Parent - Faculty Conference To Meet December 8

All parents and everyone interested in our public schools are invited and urged to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Faculty Conference in the high school auditorium Tuesday night, December 8 at 7:30 p.m.

If attendance is indicative, it would seem our teachers are more interested in our children than are the parents, as teachers have outnumbered the parents at the past two meetings.

At the Nov. 10th meeting, the president gave a card and pencil to each one present, asking each to write any question or subject they would like to have discussed by the entire group, without signing their name. The participation was wonderful. Among some of the questions asked and discussed were:

"How can a national honor society be organized in our school?"; "Could we have a course in Drivers' Education in our school again now that the age to apply for drivers license has been raised to sixteen unless the student has had Drivers' Education?"; "How much home work should be assigned?"; "Have we too many outside activities sponsored by the school?"; "Do you want the Canteen for the students?";

These are just a few of the questions asked. What are some of the questions and ideas you would like to hear discussed?

Parents, all school board members, citizens who are interested in our school, are urged to be out and bring your questions and suggestions. Who knows, perhaps you have the question or suggestion that would lead to something very constructive.

Trade Day Event To Have Three Winners Saturday

Beginning with the first Saturday in December which will be this coming Saturday, a change in the Clarendon Trade Day event will be made with three winners to be announced instead of one.

This new set-up was brought about in order to give local residents more than one chance to win Trade Day Dollars. The first name drawn will receive $25 in Trade money, the second will receive $10 and the third $5.

This new change will give all those who attend a greater opportunity to win something instead of just drawing out one winner. Be sure to be present Saturday afternoon at 3:30 for you may be the lucky person.

The winner last week was B. R. Mears who drew a 5% ticket and received $40 in trade money. No participating merchant was listed on the ticket.

High School Honor Roll Announced

The honor roll for the second six weeks period has been announced for Clarendon High School by Principal Kenneth Vaughan. Twenty-eight students gained the honor this period which means that they maintained an average grade of 90 with no grade below 80. The list is composed of five seniors, eight juniors, seven sophomores and eight freshmen.

Top honors went to sophomore Judy Benson and freshman Marie Blackburn who tied with an overall average of 97 each for the six weeks. They were preceded by senior Sharon Smith with 96.2 and Shirley Mann with 96. Seniors include Gitti Hauck, Joyce Mills, Connie McMurry, Pat Owens and Sharon Smith; juniors are Philip Abel, Sarah Antrobus, Ometa Garman, Sherry Montgomery, Barbara Morrow, Martha Jo Risley, Eugene Smith and Judy Thompson; sophomores are Paula Adams, Judy Benson, Fredda Bourland, Clayton Ferris, Barbara Fletcher, Marcia McMurry and Jim Robinson; and freshmen are Marie Blackburn, Shirley Mann, Dwight McAnear, Sue Phelan, Danny Ray, Carol Spencer, Connie Williams and Sharon Williams.

The boys now have won one game and lost two while the girls have won two while losing only one. Probable starters for the boys will be W. N. Elam, Kenneth Housden, Philip Abel, Wayne Mann and Howard Talley. Other boys who will see action include Sandy Skelton, James Allen and probably Don Hudgins and Jerry Shields.

Bulldogs Take Opener Against Lamar, 48-47

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs opened their 1959-60 season with a narrow 48 to 47 win over Lamar, Colorado, College in a game played at Lamar on Nov. 23. The Bulldogs, playing their first season under Coach Roy Young, had to come from behind in the last half to win. The two teams left the court at halftime with Lamar holding a 31 to 20 edge.

In the opening minutes of the second half, Bobby Lesley, freshman from Hedley, started hitting and made four field goals and two free throws for ten points in less than eight minutes to put the Bulldogs back into the game. Alva Carter, big sophomore center from San Jon, New Mexico, led the Bulldog scoring with 13 points and left the game on fouls early in the second half. Lesley did all his scoring in the first eight minutes of the second half for 10 points. Others who dented the score column were Dee Blevins with seven points, John Alexander with six, Marvin Young with four and H. D. Yarbrough, Jimmy Humphreys, Oscar Bronniman and Felix Johnson with two each. Other players who saw action included Johnny Hudson and Carl Irlbeck. John Morrow made the trip but did not get into the game.

Coach Young was displeased especially with the boys' play in the first half but said that they played good ball the last half. The game was rough with 27 fouls being called against the Bulldogs and 17 against Lamar. Three of the Bulldogs, Carter Young and Blevins, all fouled out of the game. Felix Johnson suffered a sprained ankle but Coach Young said that he will be out only a few days.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

Rate of Charge — 1960 Premeasurement Service
The rate of charge for this service for the premeasurement of farm cotton allotment acreage is $10.00 per farm plus $4.00 for each plot over one. To get this service it is necessary that you file your application at this office Original and final dates for this service will be announced at some future date. The amount of charge must be deposited with the ASC office at the time an application is filed.

