Boy Scout Troop No. 38 To Stage Intensive Light Bulb Sale July 28th

Saturday, July 28th, Clarendon Boy Scouts Troop No. 38 sponsored by the Clarendon Lions Club, will begin the most intensive light bulb sale that has ever been staged in this City. Tents will be erected on the southeast corner of the Court House square across from Junior's Food Store where two scouts will live 24 hours a day until the Troop has reached its $1,000.00 quota in sales.

This Troop has grown at such a terrific pace until they have outgrown what little equipment they have. They even owe for the tent that will be used for this light bulb sale.

The boys will be selling General Electric Extra Long Life bulbs for the same price you normally pay for the regular bulb. The bulbs will be packaged according to your specifications. In other words, you don't have to buy an assorted package to get the size you use. They will also canvass the service stations, garages and business houses who have a need for commercial bulbs such as spots, floods and flourescents.

Save your bulb order for the boys, and if they fail to call by your home, stop at their headquarters on the corner of the Court House Square, and your order will be filled promptly. Lend your hand to the boys, and they will be grateful, and you will feel better for having helped them along the trail of good citizenship.

McMURTRY FAMILY REUNION HELD JULY 21st

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McMurtry gathered at the Triangle Ranch of John McMurtry east of Muleshoe for their annual reunion on July 21st. Six of the sons and two of the daughters along with their children and grandchildren attended. One of the daughters was physically unable to attend. Numerous old timers and friends of the family were there to partake of the barbecued buffalo.

Attending from Clarendon were Mr. and Mrs. Glen White, Mr. and Mrs. Jo H. McMurtry, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McMurtry and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Palmer and family, Mrs. C. T. McMurtry and Mrs. Zella Noble.

Little League News

By JOHN PAYNE

While the pennant race has been settled, a hot battle for the batting title still continues.

Last Friday's White Sox victory over the Cubs gave the Yanks the Championship of the Clarendon Little League. The White Sox, who had been blasted four straight times, ripped the Cubs and ace Mike Sloan 7-3. A 6-run 3rd inning proved costly for the once challenging Cubs who have lost 5 of their last 6 games. Mac McClellan pitched steady ball and was backed by solid hitting and steady fielding.

In another thriller last week, the Gold Sox edged the White Sox with a 2-run 6th inning rally. Steve Adams, on a bit of daring base running, came across with the winning run. This also gave Steve the win and Mike McCully was the loser. In this game McClellan made two of the greatest fielding plays this writer has ever seen on any Little League diamond. I also believe that anyone who saw these 2 plays will agree.

Thus far the batting title has narrowed down to just a few boys. Here are the top seven boys and their averages.

	AB	H	Avg.
1. J. Moore, Cubs	31	15	.484
2. M. McClellan, W.S.	37	17	.459
3. M. Sloan, Cubs	34	14	.412
4. B. Reese, Yanks	40	12	.375
5. R. Fields, Yanks	35	13	.371
6. P. Perkins, G.S.	35	13	.371
7. J. Melton, W.S.	39	14	.359

The Yanks clinched the pennant last week. Here are the league standings:

	W	L
1. Yankees	11	3
2. Cubs	7	7
3. White Sox	5	8
4. Gold Sox	4	9

At the present time plans are being made to play the Amarillo Air Base Little Leaguers on a home and home basis. We'll let all you fans know about this as soon as possible.

RETURN FROM WESTERN TOUR

Two Cotton Insect Control Meetings Are Scheduled

Two cotton insect control meetings will be held on the 30th of July says County Agent Flip Breedlove of Donley County. The first meeting will be held at Hedley starting at 10:00 a.m. All cotton farmers will meet at the West Texas Gin and we will have our meeting and educational program looking over cotton around the gin area. The second meeting will be held at Clarendon and will start at 2:00 p.m. Everyone will meet at the county agent's office. After a short talk there on cotton insect control, the group will go to the Loyd Risley cotton field on the John Knorpp farm about one mile west of Clarendon on Highway 287. Mr. John Thomas, Extension Entomologist of the Texas A&M College Extension Service will be on hand to talk to the group on cotton insect control.

Breedlove says by going in the cotton fields, he thinks that farmers can actually be shown just where to look for cotton insects. The insects that will get the most attention at this time are boll weevil and boll worms. Breedlove also added that he has been in cotton fields all over the county checking for insects and in some areas they have sprayed and in others the infestations are slightly above normal.

Farmers are warned to keep a close watch on their cotton as a serious outbreak of cotton insects can happen almost over night. The recent rains have made conditions more favorable for cotton insects.

Everyone is urged to attend one of these two meetings if you are a cotton farmer. The meetings will start right on time so be early for all the program.

Thunderstorms & Hot Temperature Highlight Weather Picture In Area

Roaring thunderstorms the recent years with many acres of past several days have brought crop land flooded along its banks. needed moisture to some parts Heavy damage to land and crops of Donley County and at the same time brought heavy destruction to some areas.

