Highway Patrolmen To Work Extra Hours Thanksgiving Holidays

Working hours of all Texas Highway Patrolmen in this District will be increased during the Thanksgiving Holiday Week-end, Captain J. W. Blackwell, commanding officer of this area, announced today. In addition, all days off for our Patrol personnel have been cancelled in an effort to increase the enforcement effort.

This announcement came as a warning to those planning trips over the long week-end which will tend to increase the hazards of highway driving due to the large volume of traffic on the roads. Blackwell said that from all indications, traffic would be heavy and the threat of an accident greatly enhanced. He further pointed out that all radar units will be used continuously to cut down on the number of speeding violations usually found on the highways during holidays. "With shorter days now upon us," Blackwell said, "Driving has become more dangerous. During this holiday period of November 26 to November 30th, more drivers will be inclined to drink and drive. The drinking driver has been ear-marked as the prime target of the highway patrolman for this period."

The Captain added that if the driving public will use common sense and comply to the strict adherence of our traffic laws, the possibility of accidents would be reduced.

"This time of the year normally proves more fatal for motorists," Blackwell said as he urged all drivers to pay particular attention to their own driving to compensate for the increase in traffic and hours of darkness.

Meeting Set For Dec. 4 To Discuss Cattle Disease In Area

Livestock owners in Donley County and surrounding territory have shown much concern over the presence of leptospirosis in livestock, which has made its appearance in recent weeks. H. M. Breedlove, county agent says that he has talked to several livestock owners who have had the disease in their herds and it has caused cows to lose their calves well ahead of calving time.

Breedlove reports that a meeting will be held at the court house in Clarendon at 7:30 p. m. on the night of the 4th of December to discuss the disease. He has talked to several livestock owners and all think that a meeting would help to get the information before all livestock owners.

Dr. C. E. Deyhle will discuss the disease from all angles and tell how it can be stopped at once by vaccination. This disease can effect all types of livestock so everyone interested is urged to attend.

Dr. Deyhle reported that around twenty-seven cases of leptospirosis in livestock had been found in this area and surrounding counties. Breedlove says that the meeting on the 4th of December is for livestock men from all surrounding counties as well as for Donley County. He is urging your attendance at this meeting.

Coach Buddy Travis and his Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs and Comets will open the 1958-59 home basketball season next Tuesday night with a double header against the Flying Queens of Wayland College and the West Texas Freshmen. The Comets and Queens will square off at 7:00 o'clock with the boys' game following.

This will be the third meeting this season between the Comets and Queens. The Queens held two 19-point victories over the Comets, winning 48 to 29 at Plainview on Nov. 15 and 65 to 46 at McLean last Thursday night. In each game the Comets actually outscored the Queens in the last half but couldn't get going the first half. Janice Martin, Myriene Nichols, Virginia Sellers and Nancy Challenor, four sophomores from last year's team, are leading the Comets. Four freshmen girls, Georgia Binford, Melva Kelton, Gay Ivey and Janie Brotherton are currently fighting the other two starting jobs.

The Bulldogs will be playing their second game of the season as they open with the strong Arkansas City, Kansas, Junior College this Friday night at Arkansas City. Coach Travis is expecting a strong defensive club this year but right now is a little worried about the boys' inability to score. He plans to start Bub Eldridge, Loyd Stephens, Benny Leslie, Jack Buttram and Alva Carter. Eldridge and Stephens are regulars returning from last year's team and Leslie was a reserve on the team last year. Both Buttram and Carter are from New Mexico. Buttram being from Alamogordo and Carter from San Jon. Buttram is a sophomore transfer from Wayland. He is a husling 6.1 guard and hits the basket well from the outside. He was an all-state selection in New Mexico two years ago. Carter is a 6.5 freshman who won all-district honors two years. Travis is expecting the big center to strengthen the defense considerably.