Re-Establishing Conservation Reserve Cover
Farmers who failed to get a stand of vegetative cover on Conservation Reserve land because of natural disaster are entitled to Government cost-sharing at a reduced rate in re-establishing the cover. Mr. Cooke of the Donley Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office said today. Regulations provide, Mr. Cooke said, that in such a case the cover must have failed or deteriorated as a result of flood, drought, hurricane or other natural disaster to the extent that it will not provide adequate soil protection. The rate of cost-sharing for repeat, re-establishment, or restoration measures may not exceed 50 per cent of the regular cost-share rate for the practice.

1960 Planting Affects
How recent legislation affects the determination of farm cotton allotments for future years was explained today by the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. For 1961 and future years, according to the Committee, the new law requires that, in determining farm cotton allotments, the farm cotton allotment for the preceding year shall be used as the "base" if at least 75 per cent of the farm allotment for that year was planted to cotton or regarded as planted to cotton. Therefore, the acreage planted to cotton or regarded as planted to a farm for 1960 must be at least 75 per cent of the regular (Choice A) farm allotment to preserve the entire allotment as a base for 1961.

Acreage may be "regarded as planted to cotton" if it was included in the previous year's Conservation Reserve or the Great Plains Program, if the allotment acreage was released to the County ASC Committee for reappropriation to other farms, or if the county committee determines that planting was prevented by a natural disaster or illness of a farm operator or producer.

If at least 75 per cent of the previous year's regular farm allotment was not planted (or regarded as planted) to cotton, the base in determining future farm allotments will be reduced to the average of: (1) the regular allotment for that year, and (2) the acreage planted or regarded as planted in that year.

Farmers releasing cotton allotment acreages may not designate the farm to which the county ASC committee reappropriates the acreage. Present law, does not authorize a farmer to sell or lease a cotton allotment to another farmer.

Cotton Referendum
On Tuesday, Dec. 15, cotton farmers will vote in a national referendum to determine whether marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1960 cotton crop. At least two-thirds of those voting must approve quotas if they are to be in effect. If quotas are disapproved, 1960 cotton acreage allotments will remain in effect as a condition of eligibility for price support.

The Leader makes a good Christmas Gift.

This will be the first game for all the girls. The girls working for a place on the team are Dorothy Richey, Lynn Bourland, Regina Borden, Marie Mills, Marilyn Noble, Kathryn Noble, Charlene Gray, Suzan Huff, Ann Allen, Betty Dever, Janice Cormer, Carolyn Graham, Karen Hill and Connie Phillips.

Bulldogs, Midwestern Clash Saturday Night

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs will open their 1959-60 home basketball schedule Saturday night when the Midwestern University "B" team invades the local gym. Game time is scheduled for 8:00 o'clock.

The Bulldogs will play their second game of the season to-night when they meet the Wayland College Freshmen at Plainview. Their first game was against Lamar, Colorado, College on Nov. 23 at Lamar, Colo. They won the first game by the slim margin of 48 to 47.

Coach Roy Young is expecting a hard game from the Midwestern University team. Midwestern usually has one of the stronger college teams in this area and their "B" team is generally not far behind their regulars.

Young has indicated that he will probably start Alva Carter, H. D. Yarbrough, Marvin Young, Benny Lesley and Oscar Bronniman. Felix Johnson has been starting but injured an ankle in the Lamar game and may not be ready. In the event that Johnson is ready to play he will probably replace Bronniman. Other boys who are sure to see action include John Alexander, Dee Blevins, Johnny Hudson and Jimmy Humphreys.

Gene Floyd Chosen Gold Star 4-H'er

Gene Floyd of Hedley, Texas, has been chosen the gold star 4-H Club boy from Donley County for 1959. Gene has been in 4-H Club work for the past five years and is now in his sixth year. He is president of the Donley County 4-H Club.

Genes project in 4-H Club work has been feeding beef steers and he has been very successful in his feeding projects. In addition to his steer feeding project he now has started a registered Hereford breeding program. He recently bought a registered Hereford cow and heifer calf and is starting a registered herd of his own.

County Agent H. M. Breedlove and Gene will attend a banquet at Amarillo on the 12th of December for gold star 4-H Club members. This is the first year that such a banquet has been planned, but it will be an annual event each year.

Gold star 4-H Club members are picked for length of membership in club work and must be fourteen years of age. Gene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Floyd of Hedley, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd and Breedlove's wife will all attend the banquet, also.

Plans For Bull Sale Progressing

The Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association bull sale is coming along in good shape says County Agent H. M. Breedlove, who is secretary of the organization. All committees appointed by W. H. Cooke, III, president of the association, have functioned perfectly and at the present time the sale ring is all set up in the fair building at Clarendon, Texas, and seating capacity for four hundred has been completed.

