A large group of early day settlers registered and enjoyed some old fashioned visiting. A well planned program was carried out both days with Congressman Walter Rogers and other dignitaries speaking. The highlight was the big parade Saturday at 1:30 with Queen Sarah Spalding Messer reigning over the 11th Festival. Bands, beautiful floats and pretty girls with much more, to make up a parade that would do honor to a town much larger than Hedley. An estimated crowd of 7,000 watched the parade.

COURAGE VS. INFLUENCE

Do you want a man with the courage to speak up for you in Congress... or do you want a man who has publicly admitted he fears to speak up on the floor of the House because of the influence he might lose? Jack Seale will not yield to New Frontier pressures. He has the courage to speak up FOR a sensible farm program. FOR a firm foreign policy. FOR a balanced budget and a sound dollar... and FOR election law reforms.

We're telling America about the business and industrial advantages

... IN THE CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST

American business and industry are on the move... looking toward growing areas, new markets, and expanding profit opportunities.

Our service area—the fast-growing CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST—is one such region, because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation.

That is why we are engaged in a continuing program designed to tell American business leaders about the advantages of this portion of West Texas.

We advertise the area in national publications, mail information material to selected lists, and make personal visits to many prospects.

As this is written, a WTU Representative is in the northern and eastern industrial areas of the country, calling on key executives whose companies are looking our way. They, like WTU, are convinced that this area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

EXCITING! GO '63 CHEVY II

SPUNKY NEW WAGONS THAT LEAD LONGER, HAPPIER LIVES

What a new kick you'll get out of going places in this one! And what a solvent feeling you'll get as the savings on upkeep mount! There's a full line of models, including three wagons. Basically, we've kept Chevy II's liveliness and roominess and easy loading ways. Kept its crisp looks, too (with a bit of freshening here and there). The changes we've made weren't for change's sake, you see—but for yours. Just for a sample: the brakes are self-adjusting. The new Delcotron generator gives you more electrical reserve power and helps your battery reach a vigorous old age. The Body by Fisher beauty lasts longer, too; air pushes rain and wash water down through the rocker panels (where most rust begins!) in a clever new flush-and-dry system. The ride is smoother and quieter because of a large number of small improvements we've made. And things are a lot plusher inside. Now you've read this far, haven't you? Isn't that good evidence that Chevy II is made for you? The clincher will come when you take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. the make more people depend on ears, as we think of our need today for a great leader. Our need for someone to go for us against the forces of evil that are standing against us on all sides.

After World War I we were told that our victory over the enemy was greater than expected. That we had won the war to end all wars, and that it was our job to write the terms of a lasting peace. Along the road someplace we failed and within a quarter of a century we were again faced with the horrors of another world conflict. Again, we claimed a great victory on the battlefield, and the right to write the terms of a lasting peace. Around the peace table seeds were planted that were to grow into further trouble. To name one would be a divided Berlin.

Later a divided Korea developed into a man-made ghost to haunt us. The fumbles in China until we not only helped give the mainland to the enemy, but even lost much of the admiration of the Nationalist forces. Then, history will likely record the goofed up give-away to Castro in Cuba as the worst of all past mistakes.

It is so easy to look backward at our mistakes, and we could well be asked for our idea of a solution. It will do no good to place the blame here and there most of which must fall on We The People. The preachers of today can find a lot wrong with our spiritual condition, and they are so right. Every Christian should pray that God would hold back the hand of the enemy and forgive our nation for its mistakes and sinfulness.

Again in our day, the crying need is for a great leader. For someone to go for us, and to stand for us against the enemy. We are being slowly but surely backed into a corner, and unless we side-step or fight back soon it will be too late. We need a great statesman to come forth; one with courage, and one that can hold the trust and confidence of our people. Our leaders have become politicians instead of statesmen. This is our great problem. We can not blame it all on either party, but each must take their half of the blame.

In this generation we rallied with hope to the leadership of President Roosevelt. In his burning desire to lead us from one peril we have embarked on a road from which we may never be able to turn back. A road leading to security instead of freedom, and credit instead of cash. His intentions were perhaps good, but the desire to create prosperity throughout his long stay in office led us far down the road toward inflation. The mess could be left to the next administration.

Then came our rally behind Mr. Eisenhower. He was honored by most Americans and many looked with hope to his leadership. Again like others before the people were given the easy way. There must be no panics, no depressions, no wars, and no dissatisfaction during these times or the other party would make a grab. We the People, have been petted and spoiled beyond almost any hope.

Some looked with new hope toward the new frontier, and the voice of youth as hope sounded so real in the promises of Mr. Kennedy. For the sake of personal prestige and future elections we continued the battle for political party leadership. Where and when will it all end? Certainly not until We The People quit demanding more than we are willing to work for.

Things will not improve a great lot until leaders come forward who are determined to put loyalty to our country ahead of party promises. Our two-party system has played a large part in making our country great, and Lord pity us if we ever come to the point of only one choice. But, in the very heart of both parties seems a threat to place party loyalty ahead of our national welfare.

