First Place Bulldogs Clip Amarillo Badgers

Coach Buddy Travis and his high flying Bulldogs remained in undisputed first place in the West Zone Junior College Conference by beating their arch-rivals, the Amarillo College Badgers, 64 to 55 in the Amarillo Gym Tuesday night.

Rev. W. F. Vanderburg

Captain Bub Eldridge played perhaps the best game of his career as he paced the Bulldog attack with 19 points. He hit seven of eleven field goal attempts and made good on five of seven free throws, and in addition, played a great defensive game before leaving the game with five fouls with eleven minutes remaining.

BROTHER VAN RESIGNS AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

W. F. Vanderburg resigned last Sunday morning as the pastor of the First Baptist Church effective February 15, 1959. He will take up work with Wayland Baptist College of Plainview, Texas.

The Bulldogs played their usual tight defense and ball-control type of game. They were playing without the services of their top scorer, Loyd Stephens, who injured an ankle in workout Monday. However, Jack Buttram took over the play-making role and with his deceptive dribbling and passing, kept the Badgers off balance almost throughout the game.

He came as pastor of the First Baptist Church on August 1, 1955, which would make his length of service as of January 31, 1959 to be three and one-half years. During these three and one-half years the church has had over 300 additions to its membership. The total gifts during this period have been $109,407.06.

The Badgers took a quick lead on long field goals by Jack McLain and Dusty Hamm and were leading 10-5 with eight minutes gone in the first half. However, the Bulldogs battled back and finally took an 18-17 lead with nine minutes to play in the half and never relinquished their lead. They led 33-30 at the half and pulled away in the last half, at one time holding a 15-point margin.

Bro. Van especially asked the Donley County Leader to allow him this privilege of expressing his thanks to the people of the church and the people of the community for all their graciousness and support. He said he feels that it will take him a long time, if ever, to tell everyone just what they have meant to him while he served. He is also anxious for the people to know that he and his family so loved the church and this community that only the call of God could have influenced this move.

Bulldogs Meet Odessa Here Friday Night

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs will be at home Friday night against the strong Odessa College Wranglers in a West Zone Junior College Conference game. The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

The Bulldogs are in first place in the conference standings with six wins and no defeats. The Bulldogs defeated the Wranglers recently in Odessa in a 55 to 54 thriller which the Bulldogs won with two free throws after time had expired. The Bulldogs will have a slight height advantage but the Wranglers are exceptionally fast.

Next game for the Bulldogs following Friday night's game with Odessa will be next Monday night when they go to Lubbock to take on the dangerous Lubbock Christian College Pioneers.

SPECIAL SESSION?

Even as the present Legislative session gets underway I am going to predict that we will have a Special Session of this 56th Texas Legislature. I believe that we will be facing a Special Session on money matters—taxes and appropriations.

The main reason for this belief is the make-up of the major House Committees appointed by Speaker Carr. The vice-chairman of the all important Tax Committee is already at odds with Governor Price Daniel, and the chairman of the Tax Committee has already said that he wants to wait and see the appropriations bill before reporting on any taxes.

All this friction and proposed delay indicates to me that we are certain for one Special Session.

WATER LEGISLATION We have many of the same pieces of legislation back with us this year which were not passed last session, noticeably absent, however, are major water bills.

Most all members are waiting to see how the state fares under the statewide water legislation which was passed last session.

BIG CITY—LABOR INFLUENCE The influence of the big cities

Several applications for assistance under the Great Plains Conservation Program have been made recently by farmers and ranchers in the Donley County Soil Conservation District. Five contracts have been signed and —Dallas, Houston, Fort. Worth, San Antonio—and also that of Organized Labor is certain to be much more prominent this session in the House of Representatives. Already these pressures have had their part in the appointment of Speaker Carr's committees. One former Labor-Union lobbyist for the C.I.O. was given a Committee Chairmanship by Speaker Carr. This is almost unprecedented in Texas politics. The House, due to Carr's recognition of Union Labor, will probably wind up passing some Union legislation. The Senate, however, is little changed in sentiment and can be expected to kill these measures.

five plans of operation along with new contracts are now in the process of completion.

The Great Plains Conservation Program was started in 1957 and is a long-range program designed to assist farmers and ranchers in carrying out approved plans of operation for the protection of their land from erosion.

To participate in the program, a farmer or rancher must develop and carry out a sound plan of operation on his farm. The plan must incorporate needed cropping systems and land use changes along with needed soil and water conservation practices in proper combination. A schedule for carrying out these practices must also be included with the plan.

The Great Plains Conservation Program in Donley County offers 20 different cost share practices that range from 50 to 80 per cent, depending on the practice selected. This program is in addition to all other existing Department of Agriculture programs such as the Agricultural Conservation Program and the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank Program and the armer's Home Administration program. Today's successful farm and ranch operators must take advantage of every possible development in soil and water conservation practices, as well as new marketing operations, new crop varieties, insecticides, etc. The Great Plains Conservation Program provides both technical assistance and cost sharing for operators in all phases of soil and water conservation.

Operators and land owners who wish more information on the program are invited to contact Farmer's Home Administration, County Agriculture Agent, or Soil Conservation Service Office.

