Wednesday Deadline for Paying Poll Tax

The deadline is drawing near and it appears that a large number of Donley County residents don't care whether they have a voice through the power to vote or not, as indicated by the small number of Poll Tax receipts issued to date with only six days remaining to pay up. The deadline is Wednesday, Jan. 31st.

A total of only 685 poll tax receipts had been issued here by Wednesday morning of this week which is less than half the number it should be. This means that a lot of folks will have to hustle if they want voting privileges.

The Clarendon Jaycees will make it more convenient for a lot of people this week end by setting up a booth at the Post Office here Friday and Saturday, January 26-27 and will issue poll tax receipts between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on those days.

For residents in the Hedley area, the Jaycees are setting up a booth at the Cherry Drug Store Saturday, January 27th.

In addition to a general election year, many other important elections could possibly be called that might affect you personally and your right to vote would certainly mean a lot. Don't be a victim of the deadline—Pay Your Poll Tax Today.

All persons between 21 and 60 must obtain poll tax in order to vote. Persons who attained the age of 60 prior to January 1, 1961 are not required to obtain an exemption in a county where the population does not exceed 10,000. All who will become 21 years of age this year must get their exemption certificate if they want to vote... and the exemption is free.

MOTHER OF CAP MORRIS DIES WEDNESDAY

First Negro Serving On Jury Here

A jury of four women and eight men were selected here Tuesday in a change of venue civil case in District Court. Mrs. Mable Moore, one of the four women, is the first Negro to ever serve on a Donley County jury.

The case being tried here is a suit filed by Mrs. W. N. (Queen) Robberson of Amarillo against former Amarillo bail bondsman Herold E. Erlanson and his wife, Flora, for recovery of the $94,000 in bills of large denominations she says they took from a lock box in the Amarillo National Bank. She also asked $4,000 for a diamond ring she says disappeared while she lived with the Erlansons at their Amarillo home following her conviction in Amarillo on a charge of possession of narcotics. She also seeks $50,000 in exemplary damages.

The case was moved to the Donley County Court House on a change of venue from Amarillo after the 47th District Judge Gene Jordan agreed that newspaper publicity might have made it difficult to obtain a jury in Amarillo.

Judge Luther Gribble of Wellington is presiding over the civil action here. George McCarthy is representing Mr. and Mrs. Erlanson. Mrs. Robberson is represented by Amarillo attorneys Ben Monning Sr., Ben Monning Jr., Hugh Humphries, W. T. Link, local attorney and County Attorney Bill Lowe.

The list of jurors selected for the trial are Lacy Noble, Mrs. Dick Cannon, Mrs. Bob Head, Mable Moore, Freddie Hutson, J. R. Brandon, Pete Land, C. B. Roberts, R. D. Castner, Mrs. Naomi Phelan, Jake Roberts and N. E. Shields.

The trial is expected to last several days and in all probability will be quite spicy. A good crowd of spectators has been on hand for the trial so far.

Bulldog Ace Leads WJCAC Scoring

Ray DeBord, sophomore all-stater from Sunray, took a slight lead in the scoring of the Western Junior College Athletic Conference basketball race. The Clarendon College ace scored 36 points against the West Texas State Freshmen at Canyon last Saturday night to bring his average to 22.6 points per game to take the lead from Howard County's Walter Carter, who has a 22.4 average. DeBord has scored 249 points in eleven games and Carter has scored 380 points in seventeen games.

Other scoring leaders include C. M. Reddington of New Mexico Military Institute with an average of 22.3 and Tracy Cox of Frank Phillips with a 21.8 average.

DeBord is also fourth in total number of free throws. He has a total of 67 as compared to 126 for Carter, 101 for Collins of South Plains and 84 for Cox of Frank Phillips. However, Carter has played 17 games, Collins, 19 and Cox, 12 as compared to eleven for DeBord.

Services Held Wed. for Odis Spier

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church for Odis Henry Spier with Rev. Baldwin Stribling officiating.

Survivors include a daughter, Carmelita Glazer of Wisconsin; two sons, Haskell Neal Spier of California and Larry Spier of Oregon; one brother, J. H. Spier Jr. of Clarendon and four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Clyde Putman, Guy Putman, Mayburn Trout, Gene Putman and Bob Williams.

Burial was in Citizens Cemetery with the Murphy Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Bronchos Meet Canadian Here Next Tuesday Night

The next home basketball game for the local high school teams will be against the Canadian High School Wildcats next Tuesday night. The girls game will get underway at seven o'clock. The teams will travel to Memphis this Friday night for games with the Memphis teams.