The sale will take place on the eighteenth of December at one p.m. at the fair building here with Col. Walter Britten of College Station, Texas, selling the bulls. There are twenty-nine Hereford bulls, twenty-five Angus and twelve Galloway bulls in the sale. The bulls will be classified for sale order on the seventeenth of December with Jack Roach of Amarillo, Texas, and Bill Stockstill of Pampa, Texas, placing the bulls for sale order.

Breedlove says that bulls will start to come in for the sale around the sixteenth of December, so most prospective bull buyers can come by the barn on the seventeenth and see the bulls classified for sale and get an early look at the bulls.

Services Held Wed. For Lee Satterwhite

Funeral services for Lee Satterwhite, former speaker of the Texas House and father of Leroy Satterwhite of Clarendon, were held Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church at Panhandle.

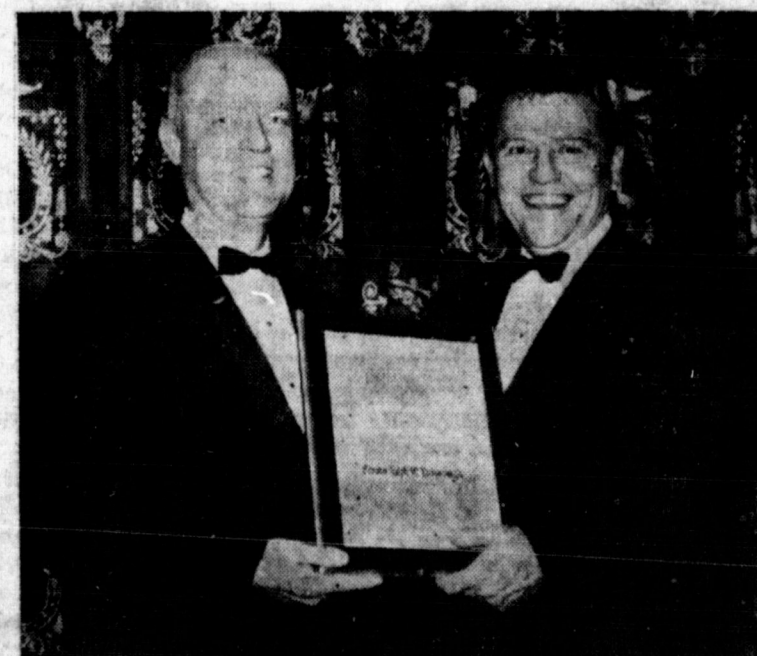

Satterwhite, 88, died Sunday in Veterans Administration Hospital in Houston. Mr. Satterwhite purchased the Panhandle Herald and published it for several years before leaving the Panhandle in 1927. He was a charter member of the Panhandle Press Association, serving as president in 1918.

After leaving the Panhandle, Mr. Satterwhite moved to Odessa in 1927, to Austin in 1932 and to Houston in 1947 when he retired. Survivors include a son, Leroy Satterwhite of Clarendon; two daughters, Mrs. Norris Causey of Houston, and Mrs. Jim Sanders of Austin; a sister and four brothers.

LUCKY LI'L TIGER—Kim Son Pak, 11, hopes he'll be one of the two lucky Korean newsboys to win a free trip to the U.S. under the joint sponsorship of the U.S. Army, Pacific, and the American-Korean Foundation. Called "Li'l Tigers," the boys, numbering some 250 and many of them orphans, sell the serviceman's newspaper Stars and Stripes from the port of Pusan in South Korea to the soldiers in bunkers and foxholes facing Communist troops along the demilitarized zone in the north. Soldiers are busy casting ballots for their favorites on the basis of personality, initiative, courtesy, dependability and salesmanship. The winning pair will arrive early next month to visit Honolulu, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Washington and New York.

U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough (right) receives a national award from the National Association and Council of Business Schools for "distinguished service in advancement of education." Senator Yarborough was co-author of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 and authored a bill this year to extend educational benefits to Cold War veterans. Charles E. Palmer, outgoing president of the NACBS, presented the plaque at the organization's 47th annual convention in Chicago.

Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight, of which I am a Member resulted in a considerable amount of mail to my office from all over the country. I received correspondence from 29 states, and it would be a close race as to whether California or New York expressed themselves the most. The substance of the correspondence varied to such a degree, I thought you might be interested in some of the reactions throughout the U.S. which were addressed to me. Many of the people who wrote offered helpful suggestions and observations. Some of the correspondents were obviously not aware of the legislative purposes which prompted the hearings. As usual, the most thoughtful and studied comments which came to me on the subject were from Texas and specifically from the 18th Congressional District.

