Work Is Underway To Enlarge Clarendon Junior College District

Work is now underway to enlarge the Clarendon Junior College District. At the present time, and since the college district was first created in 1927, the college district has been comprised of 297 square miles. At that time the college district was composed of five school districts including the Clarendon Public School District.

Since 1927 a number of districts have consolidated with the Clarendon Public School District but have not been included in the college district. At the present time, the Public School District has 922 square miles. It is the hope of the school board and the steering committee that the college district can be enlarged to include all the public school district.

Some few weeks ago a steering committee was named and an attorney employed to look into the possibility of enlarging the district. The steering committee is composed of Mr. Kenneth Vaughan, President of the College, along with Mr. Walter B. Knopp, Mr. Homer Estlack, Mr. R. E. Drennan, Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. Mike McCully and Mr. W. W. Pinkerton. The attorney working with this committee is Mr. Clyde Slavin. This committee is charged with the responsibility of contacting other interested people and getting their help to do the job that must be done.

At the present time the committee is circulating petitions among the people who reside within the public school district but outside the college district. The first step in mind is to call an election of the people outside the college district. This election will decide whether or not the college district will be enlarged to the extent that its boundaries will coincide with the public school boundary lines.

If this election is favorable, then within 30 days of this election, another election will be called to set the tax rate for the college district.

This free course, conducted by instructors from the Texas Education Agency, (or local certified Civil Defense instructors) provides: A free manual and other related materials. Showing of films, slides, and filmstrips. Discussion, question and answer periods. Certificates to all who complete the course.

Classes are scheduled to begin on Dec. 3 at the Clarendon High School and will start at 7:00 o'clock. Adults who are interested in attending the survival course may call Morris Ledger, phone 3553 or 2287, or be at the High School Cafeteria when the class begins.

This should be of interest to service clubs, the ministerial alliance, local government agencies, sheriff's department, utility companies, the hospital and the fire department.

Mrs. J. L. Williams of Plainview visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin Sunday evening.

Commissioners Take Action Regarding Hedley Road Project

The routing of the road from McLean to Hedley, which has been in question for quite some time, was handled by the Donley County Commissioners' Court here Tuesday in a manner which is outlined in the Commissioners' Court minutes as listed below. A copy of these proceedings was sent to the State Highway Commission in Austin for further action. The County Commissioners are to be commended for taking a definite stand on the question so that a final decision can be made for the betterment of our county in the way of new roads.

Commissioner's Court Minutes
At a recessed regular meeting of the Commissioner's Court of Donley County, Texas, held on November 20, 1962, all County Commissioners and members of the Commissioner's Court being present and participating, among business that came to be considered was the following: MOTION was made by County Commissioner Frank Murray as follows:

"WHEREAS the Texas Highway Department has forwarded to the Commissioners' Court of Donley County an instrument asking for the agreement of the Commissioners' Court to provide a right-of-way and fencing if the Texas Highway Commission enters an order for a location on highway No. FM 2695, from State Highway 203, 6 miles Northeast of Hedley, North approximately 2.5 miles and thence in a Northwesterly direction to the end of RM 2695, a total distance of approximately 8 miles, (See Commissioners on Page 8.)"

Bronchoettes Win Over Groom, 65-40

After losing to Claude's state champs last week, the Bronchoettes bounced back Tuesday night to take an easy 65-40 win over the Groom Tigerettes. The second team played some of the second quarter.

The score at the half time was 42-16. Dorothy Richey, an all-district forward from last year's regional competing team poured in 28 points and spent almost half of the game on the bench. Brenda McAnear found her mark for 11 points while Janette Rampy racked up 9 points. Freshman Cheryl Fedric had 6, Regina Borden 8 and Sharon Williams 3.

Molly Floyd, all district guard last year, had good assistance from Janie Ivey, Ann Mills and Melissa Patterson. The B team took two easy wins from Claude and Groom, taking Claude 49-24 last week and Groom 44-29 Tuesday night. The B team has good strength in Audrey Shields, a sophomore, who put in 24 points against Claude and drove 17 in Tuesday night to earn almost half of the total points.

Both the girls and boys teams will host the Silverton teams here next Tuesday night. This will be the boys first game of the season and also their first under the direction of Coach Jack James.

Thanksgiving Day 1962

Thanksgiving is traditionally American. Over three hundred years ago the Pilgrim Fathers turned their backs on a world of entrenched selfishness to build a nation under God. They met on that first Thanksgiving Day to express their thanks to God for His many blessings. Their earnest and sincere efforts were based on a faith founded in the God of the universe. Thus, they reaped their reward which later resulted in a representative form of constitutional democracy, and brought us freedom. For these efforts we can be truly thankful.

One of the finest features of Thanksgiving in this land is the privilege of living in a country where each individual may unite to share in the protection and defense of the American principle of life. Our way of living has more regard for the sanctity of the individual than any other system of government devised by the mind of man.

As a people we are rich in heritage. Our founding fathers were men of vision. They were individuals of tremendous faith. We are their descendants. May we now be like them in giving thanks. May we pattern our future after their vision. May we in possessing their intimate faith in God behold a vision more glorious.

Surely we can with sincerity join the Psalmist in saying, "O Give Thanks unto the Lord; for He is good: For His mercy endureth forever!"

Jaycees Collecting And Repairing Toys For Underprivileged Tots

The Clarendon Jaycees have set up shop for repairing toys and a system for collecting discarded toys that more underprivileged youngsters may have a more joyous Christmas. Those who have toys to give for this worthy project may leave them at your own church or call Darrell Harper, James McKinney, Hubert Kidd, Delbert Robertson or John Morrow and they will pick up the toys. This includes toys that are broken and are repairable. The Jaycees would like to have the toys at the earliest possible date, so if they need repairing, this can be accomplished prior to the holiday season.

Lions Collecting Eye Glasses

The local Lions Club is collecting eye glasses that are not being used or have been replaced. The glasses need to be prescription glasses as they can then be classified and used by people who can not afford them. If you have a set of prescription eye glasses you do not plan to use, contact any members of the Lions Club.

Iota Phi Initiates Members And Installs Officers

As the top scholastic honorary society among Junior Colleges, members in Phi Theta Kappa are designated by scholastic achievement. The highest scholastic 10% of the student body who have completed at least 15 hours of credit may belong. Based upon the enrollment at CJC only 14 members, which is 10% of the enrollment, may be accepted. The pledges with highest grade point averages were chosen from the applications and eight students were formally initiated into Iota Phi Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Clarendon Junior College on November 14, 1962.