The local girls are enjoying one of their best seasons in many years as they have compiled a record of 17 wins and only two defeats. Paula Adams is leading the scoring with an average of 23.7 points per game and Dorothy Richey, playing her first year as she is only a freshman, is second with an 12.6 average. The other regular forward, Judy Castner, is averaging 7.1 points per game. The Bronchoettes, as a team, are averaging 50.3 points per game and have held their opponents to a 30.5 average. The low scoring of their opponents is a credit to Clarendon's fine defensive trio of Peggy Jackson, Molly Floyd and Jeanette Rampy. Janie Ivey also plays a lot at guard as does Connie Martin.

The reserve forwards, Brenda McAnear and Sharon Williams, have also played well and Jeanette Rampy has played both forward and guard.

The boys are also enjoying a winning season. Their record at present is ten wins and eight defeats. They are scoring at the rate of 49.1 points per game as compared to their opponent's 45.3. Billy Spier and James Allen are having a two-man race for scoring honors with Spier hitting for a 13.5 average and Allen is close behind with an average of 12.2. Dwight McAnear is next with 7.1 followed by John Cearley with 6.9, Jerry Elmore with 6.3 and Herman Vinson with 4.8.

David McAnear Shows Champion Barrows At Local Show

The Donley County Barrow show was held at the Donley County Fair Barn on Saturday, Jan. 20. The judge for the show was Clarence Smith, registered swine breeder from Hale Center and former member of the Texas Tech College Livestock team.

David McAnear showed both the Grand and Reserve champion of the show with two very trim, meaty Poland Chinas. Following the show here a number of the barrows were taken to Amarillo and entered in the show there.

Winners were as follows in order named:

Bulldogs Play Two Games At Home This Week End

This will be a big week-end for the CJC Bulldogs and their supporters. They continue their Western Junior College Conference basketball activity with a game with the tall and talented New Mexico Military Institute on Friday night and then entertain the always powerful San Angelo Rams on Saturday night. Both games will begin at eight o'clock and will be played in the new high school gymnasium.

The Bulldogs are still looking for their first conference win of the season although they have played well in their three defeats. They lost to Lubbock Christian College, 69 to 65; Frank Phillips, 92 to 77 and Amarillo, 80 to 71. Both NMMI and San Angelo are expected to be as strong or stronger than any of the teams the Bulldogs have met. New Mexico Military Institute has a 6-3 record and two of their three defeats have been at the hands of the strong Howard County Jayhawks. They recently defeated Amarillo, 67 to 44 at Roswell. The San Angelo team is always strong and at present have a record of eight wins against three defeats.

Coach Brown of the Bulldogs will probably start a team composed of Jimmy Zaring at center, Alvin Scott and Ray DeBord at forwards and Billy Wiggins and Kenneth Martindale at guards. Max Courtney, the 6-8 center from Wellington, was out of school the early part of the week and missed Tuesday night's trip to Roswell and is a doubtful starter. Brokeny Jones is still nursing a bruised thumb and will not be back in action for another few days. Dee Blevins, a 6-5 sophomore from Spearman, will become eligible on Friday night and will probably see some action.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ahlstrom on the Jo McMurttry ranch at Goodnight was destroyed by fire about noon Monday of this week. All of the Ahlstroms household and personal effects were lost in the fire. Mr. Ahlstrom is 6'2" and weighs 185 lbs. Mrs. Ahlstrom wears size 12 and a daughter 16 wears size 10, both wear a size six shoe. They have a boy age 5 and two other daughters age 4 and 3 years. These folks need your help right away as they lost everything.

David Hudgins was the high scoring individual in the Hereford contest and fourth highest in the Childrens contest. Frank Hermesmeyer was the fourth high individual and Johnny Longan was the fifth high individual in the Hereford contest. The team was consistent in their scoring at both contests. Rep.

GROUND CONTROL APPROACH SYSTEM—A guard at the mobile GCA site watches an Army aircraft soar skyward at Pyongtaek's K-6 Airfield in Korea. This same plane was tracked by the radar unit at left and guided safely "home" several hours later by instructions from the GCA crew. It was the radio messages of these radar operators that accounted for the safe landing of approximately 100 inclement weather flights during joint ROK-U. S. training exercise, "Operation Turnback."

OLD MEETS NEW—Weathered ruins of an abandoned adobe ranchhouse provide a century-old foreground as the U. S. Army's mighty REDSTONE ballistic missile rises in smoke and flame to begin a supersonic journey across White Sands Missile Range. The recent firing of the 70-foot-tall missile was conducted at the missile range in south-central New Mexico by Battery B, 4th Missile Battalion, 333rd Artillery, Ft. Sill, Okla. Soldiers of this unit normally are stationed with REDSTONE units of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces in Europe.

Texas & Panhandle Press Associations

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE NEW SESSION

On January 10, 1962, the House of Representatives of the United States Congress convened for the second session of the 87th term of Congress. The session commenced with the usual handshaking and greeting among the Members returning to the Nation's Capital for further consideration of the old problems, and attacking the new. The oath was administered to the new Speaker by the man who has served longest in the House, to-wit: the Honorable Carl Vinson of Georgia, Chairman of the Committee on Armed Services. The new Speaker then administered oaths to the new Members replacing those who had passed away or resigned. The year 1962 has already claimed another Member of Congress in the passing of my good friend, John Riley of South Carolina. John was a Southern gentleman in the best traditions, a man of staunch character and great ability. It will be most difficult for the people of South Carolina to replace him.