When it comes to foreign policy both parties for the most part seem to want to place our security first. This needs to be true also in regard to our economic stability.

Most of the blame falls back on Mr. Average Citizen. We vote for the man who promises an administration based on honesty, and a saving policy toward our tax till . . . As soon as he is elected we begin urging that he go along with the spending of public monies for all manner of local business boosters as well as some measure that might hold forth a degree of personal security.

Those who are past fifty years of age have seen this country go from one free of debt to a country that owes more debts than all the rest of the world. Think about that one . . . We that are half a century old have seen the 100 cent dollar dwindle to only a 30 cent buck. We see no stopping place.

Yes, the greatest nation on earth; one that God has been kind toward above any hoped for measure stands in great danger. We can be saved, if each citizen will be willing to "Stand for all of us" against the peril on every hand.

Don't be caught dead, sitting on your seat belt.

Hommel of Clarendon, Texas. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robertson, also of Clarendon. The Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiated.

The ceremony was performed before a mantle centered with a sunburst arrangement of white chrysanthemums and draped with garlands of plumous fern and pompon mums. Gold pedestals topped with candeliers bearing white candles and decorated with white chrysanthemums were to either side.

Clyde Hudson, soloist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Dee Williams, pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of Chantilly lace over white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and a scalloped neckline embroidered in seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

THE CONNALLY AMENDMENT AGAIN

In recent weeks, I have been asked many questions about the "Connally Amendment" and its exact provisions. Because this subject is so vital to the preservation of our national sovereignty, I am reprinting herewith a newsletter I originally wrote on March 12, 1961.

Just over a year ago, and on February 21, 1961, I wrote you concerning the "Connally Amendment." In that newsletter I paid tribute to the greatness of Tom Connally, the former United States Senator from the State of Texas. No tribute was more justly deserved. Tom Connally deserves splendid tribute from all Americans for the outstanding contributions he made in public service. Surely there are those who did not like Tom Connally, as is the case with all human beings, but even those must admit that the mark he left by the Connally Amendment is an all-American mark and a mark of distinction. His agile mind and quick tongue made him a much-feared foe in debate on the Senate floor. He is reputed to have told one vociferous opponent the following: "If the gentleman would approach these problems with an open mind instead of an open mouth, he would be much more effective." When asked last year for his opinion on the move to repeal the Connally Amendment, he branded the move as a propaganda device designed to "win an international popularity contest." This rather effectively summed up the situation, in my opinion.

For the benefit of those who have heard of the "Connally Amendment" but who have not had the opportunity of studying it, may I say that it consists of six words, which are "as determined by the United States." These words are attached to a portion of the United States Declaration of Acceptance of the World Court jurisdiction, and I quote:

"This declaration shall not apply to . . .

"(b) Disputes with regard to matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the United States of America as determined by the United States."

That portion underlined is the Connally reservation, or amendment, whichever you prefer to call it. You can readily see the effect of this amendment. The particular paragraph above quoted, without the Connally Amendment, would have left jurisdictional determination to the World Court. The World Court consists of fifteen judges elected by the General Assembly and the Security Council of the United Nations for nine-year terms. Its headquarters are at The Hague. On January 27, 1960, the fifteen members or judges of the World Court came from the following countries: one from the United States, one from Great Britain, and one from Australia. The others were citizens of the United Arab Republic, Nationalist China, Greece, Poland, France, Mexico, Panama, Argentina, Uruguay, Norway, Pakistan, and Soviet Russia. It is interesting to note that only three of the judges are from countries whose basis of law is the Common Law. Four are Latin Americans, two are from Moslem countries, two from Communist countries, one Chinese, and one each from Greece, Norway and France. Volumes could be written as to the built-in dangers of such a situation, but since that amount of space is not available in this newsletter, I think it is sufficient to observe that Americans acquainted with the issue would immediately recognize the inherent dangers of distortion, modification, misinterpretation, and outright abuse of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution which are the protecting armor of the American citizen. Without the Connally Amendment this armor would have been broken in many places. Its preservation is vital if the sovereignty of the United States is to be maintained.

You might be interested in knowing that since the above was written, judges from Uruguay, Norway, and Pakistan have been replaced by judges from Peru, Italy and Japan. Thus, the geographic and cultural distribution remains relatively unchanged. Although attempts have been made to repeal the Connally Amendment, these moves have been defeated. I believe the Connally Amendment will, and must, remain an integral part of our law. I shall certainly do everything in my power to preserve this aspect of our national sovereignty, as well as all other aspects.

Highway Patrol Investigates 4 Rural Traffic Accidents

The Highway Patrol investigated 4 rural accidents in Donley County during the month according to Sergeant J. W. Wilson Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,470.00.

The rural accident summary for Donley County from January through September of 1962 shows a total of 30 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were 2 persons killed and 22 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $19,410.00.

"Accidents Go Up When the Sun Goes Down," is a slogan so true. Darkness hides danger, giving the driver a false sense of security. That is the reason traffic accidents increase during October, shorter days and longer nights. National Statistics show that the traffic death rate at night is three times the daylight rate and more than half of all accidents occur after sundown, despite reduction in the volume of traffic.