Most of the writers expressed a real concern that a regulatory agency of the government had allowed a situation to develop whereby frauds were perpetrated on a public medium belonging to all the people. The expressions varied all the way from one man who advocated my candidacy for the presidency to those who think I am a despicable conniver.

With the thought you might find them of interest, here are excerpts from some of the correspondence:

"The TV quiz scandals have exposed a shabby situation and I, for one, do not go along with the 'so what' attitude of some smart and cynical people. TV ought to be more than an opportunity for a lot of crummy little chislers and petty swindlers to make a dishonest dollar. I hope that Congress will enact some legislation that will restore TV as a medium of entertainment, information and education. Mere legislation against the fakers and cheaters will not do the public or TV much good." — Va.

"Why all the fuss about the TV quiz shows? The contestants won money, and the viewers were highly entertained, so why the hub-bub?" — Calif.

"In my opinion, QUIZ TV SHOWS are the very best on TV. Reason: They are interesting and entertaining, and at the same time informative and instructive, in good taste, and you see new faces (amateurs) not just the same performer singing another song or acting silly. How they are produced is not important." — Calif.

"PS. Forgot to say why do they put a good show like on after 11? Working men can't take it staying up so late, if you can't help, can you tell me some one who can?" — Fla.

"I do not approve of the cheating methods used by the quiz programs, but not too strenuously — after all, it was entertainment and most entertainment is all, or part, legerdemain and it harms no one but the idol himself. But false advertising is another matter — that affects everyone! In past years I have been the victim of so much 'sucker' advertising that I am fast becoming the world's biggest cynic. I don't believe anything I see or hear, anymore. I am always looking for the 'catch' in everything, no matter how sincere it appears. Some one removed the white coats from the quack doctors in medical commercials, now please remove the quackery from ALL advertising." — W. Va.

"These people . . . have given me many happy hours of entertainment, and many hours of beautiful dreams, also the wonderful knowledge that this — is or was? — a land where miracles could happen to anyone. Is it any of your business that they cribbed? Can you say that you never did? I can't, and I was the brightest pupil in my school." — Mich.

"As a college teacher I schedule my television very closely, but from time to time I will flip the dial to see if there may be something of value coming over the airwaves. Most heartily I applaud your efforts and the aims of your committee on Legislative Oversight to clear out the quiz 'fixes' which have had a bad enough effect on our youth and adult population." — N.J.

"Ben Hur" by Lew Wallace has been made into a motion picture again. We have the book in the library and if you would also like to know something about Lew Wallace there is a long article about him in the November 16th issue of "Life" magazine.

The "Book of the Month Club" may have been responsible for John Hersey's "The War Lover" being in 2nd place on the best seller list so soon after the book was put on the market but it will probably stay there a long time because author Hersey is a brilliant writer and has proved it over and over again with each book he has written since his Pulitzer prize winning "A Bell for Adano" way back in 1946. One reviewer said that this may well be the anti-war novel of our generation. Although only a little over twelve hours pass from the beginning to the end of the book Mr. Hersey, by using flash backs, takes you a way back into the lives of his characters.

"The Devil's Advocate" by Morris L. West is an engrossing story of the lives of the many people, Blaise Meredith meets, and because he is investigating the life of a man who is a candidate for sainthood he gets to know these people intimately as each one is involved in some way with the man who may become a saint. In the forward, and don't miss reading this before, afterwards or both, Peter Drucker says, "This is a very serious book but also a very witty, in places even funny one. It is the work of a trained and disciplined mind; but it is above all a labor of love."

For those of you who like your new books thoroughly reviewed there are some good ones available; the Amarillo and Fort Worth Sunday papers, "Time," "Cosmopolitan," and "News Week" magazines to name a few.

I know all of you join me again in thanking the generous library friends who are making it possible to have new books all along. We do thank each and every one of you!

FACT AND OPINION

Columnist Victor Riesel quotes Vice President Nixon as saying, in an interview: "If more and more Soviet citizens could see for themselves the real status of the free American worker — or, at least, hear and read about it — if only we can find ways greatly to expand the free exchange of ideas and information and direct person - to - person contact, I think the effect would be devastating: Communist theory and Communist propaganda simply do not square with the facts of life. And I am convinced that these facts cannot be suppressed forever: No Iron Curtain is proof, over the long run, against the explosive force of the very concept of freedom, or against the economic success-story of freedom-in-action."

About 1870, Frank Meana, a Cheyenne saddlemaker, made a saddle with a leather flange extending over the cantleboard, to the rear, which became known as a "Cheyenne roll."

