Mike McCully Named New Postmaster

In a telegram from Washington, D.C., last Friday, the message stated that Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa had named Michael M. McCully postmaster at Clarendon. The Congressman said McCully, whose score on a competitive post office department examination was highest of all applicants, will assume his post soon in accordance with post office department regulations affecting an orderly changeover.

McCully is well known in this area, having served as County Democratic Chairman several years, past president of the Lions Club and American Legion and various other civic organizations. McCully stated that he was looking forward to serving the people of this community in the capacity of Postmaster and that his motto would be friendly, accommodating service to all patrons of the local post office.

McCully will take over the duties heretofore handled by Joe Boudins, acting postmaster, who has very capably handled the duties of the office since the death of Postmaster Ray Moore. Boudins will remain with the regular post office staff.

Record Enrollment At Junior College Night School

The initial enrollment for the second semester of Clarendon Junior College's Adult Education Night School Program has topped all records of Night School Enrollment in the history of the Adult Education Program. More than 50 students enrolled on the opening night and it appears that before the close of registration tonight, February 7, that the number will rise to 65 or more. Students have been enrolling from as far away as Paducah and Childress, with a large number of the area schools being represented in our Night School Program. This unusually large enrollment has raised the head count enrollment for the year to near the 225 mark, according to Dean Oliver J. Abel.

The following subjects are being offered during the spring semester of the Night School Program: Arts and Crafts, Oil Painting, Government, Bible, Typing, Biology, Chemistry, Accounting, Shorthand, and English. The last three courses are not fully developed and enrollment will be open the rest of the week in the English, Shorthand, and Accounting courses. Dean Abel invites anyone who is interested in either one of these courses to contact him this week.

Cotton Ginning Report Shows Outcome For '62

A Department of Commerce report received this week shows that 11,647 bales of cotton were ginned from Donley County prior to January 16, 1963, as compared with 11,722 in 1961. This is the official government report and is possibly some short as it takes quite some time for cotton ginning information to go through regular channels. The report shows a better overall grade and price for the 1962 cotton for this county.

Donley Steers Place High At El Paso

County Agent Flip Breedlove called the Leader from El Paso Wednesday morning to report that local youths barely missed top honors at the El Paso show in judging that took place Tuesday night.

David Mooring's lightweight Hereford won first place in his class and also was judged Reserve Champion of the Hereford division. Susan McAnear placed 6th with her lightweight Angus and 5th with her middleweight Hereford; Richard Thornberry placed 7th in the lightweight Hereford and Sandy Thornberry placed 12th in the heavyweight Hereford class. Don Mooring placed 13th in the lightweight Hereford and Henry Hermesmeier placed 11th in the lightweight Angus. Donley County also placed 2nd in the best display of steers from any one county. Breedlove said the sale would be held Friday and the group would head home Friday night. Parents making the trip with the youths were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mooring, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thornberry, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McAnear, Bud Hermesmeier and Breedlove.

Poll Tax Figure Climbs As Deadline Passes

The County Tax office experienced some real rushing business last week when local residents finally thought of purchasing their poll tax and paying their current taxes before the deadline Thursday midnight. A total of 1085 poll tax receipts were issued to Donley County residents with around 200 of this number being issued the last two days. Sheriff Truett Behrens, who kept his office open Thursday night, reported business was quite brisk until about 10 p.m.

This overall total makes the outlook much brighter for any issue that might come up to be voted on this year. A good number of people will have the opportunity to vote regardless, and it is the majority count that makes us all feel better whether an issue carries or is defeated.

Opening Of New Beauty Shop Tuesday

Announcement is being made in this issue of the Leader of the formal opening of Fashionette Beauty Salon here Tuesday of next week. Mrs. Bernese Moreland is the owner of the new business which will be located in the Knorrp Insurance building and will feature all new equipment including air-conditioned dryers. CUB SCOUTS SELLING ADDRESS LABELS

The boys of the Clarendon Cub Scouts are selling address labels to finance their Blue and Gold Banquet which will take place in the near future. These labels are $1 for 300 in a plastic box. These labels are very handy to have around and are a bargain, especially when the money is going to such a worthy project.

Second Law Suit Filed Last Week In Connection With Junior College

A second law suit contesting an election was filed in District Court here last Thursday afternoon by an Amarillo law firm representing area citizens. The suit was filed contesting the tax rate election held here December 27, 1962, and it also questions the Jr. College's power to levy and collect taxes.

Named as defendants in the suit were members of the Clarendon school board, Warren Hardin, Dr. Chas. E. Deyhle, F. E. Chamberlain, Jr., W. E. Goodman, W. O. Mooring, Joe Robinson and Hershel Heath. Also Miss Ruth Richerson, County School Supt., and Bill Lowe, County Attorney.

The contestants names signed to the instrument filed by the law firms of Underwood, Wilson, Sutton, Heare and Berry were Charles F. Derrick, L. T. Shelton, E. L. Lamb, L. D. Littlefield, W. E. Cushing, W. S. Montgomery, Lee Palmer, Forrest E. Sawyer, B. N. Head, Andy Brown, Don Grady, H. S. and W. K. Hardin, G. W. Selman and Jack Stewart.