At sundown, long shadows and fading light make it increasingly difficult for drivers to spot traffic hazards and stop in time. The veteran patrol supervisor said, "make it a habit to turn on your driving lights at the first hint of dusk and always use them properly."

SOIL TEST FOR PHOSPHORUS ACCURATE

College Station — An improved procedure for determining soil phosphorus is now being used by the soil testing laboratories operated in the state by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Extension Soil Chemist W. F. Bennett said the change will give a better indication of the phosphorus status of the soil, particularly the heavy textured kinds.

The new procedure is the result of several years of research work by Texas Agricultural Experiment Station personnel, Bennett said.

Many soils will show higher phosphorus values with the new method. The change results in the removal of certain types of soil phosphorus not extracted by the previously used method, the chemist added.

The higher phosphorus values will tend to occur primarily in the heavy textured soils of the Blacklands, the Coast Prairie, Rio Grande Plain and the Rolling and High Plains. The Houston black clay soils, for example, which have been properly managed and fertilized with phosphorus during the past several years may show levels up to 40 to 60 pounds of phosphorus per acre compared with 10-15 pounds under the previous method of determination. The same will be true of the Pullman clay loams of the High Plains and similar heavy soils.

The use of the new procedure in the soil testing laboratories will permit us to more accurately predict the need for phosphorus fertilizer, Bennett concluded.

LET'S TALK FACTS... NOT PLATITUDES

In twelve years of representing all the people of the Panhandle, Walter Rogers has fought for and courageously acted on these principles . . .

SAFEGUARDING THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution is the foundation of our Government. This matchless document vests certain inalienable rights in the individual and in the sovereign States; they must not be abrogated by Federal socialization or control in education, housing, medicine, civil rights, or in any other area.

Reform for Law constitutes civil peace and justice. Secret-organization witch-hunts, which try to panic us into autocratic methods, would have us trade the foundation of America's greatness for neurotic nightmares.

Power-grabbing Measures cannot be tolerated. Such pressures for centralization of power include—increased Executive authority, near-exclusive Federal taxing power, packing of Congressional committees, socialization of education, medicine and industry, and usurpation of law-making power by the Supreme Court.

FAITH IN AMERICA

Faith in America and her institutions is indispensable to a healthy patriotism. Extremist groups who saw our public schools, our churches, our free press, our courts and our public leaders are under Communist control, are finally only spreading hate, suspicion and disunity—the prize goal of the Communists. What internal Communism exists in the U.S. will best be overcome by a thoroughgoing utilization of our democratic institutions and Constitutional safeguards, and not by adopting the methods of the Communists themselves.

Competitive Private Enterprise is essential to the maintenance of a free American economy, and it should be free of Government control except for the adjustment of wrongs brought about by bad faith. Management and labor should be allowed to settle their own disputes, with Government only in the role of arbiter.

Small Business and The Family Farm are essential facets of the future and progress of America.

The exodus from the farms and small communities is responsible for many of the social ills which confront the metropolitan areas of our Nation.

PREPAREDNESS AND DEFENSE

Preparedness and Defense of this country are first considerations. We must not trifle with our Nation's security by skimping on vital appropriations. Streamlining of bureaucratic procedures and demanding efficiency and care in procurement will strengthen our defense as well as save taxpayers money.

The National Sovereignty of the greatest nation on earth must not be compromised. The Connally Reservation, limiting the power of the World Court, must remain. No disarmament agreements will be made without the approval of Congress.

The Crisis in Cuba poses a great threat to our national security. Walter Rogers introduced legislation which would deny foreign aid to any country whose ships carry goods of any kind to Cuba. He authored the bill calling for the closing of U.S. ports engaged in trade with Cuba.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURE

American Agriculture has, through ingenuity and hard work, demonstrated an ability to produce an abundance of food and fiber, and the farmers who have accomplished this ill-deserve the brickbats presently being hurled in their direction. A sound and realistic farm program must be found: one which will be of the farmer's own choosing, giving him real alternatives and still providing for the dissolution of our market-depressing surpluses, with the right of appeal from bureaucratic edicts.

A BALANCED BUDGET, A SOUND DOLLAR

Drastic Reduction of Government Costs, abolition of overlapping bureaus, cleaning out of over-stuffed departments, and demanding a full and fair day's work from every Government employee must be achieved. The efficiency and economy of Walter Rogers' own office proves these are possible goals.

Foreign Aid, while designed to provide an increased measure of security for the U.S. in our life-and-death struggle with Godless Communism, has proved itself an overall bad investment. The program which was germinated in the highly successful Marshall Plan shortly after World War II, has grown so large that the expenditures of our dollars cannot be accounted for. Foreign Aid has found its way to Communist-controlled countries, it has served to sap our gold reserves, and has won few real friends. Walter Rogers has vigorously opposed these give-aways.

Development and Conservation of natural resources is essential to this Nation's future. Reaching toward our potential in water, helium, and minerals development is an investment which will bring multiple dividends to the Panhandle as well as the United States as a whole.