The area 7 to 12 miles southeast of Clarendon has been hit the hardest all year with hail and heavy downpours that measured 4 and 5 inches. Tuesday afternoon another cloudburst hit the area between the W. W. Raney farm and the J. W. Sullivan place near the Hagy Ranch headquarters and dropped from 2½ to 4½ inches between 4 and 5 p.m. Much of this area is the watershed for Lake Creek which runs about a mile east of Lelia Lake. It was reported that Lake Creek was on its highest rise in

The thunderstorms have been loaded with an exceptional amount of lightning and numerous appliances, TV's, etc., have been damaged here in town as well as the rural area. J. B. McDaniel who farms southeast of Lelia Lake was one of the biggest losers Tuesday afternoon when lightning killed two horses valued in excess of $800. He said he looked out in the pasture and saw the two horses that were killed and a third horse running during the electrical storm; a few moments later he looked out again and could see only one horse. He said he knew then that the other two had apparently been hit.

McDaniel reported only 2½ inches of rain at his place and Willard Knox reported 1.10 in Lelia Lake. Here in town, our official weather observer measured a total of 1.14 inches Sunday and Monday and a total of 2.28 for the month so far.

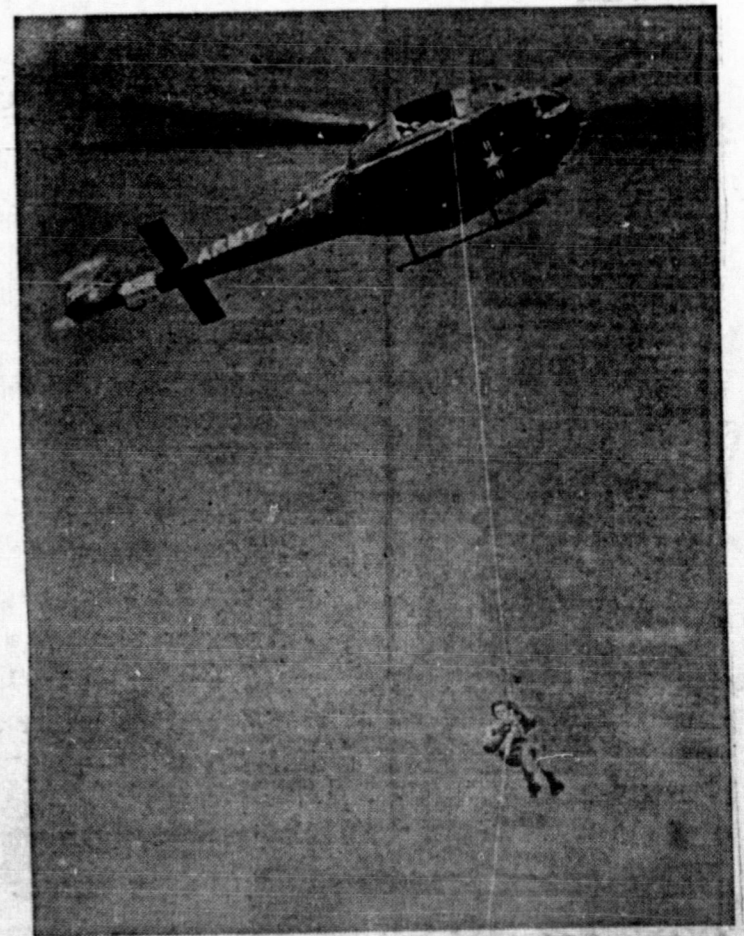

Mixed along with the wet weather, was one of the highest temperature recordings for the year. The mercury reached a hot 103 degrees Sunday afternoon which equaled the 103 degrees recorded on July 14th.

Panhandle weathermen are forecasting a continuance of the wet cycle for several more days. Ranchers appreciate the good moisture right now but farmers need lots of good sunshine to help the late crop situation.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — U. S. Supreme Court's decision that federal courts have power to review acts of state legislatures in reapportionment representation was met with an uproar from many states.

"Reapportionment" is the business of redistricting a state to determine the number of legislators according to an area's population. National and state constitutions both provide for re-examination of representation in legislative assemblies every 10 years.

An area frequently gains or loses representatives to the state house. This happened in Texas recently, when a 1961 redistricting act by the legislature took effect.

Working under a constitutional amendment adopted in 1936, limiting cities to one representative for every 700,000 inhabitants, Texas' representative districts got a pretty thorough going over.

The 31-member senate body was not greatly effected by the reapportionment, however, since the law states that the senate "shall never be increased and no single county shall be entitled to more than one senator."

What the U.S. Supreme Court would hold about such a condition, in view of a congressional provision for two U.S. senators from each state regardless of population, won't be known unless the question is put to its nine justices.

There is some reason to believe, however, that the higher court would look with disfavor on this State's constitutional provision limiting House representation to one member for every 100,000 inhabitants after a county attains a population of more than 700,000.

In the event citizens dissatisfied with the situation in Texas ever go to court for a reshuffling, they'll be armed with the information that 11 urban counties have a little more than half of Texas' 9,579,677 inhabitants and more than a third of the 150 members of the House of Representatives.

HOPE FOR TRAPPED FISH
—An "escape route" for thousands of fish which risk death daily in a shallow pool off Padre Island is planned by the State Game and Fish Commission, which estimates that tons of game fish have died in a nine-mile hole north of Port Mansfield over the last 10 years.

