Blowing Out the Corners

Uncle Zeb

You can't prove everything by any set rule . . . Those of us who write a column have been told that if you want to really find out how many readers you have and wish to get some extra mail, then the best way to bring this about is to step on someone's toes. Often this is done accidentally and perhaps once in a while on purpose.

The other day when we opened our mail and found a total of 35 letters from our readers we knew that something unusual had happened. The greatest thrill of our writing experiences came when we found they were from Mrs. Dos Ward and 34 of her English students from the Samnorwood High School. We were pleased beyond words and this proved for sure that the above rule didn't work in this case because we hadn't trampled on a single toe.

The greatest compliment of all coming from this fine group of young people was to know that now and then they use some part of this column in class. This makes one feel humble and almost frightened. But we do appreciate it so very much and will try as best we can to never let down a wonderful bunch of friends such as we have found at Samnorwood.

Our hope for the future of our country lies in the hands of our young people. Their capable hands can correct the mistakes we have made, and can build further on the good things our generation has accomplished. Almost every day we read something in the papers showing the keen interest our young people are taking in national affairs.

In no generation has the challenge to youth been greater. We believe they will be victorious. They are our country's future.

Kindness always pays off. It pays the highest dividends when we do it without expecting a reward. Kindness usually most appreciated are the little things; a trip to the hospital to see a friend or a note to say thank you to someone who needs to be commended. A letter to someone who right at that time needs to be perked up. These little things, perhaps like a cup of cold water, can bring greater joys to both the giver and the receiver than a major loan to a friend for a business venture. If unsuccessful the latter might well lose a friend.

"I am a little word with a big meaning. I help everybody. I unlock doors, open hearts, and do away with prejudices. I create friendship and good will. I inspire respect and admiration. Everybody loves me. I bore nobody. I violate no laws. I cost nothing. Many have praised me, none have condemned me. I am pleasing to everyone. I am useful each moment of the day. I am COURTESY."

"Kindness like grain, increases by sowing." Like the seeds left stored in the granary, so are the deeds of our heart if we never let them become a reality. Seed stored away never increases but becomes more worthless with the years. After a while the grain will not reproduce. Even so, when our deeds of kindness are scattered and planted in the hearts of those about us will increase many fold. If we store away the thoughts of kindness and do not plant them, they too, will soon become as chaff and have no power to produce like kind. Happiness cannot be perfect until we learn to plant kindness in the garden of a friend. Then, to wait for the harvest of sevenfold.

Fits and Mis-fits

The definition of a bore might be someone who insisted on talking about their operation when you were aching to tell about your own.

You can tell a man who indulges, by the places where he bulges.

The fellow who is itching to go places should be willing to do some scratching.

Everyone is young only once, but some folks never get too old to act like a baby.

Every Jack has his own particular Jill who has charms that no one else can see.

It's nice to help folks out of trouble—some of them will remember you, especially when they get in again.

We never get eye-strain looking on the brighter side of things.

One advantage of being bald, is that when callers come unexpectedly all you have to do is straighten your tie.

Politeness is the knack of knowing when not to interrupt the children.

The best advertisement for any church is its members, or perhaps the worst.

Hospitality is the art of making folks feel at home, when you wish they were.

Be it ever so homely, there is no face like my own.

One good way to save face is to keep the lower part shut.

We heard of the lady who served coffee that looked like it had been tried for murder and come clear — and tasted like it was guilty.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

GEORGE'S WIFE

By "Sarah"

In 1958 we sent an article to all the farm magazines, we couldn't decide on a title for sure, had two in mind. One was 'A Tribute To Our Community and Rural Life, the other just simply, 'The Farm Sale. We have them all back, of course, but we like to get them out and reminisce occasionally.

This article is pretty corny, because it truthfully tells the happiness of a country woman, along with a few fears as to the fate of same. Happiness in itself is almost an outdated commodity, if it could be called such, just as all the other commodities a farmer uses to take so much pride in producing.

In this space, time and again we have used some material from the National Cotton Council of America. The theme the council has used for years is: "Public Relations — Our No. 1 Job. This article says almost word for word the same thing the Council has said in material we have almost memorized, except for solutions given on page 37 of Progressive Farmer, namely — "the solution can be found in giving farmers the same kind of tools that non-farm labor and capital have long used — the right of labor to bargain, the ability of industry to manage production. This is the aim of this Administration for agriculture, the goal of President Kennedy's far-reaching farm message to Congress, the purpose of the recently introduced legislation to carry out the President's farm recommendations and bring decision making back to the grassroots."

