ANNUAL STOCK SHOW WILL SURPASS ALL OTHER YEARS

Banquet Beef Producers Will Parade Here March First and Second. Swine and Lamb Exhibit Is Far Above Former Years

The divisions for the 1940 Donley County Fat Stock Show will remain the same as in 1939 with the exception of the swine. The 38 calves will be shown in the junior and senior divisions, groups of five, and reserve and grand champions. The lambs will be shown in the fat fine wool, fat mutton type, groups of five, and reserve and grand champions. The swine will be shown by breeds for the first time. Black Poland Chinas, Durocs, Hampshires and Spotted Poland and crossbreeds will constitute the four classes of fat pigs. All breeds and crossbreeds will compete against each other in the pens of three and litters as in the 1939 show. Champions of the four divisions will compete for the grand Champion premiums. The grand champion premiums will be $10 for calf, $5 for pig, and $3 for lamb, and the grand champion premiums will be contributed by the Clarendon Lions Club. Approximately 50 lambs and over 200 fat pigs are expected to bring the total entries to over 300 animals.

E. R. Regenbrecht, Extension Swine Specialist, will judge the swine and lambs, and K. J. Edwards, Extension Service District Agent, will judge the calves. The stock show committee has ruled that all entries must be on the grounds of the show not later than 3 p. m. March 1st, and that the judging of the swine and lambs will be held on the morning of the 2nd, and the calves in the early afternoon of the same day.

Burglars Make Haul At Lelia

NO CLUES ARE LEFT AFTER BREAKING GLASS DOOR

Returning from Amarillo about 3 a. m. Friday, A. I. McGowan of Lelia Lake noticed that his front garage and workshop was open. He investigated and found the building had been forcibly entered by the glass being broken in the front door. He called Sheriff Pierce and Deputy Wright who responded at once and began an investigation.

The party or parties left no clues. Not even finger prints. The only clue so far known, and that is merely surmise the Sheriff stated, is that a car bearing a California license plate that had to be started with a "shove" here went east soon after midnight.

Mr. McGowan lost about six dollars from his cash register which was broken into. Two auto floor jacks are missing. Other items missed from the stock are two batteries; 3 cases of Germ processed oil; a half inch electric drill and minor articles.

Soil Conserved In Old Donley

WORK OF TERRACING BEGAN IN EARNEST IN 1929 HAS INCREASED EACH YEAR

County Agent, H. M. Breedlove, announced this morning that terracing was in full swing and that lines were being run for farmers as quickly as possible. Up to the present date 11,560 acres of land have had terrace lines run on them. County Agent, H. M. Breedlove, estimates that this total is going to reach approximately 20,000 acres of land on which terrace lines will be run instead of the 17,000 which was the first estimate by this office.

One of the most important soil building practices which is being carried out by farmers in connection with terracing and contouring is strip cropping on the contour. Breedlove says that he is going to try to run lines for every farmer who has advised him that he wishes lines run on his farm.

BANKRUPT SALE HAS ONLY LOWEST BIDDERS

The involuntary bankrupt sale of the stock, fixtures and accounts of F. W. Rathjen found few takers at the public auction Tuesday. The first bids were $135 on fixtures, $325 on the shoe stock. Lumped together, the final bid was said to have been $475. J. T. Patman bid in the share in the Country Club at $40. Dallas parties took the rest of the goods. Accounts and notes said to run over two thousand dollars, sold for five dollars. The real estate consisting of town lots, got no bid.

Little information can be had relative to the purported sale of the City Gas company assets here. There has been much speculation and discussion with few facts pointing to a bonafide deal.

The public records show that on February 10, 1940, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Barnett of Roberts county, gave the Upham interests a deed of trust on the property as security. The security is alleged to have become necessary when the Barnetts signed ten notes of $12,000 each. The notes are to be paid over a series of ten years, the first in 1941.

The records recite that the notes are given in part payment for the properties of the City Gas company here, at Hedley and Lelia Lake. N. P. Hines of Mineral Wells is named trustee in the deed of trust.