Entries Ahead Of Last Year For Southwestern Fat Stock Show

Fort Worth—Entries in almost every department of the 1959 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show are ahead of last year, officials have announced. Show dates are Jan. 30 through Feb. 8.

Increased prize money, totaling about $195,000, is credited with bringing in more livestock, horse, poultry, rabbit and pigeon exhibitors.

The growing interest in stock shows is another reason the Fort Worth exposition gets larger each year, W. R. Watt, president-manager, pointed out. The Fort Worth event is the oldest major livestock show in the nation. It was first held here in 1896.

More visitors passed through the gates of the 1958 show than any in history. But, Watt said, the demand for rodeo tickets indicates that attendance figures this year will break all records.

The Fort Worth show features various events.

The newest things for better farming, ranching and living will be on display at the Texas Ranch and Farm Show. Exhibitors from all parts of the nation will show equipment and supplies of all kinds. Admission is free to ex-position visitors.

An extensive carnival midway also is a part of the show.

Numerous breed associations, clubs and organizations connected with livestock, poultry and rabbits will have meetings in con-paid for at the regular governing rates.

Plans and specifications available at the office of Arville Coyle, Resident Engineer, Childress, Texas, and Texas Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The first book to be received this week is "The Private Letters of Luke" by Roger Loyd. Apparently nothing has been unrevealed that pertains to the past, but this book is purely fiction. Very few historical facts are actually known but the writer admits this in his book preface. You will likely enjoy reading it and correlate it with your knowledge of Luke's inspired scriptural writings. This was given as a memorial to Mr. J. H. Hurn.

"Another Time Another Place" by Lenore Coffee is a romance junction with the show.

The 1959 rodeo will star Dale Robertson who plays Jim Hardie on the television western series, "Tales of Wells Fargo." The nation's top cowboys also will appear in rodeo events.

given in memory of James Patman.

We have a few fiction-science that are Tom Corbett Space Cadet series by Corey Rockwell. They are: "The Space Pioneers", "Stand By For Mars" and "Danger In Deep Space." Some of the young boys have been eager for these and we received $3.00 in "tips" for stamps given by different ones and the change will practically pay for these with a few fines we collected this week, and two Carolyn Keene's for the girls. A Nancy Drew, "The Secret of the Golden Pavilion." This is the 36th of this series and The Dana Girls by the same writer is "The Secret of the Swiss Chalet."

A friend gave us a copy of "Robinson Crusoe" for which we are quite grateful.

A scientific apparatus maker has developed a device that can detect holes in vacuum tubes so small it would take 120 years for a thimbleful of air to leak through.

A life spent worthily is measured by deeds, not by years.

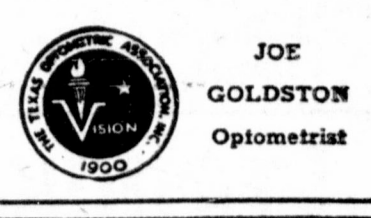

ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON AGRICULTURAL LIMESTONE USE SCHEDULED

College Station—Agricultural limestone is becoming increasingly important as a factor in upping crop and pasture production in the sections of Texas where the soil is deficient in lime or calcium. Though the amount of limestone used in the state has more than doubled in the past decade, W. F. Bennett, extension soils chemist, says that some 3,000,000 tons could be used profitably by farmers and ranchmen of the eastern half of Texas to bring their soils up to the proper lime levels for maximum production.

The application of limestone should be based upon soil tests points out Bennett, and he lists four chief benefits which can be expected from lime. It reduces soil acidity and increases the efficiency of fertilizers; adds plant food, mostly calcium, to the soil; improves the tilth and water holding capacity of the soil and its carry-over effects last for several years.

The Texas Agricultural Limestone Association, in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, is again sponsoring the annual Limestone Conference scheduled for January 9-10, 1959 in Texas A&M's Memorial Student Center. Bennett says the Friday afternoon session will be devoted to Association business while the Saturday morning session will provide information on more general subjects relative to limestone use.

THE DONLEY COUNTY LEADER

McAllen, Texas. Upon recommendations of a friend, an article in Lifetime Living, plus some folders from the Chamber of Commerce caused us to stop in McAllen on this our first trip to the Valley.

Sign posts at the edge of town tell you that it has a population of around 25,000 but anyone who lives here especially if he has been by the Chamber of Commerce office (and who hasn't) will tell you that there are between 33 and 34 thousand people already here and more on the way. Mostly we mean on the highways coming into town and planning winter vacations in the future but one could take it another way to. Especially the Mexican population is on the increase as they are better cared for, better paid since a degree of prosperity has come to the Valley.

Around 35 to 40 per cent of the people are Mexican and their services are badly needed in the fruit and vegetable harvesting and farming. Relations seem to be good between the races and going across the border at Reynosa just a few miles south is little more than going from downtown Amarillo to West San Jacinto. Something like 50 cents a car will get you waded right on over and a peso worth about 8 cents will get you back home if you have your drivers license or look like an American citizen and of course don't look like you were carrying home too many so-called bargains. Mostly you hardly slow down. Once across the border you can find good food, not everywhere but if you know the right places, and trading with the shops is about like other border towns. Whether you get cheated little or much depends on your judgement and your ability to bargain, and make change.