The initiation took place in the college at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 14. The ceremony was conducted privately with the sponsor, Mr. Weldon Day.

The initiates stood behind a lace covered table laden with two blue candles and accented by flower arrangements. A short

Muscular Dystrophy Drive Is Set For Monday Night

Asst. Fire Chief Lloyd McCord of the Clarendon Fire Department today announced that his organization of Volunteer Firemen will be participating locally in the March for Muscular Dystrophy. This march has long been a personal project of firemen throughout the nation and the Clarendon Fire Department.

Local funds will be raised in a house-to-house march to be held on the night of November 26. If you wish to donate to this worthy cause, you are asked to leave your porch light burning and one of the workers will stop at your home.

J. R. Williams To Preach Sunday Night

J. R. Williams will preach Sunday night, Nov. 25th, at First Baptist Church of Clarendon.

Many of the people of Clarendon have seen him as a teacher, as a coach or as a citizen in the community. Sunday night at seven o'clock you will have the opportunity of seeing him in the place of a Minister.

The public is invited to this service.

Matador-Wheeler Bi-District Football Game To Be Played Here Today

Everything Ready For Bull Sale December 6th

Everything is about ready for the 4th annual bull sale to be held in Clarendon at the fair grounds on the 6th of December says County Agent Flip Breedlove. The arena is all completed and all heating of the sales room is completed and some additional seating capacity is just about completed.

The catalog will be off the press in the very near future and many will be mailed to livestock owners over the state. Breedlove said that advertising had been taken in six leading livestock magazines in Texas and Oklahoma and New Mexico. There will also be about seven hundred letters mailed out to livestock owners and press releases to all papers in this section of the state. On the 1st of December the Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association directors and bull consignors will appear on Cotton John's farm program at 3:30 p.m. on Channel 4, advertising the bull sale on the 6th of December.

College Bulldogs Beat Sayre, 61-44

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs defeated Sayre, Oklahoma, Junior College here last Saturday night, 61 to 44, in their first basketball game of the 1962-63 season.

The Bulldogs were paced by freshman guard, Jimmy Boyd, from Vernon. Boyd pumped in 22 points on ten field goals and two free throws. James Allen of Clarendon made 9 points in addition to grabbing 16 rebounds. James Starkey, freshman from Quitaque, made 8 points; a pair of sophomores, Max Courtney and Alvin Scott made six points each; Randall Murry made four and Bill Bentley and Hubert Bronniman made two each. This only adds up to 59 points; the other two Bulldog points were contributed by a Sayre player who got his directions mixed and shot at the Clarendon goal—and made it.

The Bulldogs, although making a lot of mistakes, showed a lot of hustle and spirit in taking the win. Other boys who played but did not score were LeRoy Garratt, Sammy Johnston, Garland Lancaster and Joe Lennon. The Bulldogs were leading, 30 to 20, at the half.

The next game for the Bulldogs will be with this same Sayre team on Nov. 27 at Sayre.

Income Tax School Slated For December 4

County Agent Flip Breedlove says that an income tax school will be held at the agriculture room of the high school on the night of the 4th of December at seven-thirty p.m. in Clarendon. This is for farmers and ranchers and all others interested. Mr. James Murphrey, Area Farm Management Specialist of the A&M College Extension Service will conduct the school.

Breedlove stated that this will also be the program for the Young Farmers and Ranchers Organization which meets in this night. Mr. Murphrey will go in to all phases of farm and ranch income tax reporting and this should be of great value to everyone in getting information ready to make out your income tax for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fricks of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. John Adamson and Deborah of Spearman spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Fricks and David.

Following the outcome of games played last Friday night which produced Wheeler as the winner of District 1-B and Matador winner of District 5-B, officials of the two schools met here in Clarendon and decided upon Broncho Stadium as the site of their bi-district contest, after being offered the use of Clarendon's facilities by local school officials.

The Clarendon Jaycees, as an expression of neighborliness offered their services and will handle all details such as manning the ticket windows, parking, etc.

Game time is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. and the gates, including the car gate will be open at 1:30 p.m.

Matador, sporting an unblemished record of nine wins and one tie have had very little opposition from it's opponents; however, Wheeler, a team that has gained strength as the season progressed, has had a long, hard battle in gaining the 1-B title. Groom, a perennial Class B power, was the heavy favorite to repeat as regional champs before Wheeler upset them 6-0. Matador blanked the Turkey Turks with a 37-0 score last Friday night to win the District 5B honors.

Matador, while fielding a line that can possibly hold their own with the toughest in the state will be pitting their might against an explosive Mustang backfield that can strike from any position on the field, either by the ground or through the air.

Matador is coached by Charlie Johnson, former Hedley resident and graduate of Clarendon Junior College. This close association, will make the game even more interesting for local fans.

The Wheeler team is coached by Grady Burnett.

The Jaycees are urging local football fans to come out and see a real fine game and extend a neighborly welcome to the visiting teams and their followers.

Jaycees Schedule Sabin Make-up Day Tuesday, Nov. 27th

Approximately 2300 persons in Clarendon and Donley County took the Sabin Oral Vaccine Type II last Sunday. Delbert Robertson, President of the Jaycees, stated that this number was greater than the number of persons taking type I on the first Sabin Oral Sunday, Oct. 7th.

For those persons who did not receive type II Sunday, the Clarendon Jaycees announced that Tuesday, Nov. 27th, has been designated as make-up day. The vaccine will be given at the high school cafeteria between the hours of one and two p.m. Registration will not be necessary for those who have previously registered for the type I. The Jaycees urge all persons to take type II, even if they have not had type I which can be given at a later date.

The controversial Sabin Type III, as yet unavailable, will be scheduled at a later date. Information pertaining to Sabin Type III will be published in this newspaper.

FIRST SNOW OF YEAR NETS .38 MOISTURE

INSTANTANEOUS CARGO DELIVERY. The U. S. Army's CV-2 CARIBOU delivers a palletized cargo by the "touch and go" snatch system during a recent demonstration at Fort Eustis, Va. The snatch system has many applications in forward combat areas; landing fields are not necessary for the rapid discharge of cargo with this method. Relatively easy to install, the system employs water filled cylinders with paddle wheels to generate drag on a nylon ribbon. A hook is dropped from the aircraft to a restraining ribbon anchored to the ground and the cargo is pulled from the rear ramp making a relatively smooth landing on the ground. CARIBOU is manufactured for the Army by DeHavilland Aircraft, Ltd., Canada.

