Bulldogs Will Host Three Teams Of Western Conference Starting Friday

The Bulldogs will host three teams of the Western Conference Friday, Saturday and Tuesday nights. With the conference at the mid-point of its season, it is still undecided who will take first place honors.

Friday night, Lubbock Christian will invade the local court. The Bulldogs plan to take advantage of being on home grounds to overcome the 10 point defeat earlier at Lubbock.

Saturday night the ever powerful Howard County will come to town fresh with the taste of victory over San Angelo putting them in the second berth of the conference. With the Bulldogs increase in scoring power this should prove to be a hard hitting game.

Tuesday night the Bulldogs expect to give Odessa the same treatment as before, but even more so being on the home court. Odessa is the only team the Bulldogs have been able to overcome in the conference this year.

Coach White reports that the boys haven't given up yet, as their scoring power has picked up in the past three games. This, with experience the boys are ready to take on the final half of the season winning some games. The final half of the season should prove interesting, the Bulldogs plan to take their share. Game time is 8 p.m. in the college gym. Local fans will want to get out and support the team, especially this week with three good games on the agenda.

Old Glory Flying At City Hall

After considerable concern in regard to there being no United States Flag flying at the City Hall following the assassination of President Kennedy, a fund was started to purchase a suitable pole to be used at the city hall so a flag could be raised.

Monday of this week, Old Glory was raised on the new flag pole which was constructed by City employees during the snow spell at a material cost of $18.52. The pole was constructed with a hinge at the bottom of the pole so it could be lowered for painting or if trouble should be encountered with the rope and pulley system.

Mayor C. J. Lohoefer said the fund raised for the flag pole was still intact and can be used for some other worthy project in the future.

More Weather In Prospect For Area

According to weather forecasters Wednesday morning, more wet weather is in prospect with rain scheduled to begin late Wednesday and possibly 5 to 6 inches additional snow Thursday.

Most residents would like to see the last snow completely melted before another comes but we will have to take what comes.

Since the melting started, numerous roads in the area have been almost impassable and city streets have been deeply rutted and hard to negotiate. With additional rain and snow they will become a real problem with many cars hitting high center.

County Democratic Committee Sets Filing Fees

The Donley County Democratic Executive Committee met Monday in the District Court Room to apportion filing fees for the candidates in the coming primary elections.

County Chairman Mary Cooke states the fees were apportioned according to the number of candidates, the importance, compensation and term of office, and after the elections a proportional amount of the fee will be returned to all candidates, victors and losers, based on the fund remaining after primary expenses are paid.

A petition was presented to City Officials at their regular meeting last Friday night asking that an election be called, submitting to the qualified voters of the City of Clarendon the question of whether or not the City of Clarendon shall adopt the Aldermanic form of City Government.

The petition was acted upon Monday in a called meeting and the election date for such election was set for Tuesday, March 17, 1964.

In their Friday night meeting, the City Commission called the regular City Election for the election of two City Commissioners for Tuesday, April 7th.

Should the election for the Aldermanic form of City Government pass, the regular election would be void, and an election would be called to elect Aldermen to set up the new type of City Government.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

A memorial gift has been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mr. Rice Batson.

The following is a quote from "Faith Is a Star" by Huntington Hartford: "... Artists, writers, composers — all the music-makers, dreamers of dreams — are a nation's most precious product. In my view, the great artist, in spite of all his eccentricities, is the truest Christian. I say this for two reasons: 1) a real artist gives us more love in his work than all the do-gooders the world applauds, and 2) his highest work as Ruskin suggests, is the expression of his delight in God's work, not his own. Thus, in our own century of unfaith and therefore uninspired art, I have finally concluded that the greatest art is always the most religious and the greatest artist is always a devout, if not orthodox, man."

Richard O'Connor's "Courtroom Warrior" is one of the three non-fiction books about lawyers, lawsuits and courtroom dramas that are almost as interesting reading as fictional "who dunnits."

