Kenneth Vaughan, Fund Drive Chairman, is reminding everyone that next Wednesday night, May 27th, between 6 and 7:30, Little Leaguers in full uniform, accompanied by adults, will make their annual fund raising drive. Between six and seven hundred dollars will be needed this year for operation of the Little League, so we hope that you will be generous with your donations when the boys come to your door, Vaughan stated.

He is asking all boys to be at the baseball field in uniform by 5:30.

Any boys who have not been contacted or signed up for Little League play and would like to participate, should contact any of the officers or directors.

For the benefit of those who might have lost the season schedule that was published last week, we are running the complete schedule on another page of this issue of the Leader.

Plans Taking Shape For Annual Celebration

Lee Palmer, president of the Clarendon Outdoor Entertainment Association, reports all plans are beginning to shape up for the annual July Fourth Celebration to be held here July 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Work was scheduled to start this week on a new section of bleachers at the Rodeo Arena which will alleviate the seating problem at the peak performances. The new section will be connected to the west end of the south bleachers and will extend northwest to the arena fence. A new 50 foot by 70 foot dance slab is to be constructed south of the Rodeo Arena and dancing will be featured all three nights of the celebration, Palmer stated.

A pre-western week dance will be held again this year also and the exact date will be announced in the near future along with plans for the Queen Contest and Parade.

The two saddles which are awarded the top roper and top rider during the rodeo events will be given this year by The Farmers State Bank and E. O. Simmons Insurance Agency and The Donley County State Bank and Knorpp Insurance Agency. Palmer stated that best commitments were beginning to come in and a sufficient amount for the Free Barbecue July 4th should be pledged within the near future. Remember, the Barbecue will be free to everyone this year.

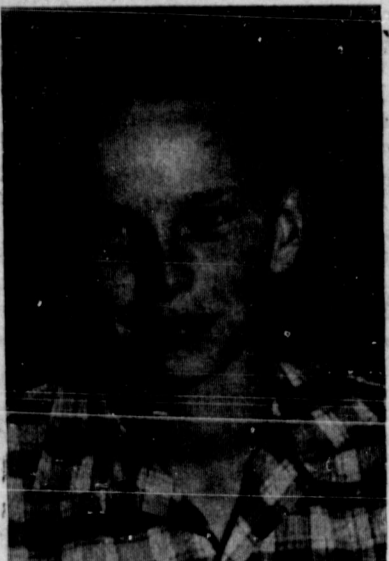

As the time for the Celebration draws nearer, the help and cooperation of everyone will be needed to put on a first class celebration, so when you are called on to do a job we hope you will take the assignment and see that it is taken care of, Palmer concluded.

Local Merchants To Observe Memorial Day Monday June 1

A report from the Chamber of Commerce indicates that all Clarendon business firms will observe Memorial Day on Monday, June 1, instead of closing on Saturday, May 30 (Memorial Day).

Memorial Day is one of the four closing dates observed by local merchants and since it falls on one of the heavy business days, all firms are scheduled to stay open on Saturday except the banks and government offices.

Jaycee Tennis Tourney To Begin Next Sunday

The Clarendon Jaycee Tennis Tourney will begin sharply at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, May 24th, at the local tennis courts. All courts will be filled with players from age 10 through 18. The winners of this tourney will qualify for the state meet to be held in Abilene July 9, 10, 11.

The opening round at 1:30 p.m. Sunday will begin with boys' singles for 18 years and under, 16 years and under, 12 years and under, and girls' singles for 12 years and under. Since there is no entry fee, all contestants must have two new tennis balls.

Brackets for the entire tourney may be picked up at John's. Interest has been high and the Jaycees wish to thank everyone who has helped in preparing for this tourney. There are 52 entries and competition should be keen.

Our only regret is that more young people did not enter this event. For this reason there will be only one division instead of the regular scheduled novice and open divisions. Players entered in the Open Division have been transferred to the Novice Division to create more competition.

The public is invited to attend any or all of these matches. All participants are urged to be on time as matches will be played on a close schedule.

ANTS ARE BECOMING NUISANCE IN HOMES

Ants are becoming a nuisance in homes and lawns in many sections of the county. These pests can be effectively controlled when recommended insecticides are used, advises Donley County Agent Flip Breedlove.

Among the more popular and effective insecticides for ant control are chlordane and dieldrin. These may be applied along window and door sills, foundation cracks, baseboards and other possible runways for the ants. Some nesting places for ants are behind walls, in closets, in furniture and other dark undisturbed places. When a nesting place is found, one of the following practices may be followed to destroy the nest.

Effective control, in most instances, depends upon locating and destroying nests and thoroughly treating the area with proper insecticides. When ants are found in the house they may be controlled by applying 2-3 percent chlordane or 0.5 percent dieldrin household sprays. These materials may also be applied with a small brush. Repeat the application as needed to maintain control of the pests.

