Voter Registration Still Lagging

A report from the tax office Wednesday morning revealed that the voter registration was still lagging shamefully with only 1270 signing up to date.

This number is over a thousand less than the last general election year. A total of 2316 registered in 1970 and the figure should be even higher this year with the registration of those in the 18 to 21 bracket.

Mrs. Clyde James reported that the number of 18 to 21 year olds registering was real good. These younger folks are eager to be able to cast their vote, she added.

If you haven't registered yet, it takes only a few minutes to drop by the county tax office and sign up. If you register now your name will be on the original poll tax roll and it will be the last time you will have to register if you vote in at least one election each year. Be able to voice your opinion by registering now.

COUNTY TO HAVE 2ND AMBULANCE SOON

Mike McCully, County Civil Defense Director, received word Tuesday from James Cox, State Civil Defense official at Austin, Texas that Donley County would receive the use of another ambulance under the Civil Defense Program.

McCully stated that the 2 cot 1963 model Lincoln-Mercury ambulance would be available in two weeks at the Laredo Air Force Base.

This will give us a good back-up vehicle or transfer ambulance to other localities, McCully stated.

McCully filled out numerous forms of request to several different agencies when it was first learned that Donley County would have to go on a volunteer ambulance basis and his requests are now beginning to pay off.

EXTRA CHARGE TO BE MADE WHEN TAXES ARE PAID AFTER JAN. 31

Information was passed on to the Leader this week that the last Legislature passed a bill causing the local tax office to charge $1 for any taxes paid after the January 31 deadline when the usual penalty and interest takes effect.

This $1 charge will all go to the state and none of it will stay in the county fund. If you want to save this extra dollar plus penalty and interest, it is advisable to pay up before the deadline.

LOCAL CEMETERY THEFT REPORTED THIS WEEK

Theft of any nature is bad but when it takes place in a cemetery it is just going too far. Mrs. T. M. Shaver reported this week that someone had removed a marble slab from the T. M. Shaver lot at the cemetery. Mr. Shaver's World War 1 metal helmet was bolted to the slab. Mrs. Shaver would certainly appreciate any information or return of the slab.

'76 Projected Income To Farmers-Ranchers

Cash income to farmers and ranchers in Donley County should be approximately $7.5 million dollars by the end of 1976, according to Ronald Gooch, County Agent.

This will be an increase of more than $2.25 million dollars from 1968-69 figures, with beef cattle contributing a large part of the gain. The projections are based on studies of the Agricultural Extension Service and are part of the "3.76 in '76" program, a state wide project to increase Texas agricultural cash receipts by more than $1 billion.

Total cash receipts from all agricultural enterprises in Donley County are presently about $5.3 million, says Gooch. The most important ones are beef cattle, cotton and sorghum.

These projections are based on estimates from the County Program Building Committee after separate predictions were made by Extension economists. The figures were published for each county. Extension district and economic area in Texas.

Donley County producers will have access to production information and techniques that can help spell success for the Texas goal of $3.76 billion in 1976, Gooch said.

BOB'S BARGAIN STORE Clarendon, Texas

For many years it has been a joy to find an occasion now and then to visit Boys Ranch and to see first hand the results of this wonderful institution. To see the group of well kept boys and young fellows in their family like surroundings always brought a surge of joy to our heart. It is one of the great achievements of our day largely because of the fulfilled dreams of another boy who in his boyhood experienced some of the same things that brought many of these boys to this new home.

Those thoughts came back to us this week in new force as we read a new book about the Ranch and its founder Cal Farley that has only recently come off the press. The book written and compiled by Louie Hendricks puts together many of the stories about Cal and his life's dream for a home for boys. Along with these stories are included many testimonies from those who knew the most about the inner life of this most unusual man. It is called No Rules Or Guidelines and many future generations stand to be thrilled as they come to read this account of one of the Panhandle's most remembered and loved persons.