Howard Lee, the commission's director of field operations, said red fish and trout swim into the shallow pool in the course of their north-to-south migration, "and don't recognize the fact that there's only one way out."

As the temperature increases in late spring and summer, the water level drops. Fish then are caught in a dry water pool created by drifting sands and are trapped there until death releases them as food for birds and other scavengers in the area.

Dredging of a six-foot deep, 50-foot wide channel running 4,000 feet through Laguna Madre into the Intracoastal Canal is expected to put a stop to the waste of fish and make them available for "harvest" — a Game and Fish Commission euphemism for fishing.

Up to now, fishermen have been unable to get to them in the pool trap without trudging through long distances of mud and sand.

PERMIAN BASIN COLLEGE URGED — A "Citizens Relations Committee" of 20 West Texans flew into Austin to ask the Texas Commission on Higher Education to approve plans for converting Odessa Junior College to a state-supported, four year "Permian State College."

According to their spokesman, W. D. Fleck of Odessa, 30 percent of the Ector County's college enrollment of about 1,600 is composed of out-of-county students. Administrators estimated a 3,686 enrollment by 1970, if it's changed to a state-supported senior college.

C. A. Roberson, business manager of Odessa's $3,000,000 junior college, said the population in the Permian Basin increased from 159,000 to 288,000 between 1950 and 1960 and is expected to reach 500,000 by 1970.

Commission will study the matter further before making a recommendation to the next legislature.

Attempts to get the 57th Legislature to approve full state support and senior college status of San Angelo Junior College Laredo Junior College and Pan American College at Edinburg failed in the third special session.

T. E. C. TEAMS TO AID SMALL TOWNS — Two teams which form the working force of the Texas Employment Commission's newly-organized Expansion Employment Service for Small Communities recently moved into Brady where they'll survey job seekers and job opportunities for the next six weeks.

Service was set up with funds from the Federal Bureau of Employment Security to assist communities like Brady which have "substantial and persistent unemployment problems," yet are too far from one of the Employment Commission's 91 local offices to get help from a regular staff.

According to Ted Clifford of the commission, the teams will go into economically-distressed areas to try to determine what has caused a long-time employment slump, offer remedies and either find job opportunities elsewhere or assist local civic groups in launching industry recruitment programs.

Limestone and Falls county officials already have asked for the teams' services. Clifford reported that some 25 or 30 counties now are in the "substantial and persistent unemployment" category.

CROOKED-HOLE DRILLERS CUT OFF — Texas Railroad Commission has severed pipeline connections and set zero allowables for all wells on leases in the East Texas Field on which deviation or inclination surveys have shown a crooked-hole oil well.

Chairman William J. Murray of the Commission says that the order covers 62 leases.

Attorney General Will Wilson advises that when a deviated well is found on a lease, the whole lease is to be questioned until proven otherwise.

Before the wells involved can be restored to production, operators must have inclination surveys made on each one, and must have production tests to determine each well's actual ability to produce. Wilson said production tests were required because of the possibility that a single deviated well might be drawing the allowables for eight or 10 wells on a lease that are actually dead.

Officials also revealed that the deviation survey is being extended to a single well in the Webster Field in Harris County. Operators have been asked to give permission for the survey under a new policy which allows the operator to volunteer permission before a court order is sought.

SHORT SNORTS
Deficit in the State General Revenue Fund, which dipped to $89,000,000 in March, was $28,351,556 on July 9, according to State Treasurer Jesse James.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says the waiting list in the Texas Veterans' Land Program has been reduced to less than 16,000. He figured his office would pass No. 94,000 this week, so any veteran applicant can estimate when his number will come up, since 1,000 contract forms are sent out each week.

Gov. Price Daniel reappointed Joseph B. Hutchison of Arlington and Lloyd Gregory of Houston to the Battleship Texas Commission and named Mrs. Murray Ezzell of Port Neches and C. H. Coffield of Houston new members. Also he appointed Weldon Cabaniss of Rockport to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission.

Eleven Texas firms were among the 42 recently granted permission to issue $22,050,375 in stocks by the State Securities Board.

A report by State Auditor C. H. Cavness showed that the Texas Surplus Property Agency, which disburses federal surplus property to schools, colleges and other public agencies, had an income of $608,606 during fiscal 1961, while cost of operations was $692,798.

Very often there are certain times when things strike home to our hearts with greater force . . . This has been true with us over the years that we have attended church services in the Community House in Red River . . . The Beauty Of The Lord's Creation always seems to have presented a revelation to the preacher, and whoever he is always strikes a responsive chord in our heart . . .

This time, the pastor of the First Methodist Church in Hereford brought the message — we remember the name as Brother Thurston, and we were all inspired by his message. As he told us of the time when many of the Bible characters found God, such as the night that Jacob wrestled with the Lord, we were all made to want to find God anew and in some place that would be special to us . . . At the time the place seemed to be the mountains . . .

Songs like the Church In The Wildwood really tug at our heart strings when sung in these beautiful mountain surroundings . . . This time when Carl Miller of Amarillo sang as a special How Great Thou Art, our heart reached the over flow mark. It is impossible to explain, but if you are in Red River on Sunday morning be sure and attend the worship services.