Outside the home, apply a band of insecticidal dust or spray around the foundation wall and treat all nests found in the yards. For outside control, 10 percent chlordane, 2 percent dieldrin or 5 percent heptachlor dusts are effective. Granular formulations and sprays of these materials are also available and are convenient to use.

HOMEMAKING II

In the Child Development unit of Homemaking II, an attempt has been made to help teenagers to develop an understanding and liking for children, to develop reasons why children have differences in likes and dislikes, to understand the emotional needs and problems of children, and to plan some type of entertainment for the two to six year age group that would be enjoyable as well as educational. Earlier in the study, the Homemaking students visited on the playground and in the class rooms of the three first grade rooms. This week the first grade returned our visits during our class time and they particularly enjoyed seeing our building and department, playing games, and being refreshed.

The students of Mrs. J. R. Brandon enjoyed a circus party. They were Pam Johnston, Patricia Baker, Robert Taylor, Jo Alice Glisson, Camille Mann, Tommy Jaramillo, Jose Serna, Cheryl Shadle, Danny Monroe, Sherri Altman, Richard Benton, Cathy Hommel, Jennie Barbee, Lauri Smith, and Wayne Hardin. Mrs. Nova Mears' class enjoyed relay games on the tennis court. These were Neta Leeper, Richard Leathers, Bob Reed, Tony Hill, Andi Eads, Ricky Mills, Dwight Bennett, Calvin Burrows, Eddie Vinson, Bobby Truett, Patricia Trout, Carolyn Shaw, Don Stribling, Julie Molder, Chris Craft, and Paul Fajardo.

A Hobo Party was planned for Mrs. Velma Brown's class, but blowing dust moved this party to the college gym. Cokes, brownies, and bananas were served to Russell Baldwin, David Butler, Lin Davis, Karen Ellis, Kim Helton, Regina Knorpp, Gary Lane, Deborah McDonald, Danny Mills, Ellen Moltz, Denise Owens, Debra Robertson, Dessie Snider, and Edna Watts.

F.H.A. AND Y.H.A. TEA AND AWARDS PROGRAM

and Young Homemakers of Texas were hostesses at a tea and awards program Tuesday, May 12, with pre-freshmen and their mothers and F.H.A. mothers as guests. The refreshment table was centered with a red rose flower arrangement, which is the official flower of the F.H.A. Mrs. Harlene Phillips served the punch to the guests as they arrived and Mrs. Naomi Green and Mrs. Pearl Hermesmeier assisted with the refreshments.

During the business meeting of F.H.A., the girls who were delegates to the State Convention reported on their fun and convention news. Melissa Patterson, president of F.H.A., introduced Mrs. Peggy Maxcey, Y.H.A. award chairman. Mrs. Maxcey explained the Y.H.A. program in our community and presented Lynn Bourland with an engraved pair of pink shears in recognition of their choosing her as "Outstanding F.H.A. Girl of the Year." Jill Benson was named first alternate. Lynn will prepare a resume of her activities in chapter, school, and community to be entered in area contest at the Area I Contest in September. The State Award, in January, is a scholarship to the school of the contestant's choice. The award winner on local, area, and state level is a person planning to major in Home Economics.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY TO HOLD CORONATION

The Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church will hold their annual G.A. coronation Sunday evening, May 24th, at 7:30 p.m. at the church. The public is invited to attend.

Americans spent an average of $400 per person for food in 1963. That's less than 19 percent of their take-home pay, a record low in the United States, and it is less than any other country in the world. In 1963, Americans ate more meat, especially beef. They also consumed more chicken, more vegetables and less fruit. They ate less fish and fewer eggs, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

RULES FOR HOME SAFETY

Home Sweet Home, that supposed pillar of sanctuary, is the site of more injuries each year than our nation's highways, according to the American Medical Association.

On the average, about 26,000 Americans are accidentally killed in their homes each year and four million are injured. Most of these injuries and deaths occur through falls — the great majority among older people.

For the most part, these falls among older people occur at floor level, and in general, they are easily preventable. When you can answer Yes to the following questions, then you have set the pattern for safety proofing your home against accidents of the aging.

Do you have scatter rugs — those bright and cheerful magic carpets of death — fastened securely or provided with nonskid backing?

Do you have handrails of a proper height and strength on all stairways and steps and by the bath tub and commode?

