MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY DRIVE TO BE CONTINUED TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3

Due to the Presidential Funeral we were unable to get our workers together for the Muscular Dystrophy Drive on the west side of town. We will continue this fund raising campaign Tuesday night, December 3. Clarendon Volunteer Firemen and Explorer Scouts are conducting the drive.

Muscular Dystrophy is crippling and may strike young or old. There is no known cure, but researchers are constantly striving to find a cause and cure.

We have no known cases in our county but we do have people who have relatives that are bed-ridden patients and are receiving care from Muscular Dystrophy.

Please leave your porch light on and give generously that this dread disease may eventually be wiped out.

Mrs. Jo McMurtry was returned home Monday from an Amarillo hospital. She is recovering from a hip injury.

John F. Kennedy Is Assassinated; Johnson New President

The American public as well as the entire world was shocked last Friday when word was flashed on the air that President John Fitzgerald Kennedy had been assassinated in Dallas. He died about 1 p.m. in a Dallas hospital. Texas Governor John B. Connally, riding with the President, was critically wounded but at this time is reported improving rapidly.

Funeral services for John F. Kennedy were held Monday with burial in Arlington National Cemetery. Most all of Clarendon business firms along with schools and government offices were closed all day or part of the day Monday in tribute to our late President.

About an hour and 39 minutes after John F. Kennedy died, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson took the oath of office as the 36th President of the United States.

Police later arrested Lee Harvey Oswald of Fort Worth in connection with the slaying. The 24-year-old pro-Castro Marxist was being transferred in handcuffs from Dallas City Jail to a maximum security cell at the county jail house when Jack Ruby, a one-time Chicago street brawler and owner of a Dallas strip-tease night club, leaped from a crowd of newsmen and policemen with a curse, jammed a snub-nosed .38 caliber pistol into Oswald's side, fired one shot. He took to the grave with him the reason Kennedy was killed if, as police are convinced without doubt, he was the assassin.

President Lyndon B. Johnson is reported to be one of the best prepared men to take over such a big undertaking. In the loss of the late President John F. Kennedy, we can only look to the brighter side of anticipating that President Johnson will fulfill his new position well as leader of our nation.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving is traditionally American. Over three hundred years ago the Pilgrim Fathers turned their backs on a world of entrenched selfishness to build a nation under God. They met on that first Thanksgiving Day to express their thanks to God for His many blessings. Their earnest and sincere efforts were based on a faith founded in the God of the universe. Thus, they reaped their reward which later resulted in a representative form of constitutional democracy, and brought us freedom. For these efforts we can be truly thankful.

One of the finest features of Thanksgiving in this land is the privilege of living in a country where each individual may unite to share in the protection and defense of the American principle of life. Our way of living has more regard for the sanctity of the individual than any other system of government devised by the mind of man.

As a people we are rich in heritage. Our founding fathers were men of vision. They were individuals of tremendous faith. We are their descendants. May we now be like them in giving thanks. May we pattern our future after their vision. May we in possessing their intimate faith in God behold a vision more glorious.

Surely we can with sincerity join the Psalmist in saying, "O Give Thanks unto the Lord; for He is good: For His mercy endureth forever!"

Girl Scout Fund Raising Drive To Get Under Way Dec. 2

The Girl Scout fund raising campaign will get under way December 2 and continue through December 6. It will be directed by Beta Sigma Phi with Mrs. Bill Williams, president, serving as chairman. The Young Homemakers Club will also assist in soliciting. Jo Ann Benton will be campaign auditor, and Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan will serve as neighborhood chairman.

Clarendon Girl Scouts are a unit of the Quivira Girl Scout Council composed of 2,445 girl memberships and 586 adult memberships. Purpose of the drive is to raise funds to support the Council's day-to-day operation, to provide additional professional training staff, to enlarge and improve the opportunities for day camping, and to purchase an established camp within the council.

Juliette Low, Founder of Girl Scouting in the United States, said, "Have you ever stopped to think that your most constant companion throughout life will be yourself? You will always have this body, this mind, and this spirit that you call 'I'... but this body and this mind and this spirit are constantly changing and growing, and it is quite possible for the owner to direct this growth and change. In order to live well, in order to possess the joy of life, and to be helpful to others, a Scout needs to apply her motto 'Be Prepared' to herself. Strength and beauty should be hers in body, mind and spirit." And strength and beauty in body and spirit are indeed the heritage of the Girl Scouts in the United States.

A kick-off coffee for workers is being planned by Mary Neal Risley and will be held in the Hospitality Room at the Farmers State Bank. Girl Scout Troop Leaders in Clarendon are Mesdames U. G. Swinney, Arthur J. Roberts, Jack Hall, and Kenneth Vaughan.

Mrs. Eva Humphrey left Tuesday for Riverside, Calif., where she will spend the winter with her children.

County-Wide Highway Committee To Be Organized Here

Approximately 35 men and women from all parts of Donley County attended the meeting sponsored by the Highway Committee of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce in the hospitality room of the Farmers State Bank at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 21. The meeting which was presided over by John R. Gillham, local Chamber of Commerce Highway Committeeman, was opened with a general discussion of the highway problem in the county and a discussion of the proposed roads in the county. The group voted unanimously to make the Alanreed-Lelia Lake road the number one project for the county as soon as the road from McLean to the highway east from Hedley is completed.