When the Railroad Commission upheld the City's contention for a reduced gas rate based on an alleged 10-year contract some two years ago, a number of patrons deposited with the gas company checks covering the charges at the new rate of 54 cents a thousand. These checks have been held in escrow pending a decision of the Court of Civil Appeals after a District Court in Austin upheld the decision of the Railroad Commission. Those checks are said to have been cashed Monday.

The gas case is pending before the Court of Civil Appeals at this time. The Attorney General's department represents the Railroad Commission in all courts since it is a state matter.

The editor of the Leader received a letter Monday from Attorney General Gerald C. Mann replying to a question as to when the court might return a decision. Mr. Mann states:

"The Clarendon rate case is in the Court of Civil Appeals. I do not know when we may expect a decision from that court, but I feel that they may be waiting on the Supreme Court of Texas, which now has under consideration the Lone Star Gas rate case where the same problems are involved. We are to argue the Lone Star case on the 21st of this month. The decision of your case in the Court of Civil Appeals, in my opinion, will depend, to a large extent, on the date the Supreme Court of Texas writes on the Lone Star case."

Based upon the above information, gas patrons of the City Gas company may know what to expect soon after the 21st of this month.

According to an attorney, any sale of the company will in no wise effect the controversy in the courts since the company filed a bond when the case was appealed.

Biology students will be interested in an unusually large, and vicious looking, centipede, preserved in alcohol, given to the Museum by Mr. Will Chamberlain. This specimen was found alive by diggers in the fossil fields.

The Museum will be open each Monday afternoon from one-thirty to four o'clock.

CLARENDON F. F. A. CHAPTER WINS STATE SWINE CONTEST

Adviser J. R. Gillham of the local F.F.A. Chapter, received word this week from J. L. Moss, Chairman of the State F.F.A. Swine Production contest that the local chapter had won first place in the state F.F.A. Swine Production Contest in competition with the other 617 F.F.A. organizations in the state of Texas, during 1939. The contest was sponsored by the State Swine Breeders Association and the first place award carried a cash premium of $100 for first place.

The following is the contents of the letter as received by Gillham from Moss:

"The State Future Farmers' Swine Production Contest Committee met and examined each exhibit sent in this contest. We are happy to announce that Clarendon won first place by a wide margin. "Your exhibit was the most complete exhibit that I have ever seen in any contest. I am using it in my classes today as an example of what can be done by the people that do the common things uncommonly well."

The Clarendon Chapter is now recognized throughout the state as one of its strongest F.F.A. organizations, and the swine production program of the chapter is outstanding in comparison to that carried out by other chapters. In 1939 the chapter produced over 100,000 pounds of pork in feeding 337,000 pounds of home grown grains to over 500 heads of pigs. Pastures and self feeders were also featured in the swine production program.

GAS COMPANY'S POLICY

Today's news tells of an order from the Texas Railroad Commission ordering a reduction of natural gas rates to 45c per thousand cubic feet for a number of West Texas towns including Hereford, Canyon and Tulla. While other towns are seemingly winning out on their rate reduction fights, Perryton goes on paying 60c for gas even though we were one of the first to move for lower rates.—Perryton Herald.

Tree Covering For Dust Bowl Is Expanding

The forestry crew here is whipping the planting job into shape since the recent bad weather. More than a million seedling trees will be planted from the stock now healed out on the old grammar school block, it is said. Trees by the millions are growing in the southern Great Plains today, protecting farm lands and homes from the force of the wind, and providing recreational spots where only a few years ago dust storms and black blizzards were rolling across a vast expanse of almost treeless plain.

throughout most of the area, and planting programs are already underway. "Among the trees selected, the honey locust, green ash, Russian mulberry, Hackberry, and Chinese Elm are proving successful on the plains," Mr. Hood said.

