A very small number of receipts have been issued to date and you are reminded that even though you will not need a poll tax receipt for National Elections, you will need one should there be a local or State issue come up during the year. Don't be turned away from the polls because you failed to Pay Your Poll Tax. Go by the County Tax Office today or look for one of the Jaycee booths this week end.

In the Childress contest David Mooring, Wayne Leathers, and Henry Hermesmyer placed fourth out of about 25 teams entered. David Mooring tied for second high point individual in the contest. He had 215 points out of a total possible score of 250. These boys were all outstanding in these two contests.

Mr. Gooch will assume his duties here on February 1. He is a 1962 graduate of Oklahoma State University having majored in Animal Husbandry there. He served as an agent in training in Wheeler and Moore counties before becoming assistant agent in Harrison County at Marshall, Texas where he now lives.

Mr. Gooch is married and his wife, Bonnie, is a teacher in the Marshall, Texas school system. She, too, is a graduate of Oklahoma State University where she majored in Education.

POLL TAX SALES STILL BEHIND NORMAL

According to a report from the Tax Office, sales of Poll Tax receipts are still way below normal although some 200 receipts have been issued the past week. The total as of Wednesday morning was 416.

This figure is still over 600 short of the last off-year total in 1963 of 1085. The sale of Poll Tax receipts is usually lower on a year that there is no general election but in view of the eleven days left in which to purchase poll tax receipts, the situation is worse than deplorable. It simply means that over 600 people should get busy right now and get their poll tax receipt for there could be many important issues that could come up and such a few voters could swing an election in spite of the wishes of the public as a whole.

The Jaycees will have Poll Tax booths to issue receipts this week end in addition to the regular hours they may be purchased at the County Tax Office.

Mike McCully, county coordinator of Civil Defense, is urging all persons to pre-register if interested in enrolling in the First Aid Courses to begin here next week. You may register at Tunnell Pharmacy, the local ASC office, or the Post Office. Registration fee is $1.

The study will consist of four courses to run consecutively and will include Standard First Aid, Basic Civil Defense First Aid, Advanced First Aid, and Medical Self Help. For each course completed the individual will be issued a regular Red Cross card.

Courses will be taught by Mrs. Lucille Watson. "Mrs. Watson is one of the more noted instructors and is in great demand so we are indeed fortunate to be able to secure her services," stated McCully.

This series of First Aid Courses is being sponsored by the Clarendon Civil Defense Unit. The Amarillo Emergency Service will be here Monday night to assist in the organization of classes.

These First Aid courses will be beneficial to every individual whether a housewife, business man, student, farmer, rancher or otherwise. If possible register at one of the three locations so that adequate arrangements can be made to accommodate all who want to take the course.

Locals Hold Out For Change In Proposed Greenbelt Legislation Acceptable To Both Groups

Local Jaycees Observe National JC Week

The Clarendon Jaycees, in connection with other Jaycee clubs across the nation, are observing national Junior Chamber of Commerce Week this week. Highlight of the celebration will be the Area I Convention in Amarillo Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The week celebrates the founding of the Junior Chamber in 1915 when Henry Geissenbier saw a need for a young men's civic group and organized the first chapter. The Clarendon Jaycees were formed in 1961 and since that time have been recognized as one of the two outstanding Jaycee clubs in Texas, the other being the large Houston club.

Hommel was named the outstanding club president of the state at the national convention in Dallas last year and the club received first place award at both the state and national conventions for their famed "Toys for Tots" drive.

Several members plan to attend Pampa's Jaycee Week banquet and a majority will attend the convention.

David McAnear will show 2 Angus steers under Clarendon FFA Monday, January 25th.

Last week the Donley County Farm Bureau passed a resolution opposing a requested legislative change in the law creating the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority which would permit the Authority to acquire and develop underground water and water rights.

The Authority published notice of their request in the Donley County Leader on December 24th.