As the Thanksgiving season is near, may we each one stop and count the many blessings we American people have. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Our community has had some winter weather over the week end. The snow will be welcomed by the farmers who have wheat and winter pastures. The cotton is not all gathered yet. The gin has ginned around 1500 bales up to Friday of last week.

Mauria Mitchell of Amarillo was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Quisenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glass visited the first of the week in Snyder, Texas, with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glass. Bobby Glass and family of Tucson, Arizona, were visiting their parents, which made a very enjoyable visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cherry and sons, Rickey and Clay, and T. J. Cherry spent the week end in Vernon with the Troy Brown family.

Mr. Walter DeBord has returned to Goodall Hospital in Memphis. Sorry he is not doing too well.

Clyde Grimsley is not doing so well. He is still in a critical condition in a Memphis hospital, having had the second operation Monday. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

MAKE-IT-YOURSELF WITH WOOL CONTEST HELD AT C.H.S. MONDAY NIGHT

The "Make-It-Yourself With Wool" contest, sponsored by the American Wool Growers Association, was judged on the county level Monday night in the Home-making Department. Judges for the contest were Miss Shirley Nelson, Homemaking teacher, Claude; Mrs. W. S. McLeish, Claude; and Mrs. James Evans, Hedley. Lynn Bourland placed first with her suit and third with her coat. Leeta Shields placed second with her basic casual sheath.

Garments were made in class and as home experiences by students just completing their second year sewing course. Garments were judged 65% appearance and fit, 35% on workmanship.

Leeta Shields modeled a blue sheath flannel; Delores Messer styled an ensemble — a blue slim-lined basic dress topped with a complimentary brushed wool and checked coat. Suits were popular with the Clarendon girls. Clydean Gilbreth styled a blue plaid basic suit with a match-mate pair of slim jims. Jill Benson's suit was a warm tan and black-plaid skirt topped by a basic short jacket of black mohair. Janet Goodman looked smart and sophisticated in a charcoal basket weave suit. It featured a roll collar, "chopped-off" sleeves, hip bone length coat. The skirt was fully lined, sheath style.

Autumn colors in a bold plaid casual dress was selected for Pat Green's outfit. This charmer was lovely with a high rolled and fringed collar. The bodice was bias cut and the skirt was knife pleated. Lynn Bourland's suit was an "away from the neck" cardigan topping a slim line skirt. The turquoise tweed was complimented by a pure silk roll collared blouse. She also modeled a soft brown, full length coat. Bold buttons punctuated the front closing. Raglan sleeves were tapered to the waist.

Garments will be modeled at the fall and winter style show Monday night, November 26th, in the High School auditorium.

MRS. JERRY SHIELDS

Jo Ann Stanley, Jerry Shields Wed

Miss Jo Ann Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Roen of Memphis, became the recent bride of Jerry Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shields of Rt. 1, Hedley, in a simple but impressive double-ring ceremony in the home of Minister and Mrs. Bright Newhouse of Clarendon.

Vows were solemnized before an archway of greenery, white mums and red carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length dress of tulle lace over taffeta accented by a shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of red and white carnations atop a white Bible given to her by the Rainbows as out-going Worthy Advisor.

She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and also wore a six-pence in her shoe. The "something old" was a gold wedding band belonging to her grandmother; the "something new," her wedding dress; "something borrowed," a pearl necklace; and "something blue," a garter.

The couple's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Shields of Clarendon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Koen chose a blue wool knit dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Shields wore a dress of black jersey accented with blue accessories.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the home of Minister and Mrs. Newhouse.

After a short wedding trip to Red River, N.M., and Colorado Springs, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Shields are at home in Clarendon.

Mrs. Shields is a member of the senior class of Memphis High School while Mr. Shields is engaged in farming in the Lelia Lake Community.

FALL AND WINTER STYLE SHOW TO BE PRESENTED NOV. 26

The Homemaking Departments of Hedley and Clarendon High Schools will present their annual Fall and Winter Style Show Monday night, November 26, at 7 p.m. in the Clarendon High School auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend this lovely display of talent and color.

Featured specials will be the winners of the "Make-It-Yourself With Wool" contestants. Sophomores and Juniors will style suits and dresses made of wools and blends. The Homemaking II students will model basic winter cottons and suits. Freshman girls will style skirts and blouses that they have just completed.

Learning to sew is stressed as hobby as well as possible avocation. The modeling is to help the students develop confidence and poise, and to prepare them to enter various contests sponsored by civic organizations in our community. Background music for the occasion will be played by Mary Louise Caldwell, F.H.A. pianist.

Garments will not be judged. We believe they are work of successful seamstresses and the Homemaking teachers, Mrs. Sue Shields, Hedley, and Mrs. Velma Bourland, Clarendon, are happy to extend you an invitation to attend this F.H.A. sponsored event.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Wheat Stabilization Program

December 14, 1962, is the final date for farmers to sign Intentions to Participate in the 1963 Wheat Stabilization Program. We urge all wheat farmers to come to the office and let us explain just how the program works and applies to your farm.

The 18 cent per bushel payment on the planted acres will be paid by sight draft after the final wheat acreage is determined and will be paid regardless of whether or not you put the wheat in the loan. We feel that some are confused on this phase of the program — the wheat could be sold on open market, kept on the farm or disposed of in any manner and the 18 cent payment will be paid on the measured acreage of wheat.

Please keep in mind that you must comply with your intentions; otherwise, you will not be eligible for price support, the extra 18 cent price support payment, or the wheat diversion payment.

Think it over and come in and let us figure your payment, then make your decision.

Cotton Referendum

Tuesday, December 11, 1962, is the day cotton farmers will vote on marketing quotas for the 1963 crop of upland cotton.

You are eligible to vote in the referendum if you are engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1962.

At least two-thirds of the growers voting must approve the quotas if they are to continue in effect.

While the Administration plans to recommend new cotton legislation early in 1963, it is anticipated that such legislation would supplement rather than substantially change the following basic program choices in the Dec. 11 referendum.

