Jaycees To Sponsor Program For 4th

The Clarendon Junior Chamber of Commerce will conduct a project on July 4th to bring to the attention of all of the citizens of our community the true meaning of the celebration of Independence Day. This project is known as "Let Freedom Ring" and is a promotion of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

At 10:00 o'clock A.M. C.S.T. all Jaycee clubs are organizing all establishments with bells in their communities to ring for five minutes to impress upon the people of their communities that the tenants of the Declaration of Independence are the foundation upon which this great country of ours has grown to its great heights — a dedication which all Jaycees practice in their own creed and a principle for which many young men have sacrificed their lives to preserve.

Tommy Messer is chairman of the project for the Clarendon Junior Chamber of Commerce. He has advised that the interest of the members in this project has exemplified that the young men in this community are truly aware that we will celebrate the 4th of July as a day in recognition of the true greatness of the American Way of Life and not only as a holiday for fun.

Cancer Memorial Fund Established

In response to numerous requests from families and individuals, the American Cancer Society has inaugurated a memorial fund to which families and friends of cancer victims may contribute, according to Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Jr., Memorial Chairman of the Donley County Unit.

"The memorial fund has been established because so many families and individuals have sought a way to commemorate a loved one who has died of cancer," Mrs. Lewis stated.

"Contributions made in memory of a friend or a member of the family are acknowledged by the American Cancer Society, and a memorial card is sent to the family stating that a memorial has been received and giving the name of the donor. These contributions may be in any amount, Mrs. Lewis said.

Mrs. Lewis said, "Memorial funds are used to support the Society's three-fold attack on cancer through research, education and service.

"Although the major source of funds for this program comes from the Society's annual April Crusade, memorial funds received throughout the year are becoming of increasing importance to the Society as more families and individuals become aware that they can contribute in the name of a loved one to the ultimate victory over this dread disease," Mrs. Lewis pointed out. "The American Cancer Society is deeply grateful to individuals and families throughout the county who are using this practical means of assisting the Society to carry on the fight against cancer.

"Memorial funds should be sent to the American Cancer Society, P. O. Box 268, Clarendon, Texas," concluded Mrs. Lewis.

Mr. Dean was born November 19, 1904, at Childress, Texas, and was reared near Price in the Antelope Flat Community. He was married to Miss Lula Salmon June 4, 1922, in Amarillo. Mrs. Dean preceded her husband in death May 27, 1961, in Amarillo.

Leader out-of-county rate, $4.50

After this coming Saturday, June 6, voters of this area will get a rest until the general election in November unless a special election is called. The second primary election or run-off election will be held Saturday with voters making their choice in three different races, two of which are on the local level.

As in the first primary, ballots have been printed so there will be no confusion as to the races and candidates to be voted on. Voters in Precinct 3 will use ballots which will have candidates listed for commissioner of that precinct whereas the remainder of the county will use ballots only showing the United States Representative at Large race and the Sheriff's race.

The two candidates listed on the ballot for United States Representative at Large are Joe Pool, incumbent, of Dallas County and Robert W. Baker of Harris County.

In the Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector race, incumbent Truett Behrens is opposed by Lonnie (Bill) Cornell. In the first primary election, Cornell led the ticket with 887 votes while Behrens received 647. The other two candidates in the race received a total of 374 votes. In order to win re-election, Behrens will need to pick up the 240 vote difference between himself and Cornell from the 374 votes that went to the other two candidates and better than half the 134 remaining votes. In order to unseat Behrens, Cornell will need to hold his first total plus at least 135 votes of the 374 votes cast for the other two candidates.

In the County Commissioner race Precinct 3 incumbent F. M. Murray is opposed by Junior Hill who led the ticket in the first primary with 267 votes to Murray's 194. The other two candidates received a total of 134 votes. Murray has a similar chore as Behrens in picking up a difference of 73 votes and getting better than half the remaining votes.

The outcome of the above races will be left up to the individual voter and whether that voter goes to the polls and votes. Your vote played a vital part in the first primary election so if you do not want to lose that first vote, be sure and go vote Saturday.

