and Steve Perryton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mouser, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Caswell, Jackie and Robby, Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Wilkerson, Gail and Linda, Mrs. Robert Wilkerson and Bobby of Seminole, Okla.

Jim McKee and son, Craig, of San Antonio spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKee. Craig came Monday of last week and will spend this week with his grandparents.

Mrs. Letha McCarty and Mrs. Lois Robinson visited Mrs. R. L. Womack and Mrs. F. O. Hodge at the Adair Hospital Friday afternoon.

We of the Clarendon Cub Scout wish to say thanks to Mr. Ralph Decker for writing on our awards to be presented in the July 4th Parade.

The Clarendon Cub Scouts will have their June Monthly Pack meeting Friday evening June 23 at the Clarendon Country Club.

This will be a swimming and picnic supper for the Cubs and their families.

Swimming will begin at 5 p.m. and supper will be at 7 p.m. Any person that is not a member of the Country Club must pay 25c if they swim. This money will be collected by the Den Mothers.

Leaders of the Clarendon Cub Scouts went to Memphis to attend a meeting, consisting of leaders over the District to plan a District Pow-Wow which will be in September.

Miss Helen Hartzog, who is attending school at Texas Tech in Lubbock, was a week end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Estlack and family.