First line reserves will be Dennis Love, a regular from last year, and Max Whittington, a sophomore transfer from Wayland. Other boys who are currently on the varsity squad include Gerald Garvin, sophomore from Silverton; Buzz Bailey, sophomore from Silverton and freshman Felix Johnson from Quitaque, H. D. Yarbrough from Claude and Pat Wilkins from Wellington.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

It was necessary to purchase an accepted illustrated copy of Anderson's Fairy Tales. So many students and teachers take the Children's Literature course and my copy was a ragged edition. Money is a problem that the Library constantly has to struggle to solve. We have numerous gift books, but they do not serve for reference, children, and teenagers. Our adult selections are quite satisfactory and useful for any purpose needed.

"Avalance Patrol" by Montgomery M. Atwater is a new book for Junior readers. It is informative and interesting. The author has dedicated the book to his Godson who is a snow ranger.

The October 1958 issue of American Heritage, Vol. IX, No. 6 has been placed on the Mr. Frank Phelan, Sr. shelf. These volumes are memorials sent by his sister, Mrs. Victoria Morrow of Bonham, Texas. They are beautifully bound in white, and from front to back tell interesting excerpts of U. S. History. I especially was interested in the controversy concerning the incredibility of Capt. John Smith's writings. It seems disgusting that so many writers used their time trying to destroy what history has embedded in our minds as facts. The entire volume is very interesting reading.

You will appreciate the excerpts from Harry Golden's "Only In America," which is condensed in the Digest this month. We shall have the book on our shelves soon, December probably. I shall attempt to secure his publication "Carolina Israelites." It has a national circulation. The Library has some patrons who read extensively—especially the best sellers in non-fiction.

"Round The World With Famous Authors" contains a beautiful paragraph on "Monticello." It is taken from Teale's "North With The Spring," and of course, uses the description of the various birds from there.

We received the annual check from the Pathfinder Club this week. Now we can replace some of our worn popular editions, and renew two of our good magazines, namely The National Geographic and Arizona Highways. The Library surely is grateful to our Clubs who tide us over the financial troubles we have.

News is the plural of the word "new." The Greeks word for it was "neos" and it became in Anglo-Saxon "neowe" and later in middle English "news." It is akin to the French "nouvelles."

In recognition of the gallant action of the Marines at Belleau Wood in World War I, the French changed the name of the sector to the Bois de la Brigade de Marines.

Thanksgiving Weekend Driving Is A Privilege, Not A Right

AUSTIN—Thanksgiving weekend is a good time for motorists to remember that driving is a privilege, not a right, declares J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association.

"If we are really thankful for this privilege, we will demonstrate our attitude behind the wheel," he said.

"In holiday driving, let's show fellow motorists that we care about them as well as ourselves.

"Let's drive in a manner that will make it pleasant for our passengers to enjoy their trip," Musick added.

The safety official called attention to a Texas Department of Public Safety study of fatal accidents, last year, in which 1,493 or violations in these death-dealing mishaps were: driving too fast for conditions, driving while drinking, disregard for warning or stop signs and driving on the wrong side of the road.

"When these and other violations are committed in bad weather and on slippery roads, danger is increased for oneself and other highway users," Musick claimed.

"When roads are rain-slickened or covered by snow and ice, vehicle speed must be greatly reduced," he emphasized. "The surfaces also call for enlarging the margin between moving cars, because the distance required for stopping is 3 to 12 times greater than that needed on dry pavement."

For North Texans, the safety expert recommended use of reinforced tire chains for severe snow and ice conditions. He said modern snow tires are better than regular treads and give their best performance in soft snow when it's not too deep, but chains have been proved the best self-help for getting started, keeping going, and climbing grades when roads are slick with ice, hard packed snow or deep snow.

Applications are still coming in for the public hunts to be held on the Gene Howe Wildlife Management area in the Panhandle. These hunts are scheduled for Dec. 6; Dec. 20; Jan. 3, and Jan. 15. All applications must be in the Game Commission office in Austin by 8 a. m. Nov. 14. A drawing then will be held.

Quail Hunters To Be Plentiful This Season

AUSTIN — Early reports have indicated there'll be a big crop of quail for the opening of the season Dec. 1. Now indications also point to a good crop of quail hunters, according to the assistant director of wildlife restoration of the Game and Fish Commission.

