Locals Suggest Change In Wording Of Proposed Greenbelt Water Bill

Maurice Risley, president of the Donley County Farm Bureau, speaking for the Bureau and other interested persons in regard to the proposed Greenbelt Bill to be presented to the Texas Legislature, reported yesterday that a copy of the proposed bill, which has been rewritten, has been received here and was more in keeping with the attitude of interested parties locally, but that the local group was suggesting that the proposed bill be rewritten with more explicit and definite description. We hope and believe that the re-wording of paragraph (b) of Section 3 will be agreeable and satisfactory with the directors of the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority as we feel this will give them what they are asking for and still give those interested in underground water rights in Donley County ample protection, Mr. Risley stated. The suggested re-wording of sub-section (b) is as follows: "(b) To acquire and develop any other available surface water and to construct, acquire, and develop all facilities deemed necessary or useful with respect thereto. The Authority is authorized to acquire and develop underground water from the water rights and facilities presently owned by the member cities located in Donley, Childress, Hall, Hardeman, and Foard Counties, to the extent of the present yield which is 3500 acre feet per annum. The Authority is authorized to acquire and develop for emergency use and peaking, as determined by the Board of Directors of the Authority, an additional 1500 acre feet of underground water per annum from the water rights and facilities presently owned by member cities until December 31, 1971, at which time the maximum allowable withdrawal shall revert back to 3500 acre feet per annum." A copy of the proposed bill in its entirety, is available at the Leader office for anyone that might like to read it. Mr. Fred Albright of Paducah and Gordon Lane of San Angelo visited last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cap Lane.

The total enrollment at Clarendon College stands at 202. Of this number, 26 are duplicated in the day and night registration, leaving a head count of 176 students enrolled at the college. The figure for the spring semester a year ago was 131.

CHS Bronchos Win District 2-A Basketball Honors

Coach Charlie Sullivan's Clarendon High School Bronchos kept up a fast pace last Friday night in defeating Wellington 72-54 to win district 2-A honors and an undisputed privilege of tangleing with the District 1-A winner for bi-district honors next Monday or Tuesday night. In the boys game at Wellington Friday night, David Mooring hit 60 percent of his floor shots for a total of 29 points to help his team win the game 72-54. The girls lost their game 47-53 with Dorothy Richey high with 30 points. This win over Wellington gave the boys their third district title in the history of the school and the first since 1958. They have a season record of 17 wins and 7 losses and a conference record of 10 games won. They have a hitting record of 35% from the floor teamwise. This is quite a come-back from the Bronchos over last year as they won only one game during the season under Coach Jack James. This is Coach Sullivan's second year as basketball coach of the girls team and his first year with the boys. The Bronchos will play the winner of District 1-A either Monday or Tuesday night, the exact time will not be decided until the District 1-A winner is declared following their tournament this week end. Gruver won the first half of their round-robin play and should Gruver win the tournament, they will be the Bronchos opponent; should Panhandle win the tourney, then there would be a play-off between Gruver and Panhandle to decide the District 1-A winner. If the Bronchos win their bi-district game they will go to the regional at Lubbock next week end.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee
COTTON DOMESTIC ALLOTMENT PROGRAM
We are now signing up producers to participate in the Cotton Domestic Allotment Program. To be eligible for participation in the program, a farmer whose domestic cotton program will be required to plant within the feed grain base for the farm, except those farms with small domestic allotments of less than 15.0 acres.
CROSS COMPLIANCE
You are reminded that to earn a payment on wheat on one farm, you must not exceed the wheat allotment on any other farm. The feed grain base must not be exceeded on any other farm to earn a payment on feed grain on one farm. This is true even if you have CASH rented one farm. If the cash rented farm exceeds the base allotment, it would keep you from earning a wheat or feed grain payment on another, even though you have no proceeds from the crop on the cash rented farm. Each member of the partnership must be within the base allotment on the partnership farm for either to earn a payment on an individually operated or owned farm. Husbands and wives are considered the same person, and a minor is the same as the father as far as cross-compliance is concerned.

