June Moisture Improves Year's Crop Outlook

The moisture received so far this month has dented the drought considerably and the crop and range land outlook is much brighter than a short time ago. Planting operations are well underway and the grass is beginning to grow.

Total moisture so far for June as recorded in town is 2.55 inches which is considerable less than recorded in some areas of the county. Total rainfall the past week was 1.67 with the largest amount received on the 7th which measured 1.45.

There is usually some bad that goes along with the good. An area west of town received heavy damaging hail Friday and an area east, south and southwest of town received damaging hail Tuesday afternoon.

TONIGHT'S GAMES: CUBS VS. WHITE SOX, GIANTS VS. YANKEES

Two good ball games are in store for Little League baseball fans tonight at Hart-Moore Field. The league leading Cubs, managed by Billy Mac Hicks, will try to stay atop the standings in a game with the last place White Sox and the fast moving Yankees will do battle with the fading Giants. The first game will get underway at six o'clock.

The Cubs are paced again this year by Jim Moore. Moore, the league's leading hitter and most valuable player last year, got off to a slow start this year but has hit his stride in the last two games and is now batting .545. Charley Deyhle is second to Moore on the Cubs hitting roster with a .375 average. The White Sox, after showing some lusty hitting power in last Thursday night's 15 to 7 win over the Giants, had their bats silenced Monday night by Benny Reece and Charles Lewis of the Yankees. The Sox could get only one hit against the Yankee pitchers. However, the Sox still have three players hitting .400 or above. Scooter Tarver is leading the Sox with a .500 average. Byrd Adkins is hitting .417 and Ted Tyler is hitting .400. Other Sox who support high batting averages are Joe Yankee, .375; Gary Bennett, .364 and Steve Land, .308.

The Giants are the best hitting team in the league but are experiencing difficulty with their pitching and have dropped to third place in the standing. Bobby Sims is setting a blistering pace in the batting race. He has collected 11 hits in 14 official trips to the plate for an unbelievable .786 average. Several other Giants are also hitting well as Jimmy Elliott, Bobby Leeper and Steve Merchant are each hitting .444; Steve Adams is at .400, Jim Risley, .316 and James Shadle, .300.

The Yankees are the weakest hitting team in the league but are making the most of their few hits. Walter Reece is hitting .555 but from there the Yankee batting averages drop fast. Randolph Weatherston and Benny Reece are each hitting .222; Dwight Williams is at .200, Larry Weatherston is hitting .167 and Charles Lewis is hitting a lousy .111.

ANGELS AND BRAVES TO TANGLE FRIDAY NIGHT

The high flying Angels and the vastly improved Braves are set to battle it out Friday night at the Little League park for the first time this season in league play.

The Angels, currently in first place in the tough senior league, are respecting the dangerous Braves to the utmost. The Braves lost a squeaker to the Groom team 10-7. The Angels dropped the Skellytown team 6-2 and this was their first defeat of the season. The Angel win was strictly team effort. Dave Moor-ping pitched masterful baseball, allowing 6 hits and striking out 13. The infield of Irving Mears, Carroll Beard, Mac McClellan and Pat Perkins played superb and the outfield was at its best.

This game Friday night shapes up as being possibly one of the better games of the season as the Braves would like nothing better than to knock the Angels out of first place.

the anniversary of his death, June 5th. The boys still read more from these shelves than any other section.

The following teachers have again given the pupils in their respective rooms summer memberships in the library: Mesdames Barrow, Butler, Donald, Gilbreath, Miss Blankenship and Miss Mongole. The room mothers did the same for the youngsters in Mrs. Mear's room.

It is hoped that you parents will help your children take advantage of their memberships, and that you will check out some of the deeper children's books and have regular reading sessions with one of you reading to them. It will surprise you how much the whole family will benefit from such a program.

Another memorial gift has been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Claude Darden.

"THE POPE was dead." This is the opening sentence of Morris L. West's latest book, "The Shoes of the Fisherman."

He gives a brief though vivid account of what has been happening in Rome less than two weeks ago, the ritual observed when a Pope dies and the method by which his successor is elected.

In the few months covered in the book each of the main characters' lives is influenced by the new Pope or his by them.

Quoting: "The Shoes of the Fisherman" is a worthy successor to "The Devils Advocate."