Maurice Risley, President of the Donley County Farm Bureau, Billie Christal, C. E. Bairfield and J. Gould attended a meeting of Greenbelt directors last Thursday night to voice their opposition and also learn more of the intentions of the Greenbelt in regard to the legislation. Risley and Luther Butler met with Senator Andy Rogers in Childress Friday morning at which time they were informed by Rogers that he would investigate the possibility of changing the wording in the legislation whereby it would be acceptable to both groups and that he would talk the situation over with them both before any legislation is introduced.

"We are certainly not trying to block the Greenbelt Project regarding surface water in any way but we do want to protect our underground water rights which could be effected in future years to come", Risley stated.

When informed of the opposition to the Greenbelt's request, Dr. S. H. Townsend of Childress, president of the Water Authority, stated, "I feel there is a misunderstanding."

"Directors of the Authority felt that the request was needed should the Authority have to use the water wells of Childress or Quanah or the other towns to supplement the water needs of the cities before the entire Greenbelt project is completed which is probably over four years away.

"Once the project is completed we feel that it will not be necessary to ever use any wells, but between the time the first Greenbelt water is received on June 1, 1965 and the time the project is completed and the lakes filled with water, we do not know what we will need.

"Engineers state that once the project is completed, the Greenbelt will be able to provide two and a third times the water needed by the towns involved in the year 2010. That would indicate we have no plans to develop any underground water.

"We do not have any money to develop wells of any kind and do not expect to ask the Texas Water Development Board or the people in the Authority to vote to give us any additional money.

"It is our intent to ask the legislature to give us the additional authority only to make it legal for us to produce water from the present city wells only which will be turned to us when the Greenbelt delivers water to the cities should that water ever be needed", said Dr. Townsend.

News from CJC

THIS AND THAT

Bad news again from the basketball circuit, though not as bad as it might seem on the surface. The game with new Mexico Military Institute was a much better game than the score indicated. With five minutes to go in the game there was only 6 points difference in the score. Then the fourth Bulldog starter fouled off. After that, the Broncs pulled ahead to beat the Bulldogs 89-64. This was the Bulldog's fourth consecutive loss with no wins. Walter Roberson was high point man for the Bulldogs with 15 points. Don Campbell and Bill Troser ran close seconds with 14 each. Better luck on the 26th, boys, when we entertain Frank Phillips College here. Let's have that first conference victory.

This has been dead week on the Hill. Everyone has been trying to cram that extra little amount of information, which may make it possible to pass the finals coming up Monday and Tuesday. I've noticed a few of the boys walking around with blood-shot eyes from studying so late-late-late into the night.

I've been very busy myself this week and I have to apologize for not having heard any good jokes. However, I ran across something that might be of interest to the teen-age girls. It was published recently in the New Hampshire Enterprise. The following are the rules of conduct which governed the behavior of girls at Mount Holyoke College back in its early days:

"Exercise—Every member of this school shall walk at least a mile every day, unless an earthquake or some other calamity prevents."

"No cosmetics, perfumeries or fancy soap will be allowed on the premises."

"No member of this school is expected to have any male acquaintances unless they are retired missionaries or agents of some benevolent society."

"No member of this institution shall tarry before the mirror more than three consecutive minutes."

So you see, girls, you really haven't got it so bad!

LIBRARY NOTES
EDITH BARNES

A memorial gift has been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Barcus Antrobus.

January 14 was the birthday of one of the truly outstanding men of our time, Dr. Albert Schweitzer. In fact he has been called "the greatest man on earth."

There are six books about him in the library. Now would be a good time to re-read some or all of them. All of them except probably one are perfect to be read to your youngsters. Those in their teens can of course read them themselves.

Here are a few highlights of his life: He promised God that if He would let him go to school, study, and do the things he wanted to do until he was 30 he would devote the rest of his life to helping God's Children.

Long before he was thirty he had Ph.D. degrees in theology, music and philosophy. He was a world famous organist, theologian, philosopher, authority on Bach, organ builder to name a few, but at 30 he turned his back on all this to start out from scratch to get his degree in medicine. When he finished, he and his wife, who was a nurse, picked one of the most inaccessible and dangerous spots in the world for their hospital, Lambarene in Africa right near the Equator.

