RODNEY SMITH signs letter of intent to play football for Eastern New Mexico University as Coach Buddy Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Smith watch on.

March 6 filing deadline

The City of Clarendon will be electing two aldermen and a mayor on April 6. Howardwick has three places up for election and a mayor. Two positions each on the Clarendon and Hedley school boards will be open.

Billy Clubb and Cheryl Wiggins have filed in Hedley, but no one has filed to date for the Clarendon trustee positions. Susie Shields and Ted Shaller's terms will be expiring. March 6 will be the last day you can file for these positions. The elections will be held on April 6.

Clarendon boys finish basketball season

The Clarendon boys varsity basketball team finished the 1984-85 season with losses to White Deer and Shamrock. Against White Deer, the Broncos played well in the first half, but fell behind by five points. In the second half, the Bucks slowly pulled away and won 64-47. Scoring in double figures for the Broncos were Dean Cearley with sixteen, Trent Sharp and Randy Crump with fourteen apiece. Dean Cearley was the leading rebounder with nine. The defensive player of the game was Dean Cearley. Trent Sharp was the player of the game.

In the last game of the year against Shamrock, the Broncos were warming up with victory in their eyes. The Bronco defense played very well, limiting the Shamrock offense to less than twenty-five points in the first half. In the second half, the Bronco offense could not get on track and ended up short on the final score 39-54. "The boy's enthusiasm made a big difference in the game," said Coach Loveless. "Shamrock's offense had a lot of potential and we shut them down on many occasions. I was very proud of the way our guys hustled and aggressive play." Trent Sharp was the only Bronco in double figures with ten points. Dean Cearley was the leading rebounder with nine. Rodney Smith and Randy Crump had five rebounds each. Stanley Gardner and Wes Hatley had two assists apiece. Rodney Smith and Wes Hatley were the players of the game.

The boys that earned a basketball letter for the 1984-85 season were: seniors-Trent Sharp, Rodney Smith, Dean Cearley, Stanley Gardner, and Stan Garland; juniors-Leland Howell and Brent Hayworth. Other Broncos that played in varsity games were junior Russell Alexander, sophomore Clay Sharp, and freshmen Wes Hatley and Clint Hunt.

The Clarendon Bronco boys varsity finished district with a 1-9 record and 7-17 for the season. The Quanah Indians won district and will play Spearman in bi-district. The Memphis Cyclones finished second and will play Sanford-Fritch in bi-district.

The Clarendon boys junior varsity basketball team was defeated by the White Deer Bucks 50-34 in their last district game. The Broncos were leading at the half 26-24 as James Ariola hit nine of twelve freethrows. In the second half the Broncos could not buy a basket, being outscored 26-8. James Ariola and Russell Alexander scored 13 and 10 points, respectively.

The Clarendon boys finished district play with a 5-3 record. The season record of 10-10 is one of the better season records in several years for the junior varsity. "This is a good group of basketball players who understand the game," said Coach Loveless. "The boys played a lot of good teams this year and lost quite a few close games which gave them some pressure situations. This will pay off next year. I want to thank all the people and parents that supported our team," said Coach Loveless. Good luck to the junior varsity players in their bid for the district championship on the 1985-86 season.

Availability of "D" Stamps

An adequate supply of "D" stamps and other nondenominated items is available at the Clarendon post office to help customers make a smooth transition after the February 17 postal rate change.

Postmaster McCombs says that they nondenominated "D" stamps in sheet, coil, and booklet formats represent the new 22-cent first-class rate. There are also nondenominated postal cards and plenty of two-cent stamps that, when added to 20-cent stamps, make up the new first-class letter rate.

"Nobody likes to see higher postal rates, but this increase is moderate and justified," Postmaster McCombs said.

Letter to the Editor

Mrs. Kem Lester of Amarillo, cousin of Naomi Morris Green, has made an appeal for support to help keep Clyde Durbin Jr. from being released on parole. Durbin was convicted in 1969 of the fatal shooting of John White and of the death of Keitha Morris (sister of Kem Lester). Both were students of the University of Texas. White was shot to death at a Hill country lake north of Austin. Keitha Morris was missing several days before she was found at Inks Lake, bound, choked, and thrown into the water. She drowned.

Durbin was sentenced to life imprisonment and 99 years in 1969. He is seeking release on a plea bargain agreement.