Will Writes

From Austin

Rep. Will Ehrle

Over my objection and "no" vote, the House of Representatives this week concurred in the Senate amendments to the legislative re-districting bill.

88th District Abolished

Our 88th district was abolished by this bill and our four counties

Oh, well, we'll keep our corny article to show our grandchildren, to let them know, it wasn't always like this.

of Hall, Donley, Motley and Childress were thrown into the 82nd district along with Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger.

This means, of course, that there are two Representatives living in this district and I suppose we will have to run against each other for the House Seat from this new 82nd District.

Speaker's Race

Thus, I have publicly announced my withdrawal from the current race for Speaker of the House.

A campaign for office of Speaker of the House is as extremely long and hard one, and the most important aspect of such a race is meeting and visiting with the new candidates and the freshman members of the House.

Thus, when we were combined in our district with another member, it became almost impossible to make the Speaker race. I will be having to campaign for election to the House of Representatives from this new eight-county district; so, could not campaign for Speaker at the same time.

Enjoyed Serving

It has certainly been a wonderful experience for me to have served the folks in Hall, Donley, Motley and Childress counties by representing you in the Texas Legislature for the past three terms, and I am looking forward to meeting and knowing the people in Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties.

Twice As Hard

Since our district is twice as large, I will work just twice as hard as your State Representative so as to give all the folks in these eight counties the effective representation which they deserve.

Let's hope we can solve our tax problem this next week so we can avoid costly special sessions.

LOW PRICE IS ONLY HALF THE STORY

(The other—and even more—satisfying—half you'll discover the first time you drive a Corvair!)

And when we say "low price," we mean more than merely the pint-sized figure on the window sticker of a new Corvair. You're going to be saving like sixty on gas. And on the antifreeze you won't buy next winter, and the radiator repairs you'll never have to pay for. About the only things Corvair doesn't skimp on are room, smoothness, style and pure driving joy. But that's the other half of the story. Talk to your Chevrolet dealer about it soon!

Shades of socialism: The Portland, Oregon, Oregonian reported that Lorentz Danielsson, a Swedish farmer, recently plowed up 668 Arabian silver coins in a crumbling sack. The Vikings traded with the Arabs many years ago and the coins found dated from 700-800 A.D. Had the Swedish government permitted the farmer to keep the treasure, he would have been very wealthy. As it was, he received $200 of which $100 went for taxes. The Oregonian concluded the

HOW TO INVEST TEN MILLION DOLLARS
These recent photographs show construction progress on the new generating station at Oak Creek Lake, and some of the massive equipment to be used in it. Huge size of the equipment can be seen by comparison with the flat cars which transported it.

Symbol of the Future

Any way you look at it, an investment of $10 million in future growth is evidence that we are convinced this growth is coming. The new generating station at Oak Creek Lake—costing in excess of that figure—is showing rapid construction progress. But it is only one phase of WTU's long range expansion plans. Still another such station is on the drawing boards, as well as major additions to our transmission and distribution system. This is the way we are preparing for coming growth in our service area—from the Red River to the Rio Grande. It is a SYMBOL OF THE FUTURE in the Center of the Southwest.

BOB MOSS PHARMACY RANKS HIGH IN STATE

Relative state standings for Texas drugstores recently released covering year of 1960 lists Bob Moss Pharmacy in 13th place. This is the same rating held by the local firm for the year 1959, but reflects a considerable better record because of statewide business increases.

Ratings are determined by purchases and sales records of stores statewide including small, large and chain operations. Bob Moss Pharmacy has received recognition from various representatives of the pharmaceutical industry for its dedication to high ethics and community service.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

FEED GRAIN COOPERATORS CAUTIONED ABOUT "REPLANTING"

Growers who are participating in the 1961 feed grain program should be careful about replanting "hailed-out" cropland to either grain sorghum or corn. Mr. Cooke, chairman of the Donley ASC County Committee cautioned program cooperators that they have a "permitted acreage" for corn and grain sorghum on their farm, and any plantings in excess of this permitted acreage would result in non-compliance with the feed grain program.