Along the road back and forth we saw many of the little economy cars. Two fellows were talking about the price of one and in answer to this question one of them said he had paid about $3,000 for his job. "My goodness, that's just as high as the big cars" . . . To which the owner replied; "Well, this day and time if one wants economy they have to dig down and pay for it."

On our recent trip we had the time to visit several art galleries. And before we get our foot in too deep we want to say that to us, the real artists have our deepest admiration. I consider them to be dedicated to a real love, and certainly inspired with a special gift. If we were to doubt this for one moment we could prove ourselves just by taking up a brush . . .

But, on one occasion on this trip we bounced into one so-called art gallery that had nothing on display but the abstract variety. Honestly it seems hard to believe that they are serious about their work. It seemed such a shame that we didn't keep some of our first attempts at coloring. Who knows we might have won a prize. Instead the teacher almost spanked us for not taking the class seriously.

We have before us a news item which states that a certain famous artist in this field recently sold the board upon which she had been cleaning her brushes. In her words; "The colors were bright and pretty so I gave it close scrutiny, turning it first one way and then another until I saw a scene emerge." At the art show it brought a fancy price . . .

It all made us think of the time our little one decorated himself with chocolate cake icing. Who knows but if we had taken a picture of same we might have won a scoop.

Even at that our mind is open to argument. If you are really serious in your belief that so-called abstract art is really a product of inspired art, then drop us a line giving your reasons . . .

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

FARM & RANCH PLANNING

Today, perhaps more than ever before every farm and ranch operator realizes the importance of planning wisely in order to make each enterprise pay. We have already proven the fact that we can produce more on less acres than ever before. This was accomplished by proper planning. We indeed have made great strides in production, but at what expense, is the big question? Have we done this by taking all from the land and putting nothing back? "The man with a plan", is a recent motto of the successful farmer and rancher. This plan is very basic and simple and has been stressed throughout our nation by and through more than Soil Conservation Districts. These Districts were created for the sole purpose of helping farmers and ranchers apply money-making soil conservation practices on their land. It works something like this basic concept: "Using each acre within its capability". Many times through ignorance land owners mis-use their land by trying to make it produce something which it is not capable of producing. An example of this might be trying to raise cotton on a steep hill with shallow soil. Someone will say, that's rather stupid, yet we have many farmers who still farm land which never should have been broken out to cropland.

The Soil Conservation Service working through the local Donley County Soil Conservation District has technicians to help you plan each acre within its capability. Did you know the

GRASSROOTS OPINION

ANGOLA, N.Y., EVANS JOURNAL: "A whole cult has arisen in America which thinks it necessary to expend federal funds for all manner of purposes, from building our schools to cleaning up the trash in our back yards. They claim it is unnecessary even to attempt to balance the budget. No thought is given to the erosion of public confidence in the future of the dollar. No greater error can be made. The financial trickery which other nations employed to 'revalue' their currency led to tremendous privation among their citizens misery, depression, unemployment and event actual starvation."

Reddy Ideas

by REDDY KILOWATT

"The kitchen is a country in which there are always discoveries to be made," said a famous French chef. And, bride or matron, you've probably found that out!

Want to dress up that whipped cream pie? Run your potato peeler over a chocolate bar (almonds and all) and make fancy chocolate curls over the whipped cream topping.

Freezing? Line casserole dishes first with aluminum foil. Be sure there's enough to fold over the top. Once frozen, the wrapped food can be lifted out of casserole, freezing it for other dishes. Put foil-wrapped food back in casserole for reheating. (Just a nickel a day keeps a freezer-full of food!)

Steaks freeze very well. Freeze roast poultry stuffed because of the danger of bacteria. Freeze pastries or meat or chicken pies unbaked. Uncooked vegetables when added to steaks and casseroles so when reheated they won't have that warmed-over taste.

To press dark garments, put a black cloth over your ironing board. This prevents dark materials from picking up white lint, saves brushing later.

Just count the ways you use electric service every day. On the job around the clock, around the calendar—can you think of anything else that does so much yet costs so little?

Here's another use for the spray attachment on your vacuum cleaner: use it to apply liquid wax to linoleum or asphalt tile