FREED PRISONER GOES RIGHT BACK TO FEDERAL PRISON

PHOENIX.—Tom Beasley, 51 years old, did a little traveling recently, but he wound up right back where he started from. And that was in the federal prison camp near Tucson.

When Beasley completed a five-month sentence for selling liquor to an Indian, B. J. McKinney, U. S. marshal, greeted him with the information there was the matter of a little unfinished business awaiting his appearance in U. S. District Court in Phoenix.

So Beasley was escorted here by Mr. McKinney, and appeared before Judge Dave W. Ling on a charge of unlawfully appropriating to his own use petrified wood found within the boundaries of the Petrified Forest National Monument. He pleaded guilty and a few minutes later he was on his way back to Tucson with Mr. McKinney.

Beasley will start a three-month term in the federal prison camp when he arrives in Tucson.—Holbrook News.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH CENSUS SHOWS METHODISTS LEAD

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—The great amount of religious activity at the University of Texas was indicated here recently in a report which showed that 86 per cent of 10,900 students are active members of 31 churches, and the remaining 14 per cent have some preference in creeds.

Counting 2,878 student members, Methodists were most predominant on the campus, Baptists, with 1,190; Presbyterians, 1,168; Catholics, 805; Episcopalians, 791; and Jewish, 261, were next in order. The other sects showed membership figures from above 100 to as few as two—membership in the Disciples of Christ and Mohammedan churches.

Among students who are not church members but still professed a church preference, 419 favored the Methodist Church; 272, the Baptist; 140, Presbyterian; 87, Christian; 81, Episcopal; 72, Christian Science.

Of the University faculty members, 90 per cent are active church members, according to Miss Mary Decherd, chairman of the nine-member religious life committee.

Said he: "If our thoughts are pure so will our lives be pure." In summing up his talk, Rev. We thoughtfully enjoyed having Rev. and Mrs. King in our meeting. We extend to them a cordial invitation to return.

Russo-Finnish Conflict Started In 18th Century

By Dr. E. M. Caldwell
Head, History Dept.
Trinity University
Waxahachie, Texas

The present Russo-Finnish war is the latest phase of a rivalry of long standing. As a dependency of Sweden, Finland was drawn into the eighteenth century war between Sweden and Peter the Great of Russia. Peter won the war, and thus fulfilled his ambition of securing a "window" toward the west, that is, certain portions of the Baltic sea-coast. Here he soon founded the city of St. Petersburg (now Leningrad). As a result of the war Peter also obtained a strip of southern Finland, including a strong fortress. It is interesting to note that he, like Stalin at the present time, considered it essential that Russia hold strong positions on the southern coast of Finland, in order to insure the security of his new capital city.

The curtain next lifts, approximately a century later, on a scene on a raft moored in the middle of a river in eastern Europe. Napoleon and the Russian Tsar Alexander are on the raft discussing terms of peace, two giants playing a game in which the pawns were whole nations and peoples. At the feet of Napoleon lay Prussia and Austria; Alexander for his part was given to understand that he might deal as he saw fit with Finland and Turkey! Early in 1808, accordingly, Russia invaded Finland.

Treaty Restores Finland

Thenceforward Finland remained a stubbornly unwilling and troublesome part of the Russian Empire up to the time of Russia's defeat by Germany during the World War. By the severe treaty of Brest-Litovsk, 1917, Germany forced Russia, among other things, to give up all her Baltic areas except the Leningrad vicinity, which found itself, therefore, half surrounded by potentially hostile foreign states. This weak strategic position of Leningrad since the World War is the reason assigned by Stalin for Russia's need of additional territory now belonging to Finland, on which Russia may establish military posts.

Among the peoples liberated from the Russian yoke by the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, were the Finns. Though Germany proceeded immediately to establish her control over Finland, under the kingship of the Kaiser's brother-in-law, her own defeat by the Allies in 1918 left the Finns free to establish, in time, a form of government of their own choosing, namely, the democratic republic with which we are acquainted today.