We were especially thrilled in the opening prologue written by the daughter Gene Farley. According to Gene he often told her: "Daughter, never be afraid to give love because the more you give the more there will be to take its place." With loving words Gene continues: "He made me a part of everything he did and I never felt cheated or jealous of the time he gave to his boys." She was the only child.

In the introduction C. M. "Pops" Adams editor of the Forerunner magazine had this to say: "The years allotted to Cal Farley were seventy one. One Sunday morning in February 1967 he died suddenly surrounded by the boys he had taken to the Ranch while attending church services in the Ranch Chapel." Mr. Adams continued: "He did not linger until his flame lacked oil, but with senses keen, his arms filled with gathered sheaves, in an instant, he passed from happiness and health to the realm of perfect peace." Take our advice and read this book.

Farm Truck Driver Regulations Revised

Farmers and ranchers have won a clear-cut victory in regard to farm truck driver regulations, according to J. T. (Red) Woodson, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

The final revised regulations which have been issued and in effect since Jan. 1 are in accordance with Farm Bureau's recommendations, the state farm leader said.

Woodson said Farm Bureau members around the nation responded to a call for action last Spring that resulted in a decision by the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety to change the proposed stringent rules on farm truck driver qualifications.

Leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation said the response by farmers and ranchers was one of the greatest they had ever seen.

The proposed revisions announced on June 8 are similar to the final revised rules.

In brief, these revised regulations provide a complete exemption from federal regulation of truck driver qualifications in the case of a driver of a farm truck:

(1) If the gross weight of the truck is 10,000 pounds or less, or

(2) If the truck is a straight truck with a gross weight over 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm, or

(3) If the truck is engaged in transporting machinery or supplies to or from a farm for custom harvesting or transporting custom harvested crops from the farm to storage or market, or custom harvested crops from the farm to storage or market, or

(4) If the truck is engaged in hauling bees in seasonal movement.

A partial exemption is made in the case of the driver of a farm truck which is a combination truck with a gross weight in excess of 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm.

In such cases, the driver must be at least 18 years of age, and after next Jan. 1, must carry with him while driving a certificate showing he has passed a medical examination.

In addition to the provisions spelled out in the revised rules, the Bureau of Motor Carriers said that: "Generally, the operation of trucks wholly within a state are not subject to the Driver Qualification Regulations."

Farmers or their employees who are not exempt as provided above are subject to the same regulations as non-farm drivers. These requirements are that the driver must:

(1) Be at least 21 years old.

(2) Take a road test in driving a truck.

(3) Take a written examination in the federal motor vehicle safety regulations.

(4) Pass a medical examination and carry a certificate so indicating.

(5) If an employee, file with his employer information relative to items 1 through 4 above, and information relative to his background and experience. The employer is required to file such information.

The Department of Transportation is preparing a leaflet summarizing the revised regulations. These will be distributed by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Unemployment Benefits Triggered Nationwide Jan. 2

U. S. Secretary of Labor J. D. Hodgson has notified the Texas Employment Commission that the national trigger for extended unemployment benefits will be in effect beginning January 2, 1972.

The first date on which a claim for extended benefits can be filed in Texas is January 10, and claims filed through January 21 will not be backdated.

"The extended benefits become payable to individuals as a result of amendments to state and federal law and are payable only to claimants who have exhausted their regular benefits," says R. L. Coffman, TEC Administrator.

A claimant for extended benefits may receive as much as 50 per cent of his total regular unemployment benefits, payable at the same weekly rate as his regular benefits. To be eligible for extended benefits, a claimant must not have entitlement to regular benefits in any state or territory; must have a benefit year that ends on or after January 2; must file for extended benefits covering weeks subsequent to January 2, 1972; and must be totally or partially unemployed. He must also meet the conditions required to draw regular unemployment benefits, such as filing a claim, being able to and available for work, and actively seeking work.

Claimants must file with the Texas Employment Commission for extended benefits in the same manner they file for regular benefits.