Only time will tell if it will be able to do what the "Devil's Advocate" did: "... became that rare phenomenon in publishing—a book universally hailed by critics as a major creative work while selling, in various editions, more than two million copies."

A memorial gift has been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mrs. H. Lewis Speed on Mother's Day.

F.H.A. WORKSHOP ON SCHEDULE

The FHA Officer Training Workshop proceeded on schedule June 6th when approximately 75 members, six FHA Chapter parents and 11 FHA advisers met at the high school cafeteria for additional instruction in developing our program of work for the 1963-64 school year. Patricia Green, Clarendon FHA President, presided at both morning and afternoon sessions. Mr. Ledger, high school principal, Mr. Henson, Country Club member and host, and Mrs. Ima Dora Haile, Area I Adviser, greeted the guests on arrival. The Groom Chapter assisted with registration and the Clarendon Chapter served iced tea and lemonade to the early arrivals.

"FHA in Orbit" was the theme of the morning session. Buzz sessions were used for the members to collect ideas of the various phases of the FHA program of work. Advisers from Quail, Shamrock, Estelline, Groom, Wellington, Childress, Lefors, Panhandle and Clarendon served as consultants. FHA members from Quail and Wellington led the group in a series of relaxer songs. They also brought exhibits and posters for display to show how they interpret their program to the school.

Sack lunches were enjoyed at the Country Club at noon. Mrs. A. R. Henson was hostess for the afternoon. Bingo, officer training, swimming and "sunning" provided entertainment for the afternoon session. Getting to know everyone, especially our new area adviser, was the most enjoyable experience. However, everyone liked the training program and expressed a desire to repeat the workshop next year. —Rep.

Pinkerton-Zaring Nuptials Solemnized In Church Ceremony

Miss Sandra Lee Pinkerton became the bride of Jimmy Leon Zaring of Adrian, Texas, in a double-ring ceremony read Saturday evening June 8, in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon, Texas. The Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton of Clarendon. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Zaring, Jr., of Adrian.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with urns of white gladioli and Majestic daisies interspersed with Schefflera plants and emerald palms. Completing the decor were wrought iron candelabra with cathedral tapers and a satin covered kneeling bench.

Tapers were lighted by Linda Pinkerton and Patty Zaring, sister of the bride and groom respectively. They wore dresses of orchid organza over taffeta and corsages of white carnations.

Mrs. Joe Pfeiffer, organist, played a nuptial prelude and accompanied Joe Lennon of Dodson, Texas, as he sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Because," and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves tapering to the hands. The floor length bouffant skirt was scalloped to the front, and to the back a ruffle of pleated nylon tulle extended from a point at the waistline to form a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a tiara ornamented with sequins and beads. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a single orchid showered with satin streamers and love knots atop a white Bible.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Elaine Behrens of Clarendon. Bridesmaids were Miss Myrna Zaring, sister of the groom, and Miss JoAnn Wood of Clarendon. They wore dresses of orchid brocaded satin designed with cap sleeves, square necklines and full skirts accented by a bow to the center front. Their hats were of orchid flowers covered with tulle to form a short veil and their shoes were dyed to match. Each carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies.

Mrs. Jimmy Leon Zaring, nee Sandra Pinkerton

Lloyd Homfeld of Amarillo attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Oscar Bronniman and Perry Gruhkey of Adrian, Texas. Serving as ushers were Ray Pinkerton, brother of the bride, and Dennis Bradshaw.

Mrs. Larry Hopkins presided at the registrar.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pinkerton chose an olive green linen suit complimented by white accessories and a corsage of white asters. Mrs. Zaring, mother of the groom, wore a peach colored dress accented by white accessories. Her corsage was also of white asters.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over orchid and centered with a tiered arrangement of orchids and white stock. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and was decorated with small white and orchid flowers. Appointments were crystal. Mrs. Joe Lennon of Dodson and Miss Connie Williams of Clarendon presided. A musical background was provided by Mrs. Edna Mae Hennigh of San Angelo, Texas, pianist.

For the wedding trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico, Mrs. Zaring wore a two piece yellow suit of linen accented by yellow and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Clarendon High School and Clarendon Junior College and will graduate from Texas Woman's University at Denton in January. The groom graduated from Adrian High School and attended Clarendon Junior College. He is now attending North Texas State University at Denton.

The couple will be at home in Adrian.