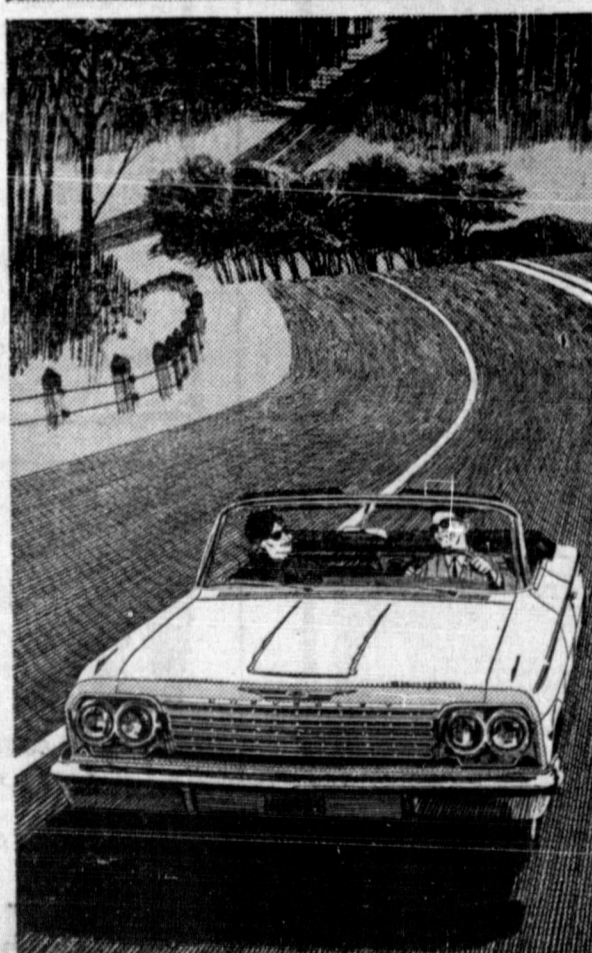

Your sewing machine needle won't stick when sewing plastic materials if you sew a strip of waxed paper into the seam. When finished, tear off paper; seam will be perfect.

Something to think about! It has been estimated that in the course of his lifetime an individual eats 64,000 meals, more or less. And somebody had to plan, buy and cook 'em!

In the average American home electricity does in one day what it would take 228 hours to do by hand. Nothing else does so much for so little! And you'll never run out of electricity, because your electric company plans and builds to keep the supply year's ahead of the need. Do you wonder why we say electric service is the biggest bargain in your family budget?

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT
By Congressman Walter Rogers

SECOND SESSION OF 87th CONGRESS
A term of Congress lasts for two years. This term is divided into two regular sessions. The first session is held during that year in which the Congress is convened after the general elections. The second session is actually a continuation of the first in most everything except name. All bills introduced after the beginning of the first session of the term of Congress remain on the calendar for the full two years unless otherwise disposed of by defeat, passage, or other action. At the end of the second session, all pending measures die. Unless these measures are re-introduced in the following session of the Congress, they are not before the Congress.

We are now in the second session of the 87th Congress, which was convened on January 10, 1962. From that time through June 30th, the Senate had been in session 99 days, the House of Representatives 94. The Senate spent 555 hours, 43 minutes in session; while the House spent 350 hours, 24 minutes. This wide differential in time is no doubt due to the fact that in the House debate is limited. In the Senate it is not. In the House, it is very seldom that a Member is allowed to talk for more than 10 or 15 minutes during any session while scheduled business of the House is being handled. The rules followed in the House are different from those followed in the Senate, hence the Members of the Senate are not limited in debate, and in fact have set some records in recent years. There are many, many times that I wish the House had unlimited debate, because things that should be said are blocked by the limitation rules. The pages in the Congressional Record reflect the difference in the time in session. The Senate had placed 7,058 pages in the Record as of June 30th, while the House had placed 4,456.

During this time, 109 public bills had been enacted into law, 70 of which were House bills while 39 were Senate bills. And, 161 private bills had been enacted into law, 105 of these being House bills and 56 being Senate bills. All of these bills had to be passed by both houses and signed by the President. This does not mean that these were the only bills that were passed by either house. The fact is that the House had passed 571 bills and the Senate had passed 421. The committees in the Senate had reported to the Senate 636 measures; 625 measures had been reported by the House committees to the House of Representatives.

Since January 10th and through June 30th, 1,069 measures were introduced in the Senate. During that same time, 3,444 measures were introduced in the House. These include bills, joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions, and simple resolutions. If you will compare this figure with the number of bills that have been enacted into law, you can see that very few of the bills introduced ever become law. Parliamentary procedure is one of the great safeguards under the democratic form of government. Once a bill is introduced, the gamut through which it must travel before it finally reaches the President's desk is quite formidable. When it is first introduced, it is sent to a committee by the Speaker of the House. Usually it is then assigned by the Chairman of that committee to a subcommittee. Public hearings are then scheduled by the subcommittee during which testimony is taken from both the proponents and opponents. When this is concluded, the bill is considered in executive session, during which time amendments may be offered and acted upon. When this proceeding has been completed, the bill is reported to the full committee for further action. It is then considered in executive session for further amendments, should any be desired.

If the bill is then approved by the full committee, it is reported to the House with proper recommendation. The matter is then submitted to the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee hears testimony from other Members of Congress with reference to the measure and the time that should be allowed for its consideration. Should the Rules Committee approve of debate on the measure, it adopts a resolution fixing the time of debate for the House.

This resolution is then reported to the House and called up for consideration. If it is adopted, the House is resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for further consideration of the bill. The debate is then held. When this is concluded, the bill is read for amendment, at which time any Member may offer an amendment and be heard on the same for five minutes. Sometimes the discussion of the bill under the "five-minute rule" may last all day, depending upon the number of amendments that are offered.

When this proceeding is finished, the bill is reported back to the House of Representatives, at which time it is voted upon by voice vote, by division vote, by teller vote, or by a roll call vote or by all four. If it passes, it then goes to the Senate where it is considered by that body under their rules of order, which are not exactly like those of the House, but just as intricate.

