Twenty of the big lights at the Rodeo Arena were shot out since the July Fourth celebration and these bulbs cost $5 each for a grand total of $200.

Borden is reminding parents of youngsters that they will be held responsible for any or all damages to the Rodeo Grounds if the youngsters are caught trespassing anywhere on the property embracing the rodeo arena. Vandalism has been observed throughout the year which has been quite costly in each instance. Your cooperation and your interest in the betterment of the Rodeo Grounds will be appreciated, Borden concluded.

BIG EQUIPMENT ARRIVES FOR DAM WORK—These huge pieces of equipment arrived in Clarendon Tuesday and will be put into service probably by the end of the week moving dirt for the Greenbelt Dam. Three of these Model 250 M-R-S V-12, 600 horsepower diesel tractors were driven in Tuesday morning from Hoffman, Texas. The three Earth Haulers came by rail Tuesday afternoon and were unloaded Wednesday morning. The haulers which will carry 50 yards of dirt are the largest to be put on a job in Texas. They are manufactured by Challenge-Cook Co. of Los Angeles, Calif. and cost $30,000 each. Two of these haul-ers can be pulled at a 40 mile an hour speed by the big Diesel tractors and extra haulers may be brought in to rush the job of completion a long time ahead of schedule. You can tell the size of the haulers by the size of Johnnie Johnson, local welder, standing at the hitch end of the hauler pictured here.

The big tractors are built at Flora, Miss., and one rear tire alone costs over $6,000 and the overall cost of the tractor is $70,000. The tractor measures 21 feet long and approximately 12 ft high.

The new loader which was moved to the dam site some time ago will be put into use to load these three machines. Five or six bulldozers will be used to keep soil pushed up to the loader which will load the haulers at a rate of a yard per second or less than a minute to load the 50 yards. This will really be a sight to see as this is the first time a combination of these huge machines have been put on a job in Texas. Each unit represents $100,000 and a complexed outlay of $300,000.

Work on the dam is progressing ahead of schedule and just as soon as the concrete work is completed for the water outlet, the fill should rise rapidly. The water pipeline is being laid toward Clarendon at the present time and construction on the filter plant is expected to begin in September.

Red River

After such a long time we did manage another fast week-end trip back to our old stomping grounds again. The first sight to greet us as a change was the new super highway over Red River Pass. Those who lived in fear of missing one of the sharp curves on the old road can relax for good now. The new road with its 8% grade is safe even for the big trucks now. We loved the old pass and sort of dreaded to miss the beautiful scenery along the drive. But to our good pleasure the engineers took most of the danger out and left most of the beauty in—it was almost as thrilling as before.

The new highway has brought about other changes in what was once a quiet peaceful little family vacation haven. The families still come and are just as wonderful as before but also stopping over for a bit of motorcycle racing and kicking up their heels so to speak are some visitors that the folks would rather not have. The days when no law and order will need to be present is just about passed. The village has growing pains that last the year around and with this comes a greater danger of all kinds of people stopping over. It is changing fast in many ways—more to do and more to see, but along with it more that we might not want to come that way. It is still mighty wonderful.

It had been so long since we had been vacationing that we hardly knew how to act. We even woke up at night thinking that we should go to the north place and check the young mother heifers. But we did get accustomed again and made it alright.

One other thing we learned was never again will we make our trip on the 4th of July. Maybe this accounted for most of our little discomforts. Too many folks in too small an area and too much noise. Then, all our Red River friends were working too hard to hardly look up.

Some time back we mentioned to Washington that it would be a good idea to have the zip code numbers included in each cancelling stamp of each post office. They were kind enough to write a long letter explaining why our idea was not so hot. Now, I notice that many post offices do have the number included. This makes me wonder if someone who is paid to have ideas finally had this one.

Something worries me sometimes; with all the new-fangled spray cans scattered around the bathroom, most any kind of tragedy could happen. For instance, if some day instead of using the regular hair spray set, we leave for work with our hair standing on end but smelling like Old Spice we may have had an accident. Please hope that I will remember.

One of the leading magazines carried an article recently to the effect that just an ordinary spare tire made a good makeshift life preserver. We haven't tried it and don't jump in the river just for the test, but it does sound like a good idea. Just to hear about it brought back memories of a time when this idea could have helped a lot. Along with some friends we took off for a not too distant lake to do some fishing. After checking in and speaking for a small boat we were busy checking our tackle and bait. Looking up we saw the boat drifting away from shore. The little pre-school son of our friends had walked to the far end of the boat playing. This loosened it from the ground and the wind was carrying it out. Neither of us could swim. My friend talked quietly to the little fellow until the boat drifted to another point. We never enjoyed our fishing after that. And now to think we had a spare tire all the time.

Miss Sandra Keel Is Bride Of Glenn Wallace

A ceremony Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lehman V. Keel at Carey united in marriage their daughter, Sandra Pauline, and Glenn Franklin Wallace of Clarendon.

Dr. Burgin Watkins, pastor of First Methodist Church in Childress, was officiant for the double-ring ritual. Vows were exchanged as the couple stood before a nuptial arch created by an arch of greenery entwined with Marguerite daisies and cetered with a large white satin bow. Baskets of white gladioli tied with white satin stood on either side of the arch.