Since this is the second session of the 87th Congress, it is not necessary for all of the Members to be sworn again, nor to reconstitute the several Committees of the Congress. Hence, work can be started without delay. The Committee Chairmen have already begun to outline the year's work and set meetings of the Subcommittees and the full Committees. It is hoped that by doing this the unfinished work of the last session may be quickly concluded and the new work for this session can be attended with dispatch. This would make it possible for this session of Congress to adjourn some time in mid-summer, rather than being held over until the fall. The wives and children of the Members have been most anxious that some plan be worked out so that the Members could spend some time with their families during the summer vacation periods. For a number of years it has been impossible for the families to make the usual vacation plans while the children were out of school. This situation finally developed into a mild revolt last year by some of the Members' wives. Although this revolt was unsuccessful, the feeling is still prevalent and it may be expected that the issue will be revived until some action is had. It is my feeling that Congress could adjourn by July 15th. If this is done, it will mean that work must be pushed without delay in all of the Committees.

There is no doubt but that there will be many heated debates during this session on the several subjects mentioned in the President's State of the Union message. There are also a number of bills left on the calendar from the last session which will prove equally controversial.

On the subject of international matters, you can expect to hear much from the Select Committee which we in the Congress last session formed for the purpose of looking into shipment of goods to Red and Red-satellite countries. In fact, information will be forthcoming within the next few days as the opening salvos in clearing up this problem and in putting a stop to practices that should not be followed.

There will be opportunity for action on three measures passed by the House last year. One of these, H. R. 4469, bars the employment on waterfront facilities and U. S. merchant vessels of persons who refuse to appear or to answer questions on Communist affiliations or commit perjury before any Federal agency. Another, H. R. 3247, clarifies the term "organized" as used in the Smith Act to make it apply to continuing as well as original Communist activities. This bill will plug a legal loophole that the Communists were trying to avail themselves of. Another is H. R. 8465, which prohibits shipments in interstate or foreign commerce of articles imported to the United States from Cuba. This measure passed the House and it is hoped that it will become law this year.

The Congress should also address itself to continuing and vigorous action to ferret out any possible infiltration of Communists or Communist sympathizers into the Federal government or any organizations doing business with the Federal government. This is a continuing job and one that must be of primary concern at all times. Several measures which I have introduced can be effective weapons in this battle to aid and assist the security agencies of our government in fighting this battle. I expect to prepare and introduce others as the needs of the enforcement agencies are made known.

Blowin' Out the Corners by Uncle Zeb. We have more than one friend, neither of which lay any claim to having any medical knowledge, who argue that to keep cool on an August hot day one should drink piping hot cups of coffee or tea. The other day when the weather was January below zero cold we looked to see if they were keeping warm by drinking shivering ice cold glasses of fountain drinks. They were not. Wouldn't it be the same difference?

Our hats off to the Legion Posts in our home town and across the Panhandle for showing the film Operation Abolition to thousands of people. We would like to give the same round of applause to the Pioneer Natural Gas Company and Southwestern Public Service Company for their part in sponsoring the three-hour long television show entitled Hollywood's Answer to Communism. These two companies, sometimes competitors, joined hands to bring to the people of this area a re-broadcast of one of the greatest messages in defense of our freedom that we know anything about. In fact, unless we begin listening soon, some of these voices crying in the wilderness may become stilled forever.

In today's paper we read that wide sweeping organization changes are to take place in the military. This was in the headlines. Upon reading the fine print below we found that two completely new departments are being set up to manipulate the departments we already have. The past 30 years should prove that nothing can be as changeless as changes.

Too many people only believe half of what they hear—the bad half on the other fellow . . .

One fellow had the audacity to say that he believed the reason God made man first was that he didn't want the woman to be telling him how she wanted man to be made . . .

In the fashionable wonderland district of Northern California a very prosperous little town was notified by the government that their area had been classified as a depressed area and therefore eligible for various forms of assistance . . . No one needed anything and no one asked for anything. According to Editor Asbury of the Weekly Trinity Journal it seemed that because of his own political career someone in Washington gave them the finger of scorn for not being willing to lie down and be depressed . . . This reminded us a bit of the poor turkey farmer . . . No matter how hard he tries he can't help from being helped . . . On top of that he can't even afford to be helped any more.

The other day someone suggested that farmers be given some sort of an allotment of their fair share of the market demand. If they wanted to grow more and sell at an uncontrolled price then well and good. If the farmer wanted to produce more this year and store up for next year's guaranteed allotment he could do that. Everyone agreed readily that no such simple plan as this could possibly solve the problem . . . If it did then who would solve the problem of finding jobs for all the magicians who have spent part time creating surpluses, and the rest of the time discussing the hopelessness of the situation. Then, too, if we should get rid of our problem what on earth would the politician save us from . . .