The best way to keep from getting stiff in the joints is to stay out of them.

To Doctor A Dog
Dogs hate pills. For this reason it is often a real job to doctor a dog.

It's easy, though, if you let the dog have a taste of peanut butter, first. Then roll the pill inside a lump of this delicacy, open the dog's mouth and shove the lump of peanut butter inside.

Dog will eagerly gulp the lump — pill and all.

A good paint job on exterior woodwork not only improves the appearance of a building, but protects it from the weather, says Bill Smith, extension forester. Paint can greatly increase the service life of wood used above the ground, he adds.

STRAWS IN THE WIND

A highly centralized government creeps up on a people slowly. In the United States it invades the various states bit by bit. The people accept a gift from Washington and in so doing lose a little more local independence. Eventually states fall under federal authority in local affairs as federal aid extends from the cradle to the grave.

We have federal money loaning, federal housing, federal planning for our future, federal farm controls, federal taxes for travel, plans for federal medicine, federal electricity, etc., etc. Each one limits individual activities.

Just another straw in the wind of federal control of the individual is the proposed federal tax on boats and the elimination of the right to claim a 2-cents per gallon refund on non-highway gas. The Oregon State Marine Board claims the federal proposal usurps the prerogative of states to regulate and license boats.

In the majority of measures which extend federal authority over states, the people are not aware of what is happening to individual and states rights.

The boat license issue brings federal control right home to the individual so he can understand it. If it is right for boats in a state, why not a federal license for cars, marriage licenses, dog licenses, building permits or any other function now under state jurisdiction? It's something to think about.

Misses Nancy Shaw and Sandra Moffitt presided over the tea table. It was laid with white linen cloth, sided with an arrangement in blue and white flowers and blue candles. Other appointments were in crystal.

A large array of lovely gifts were on display.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Elsa Davis, Audrey Foster, Oscar Moore, C. L. Harris, W. H. Moffitt, Roy Jewel, C. L. Johnson, Otis Owen, A. T. Simmons, Ray Moreman and Miss Dolores Messer. —Rep.

ASHTOLA CLUB HAS ICE CREAM SUPPER

We had our annual ice cream supper Thursday night, the 19th. We began to gather by 7:30 and by 8 o'clock there had gathered 26 men, women and children to enjoy the ice cream and cake which we all contributed. It was a sultry night which made it all the more enjoyable. Afterward we visited together.

We are sorry more couldn't have been there, but we understood that some were really busy with their crops. Hope the farming will be finished when we have our chucker barbecue Aug. 16 so the whole community can attend. —Rep.

WINNER OF CHEST

The winner of the Cedar Chest that was given away by the Junior Class was Janie Ivey of Clarendon. The winner was selected last Wednesday at Lumps Drive-In. We wish to thank everyone for their help and cooperation. Junior Class of 62-63—Rep.

F. A. Fitzgerald, Police Chief of Littlefield and former Deputy Sheriff here, is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

POKE BONNET REVIVED—Secretaries at the U. S. Department of Interior have revitalized a 100-year old cotton fashion to commemorate the centennial of the passage of the Homestead Act. The original "poke" bonnet (left) was the style in 1862 for courageous women who wagoned west but didn't want the sun to freckle their faces. The New Frontier version—a perky bonnet of green plaid polished cotton—sports a modified brim to let the sun shine on its fan-conscious designer.

YOU WILL NEED A 1962 LICENSE THROUGH AUGUST

AUSTIN — It's nearing the time when fishermen and hunters will need to purchase their new 1963 licenses. August is the last month in which the 1962 licenses can be used. Many people still haven't used up their vacation time, but probably expect to do so before September 1. When they finally take off on this long anticipated period of rest and relaxation, much of their time will be spent attempting to fill their ice chests with fish. J. B. Phillips, law enforcement coordinator for the Game and Fish Commission, reminds these people that even though the 1962 license will be good just through August, they will have to have one.

Last month, 211 fishermen failed to buy the proper license and were arrested by game wardens. "Don't be one of those who will be apprehended by our officers in July or August," advises Phillips. "If you plan to fish during these two months, get that license now while you are thinking about it. The reason why most fishermen fail to have a license is simply because they wait until the last minute, and then forget it or decide to take a chance."

In June, a total of 289 persons were charged with violating the game and fish laws of this state. Of these, 68 cases were dismissed, 3 persons had their fines suspended and one was found not guilty. Fines and court costs amounted to $5,987.27.

FARM WORKER SHOULD REPORT CORRECT WAGES

Social security payments to a farm worker and his family can be assured only through the correct reporting of earnings, stated Hal Geldon, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

Farm operators who hire farm workers need to keep good records, Geldon said. The name and social security number of every employee hired should be recorded together with a record of his time and pay. A report must be filed at the end of each year and the social security tax paid for any employee who was paid at least $150 in the year or who had worked on 20 days or more on a time basis.