March 3—Last day to release cotton.
March 3—Last day to request additional cotton.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

This is a sign of active community development

Many towns in our service area are engaged in or planning community development programs. One outstanding example is the continuing development of Robert Lee. Here, aggressively energetic citizens have built a new Court House, a new school building, a new Post Office, and a modern bank building. They have developed a City Park with recreation building, swimming pool, sports fields and a nine-hole golf course; modernized the City Hall, paved city streets and voted a bond issue to enlarge the local hospital. And, they can now claim a population gain. Robert Lee's proud record is a Pattern for Progress of what can be done in Community Development which improves the chances of continued growth, making the community a better place in which to live, work and play. Growth conscious towns are invited to contact their local WTU manager for assistance from our area development representatives.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Gov. Connally's alternate teachers' pay proposal has drawn fire from the Texas State Teachers Association. And Connally has reciprocated!

Connally wants less of an immediate pay raise than the $45 a month the teachers ask. He wants to set up a 10-year program for steady and regular increases which in time would amount to greater rewards for more experienced teachers.

House Speaker Ben Barnes and Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is sponsor of the TSTA-backed "$45 in '65" program, both called for a cooling-off period. Compromise seemed unlikely due to strong feeling on both sides.

Sen. Jack Strong of Longview and Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, introduced the Governor's 10-year pay plan with substantial support. Among sponsors of the two bills are 17 House members who endorsed both measures.

Teachers complain the Connally program offers too little, too late. They charge it would put 70 per cent of raises on local school districts.

Connally produced figures showing cost of the 10-year program at $40,200,000 for the next biennium. He said the state would pick up $32,100,000 on the tab and local districts $8,000,000. His financing plan suggests that local school boards start paying a share of the cost of textbooks and teacher retirement, now paid wholly by the state.

Connally believes his program would maintain the 80-20 ratio between state and local districts.

Meanwhile, teachers launched a campaign for their $85,000,000 salary adjustment program (geared to an additional $68,000,000 state out-lay for the biennium).

Pressure is intense on legislators, both from the Governor's office and from the teachers back home. Mail is piling high on lawmakers desks.

Speaker Barnes said it will be three months before the Legislature can even consider a teacher's pay raise, since it has to pass the complicated appropriations bill first.

An all-out war now would injure all educational efforts under consideration, Barnes emphasized.

REDISTRICTING RESOLUTION PASSED—Both houses of the Legislature overwhelmingly adopted a resolution calling for a federal constitutional convention to permit one legislative chamber to be apportioned on factors other than population.

Thirty-four states must adopt the identical proposal before Congress has to consider calling a convention on a specific amendment. Three-fourths of the states must ratify any amendment thus submitted.

At least half a dozen proposals for congressional redistricting have been filed so far, plus bills for Senate redistricting and House redistricting.

Rep. Gus Mutchler of Brenham told his House Committee on Congressional and Legislative Districts he will canvass all representatives for their views on re-apportioning the State.

House members are trying to work out a cooperative House redistricting plan, taking into consideration those who do not plan to run next time and those who plan to run for other offices.

Other two-congressional and senate—redistricting jobs will not be settled so amiably. As one legislator put it, "It's going to be a mean session."

BILLS TO GOVERNOR—The Legislature acted fast on two emergency budget requests by Governor Connally.

One called for $702,785 in emergency appropriations to run some dollar-short agencies and programs. Included were $250,000 for carrying on the State's share of the screwworm eradication program for three months after April 1 and $290,000 for speeding up the Texas Water Commission's planning program.

Other bill set up procedures and a library plan by which cities can take advantage of a $2,500,000 library building appropriation voted by Congress for Texas.

Both requests were granted in a matter of days.

TAX BILL PUSHED—Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, Chairman of the House Revenue and Tax Committee, is pushing a bill to raise $15,300,000 under present tax laws.

Bill would repeal sales tax exemption on farm machinery and telephone and telegraph service; revise inheritance tax laws; repeal chain store tax ($7,200,000 loss) and theater admission tax ($1,200,000 loss); and grant a tax exemption for natural gas used in exploration and production in the same field where it is produced.

Serious consideration of tax bills must await passage of the general appropriations bill, Atwell said.

SALE OF STATE LEASES—Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reports $39,000,000 in high bids on 474 tracts were received by the State School Land Board. It was the biggest oil and gas lease sale in Texas history.

Highest single bid was Dow Chemical's $1,077,000 for a submerged Gulf tract in Matagorda County. Second high was from Will Odom of Austin—$1,066,000 for another Gulf submerged tract in Kenedy County.

GOVERNOR'S PROGRAM INTRODUCED—Most of the governor's program already has been introduced in some form in one or both houses.

