Election To Enlarge College District To Be Held Friday, December 21

Tomorrow (Friday, Dec. 21), is the day that will go a long way toward deciding the future of Clarendon Junior College. It is rather a simple thing; if the college is to remain, then we, the people, must do a little more to support it.

The tax payers of the college district have been paying taxes at the rate of 20c on the $100.00 based on county valuations since the college was organized in 1927. That simply isn't enough money now. No business, home or anything else can be operated on the same money now as in 1927 — Clarendon Junior College is no exception. It is said that nothing in our material world is free; everything in our economic life has a source, a destination, and a cost that must be paid.

Some advantages to keeping our college are:

1. To assure the continuance of educational facilities in the reach of every youth in our area who can profit from higher education, regardless of economic, emotional, or social status. If Clarendon Junior College folds, there will be no second chance. The new requirements for establishing junior colleges in Texas are simply out of our reach.
2. To reduce the cost of a college education to the youth of this area. It is conservatively estimated that it costs $1,900 per year for a student to go away from home to college. If he can stay at home two years, his college education cost will be reduced approximately $2,000.
3. To encourage more participation of capable high school graduates in higher education. The national average of high school graduates entering college is 45%. During the past five years, Clarendon has averaged 73%.
4. To increase the desirability of our communities for location of new industries. Industries are very much interested in locating where the community is alert to economic and educational development.

Perhaps you can add to the above list of advantages to keeping our college. Expansion of the college district is a "must." Encourage your neighbors to vote to enlarge the district.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Marketing Quotas Approved—Cotton

Farmers have approved marketing quotas for the 1963 crop of upland cotton. The returns in Donley County from the December 11 referendum show favorable votes by 73 percent of the 172 cotton farmers voting.

Approval of the quotas by cotton growers means that (1) quotas with penalties on excess cotton will be in effect for the 1963 crop, and (2) price support to growers who comply with their farm allotments will be at the full level available under the law. The marketing quota penalty on "excess" upland cotton will be 50 percent of the upland cotton parity price as of June 15, 1963.

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

The subject of expense accounts has been in the news in recent weeks due to a proposed ruling of the Internal Revenue Service. The ruling was intended to close some suspected loopholes in the manner of reporting deductions for business expenses under income tax law. It generated deserved condemnation by a cross section of the business community, as well as others. Certainly we would all agree that everyone should be covered by the same rules and regulations with regard to payment of taxes. We would further agree that if persons were caught cheating, they should be required to respond in appropriate damages and penalties. However, Government employees sometimes become so dedicated and enthused with relation to their duties that they overlook some of the basic issues involved. Too many times greater attention is paid to streamlining the methods of forcing compliance with Government rules and regulations than proper appreciation of the rights of the taxpayer. It is very well for Government employees to be efficient. Such efficiency should be rewarded in Government employment the same as in private employment. However, all Government employees should be constantly reminded of the fact that the business people and the individual taxpayers who are subjects of these rules and regulations are the same people who are paying the Government employee's salaries. It must be remembered that these people cannot spend all of their time keeping records and filling out forms for the Government if they are going to be able to produce the wealth from which the taxes are to be paid. It would seem to me that if more effort were devoted to methods of decreasing the book work and other burdens on the business community and the individual taxpayers, and less effort toward trying to make the taxpayer do all of the accounting for the Government, the better interests of this country would be served.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

The Pathfinder Club has given the library their yearly check. Do you who read or have read out of the library know what a debt you owe this club?

To refresh your memories here is a quote by Ethel Harvey about the Gabie Betts Burton Library: "The Gabie Betts Burton Library was opened in 1923, after the Pathfinder Club decided to broaden their school library project begun in 1915, into a community library. The club was given the use of a small room on the second floor of the city hall. Club funds in the amount of fifty dollars was used to purchase books and the City Library was open each Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Gabie Betts Burton as librarian.

The club assessed each member a fee of one dollar a year to be used for the purchase of new books for the library." They have continued for all of these years to do this besides many other things for the benefit of the library. Thank you Pathfinder Club!

to the memory of Pat Heath. It seems that Edwin O'Connor makes a habit of writing prize winning novels. His "The Last Hurrah" was the Atlantic Prize Novel for 1955. Now his latest "The Edge of Sadness" has won this year's Pulitzer Prize.