Given in marriage by the father, the bride wore a suit of off-white Italian silk with full length lace sleeves and collared neckline. Small self fabric buttons enclosed the jacket front. Her off-white veil of illusion was attached to a pill box of matching silk and lace. The old-new tradition was observed in her wedding attire. With a white lace covered prayer-book she carried a white cattleya orchid encircled with tulle puffs and fleur de amour.

Attending her sister was Miss Rita Keel, wearing a yellow crepe A-line dress with cowl collar and a yellow circlet veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white Marguerite daisies tied with white satin streamers.

Montye Smith of Hobbs, New Mexico, was best man.

The mothers of the principles were present, Mrs. Keel wearing an aqua suit and Mrs. Wallace attired in a beige silk sheath, and both had corsages of white feathered carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Keel were assisted in duties for the reception by Mrs. Omer Johnsey and guests were registered by Mrs. Tom Higley of Amarillo. The registration table was covered with white satin trimmed net, and a budvase of yellow flowers.

The bride's table was covered with white linen and overlaid with white satin trimmed net, accented with a large satin bow. An arrangement of white carnations, yellow puffs and yellow and white candles centered the table. The three-tiered cake of white was topped with doves holding wedding bands under an arch of hanging bells. Yellow net rice bags on a tray were tied with yellow satin ribbons.

Mrs. Owen Johnson and Mrs. Gene White of Clarendon, sisters of the bridegroom, attended the servings of cake and punch.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will reside in Clarendon where the bridegroom is associated with his father in Wallace Monument. He is a graduate of Clarendon schools and Texas Tech.

The bride graduated in 1962 from Childress high school and attended West Texas State University.

Miss T'Rose Stepp And Gary Campbell Exchange Nuptial Vows

Nuptial vows were exchanged Saturday evening, July 2, at 8 p. m. by Miss T'Rose Stepp and Gary Campbell. The double ring ceremony was read at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wayne Stepp with Bright Newhouse, Church of Christ minister, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Stepp of Clarendon and J. C. Stepp of Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Campbell of Clarendon are parents of the groom.

The ceremony was performed in the patio at the home of the bride's brother. The couple stood before an archway of greenery and stephanotis topped with a cluster of wedding bells and centered with a satin covered kneeling bench. Flanking the archway were baskets of majestic daisies and yellow gladioli and greenery. Hurricane lamps marked the pathway of the bridal party and lighted the background area.

Mrs. Raleigh Adams, pianist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Maudena Self who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, presented in marriage by her brother, John, wore a street-length, sheath styled dress of white lace. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a caplet of lace ornamented with seed pearls and sequins. Her only jewelry was a diamond pendant. She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis, white daisies, and baby breath centered with a white orchid. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed and blue were observed.

Miss Nelda Stepp attended her sister as maid of honor and Miss Dolfia Vallance as bridesmaid. Each wore a yellow sheath styled two piece dress and matching headpiece trimmed in pearls. Their bouquets were of white daisies centered with a votive candle. Denise Stepp and Melony Stepp, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Their attire matched that of the bridal attendants and they carried white baskets with yellow trim filled with petals. Mrs. Billy Spier registered the guests.

Pete Campbell was his brother's best man and Billy Hearn served as groomsman. Ushers were Lloyd Lynn McCord and Billy Spier. Candlelighters were Jeff Campbell and Kenny Tyler.

Mrs. Stepp, mother of the bride, wore a deep rose two piece knit dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Campbell, mother of the groom wore green with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Guests were served from a table laid with a lace cloth over yellow. The floral decor was of white daisies, baby breath and greenery and was flanked by yellow tapers. Appointments were crystal. Mrs. Ronnie Wood and Miss Janice Riley presided. Mrs. Campbell wore a traveling costume in navy and white accented by white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. The couple will be at home in Fort Worth.

ATHLETE'S FOOT HOW TO TREAT IT.

IN ONE HOUR after applying T-4-L (a batch of chemicals in alcohol), itching must STOP. In 4 days infected skin sloughs off. Then you watch HEALTHY skin appear! Sound simple? Try it. Thousands have. If not DELIGHTED, your 45c back at any drug counter. NOW at All Drug Stores.

Everyone in the State, from Gov. John Connally on down to each rookie patrolman, did his best to hold down July 4th holiday deaths and accidents.

Now, with the long, tensioned week end behind, the State is taking a look at what's ahead for the 1967 Legislative session.

Among other things, Governor Connally wants a new, tough code of traffic laws — somewhat like the uniform traffic code. He wants money for more highway patrolmen, the present force of 725 being about one third the number needed.

He also wants stringent penalties, for convictions of driving while intoxicated, speeding and reckless driving — and a one-year license suspension "without opportunity for redemption" on second offense.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr says the 1967 Legislature may want to take another look at the 1965 law change in college building appropriations.

As it now stands, seven state colleges will receive less revenue from the new 10-cent per $100 ad valorem tax allocation for college construction than they did under the old five-cent rate.