Bills or constitutional amendments would:

- Set up an 18-man coordinating board over the state system of higher education;
- Repeal state property and poll tax;
- Establish a State Department of Mental Health;
- Tighten drivers license laws;
- Provide four-year terms for state officials;
- Combine the Migrant Labor Council with Texas Good Neighbor Council;
- Insure equal rights for women;
- Establish a $10,000,000 college building fund;
- Set up a college student loan fund;
- Create a Fine Arts Commission;
- Revise the Texas election code; and
- Free the Texas Water Commission for water rights administration and make Texas Water Development Board responsible for all water planning, financing and development activities.

BUILDING HIGHEST—Building shattered all records in 1964. Total permits issued in the state came to $1,600,000,000 or seven per cent more over 1963, according to UT's Bureau of Business Research.

Bulk of the increase came from a 25 per cent gain in non-residential buildings, principally industrial structures which were up a sensational 92 per cent.

Home building authorizations dropped three per cent, while permits for alterations and repairs were up two per cent.

Non-metropolitan areas led the construction surge with a 30 per cent gain over the previous year. Metropolitan areas gained only three per cent.

The city with the biggest gain was Longview. Other big gains were shown in San Angelo, Lubbock, Tyler, Fort Worth, Odessa and Irving.

Furniture prices are expected to increase as much as 3 to 5 percent this year over last. Yet, with current demand for higher quality merchandise, it is quite likely that the higher price tags will be due in part to better quality. A moderate price decrease is likely for household appliances.

'Minor' Defects Have Major Effect, Declares March of Dimes Doctor

Big ears and misshapen noses have long been treated as amusing targets of low comedy. Often the people behind the defective features join in the laughter more heartily than anyone else.

Now doctors wonder if it's such a laughing matter.

"Doctors are beginning to suspect that many so-called minor defects may be as crippling to emotional and mental development as a gross deformity is to physical growth," says Dr. Virginia Appgar, director of the division of congenital malformations of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

"In the 50 March of Dimes birth defects centers that have been opened across the nation in the last several years, we have seen an increasing number of these problems."

As an example, Dr. Appgar described a little Nebraska girl born with an ugly mass of hair extending from right shoulder to forearm. The rare defect—actually a huge birthmark—didn't prevent normal use of the arm. But it was so disfiguring that it aroused other children's taunts. By the age of four, the pretty child had withdrawn into a shell, worrying her parents and inciting her six-year-old brother to fight youngsters who poked fun at his "hairy" sister.

According to the child's parents, no one gave them any hope of improving their daughter's appearance until they took her to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center at Children's Memorial Hospital in Omaha.

Physicians believe that by the time the girl reaches high school, she'll scarcely remember which arm showed the upsetting quirk of nature.

In the vanguard of medical researchers studying deformity and accompanying psychological problems is a group at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

Dr. Milton Edgerton, professor of plastic surgery there, says studies show that children with deformities, even minor ones, often feel "apart from the human race" early in life. He advocates correction of the deformity at an early age, where possible.

"We all know children or adults who have somehow learned outwardly to adapt to defects. We tend to think that there is no problem and to disregard the tremendous human aching to be like everyone else, at least to the degree of not feeling deformed," Dr. Edgerton says.

Dr. Eugene Meyer, associate professor of psychiatry and medicine at Johns Hopkins, is convinced that in 90 cases out of 100, a sense of deformity, however minor, stunts and cripples not only a child's self-esteem but his relationships with others.

The Baltimore group is concerned with prevailing attitudes of disdain and amusement toward what is popularly known as "cosmetic surgery." Jokes and sly references to "nose jobs" and other cosmetic surgery indicate an underlying feeling that such procedures are prompted by vanity.

In psychiatric terms, Dr. Meyer traces prejudiced attitudes to the Puritan idea that "the Lord made you this way and you shouldn't tamper with it."

"We've seen changes which are hard to believe in terms of people being freed from a sense of deformity for much greater interest in the various tasks of life," Dr. Meyer asserts. "The surgery doesn't put good spirit or productivity into a person, but it does remove blocks to its expression."