The cost of extended benefits will be shared on a 50-50 basis from the state unemployment insurance trust fund and the federal government.

As required by federal law, the extended benefits program was incorporated in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act by the 62nd Legislature.

The Veterans Administration is printing in Spanish 1.3 million copies of four widely used pamphlets to help Spanish-speaking veterans use more effectively benefits administered by the agency.

CLEAN SKIN VITAL IN ACNE CONTROL

Young persons with troubled skin know that keeping skin clean is a giant step forward in the control of all degrees of acne, but many may not know enough about the causes of acne to understand just why clean skin is so important.

Dermatologists, the physicians who treat skin disorders, agree today that acne has three causes, all triggered by the maturing process of the adolescent body. First is the skin's sebaceous glands, which start to secrete an oily material called sebum. Second is the skin's hair follicles, small sacs that contain the base of hairs and also begin increased production of potentially problem causing material. Third is a hormone called androgen, a chemical substance that affects the youngsters's body changes.

Some dermatologists feel that these body changes alone are responsible for acne, while others feel that foods—oily, greasy, chocolate — also contribute to the problem.

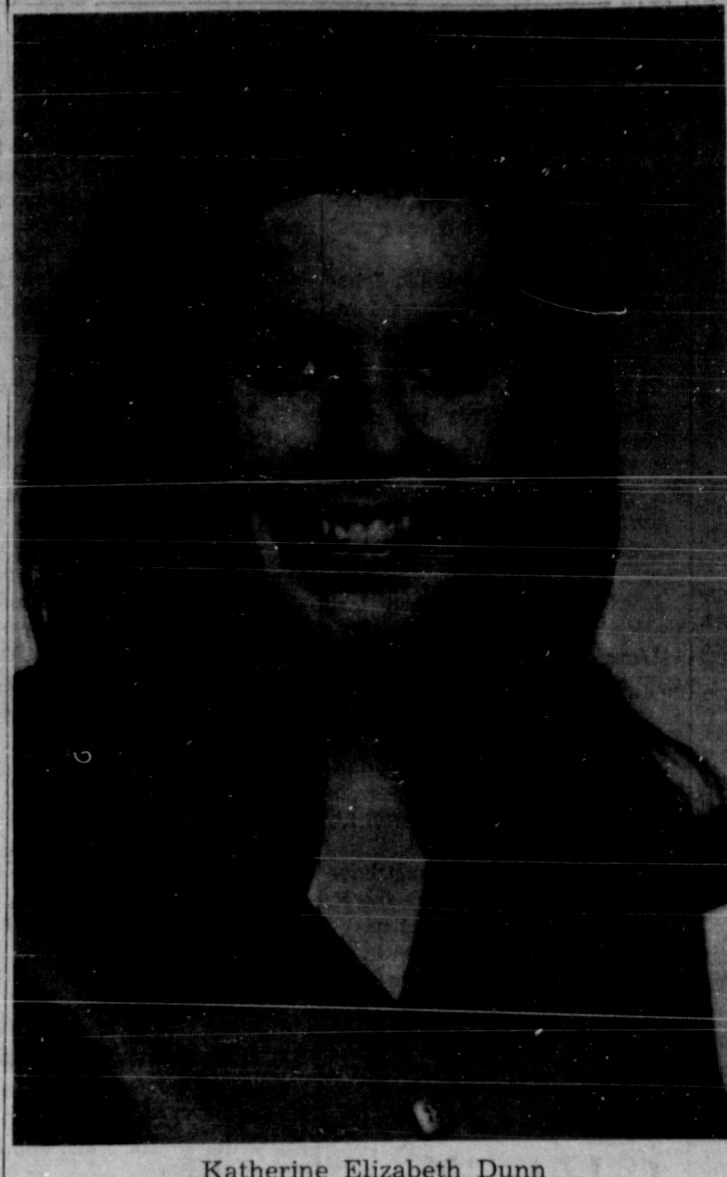

When sebum appears on the skin it starts out as triglycerides, which in themselves do not contribute to acne. However, when sebum is allowed to sit on the skin and is not removed by cleaning, the bacteria on the skin break the triglycerides down into free fatty acids. It is these free fatty acids that cause the harm, the irritation and the inflammation of acne.