Quoting: "Courtroom Warrior" is the story of William Travers Jerome, the mercurial man who was the first of the 'fighting D.A.'s to set New York on its corrupt cauliflower ear, who was one of the most brilliant courtroom tactician of his time, who acted the Javert role in the crime of the century — the murder of Sanford White — and who might have gone all the way up the political ladder like his English cousin, Winston Churchill, had he not so superbly and fearlessly gifted in the cultivation of influentially enemies."

"... A fiery orator and a devastating cross-examiner, Jerome was hip deep in such cases as the Nan Patterson hansom cab murder.

"A man as fascinating as his era, William Travers Jerome lives again in these swift yet impeccable researched pages."

He was typical of his times in that although he was a crusader and waged a constant war on vice he managed to live by the double standard in his private life and was never exposed.

Since Panama has been so much in the news lately, the chapter about the canal and what ever happened to $40,000,000 will be of interest to those who like historical side lights. Jerome did not like either the famous publisher, Joseph Pulitzer or the then Theodore Roosevelt. When he found he could harrass both at the same time he did so with a great deal of pleasure.

A memorial gift has been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Ella Hardin.

Miss Sue Griffin Weds Johnny Rattan In Chapel Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Vivella Sue Griffin and Johnny Rex Rattan in a ceremony in the Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University recently.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Griffin of McAdoo. Rattan is the son of Mrs. Meral Rattan and the late Mr. Rattan of Clarendon.

The Rev. Elmer Ward, pastor of First Methodist Church at McAdoo officiated. The altar was decorated with baskets of red gladioli and candelabra bearing white tapers. Miss Cherry Burris of Amarillo, soloist, sang "With These Hands," and "One Hand, One Heart."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white Chantilly lace over sate-peau designed with a Sabrina neckline of scalloped lace, long tapered petal-point sleeves, and a bell shaped skirt of sate-peau accented to the center back by a white fabric rose attached to a white bow. Her shoulder length veil fell from a satin pillbox hat and she carried a bouquet of white symposium orchids surrounded by red carnations atop a white Bible.

Miss Janet Safford of Stinnett was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sandra Waters of Amarillo and Virginia Paschal of Lorenzo, cousin of the bride. Miss Kandice Burrows of McAdoo was flower girl and Ricky Rattan of Clarendon, nephew of the bridegroom was ringbearer.

Bridal attendants wore identically styled dresses of red brocade taffeta fashioned with straight skirts, jewel necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. The maid of honor carried long stemmed red carnations, and bridesmaids long-stemmed white carnations, all with satin streamers.

Jack Moreland of Clarendon, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Russell Slough of Canyon and Marvin Powell of Dumas.

A reception followed the ceremony and was attended by guests from McAdoo, Houston, Stinnett, Amarillo, Lorenzo, Crosbyton, Clarendon, Dumas, and Lubbock.

After a short wedding trip the couple is at home in Canyon where both are students at West Texas State University. For traveling the bride chose a turquoise wool suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Crosbyton High School. The groom graduated from Clarendon High School and attended Clarendon Junior College.

Ten March of Dimes Medical Advances Are Listed for Year

Ten March of Dimes-financed projects in birth defects and arthritis have been cited by The National Foundation for outstanding progress in 1963.

"In 1963 the arthritis riddle continued to baffle the experts and despite many informative studies by scientists, no significant breakthroughs concerning cause or prevention were reported," according to Dr. Theodore E. Boyd, the organization's director of scientific research.

"In birth defects research, progress was more promising," he stated. "New light was shed on the genetic code of life, on how a baby develops normally and abnormally in the womb and on the causes of some of the hundreds of defects which affect more than a quarter of a million newborns in the U. S. each year."

Dr. Boyd reported that in 1963 The National Foundation-March of Dimes awarded more than $3,812,000 for research grants. Dr. William S. Clark, medical director, also called attention to the continued rapid growth of the Foundation's treatment and research center program.