PERSHING: HIGH MOBILITY—Relative simplicity and compactness of the PERSHING system is illustrated in this photo. The four XM474E2 tracked vehicles, each equipped with bolt-on adaption kits, carry the entire PERSHING missile system, including the (left to right) power and electronic "brain," missile and its launcher, nuclear warhead carrier, and communications and control unit.—Army's first PERSHING missile battalion was activated at Ft. Sill, Okla. in late June. Designated the 2nd Missile Battalion (PERSHING) 44th Artillery, its authorized strength is 615 officers and enlisted personnel. Prime contractor of PERSHING missile is Martin Co., Orlando, Fla. division. FMC Corp. produces the XM474E2s.

Each farm operator is also required to report to Internal Revenue Service the name, address, and employer's identification number of each crew leader or farm labor contractor who furnished him with agricultural workers. The report should be submitted on the reverse of Form 943 (Annual Report of Agricultural Workers).

This is necessary to protect the farm operator if the crew leader does not report his employees for social security purposes and the employees claim they worked directly for the farmer, Geldon said.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson visited the week end in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Ledbetter and Gary in Amarillo.

TEMPE, ARIZ., DAILY NEWS: "If every taxpayer had to pay an equal share of the total national debt, it would come to $4,949, apiece, $107 more than at this time last year."

LEARNING BY DOING

An old axiom says that the best way to learn is to do. And learning by doing is the cornerstone of the Junior Achievement Program.

Junior achievement is a nation-wide program designed to acquaint high school students with business operations and practices. The boys and girls involved gain knowledge of the free enterprise system by organizing and operating their own small-scale businesses. Each Junior Achievement company is guided by a team of advisers representing a sponsoring business firm. But their role is strictly one of guidance. The teen-agers make all their own decisions.

To take a specific example, one Junior Achievement group formed a firm to produce and sell a desk pen in a special holder, on a capital of $150. The product, it is reported, "was selling like hot cakes."

From all one can gather, knowledge of how the American system works and what it does for the masses of people is woefully short among our school population. Junior Achievement offers one way to make up this serious deficiency.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

THE BOSS

The next few years will see sweeping changes in the merchandising of fresh meats.

The housewife in the future can expect to find fresh meats in different cuts and different sizes than she has been used to in the past. This will include more boning, more uniformity, more tenderizing, new packaging and greater shelf-life. The changes will be comparable to those which have been made in recent years in processed meats such as sausages and pre-packaged luncheon meats.

Mr. Homer R. Davison, of the American Meat Institute makes an unusual point. As he sees it, "There is broad evidence that the housewife feels insecure at the fresh meat counter. It is a product of which individuals are critical because of their great interest. It is my sincere belief that a study to learn how best to undertake an improvement at the point of sale to stimulate consumer confidence is needed." So he suggests that a task force of knowledgeable people be named to accomplish this task.

This heavy emphasis on consumer wants, needs and attitudes is significant. For, in our highly competitive economy, the consumer is boss — at the meat counter and all the other places where goods are sold.

A NECESSARY EVIL

A new and infinitely dangerous concept of taxation has been gaining currency, and it has its enthusiasts in high places.

It holds that taxation should be used as a social instrument, to bring about some desired result other than the raising of government revenue — and that, also, a tax is and should be an effective weapon for regulating the economy.

The Wall Street Journal has printed a letter from a reader, in which this attitude is vigorously assailed, and in which an admirable statement of principle is made: "Taxes . . . are not properly a control measure. They are not a price to pay for civilization or a privilege of freedom or any of these high-sounding terms. They are necessary to raise revenues with which to run the Government — that is all they are. They are a necessary evil but nonetheless evil."

To use the taxing power to direct and to control our energies and our rights is to lay the foundation of dictatorship.

"Fortune is for all; judgment is theirs who have won it for themselves." —Aeschylus.

ELECTRONIC PROCESSING of information supplied by architect-engineer survey teams on potential fallout shelters assures that this data will be compiled and supplied more quickly to civil defense officials. Using Federally furnished shelter supplies, CD authorities will mark and stock shelter areas located and reported in the survey. Technicians are shown transferring microfilmed survey data to magnetic tape in the U.S. Census Bureau headquarters at Suitland, Md., so the information can be run through computers. COMPACTED SOIL RESTRICTS PLANT ROOT GROWTH

College Station — Layers of compacted soil just below tillage depth restrict or halt plant root growth by interfering with root penetration, not by restricting air or moisture supply from the roots, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Scientists had thought that poor aeration or reduced water transmission rate in compacted soil might be the cause of restricted growth when roots reached these layers. However, the air and water supplies in compacted layers were adequate in experiments conducted by soil scientists of the Agricultural Research Service at Big Spring on Amarillo fine sandy loam soil.

Compacted soil layers are caused by passage of machinery across cultivated fields or by repeated tillage at the same depth. These layers, which occur on the southern Great Plains and elsewhere, are variously called plow-pan, hardpan, tillage pan, pressure pan or claypan.

The test plots were artificially compacted in the spring with a farm tractor or road roller. Some plots were chiseled or sweep-tilled, leaving a compacted layer below tillage depth; other plots were not tilled after compaction. The plots were planted to guar, sesbania, Mung beans, cowpeas or sorghum, all with similar root growth patterns.