Anti-Bolshevist Reaction

One other item in the background of Russo-Finnish rivalry needs to be mentioned. Following the World War, there arose the general anti-Bolshevist reaction in Europe which led to the launching of an armed intervention in Russia by various of the powers, including the United States. Now, closely identified with

Built To Stay Beautiful

It looks as if old age will be a long time overtaking this beautiful pair. The refrigerator is General Motors' new 1940 Frigidaire Cold Wall 8, with gleaming white porcelain finish augmented by eye-appealing chromium trim.

New Frigidaires Now On Display

Improvement of features which offer exclusive advantages and addition of other features that are new this year make 1940 Frigidaires outstanding in economy, appearance, utility and operation, according to Chas. M. Lowry, local Frigidaire appliance dealer, who announces that the new models may be seen at the showroom, located at West Texas Utilities Co.

"With new and graceful lines used in 1940 design only after a thorough nation-wide survey to determine the style of cabinet women most desire, and with rich appearing chromium trim and massive chrome door handle on every model, the new Frigidaires have unequalled beauty that will harmonize with any kitchen," Mr. Lowry said.

"Another forward step also has been accomplished in the economy of the meter-miser cold making mechanism. While it always has cost little to operate, the 1940 meter-miser supplies cold at less cost than ever before.

"Convenience features also have been expanded in the new models, one of which is a window-top hydrator. The hydrator, in which humidity reaches a level of as much as 97%, is the scientifically designed vegetable fresher and preserver which has long been a popular Frigidaire feature. With a glass lid, or window-top, the dewy-moist hydrator offers increased convenience, for its contents are readily visible without any necessity for removing it from the food compartment.

"Another feature which has been re-designed in 1940 models is the Meat Tender, the fresh meat storage container in which humidity, temperature and air circulation all are properly balanced. This year, the Meat Tender is of white annealed glass with a metal safty lid which may be used as a defrosting tray.

"All shelves in 1940 models are attractively finished in stainless chromium which gives them enduring lustre even under conditions of severe usage. Shelf arrangement also has been improved with more space being provided between shelves.

"A unique and useful addition also is an illuminated cold control panel which increases the ease of making temperature adjustments. Automatic interior lighting, too, is continued in the current models.

"These, of course, are just a few of the many refinements to be found in 1940 Frigidaires. An inspection of the new models at our showroom will reveal many more, all of which have been introduced to give the user more service at less cost."

One Dollar To Return Three On New Ranch Plan

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 14.—One dollar will get you three, in range and pasture improvement work.

That is the experience of 1,720 Texas farmers and ranchmen who have been demonstrating the value of various practices on 77,790 acres of grass land in cooperation with county agricultural agents.

Careful records on these demonstrations, compiled by R. R. Lancaster, pasture specialist of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, show that the average original cost of improvement was $2.28 per acre, the average annual cost of maintaining improvements 44 cents per acre, and that the annual value of the work is $3.50 per acre.

In addition to the demonstrators, 8,023 farmers and ranchmen carried on similar work on 9,155,699 acres and reported similar results.

Various methods of pasture improvement included deferred grazing on 4,275,486 acres; clearing of mesquite on 140,915 acres; prickly pear, 1,157,952; lechuguilla, 57,420; cedar, 578,915; and miscellaneous shrubs, 73,608 acres. Much of this work was done in cooperation with the AAA's range conservation program.

Mowing of pastures was practiced on 290,067 acres. This, according to Lancaster, is one of the most effective methods of improving grass lands, especially in the East Texas and Gulf Coast sections. Fertilization of pastures, still in the experimental stage, have been reported. In 1939, 1,298,679 pounds of seed—738,707 of grass and 559,972 of clover—were planted.

this anti-red, or "white" counter-revolution, was Finland, under her doughty General Gustav Mannerheim. The Bolsheviks, however, successfully defended themselves, and ultimately Finland along with the other new-born Baltic states, signed treaties of peace with Bolshevik Russia. But the memory of the anti-Bolshevist stand of Finland during these critical years for Russia, and Finland's peculiarly Scandinavian anti-redness, undoubtedly enter into the present bitterness between the two countries.