Under the 1961 feed grain program the producer of corn and grain sorghum earns a special diversion payment by reducing his base acreage of these crops by at least 20 per cent from the farm's base acreage and diverting the acreage to a conservation use. This means that the farmer must increase the acreage on the farm which he normally has in a conservation use by the same number of acres that he reduces his corn and grain sorghum acreage. The base acreage of corn and grain sorghum less the diverted acreage is the farm's "permitted acreage."

If the planting of grain sorghum or corn on land where the original crop was destroyed, as by a hailstorm, increase the farm's total acreage of corn and grain sorghum to more than the permitted acreage, the farmer would not be in compliance with the feed grain program.

Corn and grain sorghum producers will not be eligible for price support on any of their 1961 crop feed grains unless they participate in the 1961 feed grain program.

CONSERVATION RESERVE PROGRAM

Producers who have Conservation Reserve contracts that expire December 31, 1961, may begin land preparation anytime for the seeding of a fall seeded crop such as oats, rye, barley, wheat. These crops may be seeded this fall and they may be harvested in the spring or summer of 1962; however, they may NOT be grazed prior to December 31, 1961. In the event your CR contract expires December 31, 1961, and you plan to plant spring or summer seeded crops on this area, you may start land preparation after July 1, 1961, only after obtaining permission from the county committee. If this is not clear to you, please contact this office prior to starting anything.

EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMITTEE

The United States Department of Agriculture has recently established an Emergency Planning Committee in each county. The Donley County USDA Emergency Planning Committee is composed of James Gouddy, Farmers Home Administration, as chairman; H. M. Breedlove, County Agent, Deputy Chairman; Bland Draper, Soil Conservation Service, First Member; and Mildred M. Ritter, Donley County ASC, Second Member. In the event of a national emergency, the Emergency Planning Committee will have certain definite and very important functions to perform.

1961 ACP PROGRAM

Farmers with outstanding approvals are reminded to report performance as soon as the practice is completed. If you plan to start a conservation practice be sure you have your approval before the practice is started.

MAY 31, 1961

This is the final date to sign up for participation in the 1961 feed grain program. If you have not contacted this office for information about this program, we feel that it will be to your advantage to do so soon.

Cub Scout News

The Indian Pack Meeting, Monday, May 29 at 7:30 p.m. will be followed by a good old American weiner roast. The boys will wear and display the Indian items they have made and will receive their awards before the fires.

Everyone is to bring his own weiner supper and drinks. We urge the Cubs to invite their family and friends, but be sure they will be provided for.

The Pack meeting will be held at the place where we held Ake-la's Council last August. This vacant block is located about three blocks north of the Adair Hospital and one block west off Highway 70.

The beating of the Tom-Toms will signal the beginning of the ceremony. Chief Hancock will give the legend of an Indian Chief who lived in this area long ago.

E. J. CHENAULTS RETURN FROM WESTERN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Chenault have just returned from an extended trip in the western states. Among the sights seen were: The Painted Desert, Petrified Forest and Grand Canyon in Arizona. The Mormon Grounds in Salt Lake City, Utah, and the Royal Gorge in Colorado.

They also visited Mrs. Chenault's son, Gary Edmondson, who is in school at Mare Island, Vallejo, Calif. And other relatives in Redwood City, Sacramento and Roseville, Calif. They report a very enjoyable trip.

There is about $55.00 worth of gold in suspension in each and every cubic mile of sea water.

As many as 60 distinct colors are claimed to be observable from Observation Point, Zion National Park.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Board of Supervisors of the District voted at their last meeting to buy some broadcast seeders for use here in the District. The main purpose of the seeders will be for planting rye and legumes in cotton middles in the fall. The broadcast seeder fastens to the front of a cultivator, and the seed can be broadcast in front of the cultivator during the last plowing. The cultivator will cover the seed as it passes over them. This way rye can be planted in the cotton middles without having to go over the field an extra time with a tractor and machine. The Supervisors hope that this new machine will get more rye planted in the cotton than has been planted in the past.