Your cotton allotment is valuable. It is used to determine your fair share of the cotton market. It belongs to your farm and is based largely on your farm's past cotton production history. All farms on which cotton was planted in any of the years 1960, 1961, or 1962 will be eligible for cotton allotments in 1963 as "old cotton farms." This is also true of farms that legally maintained their rights to cotton allotments even though not growing cotton.

To protect your farm allotment base — used in determining future farm acreage allotments, you must plant (or be regarded as planting) at least 75% of your 1963 farm acreage allotment. Otherwise, your base for the following year will be reduced to the average of (1) the regular allotment for 1963, and (2) the acreage planted or regarded as planted in 1963.

This rule applies to all cotton allotments regardless of size.

Want to open up a lot of bright horizons for yourself? Well, here's one way: Put those extra dollars in a safe, guaranteed investment — U. S. Savings Bonds.

This office will be closed Thursday, Nov. 22, in observance of Thanksgiving. While you are enjoying the holiday, do not fail to keep in mind its true meaning. Look back over the past year and try to name your blessings one by one. You'll find you have more to be thankful for than you ever thought possible.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farm And Ranch Planning
Soil and water conservation has become a major concern in this country of economic dominance. Much effort is being put forth to make our country produce as much per acre as it is potentially capable of producing. In order to initiate such a program, we have to bring the problems down to an individual farmer-rancher basis. This is being accomplished by farm and ranch planning.

The individual farmer and rancher is contacted concerning his use of his land. With much information collected beforehand, the planner can inform the owner of the best conservation practices for his land according to the land's capabilities. When the owner reviews the information gathered and decides to develop a sound conservation plan for his place, a basic conservation plan is written and he receives a copy. However, if he decides to make use of only a portion of the practices, a progressive plan is written for him in the hope of later progressing it to a basic plan.

In planning with the farmer and rancher, many things should be considered before recommending that a practice be applied.

1) Does the practice apply to the owner's present situation?
2) Will the returns prove greater than the cost?

3) Does the owner have or is he able to obtain equipment necessary to set the practice into execution?
4) Is the benefit greater than the initial returns?
5) Is the farmer or rancher sold on the practice to such an extent that it will be maintained properly?

Individual farm and ranch planning has proven beyond any doubt to be a great benefit to our country. Much work is being done each day by your local Soil Conservation Service in an effort to improve the land for present and future generations.

H.S. ANNUAL STAFF SPONSORS PROGRAM

The Annual Staff of Clarendon High School sponsored an entertaining program at 11 a.m. November 20 in the auditorium when they presented "Queen For A Day," "Yours For A Song," well known TV programs as portrayed by local talent, and a Beauty Clinic to complete an hour long show.

Jack Bailey played by Sharon Williams, introduced the contestants, Ruby Gillean, Shirley Mann, Regina Borden, Pat Green, and Melissa Patterson, all desiring to be "Queen For A Day." Of course they had a thousand and one problems and wanted everything from longer days to hair dryers installed at school. The gorgeous wardrobe was modeled by Dwight McAnear. Baby-doll pajamas, Billy Hearn, Evening dress, Steve Richerson, Cocktail dress, Mike Heath, Matching skirt and sweater combination. Larry Neece modeled the latest thing in beach wear.

Commercials were presented by the Annual Staff members at regular intervals.

Burt Parks, Lynn Bourland, did his best to help all the contestants win on "Yours For a Song." Vieing for prizes were Jill Benson and John Cearley against Judy Pittman and Danny Ray. Assisting with the program were Sandra Shults and Susan Huff.

The Beauty Clinic included Janie Ivey, Dolfia Vallance, Emily Neece and Deanna McAnear. They had their hair in rollers and pin curls. Mr. James, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Summerfield were the hair stylists. They were given 5 minutes to create a hair style to put the teenagers in orbit.

James Bates, business manager, directed this event as a money raising project for the High School Annual.

A Matter of Perspective

The hallelaloo over the cost of prescription drugs is a fine example of how perspective can become dangerously distorted.

That has been made clear by the Secretary of the American Pharmaceutical Association. As he put it, "People are willing to pay more to get a hangover than for an analgesic to relieve it." Testifying before a Senate subcommittee, he added, "Per-capita expenditure for liquor is $54 annually, for prescribed drugs $12. Because potent drugs cannot be dispensed on the average, and because averages flatten people into cold statistics, I don't put much stock in averages. But these put the problem into perspective."

Pricing a drug is not so simple as the uninitiated seem to think. For one thing, some of the most important drugs have a very short life. Unless dispensed quickly they lose their potency and become worthless. For another, great numbers of drug research projects lead to exactly nothing, and at a heavy cost to the producers. Obviously the successful preparations must pay for the failures if we are to have new therapeutic developments.

Finally, the proposal for reducing the life of drug patents to three years, as against the 17 years which now applies to all patents would, if enacted, be about the surest way possible to undermine the great drug research programs. No one could calculate the grim effects of that on the future health of the nation.

BARTOW, FLORIDA, DEMOCRAT: "Integration is far from being the only problem which must be solved... the constant warring between labor and management, the friction between church and service groups, the trend toward corruption in high places, and the lack of harmony among a multitude of groups and individuals, should give this nation plenty to do without our insistence upon reforming the rest of the world."

Policeman: "How are your brakes?"
Motorist: "Rotten."
Policeman: "By the way, do you have your license?"
Motorist: "Nope, never had one."

Motorist's Wife: "Don't pay attention to a thing he says, Officer. He always talks that way when he's drunk!"

MECHANICALLY MOVING MATERIALS

College Station — The farmer who works hardest doesn't always get the most done. If he spends all his time lugging around bulk materials that could be handled better and cheaper by machinery he is actually wasting much of his time, according to W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer, Texas A&M College.

Transportation, harvesting, and marketing have become mechanized and the farmer who is still using "horse and buggy" methods of hauling bulk material is wasting time and labor as well as money. The farmer who is increasing his production and profits today is the one who is moving materials mechanically on the farm Allen says.

Good buildings and equipment substitute for much labor but remember that a proper balance must be maintained between machine and hand labor. Some jobs require a person's judgment and observation to perform them properly but many can actually be done better by machines, he says.

Mechanization may be cheaper than you think, Allen explains. Look around your farm and see how many jobs could be done easier and better through mechanization. Then find out how much cheaper a machine can work than a man, he adds.