Quoting: "In this story of past and present, told through the narration of Father Hugh Kennedy, the ordinary day-to-day life of a priest is portrayed with thoroughness, sympathy, and truth. And what emerges is not merely the history of one man, but a rich cross section of secular and religious life. In this novel, filled with rewarding and completely memorable characters, encompassing several generations of Irish American life. Edwin O'Connor has again created a full and exhilarating world among these people he knows so well. Comedy and pathos, love and despair, loneliness and compassion, a sense of human longings and of human frailty make "The Edge of Sadness" an unforgettable reading experience."

The best of Christmas wishes to everyone and good reading among the other good things for the New Year.

Harold N. Young writes, in Liberty and Responsibility: "The destruction, by whatever means—human stupidity or deliberate design, political corruption or public apathy, parental neglect or juvenile ridicule—of those moral standards which have sustained men through the ages will, I am sure, spell the doom of the American republic."

BLOWN Out the CORNERS

Our first Christmas card of the year came from Mrs. Oscar Howard of Rt. 1, Gorman, Texas . . . This family has been among our faithful reader friends for several years, and we are thankful for them . . .

A diplomat is said to be a fellow who thinks twice before saying nothing . . .

Under our present inflation till we bust national policy, most of us could say that we never had it so good, or had it taken away from us so fast — especially is this true with tax-paying time just around the corner . . .

The worst kind of indigestion is said to be cause from having to eat your own words. This is another good reason for making them always tender and sweet . . .

The best way for the good wife to have a few minutes all by herself is to begin washing the dinner dishes. This is also a reminder that every sad eyed little lady may not have loved and lost — she may have got her man . . .

Bubble, Bubble, toil and trouble. Took a wife and expenses double. Where is that guy who cracked that pun— That two could live as cheap as one?

Success is said to be the ability to get along with some people, and to get ahead of other . . . Progress also takes a lot of risk, we can never reach second base if we keep our foot timidly touching at first . . .

Every person in the world has an equal chance to become a better person than he is. He can always rise to a greater place in the world. The record will show not so much the finish line, but rather the distance gained from the starting point . . .

We have to even be careful what we think for our very thoughts can so easily break in to words . . . Sometimes when we don't actually say words out loud the effects of our thoughts can be read in our expressions.

Our mail brought a welcome letter from Geathel D. Cockrum of Enid, Oklahoma. He is the traveling salesman who read one of our books in a cafe in Shamrock and then ordered a copy when he reached home. This is what we called a regular fellow. He sends us the following thought thinking that it surely belonged in our column.

HEDLEY NEWS

Mabel Bridges

Thursday morning around 7 o'clock the Masonic Building was on fire. The Hedley Volunteer fire boys answered the alarm and did some very dangerous work in a fine way.

The fire was in the top floor of the Masonic Hall. The Memphis fire boys came to help the Hedley boys. The building was badly damaged inside. R. M. Saunders, one of the fire boys, went up into the hall where the fire was. He fell through the floor and received a back injury. He was carried to Goodall's Hospital in Memphis where he will be for quite a while before he can be put in a cast.

Hedley citizens should be very grateful to our fire boys. They were cold and wet, with icicles frozen on them, facing the danger of an accident such as R. M. Saunders did have, to fight fire in Hedley while others stood by a good warm fire and watched them. Now why not show our appreciation to the Hedley fire boys? We would like to say "Thanks" to the Memphis Fire Department for their help.

At this season of the year let's all be very careful about starting a fire.

Mrs. Roy Darnell left Saturday to spend the holidays in Lubbock and Fort Worth with her children.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Jennings of Rule visited Josh Jennings and other relatives here Thursday.

Mesdames Roy Rozzell, David Stotts and Mrs. Rice of Amarillo visited in Hedley Friday.

Several from Hedley attended the Open House at Harlan's Flower Shop in Clarendon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoggard spent several days in Corpus Christi last week. They visited the Billy Johnson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Skellytown visited Mrs. W. I. Rains and Ike Saturday.