The part of the suit dealing with the power of the Jr. College to levy and collect taxes appears to be another "few words" to file a case on as this issue was pretty well clarified by the Texas Supreme Court in January when the court ruled in favor of a South Texas junior college in a case brought against San Jacinto Junior College by Leon Shepherd and other Harris County property owners. The above mentioned election was called by the local school board and election returns were canvassed by the board. A majority of voters in the newly proposed district voted for the issue. The vote was 409 for with 272 against. It is customary for an election to stand when a majority vote is voiced by the people.

This Friday night they travel to Canyon to meet the high flying West Texas State Freshmen. The freshmen have some great material this year and have compiled a 12-4 record which includes a win over the strong Texas Tech Freshmen. The South Plains team is also considerably stronger this year than last. They recently defeated the Howard County Jayhawks and held the San Angelo Rams to a close score. They were picked to finish fifth in the conference this year behind Howard County, San Angelo, Amarillo and Odessa.

In last Friday night's game at Odessa, the Bulldogs showed a very strong defense. Max Courtney came through with perhaps his best game of the season in scoring 14 points and getting 17 rebounds. Jimmy Boyd topped the scorers with 16 points. Coach Dorman is currently starting a team of Courtney, Boyd, Alvin Scott, Bill Bentley along with either James Starkey, Randall Murry or James Allen as the fifth starter.

The new car is police equipped and has the features incorporated in the Plymouth cars now being used by the State Highway patrol. The transaction was made with AAA Motor Co. of Clarendon and the new unit was scheduled for delivery Wednesday. The new unit is light green and is said to be capable of coping with the hot rodders or any other need that might arise.

SAMPLE SOILS NOW

COLLEGE STATION — Now, when soil and weather conditions are nearly ideal, is the time to soil test fields to be fertilized next spring, says W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist at Texas A&M College.

The chemist says that samples sent to the laboratories now will avoid the spring rush of sampling and fertilizing and that recommendations will be returned in one to two weeks.

The way the sample is taken is very important because the tests can be no better than the samples tested. They should be representative of the field tested and the field should be divided into uniform soil areas, explains Bennett. If there are marked differences in the slope, color or texture of areas of the field, these should be tested separately because there may be fertility differences in these areas and thus differences in fertilizer needs.

If part of an area has been fertilized, limed, manured or cropped differently, it should be sampled differently, Bennett adds.

Your county agent can help you in your soil sampling and provide you with an information sheet for the job. Bennett advises seeing him soon and sending your sample to one of the three soil testing laboratories at Lubbock, Seymour or College

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price; the low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking car that would send any family packing; another family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure adventure, America's only sports car, Corvette—now in two all-new versions with looks that can stop traffic like a rush-hour blizzard. Picked your favorite already? The next thing is to take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, maybe you'd rather just have a ball around town!

ALL BIG THINGS

DON'T HAPPEN IN BIG CITIES

Proud cities of small and medium size are... throughout the West Texas Utilities service area, plus some small towns and villages.

But collectively they compose the vital and fast-growing Center of the Southwest, where major business and industrial development is taking place.

For example: a nationally-known packing company has established a lamb processing plant here... an existing manufacturer has developed machinery for a new process which is the hit of the footwear industry... one of America's great business complexes has constructed a major textile-producing factory... a wool scouring plant has been built and expanded... a leading surgical supply company will soon start plant construction... and dozens of other operations are bursting out all over the area.

Yes, it is very true. All BIG things don't happen in the big cities. Our service area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED, and our own expansion plans are geared to measure and meet the electric service needs of this dynamic area, the CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST.

Little Mary had been a very naughty girl and finally the mother sent her to the closet to think and pray about things for a little while. When she returned she told her mother that things should be all right now.

"Fine," said the mother, "Thinking and praying about it should help you be good."

"I didn't pray for that mother, I just prayed that you would have more patience with me." So often we are like little Mary. We don't want to give up or correct our shortcomings, but only want those about us to have more patience. We want sympathy rather than fairness, and mercy instead of justice.

When someone gets something for nothing, someone else gets nothing for something... Thomas Jefferson once said; "If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them, they must become happy." We wonder what Mr. Jeff would think if he could see us now.

The greatest boon to this generation financially was that of learning to spend the income of the next generation.

Grandfather was taught to save his money in order that he might have security in his old age. Nowadays we allow our money to be taken from us hoping to find the answer to man's search for security.

Very often we are half out of our predicament the moment we get up and start working. The best way to go up is to get up.

I'll tell you how, won't help anyone nearly so much as, I'll show you now...

Abraham Lincoln gave us the following Ten Canons, just as true today:

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift."

"You cannot help small men by tearing down big men."

"You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong."

"You cannot lift the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer."

"You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich."

"You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than your income."