Election results will be posted on the blackboard at Tunnell Pharmacy Saturday night and all returns are expected to be in at an early hour as there will be a much easier counting job for the election clerks. A sample ballot is being published on page 8 through the courtesy of Bill Cornell so you may familiarize yourself with the ballot before going to vote.

The turnout of voters for this election is expected to be heavy again if the absentee voting is any indication. The total of absentee votes cast was 87, one more than the first primary.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

Now that school is out business has really picked up at the library. This is good even if only a small percent go on to become adult readers the efforts of teachers, parents and the librarian will not have been in vain. Each year we get a few more repeats who join on their own. Also every year more come in and want books that are deeper than the ones they read the summer before. Of course most of these have been reading books from the school library. They want to read these, not to make a report next fall in English, history, etc., but for the very good reason that what they have been reading no longer satisfies them but may seem a little on the infantile side. I go along with the school of thought that the reading of good literature is something folks grow into and not something that is accomplished by forcing it on young, medium or older readers. If this were so, why so few read the classics? Most of us were more than exposed to them in school. In fact at an awfully age readers use to be made up of short stories by our classical writers. I can only speak for myself but I did not like anything about them. Besides most of the time they were so far over my head I hadn't the vaguest notion what they were about. The popularity of the Dr. Suess books are a shining example of the fact that we grown ups don't know just what the young reader is going to like. Most adults think they are plain bunk but the youngsters adore them. Dr. Suess is one of those rare individuals who can get with a child and teach a truth in what seems like pure nonsense to the older generations. His books from the easy readers on up to the more complicated are by far the most checked out by both boys and girls. Again it is hoped that the parents will encourage their youngsters to use their summer memberships. If you have a non-reader have him check out a book or two at the time and read to him even if he is up pretty good size. Of course the "him" applies to the "hers," too. The ideal time to introduce your young fry to books is when they are less than a year old but love to sit in your lap and have you show them pictures and talk about them. Remember the slogan for National Library Week, "Read and Watch Your World Grow."

Management of Crop Residues For Conservation

Burning of wheat stubble (residues) will remove from $5 to $8 per acre from the farmer's pocketbook yearly in loss of plant food, depending upon the amount of residue produced. Research has shown that a 40-bushel wheat crop should yield approximately 5,000 pounds of air dry residue. Plant food removed from the soil to produce the 5,000 pounds residue is approximately 33 pounds nitrogen, 8 1/2 pounds phosphorous, and 58 pounds potash. It is a known fact that much of the potash is released in the burning of residues, yet much of it is swept away by wind and water erosion brought about through the destruction of the residue. The most important management-type conservation practice in the High and Rolling Plains is proper management of crop residues.

Most of the wheat land should have enough residue following harvest this year to protect the land from wind and serious water erosion until the following crop is planted. Most farmers have the equipment needed to work the land to maintain the residues on or near the soil surface. Residues left on or near the surface will break the force of the raindrop by providing a "cushion," thus preventing soil crusting and packing and therefore increase moisture in-take. Soil moisture evaporation will be reduced due to lower soil temperature in the summer; therefore, more moisture will be available for the next crop. Plowed-under residues are slow to decompose — much like ensilage. They "preserve" rather than "conserve." For "Land's Sake" leave the residue on or near the soil surface.

Pick a Chevrolet and fill in the spaces

Now's the time to see the great outdoors in a great Chevrolet buy!

Here you are on the brink of vacation time. There's your Chevrolet dealer in the midst of Trade 'N' Travel Time. You two should get together! Object—celebrating the joys of summer in a new Chevrolet.