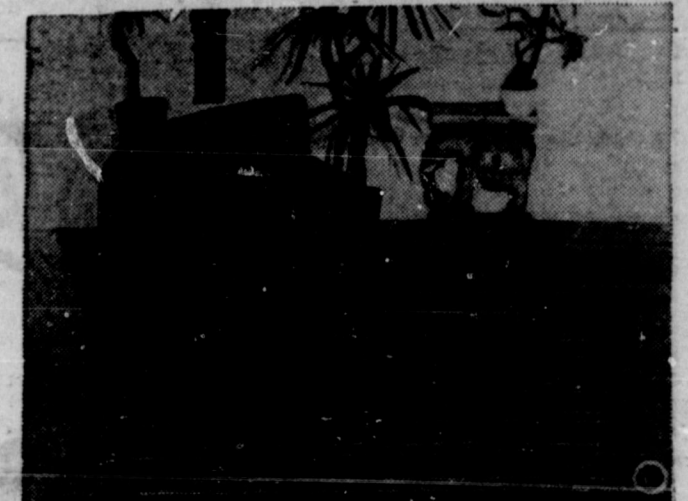

Do you have for yourself or for visiting old people a comfortable, safe, stable chair with sturdy arms?

Do you have a light switch by the bed and flashlights at all needed areas?

Do you know that older people should sit a moment on the edge of the bed before rising; that they should stand still an instant after coming to their feet to prevent accidents from possible dizziness?

Do you know that a clean, orderly house, as free as possible of things to trip over, makes for the safest home for people of all ages?

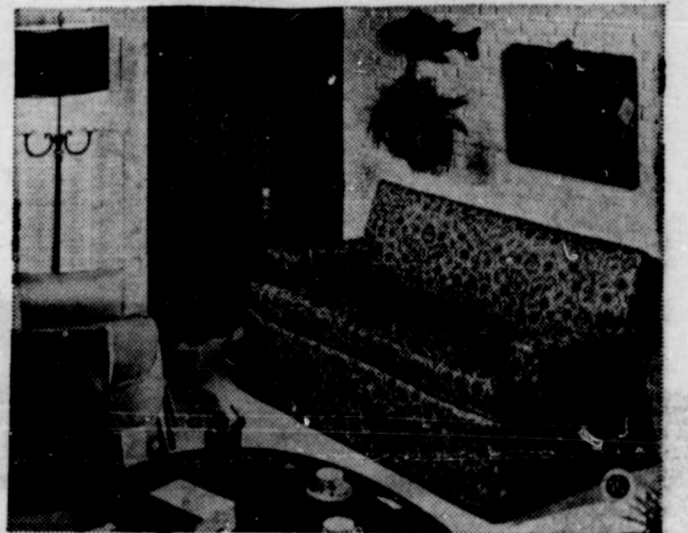

In the next five years, per capita consumption of food won't go up much — although people will change their eating habits slightly, predicts the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Americans will tend to eat more low carbohydrate foods, and homemakers will likely increase their purchases of convenience foods as more and more come on the market.

DIRECTIONAL RUG—Stripes and colors are big news in area rugs, as seen in this directional rug by Bigelow. The wide range of sizes, colors, and styles available offers something special for the living room, bedroom, guest room, den, or any other room in the house.

TRADITIONAL SHAPE—Traditional still holds its place in the trend toward area rugs in modern homes. This 100 per cent cotton chenille rug by Capel in an oval shape helps define an area of a room.

MATCHING SET—Drapes and upholstery fabric in matching 100 per cent cotton blue-green warp sateen creates a colorful corner. The fabric has been treated with DuPont's Savalux for color fastness and wearability.

Flower seeds lose much of their vitality when stored under household conditions, and are generally no saving when held from one year to the next, according to U.S. Department of Agriculture plant specialists. They suggest that new seeds be purchased not too long before planting time. Allow no more than a three-month holding period, they say.

1963 Driver License Suspensions, Denials

A total of 11 citizens of Donley County had their driver's license either suspended or were denied a license during the year 1963. Of this total, five persons had their licenses suspended and four persons were denied a license.

Some of the major reasons for suspensions and denials of licenses included driving while drinking, five, and habitual violators, two.

During the year, 25,022 licenses were suspended with 3,632 licenses denied over the state. Drivers in the 20-year-old bracket had the most licenses suspended with 1,307. The 19-year-old ran a close second with 1,305 suspended. The oldest driver who had his license suspended was 96 years of age, with one driver 95 years of age who was denied a license.

The above information was obtained from the records of the Texas Department of Public Safety. The D.P.S. is required by law to file every application for a driver's license received by it. These records include the name of every licensee to whom licenses are granted, and the name of every licensee whose driver's license or driving privilege has been cancelled, denied, suspended or revoked and after each name note the reasons for such action.

The Department shall also file accident reports and abstracts of court records of convictions received by it under the laws of this state and in connection therewith maintain convenient records or make suitable notations in order that an individual record of each licensee showing the convictions of such licensee and the traffic accidents in which he has been involved shall be readily ascertainable and available for the consideration of the Department upon any application for the renewal of a driver's license and at other suitable times.

EDUCATION — Staff members of the Governor's Committee on Higher Education during the last week began to sift findings resulting from the group's year-long study.