We didn't mean to imply that the Chamber of Commerce stretched the facts but just that they were up to minute and on the beam. This same Chamber of Commerce and most of the citizens will tell you that McAllen is the Capitol of the Valley. If we get too many challenges on this point next year we will stop and another town for our winter vacation. It is not the county seat however as this honor goes to its neighbor to the northeast, the beautiful city of Edinburg. First the town of Hidalgo had the honor of being the center of Hidalgo County's business but the era of prosperity missed this little town and the county seat was moved. The new modern structure is one of the most beautiful we have ever seen and is just one of the things that Edinburg can be proud of. But we must get back to McAllen and make another article someday out of this sister city.

Although there is oil here about citrus and vegetable farming would be the main income. This makes money, labor and business for all concerned. One of the most unusual things to me is the nearness of the towns. Not just villages but towns of 5,000 to 30,000 just about lock hands east and west all the way across Hidalgo County. Beginning on the west there is a short jump from Sullivan City to Mission and from there on through McAllen, Pharr, San Juan, Alamo, Donna, Weslco and Mercedes the back fences of each town almost touch. Folks are already discussing a name that could someday fit this great empire of a city. These wonderful citrus and vegetable farms are lined on all sides with palm trees about every 100 or so feet.

Speaking of the palm trees, most of them do not bear and the ones which do mostly just furnish food for the birds. A few thrifty folks get their supply for home by hustling before the fowls get them all. Actually, these trees have become somewhat of a problem due to increase in labor in that to look nice they need to have the old growth trimmed away each season. This cost $2 to $3 per tree sometimes.

It seems that raw land is high, improving it to a state of cultivation is expensive, little trees cost $2 to $3 each and have to be 3 to 4 years old to reach good production. At first the little tree is wrapped sometimes with palm leaves to keep from freezing. Then dirt is left high on it the first year or so. There is a lot of pruning, grafting, and spraying but they know how its done or soon find out; maybe the hard way. Anyhow folks seem proud of their orchards. It was fun to us to pick our trunk full of the finest naval oranges we have ever tasted and delicious pink grapefruit which tasted so much better fresh from the tree. The ladder didn't break and we can show you our picture raking them in at a real bargain price.

One thing is certain folks here are not worrying about our West Texas. We bought three papers trying to find something from home. Finally we read about a new blizzard. What we would have given for an Amarillo, Lubbock, or even a Fort Worth paper. Either we don't do anything mean or we just don't rate anyhow. Fruit won't freeze at a few degrees under 32 but it keeps them worried through the winter season.

In visiting McAllen we are soon conscious that they are interested in us as tourists. Also that around 5 per cent of the winter population might well be tourists. They come mostly from the northern states and give as their main reason that of missing some of the worst cold weather. Iowa leads, Minnesota runs second with the Dakotas and Kansas coming along pretty strong.

We were talking with a fellow from Minnesota who was fishing on Lake Delta near here and he told us about fishing through a hole in 23 inches of ice just before leaving home. They love it here for sure. All the towns here have what they call a Tourist Club. You wouldn't have to live too far away to belong and the dues are only $5.00 per year, or season. For your money you will get several planned trips, parties, lessons in crafts, and a paid secretary on the job to give you any information. To make this club even more enticing the Chamber of Commerce furnishes another secretary to help with this program. In addition two ladies from the club will act as hostesses for a week. The Chamber of Commerce furnishes a club room with all kinds of games and outside activities.

Last year the McAllen Tourist Club reached 1,070 members and by the middle of January this year was approaching a 1,000 again. Our good neighbors from home, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor, took us in as their guests even to Club pot luck suppers that are something to behold. Most of the folks are retired or have left the farm with the son and come south to miss the bad weather. Our special thanks to the Taylors for being so wonderful to us, and don't fail to look in on this Club when you come this way. We could spend a lot of space just with this club but we better pass along for now and do something else.

In addition to making two separate Valentine boxes, one for each grade, the third and fourth grades are learning about the musical scale, from Mrs. Butler. "Every Good Boy Does Fine" will bring memories to many old timers.

Some of the seniors have learned about the good old game of "Snap," played many a lonesome night on the West Texas prairies and also reminding of the time, studied in English literature, when bards played in drafty castles and helped fill the long hours with the atmosphere of romance. Seniors are enjoying the famous new book by Laura V. Hamner, "Light 'n Hitch," as well as collecting scrapbook articles.

The snow and ice that fell over the weekend netted a beneficial .33 inch of moisture. That much snow and ice at this time of year does as much good as an inch of rain later in the year.

The heavy ice coating caused considerable damage in numerous car accidents, the majority of which were not serious in the way of injury but caused heavy damage to vehicles. The temperature dropped to a low of 10 degrees Sunday night but began a rapid rise on Tuesday. More cold weather is predicted for the weekend.