T. J. Cherry was able to come home Saturday after spending several days in a Memphis hospital.

Mrs. W. W. Wiggins stepped on a nail and has been in a Memphis hospital with blood poison. She was able to come home Thursday.

Clyde Grimsley is still quite ill in an Amarillo hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rains of Amarillo visited Mrs. W. I. Rains and Ike Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Wall spent several days last week in Hereford and Dimmitt with their children.

Mrs. Thelma Hodges of Kansas City has returned home after a visit with her parents, the John Tates.

Mrs. J. H. Cooper enjoyed a visit from her sister, Mrs. Maude Williams of Dallas, last week.

People, Spots In The News

FAIR FORECAST: Denny Griswold (right) editor of Public Relations News and a director of New York's Fair 1964, talks over plans with William A. Berns, p.r. vice president of the Fair corporation.

WORTH WATCHING: Orders for diamond-decorated watches are 20% ahead of year ago, reports, world's largest maker, Bulova. Here Frances De Carlo weighs some $40,000 worth preparatory to Christmas rush.

355-POUND tackle: William Herold of Shamokin, Pa. is a mere 15! He's 6 feet 5, and agile enough to be his team's punter, averaging 50 yards.

SOLO SENTRIES: One gull per piling seems to be the well-understood natural law at this jetty into Lake Michigan. Put down that gun, they aren't clay pigeons.

Word has been received here that J. M. Clarke, 85, of Corpus Christi passed away last week. Funeral and burial was in Corpus.

Mr. Clarke, a former tailor here a number of years, has been living in Corpus since leaving Hedley two years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Lillian; a daughter, Mrs. W. W. Rockett; a granddaughter, Elizabeth Rockett, all of Corpus.

Hedley friends extend sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Simmons were called to Dallas Monday morning due to the death of Mrs. Simmon's brother, Jimmy Mizzell, who passed away early Monday morning. Mrs. Mizzell passed away last week.

As the year 1962 is nearing the close I'd like to say THANKS to each of you who, through the year, has helped in any way to keep the Hedley News going each week. Mrs. Estlack and the Leader Staff, each one, has been so nice to work with. We hope you have enjoyed the news as much as we have bring it to you each week.

As the holiday season comes, may each one do their best to make it a safe Christmas for everyone.

May He who is The Bright and Morning Star fill your hearts with great joy this Christmas, and through the New Year.

One Rural Accident Is Investigated In County During Nov.

The Highway Patrol investigated one rural accident in Donley County during the month of November according to Sergeant J. W. Wilson, Patrol Supervisor of this area. This wreck accounted for an estimated property damage of $165.00.

The rural traffic accident summary or Donley County from January through November of 1962 shows a total of 32 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were two persons killed and 22 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $20,000.00.

Traffic wise, December is traditionally the most dangerous month of the year. Just what makes it so dangerous? It is a time of goodwill, cheer and celebration. Why should it be so dangerous?

The Sergeant stated there can be many reasons for this. The month of December has fewer hours of daylight than any other month. We usually have some bad weather. People insist on celebrating the holidays with intoxicating beverages. Many are preoccupied with holiday activities and do not apply their full attention to their driving and walking. There will be some traveling at excessive speed to reach their destination. Others will be fatigued because of not stopping to rest along the way.

"Facing the prospect of 92 traffic deaths during the holidays, our patrolmen will be working overtime hours, and they will remain especially alert for those serious law violations which are responsible for most fatal accidents — such as excessive speed and driving while drinking," he said.

"In other words, we will be doing everything within our power to prove the statistics, which are so often right, are wrong for the holiday season. And we trust that holiday motorists will help by heeding the traffic laws and rules of safety."

Between 40 and 50 per cent of America's farmers produce less than $1,000 worth of food each year.

PATHFINDER CHRISTMAS PARTY HELD FRIDAY

Pathfinder met Friday afternoon, December 14, at Patching Memorial Club House with Mrs. S. W. Lowe and Mrs. Joe Goldston co-hostesses. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Heckle Stark, and Club Collect was read in unison.