A recent book has criticized some of his medical methods. A Pygmy trying to detract from a Giant! He might use his time to start a general housecleaning much nearer home say the conditions in the county hospital at Houston as described in "The Hospital" by Jan de Hartog for starters.

Doctor Schweitzer can use your help. Among other things he used to make concert tours playing the organ to raise money for the hospital.

Quoting from the Amarillo Daily News: "...we can help. Medicine, roads, bridges, trucks and housing are only a few of the requirements to carry on this wonderful work in the wilderness. Led by this Godly man who has given his long life that others may live, this admirable effort has caught the attention of an admiring world. But these people in that stoull underdeveloped land; as recent events have shown, need more than medicine. Then need to know humanity to man and how to get along with each other. ... There is still much to be done and no one is doing quite so much on the spot, it seems, as Doctor Albert Schweitzer, missionary and man of God extraordinary."

A memorial gift has been given to the library to be dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Marvin Whitfield.

Our good friend, Tom Henry Miller, recently received a large roll of magazines from far away Bombay, India. The title of the publication was Fellowship, edited by Mrs. K. S. Kothavala, and owned by an organization called the Fellowship of Physically Handicapped. Tom Henry does not know the name of the kind person who sent them to him, but supposes some fellow handicapped person was so kind... To the first stamp collector to send Uncle Zeb his request we will give the stamps from the package. This column is glad to use some of the material from the magazines. As the following:

FRIENDSHIP
If you walk as a friend you will find a friend wherever you choose to fare;
If you go with mirth to a far strange land you will find that mirth is there,
For the strangest part of this old queer world is that like will join like;
And who walks with love for his fellowman, an answering love will strike....

"What are called men's calamities are God's best blessings, for they are the means through which our characters are tempered for service and made into singing blades."

In one issue the editor wrote a black framed memorial in tribute to the late Prime Minister Nehru. It was written in June 1964 soon after his death. Even in Mr. Nehru's weakened condition he had just visited their building for the physically handicapped which had been built by his help. The editor speaks of his death as the saddest day in the history of India and closes the tribute with these words; "No great man lives in vain. The history of the world is but the biography of great men", said Carlyle... "The history of the world will indeed be richer because Nehru lived and guided the destiny of India for a generation".

The following has been our own experience. So we took a borrowed thought and put it into typical Uncle Zeb's verse...
I always keep my appointments-
It would grieve me to be late....
I always reach the point on time-
And I just sit and wait....

Last week Ralph Carson of Herring, Illinois ordered our book and along with his dollar contributed this gem. "The lawyer's wife called him Necessity, because Necessity knows no law." ... According to Mr. Carson; "It looks like women are here to stay." ... Thanks Ralph for the Buck and the To Boot.

AG SCIENTIST PIONEERS LIGHT STUDY
A young scientist at a nearby agricultural experiment station is pioneering the study of an almost unexplored element of commercial crop production—light. Thirty-year-old J. W. Stansel, an agronomist at Texas A&M University's Rice-Pasture Research and Extension Center, began studying the effect of light on rice in 1961. He believes other agricultural researchers will be more concerned with light in the future. "As problems of soil fertility and moisture control are solved," Stansel said, "the effect of light on production will become more important." So far, Stansel has learned that the combination of the cloudy, Gulf Coast conditions and heavy nitrogen fertilization can sometimes cut yields of present rice varieties.

THE GREATEST CEREMONY OF ALL

Americans traditionally reject ceremony in public matters of State. It is a sentiment deeply ingrained in our people, part of the historic rejection of formal European ways when our Nation was being forged two centuries ago. However, once every four years the people of the United States treat themselves to the great public ceremony of a Presidential Inaugural, installing with pomp and parade and prayer the man elected by the people to direct the Nation's affairs in the ensuing four years.

The marvels of television and radio now make it possible for all Americans to share the experience of this occasion, to feel with those citizens privileged to be in Washington for the event the excitement and inspiration as our President is sworn in and celebrated. On this day as on no other, the blessed greatness of our governmental form is symbolized and rededicated.