To The Citizens Of Clarendon

Since publication of the dogs and cats ordinance and employment of the Chief of Police, it has come to the attention of your City government that many do not understand the background for these acts. A dog ordinance has been in the works since October 2, 1964, long before the City government employed a City Administrator. This Ordinance was considered necessary because of the nuisance dogs were creating. If all citizens had the interest of their neighbors at heart, it would never be necessary to pass a dog ordinance. It was never the intent that a dog and cat ordinance would effect persons who take care of their animals. If dogs and cats do not annoy neighbors and no complaints are received concerning such animals, no pens or leashes are necessary and no one need fear that their dog or cat will be arbitrarily picked up by the animal warden.

It has been rumored that the Chief of Police was hired by the City government on the basis that he was to make his own salary. Nothing is farther from the truth. It would be impossible for a Police officer to make his own salary if he were given radar and all modern facilities to "Trap" unsuspecting persons. Your Chief of Police was employed to protect lives and property of the citizens. For no other reason. A committee of women from a Civic Club met with the City Council, and insisted that they do something about getting a City policeman; also the school officials were concerned about traffic and school crossings for children. Someone had to be employed to perform these and other police duties; therefore, a policeman was employed. This employment was within the approved budget authorized for the City operations.

It is rather difficult at times to ascertain the desires of the people. Since assuming duties of City Administrator, the telephone in the City office and in my home has rung continually concerning dogs which were annoying citizens. An ordinance was needed. Such ordinance therefore had to be written to cover all circumstances. It does not mean, however, that the City is going out and molest you or your pets. However, if complaints are received on your pets or if your pet bites a citizen, the City must have authority to act in these circumstances. I am sure that if you have driven around Clarendon, you have seen many stray and unkept dogs in the City, belonging to no one and such dogs are going to have to be picked up and put to sleep unless some kind soul claims them as pets.

It is regretted that such positive action by Your City Government has created any misunderstanding concerning their intent in performing what they consider to be their responsibility. If the city is to progress and advance, it must have basic requirements of a city to carry out such advancements. Clarendon is a small town and it is not the intent to govern it in a "big" City fashion, but the rights of others must be respected.

In the near future, with the development of the Greenbelt Water Authority Dam, an influx of transient personnel will be coming to Clarendon and your City government has to plan for the City law enforcement, not only for the transients, but for future citizens who may plan to make their home here; and also industries who may desire to locate here. We also have the interest of our present citizens who will be affected by this influx.

M. B. Mitchell
City Administrator

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE: WATCHDOG ON SPENDING

The General Accounting Office is an arm of the Congress—not an agency of the Executive branch—and its job is to be certain that the intent of Congress is carried out in regard to expenditures of taxpayers' money. The GAO reports to the Congress at the end of each fiscal year on the findings of its auditors and lawyers in reviewing the fiscal management of government agencies. These annual reports show that real economies can result from aggressive auditing of government books.

The 1964 report of the GAO states: "Refunds, collections, measurable savings, and other financial benefits resulting from the work of the General Accounting Office amounted to $321,489,000. This amounted to a return of over $7 for every dollar spent by the General Accounting Office for the year. Actual refunds and collections made by or through our efforts during the year amounted to $27,186,000."

By pointing the finger at errors made, the GAO serves the taxpayer by helping to make sure that bad practices are not repeated. In 1964, for example, the GAO found that the Army and Marine Corps could not agree on whether tropical wool trousers, part of their uniforms, should or should not have pocket flaps. The issue was not resolved and the services continued to procure both types. "We estimated that the Government incurred additional management costs of about $68,000 annually..." said the GAO report, noting that a previously reported dispute among the services in regard to officers' shoes procurement had been straightened out with an annual potential saving of about $158,000. Because it is the largest activity of the Government, its branches spending approximately half of all government funds spent each year, the Defense Department receives the heaviest attention. Among the many findings and recommendations affecting this department was one that many former G. I.'s would be glad to know about: The Army was criticized by the GAO for failing to utilize properly its trained enlisted personnel. "We found that about 35,000 of such personnel were not utilized in duties commensurate with their military or civilian training or experience," said the GAO report. "The training which the 35,000 men had received at a cost of about $48 million was being wasted."

In another example of fiscal mismanagement which should never be repeated, the GAO found that the Justice Department, at the U. S. Penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kansas, had built and furnished a residence for the warden at a cost of about $100,000. "This was about 3 1/2 times the maximum amount authorized to be spent for comparable housing for a commanding officer of a military post," the GAO reported. Among many other specific points in the report, the Agency for International Development was criticized for not having adhered "to accepted standards of programming and project planning" in providing $124.8 million for earthquake relief to Chile; the Labor Department was advised that updating its mailing lists could save the Government $41,000 annually; the Department of Agriculture was criticized for making 2,400,000 unnecessary mailings at a cost of about $180,000, but the GAO reported that the practice is being corrected.