Frequent and thorough cleaning is necessary to insure that the sebum's triglycerides do not remain on the skin long enough to be altered by bacteria into the harmful free fatty acids.

Youngsters with troubled skin have a wealth of skin cleansers from which to choose. Plain soap or soap with special antibacterial powers is the traditional standby. Special liquid cleansers such as Soy-Domé Cleanser, an antibacterial, or special soaps are available. Some dermatologists want their patients to use a clean washcloth each time the face is washed while others advise only the fingers and hands.

Many dematologists prescribe an abrasive product that peels off the top layer of skin. Some of the abrasives are extremely strong and are designed to be used by youngsters with severe acne problems, while others are milder and are suitable for less everse cases.

Veterans Administration representatives provide bedside counseling on benefits for servicemen at 184 military hospitals as well as orientation for returnees at 300 separation points.

Farmers Subject To Self-Employment Tax

North Texas farmers are subject to self-employment tax for 1971 if their farm income is $400 or more, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of the Internal Revenue Service, advised today.

The self-employment tax rate is 7.5 percent with a maximum of $585.00, and is in addition to income tax.

A self-employed farmer is one who operates his own business or farm. A farmer is also considered self-employed if he employs others to operate or work his farm even though he does not live on it himself.

A farmer must file a Federal income tax return and pay the self-employment tax due if his net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, even if his gross income is less than otherwise required to file a return.

The self-employment tax for 1971 applies to a maximum of $7,800. But this figure is reduced by any wages from which Social Security taxes were withheld.

A special optional provision in the law enables farmers to acquire Social Security credits even if they have a loss after expenses are deducted.

"Farm" as used in the Federal tax law relating to Social Security and self-employment taxes, includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animals, and truck farms, and also plantations, ranches, and nurseries.

"Farmer's Tax Guide," IRS Publication 225, furnishes more detailed information on this subject. The booklet is available without charge from your county

Highlights and Sidelights

From Your State Capitol By BILL BOYKIN Texas Press Association

An interesting political poll was taken at the Gulf Coast Press Association's board of directors' meeting in Houston January 8. Fourteen newspaper publishers were asked: "Who do you think will win the 1972 Governor's race in Texas?"

Seven said Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes four named Dolph Briscoe and two listed Gov. Preston Smith. The same editors were asked about their vote.

Eleven voted for Dolph Briscoe, two for Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and one for Governor Smith.

SENATE CAMPAIGN - The 1972 political campaign moved into full swing with announcement by former U. S. Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough that he would make a comeback try for a Senate seat.

Yarborough, 68, revealed his plans in a series of whirlwind news conferences at Austin, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio.

He seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower.

Barefoot Sanders of Dallas, already running for the Senate as a Democrat, welcomed onetime political ally Yarborough to the race as "one of our fine senior citizens." He said both Yarborough and Tower "are out of touch with the majority of Texans."

Yarborough said he had never had so successful a campaign opening day. He stressed his nearly 14 years' experience as a progressive senator, and said in answer to questions about his age: "I'll be around campaigning as long hours as anybody else, if not longer."

Five Democratic candidates are moving around the state in the lieutenant governor's race.

Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller of Public Accounts Robert S. Calvert and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White during the last week announced for re-election. Calvert and James are expected to draw some opposition.

State Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi announced she is "taking a serious look" at prospects for a gubernatorial race, but has not ruled out challenging Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

SCHOOL DECISION APPEALED - The State Board of Education voted unanimously to appeal the monumental federal court decision that the Texas property tax method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, the Board assumed responsibility for drafting a new plan for supporting the school system and ordered a task force be formed to do the study job in the event an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court fails.