There are now 48 March of Dimes centers for birth defects and 29 for arthritis across the country, he said. Approximately 1,000 National Foundation chapters granted more than $1,500,000 to finance such centers in 1963.

The list of top ten March of Dimes-financed projects and achievements follows:

1. Test for Galactosemia. Development of an accurate blood test to detect both victims and symptom-free carriers of an inherited chemical defect called galactosemia, which causes mental retardation in babies when they drink milk. Test perfected by Dr. Arthur Robinson and associates at the University of Colorado.
2. Test for Maple Syrup Urine Disease. Development of a simple blood test to identify infants with an inherited condition named maple syrup urine disease, because of a telltale odor to the urine of its victims. The condition involves abnormalities in body chemistry and generally results in death by the age of two. Test devised by Dr. Joseph Dancis and colleagues at New York University.
3. Homograft Barrier Cracked? Apparent cracking of the "homograft barrier," a notable achievement in efforts to make adult animals permanently tolerant to organ transplants and skin grafts, which open the way to solving the problem in man. This potential major breakthrough accomplished by Dr. Robert A. Good and research team at the University of Minnesota.
4. Clues to How Cells Specialize. Evidence found to show the existence of chemical messengers between living cells which instruct cells of one kind to change their specific job. Some birth defects may be caused by errors occurring during pregnancy in this cell specialization messenger system. Research conducted by Dr. John Papaconstantinou and others at University of Connecticut.
5. New Kind of Gene Discovered. Studies of inner workings of cells revealed new kind of gene (unit of heredity) which controls the putting together of proteins into proper form. This significant research directed by Dr. Robert S. Edgar of the California Institute of Technology.
6. Viruses and Birth Defects. Tentative identification of several viruses as causing miscarriage, stillbirths and birth defects when mothers-to-be are infected during pregnancy. These preliminary findings reported by Drs. Gordon C. Brown and Thomas Francis Jr. of the University of Michigan.
7. Synthesis of Biologically Active DNA. For the first time the master code-of-life chemical DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) has been synthesized in the laboratory in a form that is biologically active. This is as close as anyone has come to creating life in the test tube. Achievement by Drs. Rose M. Litman of the University of Colorado and Dr. Wacław Szybalski of the University of Wisconsin, and their fellow investigators.
8. New Clue to Birth Defect Cause. New lead to causes of certain birth defects produced in studies of fluid imbalance in chick embryos. Several factors, such as too little oxygen, too much salt, foreign substances, resulted in salt imbalance in the blood, followed by excess accumulation of body fluids and the development of major defects and often the death of the chick. Reported by Dr. Casimer T. Grobowski, University of Miami.

9. Outbreaks of Spinal Birth Defects. Three reports made of unusual outbreaks of a serious birth defect involving the spine, two by staffs of March of Dimes birth defects centers. Increased referral centers for birth defects patients and vastly increased concern about the problem considered responsible for spotting these "epidemics" of spina bifida. Reported in Atlanta, Ga. by Birth Defects Center there; Fort Campbell, Ky., by Birth Defects Center in Nashville, Tenn., and in Vermont by Burlington physicians. The outbreaks remain unexplained despite intensive inquiry.

10. Arthritis Clues in Twin Study. Strong evidence that emotional stress triggered onset of rheumatoid arthritis was found in a study of five sets of identical twins in which one of each pair had the disease. Reported by Drs. Ralph Jacox and Sanford Meyerowitz of the March of Dimes Arthritis Center, University of Rochester.

AWARD-WINNING—Cited by California apparel manufacturers as the most outstanding new idea in men's outerwear is this jacket of laminated cotton knit. Elbow patches, welting, and collar of cotton suede add a Tyrolean flavor to this distinctive design by Salmar Sportswear.