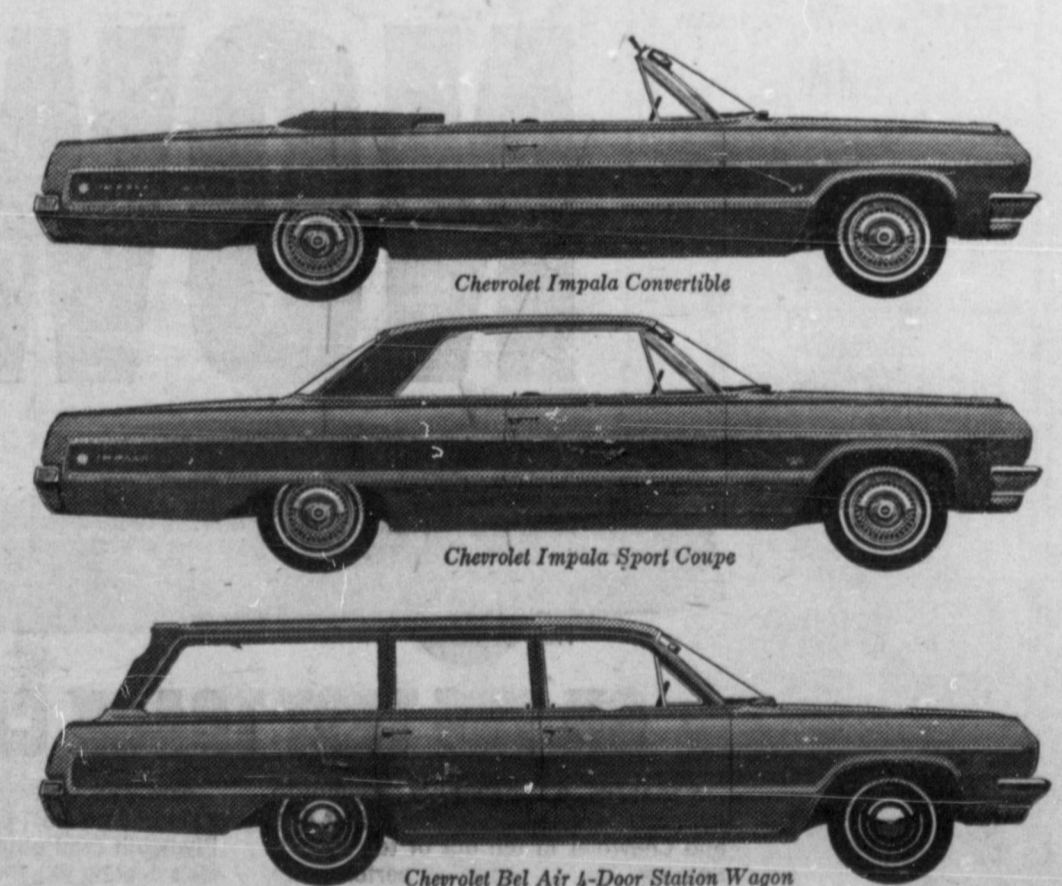

Why a Chevrolet? Well, with 15 models in four series, what possible reason is there to look further?

Take the Impala Super Sport (and a lot of people do just that). Comes as a Sport Coupe or Convertible. Has trimmings like front bucket seats, center console, special trim—all as standard equipment. And offers a typically Chevrolet array of extra-cost options.

Plain Impalas are anything but. They come in all popular body styles, including wagons. They're dressed up to a fare-thee-well: fully carpeted interiors, upholstery as durable as it is attractive.

Bel Airs and Biscaynes, the lower priced Chevrolets, make a practice of hiding it. All the conveniences, no sacrificing comfort or style.

Did we mention that Trade 'N' Travel Time won't last forever? It won't. So see your Chevrolet dealer. Then go fill in the spaces.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Hearings are expected to begin about June 8 on the U.S. sugar supply question — an issue that shapes up as one of the hottest remaining to be decided in this 88th Congress. The House Agriculture Committee will consider bills I and other Members of the House have introduced to permit American sugar beet farmers and cane growers the right to serve a larger share of the American market. Americans are the world's best sugar consumers. All that is required to permit our people to consume the product of thousands upon thousands of new American sugar beet and cane farmers, processors, and workers is this legislative action:

Reallocation of a major portion of the 3 million tons of sugar formerly imported from Cuba. This quantity of sugar now is being received from "off-shore" — foreign — sugar producers. As I have predicted for many months, the fight will be a tough one. The off-shore interests seeking to preserve the status quo include shippers and refiners along the East Coast. They will muster powerful support, as they did in 1962 when Congress resolved the same question in their favor. But this year I see signs of growing strength for the position I advocate — one that would correct, to the benefit of our economic position, a very unfair situation.