The state, according to Texas Research League, has several options. One is full state financing, which by 1974 would require an expenditure of a billion dollars a year just to maintain the status quo.

Another alternative is state-local financing that would provide approximately equal resources for each child. The League suggested redrawing district boundaries to redistribute property values or superimposing multi-district taxing regions over present operating districts to provide equalization by regions.

A decision, the League noted, must be made as to whether the goal is educational expenditures at the present level in rich districts or at a lower "average level." The latter would mean reducing the number of teachers and lowering salary supplements in some districts to create more positions and higher salaries in the poor districts.

REPUBLICANS EAGER - Texas Republicans in a recent meeting here boasted of wide-open opportunities in 1972 presidential and U. S. Senate races, for doubled state legislative strength and possible election of a governor.

Scandals in state government and prospects of single-member House (legislative) districts offer the GOP its biggest chance to elect candidates and achieve reform through two-party government, the Republican State Executive Committee was told repeatedly.

The GOP issued verbal invitations to unhappy Democrats and Independents, regardless of political philosophies, to enlist in Republican ranks.

AG. OPINIONS - Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared the controversial new code of ethics for state and local officials unconstitutional, and was commended by Governor Smith and Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

A school of veterinary and zoological medicine at Texas Tech University can be approved by simple majority vote of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. New and separate institutions require a two-thirds vote of the Board.

A witness in a criminal case under subpoena is entitled to mileage and witness fees.

Jim Wells County commissioners redistricting of commissioners precincts August 11 is void due to failure to publish notice of changes.

Fees dedicated to the Real Estate Research Center at Texas A & M University are not in the state treasury and do not need to be appropriated by the legislature.

INSURANCE CUTS ORDERED - The State Insurance Board has directed lower collision insurance premiums for motorists whose cars are equipped with new damage-resistant bumpers. No domestic manufacturers have yet certified cars that meet the standards, however.

Twenty per cent discounts were ordered for 1972 cars with bumpers that can stand a five-miles-per-hour collision, front or rear, without damage. Fifteen per cent cuts will be in force for new cars with bumpers which can stand a five-mph front end crash and a two-and-a-half-mph rear end bump. Ten per cent reductions apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and two-and-a-half-mph rear collision without damage to lights, fuel, exhaust, cooling or latching systems or to the bumpers themselves.

URANIUM MINING EYED - Street-by-street tests with sensitive scanning equipment to record possible abnormal radioactivity from uranium mining operations will be made in the South Texas area.

Air and ground surveys by the State Health Department have disclosed no evidence of public health hazards, and none is anticipated by S.H.D. However, health problems have been reported in Colorado where a gas released by radium remained in tailings or wastes after usable uranium is extracted. The wastes there were used for construction fill.

Uranium mills operate in Falls City and near Three Rivers.

PARTY REFORM RULES EYED - New state Democratic reform rules met generally favorable reaction in a four-hour public hearing before a 33-member sub-committee here.

A final draft is due to be reviewed by the State Democratic Executive Committee rules sub-panel January 29 before it is passed along to the full SDEC in mid-February. SDEC Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto predicted approval of the required guidelines in essentially the same form they were offered at the hearing.

The rules are designed to insure "open" conventions and encourage participation by minorities, youth, women and backers of rival presidential candidates. Party activities will be open to 18-year-olds. Governor Smith predicted the rules proposed would give Texas a "challenge-proof" delegation to the Miami Beach Democratic national convention.

APPOINTMENTS - Governor Smith appointed Henry H. Canady of Port Arthur to the Veterans Land Board.

Smith also named Tate McCain of Palestine 87th district judge; Jerry A. Sandel of Huntsville 12th district attorney; E. T. Summers Jr. of Cuero to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority board of directors; (reappointed) William A. Clifford of Lubbock as Canadian River Compact Commissioner; Harry O. Reaerick of El Paso and Edwin J. Terry of Beaumont to the Real Estate Commission; Charles W. Duke of San Antonio, Beeman Fisher Antonio. He seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower.