Mrs. W. H. Cooke, III, gave the Christmas story as found in the Bible beginning with the prophecies in the Old Testament and then as told in Luke. In closing she read a poem, "The Legend of the Sand Dollar," which depicted the life of Christ. Illustrating the poem was a shell with five openings representing the nail prints in Christ's hands, side, and feet, and imprinted on its surface was a cross. The shell was passed around for all to see. Mrs. Charles Carman, accompanied by Mrs. John Bass sang "O Holy Night."

During the social hour, Mrs. Bass played Christmas music. Refreshments were served from the dining table which was laid with a dark green net cloth and centered with an arrangement of holly. Mrs. Stark presided at the silver service. The Christmas motif was also carried out in decorations within the entertaining rooms.

Twenty-five members and guests attended.—Rep.

Burnett-Garland Vows Exchanged Dec. 1

In an impressive candlelight ceremony performed at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, December 1, 1962, in the First Methodist Church, Memphis, Texas, Miss Audrey Beth Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney L. Burnett, became the bride of Jimmy Lynn Garland, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Garland of Clarendon.

Rev. J. B. Thompson, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before a nuptial space decorated with branched candelabra holding white tapers interspersed with jade palms and tall floor baskets of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Richard Brown of Borger, organist, played a medley of pre-nuptial selections and also accompanied Arthur Smith of Irving as he sang "Because," "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

Mrs. James L. True, Jr., of Memphis attended the bride as Matron of Honor and Miss Sue Pirkle of Amarillo served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Cluck of Memphis, Mrs. Dave Corley of Morton and Mrs. Jerry Murphy of Amarillo.

The attendants wore identical frocks of red velveteen fashioned with elbow-length sleeves, scooped neckline and a controlled skirt with a modified obi sash trim at the back waistline. They wore matching red shoes, headpieces of red tulle circlets trimmed with velveteen bows and carried a single long stemmed Rome Glory rose tied with long ribbon streamers. White gloves completed their costume.

Little Miss Jami Kay Bownds of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of red velveteen designed identical to the other attendants and she carried a basket of rose petals which she scattered along the bridal aisle.

Vernon Ross DeWees, also of Amarillo, and cousin of the bride was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white heart-shaped satin pillow with white satin ribbon streamers.

Candlelighters were Miss Polly Etter of Amarillo and Mrs. Larry Jarrett of Lockney. Their frocks were identical to those of the other attendants and they wore wristlets of red Garnet roses.

Marion D. Garland of Clarendon served his brother as best man, and groomsmen were Dennis Kotara of Groom, Richard Vallance of Clarendon, Jimmy Graham of Clarendon and J. R. Graham of Clarendon. Ushers were Coy West of Memphis, Jerry Burnett of Memphis and Buck Holcomb of Amarillo, all cousins of the bride.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal ankle-length sheath gown fashioned of white bridal taffeta. The modified scoop neckline and the long fitted tapered sleeves were outlined with Alencon lace applique accented with crystal beads and seed pearls. The shaft skirt was accented by a detachable triple-squared chapel train which also featured the applique trim.

A tiara of seed pearls encrusted with crystal beads held her elbow length veil of scalloped imported French illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white cattleya orchid showered with white streamers and lily-of-the-valley. She observed the tradition of wearing "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue."

Mrs. Burnett chose for her daughter's wedding a blue silk costume suit featuring a portrait collar and matching accessories. Her corsage was a white glabella with red garnet rose center. Mrs. Garland, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green and blue printed suit with white accessories. She, too, wore a corsage of white glabellas with red Garnet rose center.

A reception was held in the church annex immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was laid with a white organdy cloth trimmed with white satin bows. Silver candelabra holding white tapers entwined with ivy and the red roses which the bridesmaids carried formed the centerpiece. The three-tiered wedding cake featuring white roses and sugar bells was placed at one end of the table and red punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Silver appointments completed the table setting.

Those assisting in serving were Miss Linda Fields and Mrs. Sherman Widener, Mrs. Calvin Jackson of Childress, Mrs. Bob Hall of Amarillo, Mrs. Clifton Burnett, Mrs. Ben Parks, Mrs. John L. Burnett, Mrs. John Fowler and Hester Bownds.