NEAT—For color in a wardrobe, the tailored shirt of no-iron cotton oxford comes in a variety of shades. Collar band, shirt button front, and long sleeves mark it a 1963 style. By Shig 'n Shore.

Crystal City, Texas, the spinach capital of the world, has a monument to Popeye.

The first commercial ice plant in the United States was operated in Jefferson, Texas, about 1874.

Americans rank fifth in per capita meat consumption, with 1964 pounds a year attributed to each person. Ahead of us ranks New Zealand with 235 pounds a year per person; Australia, with 221 pounds; Uruguay, where meat consumption is 213 pounds; and Argentina, with 202 pounds.

AUSTIN — A controversial section of the new Texas Regulatory Loan Act, passed last year after 36 years of legislative wrangling over loan control, has been declared unconstitutional.

District Judge Herman Jones of Austin held invalid the provision that at least 51 percent of stock in lending firms operating in Texas must be owned by Texans.

Jones emphasized this was the only section of the 1963 act affected by his ruling in a suit brought by three out-of-state firms.

The companies whose subsidiaries operate in at least eight Texas cities charged the in-state ownership requirement violated state and federal due process and equal protection guarantees.

American Investment Company, a Delaware Corporation; Industrial Finance and Thrift Corporation of Louisiana; and Consolidated Credit Company of Charlotte, N.C., joined by a number of other out-of-state firms, instigated the suit.

Their subsidiaries operate in Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth, El Paso, Waco, Texas, and Arlington.

Regulatory Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell refused licenses to them.

COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION — The Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School is well ahead of schedule, reports Dr. A. B. Martin, executive director.

Earlier this year, the committee — made up of leading industrialists and educators — set an April date for preliminary reports for the recommendations due Gov. John Connally in August. Studies on education in public and private colleges and universities, and professional and technological needs have advanced so well that subcommittees and their consultants have been discharged, Martin said, and the April date has been moved back to February 19.

PARK IMPROVEMENTS STARTED — Tuesday's groundbreaking ceremonies at Falcon State Park in Starr and Zapata Counties near Zapata launched a three-park improvement program which will cost $1,041,966.

The $279,416 in improvements at Falcon will include a boat ramp, parking area, paved road, 24 shelters, 50 tent campsites with water, cooking grills, tables, three restrooms with showers and laundry units, ranger's residence and concession building.

Similar improvements are planned for Dam "B" Park near Jasper in East Texas and Lake Whitney State Park in Central Texas, according to J. Weldon Watson, Parks and Wildlife Department executive director.

TOURIST PLAN UNVEILED — A pilot plan designed to bring more foreign visitors to Texas was announced by Governor Connally.

Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales, the governor's representative, and Walter Meyer of San Antonio, who originated the plan, took off for Germany Sunday to test the program.

They hope to encourage 40 or 50 German citizens to make a 16-day red carpet tour of Texas' leading cities and historic spots from October 15 through November 2.

Texas Tourist Development Agency is sponsoring the projected program in cooperation with Chambers of Commerce and interested private citizens. No public funds are involved.

The tourists, of course, will pay their own way, although some will benefit from hospitality in Texas homes. First visitors will get special low plane fare and at-cost prices all around.

It is hoped the initial visit by the Germans will establish guidelines for a continuing long-range program to boost travel in Texas by globe-trotters from other lands.

COURT RULES ON LAND — In a 5-4 decision, the State Supreme Court overruled lower courts and directed a new trial in a dispute over oil income on 10,000 acres of Winkler County land.

Suit, brought by Southland Royalty Company against Pan American Corporation to recover a portion of proceeds from minerals produced, involves interpretation of a 39-year-old lease.

MO-FIRM PROBE URGED — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has called on State Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner to continue investigation of a collapsed California money order firm, American Security Currency Limited was doing business in 317 Texas grocery and drug stores.

Thousands of Texans reportedly were caught with valueless paper on their hands when the firm went into bankruptcy. Carr recommends getting all facts on its history and status plus full details of an alleged sale of accounts to another company also licensed by the commission.