Out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sims of Plano; Margaret and David Hill of Westminster; Mrs. Keith Schollenbarger of Guymon, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Allen of Tulsa; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomas of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henneigh and Susan of San Angelo; Mrs. Barbara Homfeld and daughter of Amarillo; Mrs. George Gruhkey of Adrian; and Mr. and Mrs. G. MISS LINDA KAY HARDIN RECEIVING TRAINING

AUSTIN — Miss Linda Kay Hardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hardin of Clarendon, is receiving special training in psychiatric nursing at Austin State Hospital, Dr. Sam A. Hoerster, Jr., superintendent, announced Thursday of last week.

Miss Hardin, a student at Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Dallas, is a 1960 graduate of Clarendon High School. She attended Clarendon Junior College and Southern Methodist University.

The psychiatric nursing program is designed to train nurses in the recognition of psychiatric disorders, techniques useful in caring for emotionally ill patients and of community agencies established for dealing with social problems arising out of mental illness, Dr. Hoerster said.

MUSIC RECITAL PRESENTED

Mrs. Page Harmon presented a group of her music students in a studio recital Tuesday afternoon. Small marble statues were given to each student of their favorite music composer. Cakes and cookies were served to all present.

Mr. John Tolbert from Claude visited his mother, Mrs. A. T. Tolbert, in Clarendon last Friday.

AUSTIN — Members of Gov. John Connally's "Committee of 25" — to study education beyond the high school — have only one thing in common...they're all Texans.

Twenty-three, however, have something else in common — they are college graduates. Ten hold master's degrees and five have doctorates.

Eight have something else in common — they attended Connally's alma mater, the University of Texas.

Other than that, their backgrounds vary.

Included are lawyers, bankers, contractors, telephone company executives, oil men, engineers, a district judge, a hospital administrator and educators.

Committee is composed of: George R. Brown, Martin Burns, Morgan J. Davis, and Mrs. Ray L. Dudley of Houston.

Also, James H. Dunn and Mrs. Albert B. Martin of Amarillo; John Erik Jonsson, Willis M. Tate and Gifford K. Johnson of Dallas.

Austinites are Vernon McDaniel, J. M. Odom and Dr. Harry H. Ransom.

Others include Sister Mary Vicent O'Donnell and H. B. Zachry of San Antonio; Elmer H. Danner, San Angelo; Jenkins Garrett, Fort Worth; and Judge Reynaldo G. Garza, Brownsville. Also, John E. Gray, Beaumont; H. H. Imray, Longview; Ben W. Jones, Corsicana; Dr. Abner McCall, Waco; Dr. Earl Rudder, College Station; Tom Sealy, Midland; M. Harvey Weil, Corpus Christi; and Dr. Dossie M. Wiggins, Lubbock.

ODESSA OUT — The expected bumper crop of college students in 1963 will have two more state colleges to choose from. Angelo State College in San Angelo and Pan American College in Edinburg join the state-supported system in the fall of 1963.

But Odessa Junior College still will be a junior college, despite strong efforts by Rep. George Cook of Odessa and Sen. Frank Owen, III, of El Paso.

STATE STUDIES PROJECT — When the 58th legislative session ended, lawmakers immediately began to study possible legislation for the 59th Legislature.

Interim committees of legislators will look into guidance training testing in public schools; boating safety; reservoir planning; Texas bays; care and discovery of tuberculosis cases; poverty and indigency in the state; State and Local Tax Policy; and a thorough survey of the oil and gas industry.

WOMEN WIN SMALL VICTORY — The army of women's clubs, led by Mrs. Hermine Tabolowsky of Dallas, lost their session-long battle to get the legislature to approve a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan to provide "equal rights" for women.

Moore's amendment was lodged in a reluctant House Insurance committee at the session's end.

But they did gain something in the way of equal property rights under bills passed by Rep. George Cowden of Waco to:

1. Give married women the right to manage and sell their separate property without their husband's consent.

2. Take away the "examination apart" required of notaries public.

NEW AG SETS RECORD — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr reports that his Bond Division set an all-time record for bonds examined and approved during the first four months of his administration.

He stated that the record of 274 bond issues approved — $189,000,000 worth — exceeded the first third of any calendar year since the Attorney General's office was first given these duties in 1905.

Also since January 1, Carr's office has handled a total of 1,311 cases; 986 won, 61 lost and 264 disposed of in other ways.