Lake McClellan in southern Gray County is one of the most attractive recreation spots in the Panhandle. For several years I sought approval for new, needed construction work at the dam to preserve the recreational benefits provided by the lake and to protect property below the dam from occasional flash flooding. In my capacity as chairman of the Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation of the House Interior Committee, I have long advocated that it is just as necessary to maintain existing water projects as to build new ones. I had felt that Lake McClellan was being neglected; recurrent floods proved it.

I am glad to say that the U.S. Forest Service, which has administered Lake McClellan since 1954, will open bids June 11 in Albuquerque to provide the needed work on the dam and spillway. The project, to be completed in 300 days after a contract is awarded, will include construction of a new, enlarged concrete spillway and extending the dam across the existing emergency spillway. Since 1959, the Forest Service has improved facilities at Lake McClellan by adding 49 "family units" (fireplace, table, and benches), two boat ramps, two miles of improved road, a rehabilitated concession building, among others. In the current fiscal year, the Forest Service began a project to add additional picnic tables and fireplaces, sanitary facilities, a boat trailer parking area, boat ramps, and another mile and a half of roadway. Based on periodic counts by the Forest Service, approximately 110,000 visits are made to the lake each year.

When projects planned or underway are completed, the goal of upgrading facilities at Lake McClellan will be attained.

Stan Musial, the former St. Louis Cardinals star who is now Consultant to the President on Physical Fitness, has sent me copies of "Vim" and "Vigor," the two new booklets prepared by the President's Council on Physical Fitness to promote physical well-being among our young people. "Vigor" presents a complete exercise plan for boys of ages 12-18. "Vim" presents a complete exercise for girls of that age bracket. Mr. Musial said that more than 34,000 copies of the two booklets were sold in the first week after publication — and they may rival in popularity the 1963 booklet "Adult Physical Fitness" as best-sellers. Not available for free distribution, the booklets may be ordered by writing the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office. "Vim" and "Vigor" are each 25 cents a copy. "Adult Physical Fitness" costs 35 cents. Prices are lower for quantity orders.

"Those who give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither the liberty nor the safety." These words were spoken by Benjamin Franklin to the people of his time, but we could well wonder if the Creator of all things including words meant them for this present day.

One fellow thought that an organ recital consisted of two women talking about their recent operation.

Patrick Henry thought that taxation without representation was terrible, he should see it now when we have representation.

A man owes it to his family to think, work, and save to the best of his ability. After he has saved it he owes the tax collector regardless of his ability.

One of the most influential books of our day is the check book.

There is an old saying that we are never too old to learn. This may be the reason for so many folks putting it off until too late.

There is nothing wrong with not having anything to say, if we will just keep quiet about it.

People who get hit by the ca-boose likely are backtracking anyway.

Some books are written to inform, others are intended to reform, but the Bible is the only book that holds the power within its great truth to transform an individual.

If a fellow spends six days sowing his wild oats he could hardly expect his prayers on Sunday that he would have a crop failure should be answered.

We seldom go to the trouble of counting our blessings so long as they keep coming.

It is hard to be an independent man these days — even the government wants to take care of you.

The government is like a big ball — it revolves on our taxes.

FOOD STORES OFFER MORE VARIETY, ABUNDANCE

COLLEGE STATION — Food stores offer more variety and abundance for their customers than ever before.

A recent survey in one food market showed that 85 different cuts of meat or poultry were offered, and this did not include cold cuts or seafood, says Mrs.

Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist.

Many large food stores offered more than 70 different varieties of canned vegetables and the choice in one store was from as many as 100 varieties. There were nine different varieties of canned green beans, not to mention fresh and frozen green beans. One store in the survey offered 262 different combinations of can sizes, brands and varieties of vegetables alone.

