TERRY FLOYD, Donley County Home Extension Agent, with Bernina sewing machine won by local 4-H for most increase in participation.

Donley 4-H'ers receive Bernina Sewing Machine

"Flashes of Fashion" brightened the stage of the University Center Theater at Texas Tech University Wednesday night, July 10, as 56 top young seamstresses and tailors from across the state competed in the 1985 4-H Fashion Show.

Top awards in four categories of clothing went to Sandi Dillingham, 16, of Lubbock County, active sportswear; Donna Smith, 17, of Lamb County, tailored daywear; Debra Sue Palitz, 17, of Wilson County, non-tailored daywear; and Deana Lane, 18 of Sherman County, evening and specialty wear.

Runners-up in each category were Stuart Scarborough, 16, of Montgomery County, active sportswear; Lisa Long, 16, of Wise County, tailored daywear; Kendra Cook, 16, of Tom Green County, non-tailored daywear; and Lisa Lewis, 17 of Caldwell County, evening and specialty wear.

Each first place winner received a $300 scholarship from Cloth World, Inc., and a set of scissors from the White Sewing Machine Company. Runners-up each received a $225 scholarship from the Mary Kay Foundation.

Five special awards went to contestants whose garments were made from natural fibers. In the cotton division Kendra Cook won top honors. She received $100 from the Texas Cottonseed Crusher's Association and cotton fabric from Cone Mills. Second prize went to Becky Valenta, 16, of Williamson County. She won $50 from the crusher's association and a fabric from Cone Mills.

In the wool and mohair division, Amy Wise, 18, of Madison County, won first place. She received a $100 bond from the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, mohair fabric from the Mohair Council of America, and wool fabric from the Women's Auxiliary to the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association. Second prize of a $50 bond from the sheep and goat association and wool fabric from its auxiliary was won by Lisa Long. Amanda Plank, 17, of Liberty County, won third prize, wool fabric from the auxiliary.

Another special award, a sewing machine from the Bernina Sewing Machine Company, went to Donley County. It was for having the greatest percentage increase in the number of 4-H'ers competing clothing projects. Donley County had an 800% increase in participation.

Each of the 56 contestants in the two-day event earned their place by winning county and district preliminaries. The fashion show is one of the educational activities of the overall clothing project of 4-H, which is the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Contestants select and coordinate fabric, patterns and accessories as they relate to individuality and interpretation of today's fashion. Sewing techniques are taught by adult leaders or older 4-H members supervised by their county Extension agent. Participants develop poise and grooming by modeling in public fashion shows.

Donley County cotton damaged by herbicide

Cotton from Lelia Lake to Ashtola has suffered some damage from herbicide drift. Herbicide such as 2,4-D is sprayed on weeds to cause them to grow themselves to death. Cotton affected by the drift of herbicide will also grow itself to death.

County farmers this past week noticed their cotton leaves curling up, believed to be caused from a herbicide drift.

Ronald Gooch, Donley County Agent, and three Department of Agriculture employees inspected damage Monday to see if they could determine to what effect the herbicide had done, and where it came from, and to check if it had been properly used. Gooch estimated that some 8,000 acres in Donley County had from slight to moderate damage. Out of 16 fields they examined only two had what they considered moderate damage.

"Some varieties of cotton have more damage than other varieties. Some cotton has more tolerance to the herbicide than others," Gooch stated.

Donley County is a control county, and a farmer must have a private applicators license to purchase a quart or more of a controlled herbicide such as 2,4-D.

Cotton planted in parts of the county has been rained out, then hailed out and now some may be put out by the herbicide drift. Anyway you look at it, farmers in Donley County are having a hard time making it farming.

WTU customers may receive refunds

West Texas Utilities Co. customers may receive refunds as well as slightly lower fuel rates as early as next month.

A tentative agreement was reached this past week in meetings with the Public Utility Commission staff in Austin, and the matter is expected to go before the Commission July 26 for a final order hearing. That would be just in time for the refunds to go on the August bills for all of WTU's retail customers.

The full amount to be refunded now stands at $17.6 million. This is an increase of $3.9 million over the amount in WTU's original request, which included only fuel costs savings achieved from August 1984 through May 1985.