The 25-member committee, which has held most of its deliberations behind closed doors, is expected to convene May 8 and May 12 to pass on the draft report.

Final recommendations must be presented to Gov. John Connally and the Legislature by August 31.

Connally has indicated repeatedly the report will be assigned his top-priority tag for legislative consideration next year.

SCREWORM PROGRAM SUCCESS — Seven samples of screwworms were confirmed in March by state and federal animal health officials, who figure this is an indication of phenomenal success of the screwworm eradication program.

Dr. Ted Rea of the U.S. Department of Agriculture office in Austin said a March total before the program would have come to about 3,000 screwworm confirmations and, back then, reporting was only about 10 percent. Now, the reporting rate for Texas livestock producers is up to about 97 percent.

RESORT REPORTS — All

SPECIAL WARFARE—Captain Ruth A. Caldwell, a reserve officer of the Women's Army Corps, is completing the final phase of a counterinsurgency course at Fort Bragg, N. C. She has the distinction of being the only WAC to attend the Special Warfare School. Captain Caldwell is a member of the 308th Civil Affairs Group at Ft. Dearborn, Chicago, Ill., and in civilian life, teaches school in Chicago.

owners or managers of shooting resorts or preserves have submitted their records books to the State Parks and Wildlife Department, or turned them in to the nearest game warden.

May 1 also is the date when the three-month squirrel shooting season began in 24 Texas counties: Austin, Brazos, Burleson, Collin, Colorado, Dallas, Delta, Franklin, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Hopkins, Jackson, Kaufman, Lee, Matagorda, Navarro, Raines, Robertson, Rockwall, Van Zandt, and Washington.

COURTS SPEAK — An Austin district court held that building of a $9,000,000 electric generating-transmitting plant at Ore City (north of Longview) by Upshur Rural Electric Cooperative Corp. is not permitted under Texas law. Attorney General Carr brought suit for Southwestern Electric Power Company which claimed the expenditure borrowed from the Federal Rural Electrification Administration would be illegal because members of the Upshur Coop already are served by Southwestern.

Supreme Court gave its blessing to Sweeny Hospital District's issue of construction-improvement bonds, overturning the attorney general's veto of the bonds on a question involving classification of voters in the approval election.

The high court sustained a lower court ruling that coastal property owners are due another hearing on contest of $14,000,000 in Houston bonds, $9,000,000 of which would finance the Livington Dam on the Trinity River. On second trial in Austin, former Houston Probate Judge Clem McClelland was sentenced again to 10 years imprisonment on charges of felony conversion from an estate. Another appeal was promised.

INSURANCE RATES VARY—North and northwest Texas residents may pay 25 percent more for homeowners and extended dwelling coverage as a result of hail and tornado damage.

Counties on the Gulf will experience a 4.4 percent hike for the homeowner package coverage, but dwelling extended coverage is due to drop 3.6 percent, State Board of Insurance indicated after a hearing with industry representatives.

In other parts of the state, homeowner rates may decline some 5.2 percent and dwelling extended coverage 16.1 percent.

The home fire insurance loss experience rate increase was seen as 3.3 percent statewide.

CONNALLY PROTESTS — Reference in "NATO Letter" to Texas as a "semi-civilized part of America" peopled with oil millionaires who serve as financial angels for radical right "hatemongers" brought strong protest from Governor Connally to Secretary of State Rusk.

"The fact that (the author) was emotionally distressed by the tragedy (President Kennedy's assassination), as so many of us were much more directly involved, is no excuse to print such an irresponsible diatribe in a magazine of this nature," Connally wrote.

Since the U.S. State Department is directly connected with the publication, the governor said, future articles should attempt "to undo the harm" already done.

SHORT SNORTS — Gubernatorial candidates Connally, Don Yearbrough and Jack Crichton all agreed that, if elected, they would consult a State Bar Committee on qualifications of prospective judicial appointees... Texas Water Commission has made available (free) Bulletin No. 6403, "Fifty Years of Water Development in Texas," to meet growing public interest in surface water, ground water and topographic mapping... Texas Railroad Commission reports 259 gas well completions and 2,661 oil well completions to date this year, compared with 740 and 2,707 respectively in 1963... Five hospital aides who received Texas Association for Mental Health awards for outstanding work in public hospitals for the ill or handicapped are: Pedro Perez, Big Spring State Schools; Waleen L. Roy, Wichita Falls State Hospital; Irene Jaecks, Austin State School; Louise Cromwell, Rusk State Hospital; and Phillip M. Gunnels, U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, Fort Worth... A state suit resulted in recovery of $18,400 from Billy Bridewell and R. H. Hedge of Tyler for allegedly operating a slanted oil well in Harris County.