"You cannot further the brotherhood of man by inciting class hatred."

"You cannot establish security on borrowed money."

"You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence."

"You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

We cannot read the above without being fearful that we will suffer because we have departed to such a great degree from the once tried and true principles of security and thrift.

CATTLE DEPRECIATE, TOO

COLLEGE STATION — The livestock producer who does not figure depreciation on the livestock that he purchases is missing a good means of conserving capital, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Since much of the large capital investment required in the business of farming can be recovered by the taxpayer through depreciation, attention should be given to the present tax provisions, according to Bates.

The 1962 income tax law contains important changes affecting farmers and ranchmen. New suggested useful lives for some classes of property are among them. A three-year period will be allowed for shifting to the new guidelines, Bates says. The biggest change is that for farm building life which has been changed from 40 years to 25 years. Bates says that the useful life for cattle has been changed from 8 to 7 years on purchased animals.

Claims for depreciation should be made annually because it cannot be taken for years passed up, Bates explains.

The taxpayer can increase his potential capital gains from livestock sales by properly handling depreciation and the new tax law did not change capital gains on livestock. According to Bates, one of the first requirements is the setting of reasonable salvage value on animals purchased. The remainder may be "written off" as depreciation which then is regained when the old animals are sold.

The new "1963 Farmers Tax Guide" is now available at the offices of county agents and Bates suggests that farmers and ranchmen pick up a copy at their earliest convenience. It's chuck-full, he adds, of important information.

HINTS OFFERED ON BUYING HAY

College Station — Visual inspection doesn't tell the story of what is inside a bale of hay. The true feeding value of hay is determined by several factors, points out Shannon Carpenter, area dairy specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and challenges hay buyers to become 3T purchasers.

Carpenter explains the 3T formula this way. The first T is for test. If a ton of hay testing 4 percent crude protein is purchased, 300 pounds of cottonseed meal will have to be fed with it to make it equal the protein in a ton of hay testing 10 percent protein. It's good business, says

Carpenter, to ask the hay seller for an analysis on his product.

The second T is for time. Time the hay was cut. Time since fertilizer was last applied to the crop. Time since the last cutting, and of major importance, time of season in respect to the time the hay will be fed. Ask some questions, advises Carpenter, and if the right answer isn't forthcoming, do some more shopping.

Carpenter's third T stands for ton, the usual weight basis on which hay is bought. One dollar for a 60 pound bale of hay equals $33 a ton, but a dollar for a 40 pound bale equals $50 per ton. The weight of the individual bale of hay thus is very important. Buy by weight instead of the bale.

The 3T hay buyer, concludes

Carpenter, knows what he has bought, and how much. A visit with the local county agent is suggested as a source for additional information on quality hay production as well as good buying practices.

BRING back to FORD FOR $

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

OUR STRENGTH IS GREAT

This country is not going to be disarmed. No government agency has the authority under any law to strip away our defenses. The Congress of the United States has neither proposed nor approved any plan for the disarmament of this country. No responsible voice in Congress or the Administration has proposed unilateral — "go it alone" — disarmament, or indeed disarmament in any form unless there are iron-clad guarantees that the Soviet Union will reduce its armaments in similar measure. Our sovereignty is not going to be turned over to the United Nations or any other organization or nation. Our defenses are stronger today than ever in history.

These are the facts.

My mail recently has been full of concern expressed by good citizens over a bill passed into law 17 months ago — passed with bipartisan support in both houses of Congress after its provisions were strongly endorsed by President Kennedy and former President Eisenhower and the leading figures of their administrations. By a vote of 290 to 54 in the House (including 194 Democrats and 90 Republicans voting in favor) and 73 to 14 in the Senate, the Congress established the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency — not an agency to trade away our arms, as some would tell you, but an agency to coordinate and improve upon activities that have been pursued by departments of our government virtually since the end of World War II. We have taken part in more than 70 international conferences touching on questions of arms reduction since the war; we are engaged in another such conference as I write this. By setting up the agency, Congress saw to it that our security position was enhanced as these negotiations continue. The agency brings together in one department diverse activities that had been pursued independently by several branches of the government, usually without coordination, sometimes to our great risk.

In the meantime, we are continuing to spend more for defense purposes than ever before in our history. The President's budget proposal for the next fiscal year calls for defense expenditures of $55.4 billion. By the end of this year, it is estimated, members of the Armed Forces on active duty are to number 2.7 million. We are proud of our strength and well aware of the cost — more than $300 billion since World War II, more than half of each tax dollar now earmarked for defense purposes. The cost is great, but Communism's spear is blunted.

In his State of the Union Address, delivered to the Congress on January 14, 1963, President John F. Kennedy said, "Finally, what can we do to move from the present pause toward enduring peace? Again I would counsel caution. I foresee no spectacular reversal in Communist methods or goals. But if all these trends and developments can persuade the Soviet Union to walk the path of peace, then let her know that all free nations will join with her. But until that choice is made, and until the world can develop a reliable system of international security, the free peoples have no choice but to keep their arms near."