The new figure includes savings made in June and an additional $2.3 million representing a lump refund of fuel costs savings balance, plus interest, realized before last August. Refund of those total savings had begun in mid-November and were scheduled to be completed in November 1985.

WTU estimates that the total refund now will result in a $41 credit to the average residential customer's bill. The refund is made possible by WTU being able to spend less for power plant boiler fuel than was anticipated when fuel cost factors were set by the PUC last fall.

Former customers will not receive refunds. The reasoning is that if the former customers had been undercharged for fuel, they could not be billed in the future to make up the difference.

Any refunds will vary with the amount of electricity a customer used during the period from August 1984 through June 1985. Interest will be included.

Clarendon All-Stars reach semi-finals

The Clarendon Little League Cubs won their division by winning 9 games and losing 2. This enabled their coaches Larry Mabry and Norman Stewart to become coaches of the High Plains East All-Star Team. This team was made up of boys chosen as all-star from Clarendon, McLean and Groom.

Chosen to play from Clarendon were Clint McConnell, Lee Gage, Jonathan Stewart, Bob Mabry and Randy Allan.

They lost their first game 8-2 to the Pampa Americans. They came back to defeat South Randall County 14-9. They were eliminated in the semi-finals by Canyon 13-2. This is the first time in 3 years that the High Plains East All-Stars had advanced to the semi-finals.

Coach Mabry stated, "These boys worked hard, played good clean sportsmanship baseball. I am proud of each of them. I would like to say, I appreciate the support given the team by parents and friends and we are looking forward to next year."

Clarendon receives sales tax payment

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks this month totaling $109.2 million in local tax payments to the 1,003 cities that levy the one-percent local sales tax.

These checks were for May and represent taxes collected on sales made in March and reported to the Comptroller by April 20.

Claude, in Armstrong County, had an increase of 0.43 percent over their last report. Wellington had an increase of 1.43 percent while Donley County as a whole was down 3.99 percent.

Clarendon received $5,520.32 this period compared to $4,892.11 for the same period last year. Clarendon has received $45,259.95 to date for 1985 and $46,213.38 for the same period last year, which resulted in a 2.06 percent decrease over last year.

Hedley did not receive a payment this period but has received $2,710.10 to date.

Howardwick received $509.96 this period and $565.69 for the same period last year. So far this year they have received $6,055.21, down from $7,144.14 for same period last year. This results in a 15.24 decrease.

This money for the cities is the result of sales tax paid by shopping at home. Remember when you shop from merchants in your county, this helps to keep your local taxes down.

Pumping plant performance demonstration Aug. 1

All Donley County irrigation farmers are invited to attend a field demonstration on Evaluation Irrigation Pumping Plant Performance, according to County Extension Agent Ronald Gooch. The demonstration will be held Thursday, August 1, at 9:30 a.m., at the Ed Sawyer farm located two miles north of Clarendon. This is the alfalfa field with the center pivot sprinkler system.

Research and demonstrations indicate that the "average" irrigation pumping plant uses 40% more energy than would be used if the pumping plant operated at a performance level which can be obtained if the pump and power plant were matched to the pumping conditions and were in good mechanical condition.

Pressure cooker - canner gauge clinic Aug. 1

There will be a pressure cooker-canner gauge testing clinic on Thursday, August 1, from 9-12 noon and from 1:30 to 4 p.m. in the Donley County Extension Office located in the old courthouse.

Each interested person should bring only the canner lid. There is no charge for the clinic.

Leon New, Extension Irrigation Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will conduct the demonstration.

Pressure cooker - canner gauge clinic Aug. 1

and it is a good idea to have gauges checked before canning season or anytime the lid is dropped.

Lelia Lake Community Center

Lelia Lake Community Center will meet Saturday, June 27 at 7:00 p.m. for a covered dish supper.

Sheriff's Report

Lelia Lake was the scene of two truck accidents this past week. On Monday, July 15, a truck swerved to keep from hitting a car pulling on to the highway, overturned and slid into Herbert Shields Circle S Station. The truck hit the corner post of the station awning and knocked it loose from the roof, turning one of the pumps sideways. Shields was unable to estimate the damage until all the underground pipes to the pump and other damaged areas could be investigated.