As noted above, Stalin's policy today in seeking security for Russia's Baltic outlet is right in line with Russia's traditional policy from the days of Peter the Great. Similarly, Stalin's recent attempt to secure from Turkey concessions for Russia in regard to the Dardanelles, the "striveaway" to Russia's "back door," is but a continuation of Russia's historic policy of seeking to secure her own control over these strategic straits. Throughout the nineteenth century the main dependence of both Turkey and Germany in opposing this Russian ambition was Great Britain's opposition to it, backed by the might of the British navy. Recently, in the face of the renewed Russian threat, Turkey, as we know, once more threw herself into the arms of Great Britain. Italy, openly hostile to Russia's aggression against the Finns, can be counted on to be still more opposed to any possible future expansion of Russian influence and power in southeastern Europe.

As for Italy's ostensible axis-partner, Germany: How much does she fear Russia's dangerous age-old ambitions, especially in so far as they relate to control of the Baltic through the conquest of key positions now held by Finland? Does the departure of the German liner Bremen, from its one-time haven in the Russian port of Murmansk, indicate cooling of Russo-German relations? Is the recent sinking of a German freighter by a submarine in the Baltic Sea (believed to be a Russian submarine), a sign of things to come?

Answers to such questions must await further developments.

Margaret Sullivan and Jas. Stewart Star in 'The Shop Around the Corner'

The most interesting star-director teaming of the year is featured in "The Shop Around the Corner," which comes next Wednesday and Thursday to the Pastime Theatre for an engagement of two days. It marks the return to the screen of Margaret Sullivan for the first time since her memorable performances in "Three Comrades" and "The Shining Hour," and if co-stars her with James Stewart, who is still winning acclaim for his outstanding portrayals in two recent film hits, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" and "Destry Rides Again." And it was produced and directed by Ernest Lubitsch, who directed Greta Garbo in "Ninotchka," a hilarious satirical comedy.

Lubitsch hand picked his cast for this, his favorite story, which is played against the background of a colorful street in Budapest and the busy little shop. Miss Sullivan and Stewart are clerks in the shop, who quarrel constantly until they discover that the reason they quarrel is because they are in love. Frank Morgan is the shop owner. Joseph Schildkraut is the trouble-maker. Felix Bressart is the timid clerk, afraid of the boss, the butcher and the doctor, while others in the notable supporting cast are Sara Haden, William Tracy, Inez Courtney, Sarah Edwards, Edwin Maxwell, Charles Halton and Charles Smith.

TEXAS STUDENTS HOLD MOST REMARKABLE SCHOOL RECORD

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—More than half of the 10,929 students enrolled in the University of Texas during the long session of 1938-39 earned part of their expenses. E. J. Mathews, registrar, has reported.

For male students alone, the figure reached seventy per cent, he added. One fourth of the women enrolled worked to make a grand total of fifty-six per cent.

New JOHN DEERE Models "A" and "B" TRACTORS

DOWN through the years John Deere has recognized that tractor leadership which has been attained by giving highest quality and honest value can be continued only by offering an ever-increasing measure of value.

Only by driving the new John Deere Model "A" or "B" General Purpose Tractor can you fully appreciate the great progress which has been made. Check the John Deere for modern design, unexcelled vision, and easy handling... check it for simplicity, ability to burn the low-cost fuels successfully, and for strength... ask any John Deere owner about long life and the fine line of integral and drawn equipment available... check these tractors on your own ideas of what good general purpose tractors should be and you'll see why they continue John Deere leadership in tractor value. ### LOCAL DRUGGIST GIVES OUT TIMELY WARNING

Many Local Citizens Neglect
Cold Coughs Which Later on Prove Dangerous.

A prominent druggist of our city when interviewed recently said: "The majority of the people do not realize the danger of a cough due to a cold or exposure. Such a cough is nature's warning that perhaps your resistance has been weakened by cold and your system is susceptible to dangerous complications."