"We've had a lot of good food and cover this year, and a wonderful hatch of birds," he said. "Our men from every part of Texas tell us that conditions are excellent and birds are plentiful."

The quail season begins Dec. 1, and ends Jan. 16. The limit is 12 birds per day, or 36 in possession.

"Motorists who plan a long motor trip this holiday weekend or later this winter will do well to have their cars thoroughly checked and properly equipped to meet any unusual changes in road and weather conditions," Musick declared.

"Even with the most modern cars on the most modern roads, we can't afford to dispense with old-fashioned common sense, which dictates that we must be ready for winter's worst, take care of our vehicles properly and drive them safely," he concluded.

Thanks, particularly, for the good will of our many friends and neighbors who have made our daily lives a pleasant and rewarding personal experience.

So Much To Be Truly Thankful For!

-- In bountiful America, the land of plenty, where freedom and opportunity waits for everyone. Let us pause to count our blessings on this Thanksgiving Day and give our heartfelt thanks for our great democracy.

Many years ago a group of pioneers came to America. Overjoyed with the abundance they found and the wonderful feeling of freedom, they set aside a day for giving thanks --- THANKSGIVING DAY. In keeping with this fine tradition, we add our sincere thanks for the many opportunities you have given us to be of service.

BLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

Uncle Zeb

For the past several months we have had the honor of being a director in an organization known as the United Peace Officers of America. This group was organized just a few short years back with the sole purpose of promoting and helping the boys at Boys Ranch. Dedicated to help secure better buildings and material things for the Ranch and even more important than this to help build a stronger tie of friendship between the boys and each of us grown up citizens who like boys and law and order.

The first project was a new school building. The second was a dining hall. Now these fellows are trying to get together enough to build a bungalow type dormitory for the little fellows, the ones who for all these years have lived in the old courthouse. Anyway, the point is that anyone whether he is a peace officer, a person who loves boys, or just someone with a spirit of wanting to help, can have a part and a membership in this wonderful project. This year don't cut down on your regular gift to the ranch, but if you have a little bit left over, send it to Judge Clarence Williams, treasurer of the U.P.O.A. and you will be helping with a real blessing and a wonderful project. Mark your check for Boys Ranch and it will be deductible from your income. If you should want us to deliver the check we would be thrilled to pieces. The Judge's address is just Panhandle, Texas.

Our worst habits are those that help to bring out the worst that is within us.

It has been some time since we have used a poem. But this week we received a wonderful contribution from Mrs. Nellie Witt Spikes who writes a column entitled "As A Woman Thinks." She sends it for our collection. It goes like this;

What is the use of the Man of Sorrow,

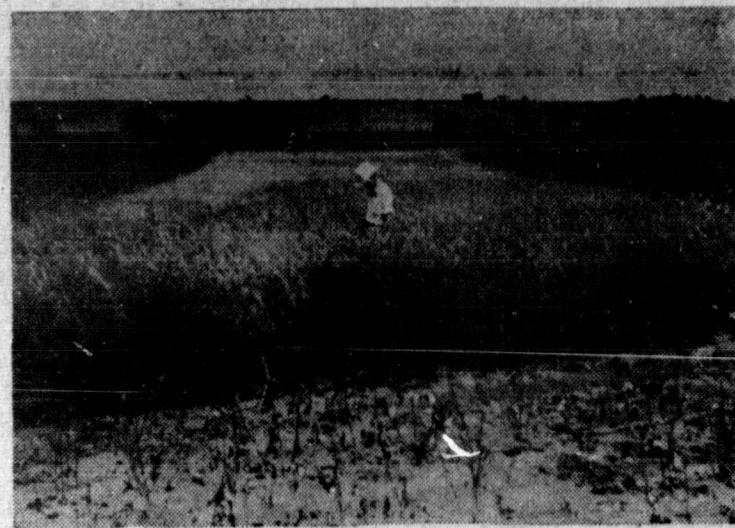

If you do not turn to Him in your need?