About 6 a.m. Friday, a cattle truck overturned with 156 head of cattle and about 37 head were killed. The driver allegedly fell asleep. Drivers of both trucks received only minor injuries. One driver had his 9 year old son in the cab with him. The boy was treated at Northwest Texas Hospital and released for minor injuries.

The sheriffs office was notified about 4:45 a.m. Saturday morning that someone was throwing gravel into windshields of vehicles on Highway 70 near the Goldston Community. Windows of a UPS truck, a cattle truck, pickup, a parked car and a patrol car were broken. Three adults and 3 juveniles were arrested and charged with aggravated assault on a peace officer. Deputy Sheriff Charles Blackburn received a piece of glass in his eye from the broken glass in the patrol car.

The adults posted bond and were released pending action of the grand jury. The juveniles were released to their parents, pending action by juvenile authorities.

Sunday night a felony charge of aggravated assault was placed against a 42 year old man who allegedly beat his 83 year old mother. He was placed in jail in lieu of $50,000 bond.

Jenny Glenn and Jack Funderburg got hitched on the Fourth of July at 11:00 a.m. The bride and groom, their preacher and attendants were all horseback throughout the ceremony. The ceremony was single ring with traditional vows.

The bride wore a beige and peach stripe western split skirt and jacket with matching peach camisole. Her horseshoe shaped bouquet, made by Martha Bratcher of Childress, was peach silk roses and daisies mixed with baby's breath, English ivy and satin picot ribbon tied in love knots. Her boots of taupe roughout bottoms and peach tops were handmade by Neldine Ross of Amarillo. The groom wore a beige western shirt and Levis with roughout boots also handmade by Mrs. Ross. The preacher was Charlie Floyd of Canadian. The matron of honor was Ann Greene of Las Vegas, Nevada, and the best man was Keith Graham of Lakeview.

Clarendon College business department in review

This is the first of a series of articles dealing with the business department at Clarendon College. In these articles you will learn about the courses that are being offered and about the instructors who teach the courses. It is our hope that these articles will help you, the Clarendon community, become more aware of what Clarendon College has to offer you. If you have any questions or comments, please send them to Clarendon College, Business Department, Box 968, Clarendon, TX 79226. They will try to answer questions as time will allow.

INSTRUCTORS

One of the instructors in the business department is Mrs. Pam Denney, department chairperson. She is a 1969 graduate of Oklahoma Christian College and received her master's degree in Business Education at Oklahoma State University. She has taught at Clarendon College for five years and is a member of the Texas Business Education Association, the National Business Education Association, and the International Word/Information Processing Association. She teaches all of the office administration courses, including typing, shorthand, machine transcription, office procedures, word processing, office machines, and business communication.

OFFICE ADMINISTRATION COURSES

One of the most popular and exciting areas of study in office administration is Word Processing. Several courses are offered in this relatively new technological area. Students with knowledge of and experience on word processing equipment have much better opportunities for obtaining better jobs in office administration. Even executives and managers are finding that a knowledge of word processing can help them in their responsibilities.

The first course offered in this area is BAS 142 Word Processing Concepts. It is taught each fall and will be taught during the spring and summer semesters as the need arises. This course is designed for those who know nothing about word processing and should be taken as a prerequisite to any other word processing courses. During the lecture periods students learn about the concepts, equipment, and functions of word processing. The most commonly used systems are explained and compared. Hands-on experience on various pieces of word processing equipment is given from the very beginning of the course so that students can apply what is being learned in class to the real world. The course is taught in such a way that students will be able to transfer the knowledge they learn to any type of word processing system they may need to operate.

BAS 143 Applications in Word Processing is offered each spring semester and other semesters as needed. Students learn to completely operate one type of word processing system in this individually paced course. Some of the word processing systems available are the CompuCorp Simplifier, Word Perfect (on the IBM Personal Computer), EasyWriter (on the IBM Personal Computer), and Super Scriptit (on the TRS-80 Model 3). Other systems will be included as the need arises. Once a person has learned how to operate one type of word processing equipment properly, it is much easier to transfer that knowledge over to any system he needs to operate. Students are given their choice of which system to learn to operate, and schedules are set up through Mrs. Denney about once a week to turn in assignments, ask questions, and receive new assignments. Mrs. Denney is available during many hours of the day or evening if students should have problems. It takes the average student approximately 4-5 hours each week to complete the assignments and to become proficient on the system by the end of the semester.