Letters urging intervention should be addressed to: Texas Board of Parole and Pardons, Box 1340 Capital Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

An intervention will probably be necessary periodically. Mrs. Lester realizes that the case may not always get the media coverage that it was given this time, therefore she would like a list of the names and addresses of those who support this cause. Her address is: Mrs. Thomas Lester, 5303 W. 53rd, Amarillo, TX.

Alpha Upsilon News

Tuesday, February 12, 1985 Alpha Upsilon Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its first monthly meeting for February. President Terri Floyd led the opening ritual. Dianne Chamberlain, a council member for home economics in Clarendon and Taralena Cole, a home economics student at Clarendon High School, gave a program over the Food and Nutrition portion of Clarendon High School's Home Economics Department. This is a part in the home economics plan to make the community more aware of what home economics is. It was an enlightening, interesting program.

Business discussed and acted on were the election of a sweetheart, nominations for sponsorship of a Miss Irish Rose contestant, a vote to again have the picture sales, and a donation of $200.00 to the Patching Club House Fund to remodel the kitchen.

Committees giving reports were the Scrapbook Committee and the Social Committee. The Scrapbook Committee reported that they have been meeting on Wednesday evenings, have made plans on their theme, bought paper, and decided on pictures and have begun putting it all together. The Social Committee gave invitations for a surprise social to be on Sunday, February 17 in Amarillo.

The program: "Literature: Enjoying Poetry and Lyrics was given by Fuzz Mooring. She discussed the qualities of good poetry and understanding these qualities in order to understand and appreciate poetry. She read some modern selections of poetry to conclude her program.

Members present were Judy Bland, Sandra Eads, Terri Floyd, Terry Floyd, Denise Grady, Wanda Hill, Patsy Leffew, Jeanne Mondragon, Kitty Proctor, Leslie Schnauffer, Bettie McAnear, Melody

Twelve members of the Alpha Upsilon Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi enjoyed a Sunday afternoon outing of bowling and Mexican food in Amarillo on February 17th, this past Sunday. Everyone loaded into Stacy Mooring's van and took off for the Grand Bowl to show our "prowess" at bowling. Kitty Proctor proved to be our chapter's "Miss Bowl America," but it was a close race. We were all SO good. Yes, that is a joke! We did have a really enjoyable time and became closer friends too. Members attending the social were Stacy Mooring, Patsy Leffew, Sandra Eads, Terry Floyd, Kitty Proctor, Fuzz Mooring, Judy Bland, Wanda Hill, Leslie Schnauffer, Terri Floyd, Sandy Sliger and Melody Price. We can't wait until we have another such enjoyable social.

LARNCE GARDNER

Gardner leads Hale Center to district championship

Former Clarendon High School star, Larnce Gardner, led Hale Center to their first outright district championship in 20 years. The Owls are 19-6, 9-1 in district and will play bi-district against Crosbyton Friday, February 22 at Plainview, 6:30 p.m. If the Owls can get by the Chiefs, they will play the winner between Fritch and Memphis.

Larnce is the son of Mrs. Effie Gardner. He is married to the former Jewel Calloway, 1969 graduate of Clarendon High School. They have 3 daughters, Yoki Yolanda 12, 7th grade; Tanya Jewel Gardner, 11, 5th grade; Tamera Tenna Gardner, 3 years old.

Q: I recently married a woman with three children from a previous marriage. Can I adopt these children? If so, what do I need to do?

A: Before you could adopt your wife's children, the parental rights of the children's natural father, if he is still living, would have to be terminated. Termination of the parental rights can be accomplished in two ways. The natural father could formally consent by submitting an affidavit of relinquishment to the court. Or you and your wife could file a lawsuit against the natural father to terminate his rights involuntarily. Grounds for such a suit would exist if the natural father has not paid child support for a period of one year or more, abandoned the child or the mother under certain circumstances, or knowingly endangered the physical or emotional well-being of the child. The court must also find the termination of parental rights to be in the best interests of the children. The adoption proceeding may be filed at the same time as the termination proceeding and your wife must join with you in the petition for adoption. The children usually must have lived with you for period of at least six months, and any child who is 12 or older must give his consent to the adoption in writing.

