Did you happen to see her... walk up to her... ask her to marry you... call in the minister... right on the spot?

Certainly Not

Boston-Wagner III Wedding Solemnized In Church Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Vera Dana Boston and Theodore Joy Wagner III was solemnized in a ceremony read Saturday afternoon, June 19th, in St. Andrews Episcopal Church, Amarillo, Texas. The Rev. James L. Tucker and the Rev. H. Evans Moreland officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Boston of Amarillo and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Noland of Clarendon. Mr. Wagner is the son of Mrs. Theodore Joy Wagner, Jr. of Amarillo and the late Mr. Wagner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of ivory English net and re-embroidered Alencon lace over peau de soie. The modified empire bodice was fashioned with brief sleeves and an oval neckline traced in lace scallops. A band of silk peau de soie accented the slim waistline. Appliques of lace extended down the sides of the controlled skirt. A train of English net and lace swept to chapel length. Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion was secured to a calot of beaded lace and she carried a Grecian bouquet of lilies of the valley and fleur d'amour.

Bridal attendants included Miss Lynn Blackburn, Mrs. Glen Brosier, Miss Lyn Cowan, Miss Jeanne Johnson, and Mrs. Donnie Allee, all of Amarillo; Miss Pamela White of Minneapolis, Minn.; Miss Leigh Collier of Americus, Ga.; and Miss Elizabeth Bridgforth of Forrest City, Ark. They wore gowns of azure blue or gandy over taffeta and carried bouquets of blue cornflowers.

Attending the groom were Kenneth Langdon Wagner, Thomas Dehon Wagner, Ken Greene, aid, Stanley Marsh III, Michael Charles Marsh, Robert William Boston, Jr., Glen Howard Brosier, and Tom Fariss Marsh.

Flower girls were Sally Brosier and Libby Brosier. Master Jenks Boston was ring bearer.

Reception guests were received at Amarillo Country Club.

Following a wedding trip to Ravello, Italy, and other European cities, the couple will be at home in New York City. They plan to continue their studies at Columbia this fall.

Jeffreys-Roland Vows Read

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Bill Bridges, and among her attendants was her aunt, Mrs. Bill Bridges. Jo Karen Bridges was flower girl. The couple will be at home in Farmington, New Mexico after June 23rd.

Mrs. Theodore Joy Wagner-nee Vera Dana Boston

In keeping with tradition the bride carried a linen handkerchief carried by her mother and grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Bridges, at their weddings and which had been made by her great great grandmother, Mrs. Dorothea Rains. She wore a diamond lavalere given to her great grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Rains by her late husband on their wedding day in 1897.

Mrs. Gus Svenson and Michael of Amarillo are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson, this week.

Number of registered voters in Texas dropped nearly a million from last year's record breaking number, according to figures released by Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Most of the decrease apparently came in the 50,000 to 150,000 cities, with the largest metropolitan areas and rural counties holding fairly steady. Number of issued poll tax receipts and exemptions dropped from 2,892,670 for voting in the 1964 presidential elections to 1,970,331 for this off-year.

The five most populous counties—Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant and El Paso—actually increased their percentage of the registered vote by three points. They hold 44 per cent of this year's poll tax receipts.

However, this is not a specific indicator of their dominance over rural areas, since in cities of less than 10,000, elderly voters do not have to claim their exemption.

This year only 3,314 signed up for "free" poll tax receipts qualifying them to vote in elections for federal officials. But there are no federal officials slated for ballots this year. A total of 84,297 of these "poll tax-not paid" certificates were issued in 1962, first year they were available for presidential, vice presidential and congressional balloting.

As voting dates for constitutional amendments near, it is apparent that most Texans of voting age will be able to do no more than look and hope, for a lack of a poll tax receipt.

INSURANCE RATES GOING UP — State Board of Insurance Chairman Hunter McLean jolted auto owners with more bad news: their insurance premiums are going up at least 12 percent. Board meets officially on June 22 to set rates on basis of experience by areas. However, McLean already has served notice that there is no doubt rising motor accidents will make a stiff rate hike mandatory. There were 13 percent more accidents last year than in 1963.