1964 Wheat Program

The 1964 Voluntary Wheat Program sign-up has been extended to run through Friday, May 22, 1964. Please remember, there is no automatic participation in the program. You must sign an "Intention to Participate" before the above date. As of now 114 producers have signed up.

There are still a few producers who have not been in to discuss the program with us. We feel that it may be to their advantage to do so before the deadline.

You do not have to go into the program to be eligible for price support as long as you are within the 1964 allotment for the farm. You will not be eligible for certificates and diverted acres payment however, unless you participate and comply with program regulations.

1964 Upland Cotton Program

Each upland cotton producer will receive a notice this next week of his farm's domestic allotment, the normal yield, and the rate per acre of the price support payment which will apply to the acreage planted for harvest within the domestic allotment.

If you wish to appeal this yield, you will have 15 days from the date shown on your notice to do so. Let us remind you again that gin records alone will not qualify unless such records show by bales the identifying number, the pounds in the bale and records can be identified with the producer and farm. You may use sales receipts and price support loan records, tax returns or other equally reliable records.

If you decide that you want to choose the export market ac-age plan it will be necessary for you to come to the County ASCS Office to make application for the export acreage by June 1, 1964, which is the closing date. If you choose to plant your regular cotton allotment or the domestic allotment there is nothing to be signed at this time. You will have until the final disposition date for destroying excess cotton to decide whether or not you want to comply with the Domestic allotment. If so, then you will need to sign the necessary forms.

HOW TO PREVENT TOMATOES FROM ROTTING

Tomato growers who have not used plastic mulch can prevent fruit rot on their tomatoes by staking or by placing newspapers under vines to prevent contact with the soil, reports Flip Breedlove, County Agent.

Staking tomato plants sometimes produces larger, better quality fruit. It also keeps them cleaner and makes plants easier to spray. However, staked tomatoes are likely to have more cracking, blossom-end rot, and sunscald, Breedlove said.

Placing whole sections of newspapers under tomato vines is an easy way to prevent fruit rot. Breedlove suggests putting papers down after the vines are heavy enough to keep them from blowing away. Plastic dry cleaner bags can be used the same way, he said.

When staking tomatoes, place sturdy, five-foot stakes about one foot in the ground. Set them about four inches from the plant and avoid cutting tomato roots when setting them. Use of soft cord or strips of old cloth will lessen injury to plants when tying them, Breedlove said.

A good method of tying plants to stakes is to loop the material around the main stem; then cross it between the stem and the stake to form a figure eight. Tie it back of the stake.

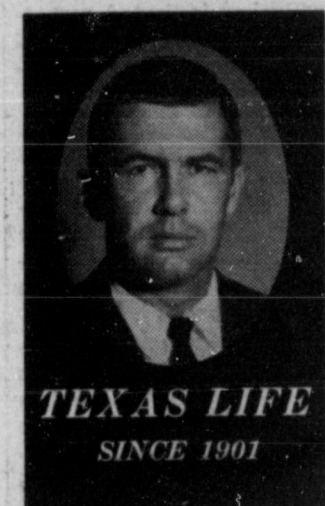

If pruning is necessary, break off shoots that grow from the crotch formed by a leaf branch at the main stem. Break the shoots, rather than cutting them, because a knife may spread disease, Breedlove said. When pruning, shoots should be removed before they are three inches long.

Religion In Shoes is the name of a book by Hunter B. Blakely.

It is the story of the late Brother Bryan of Birmingham, Alabama, who became known far and wide because of his many kind deeds to those about him. Once when he was being interviewed and was being pressed for a total of his good deeds during a given time he gave this answer: "Son, I am too busy to keep records. I just leave that to the angels."

The above could be a good lesson to some of the do-gooders who are always pointing out to their left hand what their right hand is doing, especially in the presence of company.

From the Amarillo First Baptist Church Reporter:

"Parents are people who bear infants, bore teenagers, and board newly weds."

"Too many parents are not on Spanking Terms with their children."

"The actions of some children indicate that their parents embarked on the sea of matrimony without a paddle."

"Not too long ago our statesmen performed in such a way that after their passing folks would build statues to their memory. Not so today, as most of the modern day politicians spend their time trying to build their own image in the mind of the people — especially those who have a vote."

Sometimes we get into such a "Fizz," that we run over ourselves just to wind up in someone else's way.

We may not have a good reason for the things we do, but we will jump through ourselves looking for an excuse to justify what we intend to do anyway.

A rule for political prestige: "Be for everything and against nothing — promise to do everything, and do just as near nothing as the pressure gangs will let you get by with."

Remarks of a died in the wool Southerner: These Northern Liberals have sure messed up my grandfather's favorite party. Then upon being asked why he didn't swap parties replied: "They haven't messed it up that bad yet. I'm not that mad about it yet."