Plan before you purchase, then select equipment that will do the best job economically, efficiently, and be best suited to your operation, Allen advises.

THE MAINSPRING

The vital role that profit plays in keeping this country going has been summed up in one memorable phrase: "No profits equals no capital equals no tools equals no jobs." It costs something like $20,000 to provide the "tools" which are needed for just one job in American industry. In some industries the figure goes as high as $50,000. The investments are made because the investors have a hope off profit. And a very large part of the profits earned by representative industry are not distributed to the owners, but are ploughed back into the business for purposes of expansion and improvement. In recent years, profits have lagged far behind all the other economic yardsticks -- behind costs, wages, output. In 1961 total profits were only slightly higher than in 1950--whereas, by way of comparison, payroll costs had risen 96 percent. And this, beyond question, is a prime cause of the unemployment problem, and of the economic lethargy which has been causing so much concern the country over.

To sum up, profit is the mainspring that drives the economy. The spring needs rewinding.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Republicans have turned Texas into a two-party state.

The heavy vote for Jack Cox against John Connally, election of two members to the national house of Representatives and even members to the Texas house, plus substantial Republican votes in nearly all areas, are interpreted by many State Capitol observers as meaning that ever again will the Democratic domination be "tantamount to election."

Dallas County elected every Republican candidate for county and legislative office they had their ballot, and gave Cox a 1000-vote lead over Connally. Warrant and Harris were close.

Bexar, El Paso, Travis and Nueces, the next four of the big counties, went Democratic.

Unofficial and incomplete returns indicated that Connally carried 204 counties and Cox carried 50. But it was the substantial Cox votes in the 204 counties he lost which makes this election significant.

Connally is conferring with legislators and with state boards and commissions. He will not make complete budget recommendations, since outgoing Gov. Price Daniel is required, under the Constitution, to make budget recommendations to the Legislature in January.

But Connally will make his own budget proposals in his message to the Legislature.

Industrialization, tourism, higher education and water conservation are the areas of state activity which Connally stressed most in his campaign. He will propose the creation of a Bureau of Commerce to take over tourist and industry-attracting.

The new governor, with a 120,000-vote margin of victory under his belt, said he holds no ill will toward areas which voted against him, that he will be governor for Republicans as well as Democrats.

Main areas where the Republicans ran strong were in the oil areas of West and East Texas, in the major cities, and in the Panhandle. They elected local officials in Midland, Ector, Smith, Dallas, Kerr, Bexar, Pecos, Hutchinson, Zavala and Randall Counties.

CAMPAIGNS TOO LONG — After the longest political campaign in Texas history there is a desire — on the part of many candidates, newspaper reporters who travel with the candidates, and the voting public — to return to the shorter campaign periods.

The old late-in-July, late-in-August and early-in-November voting months were far less strenuous than the present early-in-May, early-in-June and early-in-November dates.

Campaigning in the heat of the summer now is very much preferred over the cold winter months and the long, tedious battle period that extends from December to November.

Don't be surprised if there is a big demand to return to the old election dates. They consumed only about 120 days, compared with this year's long, drawn-out pace-killing, man-killing, more-than-300-day battle.

Governor-Elect John Connally has been quoted as saying he would favor moving the primary elections to August or September, as they are in most two-party states.

Under the present system the various party organizations close shop during the summer. Then it becomes necessary to re-organize and re-vitalize each set-up for the General Election campaign. Heretofore the momentum generated carried them through to the November election. They got it all done in one big swoop.

Another reason for reverting to the old dates is that the cost of maintaining a long campaign naturally is much greater than the expense involved in a short one.

ISLAND UNDER FIRE — Officials of state and federal government had a heated discussion about land values on Matagorda Island in a preliminary round in the General Land Office.

Main bout will take place during the November 19 session of the U. S. District Court at Victoria, where the federal government has filed a suit to condemn a lease on some 16,000 acres of land on the island. State of Texas will contest the suit.

U. S. has leased land on Matagorda Island since 1942 for Air Force bombing practice. But when Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler was notified on May 31 that a new 5-year lease was in the offing, he raised objections.

Uncle Sam leases state-owned land there for less than six cents an acre annually. Some of it is subleased for grazing at 25 cents per acre.

In last week's Austin meeting between representatives of the U. S. Department of Justice, the State Attorney General and the Land Office, it was learned that federal appraisal of the disputed property was made from an airplane.

Government appraiser placed a 44-cent-per-acre value on beach and grass land owned outright by the U. S.; set a six-cent value on some state land; and a zero value on other state-owned property — to reach a 25-cent rental rate.

State land was described as "marshy and boggy," but Rep. Grainger McIlhenny, chairman of a legislative committee on state-owned lands, said he'd like to own "some of that worthless land," which is thought to be rich in mineral value.

Land Office questioned the government's need for all the land it seeks to lease.

An assistant to the U. S. Attorney General replied that U. S. Air Force and Navy bombing and strafing operations were subject to error — both human and mechanical — and simultaneous use by the public and armed forces would be "impractical."

EMERGENCY RESOURCES — Gov. Price Daniel appointed Major General James E. Taylor chairman of a 35-member Texas Emergency Resources Planning Committee.

In answer to a presidential request, the committee will plan for conservation and use of essential resources and services at state and local levels in case of nuclear attack, and a temporary breakdown of control of service operations.

James H. Garner, state coordinator of Civil Defense and Disaster Relief, will serve as State Emergency Planning Director. Other members of the committee include representatives of government, industry, commerce, consumers' services, labor and agriculture.

EMPLOYMENT UP — Unemployment in the state dropped in September to its lowest level since October, 1959. September showed 155,400 unemployed, compared to 170,100 in August. Employment increased from 3,471,300 hired workers to 3,472,800. Texas Employment Commission predicted an over-all gain in employment between September and November, with a heavy concentration in nonfactory industries.

FISH CREEK DAM — The Texas Water Commission authorized a permit to the City of Gainesville to build a $1,724,143 dam system on Fish Creek, a tributary of the Red River.

Plains for the dam, which was backed by local citizenry 2 1/2 to 1 in a local bond election, will include a reservoir with storage capacity of 23,210 acre feet; supply pipeline to town; and a filter plant.

Surface water will be used with water from Trinity wells until the well supply dwindles. Then the reservoir is expected to supply all water for a population expected to reach 24,000 in 1995.