Barefoot Sanders of Dallas, already running for the Senate as a Democrat, welcomed onetime political ally Yarborough to the race as "one of our fine senior citizens." He said both Yarborough and Tower "are out of touch with the majority of Texans."

Yarborough said he had never had so successful a campaign opening day. He stressed his nearly 14 years' experience as a progressive senator, and said in answer to questions about his age: "I'll be around campaigning as long hours as anybody else, if not longer."

Five Democratic candidates are moving around the state in the lieutenant governor's race.

Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller of Public Accounts Robert S. Calvert and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White during the last week announced for re-election. Calvert and James are expected to draw some opposition.

State Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi announced she is "taking a serious look" at prospects for a gubernatorial race, but has not ruled out challenging Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

SCHOOL DECISION APPEALED - The State Board of Education voted unanimously to appeal the monumental federal court decision that the Texas property tax method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, the Board assumed responsibility for drafting a new plan for supporting the school system and ordered a task force be formed to do the study job in the event an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court fails.

The state, according to Texas Research League, has several options. One is full state financing, which by 1974 would require an expenditure of a billion dollars a year just to maintain the status quo.

Another alternative is state-local financing that would provide approximately equal resources for each child. The League suggested redrawing district boundaries to redistribute property values or superimposing multi-district taxing regions over present operating districts to provide equalization by regions.

A decision, the League noted, must be made as to whether the goal is educational expenditures at the present level in rich districts or at a lower "average level." The latter would mean reducing the number of teachers and lowering salary supplements in some districts to create more positions and higher salaries in the poor districts.

REPUBLICANS EAGER - Texas Republicans in a recent meeting here boasted of wide-open opportunities in 1972 presidential and U. S. Senate races, for doubled state legislative strength and possible election of a governor.

Scandals in state government and prospects of single-member House (legislative) districts offer the GOP its biggest chance to elect candidates and achieve reform through two-party government, the Republican State Executive Committee was told repeatedly.

The GOP issued verbal invitations to unhappy Democrats and Independents, regardless of political philosophies, to enlist in Republican ranks.

AG. OPINIONS - Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared the controversial new code of ethics for state and local officials unconstitutional, and was commended by Governor Smith and Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

A school of veterinary and zoological medicine at Texas Tech University can be approved by simple majority vote of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. New and separate institutions require a two-thirds vote of the Board.

A witness in a criminal case under subpoena is entitled to mileage and witness fees.

Jim Wells County commissioners redistricting of commissioners precincts August 11 is void due to failure to publish notice of changes.

Fees dedicated to the Real Estate Research Center at Texas A & M University are not in the state treasury and do not need to be appropriated by the legislature.

INSURANCE CUTS ORDERED - The State Insurance Board has directed lower collision insurance premiums for motorists whose cars are equipped with new damage-resistant bumpers. No domestic manufacturers have yet certified cars that meet the standards, however.

Twenty per cent discounts were ordered for 1972 cars with bumpers that can stand a five-miles-per-hour collision, front or rear, without damage. Fifteen per cent cuts will be in force for new cars with bumpers which can stand a five-mph front end crash and a two-and-a-half-mph rear end bump. Ten per cent reductions apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and two-and-a-half-mph rear collision without damage to lights, fuel, exhaust, cooling or latching systems or to the bumpers themselves.

URANIUM MINING EYED - Street-by-street tests with sensitive scanning equipment to record possible abnormal radioactivity from uranium mining operations will be made in the South Texas area.

Air and ground surveys by the State Health Department have disclosed no evidence of public health hazards, and none is anticipated by S.H.D. However, health problems have been reported in Colorado where a gas released by radium remained in tailings or wastes after usable uranium is extracted. The wastes there were used for construction fill.