It don't seem to make much difference to most politicians as to those who give big gifts to their campaign, but when the secret of the donors name gets back to the voters, they get real excited.

A man once said: "Three meals a day, a roof over my head, two cars, a boat, a power lawn mower, and a contented wife. Why shouldn't I be in debt?"

Advice to the love-lorn: No matter how love-sick you are never take the first pill that comes along.

Drifting with the tide is the best way to wind up on the rocks.

SOYBEANS ARE GOOD CROP FOR PLAINS

Soybeans look like real "comers" on the Plains. Not only are they usually a profitable crop in their own right, but they also have an advantage in their late planting date. According to Area Extension Agronomist Billy Gunter, soybeans are fast gaining acceptance as a "catch crop" for hailed-out cotton when it's too late to replant.

Gunter points out that soybeans are recommended for planting on the Plains between June 1 and June 20. However, they can be planted as late as July 1 in southern portion of the Plains if required, says County Agent Flip Breedlove.

Another advantage of the late planting date is in weed control on weedy fields. Mechanical tillage can be practiced up until the time beans are planted.

In the last few years, soybean acreage on the Texas High Plains has mushroomed. From 18,000 acres in 1956 to a record approximate 90,000 acres in 1963, this crop has boomed in planted acreage. Gunter says over 90% of the total Texas soybean acreage is on the High Plains. While 40-45 bushels are not uncommon, average yield last year for the Plains was approximately 32 bushels an acre. Support price for soybeans on the Plains this year will be around $2.17 a bushel. In recent years, market price has been higher than the support price.

The bulk of soybeans on the High Plains are grown within a 35 mile radius of Plainview. Producers outside this area should check with local elevator operators to see if they can handle soybeans, advises County Agent Breedlove.

To grow soybeans successfully — for both high per acre yields and high net profit — an ample amount of management knowledge is needed, continues Gunter. He outlines recommendations for soybean production as follows.

Varieties: Hill and Lee varieties are recommended for the High Plains. The variety Hinn looks promising, but at present is available only to certified seed producers. Soybeans are well adapted to all major soils of the High Plains. The only exception is where chlorosis shows up in grain sorghum.

Planting: Seed one bushel (60 pounds) per acre. Use good quality seed and place them two inches deep in the soil. Plant with a shallow bed to assure getting cutter bar of the combine below bottom pods. (On the last cultivation, lay by so cutter bar can still get under lower pods.)

Irrigation: For maximum yields, three to four summer irrigations are required. However, 30 to 35 bushels are frequently made on only two summer irrigations. The first irrigation should normally be made when bloom buds begin to appear. The last irrigation is normally in September — and can be the most important watering. Though not recommended for dryland, an occasional producer has made good yields on dryland.

Fertilizer: Soybeans are a legume and supply their own nitrogen — when properly inoculated. An exception to this is when they follow a high residue crop such as grain sorghum. In such situations, Gunter recommends adding about 20 pounds of nitrogen to act as a "starter." Soybeans are also heavy feeders on phosphorous and a soil test is recommended to learn if a phosphorous deficiency exists.

More information about soybean production can be obtained from county agent.

FLAME CULTIVATOR

No Matter How You Write It — This Form of LPG Spells the Most Universal Weed Control Chemical Yet Discovered. By Universal, We Mean It Can Be Used on More Types of Crops Under More Different Weather, Soil and Farming Conditions with Greater Safety, Dependability and Economy Than Any Other Weed Control Practice.

The use of FLAME CULTIVATION as a normal selective weed CONTROL practice:

WILL NOT leave any HARMFUL RESIDUES in the soil—which means that next year ANY crop can be planted or that this year ANY crop can be replanted. This also means if you rent a new place on which flaming has been used you can plant ANY crop ANYWHERE.

WILL NOT leave any HARMFUL RESIDUES in the plant—which means that the use of the plant or its fruit is not restricted.

WILL NOT leave any HARMFUL RESIDUES in run-off water—which means that the use of salvaged water is not restricted.

WILL NOT drift during or after application—which means no contingent liability to the neighbors' crop or livestock.

DOES NOT require preplant or pre-emergence application—which means that weed control money is spent when the problem arises in the growing crop. This also means no interference with normal seed bed preparation and watering practices.

DOES NOT require special weather conditions—which means that rainfall or the lack of it is not necessary for its success or activation.

IS NOT affected by soil type, topography, or pH; rate, placement or timing of fertilization; water furrowing, sand fighting—which means that it works in well with normal and necessary High Plains cultural practices.

DOES NOT require incorporation—which means that it cannot affect the lateral root development of the crop.

DOES NOT warm the soil, dry the soil, kill germination of crop or weed seed, sterilize the soil, hasten germination of planted crop or give a dependable measure of insect control.

IS NOT subject to breakdown and/or evaporation by sunlight, or blowing away by wind—which means that it works well with normal High Plains weather conditions.