While children pass from twelve to twenty.
 The following quotation is attributed to Mark Twain; "When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant that I could hardly stand to have the old man around — when I got to twenty-one I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in just seven years."
 Most of us can remember when we felt that our parents were sort of representative of the ancient ages. We could not imagine their being able to cope with our modern day problems. Later, we found that even though our problems might be a bit different that the same old tried and true solution would be about the same in any age. Then, like Mr. Twain, we would begin to appreciate the things our parents could explain to us.
 Also, if we will try real hard we can remember the age when we wanted to kind of "grow-up." We wanted, like the little bird, to stretch our wings a bit and see if we too, could really fly. Pretty soon, we like the little bird, wanted the security and protection of the firmness of the nest again.

 Yes, it takes a lot of patience to be a good parent but it's worth it. It takes lots of understanding and remembering how we felt, but this will also pay off. Then, we believe that children appreciate firmness if it is well seasoned with love. Without love all the rules will fail.
 A Good Example is just about the most crying need of our children today. To be able to look to father and mother for a living lesson in the right way to live in these trying times.
 We think of the words that go something like this "What you do speaks so loud that I can't hear what you say." It doesn't help much just to send our children off to Sunday School and church and not go along for an example.
 Not long ago we heard a preacher say that every daughter needed to hear her mother read from the Bible, not just to hear the teacher in Sunday School. That each son should hear his father pray unto the Heavenly Father; that it would not be enough that he had heard the minister pray at church.
 It's hard to point the way to a little fellow, but it would be easy to take him by the hand and lead him along the way. It might be hard to mention all the pitfalls along the way which he should not fall into, but it would be easy to ask the little follower to walk along the way of life with you.
 It's better to follow one good example than to be guilty of setting a dozen bad ones.
 It would be hard to follow a drawing of the path over a high mountain or through the woods. But when like our forefathers who blazed the trail with their axes, we leave a mark that is worthwhile and can be easily seen then we have helped others along life's way.
 For a long time we have wanted to visit with the folks of the Chamberlain Community in Donley County. Our opportunity came last week when Mrs. Alton Webb invited us to attend their special Thanksgiving meeting. Rural neighborhoods which have kept alive their community spirit and get-togetherness are one of our favorites. Thanks Mrs. Webb and all the other folks for a good Thanksgiving meal and a good time.

 Here in this little cotton farming community southeast of Clarendon just a few miles, some 23 families have banded together to keep their little unit of a neighborhood knitted together by meeting twice each month for a time of working, eating, or just playing together. On one wall they have numerous citations and ribbons which they have won in the Rural Neighborhood Contest, but contest or not they are determined to keep alive the community spirit.
 Some years ago with the schoolhouse already disposed of and the teacherage not available these enterprising folks pooled their efforts and money and secured a vacant farm home, a bit of ground and with busy hands converted it into a friendly

GEORGE'S WIFE
 By "Sarah"

Several years ago we were in a position to look forward to, and make ready for the 1st of December. That date would bring an avalanche of TOM's and BTO's from all around the country to hunt quail. We fed them breakfast, filled their thermos bottles with coffee, packed their lunch and wished them lots of luck.

 All this has changed now, since we've moved out with the birds and the bees. The Benson farms have provided excellent cover for both dove and quail these past two years. Although ours is none of that type farming, we do have the grain and water in abundance.
 From the time the young start following the mama bird until they are a full grown covey, we watch them eat, drink and cut capers just outside our window. If we forget to watch, before long that mournful call all but raises the roof. It truly is a sight to behold.
 As much as we would like to invite our far-off friends to come hunt this year, we think we will just play dumb and maybe they'll go away. Especially the highway type hunters.

 George says he's so tired after gathering this crop that he thinks he'll just try to entice the pets into the kitchen this year and save all that walking.

TAKE SOIL TESTS NOW FOR HIGHER PROFIT

College Station — Higher farm income in 1960 can result from soil tests made this fall or winter. Properly taken soil samples, says Extension Soil Chemist W. F. Bennett, can provide information about the plant food nutrients needed for high-income, low-cost yields in 1960.

Fall is an ideal time for soil testing because the soil laboratories are usually not rushed and recommended grades of fertilizer are readily available.

Too, soils are usually in good condition for sampling at this time of the year. By getting soil test results early, Bennett says the winter months can be used for planning next year's fertilizer and cropping programs. The advanced planning, he adds, can mean the difference between a successful fertilizer program or none at all.

Bennett suggests a visit with the local county agent if additional information is needed on soil sampling. Local county agents can supply detailed printed information on how to take soil samples and boxes for mailing the samples.

The soil chemist points out that the laboratory results can be no better than the sample from which they were obtained. Therefore, he adds, samples must be properly taken to be representative of the area and the information sheet which accompanies the soil sample must be correctly and completely filled out. This information is used by the chemist along with the results of laboratory tests to make the fertilizer use recommendations for the farm.

It is Bennetts belief that information gained from soil testing can make farming more profitable by taking the guess out of fertilizer use.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION
Columbus, Wis., Republican:

"The big laugh of the week should be labeled the House passage of a bill approving an additional 1c tax on gasoline so that the federal road construction program may go on. The 'big catch comes in that the 1c tax is supposed to be in force for only 22 months, beginning with this September 1.