CONNALLY IN CIRCULATION — Governor Connally returned to duty at his office in the Capitol for the first time since he was wounded in Dallas on November 22 by the assassin of President Kennedy.

Connally announced a traveling and speaking schedule which included visits to UPI and AP managing editors' conventions here; a Boy Scout report ceremony in the Capitol; Abilene's B-52 celebration on February 15; the Laredo Washington Birthday festival on February 22; the Paper Industry Salesmen's Association meeting in New York on February 25; dedication of the New York World's Fair Texas exhibit on February 26; and probably a visit with President Johnson in Washington on the way back to Texas.

LIBRARY ADDITIONS — Texas State Library last week obtained an historic treaty and an historic suit of clothes. Both are certain to be viewed by thousands in years ahead.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough presented the Library a certified State Department copy of the El Chamizal treaty signed by President Johnson on December 20 — defining the boundary along the Texas-Chihuahua and El Paso-Juarez borders. The treaty, placed on display in a glass case, ended a century-old boundary dispute.

Governor Connally, at the Library's request, turned over to the State archives the black, light-weight suit he was wearing when he was seriously wounded in Dallas. He was the first Texas governor to be the victim of an assassination attempt. The suit bears bullet holes in the back, front and right sleeve. Also placed in the archives is the blood-stained shirt Connally wore on the tragic November day, and his black and gold silk tie.

DIVERSION PAYMENTS — Agriculture Com. John C. White says Texas farmers should not count on a cotton land diversion payment plan, as has been rumored.

White says Texas farmers should go ahead and release their unwanted cotton allotments back to their local ASC committees so the permits can be reassigned to other parts of the state. He urged cotton growers to protect their future allotments by releasing unused permits before the February 4 deadline, as in years past.

BRACERO PROGRAM — The U.S. Congress has extended the bracero program for another year — through 1964 — as a compromise between the close-out or phase-out argument by states where the contract laborers from Mexico are employed. However, figures from the Texas Employment Commission indicate that a phase-out has been in effect in Texas for the past two years.

Henry LaBlanc of the commission's farm labor division reports that 38,000 braceros worked on Texas crops in August, 1961; 12,917 in August, 1962; and 12,008 in August, 1963.

WATER STUDY — Texans in the future may get very thirsty if they don't plan ahead to catch and save more water. This conclusion and other information about water, including the fact that since 1890 Texas has been using up its water resources at a rate 11 times faster than its population growth, has been spelled out for students.

The water story has been published in a 40-page illustrated booklet, "How Can We Meet Our Water Needs?" prepared by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers and printed by the Texas Education Agency.

Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar has notified school superintendents that 3,000 copies of the booklet on one of the state's most vital problems are available on request for use as resource material in junior and senior high schools.

SHORT SNORTS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr named Judge Hawthorne Phillips of Harlingen as his first assistant. He succeeds Albert Jones of Houston who had accepted temporary appointment.

"The Eyes of Texas" now is public property. The University of Texas' copyright expired on January 30, and couldn't be renewed.

Traffic death toll for 1963 was 2,793, largest in history by far, according to the Department of Public Safety. Figure is an increase of 282 over 1962.

The governor's office will be located in the old State Agriculture Department quarters on the Capitol's first floor, during extensive remodeling and enlargement of the executive suite.

UT Bureau of Business Research reports new construction in 1963 dropped $14,200,000, but expenditures for additions, alterations and repairs increased by $17,800,000 for a net gain of $3,600,000 over 1962.

State Supreme Court held the Railroad Commission can't withhold future drilling permits from operators of slanted oil wells who want to straighten their wells. Almost 1,000 slanted wells have been shut in since 1962.

Lon E. Alsop, 65, retired after 22 years as director of The Texas State Commission for the Blind. Although blind since birth, he had successful careers in business, politics and government administration.