Guar is a very good legume to use in this country for a cash crop and for a soil building crop. It is planted at about the same time cotton is planted, and it is harvested with a standard combine. No. 1 beans will bring about $3.50 per hundred in Clarendon this year. An acre will produce 400 to 500 lbs. in an average year. The best benefit, though, is that the next crop following the guar will get the benefit of the nitrogen that the guar added to the soil.

Approximately 2,000 acres of brush has already been sprayed this year. Conditions are right now for spraying sage, shinnery, and mesquite. Contractors are available to do the work. If you have a need for brush control and would like to look into it, contact the Soil Conservation Service in Clarendon.

Horace Green has plowed up some switchgrass and is following it with cotton this year. Also, he has some cotton following alfalfa, and some cotton following cotton. Let's watch these fields very closely this year and compare yields under the different conditions.

Remember the election tonight at the courthouse in Clarendon. Voters from Subdivision Two of the District will elect a supervisor to replace Clarence Reynolds.

SULLIVANS HAVE ALL OF THEIR CHILDREN TO VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sullivan enjoyed having all of their children together for the week end. Sunday a family picnic was held at Palo Duro Park. Here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sullivan and boys of Caladonia, N.Y.; Mrs. Jane Mosch and daughter of Dryden, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Mayo of Bert-houd, Colo.; Mrs. Pauline Brazzile, Mrs. Kay Bryant and children, also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sullivan and children, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sullivan of Claude; and Jimmy Sullivan of Clarendon.

The group celebrated Mother's Day, a wedding anniversary, and a birthday. The children from New York visited a week or more with their parents.

Mrs. Audrey Stewart of Saye's Beauty Shop attended The Beauty Festival and Educational Clinic at Lubbock May 21, 22. The most outstanding artists in this profession were there. Special classes were attended in hair styling, coloring and permanent waving.

By way of pointing up some of the material progress achieved under a free enterprise private-profit system, the following statistics should be of interest:

Automobiles: 8,000 in 1900; 23,035,000 in 1930; 60,000,000 today. Telephones: 1,300,000 in 1900; 29,103,000 in 1930; 72,000,000 today.

"Too many of us, it seems, are looking to Washington to bring a rabbit out of the legislative hat. We are depending upon high public improvement and highway projects, losing sight of the fact that these can be built only through taxes which later we must pay." — Murfreesboro, Ark., Courier

To all the friends of Mrs. Lena Dilli, she thanks all of you for your cards and sweet thoughts of her and has got to where she can't open her mail, but we read it to her and then she will look at the cards and loves to get mail. She has been up here at the Ladies Rest home for two months now. If any of her friends are in Amarillo any time and have a few minutes, to see her, she would love to see you and even though she may not remember your names. The Ladies Rest Home is a very nice place and the nurses are all so good to everyone and efficient. The family of Mrs. Dilli, Amarillo, Texas.

I wish to take this way to thank everyone for being so nice to me while I was sick in the hospital. For the cards, letters, flowers, visits, and for every kind expression of interest. I want to say thank you very sincerely. I appreciated everything very much.

Mrs. H. A. Graham

The simple words "I thank you!" cannot half express my very grateful feelings for all your kindness during my illness. Your friendship means so much to me, grows dearer day by day—so now I think it's just the time to have my little say. You've often helped me carry on and kept me smiling through. Life would not, could not be so nice had I missed knowing you. So to each and every one of you, Thanks for all the gifts, cards, food, flowers and other acts of love and good wishes. May God bless you.

Mrs. Ben Lovell.

HENSON'S

Despite the dwindling time, filibusters, postponements and disagreements have slowed progress on tax-raising and other "must" legislation.

The House-passed 2 per cent sales tax faces two ultimatums. Gov. Price Daniel said he could not allow it to become law unless the total money-raising program puts more of the tax burden on business and less on individuals. Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio said he would filibuster against the sales tax if it came up in the Senate.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert estimated the House sales tax bill would raise in excess of $150,000,000 a year. This is higher than other estimates and would provide enough or nearly enough to meet estimated revenue needs. Calvert, by law, has the final and official say-so on tax yield estimates.

Governor Daniel's veto threat chilled earlier optimism about an early wrap-up of money problems and turned House members to thinking again in terms of compromise and "package bills."

SPENDING CONFERS — A ten-man conference committee is at work ironing out the differences between House and Senate versions of the general appropriations bill.