Sometimes I catch myself worrying about the poor taxpayer. We shouldn't do it. In the first place he doesn't appreciate it. He doesn't even know he is poor. On top of that he is too busy becoming poorer to stop and listen. He is too fat, too full, and too contented to give a hoot. He has a new car in the garage, money in the bank, credit at the finance company, promises from Washington that things will be better, so why get shook.

There are a few things he should consider, but he won't listen. Both he and the little wife owe almost two thousand dollars of the public debt. When each little one came into their home a like amount could be written up against them. Uncle Sam wants about one-fourth of his future earning for taxes, and another 10 per cent for social security. Other taxing agencies claim another fourth, and the cost goes up each day. When it becomes cheaper to rent than to own then the government will take over both us and our property. Go ahead Mr. Taxpayer and enjoy your Hey-Day, because if Pay-Day ever comes your goose is cooked.

AUTO CRASHES COSTLY TO DONLEY COUNTY IN 61

At the stroke of twelve midnight December 31, 1961, "Old Father Time" quietly slipped away. But the resounding echoes and visions of his destruction of grinding metal bodies, crashing glass, torn and broken limbs and smashed lives will live long in our memories. His record in Donley County has been an expensive one.

For the entire year of 1961 in this county there were 44 crashes resulting in 3 persons killed, 19 injured and an estimated property damage of $15,732.00. In comparison of the year 1960 there were 48 crashes resulting in 8 persons killed, 31 injured and an estimated property damage of $29,498.00.

Now-Ford frees you forever from the expense and bother of frequent car servicing. Twice-a-year maintenance is here- and only the cars from Ford have it!

In a new Ford Galaxie or Fairlane, the odometer rolls off a long 6,000 miles between every service stop. Compare this with other '62 cars and here's what you'll find: many cars still have to check in for service every 1,000 miles; some every 2,000 miles; others every 4,000 miles. Only the cars from Ford need service only twice a year, or every 6,000 miles. When you own a '62 Galaxie or Fairlane, you don't have to drive with one eye on the odometer to make sure you're not forgetting an oil change or a grease job or other servicing. Ford's twice-a-year maintenance saves you time, saves you money. Just one stop every 6,000 miles takes care of servicing. You'll go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications, 2 years or 30,000 miles without changing engine coolant-antifreeze. Brakes adjust themselves. Why buy a service headache when Ford is ready with the cure? See your Ford Dealer—and see how close Ford has come to the fill-it-and-forget-it car!

SMALL GRAINS RESISTANCE TO GREENBUGS STUDIED

The greenbug, as small grain producers know, is one of the most damaging insects of these crops. Losses from reduced yields of grain and forage have frequently exceeded several million dollars in a single season.

This insect can be controlled by modern insecticidal sprays, but often these are impractical or are not effective because of weather conditions. The most economical and practical means of controlling the greenbug appears to be the development of resistant varieties.

Studies on greenbug resistance in barley, oats and wheat were initiated in 1951, by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. A recent publication of the Experiment Station contains the results of eight years of these studies.

Greenbug resistance of significance was first found in several varieties of barley. It was transferred to desirable domestic varieties by crossing, and several of the hybrids are presently undergoing yield trials.

Several greenbug - resistant wheats have been found and these have been crossed with domestic varieties. These resistant varieties are spring-type wheats and of poor quality; therefore, much more breeding work will be necessary before acceptable greenbug-resistant varieties will be available to hard red winter wheat growers.

Resistant oat varieties have also been found, and this resistance is being transferred to domestic varieties. However, this breeding program has not been in progress long enough to indicate the successful development of adapted resistant oat varieties.

For a complete discussion of the findings of the tests, write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas, and request a copy of B-982, "Greenbug-resistance Studies With Small Grains."

VALUE OF DEEP PLOWING FOR ROOT ROT CONTROL DEMONSTRATED

Over 5,000 Texas cotton farmers are reducing cotton root rot by deep plowing. They deep plowed more than a quarter million acres during 1961 according to year-end reports by county agricultural agents.

Farmers in many countries have carried out result demonstrations which showed positively that deep plowing does reduce root rot, said Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist.

Best results were obtained, he explained, when deep plowed soil was allowed to dry for ten days to two weeks during summer or early fall when soil moisture was below normal. Shorter drying periods have given a degree of control but are somewhat unreliable, Smith said.

Affected areas should be plowed and large amounts of organic matter turned under during the hot, dry season. Plow depths of from 6 to 18 inches are recommended, depending upon the soil type and equipment available. Mold-board or disc breaking plows are satisfactory for doing the job, the specialist said. Drying the soil for a reasonable period kills the root rot fungus by drying and killing cotton roots and those of susceptible weeds, Smith explained.