PYEATT RECEIVES TRANSFER IN FRANCE

Sp/4 El Ray Pyeatt has notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pyeatt, that he has been transferred into the 279th Army Band at Portiers, France. El Ray has been serving as a draftsman with the 83rd Engineer Battalion at the U. S. Army Depot, Camp Bussic, France.

Pyeatt took his basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark. and was moved to Fort Belvoir, Va., before being sent to France. He will have another year there. While overseas he has done lots of sight-seeing including a visit to Rome and the World's Fair at Brussels.

Mrs. W. E. Gregory is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Barney Batcn and family at Memphis. She was in Clarendon for the weekend.

Austin, Texas — "The first month's sugar. The second month's pie. The third month you can work... And so can I." This ancient bit of verse, written for newlyweds, might apply to the usual pace of legislative sessions, with short meetings and long weekends in the early months, followed by an around-the-clock grind. But this year lawmakers are being urged to cut short the honeymoon.

With committees appointed and put to work, Speaker Wagoner Carr urged House members to be "especially industrious" to save both time and money. Answers, he said, will "not be any easier to find next summer than this winter and spring."

Appropriations Committee responded by putting itself on a five-days-a-week, eight-hours-a-day schedule, aimed at having the big appropriations bill ready in 60 days. Ordinarily, other legislation is held back until appropriation decisions are made.

HOUSE COMMITTEES — After Carr defeated Rep. Joe Brickett, Jr. of Kerrville for speaker, suspense centered on how Burkett supporters would fare in Carr's committee lists.

Outcome was that Carr men, naturally, received all choice posts and approximately 86 per cent of committee chairmanships. Of the 43 House committees, 37 are headed by Carr supporters, four by definite Burkett supporters and two by persons whose vote was not known.

Top committees and their leaders are: Appropriations, W. S. Healy of Paducah, chairman, John Huebner of Bay City, vice chairman; Revenue and Taxation, V. L. Ramsey of Beckville, chairman, Frates S. Seeligson of San Antonio, vice chairman; State Affairs, Richard Cory of Victoria, chairman, Max C. Smith of San Marcos, vice chairman; Oil and Gas, Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, chairman, Richard Slack of Pecos, vice chairman.

Constitutional Amendments, James M. Cotten of Weatherford, chairman, Frank McGregor of Waco, vice chairman; Insurance, Carl C. Conley of Maymondville, chairman, Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, vice chairman; Motor Traffic, H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, chairman, Rufus Kilpatrick of Beaumont, vice chairman; Agriculture, Truett Latimer of Abilene, chairman, Harold B. Parish of Taft, vice chairman.

SENATE COMMITTEES — Less dramatic, but fully as important to legislative processes, were Lt. Gov. Ramsey's selections of Senate committees.

Top posts are concentrated among veteran Senators, experienced in government, and in accord with the conservative philosophy predominant in the Upper House. Heaviest responsibility will be in the hands of Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, State Affairs chairman, and Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria, Finance chairman.

Other committee leaders include State Affairs, Jop Fuller of Port Arthur, vice chairman; Finance, Preston Smith of Lubbock, vice chairman; Agriculture and Livestock, George Moffett of Chillicothe, chairman, Culp Krueger of El Campo, vice chairman; Labor and Management Relations, George Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman, Krueger, vice chairman.

Also Oil and Gas, Frank Owen III of El Paso, chairman, Moffett, vice chairman; Insurance, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, chairman, Owen vice chairman; Transportation, Abraham Kazen, Jr., of Laredo, chairman, William T. Moore of Bryan, vice chairman; Constitutional Amendments, Bill Wood of Tyler, chairman, Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, vice chairman.

Tax corporation income on a graduated scale, by Rep. Dean Johnston of Houston, to raise an estimated $20,000,000 annually.

Increase truck weight limit from 52,420 to 72,000 pounds, by Rep. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio. Same bill was defeated after stiff fight last session.

Require open meetings by all government agencies, except where they are now required by law to be confidential, by Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene.

Change primary election dates from July and August to the first and fourth Tuesdays in May, by Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio.

Give all cities of more than 10,000 full authority to regulate wages and hours of firemen and policemen, by Rep. Ben D. Sudderth of Brownwood. This is a matter of sharp controversy. A counter-measure, introduced by Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas, would reduce hours and increase pay for firemen and policemen.

Provide a new University of Texas medical branch. Rival bills are being pushed—one by the Austin delegation directing that the school be built in Austin, and another by the San Antonians, specifying their home city.

Prohibit labor unions from using regular dues and assessments for political purposes, by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. Unions would be required to file an annual audited financial statement with the Secretary of State.

Loan state funds to communities to help establish local homes for old people, a constitutional amendment proposed by Rep. Murray Watson of Mart.

Set butterfat content of milk offered for sale at a minimum of 3 1/4 per cent, by Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches.

Raise unemployment benefits from $28 to $40 a week and extend pay period from 24 to 39 weeks, by Rep. Roger Daily of Houston. Require employers to recognize a collective bargaining agent supported by a majority of employees, by Reps. Clyde Miller, and Robert Eckhardt of Houston.