DOES give immediate results—which means that it is not necessary to wait and wonder if the weed is going to die; if the crop is going to live.

CAN BE repeated as often as needed—which means that you do have a chance to correct a mistake if you make one. Also means that should you find it necessary to disturb your rows by shaping beds, making water furrows, furrow irrigating, or sand fighting, that you can flame the new weed crop brought on by disturbing the soil and not have to be concerned about RESIDUE.

IS very economical—not over 30 gallons ($3.00) of propane per acre per year—and then only when and where needed. For instance, two flammings using two burners per row at five gallons per acre per flaming and one flaming using four burners (two for drill and two for water furrows) per row at twelve gallons per acre and possibly one flaming using four burners per row for grain defoliation (not weed control) at fifteen gallons per acre. This means that propane for four years of weed control would cost less than $12 per acre.

DOES have three years large scale "on the High Plains farms" success to recommend it.

DOES have over 500 successful farmer users.

DOES have a FIELD EXPERIENCED DEALER ORGANIZATION, ready to advise you on your farm.

CAN be used on cotton, grain sorghum, castor beans, corn, soybeans, onions, and potatoes all the same day without changing solution or nozzles. This is because its criteria for selectivity is based solely upon a difference in tolerance to heat between the desirable and the undesirable plants. This means that it isn't necessary to wonder if the right solution is being used, i.e.: harmless to particular crop and harmful to particular undesirable. This means that when the driver learns to fill the propane tank he knows enough about the solution.

FAMILIES UPGRADE FOOD PURCHASES

COLLEGE STATION—The average American family is upgrading its food purchases, although members now spend only 19 percent of family income after taxes for food. This compares with 25 percent spent immediately after World War II.

Most foods have increased in price during the past 10 years, but so have other consumer goods and services, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist.

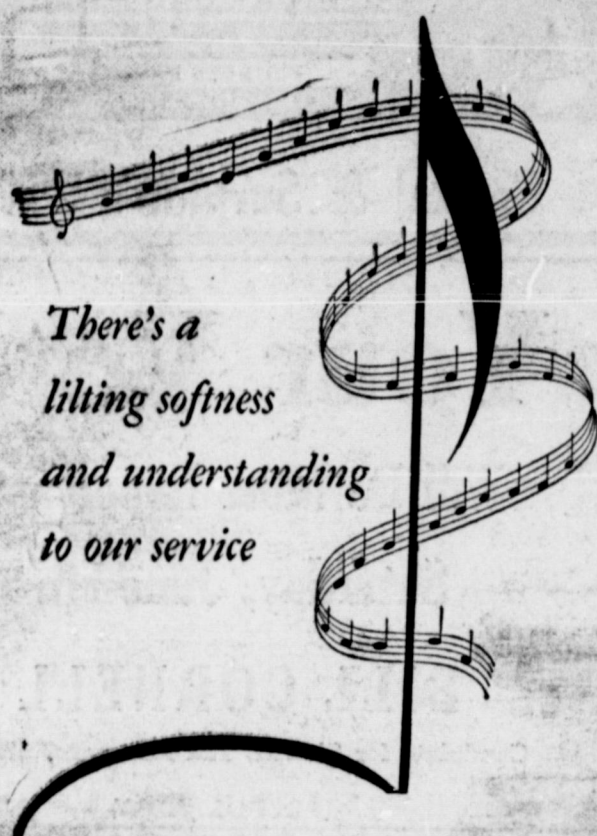

During the last decade, food marketing costs rose about 10 percent, and during the same period, housing costs rose 32 percent, medical care went up 57 percent, and take-home pay of the average American rose 59 percent.

Today's family is buying more meat and fruits and vegetables and fewer cereals and other lower priced foods.

With increased income, the average family chooses to buy more convenience-type foods, including prepared mixes, frozen foods and heat-and-serve meals. New and better packaging and marketing methods now provide fresh produce all year. Through research, processors are continually providing new products that American consumers are requesting.

The value of farmland increased a third after 1953 while the net income of farmers changed very little. Thus farm real estate prices increased to about 10 times net income per acre by 1959, as compared to six times the net income per acre in 1950-54.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

All About Texans

Our friend and neighbor from the South Plains, Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock, has become the chairman of what many persons regard as the most powerful committee of the Congress, the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives. Congressman Mahon moved to the chairmanship upon the death of Congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri.

With his background of 30 years' experience in the Congress, Congressman Mahon will prove to be a most able and effective chairman of Appropriations. The Subcommittee of which he has been chairman for many years, Defense Appropriations, performed the Committee's detail work on the largest single money bills of each fiscal year, those having to do with maintaining the Nation's military strength. This is extremely vital work and George Mahon's leadership of the Subcommittee was universally respected. I know of no man in the House of Representatives who is more admired for his ability, dedication, and wisdom than George Mahon. We in West Texas can be proud that one of our citizens has attained this post of national and international distinction; his performance of the duties imposed by this office will be a credit to our region, our State, and the United States.