Rates dropped 1.2 percent last year for the total insurance field, but should have gone up, McLean said. Auto liability insurance, although sometimes criticized as high priced, actually has cost companies more than $1,000,000,000 during the last 10 years, he maintained.

Premiums vary in 26 rating territories of the state according to their accident records the previous year.

BOUNDARY AGREED ON — Confederates have agreed on location of the boundary lines between Texas and Louisiana, long in dispute, reports Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler.

Next step will be appointment of a boundary commission by governors of the states to approve the new line and submit it to their legislature for concurrence. Congress also will have to ratify the line.

Dispute has involved some valuable mineral lands. Louisiana claimed ownership to the west bank of the Sabine River and Sabine Lake into the Gulf of Mexico. Texas claimed its line extended to the middle of the river and lake.

MIGRANT AID PUSHED — Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity is seeking approval of a $5,500,000 grant of federal "War on Poverty" funds for seven programs to help Texas migrant workers. If the grant is approved, additional state funds and staff services will bring the total cost of the program to some $6,000,000, an average of about $46 for each of the estimated 128,000 Texans who migrate to do seasonal agricultural work.

Included in the programs would be an effort to retrain about 200 South Texas migrants in operation of farm machinery and irrigation control to relocate them for permanent jobs in West Texas, where the end of the bracero program has created a labor shortage.

Most of the money would be used for educational programs both for the children of migrant families and their parents, who would be taught homemaking and vocational trades. Also planned are rest stops where they can stop to cook meals, use sanitary facilities and spend the night while traveling across the state, and regional centers to test and screen migrants for tuberculosis and hospitalizable positive cases.

COURT SPEAKS — District Judge Herman Jones of Austin postponed until July 15 final arguments in a major test case over the Railroad Commission's power to require natural gas purchasers to extend pipelines to all producers in a field.

Rio Grande Valley Gas Company appealed a commission order to join its pipeline to a well owned by Russell Maguire of Dallas in West Port Isabel Field, Cameron County. Company maintains there is no procedure to reach agreement on price of gas. Jones, after a three-day hearing, gave attorneys for both sides time to file more briefs.

Supreme Court will hear the case involving authority of Rice University trustees to disregard racial and tuition restrictions imposed by the institution's founder, William Marsh Rice, in 1891.

Supreme Court refused to consider an appeal by 39 employees of a Weslaco television station, formerly owned by President Johnson's family, seeking payment from a profit-sharing plan.

Court of Criminal Appeals denied rehearing sought by former Pasadena Mayor Sam Hoover convicted as an accomplice in a torture-robbery case. Court earlier had upheld a 60-year prison sentence given Hoover, 55, described in trial as "mastermind" of the March 11, 1964, robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Mair J. Schepps in Houston.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Court-appointed defense lawyers are entitled to no more than $10 per case on pleas of guilty before the court, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in an opinion requested by Waller County Atty. C. W. Karisch of Hempstead. Carr said $25 a day payments are allowed only where cases go to actual trial.

Bread is bread, no matter what the baker labels it, and a loaf must weigh at least one pound, Carr told Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. White had asked if the word "bread" on labels and substitution of such phrases as "party slices", "rye slices" or similar terms exempt a product from standard requirements.

COTTON CONFERENCES — Agriculture Commissioner White is planning state conferences on the national cotton program for 1966.

White says cotton still is the No. 1 state crop and drastic cutbacks could hurt the agricultural economy. He points out that cotton production puts $800,000,000 a year in the pockets of growers and that the industry generates jobs and economic activity amounting to $5,600,000,000 a year in Texas.

Petitions have been prepared to file against all people in the City of Clarendon and in the Clarendon Consolidated Independent School District that owe taxes on personal property and these petitions will be filed in the appropriate court during the last week in June and the forepart of July. If you are one of the delinquent taxpayers and desire not to have the suit filed against you, be sure that your personal taxes are paid before the 28th of June, 1965.

A number of petitions have been prepared for filing against owners of real property who owe delinquent taxes, and these petitions will be filed June 28, 1965. Other petitions will be prepared and filed at a later date.