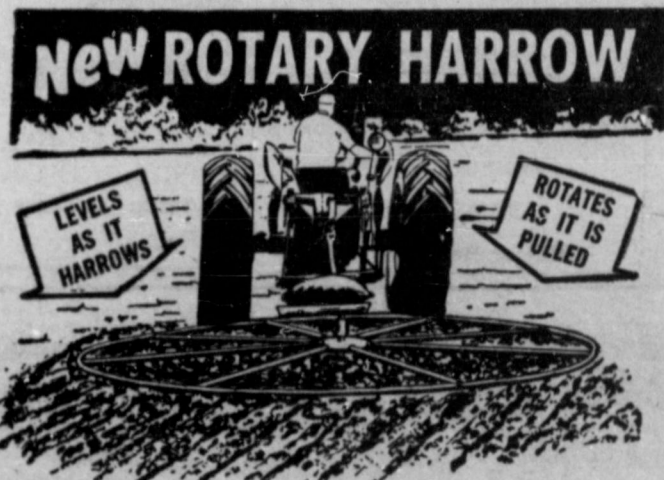

Variety isn't the only service consumers enjoy from modern food stores, the specialist says. Convenience is another.

"Consumers have come to expect convenience in the form of late hours and seven-day service, and convenience in the form and package of the food," Mrs. Clyatt says.

HOME ECONOMICS CAREER DAY

The Home Economics Career Day, sponsored by the Clarendon chapters of the Future Homemakers of America and the Young Homemakers of Texas, was well attended by the students of Kelton, Memphis and Clarendon High School. Hostesses for the Young Homemakers Chapter were Glenda Hawkins, Betty Baker, and Martha Jo Schollenbarger. Officers of the F.H.A. Chapter and Homemaking students participating in the Summer Courses of Clarendon High School shared hostess duties.

Mrs. Betty Ware, a full time dietitian from Borger, was assisted by Mrs. Hayter, part time dietitian when they explained to the students the type of work they do and how well it combines with a career as a homemaker. They also showed an interesting film which explained the importance of this career as compared with a career as an architect or an engineer.

Choosing a Career in the Field of Fashion was discussed by Mrs. Shirley Lovell, Home Economics teacher of Claude. She served as an apprentice designer for children's clothing for a time after finishing college. She explained how designs are created, how trims affect the price of production, and how patterns are sized and used in the manufacture of ready-to-wear. Although this is a very interesting career, she pointed out the fact that Dallas is probably the nearest place to us that one could expect to find employment. There is satisfaction however, in creating designs for one's own clothing.

Choosing a Career as a Home-making Teacher is a rewarding career that combines very well with your personal home and family life. Mrs. Ruth Hancock explained. She suggested courses to include in high school, as well as emphasized the importance of participation in school organizations. As a teacher, you will have the satisfaction of knowing you belong to one of the largest and most important professional groups in the field of Home Economics.

During the noon hour, a beautiful collection of summer special occasion dresses, sports clothes and casual suits and dresses were modeled by Nan Neel, Melinda Moore, Connie Martin, Deanna McAnear, Sandy Deyhle, Lynn and Beth Bourland. These fashions were supplied by John's and their coordinators were Mrs. John Payne and Mrs. Ruth Neel. Flowers for the occasion were provided by the Bob and Dee Flower Shoppe of Clarendon.

"I Have a Secret" was revealed by Dean Weldon Day and Mr. Frank Phelan. The college will offer Homemaking courses beginning next fall, Mr. Day announced. Mr. Phelan, of Memphis Coca-Cola Bottling Co., was present to award a Grant-in-Aid Scholarship to a student interested in attending Clarendon College next year and in following a career related to Home Economics Education. Mrs. Kay Bain of Clarendon was the award winner. Mrs. Billie Jean Moore pointed out the advantages of attending a junior college and was available for consultation with prospective students during the day.

Choosing a Career as a Home Economist for a Utility Company was discussed by Mrs. Katherine Ball, Home Economist for West Texas Utilities and Mrs. Connie Clifford, retired Home Economist. Mrs. Clifford was an Economist in the Houston area for three years, and she demonstrated small electrical appliances. The delicious cheese pies, baby pizzas, and olive chicketti casserole were given as door prizes. The use of these small appliances are not only a convenience, but they are very economical to use, Mrs. Clifford pointed out.