House bill would cost about $16,000,000 more than the Senate's. Committee's task of striking a balance between the two is expected to take three weeks.

Senate members of this important committee are Senators Ray Roberts of McKinney, A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Wardlow Lane of Center.

House members are Representatives James Cotton of Weatherford, Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, B. H. Dewey of Bryan, J. W. Buchanan of Dumas and Malcolm McGregor of El Paso.

TEACHER PAY PUSHED — Advocates of higher teacher salaries are pushing to get their bill in position for quick final action once the money-raising and general appropriations measures are out of the way.

House Appropriations Committee approved and sent to the floor a bill that would provide the full $800 a year salary increase sought by teachers.

Goal is to get a pay raise bill passed in both houses, then send it to a conference committee to work out differences. Then at the strategic moment, it would be ready for final adoption by both houses.

TRAINING METHODS SCORED — House members are pressing for speedy action for a measure that would require less emphasis on "how" and more emphasis on "what" in public school teacher training.

Rep. Henry C. Grover of Houston, a teacher on leave, is sponsor of the bill that would reduce required education (teaching method) courses from 24 semester hours to 12 for junior and senior high teachers. For grade school teachers the maximum would be reduced from a possible 60 to 24 semester hours.

One supporter observed that episcopal Is the Episcopal Church Catholic? Inquirers' class - Tuesdays 7:30 p.m. For information phone TR 4-3542.

the late Albert Einstein wouldn't have been eligible to teach mathematics in a Texas high school. House voted to instruct the Education Committee to report on the bill immediately.

RE-DISTRICTING HITS BUMP — Senate efforts to pass a senatorial re-districting bill were postponed by Sen. Jep Fuller's filibustering opposition.

Senator Fuller of Port Arthur opposes the proposed measure because it would continue to combine Orange County with Jefferson (Beaumont, Port Arthur) to form his district. Jefferson County alone has more than enough voters to be a one-county district, says Fuller, and Orange would rather be in another district with counties of the same size.

Pressure to force agreement on a re-districting bill will be very strong since, if the Legislature fails to act, a non-Legislative Board will take over.

GLOOMY REPORTS — While lawmakers struggled to find new taxes, the news about present taxes was bad all over.

State Treasurer Jesse James reported that Texans apparently are not smoking and drinking like they used to, causing a million dollar slump in tobacco and liquor taxes in April. Revenue dropped from $8,689,855 in March to $7,362,176 in April.

Motor fuel tax revenue was also off, according to State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer. A 3 1/2 per cent drop during the past eight months cost the state $3,000,000.

Meanwhile, in the Third Court of Civil Appeals, the state lost in an effort to collect a state sales tax on components parts of radio sets, such as hi-fi tuners.

Court said the law is not clear. LOAN DISPUTE FLARES — Words were hot, but the issues unclear, as Senate committee hearings on a small loan bill stretched out.

Critics of the House-passed bill fell into at least two factions: (1) those who felt the interest rates (up to 40 per cent on the smallest loans) were too high and (2) those who felt over-all charges should be higher for loans of $100 and less.

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson issued a statement blasting "powerful out-of-state loan sharks" trying to "bottle up" regulation. Senate Committee invited him to appear and discuss the matter with them.

MORE "NEATNIKS" NEEDED — Amid its $7,000,000 a year job of gathering up mountains of litter from public roadsides, the Texas Highway Department issued a plea to Texas motorists.

Please don't use the highway as a trash can, said the Department; be a "neatnik" and save on state costs.

Most of the litterbugs, says the Department, are home grown, not out-of-state visitors.

ACTION AND REACTION — After thousands of college students took a long, riotous weekend in Galveston, the Senate called on the Higher Education Commission to look into why the students weren't at their books.

In the opposite wing of the Capitol, the House passed two measures concerning the Gulf Coast area.

One would authorize the state to turn over 88.5 miles of Padre Island to the federal government for national park development. Other is a proposed constitutional amendment that would give city and county governments authority to regulate traffic and sanitation on adjacent state-owned beaches.

A state agency, such as the Highway Department, would be authorized to set flexible speed limits, according to road conditions, under another proposal for constitutional change given House approval.