Allow higher speed limits on Texas highways. One proposal, by Rep. Bill Jones of Dallas, would raise maximum from 60 to 70 m.p.h. Another, by Reps. Tom James of Dallas and Louis Anderson of Midland, would permit Highway Commission to regulate maximum up or down, as road conditions justify.

Abolish poll taxes as a requisite for voting, by Reps. B. H. Industry spokesmen criticize the governor's program as "short-sighted" and deplore the increasing of levies on sources already being taxed. Gas men promised to fight the severance tax, if passed, all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court.

But Governor Daniel declared he'd gotten many more bouquets than brick bats for his plan. Only opposition, he said, was from those who want to tax "everything from shirts and shoes to bassinets and baby buggies."

Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola, who introduced the gas bill in the House, said it would bring in $1.06 from out of state for every $1 paid by Texans.

HANDS OFF — Governors of 28 other states have joined him, says Governor Daniel, in a fight against President Eisenhower's proposed 1 1/2-cent raise of the federal gasoline tax.

This tax field should be left to the states, the governor believes. Texas Highway Commission, he pointed out, is asking for a one cent raise in the state gasoline tax to help pay mounting road building bills.

Under the present federal aid formula, Daniel estimated that with a 1 1/2-cent federal increase, Texans would pay $137,000,000 more in gasoline taxes than would be returned to the state for highway building.

GRIST FOR THE SESSION — Most of the bills which will be stirring up the air in the next few weeks already are in the mills. Among them are these measures which would:

Provide for party registration by voters at the time they pay their poll taxes, by Rep. Jamie Clements of Crockett. Only persons registered as party members would be allowed to participate in primaries and conventions.

Raise teacher pay by approximately $800 a year, and lengthen school year to 190 days, by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. This follows recommendation of Hale-Aikin school study committee, of which Hale was vice chairman.

Make Arlington State College a four-year school, by Sens. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth and George Parkhouse of Dallas. Similar proposals were put forward for John Tarleton College of Stephenville and Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.

Allow legislators to set their own pay by a two-thirds record vote, a constitutional amendment by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo. Hardeman was a leader in the defeat of the last pay raise amendment.

Ban automobile selling on Sunday, by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney.

Have democratic executive committee members elected by direct primaries, rather than selected at the state convention, by Rep. Dewey.

Repeal the law requiring that a local vote be taken before a school can desegregate, by Rep. Don Glandden of Fort Worth.

The Security State Bank increased their Capital Stock from $35,000 to $50,000 the first part of this week. The increase was entirely by Stock Dividend, and no additional stock was sold.

The bank started with a capital stock of $15,000 and has been raised twice, once in 1919 from $15,000 to $25,000 and in 1929 from $25,000 to $35,000.

Deposits are now running higher than they ever have in the history of the bank, and resources are well over a million dollars. This capital stock increase will give the bank a better opportunity to serve the growing needs of the community.

BOY SCOUT WEEK, FEB. 7 TO 14

Boy Scout Week marking the 49th anniversary of the organization in America will be observed beginning Saturday, February 7, through Friday, February 13.

Boys and leaders arranged programs involving parents of Scouts, institutions sponsoring the units, and officials of numerous communities, large and small.

Boy Scout Week activities will show each community the value of Scouting as a program for boys and young men.

The final year of the Four-Year Program, "Onward for God and My Country," is launched during this anniversary.

Units who have successfully carried out activities in each of the three phases of our National Safety Good Turn of last year will be honored. These covered traffic, outdoor, and home safety.

Boy Scout Sunday will be observed this Sunday, February 8, in many churches with Scouts and leaders attending services in uniform. Those of Jewish faith will hold their observance in synagogues and temples tomorrow (Friday) evening and Saturday.

This anniversary stresses the "Scout is friendly" part of the Scout Law each member takes. There will be parents night meeting, unit reunions dinners recognizing new Eagle Scouts, exhibits of Scout handcraft, observances in school assemblies, courts of honor at which Scouts will be honored for their accomplishments, and visits by Scouts to industrial plants and military installations.

America faces a large increase in the number of boys 8 to 16 years of age during the next five years, says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

In a message to the nation's 536 local Boy Scout councils on the 49th anniversary of the organization to be observed during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, Dr. Schuck called for sound planning "predicated on an understanding and knowledge of the current situations as well as past growth and development."

He said today there are 3,617,000 Boy Scout members between the ages of 8 and 16.

In order to maintain the same ratio at the end of 1963, when there will be 16,963,000 boys of those ages, there should be 4,173,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers, Dr. Schuck said. To reach one-third would mean 5,648,000 boy members.

The Cub Scout program for boys 8, 9 and 10 years old is now reaching one of every three boys of those ages. Boy Scouting for ages 11 through 17 attracts one in every four of those ages, while Exploring for those 14 years old and in the ninth grade and through 17 reaches one of every nine.

Current total membership is above 4,780,000 boys and leaders. Since 1910, he added, more than 29,500,000 persons have been in the Boy Scouts of America.

"We must strive to make Scouting available to every boy in America," Dr. Schuck wrote.

"Looking ahead for the next five years," says the Chief Scout Executive, "we must recognize that never has it been so important or imperative that the youth of our nation be trained to high ideals, acquired through unselfish service, by self-reliance, and cooperative effort."