Next week other courses will be discussed in this section. Be sure to look for it.

The Clarendon Press is published every Thursday at 106 S. Kearney and entered as Second Class Mail at the post office at Clarendon, Texas. J. C. and Helen Woody, publishers and editors.

A busy slate of activities and competitive events have been scheduled at the Burleson Arena, Farm Road 2009 between Whiteflat and Plomet, on July 26, 27 and 28 to benefit the Burleson Scholarship of the Ranch Management Program at Clarendon Jr. College.

Opening the second annual Burleson Memorial Roping at 10:00 on July 26 will be Ranch and Open Cutting competition.

Events scheduled for Saturday, July 27 include "something for everyone." The Youth Horse Activities in which youngsters and local 4-H riding clubs will compete in Western Pleasure, Horsemanship, Barrel Races, and Flag Races begin at 8:00. Washer Pitch winners will be awarded buckles for their efforts. The Western Art Show featuring local area artists will open at 10:00 in the Old Barn. At noon local ropers in the Team Roping events, Draw Pot, Novice, 1 Over 40, and AB, will vie for buckles or headstalls.

On July 28 at 9:00 area ropers will exhibit their expertise in Team Penning. Open Pasture Roping once again promises chills and spills in the afternoon competition.

The three Clarendon Jr. College students who shared the 1984 scholarship, Joe Scott Faulkenberry of Floydada, Curt Duncan of Pampa, and Kent Pittillo of Otton, will be honored guests at the three-day benefit roping.

Joe Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Faulkenberry, graduated from Floydada High School in 1984 where he served as president of both the 4-H and FFA chapters and showed lambs in the area stock show. He plans to continue his education in the field of Agriculture.

Before Curt Duncan, son of Patsy Duncan and Joe Duncan, graduated from Pampa High School, he was a member of FFA, showing hogs in the Ag. Program, and a member of the high school rodeo club. Presently he is a supervisor of a division of the Morrison Ranch of Pampa.

Kent Pittillo, a graduate of Otton High School and Clarendon Jr. College with an Associate of Science

KENT PITTILLO, Curt Duncan, Joe Faulkenberry, recipients of the Burleson Memorial Scholarship.

Degree, is farming in the Otton area while seeking a future involving registered stock. He is the son of Bill and Ranche Pittillo and husband of the former Leslie Sisprunk.

Besides providing scholarships for students of the Ranch Management Program at Clarendon, the benefit roping offers a chance for young novice ropers to gain poise and experience in the arena, competing against their peers.

Within the shadow of the Quitaque Peaks, the newly constructed arena, surrounded by sagebrush and yuccas, is situated in the sandy land foothills of the Rolling Plains where Burleson's great-grandfather, I.E. Martin, homesteaded in 1891, and his grandfather, J.C. Burleson, lived and ranched from 1925 until his death in 1967.

Insurance Decisions

Many business people and professionals have no idea that they -- and all they've worked for -- are exposed to costly private lawsuits.

In fact, the very hallmarks of success -- from yachts to handsome homes -- make business people tempting targets.

Civil lawsuits have increased from an estimated 10 million in 1967 to projected 14 million for 1982. By 1979, the average award in a fatal accident case was over $350,000.

Yet the standard homeowners insurance policy typically provides liability coverage of only $100,000. So a major lawsuit might endanger savings, a home, even future earnings.

Knorpp Insurance believes that people with important assets should consider personal liability umbrella policies. These policies will not protect against liabilities incurred in business -- but they will close some of the gaps that other types of coverage leave open.

Knorpp insurance umbrella policy offers as much as $10 million in protection -- and a million dollars in coverage costs as little as $100.

"Three Classes of Men"

After laying the ground work in the previous articles regarding "Three Classes of Men," we now will look at these different classes of men individually.

The first class that we will discuss is the "Natural Man". "But the natural man receiveth not the things (the revealed or deep things) of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." In this passage the natural man is not blamed for his inability. It is simply an accurate statement of the fact of his limitations. The passage also goes on to assign the exact cause of these limitations. We have just been told that revelation is by the Spirit. It therefore follows that the "natural man" is helpless to understand things revealed because he has not received "the Spirit which is of God." He has received only "the spirit of man which is in him." Though he may, with "man's wisdom," be able to read the words, he cannot receive their spiritual meaning. To him the revelation is "foolishness." He cannot "receive" it, or "know" it.