Notices were mailed to almost all of the taxpayers that live within the two taxing agencies concerned. Any taxpayer who did not receive a notice should contact the offices of the taxing agencies and be sure that his taxes are paid so that no action will be taken against him. Approximately 100 taxpayers have contacted the city and the school and either paid their taxes or made arrangements to do so. No further notice or contact will be made to taxpayers of the school and city before necessary legal action is taken.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

by R. L. Gilkey, Mayor

There are several items about which we should be brought up to date. The auditors are about completed at City Hall after three days work. Although no written report has been received, the city is apparently in excellent financial shape. Two points were brought up. One, our city's indebtedness is unusually low, with a large surplus in the Interest and Sinking Fund. The Sinking Fund could pay our indebtedness for well over a year if no additional funds were added. The second item was simply to consider paving the streets in the future. Although paving is not an absolute necessity at this time, it could easily become so if our population started expanding.

The council has requested that a water meter be installed adjacent to the fire station for the sale of bulk water. This will allow for more adequate control of the sale of such water and eliminate a minor bookkeeping chore.

New meter deposits have been raised to $15 for residences and $25 for businesses. We have been losing one or two dollars on the old $10 deposit each time a transient moves away.

In the last council meeting the ad valorem tax rate for the coming year was left at the previous rate of $1.45 per $100 valuation. There were some changes, however, in the distribution of the funds; specifically:

	1964	1965
General Fund	$.65	$.91
Interest and Sinking Fund	.51	.25
Permanent Improvement Bond	.19	.19
Adair Hospital Trust	.10	.10
	$1.45	$1.45

This will allow more funds to be used now, for necessary repairs, minor improvements, and simply run the city effectively.

Did you read about Clarendon in the Article "Panhandle Cities in New Character" which appeared in the Sunday Amarillo paper? It wasn't very flattering to see us as others see us. Haven't heard much about the 4th of July Rodeo either. Have you? LETS GET BUSY.

DRILL TEAM TO SELL ICE CREAM JULY 3

Home-Made Ice Cream! This is what the Clarendon Drill Team and cheerleaders decided to sell on July 3rd. Money is needed to send the cheerleaders to training camp at Texas Tech.

At a business meeting held in the home of Christina Moore on June 18th it was decided that most people would enjoy a good serving of home-made ice cream or an ice cold Coke along with the Bar-B-Que. Arrangements have been made to set up booths on the lot next to Gillham's law office and on the Court House lawn.

Approximately 25 members attended the meeting and the "newest" yell of the pep squad is—

"I scream! You scream! We all scream for ice cream!" —Rep.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Clyde Gilbert recently were her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Plaster and son and Mr. Plaster's mother, Mrs. G. N. Plaster, also Mrs. Myers, all of Canyon.

Former Rancher And Dog Rescued From Colorado Flood

A former Clarendon and Donley County rancher climbed to safety twice before he was rescued from the flood waters of Rule Creek on a ranch 19 miles south of Las Animas, Colo.

O. L. Smith, 80, was in the house with his dog Pepper when the flood hit. The house owned by C. A. Watkins of Las Animas, was washed from its foundation.

Smith said he began searching for something to cling to. As the house floated in the treacherous waters, he spotted a tree. Breaking a window, he reached for a branch and climbed on the only thing available, hoping for something, or someone.

After six hours, he began to weaken. "Something must make itself available," he said, searching again for safety. As the surging waters continued, the house moved once again near the tree. Smith said he broke a second window and went inside. Pepper, the small dog, saw him and began tugging at his pants legs.

Once inside, Smith said he found a cover, and he and Pepper climbed to the tallest piece of furniture, hovering close together. "anything for warmth," the cattleman said.

Another five hours went by before he was rescued. A pilot in an emergency plane had seen the man in the treetop. Unable to reach him by boat or plane, a railroad car came as close as possible, and an emergency volunteer worker waded up the creek bank.

Smith was taken to a nearby hospital where he was treated and released. His safety today is credited to the stamina of the true west. "You can't keep a cowboy down," he said.

The ranch owners hope to build a new house soon. Smith's ambition, Monday was, "To live in the new house with Pepper at my side."

Smith is a brother-in-law of Bob Harvey of Clarendon and operated a cattle spread north of town, a part of which is now the Griffin ranch.