"They must understand and practice the basic principles on which our nation was founded and recognize that security is the fruit of freedom and that without freedom, there can be no security."

Dr. Schuck entered Scouting as a volunteer leader in 1913 and has been a professional leader since 1917. Scouting's ideals and objectives have remained constant since 1910 he said, "while the program, organization methods, and operating techniques have changed as the result of study and understanding of changing conditions and as necessary to meet the needs of a rapidly growing organization."

He said the greatest influence in Scouting's growth "has been the dedicated service of laymen willing to invest their time, their energy, and their money in the interest of training youth to do their duty to God and country and to preserve and strengthen our heritage and to develop a nation so that it may be spiritually, dynamically, and mentally strong and morally straight."

Calling camping the heart of the Scouting program, the Chief Scout Executive points out that current and anticipated growth would require additional camp sites and facilities. He warned that good camp sites are getting scarcer.

A SCOUT IS FRIENDLY

The fourth point of the Boy Scout Law reads, "A Scout is friendly. He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout."

Now, as the Boy Scouts of America celebrate their 49th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, let us see how this friendliness is fostered.

Friendships form readily in the Cub Scout pack, Boy Scout troop, and Explorer unit as their programs promote democratic ways of living together.

The weekly neighborhood den meetings of the Cub Scouts who are 8, 9, and 10 years old are full of fun as they take on the aspects of American history, geography, natural science, and safety.

At monthly pack meetings where they put on interesting demonstrations and program features, the Cub Scouts meet and know the parents of members of the other neighborhood dens.

The Boy Scouts, over 11, make friends as they form patrols in the troop, elect their own boy leaders, and plan their programs. These friendships are strengthened as they camp and hike together.

The new Exploring program for high-school age young men provides a series of social experiences that help Explorers increase their skill in working and living with others.

World Scouting today in 67 nations finds 7,589,183 enrolled. America's Scouts make friends with those of other lands at the world Scout jamborees usually held every four years. Several hundred American lads will camp together with about 12,000 others from all parts of the world at the Tenth World Jamboree in the Philippines next July 17 to 26.

Through the World Friendship Fund of voluntary contributions since 1944, Boy Scouts of America have helped less fortunate brother Scouts of other lands.

SCOUTING LOOKS AHEAD

Here, as well as elsewhere in America, Boy Scout Week will be observed February 7 to 13. It will mark the 49th anniversary of the organization that has touched the lives of more than 29,500,000 Americans since 1910. There is hardly an American family that has not felt its influence.

Today there are more than 4,780,000 boys and leaders playing the "game of Scouting." Although one of every four boys 8 to 16 years old is enrolled, leaders of the movement want to serve at least a majority of the boys in America.

The next five years will see a large increase in boys of those ages.

"Looking ahead for the next five years," says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, "we must recognize that never has it been so important or imperative that the youth of our nation be trained to high ideals, acquired through unselfish service, by self-reliance, and co-

INFLATION: NUMBER ONE ENEMY

Communism cannot conquer this nation. Inflation can.

The preservation of a strong economy in any country requires a constant vigilance on the part of the people against inflation. In our time we have seen the ravages of this economic disease in many countries throughout the world. It is now eating at the vitals of many nations. It has gained a foothold in this country, and unless it is checked, it could become the economic cancer that could disastrously soften us. Thus, we could become fair game for the Communists. We in our time have watched a number of countries that permitted inflation to go unchecked. In every instance an economic revolution was necessary and the result was a change in the form of government. Under the circumstances, we should at least recognize the fact that, unless we are willing to pay the price to check inflation, we, too, are running the risk of losing our form of government as we have known it. This is not intended to be an operative effort."

He says that although Scouting's ideals and objectives have remained constant since 1910, "the program, organization methods, and operating techniques have changed as the result of study and understanding of changing conditions and as necessary to meet the needs of a rapidly growing organization."

To bring Scouting to more of the boys who want it will require more trained leadership and more facilities including camps.

We are confident that the Boy Scouts of America will meet the challenge. Happy birthday, Boy Scouts!

alarmist statement, but it is simply for the purpose of facing up to the facts.

We heard our own President, in his recent State of the Union Message, speak of a balanced federal budget. This remark resulted in extended applause, as it should have. Everyone is for a balanced budget, but somehow it never seems to get balanced.

The question is, "what is going to be done about it?" We look at the estimates and figures of the Bureau of the Budget for the past several years and we see a claim that the budget for 1956 produced a surplus of 1.6 billions of dollars; that 1957 actually produced a surplus of 1.6 billions of dollars. It was estimated in that report that the 1958 fiscal operations would result in a deficit of 400 million dollars, and that 1959 would result in a surplus of 500 million dollars. Adding all of these figures and subtracting the deficits from the surplus claimed by the Administration, we find that we should have 3 billion 300 million dollars in extra cash. Yet, in 1958 the Administration came to the Congress and said we have no money, we must have additional authority to borrow money. At that time the debt ceiling was 275 billion dollars. The Congress, in response to the pleas of the Administration, authorized a temporary increase of the national debt to 288 billion dollars until June 30, 1959, and a permanent increase thereafter to the sum of 283 billion dollars. Now, according to one set of Administration figures, the country should be 3 billion 300 million dollars in the black on its operations since 1955; yet, by another set of figures it is necessary for the federal government to have borrowing authority of an additional 13 billion dollars until June 30, 1959, in order to meet its financial requirements. I have been unable to find out what happened to the 3.3 billion dollar surplus.