The preceding verses of the context (1 Corinthians 1:18, 23) have defined a part of the divine revelation which is said to be "foolishness" to the "natural man": "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

"But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks (Gentiles) foolishness." Much more than the mere historical fact of the death of Christ is here meant. It is the divine unfolding of redemption through grace and includes all the eternal relationships that are made possible thereby. The moral principles and many of the religious teachings of the Bible are within the range of the capacity of the "natural man." From these sources he may eloquently preach; yea, and most seriously, not even knowing that "the deep things of God" exist.

Satan, in his counterfeit systems of trust, is said to have "deep things" to reveal (Revelation 2:24) and "doctrines of devils" (1 Timothy 4:1, 2) which things, on the other hand, are as certainly not received by the true child of God; for it is said, "And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers" (John 10:5). Yet the "deep things" of Satan are strangely adapted to the blinded, "natural man" and are, therefore, received by him. Every modern cult is evidence establishing the truthfulness of this statement. (More on the "Natural Man" next week.)

Congressman Beau Boulter Reports from Washington

SPENDING CUTS A MUST FOR DEFICIT REDUCTION

Last January, when I was chosen as the only Freshman Republican to sit on the House Budget Committee, I was honored, but very aware of the responsibility involved. Reducing the deficit by reducing federal spending is my number one priority, and the Budget Committee is where those reductions would have to originate.

In the past two months, as a member of the House/Senate Budget Conference Committee — the 26 member panel assigned the task of hammering out the differences between budgets passed by the House and Senate — I have seen very little progress toward true deficit reduction.

News reports have recently latched onto the issue of Social Security Cost of Living Adjustments (COLAs) as the sole reason for breaks in the Conference meetings. While this has been a central issue to our negotiations, it is not, in my opinion, the reason that we have been largely unsuccessful in coming up with real savings.

When a budget is grossly out of balance, as is ours, the first place to cut back is the extras — the luxuries. My contention is that there are federal programs that we cannot afford, and should not continue to fund with taxpayer dollars.

Unfortunately, the House majority does not feel the same way. Tied to special interests, the majority has failed to come up with a plan that significantly reduces excess spending for federal programs.

For example, let me cite an example used recently by columnist Donald Lambro: "Once a week Bob Smith leaves his apartment near New York City's Pennsylvania Station and boards AMTRAK's 9:27 p.m. en route to his weekend retreat in Vermont.

"The train holds 477 people, but Bob is one of only about 130 who board this train daily. His one-way ticket costs $29.72, but the real cost to get him to his destination is $54. FEDERAL TAXPAYERS PAY THE DIFFERENCE." The Amtrak system is a failure, and further funding with taxpayer dollars is an outrage. It should be terminated.

Last week my colleague Rep. Bob Walker took what he called "a kick at a sacred cow." He asked that the Economic Development Administration be terminated. The EDA is a source of grants and low interest loans to support economic development. A full 55% of those loans are delinquent, and half of those are in bankruptcy. This is a program that doesn't work — and shouldn't be funded by taxpayer dollars. But the House of Representatives continued its funding, adding $9.4 billion to the Federal deficit.

The spending has got to stop. As Rep. Walker pointed out in the floor debate on EDA, we are raising more in revenue now than ever before in our history as a result of the economic growth that took place after the President's 1981 tax cuts. And yet we have a growing deficit. This nation's deficit will not be solved by increasing taxes. Instead, we have got to make fundamental changes in how and where we spend tax dollars.

There are many of us on the Budget Conference Committee continue to work for both changes. The battle goes on.

ROGER FINCH and Jimmy Roberts in 1965 Chevy representing the Class of '65 and reunion.

Class of 1965 holds 20 year reunion

The Class of 1965 held its 20 year reunion the 4th of July weekend.

Their first get-together was hosted by their mothers on Friday night in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Stina Cain's home, and they want to thank them all for such a fun evening. Their very special surprise was when Ethelyn Grady brought in Coach Jack James and family from Waco. Most of them had not seen him for many years. He told them that Coach Jack Murphy and wife were on their way from Gladewater and their excitement grew as this was his first time back in twenty-two years. There was a total of 60 people at this outing, and they had a great time with good food and much visiting.