Towns to be covered in the screening include Floresville, Karnes City, Kenedy, Three Rivers, George West, Tilden, Pleasanton, Leming, Poth, Hobson, Falls City, Helena, Panna Maria, Coy City, Lenz, Caesar, Pawnee, Mineral, Oakville, Simmons, Calhoun, Whitsett, Peggy, Campbellton, Christine, McCoy and Caughran. Ambulance News

In order to bring the general public up to date on the ambulance service in Clarendon, and Donley County, the following are the facts as I know them.

On December 10th of 1971 a group of citizens met with Mr. Lawson of the State Department of Health in order to get a more complete picture of what was needed in the way of ambulance service for the City and County after the funeral home goes out of service the first of the year. At this time, an ambulance board was formed to consist of the following:

Hospital Board—O. C. Watson; County Judge, W. R. Christal; City Mayor H. M. Breedlove, Chairman; Civil Defense—Mike McCully; City of Hedley—Ed Boliver; Member-at-Large—Delbert Robertson.

Thus the Board was formed and appointed Walter B. Knorpp as Secretary-Treasurer.

It was agreed by all Board members that in order to expedite the ambulance service, it would be necessary for all to get busy. Mr. McCully was appointed to be Chairman of personnel and to locate drivers and attendants. Delbert Robertson and Walter Knorpp were appointed to locate a Van which could be transferred into an ambulance for the least amount of money. Dr. A. N. Clanton had been contacted by the Donley Emergency Radio and Disaster System prior to the ambulance board contacting him and he had agreed to give standard Red Cross training, which all attendants and drivers are required to have. Mr. Delbert Robertson has agreed to give instructions to the drivers, as to their responsibility.

Alderson Chevrolet found a Van for us and Knorpp drove to Dallas over the Holidays and picked it up. Robertson got busy and started to changing it into an ambulance. The preparation is over now and the work is ready to begin.

The Ambulance Board wants to take this opportunity to express their sincere appreciation to the following persons:

Mrs. J. W. Murphy and Mrs. Louise Payne of Murphy Funeral Home for donating the equipment that went into the new ambulance, and for permitting two of their employees to work on the ambulance.

Alderson Chevrolet for taking the time to find us the Van and then selling it to us at their cost.

Dr. A. N. Clanton for taking the time to give instruction to drivers and attendants and for volunteering his services to make emergency calls with the ambulance.

The Donley Emergency Radio and Disaster System for coming forward and offering their time to help in any way they could and securing services of Dr. A. N. Clanton to teach First Aid Classes.

Delbert Robertson and Billy Ray Johnson who have saved the Board a great deal of money by building the interior of the Van into an ambulance.

What has been done, would not have been possible if it had not been for the people such as the ones that have been listed above. WE ALL THANK YOU.

Walter B. Knorpp, Secretary-Treasurer, Associated Ambulance Authority.

IRS Results Of Checks On Price Posting Rules

The results of initial IRS spot checks of retail stores in North Texas for compliance with Price Commission posting requirements which went into effect January 2 were announced today by Ellis Campbell, Jr., Internal Revenue Service District Director.

523 spot checks were conducted during the period December 28, 1971 through January 10, 1972. These showed that 134 retailers were in full compliance; 389 were in various stages of compliance or were in violation of the posting requirements.

Prior to the January 2 posting deadline, IRS found a high rate of compliance, Mr. Campbell said. Much of the recent non-compliance, he explained, relates to the fact that until January 2, retailers were required only to post signs announcing the availability of base price information.

Regulations requiring additional posting procedures by January 2 first appeared in the Federal Register on November 13, 1971.

Retailers who have made a bonafide, but incomplete, attempt to comply with the guidelines will be given until January 17 to adjust their posting procedures. Retailers who made no attempt to comply with the requirements will be held in violation. The penalty for each violation is up to $5,000 a day for as long as the violation continues.

Mr. Campbell said that the current posting regulations require retailers with sales of less than $200,000 per year to have available on request their base price.