When your home is shadowed and your heart is breaking, Then is the time to trust indeed. He has never been known to fail in giving

The oil of wine for the open sore, And the heart that wept with the lonely sisters,

Is the same today, and forevermore. . . .

Thanks Mrs. Spikes . . . By the way, we hope that you read in the above column of a few weeks back the account of her visit to Carlsbad Caverns. If you did not, you should hunt up a copy of October Southwestern Crop and Stock and read same. As she says no one can describe the Caverns, but we say that Mrs. Spikes came the nearest that is humanly possible. Go back and read it, please.

Shaped and Vegetated Waterway

The people that come into our lives, walk awhile with us, share a few smiles and cares become the most precious experiences of our journey in this world. A few years ago we walked into a newspaper office with a picture of Uncle Zeb in one hand and a manuscript in the other. We met the smiling and friendly person of Alfred Estlack, co-owner of the Donley County Leader. Words fail us as we try to express our feelings as we think of his death at this early stage in his life. He gave us one of our first breaks in the writing field. We cherished him as a friend, we respected him as a good man. Donley County, the Panhandle, all of us join the family as we mourn the loss of this fine citizen.

Several waterways have been planned in the Donley County Soil Conservation District the past year. R. R. Partain of Ash-tola and Mrs. Ora E. Bray of the Goldston Community have planned waterways on their farms. Mrs. Bray plans to construct two waterways early in 1959.

A waterway is a means of conducting runoff water from an area to a safe point of release with a minimum of erosion. A waterway is designed and treated, either with vegetation or by mechanical means so that water can be moved along it at a velocity which is non-erosive. Waterways usually function as a collective outlet for diversion terraces or standard terraces but may be used to move water concentrated by other means to a safe point of release. There are three types of waterways; the shaped and vegetated, natural channels that require no shaping before vegetation. Most shaped waterways will require the establishment of a dead cover the year prior to planting of grass. Several grasses R. Bluestem, Buffalo, grama, Sideoats grama, mesquite or Western V Local Soil Conservation technicians will be glad in planning and staking ways for operators who are interested in the practice

Exceptional Range!

Vocal range is what counts in a soprano. In a motor oil the important thing is the temperature range at which the oil is effective. Phillips 66 Trop-Artic Motor Oil is exceptional in this respect. Trop-Artic permits easy starting in a cold engine because it doesn't get too thick. And it provides dependable protection in a hot engine because it doesn't get too thin. Winter and summer, year after year, the exceptional range of Trop-Artic Motor Oil will contribute to finer performance from your car. Get Trop-Artic Motor Oil at any Phillips 66 Station.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE BRANDENBURG GATE

The Brandenburg Gate has dominated the City of Berlin for over 100 years, both in structure and spirit. Erected in the early 19th century, it was removed by the French in 1813 and taken to Paris, then returned to Berlin during the Prussian-French War in 1817. It is adorned by a quadriga drawn by four horses and driven by the Goddess of Victory. Damaged during World War II, it was destroyed in 1945 by the Russians, but has since been rebuilt. The Brandenburg Gate today is more readily recognized as the principal dividing line between the two sectors of occupied Berlin—the German Democratic Republic, or the Soviet Sector—and the Federal Republic of Germany, which is the western sector. Life is entirely different on each side of the gate.

In an address to the German Bundestag in Berlin on October 1, the Federal Minister for All-German Affairs described the conditions which prevail in the eastern sector. Since 1945, more than 11.5 million Germans from eastern Europe, the eastern provinces of Germany, and the Soviet-occupied Zone have entered the Western Zone as victims of Soviet communism. They currently represent some 23 percent of the total population of the Federal German government. Of this number, about three million have fled from the Soviet-occupied Zone, and in recent weeks they have numbered almost five thousand weekly.