"Most of us have been around this world enough to know the 'folly' of any tax put on by the Federal government getting so 'light' a treatment, even if so stipulated."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION
Elkton, Maryland, Cecil Whig:

"President Eisenhower has campaigned for economy in Government in spite of almost overwhelming pressure from Capital Hill . . .

"Many thinking citizens across the nation have seen the wisdom in the President's program. Despite political attachments, they have rallied to the cause of Government economy."

The highly-maneuverable and mobile self-propelled weapon is capable of being transported in either heavy assault gliders or cargo aircraft. Its light weight of under eight tons enables it to traverse muddy or marshy terrain, snow or sand and also permits it to be air-dropped. 1928 BOOK CLUB MET DECEMBER 1

Mrs. C. E. Bairfield and Mrs. Nelson Seago were hostesses Tuesday afternoon, December 1, for the regular meeting of the Book Club. As members and guests arrived at Patching Club House, they were served coconut cake, mints, hot coffee and tea.

Miss Inez Blankenship led in the reading of the Club Collect.

During the business session, Mrs. Bill Thornberry suggested the Club consider having a new sign made for the City Library or have the present sign repainted. The suggestion was left for consideration. Members are to bring books to the December 15 meeting as a gift offering for the library. This is in addition to the annual money gift.

It was voted to send a small money donation for TV repairs along with the Christmas box to the state hospital in Wichita Falls.

There is to be a gift exchange at our next meeting and each member is expected to bring a gift.

Mrs. J. R. Porter as program leader introduced Miss Eudora Hawkins, Field Representative for West Texas Utilities in Abilene, who gave a very interesting and inspirational Bible program. Miss Hawkins stressed the fact that to be a cultured person it was necessary to know the Bible. She gave a short summary of the lives of three women of the Old Testament. First, there was the story of Esther whom God used to save a whole race from extermination; second, Rahab, the recipient of God's love and grace even though she was a very sinful woman; third, Ruth, who customizes fidelity to her chosen people and to their God. In conclusion Miss Hawkins showed a very timely film of a story that never grows old — "The Child of Bethlehem" which portrayed the birth and early life of Christ.

Other members present were Mesdames E. S. Ballew, Loyd Johnson, Frank White, Jr., Homer Bones, C. R. Brown, W. E. Ray, L. N. Cox, W. M. Crain, J. R. Gillham, Otis Naylor, and an ex-member, Mrs. Charles Lowry. — Rep.

The 1919 Study Club observed its 40th Anniversary Nov. 18th with a luncheon and open house in the bank committee room. Guests were past members of the club.

Mrs. Roy Jewell, Club President, registered guests from a table with an arrangement of lovely pink carnations presented by a former member, Minnie Ferebee Key, of Carlsbad, N.M. The Anniversary motif was carried out on the buffet table which was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of daisy mums set on a wide strip of green ribbon which ended with miniature white and silver "40th's". All appointments were silver and crystal.

Mrs. Joe Miller poured coffee from a silver coffee service. After a warm welcome from Mrs. Roy Jewell and the invocation by Mrs. Frank Kendall, guests and members were served a delicious course consisting of creamed turkey on toast, blueberry muffins, creamed asparagus, relishes, congealed salad and cake squares and coffee. Acting hostesses were Mesdames W. H. Moffitt, W. H. Moreman, R. W. Scales, Joe Miller.

After lunch guests and members visited. Several letters and cards were read from former members unable to attend. Mrs. G. E. Kinslow read two original poems, "Remember?" and "Memories." Mrs. Mary Harris gave the history of the club.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — First of the 1960 political headquarters signs will be up before the Christmas lights.
An executive committee, formed to steer the Johnson - for - President drive, is opening a state headquarters in downtown Austin. Goal of the state office is to add to the 60 or more county clubs for Johnson and eventually to expand into a national operation.
With two exceptions, the state's top Democratic brass is on the committee. Gov. Price Daniel and Speaker Sam Rayburn are honorary co-chairmen. Plans were announced by Ed Connally, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and Byron Skelton, national committeeman.

Not on the committee are the state's junior senator, Ralph Yarborough, and national committeewoman, Mrs. R. D. Randolph. Both, long identified with the party's liberal wing, have hedged questions on their presidential preferences.
TIGHT SCHEDULE — A possible time table for filling the three vacancies in the Legislature was set up by Atty. Gen. Will Wilson when Governor Daniel asked him for an opinion on the election law.
Forty days would be needed between the time the election is called and the time the new officials could take office, according to Wilson. This allows a required 35 days between the call and election day, two days for Commissioners Courts to canvass the votes and three days for county judges to certify the results to the secretary of state.
Law does not require that all the seats be filled in order to have a session, Wilson commented.