During this period of time between 1955 and the time that the authority to increase the public debt was allowed, we find that the American taxpayer was required to pay the sum of 1 billion 429 million dollars in additional interest charges for the same amount of money. The interest charges for the fiscal year 1955 amounted to 6 billion 428 million dollars. The interest charges for 1958, according to the Budget Bureau figures, were 7 billion 867 million dollars. This means that in 1955 the taxpayers were paying approximately 61-2 billions of dollars in interest each year for the use of approximately 275 billion dollars. Less than 3 years later, the American taxpayer was paying almost 8 billion dollars for this same amount of money, and this will increase next year. It occurred to me that if these folks are really serious about balancing the budget, the increased amount of interest that the taxpayers had to pay might make the difference between a balanced and unbalanced budget. Some people will argue that hard money and high interest rates operate to control inflationary trends. This may have been true a number of years ago, but the reverse is true today. Such a policy under our present economy is fuel for inflationary trends. The increase in the cost of money in Wall Street is reflected very quickly in the price of a product that you and I purchase in our daily living. This, of course, constitutes an increase in the cost of living index. The increase in the cost of living index, in turn, triggers the escalator provisions in wage contracts tied to the cost of living index. This increase in the wage requirements is soon reflected in the money market and the inflationary spiral continues onward and upward. The people who get hurt first are the old-age pensioners and those people who are living on small, fixed incomes, and who cannot absorb the increase in the cost of living. The others are those on small, earned incomes who do not operate under a cost of living escalator clause, and who are also unable to absorb the impact of the cost of living features. This illustration could go on and on until the entire government blows up, which is exactly what will happen if the inflation is not checked.

Of course, this does not mean that easy money and the issuance of more money by the government is the answer to inflation. It is not. It is one of the causes. The control of the medium of exchange of any country must be geared to the economy of that country. This requires the constant maintenance of a very delicate balance.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

REMEMBER . . .

Dates to remember are as follows:

1. Released of cotton allotments—April 17, 1959.
2. Determination of Choice A & B Plan—March 16, 1959.
3. File for New Growers Allotment—February 16, 1959.
4. Cotton Premeasurement—April 1, 1959.
5. Plow-up of excess wheat—May 10, 1959.

CHOICE "A" OR CHOICE "B"
The ASC County Committee and County Extension Agent plan to hold an informational meeting in the near future for the purpose of explaining important phases of the Choice "A" & "B" plan of allotments and price support applicable to cotton farms. If the farm operator elects the Choice (A) farm allotment and complies with it, his 1959 upland cotton crop will be eligible for price support at not less than 80 per cent of parity. If he elects and complies with the Choice (B) allotment—which is 40 per cent larger than Choice (A) his crop will be eligible for support at a level which is 15 per cent of parity less than Choice (A). The price support for cotton for the program year of 1959 are 30.40 for Choice "A" and 24.70 for Choice "B". The tentative plans are to hold two meetings, one at Hedley and one at Clarendon. Mr. Bredlove, our county agent, will conduct the meetings. Below are a list of questions that will be answered:

1. What effect on my farms future allotment will come about if I use Choice "B"?
2. Is there any penalty under the choice "B" plan? Under Choice "A"?
3. If I choose the "B" plan can I divert back to the "A" Plan?
4. Who makes the choice of either "A" or "B" when a landlord and tenant are involved on the same farm?
5. What is the method of price support under Choice "A"? Under Choice "B"?
6. What happens to my farm allotment if its underplanted on either the "A" or "B" plan?
7. If I have farms located in two different counties can I use choice "A" in one county and Choice "B" in the other?
8. Part of my cropland is under a conservation reserve contract, how does this effect my choosing either choice "A" or "B" plan?

You may have other questions to add to these so if you are a cotton producer for 1959, it will certainly be to your advantage to attend this meeting when the date is set.

RELEASE AND REAPPORTIONMENT OF COTTON — 1959
Any farmer who does not have a soil bank contract and who does not intend to plant all or part of his cotton allotment should release the acreage to the county committee for reappointment to farms where the acreage will be planted.

April 17, 1959 is the last date for releasing cotton acres that will not be planted. All such acreages should be released—even the small acres in and around towns. Be sure—if you are not going to plant your cot-

Deadline For Night School Enrollment Is Being Extended

The deadline for enrollment in the Adult Education Program for the second semester of the College's Night School Classes has been extended to the end of next week, due to weather conditions which prevented some prospective students from being present the only part of this week to enroll, according to Dean Abel, the director of the Adult Education Program.

Classes have materialized in Typing 123 and Typing 212, Secretarial Accounting 114 and 124; Business Law 223; Government 223 and History 223; and Art. However, any student wishing to enroll in any of them will be able to do so next week. Business Law and Accounting are the two courses which have the most openings for membership.