TALKING BOOKS — Only about 10 per cent of the estimated 25,000 blind people in Texas are taking advantage of a free service just for them, said Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey, director of the Texas State Library.

Winfrey said that this 10 per cent "read" about 56,467 talking books last year. But he estimated that the books which are re-were told about them.

The state library circulates both talking books and Braille, free of charge, including postage, to any eligible blind person. Inquiries about eligibility should be sent to the State Commission for the Blind, 201 East 14th Street, Austin.

OPTOMETRY RULE CHALLENGED — An attorney for Texas State Optical accused the State Board of Optometry Examiners with passing a rule unrelated to optometry when the board met with the House Committee on State Licensing and Examining Boards.

House committee is in the process of checking the efficiency of operations of each of Texas' 24 state licensing agencies. Rule challenged by attorney Quentin Keith would prevent optometrists from practicing under a trade name, and force an optometrist to be in his office 50 per cent of the time he's open for business.

Disputed rule — approved in December, 1959 — has never gone into effect because of a restraining order Lee Optical filed three days after its passage. Injunction is still effective, since the suit has not come to trial.

STINSON HIRED — Texas Tourist Council hired an executive vice-president, Bill Stinson, a member of governor-elect John Connally's campaign staff.

Stinson, former public relations director for the Gunter Hotel in San Antonio, will open an office in Austin soon.

FARM INCOME DOWN — Between 1929 and 1961, farmers' and farm laborers' incomes showed a percentage decrease of 12.8 per cent, according to the Bureau of Business Research.

Percentages are up in mining, contract construction, manufacturing and retail trade, but down in transportation, property income and proprietors' income.

BIG THICKET ACTIVITY — Governor Daniel picked 31 state officials, historians and East Texans to study the feasibility of a state park in the Big Thicket area.

Recorded on phonograph records would be read by 10,000 if they

A report is due by the time the Legislature meets in January.

TAXES AND DEFICIT BOTH RISE — The state deficit has increased despite higher tax collections.

Robert S. Calvert, State Comptroller, reports the general fund deficit stood at $56,284,799 as of October 31. This compares to $51,002,099 a month earlier.

Revenue for two months of the fiscal year, started September 1, totals $206,970,520, up from $172,948,556 of the previous year.

Spending for the two months was $278,985,927, more than $62,000,000 ahead of last year.

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY — Gov. Price Daniel wants regulatory control over radioisotope used in Texas vested in the State Health Department.

On behalf of the State he has asked the Atomic Energy Commission to transfer control to the Health Department "as soon as possible."

Included in the Governor's request is the licensing and regulation of by-products, source and special nuclear materials.

HOPES TO EXPAND — Some 50 top general aviation leaders have asked the Texas Aeronautics Commission to expand its program of improving small airports and giving safety instructions.

Commission Chairman Paul M. Fuiks of Wolfe City pointed out that the commission's problem lies in the more than $20,000 accruing monthly from unclaimed aviation fuel tax refunds.

Shelby M. Kritzer of Amarillo, vice chairman of the commission, said authority is needed from the legislature to spend the money.

An estimated $100,000 annually is needed to assist dozens of small airports in the state.

TOURIST TRAFFIC RISING — Reports to the Texas Highway Department indicate tourist traffic into the state is on the rise. Travel promotion is credited with ending the five-year decline.

Governor Daniel says his mail gives two good reasons why folks like to tour Texas: a fine highway system and the friendliness of Texans.

George Towne, in the Georgetown, Kentucky, News said "Only in America . . . the America of a bygone era, we are sorry to say, could a man shape his own destiny . . . Today, however, while he is still relatively free to choose his own line of endeavor, any similarity between that and shaping his own destiny, is purely coincidental. At the top of every business, regardless of size, is some bureaucratic office of the Federal Government . . . manipulating, controlling and otherwise effectively curtailing the efforts of free enterprise in a free society."

generally known as the Easterly Survey; and,

"WHEREAS the Commissioner's Court of Donley County has never understood that such extension of RM 2695 would be located on such an Easterly route but that the same would be located in a Westerly direction to begin and/or end in the immediate area of Hedley, Texas; and,

"WHEREAS the Commissioner's Court of Donley County deems it would be more advantageous for the extensions of RM 2695 to be located on the Westerly Survey as already surveyed and recommended by the several respective Highway engineers so that such RM 2695 begins and/or terminates at the immediate area of Hedley, Texas; and,

"WHEREAS Donley County, Texas, will be able to furnish a right-of-way with a minimum width of 120' and right-of-way for such drainage facilities as may be required, such title to be in the name of the State of Texas, with the County moving all obstructions and encroachments except standing timber and further doing the fencing, as may be required for a location of RM 2695 on the Westerly Survey as presently surveyed and recommended by the several respective Highway engineers as aforesaid, which Westerly survey generally follows the present County roads which have existed and been traveled by the public for many years; and,

"WHEREAS the Commissioner's Court of Donley County does not feel that it can or should furnish the required right-of-way on the Easterly survey as aforesaid.

"NOW THEREFORE be it resolved that the Commissioner's Court of Donley County, Texas, respectfully declines to furnish the required right-of-way on the Easterly Survey on Highway No. RM 2695, from State Highway 203, 6 miles Northeast of Hedley, North approximately 2.5 miles and thence in a Northwesterly direction to the end of RM 2695, a total distance of approximately 8 miles; and be it further resolved that the Commissioner's Court of Donley County, Texas, respectfully requests the Texas Highway Department to enter its order making a location for RM 2695 according to the Westerly survey as surveyed and recommended by the several respective Texas Highway Department engineers to begin and/or terminate in the immediate area of Hedley, Texas."

Such motion was seconded by County Commissioner H. C. Reynolds. H. C. Reynolds, Com. Precinct No 1, H. L. Riley, Prec. No. 2 and F. M. Murray, Prec. 3 voted in favor of the motion. Jess Finley, Prec. 4 voted against the motion.

Brucellosis Testing Will Start In December

Work on the testing of Donley County for brucellosis will probably start a little earlier than expected says County Agent Flip Breedlove. Dr. T. H. Leenerts, district veterinarian for the brucellosis program stationed at Amarillo, talked with Breedlove last night and stated that work will probably start around the middle of December in Donley County. Ranchers and livestock owners of Donley County petitioned the Animal Health Commission of Texas for the testing this past August.