On Saturday morning, they met at the high school cafeteria for more visiting and a meeting of families. Former teachers visiting were Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Gillham, Mrs. Grady, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Guy, Jeff and Beth Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Stina Cain, Jerry and Glenda Hawkins, Jack and Jo Murphy, Jack and Dorothy James and daughter Leslie. They were happy to have Katherine Green and family to be with them. They registered one hundred twenty people. Their president, Kenneth Price, held a short business meeting and at this time families were introduced.

At 4:00 they met again for films belonging to Dolfia Hearn, Freddie McAnear and Douglas Bradshaw. These films brought back many memories along the way from their train ride in first grade to graduation night.

At 6:00, they met at Mary's Country Kitchen for dinner and to end their festivities together. Regina Wootten announced that Pamela Palmer Gagnon had traveled the most miles, 2,700 from Boston, Mass. Bobby Cain was next with 1,836 by train from Freehold, New Jersey. Mary Louise Caldwell traveled 2,000 from New York City and Dolfia Vallance Hearn came 525 miles from Houston. Least distance was Viki Sloan Percival and Richard Bell with 2 blocks each.

Fifty-six people attended this dinner. They are proud that 75% of their class was able to attend, and those present from out of town were Janette Rampy Profanchik of Amarillo, Bobby Cain of Freehold, N.J., Lynn Bourland White of College Station, Karen Hill Francis of Amarillo, Ann Allen of Rio Rancho, N.M., Pamela Palmer Gagnon of Boston, Mass., Susan Huff Shearer of Fort Worth, Kenneth Price of Azle, Freddie McAnear of Midland, Nan Neal Coneway of Hereford, Jill Benson Finch of Irving, Carol Graham King of Tulsa, Douglas Bradshaw and Ann Mills Bradshaw of Henderson, Karilyn Noble Kidwell of Borger, Marilyn Noble Grimes of Amarillo, Betty Dever Yarbrough of Memphis, Cecil Jones of Aiken, Dolfia Vallance Hearn of Houston, Jack Robinson of Amarillo, Johnny Spivey of Ralls, Lloyd McCord of Childress, Mary Martin Stockstill of Fairview, OK, Sharron Henson Winfrey of Dallas, Mary Louise Caldwell of New York City, N.Y., Tommy Waldrop of Quitaque.

Those attending from Clarendon were Buddy Wootten and Regina Boden Wootten, Viki Sloan Percival, Richard Bell, Patsy Hutson Havens, John Grady, Jimmy Roberts, Audrey Shields Hall, Roger Finch, Beatrice Beard Burleson, David McAnear, Ronnie Longan.

This was a great time for all and it was decided to have a 25th year reunion at the Fred Bourland Ranch at Quail in 1990 for an old fashioned hayride.

A big thanks to everyone who was a part of this reunion and made it such a great success. Class of '65.

Thank You Notes

We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to all those who helped make our float for this years July 4th parade such a success. They are Bill Wise, J&W Lumber, Clayton Ferris, Bobbie Kidd, Benny Osburn, Terry Ashcraft, Doug Kidd, Danny Holland, Delbert Robertson, McKinney Motors, and the judges for naming our float best overall.

Thank you,
The Clarendon Young Homemakers

We'd like to take this opportunity to say thank you to everyone who helped on our trip to the Shrine Orthopedic Hospital in Houston to take Calvin for treatment. Special thanks go to Shriners Jim Owens, Billy Ray Johnston, Redell Henson, Fred and Peggy Watt and all the rest of the Shriners. The doctors and nurses at the hospital made us feel comfortable and helped calm our fears. We felt all alone in that big city, and we appreciate all their help. Words can't express our appreciation.

Darrell and Clara Holland
30-1tp

Words can never express the feelings we have in our heart for all the love that has been shown to us in our loss. Thanks for the love and kindness shown Max by his adopted family "The Staff of Medical Center, nurses, dietary, housekeeping and administration." You gave him the love that only a family could have given. A special thanks to Dr. Hudson for not only being Max's doctor, but a true friend who was compassionate and honest with him. We were blessed by the paramedics who made Max's many trips to the hospital much easier. We will remember the thoughtfulness of all our friends, neighbors, pastors and churches for gifts of prayer, cards, flowers, words of encouragement, visits, and the abundance of food prepared and served. The beautiful message in song by Dan Hall, the comforting service presented by Bro. Heil and Bro. Joe Higgs made our loss easier.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q. The lock on the front door to my apartment was not working. I notified my landlord and he did not repair it. Yesterday, someone broke into my apartment and stole my stereo. Can I sue the landlord for this loss, since he did not fix my door?