These are Texas A&I, Texas Southern, Texas Woman's University, East Texas State, Sam Houston, West Texas State and Sul Ross. None can start new buildings in the next two years with what's allocated to them.

State Water Pollution Control Board approved a committee of the Cattle Feeders Division, Texas Cattle Raisers Association, which plans to ask the 1967 Legislature for a feed lot licensing law, tying in with water pollution control.

Committee members are Grady Shepard, Hale Center; James W. Witherspoon, Hereford; Alfred Negley, San Antonio; Fred Wulff, Brady; and Jack Carruthers, Friona.

Hereford Feed Yards, Inc., with which Witherspoon is associated, just received the first Water Control Board permit for disposal of wastes from water feed lot. It provides that the company retain waste runoff waters from all rainfall of two inches or less in a day, and lots must provide for de-watering retention facilities between rainfalls by spray irrigation.

OTHER POLLUTION PLANS — Pollution-Multiple Use Legislative Study Committee, headed by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, will hold public hearings in early fall to check into salt water disposal problem in oil and gas fields — and pollution problems resulting from feed lot operations, plus septic tank problems that could lead to water pollution.

LIVESTOCK WORLD HIGH-LIGHTS — Animal health in Texas comes to the front ranks in agricultural — livestock concern nowadays.

Screwworm eradication workers at the sterile fly plant in Mission stepped up eradication efforts in the Brooks-Goliad-Beeville area where six cases were reported last week and in the stretch from Culberson County to Eddy, N. M., where 12 cases were confirmed.

Dr. B. B. Vail Jr. told the Animal Health Commission that they need more reports from ranchers. Dr. S. B. Walker of the Commission and Dr. S. C. Gartman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Animal Health Division asked livestock producers also to report promptly any signs of sore mouth condition or blister-like sores on udders or above hooves of animals to combat a recent outbreak of vesicular stomatitis.

In similar farm reports, State Agriculture Comm. John C. White announced an emergency quarantine on movement of some fruits and vegetables from Cameron County — to prevent spread of Mediterranean Fruit Fly.

Dr. Walker recommended a more flexible program for accepting petitions for Type II control testing for brucellosis — now done only from counties next to test counties after a break from the "contagious county" requirement has been tested. He said it worked hardships on area veterinarians.

STUDENT BONDS TOP RAT-

ED—Learning that 2 top national investor services rate Texas College Student Loan Bonds, authorized by voters last fall, as "Triple A" investments (highest rating possible), the Coordinating Board for Texas College and University System decided to sell $10,000,000 of the $85,000,000 authorized bonds at its July 18 meeting.

Institutional agreements now are being prepared by the Board so loans will be available to students in September.

HEAD START WATCH — Regional OEO Director Bill Crook of Austin cautioned Head Start administrators that they will be under "continuous review" by his Austin offices, "to remedy any program deficiencies that might be identified by on-site evaluations."

Crook said so far not one single bad audit, case of misappropriation or mishandling of funds has been produced by Texas' program. He says he is very interested in keeping that good record.

OEO has contracted with the Texas Eradication Foundation, private corporation administering Camp Gary Job Corps Center for men, for $3,200,000 to develop and operate a Job Corp center for women at McKinney. First 100 women students are scheduled to enroll at McKinney in March, 1967.

SHORT SNORTS — Weldon Watson has resigned as executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department. Texas Industrial Commission report record 327 new plants were located in the state last year and prospects for '67 look even better. Texas Highway Department officials say it cost the State 5.4 cents of every dollar spent on highway maintenance to clean up after vandals and litterbugs last year (some $1,526,582). Wm. L. Ferguson of Henderson is new Texas Liquor Control Board Assistant Administration trator. Texas Aeronautics Commission will hold hearings July 14 on proposed community air service between Houston and Laredo via Alice by a new firm called Houston Commuter Airlines. State Land Comm. Jerry Saddler said sealed bids for oil and gas leases on state-owned property will be accepted by School Land Board on August 2. Attorney General Carr ruled that beer sales are illegal in four precincts of Cooke County, since State Constitutional Amendment allowing wet precincts in dry counties was passed in 1935 after the local-op-

CARDS OF THANKS

To all who visited me and remembered me with cards and flowers and many other kindnesses and to the Dr's, and nurses for their splendid care, I express my thanks and appreciation; also to the ones who have visited and been so nice since I have been home.

Emett Bryson

I would like to take this means of extending my sincere thanks to the doctors and nurses for the splendid care I received while I was in the hospital and to the nurses for their kind attention while I was at the Nursing home. Words cannot express my appreciation for the cards, visits, and many other kindnesses shown me by friends and neighbors during my illness.

William Payne

We would like to express our thanks to the many good and kind-hearted friends for their expressions of sympathy during the loss of our loved one. May God's richest blessings be forever upon you.

VELVET HORN DEER

"Velvet horn deer" are no longer a problem in the Edwards Plateau. Jack Thomas, Texas Parks and Wildlife Service biologist, recently said the male deer born during 1958 and 1959 were the only ones showing the condition. It was probably caused, he added, by a deficiency in the diet of the deer which occurred only during these two years. The condition left male white-tailed deer sterile.