The reports from the counties showed that losses ranging up to 75 percent had been reduced to less than 5 percent by deep plowing. Eradication is not usually complete because the fungus may penetrate the soil to a depth of 8 feet, Smith added.

Local county agents can supply additional information on root rot control practices, and Smith suggests a visit.

History Teaches That Either U.S. or Russia Will Become Dominant Power

"Say not the struggle naught availeth." That is the title, and the first line, of a poem that Arthur Hugh Clough wrote a century and a half ago. It is a strange little poem, for two reasons. For one, it is found in all the anthologies of English poetry and so, by itself, has given an otherwise forgotten writer a place in what Rebecca West has called the continuance of literature—for literature, with history, goes on and on, in a certain pattern, like the links of a chain.

For the other, the body of the poem possesses an amazing symbolism that applies perfectly to the great events of the present day—and of the events and crises and defeats and victories that are to come.

Make no mistake about it — we live in a world dominated by two great and totally inimical powers, the United States and the Soviet Union. If history teaches anything, it teaches that prolonged coexistence under these circumstances is an impossibility. One power—war or no war—will become the primary power. It will lead the other nations of the world in a certain direction.

At present the cold war is being fought on an economic front. There are abundant statistics to prove that in this we, and the other Western powers, have a superiority of resources. We are able to produce more of virtually everything the nations of the world want and need. But the East — and it must be remembered that Russia is both an Asiatic as well as a European nation — has vast reservoirs of little-tapped resources which she is now developing. So has China, with her incredible population of some 700,000,000 slaves of the state. And the Communist powers can, and will, direct the whole energies of their dictatorships to the purposes of the dictators.

Under these conditions, it can be expected that there will be an economic stalemate—exactly as, it seems, there is a stalemate of weapons in which each side has the capacity to destroy the other. And if this stalemate occurs where will the war be fought?

The question is easily answered. It will be fought for minds—for sets of principles which go far beyond any material considerations. The peoples of this torn world will be free to do as they choose, within the limitations long imposed by the laws of civilization — or they will be driven by their masters. It is a queer and sorry fact that the nation which speaks out most often against colonialism, the Soviet Union, has become the greatest and cruelest colonial power of the modern age. And it is a queer and sorry fact that the new and underdeveloped nations listen to Russia's siren song and, because of ignorance or misunderstanding, so often accept it.

What we stand for — and what the West stands for—must be emphasized with all weight at home—in schools, in the churches, in government, in the labor and business and farm organizations—everywhere. We cannot lead if we do not first understand where we hope and intend to lead to. And we cannot qualify and limit the ideal of individual freedom if we are to remain free, and help others to become free.

The task ahead will not be easy. It will be slow, tortuous. There will be reverses. But here is where the symbolism of Arthur Hugh Clough's poem fits us now. The last two verses read: "For while the tired waves, vainly breaking, Seem here no painful inch to gain, Far back, through creeks and inlets making, Comes silent, flooding in, the main.

And not by Eastern windows only, When daylight comes, comes in the light, In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly, But westward, look, the land is bright." That is what we must prove—to confused peoples everywhere. "Westward, look, the land is bright!"

Bronchoettes Win Estelline Tourney

The Bronchoettes of Clarendon High School extended their season's record to 17 wins against only two defeats as they swept three games at Estelline last week-end to take the first place trophy at the Estelline Tournament.

The Bronchoettes were not pressed in any of their games as they defeated Estelline 44 to 17, Quitaque 61 to 30, and Lakeview 45 to 25. Paula Adams, senior forward, led the scoring for Clarendon although she was closely followed by her teammate, freshman Dorothy Richey. Adams scored 10 points against Estelline, 33 against Quitaque and 24 against Lakeview for a total of 67 points in the three games. Richey tallied 18 against Estelline, 21 against Quitaque and 10 against Lakeview for a total of 49 for the tournament.

Clarendon's tough defensive unit, led by Peggy Jackson and Molly Floyd, was outstanding in the tournament as they allowed only a total of 72 points in all three games and played only about three fourth of the time. Other guards who played well were Jeanette Rampy, Janie Ivey, Connie Martin and Ann Mills. The other starting forward, Judy Castner, played well although she scored only 22 points in the three games. Other forwards were Brenda McAnear, Sharon Williams and Regina Borden.

The Bronchos also participated in the tournament but did not fare as well as the girls. They could win only one game of the three games played. They defeated the Childress "B" team by a score of 62 to 28 and lost to Estelline, 33 to 31 and to Quitaque, 41 to 36. The Estelline game was won after the final buzzer sounded. With the score knotted at 31-all, John Cearley committed a foul just as the final horn sounded and the Estelline player, Wooten, calmly stepped to the free throw line and made the two points that won the game.