Retailers with sales of $200,000 or more per year are required to display prominently the base price for food and food related (grocery store) products.

OPEN LETTER

School Board: Clarendon Independent School District
Clarendon, Texas

Dear Board Members:

It is difficult to get an audience with you. So, please, accept this open letter in the same manner of friendship as it is offered. We have a bad tax situation out here; you already know that. So, please, review the following proposal, which we feel would give relief to the problem, and see if you think you could go along with it; or offer a better one.

For purpose of clarification, we will work with five categories within the school district:

- Ranches —Residences
- Ranch lots —Businesses
- (Farms Irrigated)

We would now go to the tax roles and at random select one tax payer from each letter of the alphabet, a tax payer with property that would fit in one of the above classifications. The up to 26 names, in each classification, would then be tossed in a hat, and 5 names drawn out.

The same procedure would be repeated for the remaining four classifications. When finished, we would have 25 names of tax payers selected randomly.

A professional crew, chosen jointly by our executive committee and your executive committee, would then appraise the 25 pieces of various and assorted properties, and establish the FAIR MARKET VALUE.

The tax record would again be consulted, and the existing assessments on the books would be posted as a comparison to the fair market value established. The relative position of the ASSESSED VALUATION to the FAIR MARKET VALUE, would then become the basis of determining the valuation of property in Howardwick (Sherwood Shores). In other words, we would be under the same present tax structure as the rest of the school district, which is our purpose. Please, understand our first choice is not to have YOU re-evaluated, but to have US re-appraised to fit YOUR structure. It is unfair to OVER APPRAISE the properties of a singular large group of tax payers who happen to be located in close proximity, to make up for the evaluation inequities spread over the remainder of the school district. It is not only UNFAIR; it is also ILLEGAL.

We pray that you will give our proposal serious consideration. Our people have in mass accumulated a twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000.00) tax-inequities—correction fund either pledged or in escrow. However, it is not our wish to stubbornly insist on taking the matter into the courts for a judge or jury ordered school district re-evaluation.

Our nine-member tax committee has 3 co-chairmen, who also serve as the executive committee. If the school board wishes to do likewise, please notify our Mayor at City Hall, 2422, and he will get in touch with the executive committee.

Sincerely yours,
Howardwick (Sherwood Shores) Tax Committee.

IRS Results Of Checks On Price Posting Rules

These prices may be posted at a central location provided that signs are available in each department indicating the location of the base price list.

These larger retailers must also post the base price for the 40 non-food items which had the highest dollar sales volume in each department during the last fiscal year or those non-food products which accounted for at least 50 percent of total dollar sales in that department during that year, whichever is less. Base price lists for non-food items must be prominently posted in each department containing non-food items.

Mr. Campbell emphasized that the location of price lists must be easily accessible to the customer and not require him to ask a store employee for access to the information. At least one sign (minimum of 22" x 28") must be displayed on each floor of a retail establishment announcing the availability of base price information for all items that are not required to be posted, he added.

It is vital, Mr. Campbell said, that retailers and consumers be aware of posting requirements. He urged consumers to look for the price lists and speak to store managers if lists are absent or appear incomplete.

Veteran News

Q—I have been drawing widow's pension of $81 since January 1971, and I earned $900 the rest of the year. Should I report this to VA, and what effect will this have on my pension?

A—Anytime a person who draws nonservice-connected death pension has a change in income during the year, it must be reported to the VA office having his records. That office will decide if pension adjustments are necessary. If there is income that could not have been anticipated, payments are usually adjusted at end of year in which income changed.

OPEN LETTER

Dr. A. N. Clanton reported this week that any child under 12 years of age needing a Rubella vaccination may receive the same free of charge by calling his office at 874-2133.

The Rubella vaccine comes in a 10 dose vial and when one is mixed it will last only a short time. It is senseless to let it go to waste if a child needs it, Dr. Clanton added.