From The PEN of PASTOR PINION

his life, home and family. If the church is controlled by love and the members "love one another as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it," the new Christians will be loved and will learn to love and do the works of love. If God's power is being manifested through the lives of the pastor and people, the new Christian will be challenged also to seek to have God's power in his own life. If the church does the Biblical job of "perfecting the saints for the work of the ministry," the new Christian will find himself being challenged and trained to do God's work in the church and in the community. If the church administers the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper Biblically and safeguards their meaning, the new Christian will never forget the new life received by trusting Christ and the need to live a holy life in fellowship and communion with the Lord and His people. If the church operates a Christian day school, the church is likely to be concerned about the Christian growth and development of all of the children in the church.

How a church measures up in most of these areas can be quickly determined by observation. How sound the church is doctrinally demands special scrutiny. It is essential that the pastor, the church itself, and any organizations with which it is affiliated hold to the sound doctrines of the Word of God and teach them. This insures that members of the church will...henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men a cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive." (Eph. 4:14).

Next week, "How to determine whether a church is sound in doctrine and practice?"

Finding the Church God wants you to attend should be the first goal for a new Christian. Deciding to attend regularly and faithfully is the most important single decision in life once a person has been saved by receiving Christ.

What a person becomes as a Christian will be largely determined by the church that he attends. Therefore, the right church is vitally important. Consider how a church shapes life: If the church is doctrinally sound, the new Christian will be taught and will learn sound Bible doctrine. If the church emphasizes soul-winning, the new Christian's concern for lost people will grow. The know-how to help them find Christ will be learned through the preaching of a godly pastor and the example of faithful believers. If the church teaches holy living and how to use the Bible to establish Godly standards for dress and appearance, amusements, habits, customs, etc. the new Christian will be trained and challenged to build Biblical standards in

by VERA JOHNSON
The residents enjoyed Valentine's Day with a big party and with friends and families of the residents. The afternoon activities started by having their Valentine's box first. The employees at Medical Center drew the residents names and all through the month of February they did special little things for them. The residents were very anxious to know who their secret Valentines were. Then the residents had lots of fun making Valentines and giving a Valentine to their secret heart. When the Valentines were passed out by Merle Rodgers, our beauty operator, and Alice Hood, one of our cooks, the secrets were all revealed. We all had a lot of fun decorating walls and giving gifts and etc.

Then the big event took place. We crowned our king and queen. Billy Ray had the honor of doing this. The residents elected Jesse Wood as their king and A.L. Mayo was runner-up. Minnie Cannon was elected queen, Ruby Bromley as runner-up.

Merle and Alice pushed the king and queen in their wheel chairs up and down the room as the residents sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." They made all the proper bows. Refreshments were then served to all present.

The Activity Dept. had made small tray favors for their night time meal filled with small mint hearts and the kitchen added small chocolate hearts.

They all reported having fun. Also at this time we wish to thank the ladies of Howardwick Baptist Church and other citizens of Howardwick for the lovely apron that they made for the residents. We truly do appreciate any and everything that is done for us at Medical Center.

The residents at Medical Center love to have birthday parties and have their families and friends in the nursing home join them. We play games, sing songs, and there is always a lovely cake and punch to be served to everyone present. Everyone is always wishing lovely wishes for the birthday lady. Abraham Lincoln was also remembered and what he did for our country.

Senior Citizens News

We have the greatest people in our town. I just love to acknowledge all their good works. So a big THANKS to the following: Pud Bain for more material; Woody Argo for plumbing water to the dining room service counter and delivering new furniture for us; Hugh and Nova Neuhaus for the new couch and chair in the lobby; Robert C. Jones, Don Wooten and Homer Bones for keeping the walks clean during the ice and snow; the Board of Directors for starting the contributions for another chest freezer to store meat donated by a local rancher. This donor will be recognized at a later date. We certainly appreciate our farmers and ranchers that are supportive of our efforts here at the Center. We will be starting a donation drive here at the Center to pay for this needed freezer; Pat McCombs for the pretty tables on Valentine's Day, we really appreciate her talents; Thelma Behrens for her services at the Center and also helping with home deliveries. We miss Lillian. She has gone to Las Vegas to be with her

Why do the same size families with the same size homes have different size electric bills?

Simple, It's The Power of Choice.
 It's happened to almost everyone. You compare electricity bills with your neighbor, and, even though you lead similar life styles, your neighbor's bill is lower. The difference can be in how well you buy electricity. That's right, buy. Every time you flip a switch, you make a choice to buy a little electricity, little choices that add up to your bill. Today, electricity gives you choices that help you get more value out of your energy purchase.