A. A landlord has a duty to install security devices on each door and window. The Texas Property Code allows a tenant to request that the locks be changed or fixed an unlimited number of times.

The landlord must comply with such requests within a reasonable time, which is presumed to be two weeks. The tenant must pay the total cost of labor, materials, taxes, and extra keys. The landlord can demand advance payment for the work.

If the landlord fails to comply in changing or fixing a lock, a tenant can receive a judgment for actual damages suffered, plus one month's rent, $100, court costs, and attorney's fees.

Q. I have had the brakes on my car completely overhauled and "fixed" five times in the last six months. The garage just can't seem to get it right. Can I sue?

A. When you take your car to the repair shop, you enter into a contractual relationship. Generally, if you request the shop to fix your brakes for an agreed fee, the shop breaches the contract if it fails to do what it promised. The terms of the work order, however, may attempt to limit the liability of the repair shop.

If no such limiting provisions exist, you are entitled to be put in the position in which you would have been had the repair shop done what it agreed to do. You might also be entitled to relief under the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act if the shop made false representations concerning the results or quality of this work.

Q. Can I sue another person for slandering for starting a false and malicious rumor about me?

A. Yes. To prove slander, you must show someone made a false statement about you and that it was made without legal excuse.

Unless the slander against you falls into certain categories, you will also have to show you suffered loss or damage from the statement before you can recover an award.

Some statements are considered so defamatory that you need not even prove damages for the jury to consider the wrong. Such statements might concern a criminal act which was not committed, false statements pertaining to unchastity, or to a loathsome disease.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P.O. Box 12487, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

Carole Ward, RN, named Director of Nursing at Hall County Hospital

Hall County Hospital's new Director of Nurses has come a long way from her childhood days in Hedley, running and playing with her companions in that small Donley County community.

Today, Carole Ward is mother to two children, a daughter 10 and a son 7, wife, household manager, and now one of the key department managers at Hall County Hospital. On April 11, she was appointed the new Director of Nurses, replacing Marjorie Kesterson, who resigned to work part-time. Ward is only the second Director of Nurses of Hall County Hospital since it opened in February 1964.

In addition to her family responsibilities, Ward is now responsible for overseeing 29 full and part-time nursing employees, and is on call 24 hours per day.

Along the way, Ward attended nursing school at Northwest Texas Hospital and received a Bachelor's of Science in Nursing from West Texas State University in Canyon.

She has worked at Hall County Hospital for more than nine years. At the time of her promotion, Ward was working as a Charge Nurse on the 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. shift, with seven days on and seven days off.

Working in the light of day -- and sometimes filling in at night -- Ward said she has had to master an entirely new set of skills. "Very little of what they teach you in nursing school really prepares you for something like this," she explained. "But I firmly believe you should be good at patient care before you do anything else." Her background in patient care has helped her deal with the other issues: personal relations with the staff and meeting their continuing needs. She is responsible for staffing the hospital on a 24-hour per day basis, hence the on-call requirement. "If someone is ill, or we are short-staffed, then I have to arrange coverage, maybe even going in myself."

Ward also assists in the Operating Room as the circulating nurse, recruits to fill nursing vacancies, oversees infection control programs, and arranges for medical education programs for the nursing staff.

In her spare time, Ward devotes much of her time to family and friends, but admits that she likes to read. "I prefer fictional works," Ward said, but admitted most of her reading time is spent with professional journals as part of her program to remain current with hospital management issues. "There is so much to do, and things are changing pretty fast," Ward explained.

Ward credits her excellent staff with helping her through the transition period. "I am really proud of my people and the quality of care here at Hall County Hospital," she said.

What got her interested in a career in nursing? "I heard a recruiter in high school talking about nursing careers and felt that it would be something I would like to do." She said nursing allows her to help others through direct patient care, as well as education, to help them stay well.