In one sense, it is heartening to realize that freedom-loving peoples never cease their struggle to attain greater individual liberties, and it is an absolute demonstration that Godless communism never fulfills the hopes and aims of the people it governs. It can be assumed, I believe, that the great majority of those remaining in the Soviet Zone yearn for their freedom in a democratic society, and they look forward to the day when the Soviets will agree to free all-German elections. Consider the future of these peoples remaining in the Eastern Zone in light of these facts: From January 1, 1958 to August 31, 1958, 813 medical doctors, veterinarians and dentists—compared with 250 during the same period last year—and 115 pharmacists—as compared with 33 last year—fled from central Germany to the Federal Republic, leaving numerous communities and even hospitals temporarily without medical assistance. Since early this year, more than 250 professors, instructors and assistants engaged in scientific research and teaching have left the Soviet Zone.

They all emphasized their flight was not occasioned by financial strain and that they were paid well. The prime reason for their defection was the so-called "socialistic transformation" of the universities and colleges which has been energetically pursued in 1958. This socialization demands of all professors, instructors and assistants an unequivocal and public belief of materialism which many cannot make because they believe it would be a public avowal of Atheism. Also remarkable is the increasing flight of teachers, which can also be blamed on increased political and psychological pressure. In August, 1958, alone, 619 teachers applied for emergency admission to the Western Zone. 412 of them received their education after 1945. Since the beginning of this year, more than 2,300 teachers have thus fled from the Soviet Zone. Since it is generally known in the Soviet Zone that additional education of several semesters is required of such teachers in the Western Zone, and since most of the teachers have been employed for some time and are married, it becomes even more apparent how distressing the conflict is which causes them to abandon their professional careers.

Many, many other tragic conditions prevail on the eastern side of the Brandenburg Gate. The greatest tragedy to my mind is not the lack of medical supervision, the absence of qualified teachers, the lag in scientific development, nor even any possible shortage of the basic necessities of life; but, rather, is the denial of the dignity and spirit which accompanies individual liberties. Suppression of lofty ideals and attempts to substitute fiction for fact as a living standard is inherent in the communist system. I trust the day will come when individual dignity and freedom will prevail on both sides of the Brandenburg Gate.

High School Basketball Teams Take Two From Silverton

Coach Roy Young's high school basketball teams opened their 1958-59 basketball season last Friday night with a double win from the Silverton High School team at Silverton. The girls opened the program with an overtime 50 to 48 win over the Silverton girls and the Bronchos followed with a 58 to 54 decision over the Owls.

The girls' game was a see-saw battle all the way with the lead changing hands at frequent intervals. The regulation game ended with the score tied at 46 to 46 and the overtime period saw Clarendon score four points to the home team's two. Joan Bennett, starting her fourth year as a regular on the Clarendon team, paced the local girls with 23 points. Paula Adams made 15, Ann Slavin made 10 and Charlene White contributed two. Miss Adams, a freshman student from Estelline, probably pulled the game out of the fire as she scored 13 of her 15 points in the last quarter and the overtime period.

Guards for Clarendon were Pat Spurgeon, Pauline Mills, Pat Owens and Beth Lambreth. Clarendon was ahead 12 to 7 at the first quarter and led 22 to 15 at the half. The third quarter saw the Silverton girls surge ahead 40 to 31.

The Bronchos had a little easier time with the Owls. The Owls led at the first quarter 17 to 15, but the Bronchos took a 33 to 30 halftime lead. The third quarter ended 53 to 42 and Coach Young cleared his bench for the fourth period. Jimmy Johnson showed an uncanny shooting eye as he hit nine of eleven field goal attempts and added one free throw to pace the scorers with 19 points. John Morrow made 13 points; Keith Schollenbarger 11; W. N. Elam 8; Melvin Housden 6 and Kenneth Housden one. Steve Mills, Jerry Allen, Sandy Skelton and Dennis Bradshaw played but did not score.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas state colleges and universities should concentrate on doing the best job possible of one thing — higher education.

To do this, some other things—like student medical services, intramural athletics and certain extension services—will have to be cut loose from tax support.

This is the gist of a report to be presented to the next Legislature by the Commission on Higher Education. Reached after prolonged study and discussion, the Commission's recommendations, if adopted, would be a significant and far-reaching step toward directing state spending on higher educational institutions toward "pure academic pursuits".