The Home Economics Career Day attracted approximately 55 people, and this program is only one of several workshops to be conducted as a phase of our summer Homemaking program, Mrs. Velma Bourland, F.H.A. and Y.H.T. Advisor, announced.

Americans consumed an average of 52 pounds of milk in ice cream and other frozen dairy products in 1963, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

GOOD NEIGHBORS CLUB MEETS

We were happy to have as visitors, Emma Sue Rhoades, Ruth and Rhondalee Rhoades, May and Shirley Butler, Loren and Hubert Rhoades, and Clyde Butler. Myrtle Cowan, Louveta Estes, Mrs. Chester Martin, Mrs. Charlie Williams, and Minnie Cannon came in the afternoon.

Meat needs special care when you get it home from the supermarket and before it is cooked. Rewrap it loosely in waxed paper or foil when you arrive home, then store it in the coldest part of the refrigerator. If you don't have an extra minute to rewrap the meat when you get home, just poke a hole in the package to let some air into the pre-packaged cuts. When you buy good quality, treat it with proper care!

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — State officials have begun the long parade before Gov. John Connally's budget staff and the Legislative Budget Board. From now until summer's end, more than 150 state agencies will give estimates on how much they will need to operate in the 1966-1967 biennium.

These hearings will produce budget recommendations to the next Legislature by Governor Connally and by the Legislative Budget Board.

All estimates must be set out in dollars and cents. But the summer budget-hearing period actually is the guessing season, since agency heads have to guess now how many file clerks, how much stationary and how many pencils they will need in August, 1966.

A few items seem certain; The Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools expects a 37 percent increase in the population of its schools for mentally retarded and will need an estimated $28,000,000 more than its current $100,000,000 budget. Department of Corrections will request $5,000,000 for pay raises for prison guards.

Budget raises not determined this summer are expected to be requested when the Legislature gets proposals for improving the states higher education system; giving public school teachers a pay raise; building new schools for the mentally retarded; and building a state osteopathic college.

AUTO THEFTS — State Highway Department reveals the fact that each year about 17,000 automobiles are stolen in Texas — and 9 percent are never found! Until three years ago, scrapped cars — complete with plates and negotiable ownership papers — could be purchased for $50. But no more.

To prevent both plates and papers falling into hands of theft rings the Legislature required each salvage yard operator to remove current plates from vehicles purchased as salvage.

Plates and papers are supposed to be kept under lock and key until claimed by the highway department. About 10,000 titles and 3,000 license plates are picked up each month.

BUILDING BOOM CONTINUES — April was the second biggest construction month in Texas history, reports the UT Bureau of Business Research.

Total value of authorized building was estimated at $153,600,000 — up 6 percent from March.

Only once before has the Bureau index been higher — August, 1961, when it reached 152.3 percent.

Residential construction decreased somewhat in April. But nonresidential permits rebounded strongly. The Bureau concluded the federal income tax cut encouraged growth of investment in hotels and motels, commercial garages and amusement buildings.

Permits for hospitals and other institutional buildings also increased, and $14,000,000 worth of stores and mercantile buildings were authorized for an increase of 52 percent over March.

SHRIMP SEASON CLOSE DELAYED — Close of the Gulf shrimping season was delayed 15 days — until June 16 — on order of the State Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Biologists recommended the 45-day closed season be put off due to retarded growth of juve-

VETERANS' LAND PROGRAM — The state's veterans' land program will pay itself out without any pocket-digging by taxpayers, if the Veterans Land Board carries out its planned program of investing its reserves so they will earn interest while being held to retire bonds as they come due.

State Auditor C. H. Cavness took a long look at the program started by voters in 1946 and concluded:

Through the end of fiscal 1963, 31,732 tracts of land were bought by the board and resold to veterans. They totaled 2,771,049 acres and cost $216,466,134, averaging $78 per acre.