"I think it is a matter of our national security just as much as our national defense is," said President Eisenhower's former Defense Secretary, Thomas S. Gates, in advocating passage of bills to set up the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. "Even if no progress is made on disarmament, it is still essential for the United States to appear before the world as a country which can evolve constructive ideas in this crucial field," said Henry Cabot Lodge, Ambassador to the United Nations in the Eisenhower Administration and Republican candidate for vice president in 1960. "I think this agency will enhance our national security interests. . . . To deal with this problem most effectively, a permanent organization that can attract and hold top talent is needed," said General Lyman Lemnitzer, then Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, now NATO commander. "I heartily concur in your purpose," wrote General Eisenhower, in support of the bill. "This agency can get the security that we are trying to achieve with our Military Establishment and other agencies, if it is understood and not misrepresented," said Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota, keynote speaker at the 1960 Republican National Convention.

I was among Southern States Congressmen who authored an amendment to the House bill, an amendment introduced by Rep. L. H. Fountain of North Carolina, to make certain this country enters into no disarmament agreement except in accordance with the Constitution. The act establishing the agency thus requires two-thirds ratification by the Senate of any arms reduction treaty. Last year, I proposed a constitutional amendment that would require majority approval of the House, in addition to the two-thirds approval by the Senate, before any treaty could become law. I've re-introduced the resolution in this session.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

WATERWAYS

There is a great need for establishment of permanent sod waterways to dispose of excess water without causing erosion to cropland. Runoff water is carried to safe points of release with a minimum of erosion. Waterways may be used in connection with terrace systems or field diversions, for safe disposal of storm runoff from irrigation systems, or for protection of natural waterways through farmland.

Generally, a cover of perennial vegetation is the most satisfactory cover for waterways and should be used to protect them against erosion. Perennial grasses are seeded in a dead litter established by drilling fibrous rooted annual sorghums. On very gentle slopes, usually less than two feet per second or less, waterways may be planted to a drilled annual crop. Usually, the channel and inside berms should be seeded to perennial grasses of turf forming varieties.

For recommendations as to engineering design contact your local SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE OFFICE.

ALBERT LEA, MINN., TRIBUNE: ". . . the rate of bankruptcies is running so high that economists, sociologists and business administrators have joined lawyers in seeking cures. . . . Apparently the one thing not needed is harsher law. Lawyers in a formal report say there seems to be a definite relationship to harsh collection laws' of bankruptcies. California, Oregon, Illinois and Ohio have the toughest garnishee laws and the highest rate of voluntary bankruptcy petitions. . . . We might also add as our guess that government taxing policies should be regarded as contributing to delinquencies in debt payments."

Water Authorities Study Water Resources Along Red River Fork

PADUCAH, Tex. (Special) — Studies on two separate projects for the development of water resources on the Salt Fork of the Red River are to be continued until more definite information is made available.

This was an agreement resulting from a joint session of the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority and the Collingsworth County Water Development Board meeting in Childress Wednesday night.

The Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority, which has been in the making for some 15 years, holds the water rights on the Salt Fork of the Red River and is proposing the construction of a reservoir for municipal and industrial use.

Recently the Collingsworth County Board has made further plans for waters on the Salt Fork to include irrigation.

Speaking for the Collingsworth County Water Development Board Wednesday night, Paul Spillman, Wellington attorney, outlined plans under consideration by their delegation and invited the Greenbelt Authority to join forces with them in attaining their goal.

At the same time, Greenbelt directors counter-offered by giving the Collingsworth County group an opportunity to join in the further development of the Greenbelt project.

Accurate data concerning quantity, quality and cost was not available by the Collingsworth County group, and information concerning cost of the Greenbelt project could not be pin-pointed.

From the discussion Wednesday both groups agreed to let their engineers continue on the separate projects and work together for the best solution to the area's water problems. At the same time, representatives of both forces agreed to accept the proposal which would conserve the most water of the best quality at the cheapest price.

March of Dimes Makes Gains in Birth Defects, Arthritis

People say everyone talks about the weather but no one does anything about it. Until just recently, a similar observation could have been made about birth defects. Not only had no one done anything much about the problem but, in truth, people have always been reluctant or afraid even to talk about the subject.

The tragedy of this affliction has beset mankind since the dawn of recorded history. Yet no organized attack on birth defects was launched until 1958 when The National Foundation-March of Dimes entered this medical arena.

The reason for this historic decision was that birth defects constitute the world's greatest unmet childhood medical problem today. Meeting the problem, moreover, entailed fund raising on the same multimillion scale as was required by the long, costly but successful fight of the same health organization against polio.

Marks 25th Year
The March of Dimes, now marking its 25th anniversary, last year appropriated more than $4,000,000 for research in birth defects, arthritis—another baffling disease which is the nation's No. 1 crippler—and on certain aspects of polio and other virus diseases. On birth defects research alone, the March of Dimes approved grants totalling $1,200,000, with about another $800,000 earmarked for regional treatment centers. Directly financed by March of Dimes chapters, these "grass roots" centers today number 31 and are located across the nation.