Commission will ask the Legislature for the largest appropriation in history, about $67,000,000 annually, for the state's 18 tax-supported colleges and universities. This would be $10,000,000 a year more than is presently provided. Extra money would be used to provide more teachers, better faculty salaries, improved library and research facilities.

On the other hand, the Commission turned thumbs down on the conducting of a number of extra-curricular activities at state expense. Things which the Commission recommends the Legislature NOT include in the higher education budget: (1) intramural athletics, (2) free or low cost medical services for students, (3) the 17-year-old Cotton Research Council and the Rodent and Predatory Animal Control Service, (4) a bureau of business research at Texas Tech, (5) Texas A&M's Texas Transportation Institute and (6) operation of museums as a part of five schools.

LEGISLATIVE HORIZON — Beginning of the 56th Legislature is a little more than seven weeks away. Each week brings forward more touchy problems the lawmakers will have to wrestle.

Some are new; some have been chewed over in many previous sessions. Examples:

CITIES vs. CITY EMPLOYEES — Texas League of Municipalities recently voted to ask the Legislature to step out of the field of regulating city employees' salaries, hours and benefits. It's a purely local concern, said the League. State Association of Firefighters and Police Officers Association took a dim view of the proposal. Executives of the two groups met in Austin, promised a fight against "legislation which would erase the progress of the past 20 years."

FARM IRRIGATION — Texas Farm Bureau delegates voted to ask the Legislature to make it a little easier for them to get a permit to use small ponds on their property for irrigation. At present, farmers may dam up to 200 acre feet and use it for household and domestic purposes. To use it for irrigation, they must get a special permit, reportedly difficult and expensive. Irrigation from farm ponds brought a hot contest between city and rural forces during the water legislation

Rev. Owen W. Aaron and Mrs. Aaron, formerly of Memphis and Liberal, Kansas, have moved here to make their home. Rev. Aaron is the new pastor of the Pentecostal Church and is also employed with the Body Shop department of the Palmer Motor Company. They have three sons, Don, Bill and Owen Jr.

TRAFFIC SAFETY LAWS — Texas Safety Association, plus other groups, are pushing for legislation aimed at reducing fatalities. Points in the program: (1) allowing for the results of "drunk-meter" (chemical tests for alcohol) tests to be introduced in court as evidence in driving-while-intoxicated cases, (2) stronger traffic law enforcement, (3) provision for enough highway patrolmen to do the job, (4) changing speed laws to meet standards of new roads, (5) improved traffic courts (6) a uniform drivers license law and (7) universal driver education.

MEDICAL PAYMENTS — People approved a constitutional amendment to allow for medical aid payments to persons who receive state welfare checks. Next Legislature will have to pass a new law to put this into effect. Question is, how big should payments be? Other states average children. Such a scale in Texas would cast an estimated $8,000,000 a year.

ADVERTISING — Voters also approved an amendment allowing for state-supported advertising of Texas' advantages. But margin of approval was narrow, foreshadowing some wrangling over how big a thing the program should be.

MORE SCHOOL DAYS — Less fishing and more studying time may be in the offing for Texas school students.

State Board of Education voted to recommend to the Legislature that the present 9-month school year be extended to 10 months. Earlier this month the Hale-Aikin study committee decide to recommend 9½ months of schooling.

A spokesman for the Texas State Teachers Association said he thought teachers were generally favorable to a longer year. More will be known after TSTA has its annual convention in Fort Worth over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Among groups that already have expressed opposition are the operators of summer camps and resorts. A longer school year would mean less time for them to be in operation. Other questions sure to be raised are the extra costs coming at a time of financial strain and the possible ineffectiveness of study during hot weather weeks.

But probably the sharpest division of thought will be between parents (for) and children (against). CREDIT RATES UPHELD — State Insurance Department's drastically reduced credit insurance rates are back in effect again.

Last spring the Department issued an order which, in effect, cut in half the legal rate that could be charged for credit insurance. Cosmo Ins. Co., Amarillo, and others sued in an Austin district court an obtained a court order preventing the Department from enforcing the new rule.