COTTON DEADLINE EXTENDED — Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced a 10-day extension of the cotton planting deadline in 17 coastal counties. Extension to June 1 was due to extremely dry weather in the coastal bend area.

Planting of the state's 1963 cotton crop is three-fourths complete, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

GOLD IN THEM HILLS? — People who think a hidden fortune may lie "somewhere north of the Big Bend" may get a chance to test their theory under a new law. It allows prospector permits for 640 acres, at 25 cents an acre annual rental, for a maximum of five years.

Rep. Grainger McIlhany of Wheeler, author of the bill, noted that present law limits a hard-metals prospector to 40 acres.

We admit is probably true. But we should remember, Be it June or December, We still have the real job to do.

If we are able to buy everything we want, we have riches. If we are able to do without we have will-power.

Our lives are sort of like trucks — mostly identical in sizes. But, some folks can pack a lot more into it than others.

If we can't express our thanks for what we get from life, we can surely be thankful for what we miss.

The pot of gold at the end of the rainbow of our life will be nearer a reality if we start filling it with the following ingredients; our heart, our backbone, our faith, common sense, and a lot of stretch.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

The "Separation of Powers" Doctrine

Our U.S. Constitution separates the power of government among its three great branches—the legislative, the executive, the judicial. Behind the very sound "separation of powers" doctrine is the theory that by keeping the three branches independent of one another, and by keeping their authority in balance, a concentration of tyrannous power is made impossible.

Man has yet to devise a better system of government than that by which we are governed. A keystone of our system is this separation of powers. And, despite some stir recently over a "Fund for the Republic" pamphlet entitled "The Elite and the Electorate," there is not the slightest consideration being given in the Congress to changing the Constitutional balance of power. The pamphlet is not a government publication. The "Fund for the Republic" has no connection with government. The pamphlet argues that some authority now vested in the Congress should be transferred to the President in order that the United States might act more swiftly to meet sudden challenges at home and abroad. I'm strongly opposed to any such change—to any move to reduce the power of the Congress, the people's most direct voice in their government. I'm certain the great majority of Congressmen and Senators shares my conviction, as does the great majority of the American people.

From time to time in our history, one branch or another has been dominant in the exercise of power granted under the Constitution's broad outlines. In some periods, the Congress has acted most forcefully. Occasionally the U.S. Supreme Court has acted so strongly as to be accused (and I have raised the point) of exercising powers properly resting with the legislative branch, the Congress. We have had strong-willed Presidents who wielded their powers so vigorously that they were accused in their day of being near-dictators.

Of all our Presidents, Abraham Lincoln (whom we now all revere but who was a bitterly controversial President in his own time) cornered more power for the executive than any other. Consider these actions of Lincoln: Under the war power he proclaimed the slaves of those in rebellion emancipated. He devised and put into execution his own plan of reconstruction. He increased the Army and Navy beyond the limit set by statute. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus was suspended wholesale and martial law declared. Public money in the sum of millions was spent without Congressional appropriation. Lincoln knew his Constitution. He did none of these things innocently. He knew how far he could go in taking for his office the powers of a divided, weak Congress.

Thus, through history, one branch or another of our government has been in a position somewhat more powerful than the other branches. Today, in my view, Congress must be extremely wary about extending any further delegations of authority to departments in the executive branch. Because Congress has sometimes not been specific enough in its delegations of statutory authority to executive departments, or too generous in the powers it has passed along, the departments (constituting the government bureaucracy) have assumed larger responsibilities than legislators envisioned. Occasionally the Congress seeks to return to itself grants of authority. As an example, I have introduced a bill to bar the Federal Communications Commission from collecting license fees, a step the FCC said it was preparing to take. I submitted a bill to require that no fees be charged without the express Congressional consent.

Generally it can be shown that the "separation of powers" doctrine has been respected, that fluctuations in the exercise of power have through history been contained within the broad confines established by our Founding Fathers in the Constitution.