The need of funds for these March of Dimes-financed treatment centers, particularly in the area of birth defects, is urgent. In the 50 states, the full extent of the problem was not appreciated until March of Dimes medical advisers reported that about 250,000 infants were born yearly in this country with significant birth defects—almost 700 a day, or one every other minute.

Birth defects cause at least 21,000 deaths each year. The chief requirements in the battle to save these lives in the future, and to lessen the damages that birth defects as well as arthritis inflict, are trained manpower, equipment and time—and, of course, the substantial funds that these demand.

Research into the physical calamities that birth defects represent costs stupendous sums. The cause of a type of disaster that has bewildered mankind for uncounted centuries is unlikely to be explained overnight at bargainable prices, or its prevention quickly found.

In the areas of birth defects, arthritis and virus diseases, scientists supported by the March of Dimes were responsible for important research advances during 1962. For example, in birth defects:

- Certain white blood cells in the mother were found to enter the infant's blood stream before birth. The possibility exists that such cells may harm the baby later in life. This was reported by Drs. William P. Creger and Rejendra C. Desai of Stanford University.

- Nucleic Acid and Protein
• Belief that the hereditary material called nucleic acid carries the blueprint for the production of protein was considerably strengthened. (Protein is the basic stuff of living material.) This was reported by Dr. Norton Zinder of the Rockefeller Institute.

- Experiments with pregnant guinea pigs established that certain hormones (such as hydrocortisone) can provoke birth defects in offspring. This was demonstrated by Dr. Richard M. Hoar of the University of Cincinnati.

- Further evidence on hormones, obtained by dipping unhatched eggs in a hormone solution, led Dr. Gregory Pincus of the Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology to conclude that the problem of what causes some infants to be born with mixed-up sex characteristics may be a matter of hormones rather than heredity alone.

- In arthritis:
• Key evidence was uncovered by Dr. Robert A. Good at the University of Minnesota that the mysterious thymus gland, situated behind the breastbone, is responsible for the functioning of the body's immunity defense mechanism. Abnormal working of the immunity mechanism is believed involved in rheumatoid arthritis.

The discovery that there is a similar ground plan of chemicals in the connective tissue of many animals, ranging from the horseshoe crab to man was reported during the year by Dr. Albert Dorfman and his associates at the University of Chicago. This means that research in the connective tissue of animals can be related to the group that extension of the water permit for the Greenbelt Authority was granted by the commission on Dec. 30, 1962.

He pointed out that "time is of the essence" and added, "I am sure you will come to the right conclusion for the best interest of all cities in this area."

"Most people do not realize that the time will come when potable water will be hard to get. We must plan to use all our resources to obtain an adequate supply of potable water for this end of Texas," he added.

Speaking of the Greenbelt area, Judge Dent said, "I am confident that this will be the last opportunity for a municipal water supply for your cities."

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the many kind words, the food and flowers during our recent sorrow. It's wonderful to live among such friends. May God bless each of you.

has a drainage area of 425 square miles and enabled construction of a 100,000 acre-foot reservoir.

Freese went on to explain that cost of the dam and pipeline could possibly be financed by revenue bonds without any ad valorem taxes. He estimated cost at about $10 million.

He also pointed out that the Greenbelt project could possibly begin construction by the end of this year.

The Greenbelt Water Authority currently holds water rights on the Salt Fork of the Red River and has taken water samples daily for 5½ years to determine quantity and quality of water. The reservoir would serve the cities of Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis, Childress, Quanah, and Paducah.

Collingsworth Plan
Spillman explained the Collingsworth County proposal as a series of reservoirs and a diversion ditch to carry flood waters to lower restraining dams, thereby improving the quality of the water.

The reservoir proposed is located at the Little Gyp Site which was previously turned down by the Greenbelt Authority because the quality of water was not adequate.

In addition to the Little Gyp Site, Spillman said another reservoir was planned at Buck Creek with a diversion ditch connecting the two which would carry 500 acre-feet per day.

Cost of the project is estimated at about $29 million of which half would come as a direct grant from the federal government and the other half would be loaned by the government at 3½ per cent interest.

Spillman pointed out that Collingsworth County had already been designated as eligible for the loan under the Public Works Law.

He explained that the loan would be repaid with revenue from water sold to cities through a water purchase contract, from irrigation and recreational facilities.

While the Greenbelt Authority had sufficient data on quantity and quality, only cost remained a question. The Collingsworth County proposal left two questions to be answered, quality and cost.

Their proposed reservoirs would contain 120,000 acre-feet from a drainage area of 860 square miles. Quality and costs remained to be answered and brought forth the decision to continue separate studies for the present time.

Commissioner Speaks
Judge Otho Dent, a member of the Texas Water Commission, told the group that extension of the water permit for the Greenbelt Authority was granted by the commission on Dec. 30, 1962.