But the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals reversed this. It held that Cosmo was entitled to a court hearing as to whether the new rates were just and reasonable. Meanwhile, they're in effect.

ICT SUIT RE-FILED — A suit charging scores of well-known persons and financial institutions with a share of the blame for ICT's ill-fated history has been re-filed in an Austin district court.

It was originally filed last June when V. F. Taylor was receiver for the case. Then there was a complicated shake-up and turnover in the liquidator-receiver's office, bringing in an almost all-new team.

Now the suit has been filed again with the name of the new receiver, C. H. Langdeau, submitted on the papers.

This probably is the granddaddy of all damage suits. It asks $15,000,000 damages. Defendants include such renowned names as Lloyds of London and Republic National Bank of Dallas.

Queens Hand Comets 65 to 46 Licking

The high flying Wayland College Flying Queens handed the Clarendon Junior College Comets their second loss in as many starts this season at McLean last Thursday night. The final score was 65 to 46.

The Queens jumped out to a quick lead and held it all the way. They held a 34 to 14 lead at the half. The Comets actually outscored the Queens the last half to pull up the 19-point difference. Janice Martin, hustling little sophomore forward, paced the Comets with 19 points. She was followed by Myrlene Nichols with 12, Gay Ivey 5, Nancy Challenor 4, Janie Brotherton 3, Virginia Sellers 2 and Jean Sanders 1. Georgia Binford and Melva Kelton played but did not dent the score column. The Queens were led by Carolyn Miller and Patsy Neal who scored 12 points each.

The Leader makes a good Christmas Gift.

FARM-TO-MARKET ROAD IMPROVEMENT DUE

Palmer Massey, District Engineer for the Texas Highway Department, announced this week the approval of the 1959 Farm-to-Market Improvement program. The projects included consist of capital betterment or perpetuation on the Farm-to-Market roads now under maintenance by the State Highway Department.

The projects in this approved program that are located in Donley County are for applying a seal coat on approximately 18 miles on F. M. 2362 from Ashtola to Clarendon and F. M. 2471 from F. M. 1260 east.

Lt. and Mrs. B. J. Murray and children of San Antonio left Friday after visiting several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cornelius.

in a referendum to decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for their 1959 upland cotton crop. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

"If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas, Mr. Cooke explains, marketing quotas will be in effect on all farms growing upland cotton in 1959, penalties will apply on excess cotton, and growers will have an opportunity to elect a choice between complying with their regular Choice (A) farm allotments or increasing their cotton average by as much as 40 percent this second choice is called Choice (B).

"By complying with the Choice (A) allotment, a grower will be eligible for price support at the full level available — not less than 80 percent of parity in 1959; by complying with the Choice (B) allotments, a grower will be eligible for price support at a level 15 percent of parity lower than under the Choice (A) program.

"If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, only regular — Choice (A) — allotments will be in effect and price supports to eligible growers (those who comply with their regular allotments) will be available at 50 percent of parity.

"In either case, acreage allotments of some kind will continue in effect for the 1959 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for the available price supports."

The chairman pointed out that legislation directs the Secretary of Agriculture to proclaim marketing quotas for the next upland cotton crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal. Quotas are not put into operation, however, unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum on the question.

Newspapers are keeping modern. In 1957, over $87,000,000 was invested by newspapers to improve plants, equipment and product.

The $64.00 question is: Why do pedestrians stand in the street waiting for a signal?

The Crockett Printer says a number of Indians passed through that town lately. It is supposed they were a delegation from Polk or Liberty counties, sent to Maj. Neighbors asking to be removed to the Reserve under his jurisdiction.

THE INDIAN WAR IN TEXAS

The Washington Star, of the 28th ult., has the following: A despatch having been received by the War Department from Gen. Twiggs, confirming the accounts of the hostilities of the Indian tribes north of Texas, and of the fight between them and Major Van Dorn's command. Secretary Floyd will take measures immediately for increasing the forces in the department of Texas.