The Quitaque game was also close. The 41 points scored by Quitaque was their low for the season as they have been scoring for an average of close to 70 points per game all season. However, although the Bronchos put up a stone wall defense, they could not get very many points on the scoreboard themselves and still went down in defeat. James Allen and Bill Spier paced the scoring for the Bronchos. Allen scored 13 against Estelline, 12 against Quitaque and 18 against Childress for a total of 43 points while Spier got 10 against Estelline, 13 against Quitaque and 17 against Childress for a total of 40. Jerry Elmore was outstanding at guard. In the Quitaque game he held Johnston, the Quitaque scoring ace to only one field goal and three charity shots for five points.

It's a good rule, when driving an automobile, not to take every green light for granted.

Our Open-Handed and Closed-Eye Approach To Foreign Aid

It is a truism that the greatest force opposed to the philosophy of the Mistaken enemies of freedom is the personal enterprise system. The United States of America is the world's most powerful and influential exponent of the personal enterprise system. And yet, by our open-handed and closed-eye approach to foreign aid, the United States is actually encouraging the Mistaken everywhere by weakening its own all-important economy.

We are giving and giving, even when we have no money to give. The foreign aid program adds tremendously to the inflationary pressure in the United States. It causes us to spend money that we can't afford to waste, and the process is certainly not making friends anywhere for the United States.

Money spent for foreign aid is money we do not have. With taxes at top levels, we are still piling up heavy deficits in the operation of the Federal Government. We are continuing to spend more than we are taking in, and we are thereby creating liens on our present property and on the future earnings of the American people. By doing this we are drastically cutting

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Good position for a married man, 30 to 45, with farm experience, to be in charge of small dairy herd, 50 horses, beef cattle. Contact S. G. Harriman, Amarillo, Texas, DRake 4-4687 before 5:00 p.m. (1-p) down the value of our money. We are destroying the savings of our people and we are doing away with the incentive to save. When a man saves a dollar that will buy two bushels of potatoes, and finds, when the time comes to spend the dollar, that he can buy only one bushel of potatoes he has a right to feel cheated. And he loses much, perhaps all, of his will to save dollars in the future.

This is not the end of the story of the ill effects of continuing to pour out dollars into countries all over the world. Much of our foreign aid expenditures have gone into the building of factories which compete with American industry. We have given the industrialists of these countries the knowledge of how to use their manpower and their natural resources to the best effect, and certainly we want to do this. But, then, with the low wages which prevail in those countries, the foreign industrialists and many times this means the state, not only can cut severely into our markets abroad but actually can, in many cases, undersell American industry in American markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Goldston of McLean and Mrs. John Goldston enjoyed dinner Sunday at the Roy Allard Ranch where the Laverne Goldstons' son, Jim, is employed. Other visitors in the Allard home Sunday afternoon were their daughter and family of Silvertown, also Mrs. T. W. Bell and Mrs. Moore of Turkey.

If you want to know whether a news story is important or not, strike out all the adjectives.

SUPPORT PRICE LEVELS ANNOUNCED FOR IMPORTANT CROPS

Price support levels for 1962 crops of cotton, peanuts, rice and honey have been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

The minimum national average support price for upland cotton will be 31.88 cents per pound, gross weight, the same as last year. This reflects approximately 82 percent of the current parity price. For extra long staple cotton, the price will be 53.17 cents per pound, net weight, and 65 percent of current parity price.

In the event the minimum level of support for upland or extra long staple as required by law on the basis of parity as of the beginning of the marketing year is higher than the level announced, the level of support will be increased accordingly, the secretary said.

The minimum national average support price for peanuts will be $221 per ton, the same as for 1961 and it reflects 85 percent of parity price on January 1.

The support level for rice was set at the same level as 1961, $4.71 per hundredweight, and is dependent on a favorable vote by producers in the upcoming rice marketing quota referendum set for

January 23. If quotas are approved by two-thirds of the voters, producers who comply with acreage allotments and marketing quotas will be eligible for support on their 1962 production. If quotas are not approved, acreage allotments will remain in effect as a condition of eligibility for price support at 50 percent of the parity level.

The support price for honey was set at 11.2 cents a pound. The same as the 1961 rate but substantially above the 1960 level, and reflects 74 percent of the January 1962 parity price adjusted to a 60-pound container basis. The support announced applies to honey marketed during the 1962 season, which begins on April 1.

GAME ARRESTS SHOW INCREASE FOR MONTH

Violations by deer hunters accounted for the bulk of the work of game wardens according to the monthly report just issued by J. B. Phillips, coordinator of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

Top on the list of violations was night hunting, with 45 arrests. There were 25 arrests for killing deer in closed season. Wardens also took other hunters on charges of illegal possession of doe deer, fawn and spikes.

Fines up to $400 were levied against several hunters by courts in different parts of the state. One "telephone fisherman" in South Texas was fined $200 for a fishing violation, $50 for hunting in a closed season, and $200 for possession of deer with evidence of sex removed.