Dr. Walter H. Fischer is new president of the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners; Dr. Harvey H. Kennedy of Longview, vice president; and Dr. Charles E. Courtion of San Angelo, secretary.

AFL-CIO President Hank Brown says that Texas labor leaders will decide February 13 at Arlington who they will support in the May primaries.

WARNING ISSUED ON TRAVELING PEDDLERS

The approaching spring season brings with it the threat of bogus tree and nursery stock salesmen operating primarily out of the backs of pickup trucks, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White warned this week.

Commissioner White said his Austin headquarters is already receiving complaints from home owners who have purchased from traveling peddlers and the plants proved to be dead or dying. The influx is apparently heavier this year and an especially troublesome area has been pinpointed around Dallas and Fort Worth.

Teams of Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors have been deployed throughout the state to be on the lookout for itinerate salesmen. Several truckloads of illegal and below standard trees have been seized, White said.

Buyers are urged by Commissioner White to buy only nursery stock which has a certificate of inspection from the Texas Department of Agriculture. This inspection certificate is required by state law but difficult to enforce on fly-by-night operators who slip in from out of state.

"I recommend that home owners buy from reputable local nurseries — or at least always ask to see the inspection certificate," said White. "Bargain plants often prove to be not such a good bargain after all."

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Estlack attended the Hardware and Implement Dealers' Convention in Amarillo Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Darnell and boys of Amarillo visited Friday night and Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Darnell.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

The Rich Variety Of Our Panhandle

Washington newspapers devoted long articles (and a page one photograph) to the blizzard that swept the Panhandle last week. The stories revived the well-known libel that only a barbed-wire fence separates the Panhandle from the North Pole. I wish the Eastern papers would say a good word for our weather when it's ideal — as it is most of the time. But the fact that the Panhandle receives such widespread attention as it did last week points up one of our regional advantages: Although it's a part of Texas, the Panhandle is regarded by the rest of the country as a place so special that it has its own separate identity. Few other regional areas can make that claim.

Our 18th Congressional District is comprised of 28 counties totaling 27,500 square miles, an area large enough to contain 22 Rhode Islands with room to spare. The 18th District is an area larger than any of ten of the Union's 50 States (Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Vermont, and West Virginia). Four of the 28 counties are each larger than the State of Rhode Island (the counties of Dallam, Deaf Smith, Hartley, and Oldham). In the 18th Congressional District could be placed at one time the entire States of Delaware, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island, and Connecticut — States represented in the House by a total of 36 Congressmen — with room left over for half of Hawaii. The District is half as large as Georgia, one-sixth the size of California, nearly as large as the State of Indiana.

The diversity of the Panhandle's rich agricultural productivity points up the variety of interests of the 18th District's people. In abundance we produce wheat, grain sorghums, vegetables, cotton, sugar beets, cattle and other livestock. The problems facing the producers of each are not identical. Approaches to the matter of government controls on agricultural production vary widely, even among producers of the same crop; in the wheat referendum last spring percentages of "yes" votes ranged from 20.5 in one county at the north end of the District (Sherman) to 80.2 in one county to the south (Cottle). The challenges to our irrigation farmers are not the same as those faced by farmers dependent on rainfall. While population is increasing in the larger cities and towns of the District, population is declining in rural areas and some smaller towns. Proposed solutions to the resultant economic problems are varied, as are the views on ways in which the Federal government should or should not be of assistance. The Canadian River Project will help meet the municipal-industrial water needs of the District's three largest cities — Amarillo, Pampa, and Borger — but smaller cities, particularly those in the Eastern Panhandle, face water problems for which solutions are still being sought. The interests of big city wholesalers and small town retailers are not necessarily the same in legislation affecting commerce. Railroad men and truckers often hold opposing views, as do men affiliated with labor organizations and men who are not.

On any given legislative issue coming before the Congress, it is possible to find within the 18th Congressional District of Texas sincere and vociferous advocacy on all sides.