Sixteen-year-olds accused of serious crimes could be tried as adults rather than in juvenile court under a House-passed bill. Present minimum age for adult handling is 17 for boys, 18 for girls.

Running for one state office while holding another would be barred under a proposed constitutional amendment given preliminary House approval.

All proposed amendments have to be approved by the people in the 1962 general election before becoming effective.

Short Snorts

A group of steel importing firms are seeking court action to stop the State Highway Department's ban of use of foreign made products in state highway projects. Suit was filed in a Travis County district court.

Construction contracts let during March in Texas set a record for that month of the year, reports the University Bureau of Business Research. Economists did not expect the peak to hold, but held hope that the renewed vigor meant the end of the building slump.

Texas' unemployment picture also brightened during March. Total number employed rose to 3,387,300, and unemployment declined by 28,100. But the number of jobless persons was still higher than for the same month last year, said the Texas Employment Commission.

Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Neches has announced he is a candidate for Speaker of the House in the next Legislature. Oliver is generally regarded as a conservative.

Ranchmen Advised On Spread of Poisonous Plant in West Texas

COLLEGE STATION — Ranchmen in the western half of Texas are advised to be on the alert for a plant invader that is spreading — threadleaf or woolly groundsel. G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialist, says the gray - green, yellow flowered plant is now about 18 inches tall and the flowers are too mature to use chemicals for control as the seed would mature after the chemical application.

The plant is a member of the senecio family and is especially toxic to cattle. The senecios contain an alkaloid poison which usually causes abnormal births in cattle and possibly some abortions, according to Hoffman. He adds that cattle which are grazing senecios usually have yellow on their noses. He suggests they be moved to a pasture which is free of the plants. Heifers with their first calves usually are the heaviest grazers of senecios.

Since it is too late to use chemicals for controlling the plants, Hoffman suggests that if the infestation is light, a sharp-shooter shovel or a grubbing hoe be used to dig up the plants. They should be hauled immediately from the pasture, stacked and burned to kill the seed. If the plants are dug and left on the pasture, cattle will graze them when they begin to dry and the seed may also be scattered by the wind.

Hoffman emphasizes the need for digging the plants immediately to stop the spread of this range invader.

THE "EMERGENCY TAX RACKET"

When World War II came along the Congress passed a number of "emergency" tax measures to help finance the war. Since then the "emergency" taxes on various items have been extended year after year.

The term emergency tax has been used by Congress instead of "sales" tax because the sales tax idea was not popular. Therefore, a limited number of industries were penalized with high "emergency" taxes instead of low general sales taxes.

The latest example of the "emergency" tax racket is the one-cent additional federal gas tax enacted last year with the provision that it would expire next June 30th. A move is under way to continue the tax and even increase it above the present federal tax of four cents a gallon. State gas taxes range from three to seven cents a gallon not counting state sales and local taxes. In other words, state and federal "sales" taxes on a necessity are some 50 per cent of the price of the product less taxes, $1.00 on every 10 gallons of gasoline.

Is it any wonder the worms (the taxpayers) are beginning to turn and no longer believe their law-makers when they talk about "temporary" taxes? It is time to call a spade a spade and admit that most temporary or emergency taxes are just an excuse for permanent sales taxes, which legislators are afraid to propose for fear of losing votes.

The honest thing to do is to cut out such subterfuges and if needs demand it, establish a general sales tax instead of socking a few industries with sales taxes running from 10 to 50 per cent, as with telephones, transportation and gasoline.

The exorbitant tax on gasoline may be the straw that breaks the camel's back and brings a halt to the deception practiced in the name of "emergency" or "temporary" taxes.

The worms are turning against the temporary tax racket.

THE THIRD DIMENSION

Man is a being of three dimensions — mental, physical and spiritual. There are some who doubt the third dimension. They cite man's progress in the field of pure science — but some of our greatest scientists have stated that they believe in a supreme power.

In today's world, truth and right are in jeopardy. Their vigor can be nurtured and maintained through religious education—third dimension training.

The 17th annual National Sunday School Week will be observed April 10-16, with Pat Boone as national chairman. On accepting the chairmanship Mr. Boone said, "In the Communist world, everyone serves the state. In our world, we serve God and each other. Sunday Schools are needed more than ever as a 'Guide to Faith,' the theme of the Week, for our young people, who will be the citizens and leaders of tomorrow. Still better, I suggest that Sunday School be a weekly ritual for the whole family."