The New Appliance Choice.
 Suppose you were choosing between two refrigerators same size, same features. The less expensive choice saves once. But the more efficient choice saves year after year. When choosing a new appliance, choose an appliance with a higher Energy Efficiency Rating (EER). This will help to save you money on your energy bill.

The Heating and Cooling Choice.
 Because heating and cooling are your biggest energy-consuming functions, a smart electric choice can really pay off here. A heat pump efficiently cools in summer, then reverses, and heats all winter — both at a total cost that can provide substantial savings. Check out whether a heat pump is suitable in your situation. No matter where you live, there's always an electric choice that will help you get more value out of your energy purchase. For more information on how you can use electricity wisely, call your local WTU office today.

Watt's Happening in Hedley

By PEGGY WATT

I visited with Carolyn and James Kirkland a few days ago. They told me that Carolyn's dad, Virgil McPherson was in Las Vegas for a few days of rest and relaxation. Lucky Virgil...I guess. I've never been to Las Vegas and have no desire to go, but I know a lot of people who go every year or more often. Carolyn told me that she'd have her 13th wedding anniversary this year. I suggested to James that he take her on a world tour. He suggested he take her to the farm here at Hedley and let her spend a few days chopping cotton.

I found out what Clyde Stone was in the hospital for. He spent a day and night undergoing tests. He told me he was doing fine.

Nettie Alexander is slowly getting better after her falls recently. She spent several days in bed. Jane Long made a quick trip to Ulysses, Kansas last week. Shaun had a severe case of the flu and wanted his mother. She brought him home with her and kept him until he was fit to return to school.

Fred has been helping Woodrow Farris with some plumbing. When Woodrow and Ora Pearl went to visit Charlie and Eunice Johnson at White Deer during the recent cold, their pipes froze, and some of them burst. Woodrow told me that he was going to stay home the next time he thought it was going to get cold. Ora Pearl takes being without water a lot better than I do. She laughed about it and said it wasn't the first time she'd carried water.

Red and Dean Hill visited their Quana kids recently. Carrah Lewis intended to come home with them, but changed her mind at the last minute. I guess that's three year old's prerogative. Max Lewis farms and Neva is a nurse. Young Eric is in the second grade.

I noticed that Marty Martin had his garden plowed. Reminded me that it's getting close to garden planting time. My men-folks do the gardening at our house. I don't mind cooking anything they grow, but don't care for the growing of it.

Carolyn Kirkland brought the program at the Hedley Lions Club last week. She told about the operation of Southwestern Bell Telephone System.

She was one of 4 representatives from Texas to attend the seminar in Dallas to cover every aspect of the Southwestern Bell System. She's the daughter of Virgil and Opal McPherson.

Laquita Cox went to Amarillo over the weekend. She watched the Hedley-Adrian game and spent the night with Joe and Lucy Poole. Sunday, she visited in Childress with her mother Mrs. Edna Rucker and sister Nellie Martin and Rita Woolley.

Murrell and Dorothy Whitaker got home from Arizona last week. They visited Murrell's brothers, Ray in Mesa and Leonard in Marana. They missed the really cold weather here but enjoyed the snow in Tucson.

Eva Canada and Clara Baggett hopped in Clarendon Friday afternoon.

I stopped by the Senior Citizens Center one day last week and visited with Dorothea Crawford, Ruby Bardwell, Augusta Duggins, Peggy Deboard, and Dannie Bernardin. They were working on a quilt. I also took a quick look at the new addition. The sofa, donated by Mrs. Eva Hansard, looks very nice but lonely all by itself in the lounge. If anyone has any chairs, small tables, lamps or other decorations, the Senior Citizens would appreciate them. The book shelves are about full and the lending library is open. Anyone can borrow a book from it. Several people including Jessie Roland, and Betty Williams donated the books.

Ruby Bardwell told me they were intending to have a rummage sale as soon as the weather gets a little more settled.

They are also taking donations on a beautiful bow tie quilt. The quilt will be given away on April 2 and the tickets are available from the Senior Citizens at $1.00 donation per ticket or six for $5.00.

The 42 Club will meet on Feb. 21. If you'd like to play 42 with these ladies, I'm sure they'd be glad to have you. It meets every 1st and 3rd Thursday.

They also have games each Friday and Monday.