Sharpshooting past actions of departments and agencies, and the Congress itself, is only part of the GAO's assignment. Its staff provides assistance to the agencies so that proper accounting procedures will be followed. In advance of activities planned by departments and agencies, the GAO is frequently called upon to advise as to the legality of contemplated expenditures. The GAO also makes recommendations to the Congress for new legislation to tighten responsibilities in the handling of government funds. By way of setting an example for other government offices, the GAO ran its activities last year for $2 million less than Congress had appropriated for the purpose—and in the past ten years the size of the GAO staff has been reduced by nearly one-quarter.

Although its work is little publicized, the General Accounting Office provides an extremely valuable service in bringing a higher degree of efficiency and economy to the operations of our Government.

Recent visitors to the Nation's Capitol were Mr. W. L. Edelman of Friona; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spring of Friona; Mrs. Dyalitha Benson of Hereford; Mrs. Dick Brown of Hartley and Mr. Don M. Anthony of Dumas.

WALTER ROGERS
Member of Congress
18th District of Texas

Consumers can expect to spend less of their take home pay for food this year than in 1964—approximately 18 percent as compared with about 18 1/2 percent last year. Economists expect food expenditures to rise, but not as rapidly as incomes. Food prices may not rise as much in 1965 as they did in 1964—in fact, the food prices increase is expected to be less than the price increase for the entire Consumer Price Index.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

PESTICIDE SURVEY TO BE MADE ON FARMS

A survey of pesticides used by farmers and how they are used, will be made in Donley County during February and March, according to Gary D. Palmer, State Statistician, Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Donley County is one of 400 counties in the U. S. included in a national study of farm uses of pesticides. The results will be used to help assess the economic impact of present and future uses of chemical control measures. This study, the first of its kind, is part of the USDA research program to develop more effective and safer pest control methods.

Farm operators living in selected areas of the county will be asked to report on the sprays and dusts used in 1964 against crop and livestock insects and for killing weeds. The survey will include questions on the materials used, costs and method of application, and other related farm characteristics.

Mrs. Gertrude S. Christal of Lelia Lake will interview farmers in Donley County, starting on February 15, 1965. She will be working under the supervision of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

TRANSLATOR SERVICE TO BE PERMANENT HERE

J. D. Durham of Lakeview is announcing in the Leader this week that the Donley County Translator System will be a permanent service for the Clarendon area. The 250 ft. Translator tower serving this area is located four miles southwest of Clarendon.

Mr. Durham stated that they had ironed out difficulties and a good clear signal on all 3 Amarillo TV stations was now available on an honor basis. UHF channels to be used are 70, 72 and 74. Read their advertisement in this issue of the Leader for full particulars.

LOCAL JAYCEE-ETTES ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Jaycee-ettes Ann Hommel, Pat Wallace, Patsy Robertson, and Theola Leeper attended the District 3-North annual crusade training meeting in Amarillo Thursday, February 11.

After registration the general session began. During the meeting films concerning Cancer Drives were shown. A luncheon was held at the noon hour followed by more films.

The program was most interesting to the Jaycee-ettes as they have been asked to help with the Cancer Drive.

A Valentine lunch was prepared and taken to Marjorie Harlan Sunday. Marjorie has aided the Jaycee-ettes many times with various projects and this was a small token of appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, Sr. and Mrs. W. C. Rexrode attended funeral services for W. H. Lemons at Brice Saturday. They also visited friends in Hall County Hospital.

CARE can make good use of these glasses for the needy in foreign countries.

The program for the day was presented by Dr. Richard L. Gilkey and Dr. Joe Goldston in connection with the up-coming Cancer Drive. An interesting and informative film on Cancer was shown to the group.

James Boliver, Rep.
The Sophomore class met on February 11 to discuss the best all-around Sophomore to be presented in the spring. All full-time instructors will submit two names each and a faculty committee, consisting of W. E. Ellerbrook, Mrs. Weaver, and Mrs. Naylor will canvass these nominations. In other business the class elected two new officers for this semester: Bill Trosper as President and Gary Campbell as Vice-President. Meeting was adjourned.