He pointed out that "time is of the essence" and added, "I am sure you will come to the right conclusion for the best interest of all cities in this area."

"Most people do not realize that the time will come when potable water will be hard to get. We must plan to use all our resources to obtain an adequate supply of potable water for this end of Texas," he added.

Speaking of the Greenbelt area, Judge Dent said, "I am confident that this will be the last opportunity for a municipal water supply for your cities."

The Merchants and Manufacturers Association, Los Angeles says that in the past six years, Social Security taxes have risen by 78 per cent, not counting the increase which went into effect on January 1. When the plan was instituted, it was forecast that the maximum cost would be $90 a year for each employee and employer. Now, however, the figure is expected to reach $222 each by 1968.

CITY DRUG

AUSTIN — Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford — one of the most militant members of the 58th Legislature — is examining the flight records of state-owned planes.

Cotten is concerned about what he considers frivolous use of state property . . . namely, three airplanes which the Department of Public Safety is supposed to use for transporting officers to distant scenes of crimes, or to attend law enforcement meetings without missing too many duty hours.

Cotten says he has discovered these planes have been used: For rushing a representative home for the week end; for ferrying a state senator home to make a speech; for transporting the state librarian to a monument on the coast "to get ideas on how to set up displays."

Cotten wants to know "How much did these junkets cost." State pilots haven't answered, but Austin airport authorities guess the cost at $26 to $75 an hour — depending on which plane is used — plus pilot's time.

Now the representative from Weatherford is talking about grounding all passengers except those who are entitled to use state planes for necessary, official business.

He plans to introduce a bill that would forbid legislators from hitch-hiking rides aboard the planes unless they were on official business.

PARENTAL SUPPORT BILL — A bill which would make relatives responsible for the welfare of the needy old people has been introduced by Rep. J. Collier Adams of Lubbock.

Patterned after the "Montana

Method," the bill calls for contributions to the support of citizens on Old Age Assistance rolls and disabled persons receiving state aid.

The "responsible" relatives could be the assistance recipient's parent, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, spouse, brother, sister, son, daughter or grandparent.

Proposed law would make a person earning $201 a month and supporting only himself pay $5 a month toward a relative's care. If he made $376 a month and was supporting two people, he'd have to pay $20.

"I just believe," Representative Adams said, "that the commandment 'Honor thy mother and father' should be upheld." He said he also figures that the most needy people could get larger benefit checks if others received semi-support from their families.

BRUCELLOSIS TESTS — Dr. John L. Wilbur, Jr., U. S. Department of Agriculture's animal disease eradication division, reported that public stockyards inspection last month revealed brucellosis infection ratios of 1 to 11 per cent.

High ratio was revealed at the Port City Stockyards in Houston. An infection ratio of only one per cent was found at San Antonio's Union Stockyards. Fort Worth Stockyards' ratio was 3.7 per cent.

NO EMERGENCY — The man who holds the state purse strings for the House of Representatives said he see no urgency requiring fast legislative action to bolster the screwworm eradication program by $1,400,000.

Chairman Bill Heatly of the House Appropriations Committee said his conclusion of a recent screwworm eradication project hearing is that livestock producers have raised enough money to keep the program going until March 1.

Meanwhile, an interim study committee headed by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo strongly recommended that the $1,400,000 be appropriated now, and another $1,600,000 be appropriated for the year beginning September 1.

This would make up the $3,000,000, members of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation have been seeking from the state.

FIRST APPOINTMENT — Gov. John Connally's first appointment act was to name Judge Louis T. Holland, Jr., of Montague as Presiding Judge of the 8th Administrative Judicial District.

Judge Holland will succeed Judge Jack M. Langdon of Fort Worth.

TRADING STAMP TAX — As an alternate to sending "the cream of business profits to out-of-state trading stamp companies," Rep. Jim Segrest of San Antonio proposed a 10 per cent gross receipts tax on trading stamps.

"Trading stamps are the most hated of all competitive weapons by even those who use them so why not tax such an unhealthy item?" Segrest asked.

He said his bill would bring millions to the state treasury as a balance to "some fifty million dollars" taken out of Texas annually by trading stamp companies.

$18,000,000 PLANT SECURED — Governor Connally, who's been determined to make this state a leader in securing new industry, was greatly pleased with the announcement that the Holly Sugar Corporation of Colorado Springs, Colorado, will establish an $18,000,000 sugar beet processing plant in Hereford.

Construction will begin soon, and the 1,700-acre plant is expected to be in operation by September 1, 1964.

"Establishment of this refinery is a big step toward providing new job opportunities for the citizens of Texas," Governor Connally wired the sugar firm.

COLLEGE HEARINGS SET — House State Affairs Committee — which has been the referral point of about one-third of 200 bills already introduced by the 58th Legislature — put college upgrading requests first on its agenda.

Bills being heard first are those designed to lend senior status and full state support to San Angelo Junior College and Odessa Junior College, and give full state support to Pan American College at Edinburg.