It is planned to have a county-wide meeting of all livestock owners just prior to starting of the testing and have Dr. Leenerts present so that he can tell the livestock owners how the program will be handled in the testing. Blood samples will be tested in a mobile laboratory set up by the commission in Clarendon. Everyone will be notified through the local papers and on radio when the meeting will be held before the testing and all interested can attend. This will probably help to speed up the testing program.

Dr. Leenerts stated that he hoped to complete all work in Donley County in about one month. There will be about four crews working in the county on this program for the Animal Health Commission.

Other regular students who complete the list include John Kennedy, sophomore, a graduate of Quail Schools, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kennedy, Rt. 1, Hedley, Texas; Jon Leggett, sophomore, a graduate of Hedley High School, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. From the freshman class two more members are added to the list, Emme Grigsby, freshman, a graduate of McLean High School, and the daughter of Arlie L. Grigsby, Rt. 1, McLean; and last of the regular students on the Honor Roll was Jerry Whitfield, valedictorian of the 1962 class of Dodson High School, and the daughter of Merle W. Whitfield. Students being selected for the Dean's Honor Roll have achieved a 2.6 quality grade point average, which is equal to an A average in 12 or more college hours of work. This honor is bestowed upon these 11 individuals because of their fine scholastic performance.

Memphis Cyclones Hand Bronchos 20-6 Defeat Friday

The Memphis Cyclones, after being held scoreless for three and a half quarters, broke loose in the last half of the final period for three touchdowns and a 20 to 6 win over the Clarendon Bronchos at Memphis last Friday night. It was the last game of the season for both teams.

After a see-saw first quarter, the Bronchos scored their touchdown and took a 6-0 lead near the end of the first half. They recovered a Cyclone fumble on their own 23 yard line and drove for the score. On the first play after recovering the fumble, Dwight McAnear flipped a short pass to Gary Campbell and the little halfback raced to the Memphis 25 yard line before being knocked out of bounds. On the next play, Robin Green picked up another 17 yards to the Cyclone eight for a first and goal situation. On the third play from there Campbell bolted into the end zone from the two yard line for the score and the Bronchos had a hard-earned 6-0 lead at the half.

The early part of the second half looked like the Bronchos might win going away. McAnear hit Green with a pass that covered 44 yards for a touchdown but the play was called back because of an ineligible pass receiver down field. The Bronchos could never get moving after that.

The Cyclone's first score came with just 7:58 left in the game when Quarterback Dwight Gailey passed to End Jacky Bridges for the score. Three minutes later Gailey passed to his other end, Jim Odom, for 22 yards and the second score and one the last play of the game, halfback Toby Crooks swept left end for three yards and the score. Jimmy Sturdivent made the final two-point conversion after the official game had ended.

The Cyclones, who held a tremendous weight advantage over the Bronchos, rolled up a decisive advantage in the statistics. They made 20 first downs to seven for the Bronchos and made 209 yards rushing to Clarendon's 103. They completed seven of 13 passing attempts for 101 yards while the Bronchos could complete only two of seven attempts for 59 yards.

The defeat knocked the Bronchos out of a first place tie for the district championship. McLean handed Lefors a 6 to 3 defeat and a win by the Bronchos over Memphis would have given Clarendon and Lefors identical 4-1 conference records. The Pirates, however, would have still represented the district in the state play-offs since they defeated the Bronchos when they played each other.

The Bronchos wound up with a 4-6 season record and a 3-2 conference record. They took victories over Claude, McLean, Canadian and Wellington and were defeated by Gruver, Panhandle, Shamrock, Groom, Lefors and Memphis.

As long as people can and do read books about Will Rogers, he will live in their hearts.

This is as it should be as he was one of our truly great men. His philosophy was one that, if practiced and preached by each of us, would make this old world a much better place in which to live.

People still say that what we need is another Will Rogers be it a real crisis or at a time when we just plain need someone we can trust to tell us what is going on in language we can understand. As John Mason said of the newest book, "Will Rogers" by Donald Day: "One of the most welcome and enjoyable of return engagements. For here is Will Rogers back again. And what a man he remains — un-awed by anyone, afraid of nothing, and unflinching in his wisdom and hilarity! What a full-length portrait, too, of the follies of a vanished age his wonderfully shrewd and sane day-to-day comments on them make! His humor was wisdom with a smile. Laughter was the lasso with which he roped absurdity. His common sense was so uncommon that people thought it must be funny until they discovered its nearness to truth. One of the troubles of the dark present is that it lacks the brightness of a Will Rogers. But there was only one of him."

Damon Runyan commented: "Will Rogers was America's most complete human document." From another source: "... he branched out until at the time of his death he was the best known, best loved, most widely listened to man in the country."

How many people do you know who will not only listen, read and then do a little serious thinking about it if it happens to be against their pet political party, prejudice, etc.? Will Rogers did it and had this been the only thing he did should have assured him his place in the Hall of Fame because folks who can make us think are rare indeed.

A memorial gift has been given to the library to be dedicated to the memory of Mr. Hub Crawford.

THE FARM DECLINE

Some revealing facts were made public recently by the Department of Agriculture. They were the statistics that have been developed with relation to the change that is taking place in rural America.

The farm population, as such, has been declining for a number of years. Some have said that this is a natural transition and nothing to be alarmed about. Perhaps their analysis is correct, but I have always felt that one of the basic strongholds of America and our philosophy of life has been the family-size farm. Not alone because it constitutes the hallmark of independence and free enterprise and produces the food and fiber necessary to sustain its occupants, but more so because of the character, integrity, and understanding that it instills in the boys and girls there brought up. Big cities are fine, but to me the real strength of our nation has always been in the small towns and rural communities where people know each other and one another's problems. It is in these areas that one knows and better understands the workings of nature and the responsibilities that each human being must assume in being as self-sufficient as possible and in lending assistance to others in temporary need.

It seems to me that history records congested areas as fertile fields for socialism, communism, and other ideologies contrary to individualism. Perhaps I am in error, but I think not. If I am correct, and I think history will bear me out, our responsibility would seem to be to curtail the off-farm migration, and to take such measures as necessary to keep the population spread out; to avoid congestion of human beings and the resulting demands for socialistic practices and measures.