With officials of the three branches of the Government flanking the President, the huge Capitol Plaza thronged by scores of thousands of citizens, and millions upon millions more attending the ceremony via television and radio in homes and business places across the country, the root strength of the Republic is emphasized by the President's oath-taking. For the commitment he takes to serve the people, there in the shadow of the magnificent Capitol building topped by its statue of freedom is the same commitment other men accept in the Congress, the capitols of States, the court houses and city halls throughout the land, wherever men have been elected by their fellow citizens to serve in positions of public trust and responsibility.

As the Constitution urescribes, the President will say, "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States." Let no enemy of our system believe that these words are mere formality; they are sanctified for the people as for the Presidents who say them. The armor of the United States is its Constitution. The armor is welded by its guarantee that free men shall freely choose their leaders. For this reason, Inauguration Day is as much a day on which the American people honor themselves and their forefathers as it is a day on which we honor a President.

Not a minute's walk from my office is the intersection of New Jersey Avenue and C Street, S.E. From a house at this intersection, on March 4, 1801, Thomas Jefferson walked the two blocks to the new Capitol building to be administered the oath. Jefferson's 1801 inaugural was the first held in Washington. His entrance to the Capitol was punctuated by "a discharge of artillery." Addressing the Congress and the crowded House gallery, Jefferson said:

"I know indeed, that some honest men fear that a republican government can not be strong, that this Government is not strong enough; but would the honest patriot in the full tide of successful experiment, abandon a government which has so far kept us free and firm on the theoretic and visionary fear that this Government, the world's best hope, may by possibility want energy to preserve itself? I trust not. I believe this, on the contrary, the strongest government on earth. I believe it is the only one where every man, at the call of the law, would fly the standard of the law, and would meet invasion of the public order as his own personal concern. Sometimes it is said that man can not be trusted with the government of himself. Can he, then, be trusted with the government of others? Or have we found angels in the forms of kings to govern him? Let history answer this question."

History has answered Thomas Jefferson's question. History also will note that following the 1965

Inaugural ceremony, as on March 4, 1801, "the remainder of the day was devoted to festivity; and at night there was a pretty general illumination."

Recent visitors to the Nation's Capital were Mr. Charles High of Amarillo, and Mr. Patrick H. Nabers of Childress.

PUZZLE ENTHUSIASTS RECEIVE SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chase of Borger were pleasantly surprised recently when while working a crossword puzzle from the National Observer they were returned in thought to this area. In the vertical column a blank space appeared with the word Lake, Texas. To correctly fill the blank space the word Lelia was supplied to read Lelia Lake, Texas. It is interesting to note that one never knows the impact left by even a small community such as Lelia Lake or by an individual.

Mr. Chase is a former Clarendon resident. We appreciate their thoughtfulness in sending us this bit of information.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Surprises come fast and furious on the political scene in Austin.

First surprise of the new year was the resignation of veteran Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson.

Then came an even greater one. Just as the Legislature was about to open and everything was in readiness under the old management ... presently confronted with problems both old and new... Gov. John Connally named House Speaker Byron Tunnell to fill Thompson's old post.

Tunnell, once the battling mayor of Amarillo and for more than 30 years a scrapper on the Railroad Commission, has been ill for many months. Only recently he had been moved from an Austin Hospital to his home in Amarillo. He had two years yet to serve.

Tunnell is an East Texan. He's the first person from the East Texas oil area to serve on the Railroad Commission in 23 years. He was just beginning his third term as legislator from the Tyler-Kilgore region and was expected to preside for a second term as House Speaker.

Immediately upon learning of Tunnell's appointment, Rep. Ben Barnes of De Leon, Tunnell's first lieutenant during the 1963 session, began contacting Legislators about the speakership. Barnes already has announced as a candidate for Speaker of the 1967 session.

Simultaneous with Barnes' race for the speakership were similar activities by other House members, either openly or behind the scenes.

This list included Henry C. Grover of Houston, Jack Woods of Waco, Paul Haring of Goliad, George Richardson of Fort Worth and Wilson Foreman of Austin.