The Committee on Appropriations was created in April, 1865, when the burden of work then performed by the House Ways and Means Committee became too large for one committee to handle. In the committee reorganization of that year, two new committees were created from Ways and Means — the Committee on Appropriations and the Committee on Banking and Currency. The position as chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee now is held by the dean of the Texas delegation in the House, Congressman Wright Patman of Texas. Two other Texas Congressmen are chairmen of important House Committees. Congressman Omar Burleson of Anton is chairman of the Committee on House Administration. Congressman Olin Teague of College Station is chairman of the Committee on Veterans Affairs.

Congressman Patman addressed the annual Congressional Dinner of the Electric and Telephone Cooperatives of Texas here in Washington on Tuesday and paid special tribute to the "imagineering" skills of the energetic Texan who is now our President, Lyndon B. Johnson. Not long after Mr. Patman had concluded his remarks, the President made another of his surprise appearances at a Washington meeting, walking from the White House to the nearby hotel in the evening twilight. In acknowledging the friendship he and the folks in Texas REA have maintained for many years, the President told the group, "The least I could do was to walk the two blocks over here to say 'thank you'."

No Congressional district in Texas was better represented at the REA dinner than was our own 18th District. Among the Panhandle folks here for the meetings and dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Draper, Raymond Higginbotham, and Leo Forrest, all of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Elliott, Jr., of Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Buckles of Stratford; A. J. Garland of Clarendon; George L. Henry of Wellington; Selba Rainey of Shamrock; R. A. Yarbrough of Childress; and Lytle Robinson and Bailey Reece of Tulia.

A thoughtful Air Force sergeant, Leo Warden (formerly stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base), made arrangements to bring to Washington the two young Panhandle Science Fair winners and their faculty advisers from their national meeting in Baltimore, and it was a pleasure for me to join them at lunch in the Capitol. The girls from Pampa are Miss Avril Doucette, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Doucette, and Miss Cynthia Ann Plaster, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Plaster. Both girls are students at Pampa High School. They were accompanied to the Baltimore meeting by Mr. C. C. Dugger of the Amarillo College faculty and by their Pampa teachers, Mr. Wendell Watson and Mrs. Elaine Ledbetter. Mrs. Ledbetter was unable to come to Washington for lunch because of meetings, but the others enjoyed a tour of the Capitol and were in the Senate gallery while former President Harry Truman was being honored on his birthday by members of the Senate. That night, back in Baltimore, Miss Doucette was awarded fourth prize in the National Science Fair for her exhibit of "Texas Panhandle Soil Algae as Antibiotics." Promising careers in science are in store for both young ladies.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

There are two fine books in the library about the assassination of the late President Kennedy. One is "Four Days" by the United Press International and American Heritage, this one can be bought at your favorite book store. The other one "The Torch Is Passed" may have to be ordered if so the address is "The Torch Is Passed" Amarillo Globe-Times, P. O. Box 350, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. for this one send your check for $2.00.

Since this is very much an election year, each of us might do some reading and studying of issues involved. I am not writing about the impossible promises so many people expect to be made and then go to the polls and vote for the one who caters to a particular prejudice or some thing else that makes about as much sense, but important things. A for instance is each of us might be a little more concerned about the conditions under which so many of our people live. Here is a quote from a recent article by Ben H. Bagelikian in "The Saturday Evening Post" "The Invisible American": "We are the richest nation on earth, yet one American in five is without adequate food or shelter or medicine, and nobody seems to care."

Eric Rodgins has written an excellent book "Episode." He calls it a "Report on the accident inside my skull." This book like Robert Van Rosen's "Comeback" will be of invaluable aid to stroke victims and their families.

Author Rodgins, though he writes about strokes in the most understandable terms lets the humor he is famous for creep in ever so often. There is no humor in the well deserved blasts he aims at the hospitals for the kind of prices they charge for the practically no care the patient receives.

Quoting: "The book is most excellent, beautifully done... not only entertaining but helpful to the millions who have not only problems with strokes but aphasia and emotional problems." Howard A. Rush, M.D., Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, New York University.

"(This) picture, subjective and objective, of a patient — both specifically a CVA and more generally an ill human being especially in a hospital — enriches the medical literature and just may bring about some valuable changes. It cannot help but bring heart to a great number of others who have passed or will pass through the valley of shadow. And all this with the glee of Mr. Blanding bubbling out at every comma." R. W. Gerard, M.D., Mental Health Research Institute, The University of Michigan.

During the period of the Texas Republic land promoters advertised that it was cheaper to raise a cow in Texas than a chicken, and it was.