FUND-RAISING RESTRICTI-

TIONS — Sen. Criss Cole of Houston believes the state should keep tabs on all people who raise money for charity.

Many charitable organizations use professional money-raisers to conduct fund campaigns, and Cole proposes that the charities tell Secretary of State Crawford Martin:

1. What sort of deals they've made with their professional money-raisers;

2. What commissions the fund-raisers would get;

3. When solicitations will be held, and what will be done with the money solicited.

Annual reports of licensed organizations would be checked by a certified public accountant. Attorney general would halt the activities of organizations which try to raise cash without registering, unless they are exempt from the act.

FREE FISHING — An easing of fishing license requirements—aimed at helping unemployed persons on the Gulf Coast — has been introduced by Rep. Ed J. Harris of Galveston.

Harris proposed that citizens be allowed to fish with rod and reel in their home counties without paying $2.15 for a license. He described fishing in one's own county or from one's own property as a "basic, human right."

PURCHASE RAISE PROPOSED — A bill to raise from $150 to $500 the amount of "emergency purchases" a county can make without advertising for competitive bids has been drafted by Rep. Vernon Beckham of Denison.

Beckham said a county official can't buy a truckload of gasoline or a typewriter without exceeding the $150 limitation enacted in 1921.

Beckham introduced another bill which would raise the maximum to be spent by county commissioners on office buildings or jails in cities other than the county seat from $150,000 to $200,000.

OIL ALLOWABLE UPPED — Texas Railroad Commission has given oilmen their biggest production raise in many months.

Commission has set the February allowable at 29 per cent of potential. MEDICAL PRACTICE — Senator Jim Bates of Edinburg has introduced legislation (SB 64) aimed at licensing and regulating non-physician owned and operated clinical laboratories.

"This bill would strengthen the Texas Medical Practice Act," Bates says, "by establishing educational and experience standards as a requirement for licensing by the State Department of Health."

Bill also requires that all tests be performed only upon the request of a doctor.

TOO BIG — Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio wants to divide Texas into two states.

A constitutional amendment proposed by the colorful retired gambler would create the "State of South Texas." Berry envisions it as a tax-free paradise in which horse racing, liquor by the drink and tourist trade would flourish.

"Nearly all counties in 'South Texas' voted for racing last year," he said enthusiastically.

END AD VALOREM TAX — Legislation to abolish the state ad valorem tax in 1968 has been introduced in the House of Representatives.

Two constitutional amendments and a bill to do the job are being sponsored by Reps. Ben Atwell of Dallas and Charles N. Wilson of Trinity.

EXECUTION STAYED — Carolyn Lima, convicted murderer, still is scheduled to become the first woman in Texas to be executed.

Currently she is living on borrowed time, since Governor Connally has granted her the customary 30-day constitutional stay of execution.

Her "partner in murder," Leslie Douglas Ashley, also has been granted a "stay" which has set the new execution date for March 30.

Miss Lima and Ashley were convicted of murder in the slaying of Fred Tomes, Houston real estate dealer. Texas Court of Criminal Appeals twice has upheld the conviction and death sentence.

RAPID PACE — Highway construction moved along at a rapid, but not record, pace in Texas during 1962. State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer says Texas is "on schedule" in the interstate program.

He particularly notes, however, that Texas is building its mileage at about 60 per cent of what the cost per mile in other states has been.

Sprawling interstate systems and unique bridge projects highlighted the year for the Texas Highway Department.

Eighty-one new interstate miles were built in the state, bringing the total now open to traffic to 1,895 miles.

Texas' target is 3,000 miles by 1972, Greer says.

AG RENAMED — Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop has been reappointed Adjutant General of Texas by Governor Connally.

Brig. Gen. James D. Scott also was renamed assistant.

REDISTRICTING PROPOSED — Dallas County will get Texas' 23rd Congressman if the 9-man Dallas House delegation has its way.

All three Democrat and six Republican House members have joined in introducing a bill to redistrict the state.

Their proposal would split the county into two congressional districts along the north-south line which now divides county commissioner precincts.

CONSTITUTION REVISION — Rep. Carl Parker of Port Arthur says he will handle in the House a measure creating a 40-man commission to study revision of the Texas Constitution.

A similar measure, SB 31, has been introduced in the Senate by Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston.

BAR OBSCENE FILMS — A bill to prevent showing of obscene movie films in Texas has won the approval of the Senate State Affairs Committee.

Measure, sponsored by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, would place censorship restrictions on foreign films and films traveling across state lines, two film types now unrestricted.

A staff aide said the present total of full and part-time workers is less than the previous administration's.

He also noted that the office is "not yet fully staffed."

There are new faces at nearly all desks but most have worked in and around the capitol in the past.

SENTENCE THROWN OUT — Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin has reversed a 25-year sentence for murder.

A Harris County district court had found Hoover Small, a legless Houston resident, guilty of murder with malice in the shooting death of his wife.

The murder weapon could not be found.

Appeals court's opinion said Small could not get down the steps of his apartment to dispose of a weapon without aid.