National Sunday School Week is sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, an inter-faith organization whose purpose is to reaffirm the heritage of faith declared by our forefathers and to encourage regular attendance in the houses of worship of all faiths.

NINTH WORLD WONDER

The Ancients listed seven wonders of the world—the Pyramids, the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, Phidias' Statue of Zeus, the Temple of Ephesus, the Tomb of Mausolus, the Colossus of Rhodes and the Pharos of Alexandria. Now the New Haven, Mo., Leader, suggests that two additional wonders be added — "The American Economic System" and the "Lack of Understanding About How It Operates."

That economic system has brought us unprecedented material benefits — and, a degree of personal freedom never before experienced in organized society.

But the Leader says: "The ninth wonder of the world might be described as an apparent willingness of the American people to give up this system because of a lack of appreciation and understanding of how the system works! . . . there is an increasing dependency upon the very thing (Government) which leads to socialism, restricts our freedom, and hinders the incentive which made this country successful."

The history of our time has been a sorry record of the destruction of freedom and of every human right and privilege by all-powerful governments. We have seen it the world around. Yet, step by step, we have been beguiled down an ominously similar path. It isn't too late to turn back and to limit government to powers which only government can exercise. But that turning can't be delayed too long.

MEASURING UNEMPLOYMENT

There is no accurate way of measuring unemployment — the figures representing it are as distorted as images in a fun house mirror. In the first place, many groups such as summer resort employees, fishermen, farm workers, guides and others who never worked 12 months out of the year, never considered themselves "unemployed" during slack periods until the advent of unemployment compensation. Secondly, when "benefits" approach the take-home pay, they subsidize and prolong voluntary unemployment.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

The Sugar Issue

The sugar controversy continues to boil. This is an issue that has come to the forefront of numerous occasions in our history. The reason is that sugar is controlled by a very few groups. The foreign countries have a preferred position. Approximately 45 per cent of our sugar needs come from foreign countries. This is not because we cannot grow sugar, but it is because a lot of money is being made by a few groups. I sincerely hope that this entire matter can be worked out without the possibility of creating a furor about our foreign relations. No one wants this. But there are a number of us here in Washington who do not intend to sit idly by and permit American farmers and small business people to be discriminated against.

Until recently, this country was importing more than three million tons of sugar annually from Cuba. At five cents a pound this would amount to $300 million which Cuba was obtaining from this country prior to its plunge into the Soviet orbit. This business was taken away from Cuba after the country, under its bearded leader Castro, embraced Communism. After this was done, the question was "Where will we get this sugar?" American farmers were clamoring for the opportunity to grow this sugar. They had been under acreage allotments for a number of years. They wanted to get out from under these acreage allotments and they wanted to produce this sugar because it would help in three ways — One, it would provide a means of reducing farm surpluses by diverting acres from surplus crops to sugar beets. Two, it would help the economy of the farmer and also the general economy of those communities where sugar beets could be grown, because processing mills could be built at a cost of some $15 to $20 million. Three, it would help measurably to stop the outflow of gold, the critical problem to which the President of the United States has addressed himself on several occasions.

However, sad to say, the sugar interests — or perhaps it would be better to say the sugar monopolies, because that is exactly what it is — refused to agree to permit the American farmer to participate in this market. Although a bitter battle ensued, these monopolists were able to obtain a 15-month extension of the Sugar Act which provided that all of this sugar had to be purchased from foreign countries. In other words, the American farmer was denied the right to grow a product that is vital and necessary to life. This is unconscionable and it is wrong.

This is a matter that is so vital to the American economy that all of the people in this country ought to demand action. There is no other major commodity in which this country can be self-sufficient which is required by law to be supplied by foreign countries to the extent of 45 per cent of our needs. Think what would happen if we were required to import 45 per cent of our cattle, 45 per cent of our textiles, 45 per cent of our automobiles, 45 per cent of our oil and gas. The fact is that this bunch of monopolists has gotten away with economic murder too long. It is high time that all Americans stand up for America first. The sugar issue is a good place to start.

PATTERN OF FISH STORIES "FISHY"

Are fishermen predictable? Do they lie in a particular pattern? These are two big questions confronting biologists on the Texas coast.

