Tecumseh Topics By Lillian Crawford

The Christmas holidays have been very nice, with such mild weather and clear skies.

Many families were visiting or had visitors in their homes to enjoy Christmas together, built the sad part is also noticed when we hear of so many deaths. Sympathy goes out to the George Allen children in the loss of their father, a friend to many, and loved by everyone.

George Allen has lived alone for several years except when sick and some of the children would stay with him. He wanted way to handle introduced past-ure grasses in this area? Jeepers! Im still in a whir from so much Christmas activi-ties going on. Strange that I hardly have any news to tell either. I might say I surprised myself when I relized what a good girl I had been throughout the year. Least ole Santa was extra nice to me this year, so I guess that means I was good. I hardly know who was home for Christmas but I did get a glimpse of Hal McWhorter I guess that meant his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd McWhorter were home visiting from so much Christmas activi-