The late, great Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Honorable Sam Rayburn, told me many times that he knew of no District in the United States with such wide, varied, and divergent interests, and that very few pieces of legislation came before Congress that did not have some impact directly or indirectly on our area. I think this points up the fact that the Panhandle District could aptly be called "Little America" — a section in which the people are fiercely independent, desirous of being self-sufficient, but fully realizing because of the problems of their own neighbors the many different trials and tribulations that beset mankind in all walks of life. Whether the matter before the Congress is a bill concerning the interests of the trucking industry along the Atlantic Seaboard, the building of a power dam in the far reaches of the Northwest, irrigation in the Imperial Valley of California, coal research and development in Pennsylvania, the citrus crop in Florida, the supply of gas in New York City, the texture of a steak in a Canadian restaurant, the supply of carbon black in England, the chicken problem in the Low Countries, the import question on beef, recreational facilities at a water hole, the moon program, outer space activities, and a thousand others, the Panhandle of Texas has a vital interest. After these there are many local problems that daily affect the lives of our people — information needed for a school debate, assistance in getting word to a serviceman overseas of an emergency in his family, helping to get someone on the right track in applying for a Federal license, assisting in passports, small business loans, government contracts, housing, on and on, ad infinitum. In other words, the Panhandle has it all.

Little Johnny, age 3, did not like soap and water. One day his mother was trying to reason with him, "Surely you want to be a clean little boy, don't you?" "Yes," tearfully agreed Little Johnny, "but can't you just dust me?"

Most of you will remember when some time back we asked each of our readers to send a card to Miss Diana Balogh, the young lady whose back was broken first in a car accident, and later for the second time when pushed by a student at school. The other day her older brother about 17 had the same thing happen to him. His car was hit from behind by a drunk who also became a hit and run driver. Bystanders got the license and the man was later caught. Anyhow, please send a greeting to Joe Balogh, Room 632, Baptist Memorial Hospital, Oklahoma City, Okla. Joe will appreciate it, even in later years when he has become the pharmacist which is his high hopes. Diana has scrapbooks galore from the things she received.

We heard of the wife who thought the best of all after-dinner speeches began with: "I'll do the dishes, Dearie."

Children may tear up a house a little, but they never break up a home.

People won't mind our conversation being flat provided they are the ones we flatter.

Before we start bragging about being a self-made man, it might help to explain that there is a tragic shortage of skilled labor.

Turn to page 96 of your February Reader's Digest and read the last part of the next to the last paragraph of the article about Charles Lindbergh. It explains why even though fame was thrust upon him he thrust it right back. It reads: "The limelight shines in your eyes, it blinds you; other people can see you, but you can't see them." Be sure and read the entire article. Then, read the next ten pages which has only about one statement to the page along with pictures. When you have read to the last page you will be both surprised and stunned. This article is called I Wonder Why, and is based on a new book.

Speaking of reading; for several years our devotional consists of a few chapters from the Bible immediately after breakfast. Not so long ago as a gift we were given a copy of The New Testament in Modern English, as translated by J. B. Phillips. We decided to read it through for a change. I just wanted to share with you his translation of the 13th and 14th verses of 16th chapter of First Corinthians. He calls it; "A Little Sermon In A Nutshell," and it reads "Be on your guard, stand firm in the faith, live like men, be strong! Let everything you do be done in love."

In our last column we asked for your comment on this column. We were completely flabbergasted by them. I should have said by the lack of them. Oh well, my old paint saddle horse seems to enjoy my being in deep thought. It gives him a chance to slow down to a snails pace.

Gossip is like a negative that is developed and then enlarged several times.

Bruised animals cost money in three ways. First, it takes labor to trim out bruised meat, bruised meat cannot be eaten, and the meat that is left is worth less because the consumer doesn't want to buy meat that has big holes in it.