The report to which I refer reflects that there are only five states presently relying on farming for 15 percent or more of their employment. In 1860, there were 31 million people in the United States. Today, there are 188 million. Yet, the farm labor force is no larger now than it was 100 years ago in 1860. Fifty percent of the nation's remaining farms are too small to provide an adequate living for the people living on them. Since 1944 the farm population has decreased from 18 percent of the total population to 11 percent. While the total population increased during that period by some 50 million persons, the farm population decreased by some 5 million.

It might be noted that there is a difference between farm America and rural America. There are many people presently living in rural areas who are not farming. In fact, there is a total of 5.5 million skilled and semi-skilled blue collar workers living in rural areas, compared with 3.5 million farmers and farm workers. In this connection, it might be pointed out that many of the non-farm rural inhabitants live in close proximity to metropolitan areas in which they find employment. The statistics show a total of 999 counties in this country having no town with more than 2,500 people, and 1,196 counties having no town larger than 10,000. Hence, being a rural American does not by any means refer to a farmer or farm worker. A great number of those counted in the rural population and actually residing in close proximity to the metropolitan areas contribute to the congestion that continues to breed demands for government welfare programs that could prove much more costly than farm programs.

A publication of the Jersey Central and New Jersey Power and Light Company observes that: when a driver says he can stop on a dime, he means the last dime at the end of a long row of dimes. At only 20 mph—including time for reacting and braking—it takes 47 feet to stop. At 50 mph it takes 243 feet, and at 70, 532 feet.

ARRIVED HOME FRIDAY

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (FHTNC) — Marine Private Claude E. DeBord, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. DeBord of Route 1, Clarendon, Tex., completed four weeks of individual combat training, Nov. 16, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and arrived home on leave last Friday for a visit with his parents.

The training provides newly enlisted marines with a background of experience in the field under combat conditions. Live-firing exercises are conducted, in addition to field trips and classroom lectures.

Under carefully selected instructors, the young marines learn to take their places in small fighting units, such as the four-man fire team and the 14-man squad.

New Legislation Effects Senior Citizens Housing

Mr. L. J. Cappleman, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, advised the local County Supervisor, Mr. James Gouddy, that recent legislation amends Title V of the Housing Act of 1949 by adding new provisions which authorize loans and grants for moderate cost housing and related facilities for elderly persons and families in rural areas. It liberalized some regulations on rural housing loans now being made by Farmers Home Administration and sets up new direct and insured loan programs.

This new legislation will be administered in Donley County by USDA's Farmers Home Administration. Rural housing loans are made by this agency to farmers and other families living in rural areas who need improved housing and cannot qualify for credit from other sources.

One new provision will give those people, who are 62 years of age or over, special advantages not available under the earlier loan program. First, they can buy previously-occupied existing housing as well as improve their homes. Second, they can finance the cost of the building site as well as the dwelling with the loan proceeds; other families must own the land on which to build the homes before they can apply for a loan. Third, cosigners may be used by elderly applicants who are deficient in repayment ability. Like rural housing loans now being made by Farmers Home Administration, these direct loans will bear interest at the rate of 4 percent and may be repaid over a period not exceeding 33 years.

For detailed information concerning rural housing loans for the senior citizen, you may contact Mr. James Gouddy, local County Supervisor, Farmers Administration.

OUR PILGRIM FATHERS GAVE THANKS FOR SO LITTLE.. WE HAVE SO MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR

Let us pause on this day, as our Pilgrim forefathers did so long ago... to give prayerful thanks, not only for the food on our table, but more importantly, for those freedoms we hold so dear... freedoms our forefathers sought and won in the new land, America. Our country has come a long, hard way since the day of that first meager harvest in 1621... to truly become the "Land of Plenty" and the "Home of the Free." Let us pray it will always be!

The Montana Oil Journal tells a tax story: "Do you know that no baseball player in the nation can ever hope to net as much money as was paid Babe Ruth, 30 years ago?"

—and he had $68,535 left over after taxes . . . To have the same amount of money left today, after taxes, a player would have to be paid $960,000! ! !"

"In 1931 Ruth was paid $80,000 Leader—Local rate, $3.06 a year

Take a little time to ponder The decisions you must make. Small worth to be going yonder, And know not which road to take.

Almost every day we see folks buzzing here and there and not doing anything. It is so easy to be in a hurry and not be going anywhere. In our day it almost seems a universal habit for folks to always be in a rush. If it is only for the morning coffee break it often seems urgent to be in a fizz.

We know one person who smokes around three big black cigars during the four hour peak of his workday rush. Others light a cigarette with each change of pace. Some of us who used to do the latter have to chew a toothpick now and then. But, much of this hurry and scurry is a habit, and we can do something about it. We can slow down if we will remember to work at it.

When we allow our nerves to be on edge and push and shove our body beyond its capacity we are a lot more apt to lose our temper and sort of blow our stack. There was an old saying to the effect that one should count to ten before answering when we were angry. The other day we read that Julius Caesar, upon any provocation, would repeat the Roman alphabet before he would suffer himself to speak, that he might be just as calm in his resentments, and that he might forget nothing but wrongs, and remember nothing but benefits.

Another has said that; "Speaking without thinking is like shooting a gun without taking aim."

Speaking of smoking one cigarette after another we will never forget those days in our own life, and how hard it was to quit. But we know that it can be done. In prowling through our desk we ran across a bunch of the Ain't Smoking Right Now cards which we used to send to those who like ourselves were trying to quit. To be a member of a group trying to do the same thing seemed to lend comfort and support. If you would like one of these cards just send your name and address.

Talking about things left over we still have a good supply of the little Plowin' Out The Corners book. Over the years many asked us to print this little book containing the best selections from our column through the years. This we tried to do. The demand has been good, but we want every reader to have a copy for themselves and some for gifts. For this reason between now and Christmas we will send three copies for $2.25 plus tax. If desired we will autograph each copy. If you would like a copy for your very own and two to mail out to friends don't wait until the supply is exhausted. It will be doubtful if we will make another printing . . .

We heard of the doctor who was so careful not to offend his patients that instead of telling them they were overweight would say that according to the height and weight chart they were too short.

There was the mother who scolded her little daughter for fighting with the boy next door. "Next time," she said, "I don't want you hitting Johnny back. Remember that you are a lady—out-talk him." After buying the new car the fellow didn't have to walk to the bank to make deposits. In fact he had nothing left to deposit.