VOTER REGISTRATION — Annual voter registration has been proposed in the Texas Senate by Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells.

Bill was filed in anticipation of poll tax repeal this year or next.

Senator Creighton is chairman of the interim Committee on Texas Election Law Study. His bill is said to reflect the committee's recommendations.

TEXAS CRUDE USE — Texas refineries may have to buy three-fourths of their crude oil within the state.

Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity has introduced a bill declaring about "75 per cent of the total stock of crude petroleum and natural gas refined, reclaimed, treated or processed by any person or company shall be from wells in Texas."

PARKING GARAGE URGED — A House legislative committee has recommended that the state go into the parking-garage business and urged endorsement of such a measure by March 1.

If passed, the Texas Employment Commission can use $300,000 from an unemployment fund to construct the garage.

Senator Curtis of Nebraska says: "Under a socialistic system, men work not for profit, or the hope of a profit, they work from compulsion."

Dogettes Select Outstanding Players

The CJC Dogettes have selected the outstanding Bulldogs in several of their recent games. In the Amarillo game which was played here on Jan. 11, Jimmy Boyd, a freshman from Vernon, was selected as the outstanding player. He scored 23 points in the game and has maintained a 17 point per game average throughout the season. He plays guard and most of his points are from 20 to 35 feet out. He has a good eye for the basket and puts forth a lot of hustle in every game.

Alvin Scott, a sophomore from Quanah, was selected for his outstanding play in the Decatur game which was played in Decatur on Jan. 19. He made 15 points in the game and was outstanding on defense.

Max Courtney, the tall center from Wellington, was selected for his play in the San Angelo game played here on Jan. 22. Max got 15 rebounds and eight points, although he played little more than half the game. He left the game because of personal fouls five minutes deep in the second half with the Bulldogs trailing the powerful Rams by only two points.

The Frank Phillips game, played at Berger on Tuesday night of last week, saw Clarendon's James Allen as the outstanding player. James made nine points and was outstanding on defense. James is only a freshman this year and great things are expected of him for next year.

The Odessa game played last Friday night in Odessa again saw Max Courtney come out as the Bulldog's outstanding player. He made 14 points and got 17 rebounds. Max is second in the conference in rebounds although he seldom plays more than half the game.

High School Teams Win Pair Tuesday

Both the Bronchos and Bronchoettes took conference wins from Wellington on the local court last Tuesday night.

The Bronchos took an early lead and never looked better as they came through under pressure in the last quarter to take their first conference win of the season. Dwight McAnear and John Cearley shared scoring honors for the Bronchos as each put in 15 points.

The Bronchoettes took a 12-5 first quarter lead that stood 24-17 at half time. Sharon Williams, Dorothy Richey and Cheryl Fedric, in combined effort, scored 20 points the third quarter to increase the margin to 44-31. Mollie Floyd, Janie Ivey and Janette Rumpy managed to hold the opponents score down to 35 points while keeping the ball in the Bronchoettes forward's hands enough to allow them to score 50 points. Dorothy Richey, who has been plagued with knee injuries during all conference play, has apparently recovered fully, as she poured in 34 important points for the team. Cheryl Fedric, a freshman, has finally found herself and has played some real nice ball for her team the last three games. Cheryl scored 10 points while Sharon Williams, a senior, scored 6 points.

If the Bronchoettes do not lose another game and if some other team defeats Wellington, the Bronchoettes stand a chance for a play-off game. To this point Canadian and Wellington have lost only one game each, while Clarendon is down 2 games.

The first official American flag was displayed on Prospect Hill, Jan. 1, 1776.

Texas Tourist Industry Shows 7 Per Cent Gain

AUSTIN — The economy of the State of Texas received a substantial $31 million boost in 1962 as the Texas Tourist Industry registered a seven per cent gain, the Texas Highway Department announced today.

Making its annual report on the tourist industry, the Department said tourists spent $471 million in Texas during 1962 — a healthy $31 million increase over the previous year.

Texas also showed a vigorous gain in total numbers of tourists, with 9.6 million out-of-state visitors coming to Texas in 1962. This was 1.2 million more than the comparable total for 1961 — an increase of some 14 per cent.

Under the authorization of the Texas Legislature, the Highway Department carries on a tourist attraction program, compiling and distributing numerous publications, films, posters and other material to fill needs for travel information. In 1962 the Department distributed 200,000 travel brochures, and 750,000 highway travel maps.

Eight Tourist Bureaus are operated by the Department at key entry points to the state, manned by well-trained Travel Counselors who dispense free information on Texas and skillfully stimulate additional recreational travel by incoming tourists. Some 400,000 tourists visit these Bureaus each year.

Many thousands of dollars of free publicity are obtained for the State of Texas each year by the Department, which from its extensive photographic files and storehouse of knowledge on Texas' highway attractions provides needed information to national news media such as LIFE Magazine, the Perry Como Show and the TODAY Show on network television, and motion-picture studios such as 20th Century-Fox.