A sweeping, drastic change in the balance of legislative, executive, and judicial powers could not be made without the adoption of a Constitutional amendment. So fundamental to the entire Constitutional framework is the separation doctrine that, in my firm view, no major change could be made short of the outright repeal of the Constitution—and such a step is beyond any possibility. Even an amendment is most difficult to obtain. Only 13 amendments have become part of the Constitution since the original ten, the Bill of Rights, were adopted. To amend the Constitution, resolutions so providing must be approved by the judiciary committees and then by majorities of the full House and Senate—and then by majorities in at least three-fourths of the 50 state legislatures. Right now, resolutions calling for amendments on 25 different points of the Constitution are pending before the House Judiciary Committee. It is extremely unlikely that any of these proposals will emerge for House floor consideration this year. The road is long and hard for any Constitutional change. Altering the Constitution is a serious step not to be undertaken without great and prolonged deliberation—and not without a clear call from the American people saying that the change is needed.

Fishpond Stocking

Do you like fishing, boating, swimming, waterskiing, and picnicking? Most of our ponds are built to conserve water for livestock to drink. However, many of these ponds can be used for the purposes above provided they cover enough area.

To be a fishpond the surface should be one-fourth acre or more and have sufficient depth to hold water yearlong. The purpose of stocking fishponds is to produce the desired kinds, sizes, and numbers of game fish in farm and ranch ponds. These fishponds need management if satisfactory results are to be expected. The pond should be fertilized regularly to increase food supply and to decrease weed growth. Trees, brush, and debris should be removed from below the water line. Bass, bluegill, and channel catfish are very good to stock in recommended ratios. When the pond is fertilized and managed properly, one hundred-fifty pounds game fish per year per surface acre can be taken from the pond.

For more information about this food and sport, consult your local County Agent, Game Warden, or Soil Conservation Service technician.

TREATED PINE POSTS ARE BEST BUY

COLLEGE STATION — Properly treated pine posts are the landowner's best fencing buy, says Bill Smith, extension forester at Texas A&M College. They can cut fencing costs substantially and offer the lowest cost per year of service life of any wooden posts available.

Treated posts are more resistant to grass fires in addition to being extremely decay resistant, he says. Posts commercially pressure-treated with pentachlorophenol creosote are the best buy.

Untreated posts of certain woods are also decay resistant, says Smith. Cedar, mulberry, bois d'arc, and locust are naturally durable woods, but the forester advises that these posts should contain at least two-thirds heartwood. He explains that the lighter colored sapwood is not decay resistant and will not last as long as the heartwood.

Landowners who have young pine timber that needs thinning can greatly reduce their fencing costs by using penta and the cold-soak method of treatment for these posts, says Smith. By following procedures developed by the Texas Forest Service, properly home-treated pine posts can be expected to last 25 years or longer, he adds. However, this method is recommended only for pine posts.

For additional information on this type of treatment for pine posts secure a copy of Texas Forest Service Circular No. 34, "The Preservative Treatment of Pine Fence Posts with Pentachlorophenol by the Cold-Soaking Method," from your local county agricultural agent or district headquarters of the Texas Forest Service.

In the view of the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, the Urban Mass Transportation Bill is a potential political pork barrel. It cites the view of Senator Lausche of Ohio: "You are going to have political strings pulled. The one that is closest to the throne will get the aid, and those who are farthest removed will get the hindmost."

What a difference

Grandma may talk about the good old days, but a whole team of horses couldn't drag her back to an old fashioned kitchen. When you compare the two pictures, you observe an important fact. All the marvelously improved conveniences you see are made possible by electricity—every single one. Yes, electricity makes the difference, and what a difference it makes! It eliminates drudgery and creates more leisure time by performing countless tasks in the home at the flip of a switch. It turns factory wheels, lights the darkness, and does all these things effortlessly and economically. That is one of two reasons why the use of electricity is increasing here in the Center of the Southwest. The other is that more people, more businesses, more industries are coming our way. Our expansion program is keyed to this increase, for we are convinced our service area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

LITTLE LEAGUE RESULTS

In Little League play last Thursday night, the White Sox mauled the Giants by a 15 to 7 score and the Cubs trimmed the Yankees, 6 to 3. In Monday night's games the Cubs went on a scoring spree and walloped the Yankees 20 to 13 and in the second game, the Yankees played near-perfect ball to beat the White Sox, 8 to 0.