ELECTRICITY WEEK • FEBRUARY 9-15, 1964 • ELECTRICITY POWERS PROGRESS • NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK • FEBRUARY 9-15, 1964 • ELECTRICITY POWERS PROGRESS • NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK • FEBRUARY 9-15, 1964

FROM the beginning of time, man has striven to find a source of power to make life more enjoyable; to reduce his work load. Meager ideas have led to the greatest source of energy for turning dreams into reality... electricity. There is virtually nothing that electricity cannot do... faster and cheaper than any other form of energy.

America's growth to the dynamic and industrialized civilization that it is today stems from the country's utilization of electrical power to produce a better way of life, more products, jobs and services.

Electricity powers progress... something to think about during National Electrical Week.

from County ASCS Committee

964 Wheat Performance

Those of you who have a wheat allotment and have received your double post card requesting information concerning wheat seeded on your farm are urged to complete, sign, and return them. If they are not returned your farm might suffer a reduction in wheat history credit.

ACP News

We are getting well under way in the 1964 ACP Program; to date we have had a total of 113 applications filed for cost-share assistance. These total $20,041.82 obligated. Our operating budget for 1964 is $57,895.00. These practices include deep plowing, terracing, stockwater dams, applying cotton burs, permanent grass, and sod waterways. In view of the fact the deep plowing practice is the most used at this particular time we would like to call the following facts to your attention. This practice is not eligible for cost-share assistance on any acreage on where there is adequate cover on the land to control wind erosion; or on land on which this practice was carried out in 1959 or a subsequent year. The statement or where there is adequate cover on the land to control wind erosion disqualifies any land that has recently expired from the conservation reserve and has never been broken out or any land where cotton burs have been applied or any land where there is a good stand of seeded grass, wheat, rye, barley or any fall crop. We will be glad to talk with you any time about your conservation problem and help you in any way that we can. Remember, your future business depends on how well you use your soil today.

1964 Feed Grain Program

February 10 through March 27
We will be glad to discuss the Feed Grain Program with you as it concerns your farm if you so desire.

1964 Cotton

Anyone who does not intend to plant any or part of their 1964 cotton allotment is urged to release their allotment to retain full history credit for future years, and to make it available to those producers who apply for additional cotton acreage. March 4 is the final day to release extra cotton or apply for additional cotton to plant.

Office News

We are very glad to have with us James E. Griffin from Stinnett, Texas, for the next few weeks. Mr. Griffin has been hired as county office manager for Hutchinson County and is taking county office manager's training in Donley County. We hope that each of you will have an opportunity to meet him before he takes over his duties in Hutchinson County.

We are happy to report our Ruby is doing well after surgery. Any cards and letters you wish to send will be received at Highland General Hospital, Room 334, Pampa, Texas.

The storm caused only minor disruptions in other activities. The basketball game with South Plains on Tuesday has been postponed until a later date. The Bulldogs managed to go to Roswell to play New Mexico Military on Friday night.

The meeting of the Donley County TSTA was postponed from February 5th to the 12th in the high school cafeteria at 4:30 p.m.

The regular monthly meeting of the Library Faculty Committee met in the Library Monday, February 10th. Plans were made to observe National Library Week to be held in April.

Lederer were purchased by the members of the committee to make the book more available to the students. The book was selected by the committee at an earlier meeting as the Book of the Year to read for all classes.

MEET THE FACULTY

Born in Ambrose, Grayson County, Mrs. Dema Justice went to Western Oklahoma with her parents in a covered wagon. She has spent most of her adult life in the Panhandle area coming to Clarendon after teaching in the Wellington schools.

Mrs. Justice teaches government in the night school and by day she is the librarian in the high school. She holds degrees from both Texas Technological College and North Texas State University.

Aside from teaching and keeping librarians hours she finds time to read, sew and work in her garden. Her greatest weakness is to travel, just mention it to her and she's ready to go.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson attended the annual Hardware and Implement Dealers' Convention held in Amarillo Saturday through Monday.