About 4,000 of the veterans already have paid off their debt and of the 27,893 still owing the state $150,244,291, 2,354 are delinquent on their payments.

Cavness said the number of delinquent accounts is down from fiscal 1962, when 3,283 more were outstanding.

There still is a net loss of $1,151,035 from the "block deals" revealed during the veterans' land scandals. But it looks as though all of the original $3,500,000 eventually will be repaid.

Between March 29 and May 2, only 31 samples were confirmed by state animal health officials as screwworms, while 1,382 samples were classified as non-screwworms.

DEER HARVEST — An estimated 146,315 deer were "harvested" in the 21-county Edwards Plateau District during the 1963 hunting season, Parks and Wildlife biologist Rod Marburger said.

Highest kill was made in Gillespie County, with 7,779 bucks killed, followed closely by Mason County, with 7,500 bucks killed.

Of the estimated deer killed,

I hope, and know you will extend the same courtesy to your new correspondent. I know she will have more time to spend on it and will do a commendable job. Thanks for everything.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Cotton Yield Appeals

Friday, June 5, is the last day to file an application for an appeal on the cotton yield for your farm. Even though you may not be able to prove the yield on your farm due to adverse weather conditions and you feel that the yield is too low for that farm, you may still make a regular appeal.

Let us remind you that if you make an appeal on one farm which you operate, you must also prove the yield on all other farms on which you had an interest in the year or years 1961, 1962, and 1963.

Brush Control

The season is here for brush control. We have several producers who are carrying out various brush control practices. The County Committee has set the dates May 25 to July 13 for aerial spraying of mesquite, aerial control of sand sage from May 1 to June 15, aerial control of yucca from May 15 to June 30, aerial control of sand shinnery May 1 to June 15, ground control of sand sage by mowing May 15 to July 15. All initial treatments of brush control require a 3 month grazing deferment or a reduction of cost-shares by 25%. We will be glad to discuss the brush control practice with any producer but remind you extreme caution must be exercised when spraying with any hormone type herbicides. In Donley County the Texas Herbicide Law and Regulations apply. Producers and vendors should be familiar with this Legislation so that complete understanding of the law and regulations will enable all concerned to be protected. We suggest you see your County Agent for complete information.

JAYCEE TENNIS TOURNAMENT WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The first tennis tournament ever held in Clarendon on a local level has now been completed and was a tremendous success from every standpoint. Those who did not make it out missed some real hot tennis competition. The final count of entries numbered 53 which is remarkable due to the fact that Clarendon has never been termed a "tennis town." Before the summer is over, we hope to try and arrange another of these meets.

The winners of the local Jaycee tournament now can advance to the State Meet in Abilene July 9-11 if they so please. This is an honor to attend as Jaycee clubs from all over the state will send their representatives.

Winners of the Clarendon Tourney are: Girls' Singles — Paulette Pfeiffer, girls 12 and under; Candy Skelton, girls 14 and under; Melinda Moore, girls 16 and under; Regina Borden, girls 18 and under; Girls' Doubles — Candy Skelton and Christina Moore, 14 and under; Boys' Singles — Steve Adams, 12 and under; Donnie Mooring, 14 and under; Tim Caldwell, 16 and under; David Mooring, 18 and under; Boys' Doubles — Steve Adams and Jim Moore, 12 and under; Donnie Mooring and Mac McClellan, 14 and under; Mike Mears and Martin Hendrix, 16 and under; Richard Bell and Barry Hudson, 18 and under. Steve Adams was voted the outstanding player of the tourney. Although only 12 years old, he can hold his own with players in the 18 year old bracket.

When buying beef, look for lean meat that is bright red, firm and fine textured, and liberally marbled with fat (narrow threads of fat in the lean muscles). Red porous bones indicate that the meat comes from young animals. The fat covering should be white and firm in high quality beef.

Think twice before you air your clothes in the sun, advises the National Institute of Dry-cleaning. If they are green, blue or white, they could change color. White garments may contain a fluorescent whitening dye which is destroyed by sunlight causing the garment to yellow, and many green and blue dyes in silk and wool are susceptible to sunlight and will fade.