Increase in Enrollment Over Last Spring

The Registrar's office has announced a 26% increase in enrollment at the college over that of the 1965 Spring semester. Total enrollment now stands at 202 with a head count registration of 176. There were 131 students enrolled last Spring. There are 43 new students on campus who were not with us for the Fall semester. Welcome aboard, all you guys and gals.

teen. From the comments heard in the halls the next day, this must have been one of the best dances held in Clarendon for a long time. Everyone really seemed to enjoy the Doggett-sponsored affair.

The boys who moved into town from Quanah for the last semester have a special knack for making friends, haven't they. Bill Trosper? Oh, yes, in answer to all the letters flooding in from all over the country concerning the whereabouts of Dee Hudgins: he's now attending Sam Houston State Teacher's College in Huntsville. At least, he's in Huntsville, and we presume that the college is his primary reason for being there.

By the time this article appears, the halls of Clarendon College will be deserted. Yes, that's right. Thursday and Friday will be a holiday for the students of this institution of higher learning, the reason being that the teachers are all journeying to San Antonio to attend the Texas Junior College Teacher's Convention so they can learn how to more effectively impart to us this higher learning. The holiday seems to be an agreeable substitute for classes and many smiles were observed when this information was made public.

Dafynitions

With registration now over, everyone seems to be accepting the fact that they might as well hit the books. The reason is that they just paid their tuition, and they surely hate to see that money spent in vain.

With very few tests this week, I managed to consume quite a variety of little funnies. Mr. Ellerbrook, college chemistry teacher, says that he received a handsome smoking jacket for his birthday, but no matter how hard he stuffs it into his pipe, the sleeves still hang out.

I overheard Ann Lynn remark to Sue Tabor that she thought a "lady" was a woman who has enough will power to resist a man's advances and enough wile power to block his retreat. Larry Gray's opinion of a "youthful figure" is something you get when you ask a woman her age.

TRose Stepp says a "fox" is actually just a wolf that sends flowers.

A&M ECONOMIST REVIEWS 1965 OUTLOOK FOR COTTON

Cotton growers of Texas and the nation will add an estimated 600,000 bales to the carryover on August 1, 1965. This, points out John G. McHaney, Extension economist, Texas A&M University, will bring the national carryover to an estimated 13 million bales, the largest since the record carryover of 14.5 million bales in 1956.

And continues the economist, the large 1964 crop will likely offset the high disappearance expected during the period from August 1964 to July 31, 1965.

Lower net costs of upland cotton to domestic users, resulting from legislation enacted last April, were cited as contributors to the expected domestic use of 9.7 million bales during the present crop year in 1963-64 and the largest domestic usage since 1950-51.

Per capita mill consumption of cotton for 1964 was up about 5 per cent from 1963. But, points out McHaney, cotton's share of the total fiber consumption showed a slight decline to a low of 55 per cent.

U. S. exports of upland cotton for the 1964-65 season are expected to total 5.2 million bales, compared with 5.7 million for the 1963-64 season but above the average for the past four years. McHaney believes exports will hold at the high level due to the continued up-swing in foreign free world consumption. But, he adds, foreign free world cotton production for 1964-65 set a new record and thus, will make more competition for U. S. producers.

Farm prices for cotton in recent months have been trending downward to reflect the 2.5 per pound deduction in the 1964 support price. For the 1965 crop, the basic support price for middling 1-inch cotton, gross weight, at average location is 29 cents per pound. Farmers who plant within their domestic allotment will be eligible to receive an additional payment of 4.35 cents per pound on their farm's normal cotton yield, as determined by the county ASCS committee.

The national acreage allotment for the 1965 crop of upland cotton has been set at the statutory minimum of 16 million acres.

March of Dimes Volunteers Help Parents of Birth Defects Children

Picture a child crippled by a severe birth defect.

A tragedy? Unmistakably. But how severe are the effects on the parents of this child? What is the extent of their shock and suffering?