In the constant effort to check fishing potentials against actual harvest, Game and Fish Commission biologists conduct creel censuses throughout the year.

They'll check a fisherman at his boat and ask him how many fish he caught. Then perhaps a few hours later they will run into the same fisherman again, perhaps this time on the docks or in some other location.

Again, they'll ask him how many fish he caught and their sizes. Invariably they get a different answer.

"We can pretty well predict the fish, after taking net samples and applying ordinary math," says Howard Lee, director of the Rockport Marine Laboratory. "Now our big problem is to learn the pattern of fish stories. If we can ever figure that out, then we can correlate rather accurate information concerning supply and harvest."

Lee doesn't exactly doubt the fishermen, yet ever since Jonah there have been many almost unbelievable stories. But since the biggest fish always gets away, there's really not any way of knowing the whole story. Anyway, that's the way the biologists look at it.

Seven Locals on Dean's Honor Roll

Three freshman girls, three sophomore boys and one girl from the Clarendon Junior College Dean's Honor roll for the second semester of the current school.

Barbara Koontz, Frances Long, and Jo Ann Wood all of Clarendon and Nancy Shields, a graduate of McLean High School, but at present a resident of the College District, were the selected group from the Freshman Class to be listed on the Dean's Honor Roll this semester.

Clarendon Junior College had 51 sophomores in attendance the last semester. Thirty-one of them graduated. Fourteen of the total achieved a scholastic standing that placed them on the Dean's honor roll.

Three of the fourteen were boys who lived in Clarendon school district. Gary Adams, a graduate of Esteline high school, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Adams, Milton Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mann, and John Tom Morrow, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow. In addition to these three Clarendon boys, Miss Carole Wood who graduated as valedictorian of her class in 1959 and attended Baylor University for three semesters before returning to CJC was elected to the honor group.

Other Sophomores making up the list of eighteen honor students who were taking a regular load of 12 or more semester hours in regular day school were: Jo Ann Edens, the wife of Steve Edens; Nettie Humphreys, wife of Jimmy Humphreys of Ron, Oklahoma; Alice Johnson, Samnorwood; Floy Lancaster, Turkey; Bobby Lesley, Hedley; Albert Mosenbocker, Dodson; Leonard Mullins, Hedley; Carrol Nunnely, Wellington; Margaret Oldham, Samnorwood; Neal White, Quail; Ida Lou Dickson, Hedley.

An unusual twist to the sophomore honor roll this semester was the fact that seven of the 14 students who were elected were married students.

Eleven of the 14 sophomore graduates last week leaving Ida

Lou Dickson, Floy Lancaster and Margaret Oldham with graduation deficiencies.

Margaret Oldham of Samnorwood led the entire group with a straight A average.

SHOE COVERING COURSE FOR ADULTS

Covering last year's summer slippers or this year's winter slippers with material to match a costume is becoming quite popular with a number of seamstresses. If you are interested in joining a class bring your slippers, material matching thread and seam binding, pins, Elmer's glue and a small machine size screwdriver to the Homemaking Dept. Monday, May 29 at 2 p.m. The class will continue until slippers are completed. It usually takes about two hours to do one slipper.

There is no charge and no grades. The class will be taught by Mrs. Bourland, Homemaking teacher.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moss Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill, Tony and Teresa of Groom, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moss.

4-H Boys to Attend District Encampment

The district 4-H Club encampment will be held on May 29-30-31 says county agent, Flip Breedlove. Three 4-H club boys from Donley County will attend. The camp will be held at the Don Harrington scout camp south of Amarillo. The 4-H clubbers attending are eligible after four years of club work. The quota for each county is set up by the district council.

Those attending from Donley County are David Mooring of Lelia Lake, Rod Stone of Clarendon and Richard Thornberry of Brice Route, Clarendon, Texas.

Bill Mooring will take the trailer house and take the boys to the camp on Monday and remain with them until Tuesday afternoon when County Agent Breedlove will come and stay for the remainder of the camp. Breedlove will barbecue and help with the Giles Picnic on Monday and Tuesday before going to the district camp. Each year those who attend have a wonderful time, with swimming and many games.

The program also consists of specialists who will hold classes on agricultural subjects of interest in this section of the state.