There were several potential candidates.

LONG SESSION — Most observers feel the 59th session may run through the summer. Certainly it will dominate the 1965 Texas political scene.

These results seem likely:

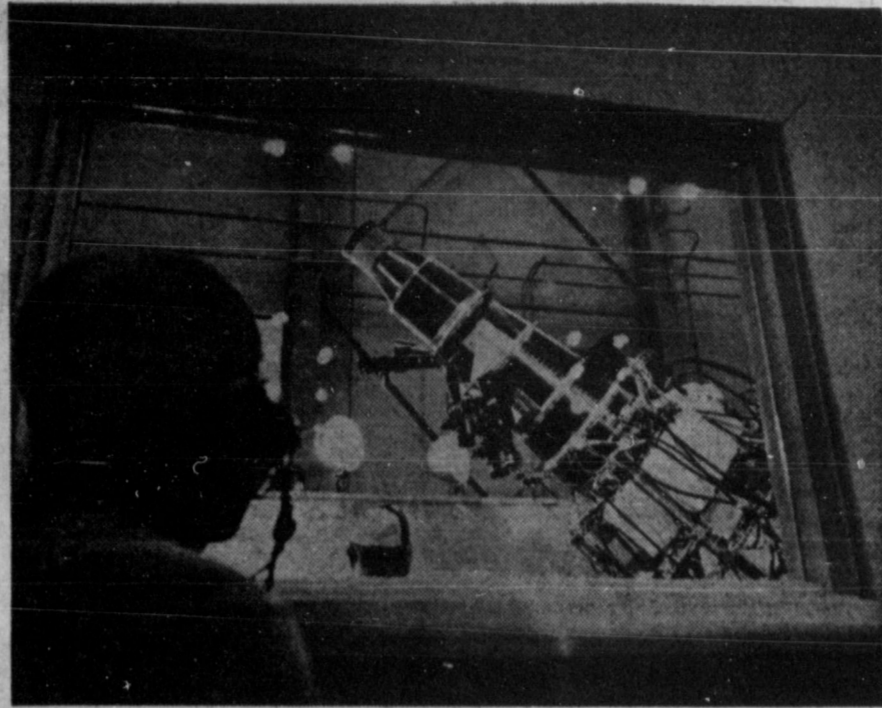

... Lawmakers will spend a record amount of money, much of it to uplift higher education. Budget proposals of both Governor Connally and the Legislative Budget Board awaited Senators and Representatives at their capitol desks.

... School teachers will get the $45 a month pay raise they are asking. But they will have to figure out who is going to foot the bill.

... A few more exemptions are going to be removed from the state sales tax. Just enough to balance the budget, but not enough to hurt much.

... Commission on Higher Education will be reorganized along lines recommended by Governor Connally. But the successor agency may not get all the power Connally would like it to have.

... Stormy hearings will be held over legalized horse race betting and sale of liquor by the drink. Both proposals may move farther than they ever have before. Maybe all the way.

... A congressional reapportionment bill eventually will be adopted. However, it's difficult to see any agreement on legislative redistricting.

Other key issues which will occupy the 59th Legislature are statewide water planning and financing, oil and gas tract pooling, mental health and tuberculosis programs, criminal code revision, judicial redistricting, state property tax repeal, extension of the medical care for the aged program as authorized by constitutional amendment voted on November 3, equal rights for women, gasoline tax exemptions for municipal bus lines, and enlargement of state tourist and industrial attraction programs.

GARY BEING ACTIVATED — Texas Educational Foundation selected Dr. Oscar J. Baker, superintendent of schools at Dickinson, as director of new Camp Gary Training Center near San Marcos.

First group of 37 teachers will arrive at the war-on-poverty training base by February 1. Then the first 300 students are due in March.

Base eventually will enroll 2,000 trainees in 45 vocational programs and basic education.