He advises, at the very first sign of a cough due to a cold, to start taking Mentho-Mulsion, for only in Mentho-Mulsion can be found genuine beechwood creosote, menthol, and other ingredients recommended by doctors, all combined in a base of pure California fig syrup.

Follow this good advice. Mentho-Mulsion is displayed, recommended, sold and guaranteed by good druggists everywhere.—adv.

F. F. A. MEMBERS COMPLETE TREE PLANTING AND PRUNING

A survey of the homes of the forty-five F.F.A. members revealed information that a great many people are still trying to rise fruit in Donley County. Twenty eight of the forty-five chapter members homes have fruit trees of some form. Peaches and cherries are the most common and grapevines are found at a number.

The chapter members recently worked the trees at the campus, at the Methodist church, and the city park, and each member who has fruit trees at home is rejuvenating them by pruning and other work to increase their bearing qualities.

Mrs. John Blocker and Mrs. Moore of Amarillo were guests of Mrs. Sayre Monday.

Miss Geraldine Summers left Tuesday to spend some three months as a patient of the state sanatorium near San Angelo.

Cooling Plant Assured Fact

LOCAL MERCHANTS TO HAVE CONVENIENCE SIMILAR TO OTHER MODERN TOWNS

Plans are practically complete at this time for the immediate construction of a modern refrigerated locker storage vault in Clarendon. U. J. Boston and Howard Stewart will install the vault in connection with The Farmers Exchange Store, where it will be operated as an added convenience service for the people of this community.

Last week Mr. Boston and Mr. Stewart visited similar plants at Matador, Turkey, Floydada, Plainview, Dimmitt, and Hereford, and found that the plan is meeting with general approval in each of those trade territories.

Plants of this type have been in operation for a number of years in many of the Northern States, and have proved to be very popular—even in those colder climates. Although comparatively new in this section, the public response has been enthusiastic in every community where the service is available.

Fresh beef, pork, poultry, fish, fruits, and vegetables, when placed in such storage, are quickly frozen, and can be kept there indefinitely. Each locker space is separate, is provided with an individual lock, is readily accessible, and contains approximately six cubic feet for storage of foods.

Quite a number of people have already expressed a desire for one or more of the lockers, and many more are becoming interested each day. Those who would like to have more information about the matter should see Mr. Boston or Mr. Stewart, either of whom will be glad to explain all the details.

Parity Payment Plan Outlined

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Agriculture Department told today how it would distribute $225,000,000 in parity payments among farmers who cooperate with this year's federal crop control programs.

This fund, appropriated last year, would be divided among the basic crops as follows:

Cotton $96,000,000, corn $48,600,000, wheat $57,100,000, and rice $300,000. The balance will be used to complete 1939 parity payments, to meet administrative expenses and to provide a reserve.

This allocation was made, officials said, on the basis of a formula established by farm legislation.

The amount set aside for each crop would be divided among cooperating farmers at these rates:

Cotton 1.35 cents per pound, corn 5 cents a bushel, wheat 10 cents a bushel, and rice 1.7 cents per hundredweight.

The parity payments would be in addition to $498,560,000 recommended by President Roosevelt for soil conservation payments.

The soil conservation payment rates on the basic crops are:

Cotton 1.6 cents a pound, corn 10 cents a bushel, wheat 9 cents a bushel.

No, neither claims to be a candidate for any political office.

Approximately forty home making students and their instructor, Miss Berry, were guests of the F.F.A. chapter in its regular meeting, Thursday, February 8th. Games of shuffleboard, table tennis, horse-shoes, dominoes, were played from 7 o'clock until 8:15. The group gathered in the music room and sang a number of old songs and then returned to the F.F.A. meeting room.

Following the disposal of the regular business by the F.F.A. organization the two groups of students engaged in a round table discussion of girl and boy relations that was entered into and enjoyed by all members present. The chapter members served hot chocolate and cake at the conclusion of the program.