The Ruwanvelli Pagoda in Sri Lanka is built on a 500-square-foot, seven-inch-thick foundation of solid silver.

"Frankly I prefer blue." Contrary to popular belief, bulls cannot see red—or any other color. It's movement that attracts their attention.

Fresh Blueberry Turnovers

1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons Argo
corn starch

1 1/2 cups fresh blueberries
1 recipe double crust pastry

In 2-quart saucepan, stir together sugar and corn starch. Add blueberries; toss to coat well. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Turn into bowl; cover surface with waxed paper or plastic wrap. Cool. Meanwhile, prepare double crust pastry. On lightly floured surface, roll out dough, 1/2 at a time, to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut into 5-inch circles. For each turnover, place 1 1/2 tablespoons blueberry mixture on one-half of circle leaving 1/4-inch edge. Moisten edge with water. Fold unfilled pastry half over blueberry mixture to form turnover. Press edges together with fork. Make an S-shaped cut in top to allow steam to escape. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in 425°F oven 20 minutes or until golden. Makes 12.

IT'S A FACT!

Some apparently well-meaning people have suggested America "save" money at the expense of her own veterans. The Grace Commission, for instance, said funds for Veterans Administration hospitals should be deleted from the budget. The Congressional Budget Office suggested hospitals run by the VA be dismantled by the end of the decade.

Our nation's 28 million veterans, and those who appreciate their honorable service, are against reducing the benefits veterans have earned.

The budget proposed by the president for the Veterans Administration for the coming year is $26.7 billion. That's a decrease of $82 million from the current budget and is 2.7 percent of the federal budget of $937.7 billion in outlays—the lowest percentage of the Federal budget in recent history.

For 85 years, the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) has opposed the reduction, elimination, or erosion of benefits that our veterans have earned. The VFW Commander-in-Chief, Billy Ray Cameron, has said, "Although we appreciate the pressing need to reduce the deficit, the VFW will not stand idly by and watch veterans take the brunt of budget cuts."

Many people are expressing their opinion on these issues to their congressmen at the House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515 and their senators at the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510.

EPA NEEDS TO CONSIDER FARMERS

Last March, the Environmental Protection Agency issued final regulations on lead levels in gasoline. While I support environmental conservation, I feel that the EPA made a short-sighted review of the issue, which neglected to take into consideration the impact of their regulations on the farm community. When notified of this failure, by the USDA, the EPA said it was an "unintentional oversight." However, in the year that has elapsed, no EPA corrective action has been taken.

By suggesting that the permissible amount of lead in gasoline be reduced by 90% by January 1, 1986, the EPA will potentially cost farmers an average of $100,000! The American Farm Bureau Federation estimates that most farms have between five and ten engines that run on leaded gas. While the USDA generally concludes that most farm equipment engines could operate on low-lead content gas, cutting that down to zero lead level could be harmful to our farmers.

Fortunately, action is being taken by the Congress to avoid this kind of incredible damage. Congressman Ed Madigan and Agriculture Committee Chairman Kika de la Garza have co-authored legislation which instructs the EPA to study the effect a lead ban will have on agriculture machinery before such a ban on leaded gas can be approved. I have co-sponsored this bi-partisan effort.

The legislation, which should not be viewed as an argument against reducing lead in gasoline, will prevent a haphazard government action which could have a very negative impact on a critical American industry. Along with the USDA, the EPA will conduct a study which reflects the impact of lead regulations in reference to typical farm work. The study will be completed by January of 1987. It also requires the EPA to hold public hearings and file a final report to Congress by January of 1988.

The last thing our farmers need right now is more harmful government regulation that costs them time and money. Beyond rendering farm machinery obsolete, this ban would force farmers to use unleaded fuel — which is more expensive. Some estimates place additional farm expenditures for gas alone at $150 million nationwide each year. In addition, resale value of equipment that isn't converted would drop dramatically.

The total ban on leaded gas is currently set for January of 1988. This legislation would give Congress time to cancel that final ban if the EPA/USDA study were to prove that its effects would cause serious hardship to our farmers. At the very least, this study will allow for a more comprehensive judgement to be made on the issue.

The refrigerator was invented in 1803 by Thomas Moore of Baltimore, Maryland. It consisted of two boxes, one inside the other, separated by insulating material.