COURT SPEAKS—Third Court of Civil Appeals handed oyster fishermen another setback in their suit to keep shell dredgers a long way from live oyster reefs. Court agreed Austin trial court was justified in dismissing suit. This since law did not provide for appeal from decision of Parks and Wildlife Commission which permitted dredgers to operate within 300 feet of reefs (old limit was 1,500 feet).

State Supreme Court invalidated City of La Porte annexation ordinance taking in 12 square miles of land including city of Seabrook and proposed town of Bayshore, but held La Porte home rule charter constitutional.

Court of Criminal Appeals, which overturned first conviction of former Houston Probate Judge Clem McClelland for felony conversion, upheld the second. Court also affirmed bribery conviction of a Houstonian involved in the same case.

BUILDING COMMISSION SWITCH — Governor Connally has yet to take a position on the Texas Research League's recommendation that he turn his job as a member of the State Building Commission to someone else.

But the other two commissioners have indicated they wouldn't mind giving up one job too many.

Commission administrators State building construction and operation. This includes the State Capitol and the six buildings now in the Capitol complex. Also, others in Austin and over the State. Recently they recommended construction of another multi-million dollar State office building. Also a new mansion for the Governor.

But the Governor did not support the recommendation he helped make when he revealed his 1966-67 budget proposal.

League suggested that the Commission—now composed of the Governor, Attorney General and chairman of the Board of Control—be made over and instead be headed by three citizens appointed by the Governor and approved by the Senate.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, who was relieved of some 16 extra board positions by an act of the 1963 Legislature, has indicated he'd be glad to give up another job that takes time from his big job as the State's attorney. Board of Control Chairman Charlie Coats of Chappell Hill says he'll do whatever the Legislature wants. But Connally's staff says the Governor hasn't made up his mind.

HIGHWAY RECORD — Before the end of 1965, Texas will have 1,623 miles of super roads. Total interstate highway system designated for Texas is 3,025 miles.

California, heretofore the leader, has a designated interstate system of 2,173 miles. Interstate construction in Texas costs $610,000 a mile, compared with about $1,000,000 nationwide.

WATER CHANGES SOUGHT—Texas Research League called for a switch in water planning functions from the Water Commission to the Water Development Board.

League sees Commission's role as a water rights' administration agency.

Initial decisions on water supplies needed for the next century must be made within six years to assure Texas' continued growth and prosperity. So states the League in the first of a series of four reports following its two-year study.

League said the state must be prepared to finance "a reasonable share" of some $4,000,000,000 in water development projects during the rest of this century. It recommends broadening the purposes for which state water development funds can be invested.

COMMISSION "STUCK" WITH OIL — Railroad Commission is having a difficult time getting rid of more than 107,000 barrels of oil, impounded because of illegal production. Some of it has been tied up since 1938.

About 70,000 barrels of this oil has been stored in Beacon Tanks in East Texas for close to 30 years. State can't find a buyer for it because Federal law prohibits the sale of illegal oil into interstate commerce, says Fred Young, Attorney for the Commission.

Young said the counties have received some benefits from the Commission's problem. When a well is shut down on an illegal production order, oil at the well is impounded in tanks at the well site. When oil operators want to use their tanks, the Railroad Commission will let them give the impounded oil to counties for road construction free.

from County ASCS Committee

1965 COTTON PROGRAM

Domestic cotton allotments, generally speaking, will be 65 per cent of the regular farm allotment. However, all small farms with a regular allotment of 15.0 acres to 23.1 acres will be given 15.0 acres as the domestic allotment, and all farms with a regular allotment of 15.0 or less will have the same acreage as the domestic allotment.

The domestic allotment payment rate for 1965 will be 4.35 cents per pound. The 1964 rate was 3.5 cents.

There is no automatic participation in this year's program. Sign-up period will run concurrently with the feed grain sign-up, February 8 through March 26, 1965.

You will receive your domestic allotment and payment rate before the sign-up begins.

1964 WOOL PROGRAM

January 31, 1965 is the final date for filing an application for incentive wool payment on shorn wool and unshorn lambs sold during 1964. If you sold any wool or unshorn lambs before December 31, you are urged to file an application for payment before January 31.