In all, there were 297 arrests, with total fines and costs amounting to $12,452.44.

A half truth does no damage to your thinking if you have sense enough to recognize it.

"We've had too much socialism already. Millions of Americans right now would like to see the trend reversed instead of intensified and we are among that number. If this sounds like we are against sending our money, great gobs of it to Washington, and then getting a little bit of it back as federal 'aid' in order to nationalize our schools and every other phase of American life, you're absolutely right."

Politics And Politicians Recipients of Verbal Brickbats

"Politics" and "politician" are two terms which have come into much disrepute recently simply because of a lack of clear thinking on the part of a great many of our citizens. It is a human tendency to seek a scapegoat upon whom to project blame and verbal insult when things go awry in the machinery of government. All too often we choose politics and politicians as the recipients of our verbal brickbats. Thus, we attempt to relieve ourselves of all responsibility for the shortcomings which inevitably accrue in any human machinery.

Politics is the science of government; it is worthy of our careful study and understanding. A politician is one who has chosen to make a career in dealing with political affairs. Assuming that politics is not what it should be or that it is not "what it used to be," we must concede that we will have to do more than talk about it and criticize it to effect any gain or improvement.

When we do criticize politics, politicians, or the government we should include ourselves in the criticism, because unless we are actively and energetically engaged in these facets of our common life, we are openly admitting our negligent citizenship and our own unwillingness to accept responsibility for that in which we have been a partner.

We have far too many political "debunkers" who try to seek out some office holder and to crucify him for what he has done as a duly elected representative of the people. Such debunking is not likely to promote the respect and trust that politicians must have if we are to solve our internal problems and meet the forces of the Mistaken with a united front.

If politics is "rotten" as some say it is, then it got that way because individual Americans went wrong. If politics is a "dirty business," as some have pictured it, then it is our duty as conscientious, interested, and responsible citizens, to see that it is cleaned up. It is time that we got involved in politics and that we produced politicians of the highest caliber possible! Our young people cannot be expected to become interested in politics as a career unless we change its stock caricature.

Elihu Root, who was a prominent American lawyer and statesman, once remarked, "Politics is the practical exercise of the art of self-government, and somebody must attend to it if we are to have self-government. . . . The principal ground for reproach against any American citizen should be that he is not a politician.

If we agree that the most important aspect of our constitutional government is government by the people, it follows that our government will function and operate only as well as the people themselves are willing to make it operate. Judge John J. Parker said, in 1947, "An essential feature of our form of government is the right of the citizen to participate in the governmental process. The political philosophy of the Declaration of Independence is that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed; and the right to a voice in the selection of officers of government on the part of all citizens is important, not only as a means of insuring that government shall have the strength of popular support, but also as a means of securing to the individual citizen proper consideration of his rights by those in power."

Many of us do not participate directly in government, but we exercise our right of decision in government by voting for those who represent us in the various halls and offices of government. Those who have made it their career to represent us are usually referred to as "politicians." They must represent us as we want them to or we can vote against them in the next election or impeach them. Those who represent us in government realize that we, the voters, are the ones upon whom they depend for their positions. If they do not remain sensitive to our wishes and demands, it is because we have misjudged their integrity or because we have failed to inform them of our wishes and demands. It is true that some public officials have betrayed their trusts, but the betrayals have been due in large measure to the indifference of those who elected them in the first place.

Through indirect participation in government through duly elected representatives, we have been able to achieve the greatness and strength which we now enjoy as a nation. Surely we are not ready to concede that the system has outlived its usefulness and is ready for the scrap heap. The system is fully worthwhile and workable when each of us discharge our responsibilities of citizenship all along the line from the precinct meeting to the ballot box.

LEAVE WELL ENOUGH ALONE

A proposed federal law to prohibit retailers from selling wares at a below-cost price may be inspired by good motives—but, as a lengthy opposing statement submitted by the executive vice president of the National Association of Food Chains makes abundantly clear, it takes the wrong track entirely. The law is unnecessary, because the existing Robinson-Patman Act adequately covers the ground. The language is vague. And, in many instances, compliance would be impossible.

Figuring cost (which includes invoice or replacement prices, plus overhead and other expenses borne by the vendor) is not nearly so simple a matter as one might think. The reason for that has been explained by a leading authority, Jules Backman, Research Professor of Economics at New

WRITER SAYS PECCARY NOT TOO DANGEROUS

The javelina or collared peccary is a potent but not necessarily a dangerous game animal for hunters, according to Dan Klepper, outdoors editor of the San Antonio Express-News, writing in the current issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine. Klepper describes the hunting of the javelinas west of San Antonio, with dogs and .22 rifles and pistols. "The stories about javelinas 'treering' hunters usually are nothing but exaggerations of the truth or incidents involving hunters thoroughly unfamiliar with the animals," Klepper says. "In most instances when these near-sighted pigs burst from cover in all directions, two or three invariably race toward the hunter, who doesn't realize that this is a natural occurrence." Klepper also thinks that after the hunter has retold the story a few times it has been embellished quite a bit to make the javelina look much more dangerous than it really is. Although the season is closed on javelinas in many counties now, there are still some areas in the state where shooting the javelinas is permitted. LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

The officers were elected at the membership meeting last October as follows: President, Lee Shaller; 1st Vice President, Clarence Ayers; 2nd Vice President Coleman Shields and Mrs. Hubert Rhoades was re-elected Secretary-Treasurer.