Governor Announces Safety Campaign

Governor Price Daniel said today that Texas has "an excellent chance of setting a new, all-time life-saving record" during the Christmas-New Year's holiday if all Texans "will drive as if their lives depend on it. Unfortunately, this season, which is the happiest for most people, turns out to be the deadliest as far as traffic fatalities are concerned" the Governor said. "I urge everyone to join in helping to have lives for Christmas and the New Year."

The Governor announced another Statewide traffic safety campaign for the holiday period, exact dates for which will be announced by the Texas Department of Public Safety, along with its official estimate of the number of traffic deaths expected.

"During the past five Christmas-New Year holidays," Governor Daniel said, "traffic deaths dropped to an average of 87, as compared with an average of 105 for each of the preceding five years. This shows what can be accomplished when the drivers of Texas, the law enforcement agencies, traffic safety supporters, and local and State officials combine their efforts in behalf of preventing deaths and injuries on our streets and highways."

The Governor said he was again calling on all newspapers, radio and television stations, outdoor poster companies, local traffic safety councils, school officials, sheriffs and chiefs of police, "and especially all drivers" — to "join with us in this holiday traffic safety campaign." Last year's holiday traffic deaths, totaling 80, hit an all-time low since 1948 for the entire holiday season. Records for the past ten years, as listed by official records of the Department of Public Safety, show the following:

Traffic Deaths During Christmas-New Year Holidays

You as a land owner are eligible to take part in this program. The Soil Conservation District serving Donley County urges you to investigate this program as cost-share rates range from 50 to 80 percent in helping you apply conservation practices on your land. USE ELECTRICITY FOR ICE-FREE STOCK WATER COLLEGE STATION
Breaking ice on stock watering troughs or tanks is no pleasant task. It isn't necessary if an automatic livestock waterer, equipped with an electrical heating element, is installed, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer.

Water should be available for livestock at all times, he adds, even in the coldest weather. Tests have shown that cows watered automatically drank 18 percent more water and gave 3.5 percent more milk than cows watered twice daily. Beef cattle and hogs also need plenty of water if they are to do well during the winter months, the engineer adds.

Automatic electrically heated livestock waterers are available in many shapes and sizes and for all types of livestock. Basically, a unit consists of a water tank fed by pressure or a gravity water system, a float valve, a heating element controlled by a thermostat, and a housing to support the tank and exclude outside air movement around the tank.

Allen suggests purchasing the smallest unit that will provide ample water for your livestock. A general purpose bowl type waterer will handle up to 30 head of cattle or 60 hogs. The heating element should be immersed in the water of the tank or attached to the underside of the tank. These types, he explains, are usually more efficient than those which warm the space enclosed by the housing.

The thermostat is an important part of the automatic waterer and one with a 5 degree range between the "on and off" operating points is most desirable. Cattle or combination waterers should be insulated on the sides to conserve electricity. Covers are also recommended for reducing operating costs and as an aid to keeping the water clean. Allen says to select a unit which can be cleaned easily.

He says the water temperature should be maintained just high enough to prevent surface freezing. This will usually be between 45 and 50 degrees F. And finally, he suggests a visit with the local county agent for detailed information on selection, installation and operation of these time and labor-saving devices.

WOMAN MAY BE EXECUTED — The State of Texas may legally execute its first woman in more than 100 years in 1963. She is Carolyn Ann Lima. Her death penalty has been affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Meanwhile, she is being held in the Harris County jail in Houston. She awaits the court's decision on a motion for rehearing. Such is rarely granted. If she lives until February 23, she will be 20 years old.

The Lima woman and a companion, Leslie Douglas Ashley, were given the death penalty for

It was 1859 or 1860, when the State of Texas last executed a woman.

Only one woman has been sent to the Texas death house since the electric chair was installed in 1924 at Huntsville. However, her sentence was commuted on June 29, 1951.

So, if time runs out for Carolyn Ann Lima, she will become the first woman ever to sit in the state's electric chair.

WATER DILEMMA — Water districts which serve customers within the limits of a city are in a dilemma over a Texas Supreme Court ruling.

A court decision finds them in the position of trying to set rates to pay their costs and at the same time having their rates prescribed by the city.