In last Thursday's White Sox-Giant game, the White Sox won their first league game of the season. They collected a total of 15 hits and each member of the team got at least one hit and scored at least one run. This is something very unusual in baseball. Scooter Tarver and Byrd Adkins led the attack with three hits each and Joe Yankee and Ted Tyler each got two hits. Gary Bennett, Steve Land, Johnny Gilleen, Ronnie Rippetoe and Danny Mills each got one hit. The Sox scored five runs in the first inning, seven in the third and three in the fifth. The Giants were shut out until the fourth when they got one run and then they got three runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings. Rippetoe started on the mound for the White Sox and did not allow a hit until the fifth inning. Adkins finished on the mound for the Sox. Bobby Sims and Steve Adams did the pitching for the Giants. The Giants got four hits, all singles. Sims got two hits and Adams and Jim Risley each got one safety.

In the second game, Jim Moore of the Cubs went all the way and allowed the Yankees only four hits and struck out 10 batters and did not give up a single base on balls. Charles Lewis pitched for the Yankees and also only gave up four hits but he issued eight bases on balls. He struck out 12. The Cubs scored one run in the third, two in the fifth and three in the sixth. The Yankees got solo runs in each of the first third and sixth innings. Moore led the Cubs with two hits and Donnie Mooring and David Taylor got one each. For the Yankees, Walter Reece got two hits and Randolph Weather-ton and Benny Reece got one each.

Monday night's game between the Cubs and Giants was a real scoring battle. The Giants got four runs in the first, five in the second, three in the fourth and one in the fifth. The Cubs gathered seven runs in each of the first and second innings, four in the third and two in the fifth. The Cubs got 12 hits including three by Jim Moore, two each by Mike Tomlinson, Donnie Mooring, Charles Deyhle and Clyde Helton and one by John Hermesmeyer. The Giants got 13 hits including three each by Steve Adams and Steve Merchant, two each by Risley and Jimmy Elliott and one each by James Shadle, Bobby Sims and Ronnie Ketchum. Adams had two home runs and a double. Merchant and Sims did the pitching for the Giants and Moore and Mooring divided pitching chores for the Cubs.

In the second game Monday night, the Yankees played errorless ball in outclassing the White Sox, 8 to 0. Lethander Benny Reece and Charles Lewis combined to limit the Sox to only one hit, a single by Scooter Tarver in the first inning. The Yankees took advantage of numerous fielding lapses by the Sox and scored their eight runs on only four hits. They picked up two runs in the first inning, four in the second and two in the fourth. Benny Reece got a triple and the other hits were singles, one each by Walter Reece, Larry Weather-ton and Dwight Williams. Rippetoe started for the White Sox, was relieved by Steve Land in the second and Land went out in favor of Tarver in the fifth.

Wheat Premiums And Discounts

A change has been made for 1963 in the method of computing premiums and discounts applying to Government Loans on hard wheat. The change is to make joint use of sedimentation and protein tests in computing premiums and discounts for hard wheats of red winter, red spring, and white classes.

To arrive at the best wheat baking value determination possible, the sedimentation value—used exclusively for 1962-crop loans—now is being combined with the older protein test. This action will more nearly reflect the wheat's commercial bread baking quality. The combination of the two tests is supported by trade interests.

Respective premium and discount values resulting from the tests will be combined. For instance, if wheat has a sedimentation value of 51-52 and a protein content of 10.5-10.9 percent, the sedimentation premium value will be plus 5 cents, while the protein discount will be a minus 1 cent, so that the combined value will be a premium of 5 cents minus 1 cent, or 4 cents a bushel.

Sedimentation and protein premiums and discounts for the 1963-crop loans established for wheat (excluding the undesirable varieties) range from plus 12 cents per bushel for a sedimentation value of 65 and above, to minus 9 cents per bushel for a value of 21 and below; and plus 12 cents per bushel for a protein content of 17.5 percent and above, to a minus 4 cents per bushel for 9.4 percent and below.

In 1963 Donley County producers planting within their allotments are eligible for $1.79 a bushel wheat price support. Diversion payments and added support of 18 cents a bushel on the normal production of planted acres within their allotments are available to growers who participate in the voluntary diversion program by diverting to an approved conserving use at least the minimum acreage under the program.

Soil Bank

All producers who have total soil bank farms were sent cards requesting information in regard to their soil bank land. If you received one of these cards, please fill out the reverse side, sign and return it to us as soon as possible.

Important Notice To Wheat Producers

If your wheat was not shown destroyed on the records in this office, you are not eligible to divert those acres. If you are uncertain as to whether your acreage that you plan to designate will qualify for diverted acres, then be sure to come to the office and check with us.