1965 FEED GRAIN PROGRAM

The notices of base acreage, yields, and payment rates under this program were mailed to producers on Monday of this week. The 1965 program is substantially the same as 1964. The diversion payment and the total price support of $2.00 per cwt. will be the same; however, a larger portion of the price support will be in the payment form. The price support payment of $0.35 and the basic loan rate is $1.65 per cwt. as compared to the 1964 rates of $0.23 and $1.77.

The sign-up period will begin February 8 and continue through March 26.

RELEASE AND REAPPORTIONMENT

March 3 is the final date to release cotton allotments. If you do not intend to plant all of your allotment, it would be to your advantage to release it to the County Committee to be reapportioned to other farmers in Donley County.

We are now taking requests for increase in cotton allotments from the released acreage. The final date to file this application is also March 3, 1965.

1964 PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAMS

You must file an "Application for Price Support" to be eligible for any type of 1964 CCC Grain Loan before January 31, 1965.

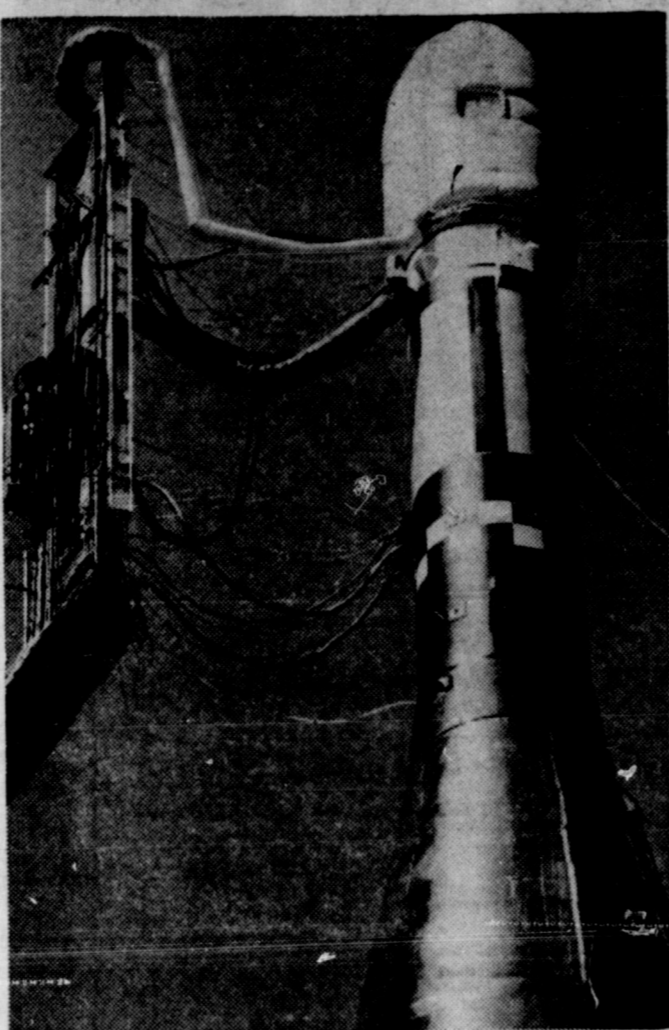

FIVE DIE IN COUNTY DURING 1964 FROM TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

There are five tombstones in Donley County that were erected ahead of schedule in 1964. The stones mark the graves of persons who died in traffic accidents on rural highways in the county during the year.

But the suffering wasn't confined to those who were killed. The Department of Public Safety recorded 54 mishaps on rural highways in the county during 1964. Those accidents injured 36 persons and they spent countless days in the hospitals. Property damage from these accidents amounted to $73,199.00.

During December there were 11 accidents on rural highways in the county, according to Sergeant J. W. Wilson, Highway Patrol supervisor in this area.

These crashes resulted in one death, ten persons injured and an estimated property damage loss of $12,660.00.

ON THE NOSE of this Atlas-Agena launch vehicle is the Mariner IV spacecraft under a cooling blanket to keep its temperature even before it was launched Nov. 28. Mariner IV is winging its way on the first leg of its 325-million-mile journey to Mars. Launched by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, it represents the nation's most difficult mission to date.