Texas Supreme Court has upheld the power of Houston to fix rates charged customers within the city by a water district.

Ruling applies equally to all cities wholly or in part by water districts.

SECURITIES PERMITS — Seven applications have been filed for permits to sell $1,688,500 in securities in Texas.

State Securities Commissioner W. M. King said the applicants include two Texas companies, Petro Electronics Systems, Inc., Midland, $150,000; and Serba Oil and Gas Company, San Antonio, $600,000.

SENATORS MUST WAIT — Will Wilson, Texas Attorney General, has ruled that state senators may not take their oaths of office until the Senate convenes in January.

Attorney general recently held that state representatives could qualify for office on November 23.

Dates of terms for senators and representatives are regulated by different sections of the state constitution.

Constitution provides no beginning date for the term of office for state senators, the opinion said.

BOOST EDUCATION — Beating the drums for top quality in higher education is the privately financed Committee of the Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities.

Its membership consists of one representative from each of the 19 bodies which direct the institutions of higher learning in Texas.

These are business men. They stress the economic angle of education.

Texas must industrialize, they say, to insure our future prosperity. To get industry, we must have excellence in higher education.

Supporting that thesis, they quote such authorities as Governor-elect John Connally, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas.

These experts agree that industry follows brainpower, and will go where brainpower is available.

Presently, Texas is lagging. FACE FUND LOSS — Texas school districts have been warned to desegregate by next September or lose certain "impacted area" funds.

Warning was contained in a letter from Wayne O. Reed, acting U.S. Commissioner of Education, and was sent to 53 Texas school districts.

State education officials interpret the letter to mean that the federal government will build and operate schools on military posts and other places where its personnel is involved only if local districts desegregate.

Federal government has been paying about $12,000,000 a year for operating locally-run schools in Texas, attended by children of military and defense establishment personnel.

Latest announcement apparently covers only children living "on base" and not those whose parents work on a military post but reside off the base. Leon Graham, assistant State Commissioner of Education, said it is impossible to gauge the immediate effect.

Ruling poses a serious problem for districts still maintaining segregation, to any degree, and depending on federal funds for educating children who live on nearby bases.

Bulldogs Beat NMMI, 55 to 44

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs got off to a fast start in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference basketball race here last Saturday night by handing New Mexico Military Institute a 55 to 44 defeat in the first conference game of the season.

The Bulldogs got off to a quick lead in the opening minutes of play and the taller and more experienced visitors could never catch up. The Bulldogs were ahead, 33 to 19, at the half.

Jimmy Boyd, freshman guard from Vernon, paced the Bulldog scorers with 18 points. Alvin Scott, sophomore forward from Quanah made 13 points and James Starkey, freshman guard from Quitaque, contributed 10 points.

The Bulldogs played a near-perfect game the first half. They hit 16 of 30 field goal attempts during the initial 20 minutes and out-rebounded their taller opponents 31 to 10. The second half was not nearly so well played as the first half, especially the last ten minutes. During this period, the Bulldogs played rather sloppy, but the visitors were unable to capitalize on their mistakes and failed to gain much in the score column. The closest the visitors could get to the Bulldogs in the last half was 44 to 38 with about six minutes to play.

Max Courtney, 6-8 center from Wellington, played an outstanding game on defense. He scored only seven points, but was the leading rebounder both on offense and defense until he left the game with five fouls late in the game. Bill Bentley, sophomore from Samnorwood, played a good defensive game although he scored only two points. John Gonzales scored 16 points to lead

New Social Security Tax Rates Go Into Effect January 1

New social security tax rates go into effect on January 1, 1963, according to Hal Geldon, district manager of the Amarillo Social Security office.

This is one of the regular tax increases, provided in the law, to cover the payment of retirement, survivors, and disability benefits, and all administrative costs of the program.

For people working for wages, the new 1963 rate will be 3-5/8% on their first $4800 in yearly earnings. The employer will contribute a like amount. For the self-employed, the new rate is 5-4% of the first $4800 in yearly net earnings. Wages and self-employment earnings of more than $4800 a year are not taxable for social security purposes.

