Pathfinder Club met at Patchpresident, who welcomed mem-Beaux Arts Club. Club members and guests.

Mrs. C. T. McMurtry led a discussion in regards to a dinner to be served February 12 at the Club House. The Club House Board has asked each club member to prepare and serve at the dinner. Money derived from the dinner will be used in maintaining the Patching Memorial Club House which is an asset to the City of Clarendon.

Mrs. Heckle Stark presented the guest speaker, Rev. Owen Mc-Garity, Jr., pastor of the Clarendon and Memphis Presbyterian Churches. His subject was "The Life of a Minister." Rev. Mc-Garity made many interesting comments concerning his personal and community life as a minister.

During the social hour, guests were served from a table covered with a green cleth and an attractive centerpiece. Mrs. Frank White, Jr., presided at the silver service while Mrs. Heckle Stark served cake.

About thirty members and guests were present.

Mrs. Pete Kunz served as hostess and was assisted by Mrs. H. T. Burton and Mrs. Walter