Committees appointed, with the first person appearing on each committee to serve as chairman of that committee are as follows: Membership Committee — Clarence Ayers, Henry Moore, Slaton Mahaffey, and Holly Wood. Policy Development Committee — Coleman Shields, Pete Land, and Ira Self. Policy Execution Committee: Maurice Risley, Earl Myers, Tommy Bain, and Joe McMurry. Service Committee — Oscar Anderson, Hubert Rhoades, Glen Williams, and Bill Clay. Public Information Committee — Flip Breedlove and Mrs. Hubert Rhoades.

Lee Shaller gave a report on the Area Presidents Seminar meeting which was held in Amarillo December 21, 1961. At this time it was arranged to hold an area presidents meeting with our Congressman Walter Rogers on Jan. 4th. There was a good representation at each meeting.

Arrangements were made for different ones to take the lead in the discussion of the various phases of our agricultural program: wheat, grain sorghums, cotton, livestock, and education. As the plane was late, Mr. Rogers informed us that he had had ample time to study American Farm Bureau's policies on the numerous problems of agriculture. Most of us were surprised that he had in his pocket, the little book, "Policies and Resolutions" adopted by the American Farm Bureau at their National Convention held in Chicago in December.

Mrs. J. C. Burch of Dallas passed away Saturday evening. She was a sister of Mrs. Robert Davis of this city.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

PRE-MEASUREMENT FOR 1962 COTTON

Applications for pre-measurement of 1962 cotton allotments are being taken. The cost of pre-measuring has been set at 10c per allotment acre, 9c per mile round trip to the farm, 15c per stake used in staking off the measured acres, $8.50 for first plot and $3.00 for each additional plot. The final date for applying for pre-measurement is March 30, 1962.

DEADLINE NEARS FOR LOANS & PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

January 31 will be the deadline for loans and purchase agreements on commodities harvested. Farmers in the county who produce barley, grain sorghum, rye, wheat etc. should be alerted to this final date to obtain price support on these commodities.

RECONSTITUTIONS

It is most important that changes in ownership or operatorship be reported to the ASCS office. This does not necessarily obligate the producer to participate in programs, but a record is kept of all farms and ranches in the counties.

If any farms or ranches have been sold or bought, this change should be reported. New worksheets will be made for all these farms and ranches.

WHEAT PROGRAM

Reporters are now in the field measuring wheat acreage, as well as diverted acres and barley acreage on those farms signing agreements under the programs. It is extremely important that someone be available to assist the crop reporter. Farmers who have signed Wheat and/or Barley applications should be prepared to show the reporter the diverted acreage at the time of his visit. The acreage designated must be land which has been intensively cultivated and must be of uniform shape. Producers should take necessary measurements in advance of the reporter's visit in order to designate sufficient acreage, because return visits to the farm will be at the following expense. Wheat diverted acreage, Barley and other Soil Bank Base crops will be $4.00 per farm, plus $2.00 for each plot over one.

1962 CROP FEED GRAIN SUPPORT PRICES

The 1962 support prices are the same as the 1961 prices, which represented substantial increases above 1960 levels.

Barley—$.93 per bu. for grade No. 2 or better.

Grain Sorghum — $1.93 per hundredweight for grade No. 2 or better.

Corn — $1.20 per bu. average for all grades.

Rye — $1.02 per bu. for grade No. 2 or better.

The above are national price support rates.

Bulldogs Beat WT Freshmen

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs broke a six game losing streak and came up with their second win of the season at Canyon last Saturday night as they upset the highly touted West Texas State Freshmen, 80 to 72.

The Bulldog attack was paced by a trio of sophomores. Ray DeBord of Sunray and Billy Wiggins of Hedley put on a dazzling display of outside shooting and Kenneth Martindale singlehandedly stalled out the last two minutes of the game with his unique dribbling ability. DeBord, the Western Junior College Athletic Conference leading scorer, poured in 36 points on 12 field goals and a like number of free throws and Wiggins countered with 24 points. Martindale also contributed 12 points to the cause.

The Bulldogs led throughout the game. They held a 44 to 34 halftime edge. The freshmen closed the gap to 76 to 72 with a little more than two minutes to play when Martindale took over and ran out the clock. He was fouled twice in the process and contributed four points to ice the game away.