Geldon noted that the new social security tax rate applies only to wages paid and self-employment income earned after December 31, 1962. The present rate of 3-1/8% on wages is applicable for wages paid in 1962 even though they are not reported by employers until early in 1963. The current rate of 4-5% for the self-employed is likewise applicable to self-employment income earned in 1962 but not reported until 1963.

Locals Join Air-Lift To Visit Allis-Chalmers Factories Last Week

Thousands of farmers and ranchers, farm equipment dealers and salesmen flew into Milwaukee during last week in what is believed to have been the largest commercial airlift in aviation history. They were participating in the three-day, expense-paid trip offered as a bonus by Allis-Chalmers to anyone who bought one of the company's farm tractors.

Among them were Allis-Chalmers dealer Homer Estlack and his guest-customer, Oscar (Cap) Anderson of Rt. 1, Hedley. They visited Allis-Chalmers Land of Power on the first leg of their bonus trip. A total of 29 cities in the United States as well as Toronto, Canada, served as staging areas for some 90 flights on United Air Lines chartered planes to carry the visitors to Milwaukee.

On the first two days, the trip of sightseeing and entertainment included tours of the company's plants in Milwaukee and Harvey, Ill., called the Land of Power by Allis-Chalmers. On the third day bonus winners spent the morning in Chicago and then flew back to their staging areas in the afternoon.

At the company's facilities in Milwaukee, visitors saw the nuclear power laboratory en route from Mitchell Field airport. At the West Allis manufacturing plant, they toured the shops, ate dinner, were entertained by the company's orchestra and chorus and saw a one-hour pageant highlighting the past, present and future of the company's 50 years in the tractor business.

In Harvey they toured the company's new multi-million dollar engine manufacturing plant. In the evening after the tour, bonus winners enjoyed a dinner and a floor show.

Bronchoettes Win Consolation In Tourney

The high school girls' basketball team won the consolation trophy at the Samnorwood annual tournament that was held last week end. The local girls lost their first game to Miami after having led the first quarter 13 to 2 and still enjoying a halftime margin of 19 to 16.

The end of the third period found the local girls trailing 21 to 23 even though the Bronchoette guards held the opponents to a final score of 33 points, the forwards were able to master only 29 points of which Sharon Williams accounted for 13. Regina Borden 9, Janette Rampy 6, and freshman Sandra Longan 1.

The loss of their first game sent the local girls on the consolation route of the basket. In this game they met Wheeler, a class B school that pretty well matched the Bronchoettes due to the absence of the services of sophomore Dorothy Richey. Dorothy has averaged 20 points in the six games she has played this season. Due to a knee injury she didn't play the entire Claude game and it is presently keeping her off the starting line up. The score in the Wheeler game was close as Wheeler held a 6 to 5 first quarter lead, and a 15 to 10 half time margin.

The Bronchoettes managed to come up to tie the score at the end of the third quarter 20 to 20. Due largely to the outstanding work of the Bronchoette guards, Mollie Floyd, Connie Martin, and Janie Ivey, and the accurate free shot eye of Regina Borden in the last few seconds of the game the local girls came out with a final score of 30 to 26. Regina Borden was high point with 9, Janette Rampy 8, Sharon Williams 7, and Cheryl Fredric 6. This win put them in the finals with Kelton, who had defeated McLean 47 to 33 in working their way toward the Consolation trophy.

The Bronchoettes appreciated the strong defense set up by their guards as Connie Martin, Mollie Floyd and Janie Ivey allowed the girls from Kelton to score only 13 points. Try as they would the Bronchoette forwards were only able to scrape up 27 points as Sharon Williams hustled up 13 of them aided by Janette Rampy, Regina Borden, Cheryl Fredric, and Sandra Longan. Other girls making the trips were: Ann Mills, Pat Banister, Melissa Patterson, Karen Hill and Sue Hill. The girls' record at this point in the young season stands at six wins with four losses, two of these being to Claude, one to Silverton and the other to Miami. It is hoped that Dorothy Richey may be able to see some action in the North Plains Tourney that will be held at Claude January 3-4-5.

Beginning with the first conference game on January 15th game time will be moved up to 6:30 p.m. in order that the visiting team will be able to return home at an earlier hour. Admission is still 25c for students and 50c for adults.