Texas drivers have killed more people during 1964 than any other year in history. Unofficial figures indicate the Texas death toll may have reached 3,000 during 1964, but the final tabulation will not be completed until March 15.

Meanwhile, officials are hopeful that motorists will heed warnings and drive with greater care during 1965 and give special consideration to the hazards of driving during the winter months ahead.

COTTON CLASSING OFFICE RELEASES FINAL REPORT OF SEASON

The following report was released by K. E. Voelkel, Memphis Cotton Classing Office, and will be the last report issued for the current season.

Quality of cotton classed for growers last week continued to reflect lower grades, shorter staple lengths, and lower micronaire readings. About 17,000 samples were classed during the week bringing the season total to 164,000. Last season of the same date 208,000 samples had been classed.

White grades during the week decreased 12 percent; Light Spotted to 43 percent; Spotted to 38 percent; and 6 percent graded Tinged and Yellow Stained. One percent were below grade. The predominant grade was Strict Low Middling Spotted. The amount of cotton reduced in grade because of Bark increased to 7 percent. This indicated that the method of harvesting played a large part in the lower quality. Staple lengths during the week ranged from 13/16 inch to 1-1/32 inches. Wasty staple showed an increase from 6 percent to 11 percent, largest amount of the season.

Moving of cotton into trade channels continued active bringing prices ranging from 27.35 to 26. Prices were based on uncompressed, mixed lots in warehouses. Cottonseed prices were $48 and $49 per ton at gin points.

JAYCEE BASKETBALL TEAM WINS 2 IN A ROW

The Jaycee Basketball team won over the Panhandle Jaycees Monday night by a score of 55 to 51 to make it two wins and no losses for the local team. The Jaycees defeated the Canyon club by a score of 45 to 20 at Canyon in their first game. The Jaycees will meet Canyon again Monday week in a return match.

Cancer Society Films Available For Local Showing

Joe Goldston, O.D., 1965 Crusade Chairman for Donley County of the American Cancer Society, has announced that films on cancer are available to local clubs and organizations interested in having a program on America's number two killer disease.

Films available include "Breast Self Examination" which shows the simple technique of checking for unusual lumps or thickening in the breast, "Time and Two Women" which deals with uterine cancer, and "Life Story", a film about the diagnosis of cancer of the colon. "Man Alive", a cartoon feature, is a general film showing Cancer's Seven Danger Signals. "Smoking and You", an adult film shows the relationship between smoking and various lung diseases including cancer.

"We would also be glad to show adults the films the Cancer Society has produced to educate students about the hazards of smoking. We know the parents would like to know what their children are being taught about smoking and health," said Doctor Goldston.

Groups who wish to schedule a Cancer Society film should contact Doctor Joe Goldston, 107 W. 2nd, Clarendon, Texas.

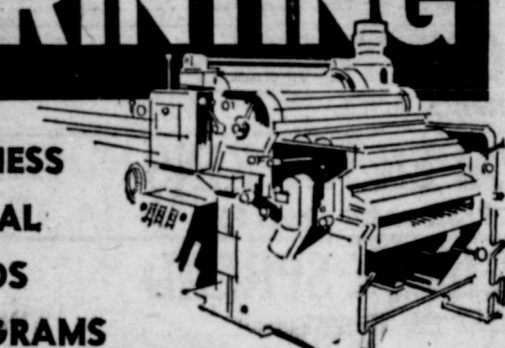

LIONS CLUB NEWS

Glenn Hatfield, engineer of Amarillo, was a guest of M. B. Mitchell at the regular Tuesday luncheon of the club.

Dr. C. E. Deyhle presented the program for the occasion. His talk concerned future possible use of the old red School building as a combined unit for community use instead of wrecking the building. He stated that engineers had reported the building quite sound and usable in many ways. He outlined a future projection of what could be done with the building and stated that the project was now being considered by the school board, City of Clarendon, Jaycees and other interested citizens.