The Corpus Christi Democrat says the fish are all dying in the bay, and floating up in millions to the shore.

The Galveston News says the epidemic at Galveston has reduced the number of laborers in that city, until three and four dollars per days have to be paid those who now are unloading vessels.

The Dallas Herald states that machinery has been purchased to put up a steam distillery at Dallas.

MORTALITY

Of the eighty who died of yellow fever, at Brownsville, between the 7th and 26th ult., we notice there were a very large number of the Mexican population. So in Galveston and Houston, a very large percentage were Germans. We suppose this class were mostly unacclimated, and we suspect that they were not so prompt to adopt remedies, which are valueless unless timely administered.

The Texas New Era, is the title of a new paper started in Henderson, Rusk county, by S. G. and Leon Swan. The paper is to be independent in politics and from the first number, we think general good taste and decency may be expected.

The Victoria Advocate says that Mr. Thomas Holliday's cotton gin, situated on the San Antonio river, in Victoria county, together with 60 bales of cotton was burnt last week. Also, that in consequence of the epidemic at Indianola, Judge Jones has postponed the session of the District Court until the second Monday in December.

The Bastrop Advertiser says a new jail is to be built in that county. There was a heavy rain in Bastrop on Friday last.

In connection with the overland mail route, the Patriot urges the necessity of a distributing office for the State, at Sherman.

BRENNHAM AND HEMPSTEAD RAILROAD

We learn from Col. W. M. Lewis, that they have 100 hands at work on this road on the west side of the Brazos river, and Col. L. only gives until the first of July, 1859, to complete the road to Brenham.

The grass hoppers appear to have mostly left (from Travis county), and those which remain do not jump as far as the length of their legs would seem to argue their ability to do. A friend of ours says he noticed one, yesterday morning, slowly limping away with a sprained ankle, and an icicle hanging to the end of his nose.

L. D. Phillips, Esq., writes from Rio Grande city to his friend, J. L. Haynes, says the number of deaths from fever there, was from ninety to one hundred up to November 10th, being about one-fifth of the entire population, and they were still dying at the rate of three or four a day.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Texas State Dept. of Health Henry A. Holle, M. D., Com.

A man in La Pryor in Southwest Texas reports finding 64 dead cotton rats in a single night on the lawn of his home, apparently killed by his dogs. In Crystal City the cantaloupe crop has been severely damaged by rats.

From Austin comes reports of rats in back yards where none have been before, and of mice in suburban homes. In Abilene and Wichita Falls increases in rat and mice populations have been noted. Farmers southwest of San Antonio have experienced serious losses to small grains, peanuts and tomatoes due to rodent depredations.

What's behind these unusually high rodent populations? It is impossible to give a definite answer, but State Health Department and Fish and Wildlife Service investigators feel increased rainfall had a lot to do with it.

Rains caused dense vegetation growth where rats and mice could take cover and raise young, safely hidden from natural enemies. Also, farm crops have been good, providing a ready source of food.

State and local health departments have made intensive field investigations, and laboratory tests have been made on live and dead specimens of rats and mice. This conclusion has been reached: There is no evidence at this time of a specific threat to public health. At present the problem seems to be more of an economic and nuisance nature.

While this conclusion is reassuring, it does not mean rodent-borne disease outbreaks are impossible. Rodents can serve as reservoirs for various diseases transmissible to humans, and are hosts to a variety of disease-carrying parasites such as fleas.

Here are some things homeowners can do to control rats and mice around the property:

Search for and close up all portals of entry. One Austin man looked for days for an opening into his house large enough to admit mice. He finally found it—half-inch space around the pilot control on the floor furnace. A piece of hardware cloth or steel wool make good blocks for places like this. Set traps and practice scrupulous home and premise sanitation. Get rid of tall grass, stacked lumber or anything else that might harbor rodents. Bites of rodents or their fleas should be reported to local health authorities.

These are strictly preventive measures and do not imply the existence of rodent-borne diseases in epidemic proportions. State Health Department field investigations and laboratory studies will continue wherever indicated.