Mr. Abel also announces that two new courses in Music have been added to the Night School curriculum, taught by Mrs. Velma Weaver of the College Music Department and that anyone wishing to join those classes contact Mrs. Weaver personally. The Chemistry class taught by Mr. W. W. Cooper is continuing with the same enrollment it had the first semester but would be open to students who have had one or more years of high school chemistry or, who have had one semester of general chemistry in college and need to complete the full year of work.

Comets Lose To Flying Queens

The CJC Comets journeyed to Big Spring last Thursday night and met defeat at the hands of the Wayland College Flying Queens in a game sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce. Final score was 53 to 27.

As has been the case in every game played the Queens this year, the Comets played one half of good basketball. This time it was the first half in which the Comets held their own until the closing minutes of the half. With little more than a minute to go in the first half, the Queens were holding on to a slim 20 to 17 lead but rallied to leave the floor at halftime with a 26 to 17 advantage. The Comets could not hold the Queens during the last half.

Janice Martin was high scorer for the Comets with 13 points, followed by Myrlene Nichols with six, Nancy Challenor with four, Melva Kelson with two and Virginia Sellers and Gay Ivey with one each. Carla Lowry paced the Queens with 18 points.

The Comets will go to Wichita Falls Saturday night for a return game with the Sheppard Air Base team.

Bronchoetts And Bronchos Divide Games With McLean

The local high school basketball teams divided a pair of games with McLean here Tuesday night. The Bronchos beat the Tigers 67-55, and the McLean girls took the Bronchoetts in a 52 to 48 thriller.

The girls game was close all the way with never more than five points difference. Joan Bennett, one of the top girl scorers in the Panhandle, made 32 points in the losing cause. Laura Switzer, McLean's 6-2 forward, made 25 for the visitors.

The Bronchos had little trouble with the Tigers. They jumped into an early lead and were leading 24 to 6 early in the second quarter and were never in danger. Kenneth Housden paced the Clarendon team with 18 points.

The win placed the Bronchos record at 5-3 in conference play and left the girls' record at 3-5.

Abel and Benson Top Semester Honor Roll

Philip Abel, sophomore, and Judy Benson, freshmen, each compiled a scholastic average of 98 to top the first semester's honor roll from Clarendon High School, according to information released from Principal Kenneth Vaughan's office this week. Abel is taking five subjects and Miss Benson is taking six subjects.

Other high students include Bobby Longan, senior, 97; Carole Wood, senior, 96.2; Clayton Ferris, freshman, 96.4, and Oveta Garman, sophomore, 95.2.

Others on the semester's honor roll, all with an average of 90 or above include: seniors, Joan Bennett, Paula Johnson, Barbara Koontz, John Richerson, Linda Self and Pat Spurgeon. Juniors are Connie McMurtry, Sandra Pinkerton and Sharon Smith. Sophomores include Barbara Gambill, Bobby Hutton, Wilma Mann, Sherry Montgomery, Johnny Rattan, Martha Jo Risley, Howard Talley, Judy Thompson and Ronnie Tyra. Freshmen are Paula Adams, James Allen, Jerry Bones, Freddy Cooper, Jeanette Crutchfield, Jane Lowe, Gary Mahaffey, Marcie McMurtry, Andra Pinkerton, Herman Vinson and Charlene White.

JUNIOR COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

Graduating students of Clarendon Junior College are eligible to apply for scholarships to the University of Tulsa for the 1959-60 academic year.

Full and half-tuition awards will be made on the basis of the candidate's academic record, letters of recommendation from members of the junior college staff, and the candidate's performance on University administered tests. These tests, which may be taken at the applicant's own college by arrangement, must be completed and the application and letters of recommendations submitted by April 11, 1959.

The number of scholarships is unlimited. Further information and applications are available in the dean's office.

Some 280 junior colleges in 20 states are listed as eligible to participate in this program.

Bulldogs Blast South Plains College

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs remained undefeated in conference play here last Saturday night with a decisive 75 to 40 win over the hapless South Plains College team. This put the Bulldog record at five wins and no defeats in the conference and left the South Plains boys winless for the season.

The Bulldogs experienced little trouble with their friendly rivals from Levelland. They built up a 38 to 21 halftime lead and Coach Travis played his reserves most of the last half. Captain Bub Eldridge led the scorers with 19 points followed by reserve Max Whittington with 15, Alva Carter 11, Jack Buttram and Benny Lesley with eight each, Felix Johnson with nine, Loyd Stephens with three and H. D. Yarbrough with two. Jess Ballew was high for South Plains with 17.

POLL TAX TOTAL DROPS FOR DONLEY COUNTY

According to a report from the tax office, Donley County will have fewer qualified voters on the rolls than any time in recent years. Only 942 poll tax receipts were issued before the deadline last Saturday. This is approximately 300 under the usual off-year total.

This big drop could play an important factor in the passage or defeat of several important issues that probably will come up to be voted on this year.

FORMER LELIA LAKE RESIDENT DIES