HEDLEY SENIOR CITIZENS MENU
February 21-27
Thursday-Turkey and dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry, green beans, carrots, fresh fruit cup, roll, butter, pumpkin pie, milk, juice, coffee, tea.

Friday-Steak with gravy, AuGratin potatoes, spinach, carrot-cabbage slaw, roll, butter, pear halves, milk, juice, coffee, tea.

Monday-Chili, pinto beans, french fries, lettuce-tomato salad, corn muffin, butter, fruit cup, cookie, milk, juice, coffee, tea.

Tuesday-Cod fillet or chicken nuggets, zucchini, hash browns, cabbage-green pepper slaw, corn muffin, butter, peach cobbler, milk, juice, coffee, tea.

Boulter named to House Budget Committee

13th District Congressman Beau Boulter was selected as the only Republican freshman member to be appointed to the powerful House Budget Committee.

"I'm thrilled," Boulter said from his office. "The Budget is the number one issue, and this is the committee where things are going to happen. It is, by far, the best forum for me to do what I was sent to Washington to do - cut federal spending and bring this nation's budget into balance."

The Republican leadership in the House had postponed committee assignments several weeks because of what they considered to be unfair ratios proposed by the Democratic caucus. "What the Democratic leadership was trying to do," Boulter explained, "was further stack the deck against us. Over the past ten years, they have progressively thrown the committee ratios way out of wack with the ratio that exists between Democrats and Republicans in the House. This year, they were trying to make them even worse. Our leadership, however, stood firm and simply refused to play ball."

As a result of Republican negotiations with the Democrats, additional seats were granted on many of the committees. The Budget Committee was allotted two additional seats, one of which went to Boulter. Houston Congressman Bill Archer, senior Republican member of the Texas delegation was involved in the Executive Committee which makes the committee assignments. He said late yesterday that he was impressed by "the very strong, personal impression Beau made on each of the members of the Executive Committee." Archer also noted that it was somewhat unusual for a freshman to be given the honor of a Budget Committee seat and concluded that "Boulter talked to the right people and obviously convinced them of his commitment to balancing the budget and cutting federal spending."

"In a lot of ways," Boulter commented, "this presents a double victory. First, I'm on the best committee to accomplish what I've promised to do, and second, we've made at least some headway with the unfair committee ratio problems that had gotten so out of hand."

The Budget Committee has responsibility of developing a budget blueprint from which the House will develop a complete budget.

Boulter has expressed his support of the President's Budget Freeze plan, but has also mentioned that there are several plans on the table which he will have to consider. "I certainly have a lot of homework to get to. I'll be studying the plans that have already been put together, as well as doing some original thinking on how to improve upon those plans."

MAXIMIZE MEDICINES

We all want to get the most from the products and services we purchase with our money. Medicines are no exception. Here are five ways you can get the most out of the medicines you purchase - ways you can maximize the effectiveness of your medicines:

- [1] Because most medicines lose their effectiveness with time, old medicines should be destroyed.
- [2] When pouring liquids, keep the label up so that dripping medicine will not get on the label and make label reading difficult.

[3] Keep medicines in their original containers. Avoid placing more than one medicine in the same container.

[4] When taking medicines at night, turn on the lights and, if needed, wear glasses; read labels thoroughly.

[5] Store medicines in a cool dry place. Because the bathroom is often one of the warmest and most humid rooms in the house, the bathroom "medicine cabinet" is one of the least desirable locations to store medicines.

'84 Texas Farm Receipts up $1 billion

Texas farmers and ranchers sold about $1 billion more of their commodities in 1984 than in the previous year, but only about $100 million of that was an increase in net income.

Estimated net farm income, adjusted for inflation, remained near the lowest level since the Great Depression for the third straight year.

The increase in estimated cash receipts from farm and ranch marketings is due largely to increased crop acreage in 1984 and heavy livestock sales forced by the extensive drought. However, the adverse weather also added to the costs of crop and livestock production.

Sarpalius introduces bill to clarify student requirements

Sen. Bill Sarpalius, D-Canyon, introduced a measure that will fine-tune Texas' education reform by clarifying the requirements for a student to participate in extra-curricular activities.

The measure, S.B. 244, will require a student to pass five state-approved classes to be eligible for extra-curricular activities. Current law requires a student to pass five academic courses to maintain eligibility.

Difference in the proposed law and existing law may be subtle, Sarpalius acknowledged, but they are critical to the state's "borderline" students.