But he said he felt it would be "especially desirable if more taxes are to be voted because of the old American principle of no taxation without representation."
Governor Daniel has discussed calling a special session in January to raise money for teacher salary increases.

INSURANCE PLAN DEBATED
—Impact of a big change in auto insurance rates, due to take effect Jan. 1, is a prime discussion topic among insurance circles as well as the motoring public.
Under the merit plan, drivers with no record of accidents or moving traffic violations for three years get a reduced rate. Others pay on a sliding scale up to double the usual rate, depending on the number and seriousness of their accidents and violations.
Opinions on the plan vary widely. Among them:
(1) It will make drivers more careful.
(2) It will make clear to the driving public the direct relationship between accidents and cost of insurance.
(3) It will cause "bad" drivers to drop their insurance.
(4) It will result in more hassles over who was to blame for an accident. (Only the driver held responsible gets his insurance hiked.)
(5) It will flood the courts with contests over traffic tickets.
(6) It will be declared illegal because of the "double jeopardy" principle. Some lawyers reason that the driver is punished for his violation once when he pays a fine and cannot be punished again with higher insurance rates.
Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas recently predicted that merit rating would result in such an overflow of traffic cases that new courts would have to be created and new buildings to house them.
Others have complained that traffic laws and their enforcement are not uniform and that some drivers — victims of speed traps, for example — will be penalized. Answer to this, says Insurance Board Chairman Penn J. Jackson, is to work out the wrinkles in law enforcement.
Insurance agents, in meetings and conferences over the state, are boning up on the new procedures, planning how to explain them to their customers.
Although the rules apply after Jan. 1, present policyholders will not be affected until their contracts run out sometime next year.

commended to the committee by O. B. Ellis, director of the prison system. For example, Ellis said prison-made bricks would cost the state much less than those it now buys. Also, he said prisoners could do the re-binding of school textbooks at a saving of about $300,000 a year.
Possibility of cutting back the farm-to-market road program was explored by the committee. State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer made no recommendation, but said the state is now spending 78,000,000 a year on building and upkeep of rural roads.
Under the Colson-Briseoe Act of 1949, $15,000,000 a year is automatically appropriated to build rural roads. None of this can be used for repair which must be paid out of other highway department funds.
Rural road program has exceeded its 1949 goal which was to build 25,000 miles. There now are 31,000 miles.
Board of Control could cut costs by combining its Austin warehousing operations, the board's executive director told the committee.

J. EDGAR HOOVER SAYS:
"A valuable ally in the fight against crime, the news media of the Nation can afford further public service in focusing the spotlight of public opinion on those members of the judiciary who, in the face of the present crisis, persist in endangering the public by unleashing young terrorists apprehended at great risk by law enforcement officers. "Parents who, through bad example, indifference, or lust for worldly gain, inflict upon their fellow men the scourge of vicious offspring deserve to feel the sting of public indignation and to face legal and financial responsibility for the criminal acts of their children. "At this time, when the increase in youthful crimes constitutes the bulk of the shameful rise in our national crime, serious consideration should be given to lowering the age distinction between a juvenile and an adult violator. We are dealing with vicious young criminals, and they should be treated as such.

destruction lies in the establishment of juvenile discipline. Assuredly, this is the responsibility of every individual interested in his own safety and the welfare of his country."

1959 USDA YEARBOOK PUBLISHED

College Station — Do you want to learn how to eat better but cheaper? Knowledge about weight control, food energy, vitamins, proteins and calories are some of the many topics thoroughly discussed in the 1959 Yearbook of Agriculture—Food.

It is the latest in the series of annual volumes that have been printed for 110 years. Its 65 chapters and 736 pages tell much of what 72 nutrition experts in the USDA, other Federal agencies, and 12 colleges know about all phases of nutrition.

An extensive table that lists calories, vitamins, water, etc., in the common foods will be useful to many readers. With it are tables of recommended allowances for various age groups and trends in heights and weights, a guide to eatign, and meal plans and menus.

Other chapters discuss grades of meat, eggs, and fish; freezing, canning, storing and preparing food at home; food plans at different costs, changes in U.S. diets, learning and teaching good eating habits, school lunches, and our future food supplies and needs.

It has 36 pages of simple recipes that further the book's main theme — for good health, eat some of the basic foods every day. Fourteen pages give questions (with answers) that many people have asked about food. One section spells out the nutritional needs of expectant and nursing mothers, infants, teen agers, and young adults, and people over 25.

Food takes its place beside many Yearbooks of Agriculture that have become best sellers and citation-winners here and overseas. Among them are Land (1958), Soil (1957), Water (1955), and Plant Diseases (1953), which the Russians translated and printed in Moscow.

Copies can be bought at $2.25 each from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D.C.