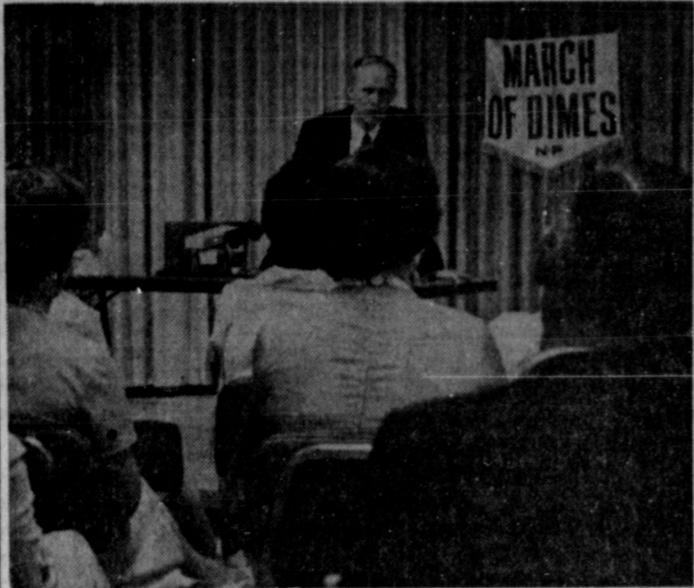

Dr. Hans Zellweger, a well-known professor of pediatrics and genetics at the State University of Iowa College of Medicine and medical director of the March of Dimes-sponsored Birth Defects Center there, reports that in his experience 80 per cent of the parents of defective babies harbor unwarranted feelings of guilt.

He believes that they, like their afflicted child, need help. For that reason he is about to organize group therapy "classes" in which troubled parents can talk among themselves and with medical experts to discuss the problems created by this family tragedy.

Dr. Zellweger points out that more than a quarter of a million babies are born every year in the United States with birth defects—among them blindness, deafness, missing extremities, imperfect spines and nervous systems, and many other crippling disorders. Feelings of guilt and humiliation in the parents of these children are commonplace and have been for centuries. He explains that unfortunately this sense of shame persists even in the "enlightened" 20th century, although the individual pediatrician today does all he or she can to combat it.

Help Is Expanding
Help for those grief- and guilt-stricken parents is being provided by March of Dimes chapters on a growing scale in several sections of the country.

"Actually, most of these parents aren't in need of medical treatment, but they are in need of some psychiatric help and the opportunity to talk over their problems with others similarly afflicted," according to Dr. Virginia Apgar, director of the division of congenital malformations of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

MARCH OF DIMES volunteers aid in easing the psychological and other problems confronting parents of children with birth defects. Above, at Mankato, Minn., parents and members of March of Dimes chapter listen to lecture on birth defects by Dr. Warren Warwick, pediatrician, of University of Minnesota Medical School.

"Also, they are in need of a healthy dose of truth about birth defects," she adds. "That truth is that so far as medical science knows, by far the majority of parents of a defective baby have no reason to reproach themselves, or to point the finger of suspicion at the other partner in marriage."

March of Dimes chapters in five Minnesota counties now hold meetings of parents each month to discuss means of ridding themselves of their unjustified feelings of self-reproach. Usually they are also addressed by a pediatrician and are informed about the progress of March of Dimes research grants in birth defects at leading university-affiliated medical centers and laboratories across the nation.

At Houston, Tex., the Harris County Chapter has established a Spina Bifida Educational Association which meets monthly in a seminar room at Texas Children's Hospital. Fifteen to 20 sets of parents attend the evening lecture, exchange "traumatic" experiences, and discuss such practical problems as getting their handicapped small children into the elementary schools.

Volunteers Well-Informed
Up to 75 parents attend the monthly gatherings of the Child Development Center Parents Group, at Children's Hospital, San Francisco. Half of the necessary financial support comes from the funds of the March of Dimes-financed Birth Defects Center at the hospital.

All the sponsoring chapters find enthusiastic and well-informed volunteers at these meetings on whom to call for help during the March of Dimes campaign each January when funds are raised nationally.

Other March of Dimes chapters around the country are planning similar projects to banish needless feelings of guilt among parents of children with defects.

zers and a matchbox. The method is equally simple. You place the deck chair on a riverbank, sit in it and start to read. Becoming bored, you soon fall asleep, and the book slips off your lap. A crocodile spies the book and comes up out of the water to investigate. After reading a few pages, he too is asleep. Now you awake again. You grab your telescope and looking at the crocodile down the wrong end of it, you just pick him up with the tweezers and pop him in the matchbox.

His most embarrassing moment was when he grabbed hold of a girl's pony tail in the hall and she walked off and left her hair in his hand. What he wants most in a girl is for her to have respect for him. If she does this he thinks the rest will be what he expects of her.