The scientists found root growth was hindered only when layers of the soil had so much resistance to penetration (strength) that roots could not force a passage through two to eight inch compacted layers. In compacted untilled plots where soil strength measurements were 400 pounds per square inch or higher, root growth was severely restricted. In compacted tilled plots, with strength measurements between 250 and 400 pounds per square inch, roots failed to penetrate the compacted layer if the soil was dry but developed normally when the soil was wet.

Soil strength measurements were made when the soil was holding the highest amount of moisture it could contain under conditions of free drainage.

Bottom Bouncing For Bass

When bottom bouncing for bass you will catch more fish if you handle your lure in such a way that it rolls up the bottom sand and mud.

Such action attracts more fish than does a straight retrieve and bounce.

To accomplish this, drag the lure a short distance along the bottom, after each bounce.

MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

At least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum in August must approve quotas for the 1963 crop if they are to be in effect.

Growers who have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in 1963 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

If marketing quotas are approved by the voters, producers who stay within their acreage allotments may market all the wheat they produce without penalty. Growers who exceed their acreage allotments will not be eligible for price support and will be subject to marketing quota penalties if they have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest. Growers will be able to plant up to 15 acres of wheat without penalty.

The penalty rate on excess wheat will be 45 per cent of the parity price of wheat as of May 1st of the year of harvest.

If marketing quotas are disapproved, there will be no restrictions on wheat marketings. Acreage allotments will remain in effect as a condition of eligibility for price support at the 50 per cent of parity rate required by law if quotas are disapproved.

Marketing quotas have been approved by farmers for the last seven wheat crops. In last year's referendum on quotas for the 1962 wheat crop, 79.4 per cent of the farmers voting favored quotas.

Wheat producers will be informed of the acreage allotments for their farms in advance of the August wheat quota referendum.

Referendum ballots may be cast at local polling places in Donley County. Location of polling places will be announced in August.

1962 GRAIN SORGHUM PRICE SUPPORT

The price support for Donley County for Grain Sorghum grading number 2 has been set at $1.90 per cwt. A storage rate for warehouse loans will be deducted from this rate which will be approximately sixteen or seventeen cents, depending on the time the commodity goes into storage.

Implement Company To Hold Community Auction Aug. 6-11

Darnell & Sons Implement Co., Case dealer announced today that they will hold a "Bidder's Bonanza" community auction August 6 through August 11. As the name "Bidder's Bonanza" implies, those attending will have the opportunity to submit sealed bids on both new and used items of all kinds.

All farm and utility tractors and equipment will be on display, and ready for inspection throughout the 6-day program. Bids may be submitted at any time from August 6 to noon on August 11. Then on Saturday afternoon, August 11, the sealed bids will be opened and the successful bids announced.

Pete Darnell plans to make this a gala climax to his "Bidder's Bonanza" with refreshments and door prizes.

One of the novel features of Darnell & Sons "Bidder's Bonanza" is the fact that those attending may bring their own items of all kinds and put them up for bids as well. Because of space requirements, this is limited to one item per family. Darnell & Sons request that any one interested in submitting an item for bid first check with them so that suitable display space can be made available.

DPS Has Openings For Young Men

An invitation has been issued state-wide by the Texas Department of Public Safety to any and all high calibre young men in the State who wish to compete for one of the 150 positions now available in State Law Enforcement. "The challenge of the rigid qualifications for patrolmen in the four field services: Highway Patrol, License and Weight, Driver's License, and Motor Vehicle Inspection; is expected to attract many outstanding young men," Major Harry Hutchison, Commander of Region No. 5 of the Department of Public Safety, said today.

Assignment to one of the above services will be made on the basis of aptitude, interest and ability at the conclusion of a period of basic training, then specialized training in the assigned service will be given in the field and in the classroom after which a home station will be designated. Applicants must be between 21 and 35 years old, between 68 and 76 inches tall, weigh not less than 2 pounds or more than 3 pounds per inch of height, and be in sound physical condition. They must have a high school education or the equivalent and their record must be able to stand rigid examination as pertains to character and citizenship. Selection procedures will include written and oral examinations.

"Any young man who wants to measure himself against these high standards is urged to pick up or write for the necessary forms from any D. P. S. Field Office throughout the state" Major Hutchison said. Formerly examinations were given only three times per year. They are now being administered monthly, the second Saturday of each month, at each of 17 centrally located examination centers throughout the State. "In addition to offering a challenge which separates the men from the boys," Major Hutchison said, "the Department of Public Safety offers a rewarding career to men who want to follow law enforcement as a profession. There is always an opening and room for advancement for this type of men in the Department," he concluded.

STARFISH SLAB BRINGS $10,000

Geologists, particularly those acquainted with the work of Mr. Burnice H. Beane of LeGrand, Iowa, will be interested to learn that his famous fossil starfish slab, and three crinoid slabs of fine quality from his collection, have been purchased by the Iowa State Department of History and Archives, and are now on display in the Historical Building of the department on East Grand Avenue in Des Moines, Iowa. The price paid was $10,000.

Beane has visited Donley County numerous times along with many others. He is a cousin of Will Pickering of this city.

Mrs. Eva Goode of Graham returned to her home Saturday night after spending 5 weeks here with her sister, Mrs. Ola Long.