"We've got to realize that not every student in this state is going to be a college graduate," said Sarpalius, a member of the Senate Education Committee. "Many students are looking to high school to provide them with a foundation for survival in the real world, not a preparation for college."

"To punish those students doesn't seem right. It's not fair to keep a person from participating in an extra-curricular activity if he is passing all of his classes except geometry, the only course in which he may be having trouble," Sarpalius said.

According to the bill, students will have slightly more latitude in scheduling if they wish to participate in extra-curricular activities. Existing law, which is based on the now-famous H.B. 72 passed last summer by the Legislature, requires students to maintain passing grades in five academic classes.

Academic classes are courses such as English, math, science and history and are generally considered college preparatory courses. The new law still would require a student to pass five courses but would not limit the requirement to academic courses. Students would be able to count other state-approved courses, such as home economics or business, toward their extra-curricular eligibility.

Sarpalius said his bill was not designed to gut H.B. 72.

"We voted for education reform, but we never wanted it to be unfair. All we're trying to do with this bill is make the world of extra-curricular activities available to all students, not just those headed for college," he said.

The senator said he made his decision to introduce S.B. 244 after seeing the results of a poll conducted by the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals. The poll indicated 69 percent of those principals oppose the current five-academic-courses requirement.

That same poll also indicated 80 percent of the school principals would like to see a student's eligibility checked on a week-by-week basis. Since the academic leaders overwhelmingly favored a weekly plan, Sarpalius has included such a provision in his bill.

A student's eligibility will be checked every Friday, according to the provisions of the bill. If the student is not passing five state-approved courses, eligibility will be lost until the next Friday. If that student is passing at next Friday's check, he will regain his eligibility for at least seven days.

"We think this is a fair way to determine eligibility," Sarpalius said. "If a student just isn't doing his work, he won't be eligible for a week. If he learns his lesson and improves his work, he can regain that eligibility quickly."

Sarpalius acknowledged that some will attack his bill, but he said the majority of the state will support him on the measure.

"We think the people are on our side," he said. "We anticipate the support of parents, teachers and administrators alike. This bill is an answer to their complaints and one that we believe is necessary if we are to be fair to Texas' schoolchildren."

Cash receipts for 1984 agricultural marketings were estimated by Texas Agricultural Extension Service, staff and County Program Building Committees.

"Crop acreage was up sharply in 1984 following reduced plantings in 1983 due to the government's PIK program," says Dr. Carl Anderson, Extension Service economist. "However, the prolonged dry weather cut crop yields, and large world crop supplies and limited exports drove prices down at harvest."

Limited forage production and lack of stock water triggered heavy livestock marketings during the summer months. This along with stronger poultry and egg sales pushed receipts from livestock and livestock products to more than $6.4 billion for the year, Anderson points out.

Crop receipts totaled more than $3.8 billion, boosted by a large increase in cotton acreage.

Cash receipts from cotton rose sharply over 1983 to more than $1 billion, notes the economist. Other crops leading the way in cash receipts were wheat; $498 million; corn, $391 million; nursery plants, $358 million; vegetables, $333 million; grain sorghum, $304 million; rice, $168 million; peanuts, $78 million; soybeans, $68 million; and fruits and nuts, $64 million.

On the livestock side of the ledger, cattle receipts totaled about $5 billion—47 percent of the state's total agricultural sales. Poultry and egg marketings brought in $590 million; dairy products, $554 million; hogs, $90 million; wool and mohair, $61 million; sheep, $50 million; and goats $18 million.

Timber sales totaled $283 million while cash receipts from hunting leases, fish farming, horses and outdoor recreation remained strong at almost $400 million.

Looking at estimated cash receipts from farm products for 1984, Texas is challenging Iowa for second place behind California, says Anderson. The outcome will be uncertain until more data become available. Texas ranks first in sales of cattle, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cotton, cabbage, spinach and the value of farm real estate.

Texas farm assets—land, buildings, machinery, crops and livestock on hand, and financial assets—total about $90 billion. Texas boasts some 187,000 farms averaging 732 acres. Value of land and buildings averages $646 per acre.

What does all this mean to the Texas economy?

"Agriculture is a vital industry in Texas," emphasizes Anderson. "The economic impact of 1984 agricultural production in Texas is estimated at $33 billion. The agribusiness sector employs more than 20 percent of the state's work force, with many businesses and individuals providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers and processing and marketing agricultural commodities."