The term "nester," for a range settler, originated when the homesteader cleared a patch of brush and stacked it in a circular form to protect his feed patch from range cattle. It looked like a giant bird's nest.

Postmaster Urges Early Christmas Mailing This Year

Postmaster Ray Moore this week announced his annual "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, and outlined plans for insuring delivery of all Christmas gifts and cards by Christmas Eve.

"Public cooperation," he said, "has been a key factor in moving Christmas mail on time in recent years, and I am hopeful that it will be even better this year."

The Postmaster urged patrons of the Clarendon, Texas, Post Office to start mailing Christmas packages now. Packages to distant places especially should be mailed as early as possible.

"This is also the week to prepare and mail your out-of-town Christmas cards," he said.

Mr. Moore gave these pointers on the proper mailing of packages. "Use sturdy corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy brown wrapping paper, and be sure that every package is tied with a strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

"If your article is of unusual size or bulk, check with the post office because there are restrictions on size and weight.

"It is also important to make sure that your package bears the correct mailing address and your return address. If you are sending your package to a large city be sure to include the address-see's zone number. Including the zone number in the address always will facilitate delivery in large cities. Zone numbers also should be used on Christmas cards and other mail to cities with postal zones.

"The address should be on the top of the package, and it should be carefully written or lettered. A piece of transparent cellophane tape placed over the address will usually prevent defacing in transit." It is also a good idea," Mr. Moore said, "to include the address inside the package in case the outside address should become defaced.

"If you use Christmas stickers or seals, place them where they will not conflict with the address. Then, before you drop the package in the mail, be sure you have firmly affixed the proper postage."

The Postmaster reminded that the entire Christmas mailing period is primarily a battle against time. A delay now will contribute to a serious pile-up, particularly in the larger post offices, as the holiday approaches.

All packages going to distant cities should be in the post office by December 10. Other mail should be sent on its way as soon as possible, and all local mail should be in the post office no more than a week or ten days later. This kind of cooperation would mean that all Christmas mail would be delivered on or before Christmas Eve, the Postmaster explained.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Moore and children visited through the Thanksgiving holidays with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Benny and children, at Espanola, N.M.

Basketball Teams Divide With Estelline

The high school basketball teams journeyed to Estelline Tuesday night and divided a pair of games with the Estelline teams. The local girls took their third win in four games this season with a sound 39 to 19 win over the Estelline girls, but the Bronchos had troubles again and suffered their third defeat of the young season with a 43 to 34 setback at the hands of the Bear Cubs.

The game was never in doubt after the first quarter. Clarendon took a 12 to 9 first quarter lead and increased it to 21 to 13 at the half and 34 to 17 at the third quarter.

The boys game was a rough and tumble affair which saw the Bronchos miss repeated shots. Estelline took a 13 to 1 first quarter lead and held on for leads of 21 to 10 at the half and 29 to 19 at the third quarter. At one time in the fourth quarter the Bronchos pulled to within four points of the Bear Cubs but couldn't keep the pace and fell back to the nine point defeat. The Bronchos won their first game of the season by turning back the Claude boys by a score of 52 to 46 while the girls lost their first game of the season by dropping a 58 to 43 decision.

Paula Adams led the local girls scoring with 17 points followed by Alice Johnson with 14 and Marie Richey with 10. Miss Ransom hit for 32 points for Claude to lead all scorers. Claude took an early lead and was never behind after the middle of the first quarter. They had leads of 15 to 10 at the first quarter, 32 to 23 at halftime and 47 to 30 at the end of the third quarter.

The Bronchos showed great improvement in taking their first win of the young season. W. N. Elam and Kenneth Housden each had 12 points while Wayne Mann and James Allen each scored 10. Phillip Abel and Howard Talley rounded out the scoring with four points each. The Bronchos led all the way, taking a 12 to 8 first quarter lead and increasing it to 22 to 15 at the half and 38 to 30 at the three-quarter mark.

Meanwhile, Mass is offered each Sunday in the drafty old building heated by four open gas heaters. Windows have been covered with cardboard or stuffed with rags until money can be obtained to replace them. The building was cleaned of collected debris by volunteer workers. The first Mass was offered there on November 15 by Father Batholomew Besteri, pastor of St. Mary's parish, Clarendon, under which the mission is conducted.

FACT AND OPINION
An article in Today's Health says that organized gun safety instruction, on an extra-curricular basis, is now given in 10 states and dozens of individual school districts. Classes consist mainly of eight hours of classroom instruction along with four hours of field training on a target. Points stressed: Treat every gun as if it were a loaded gun; keep the muzzle pointed in a safe direction; always keep the action open except when ready to fire; be sure of your backstop; be sure of your target; never mix alcohol and gunpowder; never hunt with persons in front or back of you; know your gun and ammunition.