The group voted to set up a county-wide highway committee of 12 people and with the four commissioners and county judge being ex-officio members of the committee. Each present county commissioner was asked to name three members from his precinct to represent the people in his area. The group will meet and organize during the first week in December, and will announce their plans and programs after this organizational meeting. The organizational meeting will be held at the Farmers State Bank hospitality room at 7:30 p.m. on the night of December 5th.

The meeting was well attended and there was a congenial air among those attending. The entire group attending seemed to realize the necessity of cooperation among the sections of the county will be necessary if Donley County is to develop a program whereby they will be able to secure the share of state funds for county highway work to which Donley County is entitled.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Thanksgiving Day — Past And Present

Let us all give thanks on this Thanksgiving Day for the blessings of peace and of abundance. As it was in the earliest Colonial days of our country, this is a holiday for families and friends to be together, and to express their thanks to God for the good things that have come into their lives and to their nation. We do indeed have much to be thankful for.

"Today we give our thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers — for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and the humility, which they possessed and which we must seek every day to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them." These sentences are from the late President Kennedy's proclamation designating Thursday, November 28, as a day of national thanksgiving.

This year's holiday marks the 100th anniversary of the first of the "modern" Thanksgiving Days as set by Presidential proclamation. In 1863, in the darkness of the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln called upon his fellow citizens "to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next as a day of thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens." President George Washington's first Thanksgiving proclamation set the date as November 26, 1789, and six years elapsed before his second proclamation, which called for a Thanksgiving Day in March, 1795. From then until the Civil War there were very few Thanksgiving proclamations by the Presidents. But in the meantime, one by one, State governors took it on themselves to issue Thanksgiving proclamations. President Lincoln's proclamation setting November 26, 1863, as the date was the first Presidential proclamation in more than a score of years, and from that time forward Presidents followed Lincoln's precedent and set Thanksgiving Day on the last Thursday in November.

President Roosevelt's action in 1939 broke that long-established precedent. He set Thanksgiving Day on the 23rd of November, which was the next to last, not the last, Thursday in November. It was within Roosevelt's power to do this but the purpose, which was to afford merchants a longer pre-Christmas shopping season, aroused controversy. Twenty-three of the states refused to observe what critics called "Roosevelt's New Deal Thanksgiving" — and Texas and Colorado decided to have two Thanksgiving Days that year. Despite the uproar, President Roosevelt stuck to the next to last (or, in these instances, the third) Thursday of November in 1940 and 1941. Then, on December 26, 1941, Congress enacted a statute making Thanksgiving a Federal holiday on the fourth Thursday in November. Although the States can and have observed Thanksgiving on other dates in the years since, the fourth Thursday remains the official date for Thanksgiving Day as proclaimed by Presidents Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower, and Kennedy since 1941. No Thanksgiving proclamation was issued in more perilous times than was that first proclamation of Abraham Lincoln. David Homer Bates, the telegraph office chief, commented: "This proclamation is remarkable not only as exhibiting the President's implicit reliance on an 'ever-watchful God' but for beauty of phrase and logical belief in an overruling Providence. No ruler of millions, since King David the Psalmist, has clothed great thoughts in sublimer language." It was appropriate in this anniversary year that the late President Kennedy, in his 1963 proclamation of Thanksgiving Day, called attention to Lincoln's famous words of 100 years ago.

CONARC COMMANDER, General John K. Waters, approaches a CH47 CHINOOK helicopter crewman of the 228th Assault Support Helicopter Battalion while visiting the Army's 11th Air Assault Division at Fort Benning, Ga. At the right is the Division Commander, Brig Gen Harry W. O. Kinnard. General Waters' visit preceded the Air Assault Division's big Fall maneuver, SK SOLDIER I.

One paragraph in that Lincoln proclamation is as meaningful in this year of trial for the United States as it was in 1863. I quote to you: "Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense have not arrested the plow, the shuttle, or the ship; the ax has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege, and the battlefield, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom."

Said the late President Kennedy at the close of his proclamation: "Let us therefore proclaim our gratitude to Providence for manifold blessings — let us be humbly thankful for inherited ideals — and let us resolve to share those blessings and those ideals with our fellow human beings throughout the world."

May your own Thanksgiving Day be a day of happiness and renewal.

OAKDALE, CALIF., LEADER: "Some youngsters in an Arizona school declined to rise when the National Anthem was sung and were expelled from the school. Their parents took the case to court, asking reinstatement of their children, using the right of individual freedom as the basis of their suit. The judge ruled that the First Amendment's guarantee of religious freedom, and freedom of expression' was his reason for invalidating the law. The so-called individual freedoms do have a limit beyond which they can not extend and one, it would seem, should be the nationally accepted patriotic observances we all offer to our National Anthem and our American Flag."

E. P. Sheltons Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Shelton, long time residents of Clarendon, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, November 23, at Patching Club House with a tea given by their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton were married in Clarendon November 23, 1913. Mrs. Shelton is the former Edith Gorrissen of Graham and Dallas and came to Clarendon in 1908 to teach English in the high school. Mr. Shelton came from Alabama to Clarendon in 1910. For many years he was in the grocery business. The Sheltons now spend the winter months in Lampasas.

The Sheltons have two daughters, Mrs. Edith Shelton McCandless of Lampasas and Mrs. Pauline Shelton Dunlap of San Antonio. They also have two granddaughters, Debbie McCandless of Lampasas and Mary Dunlap Ecuier of Lubbock.

Receiving rooms were decorated with flower arrangements of mums and gladioli in colors of gold and bronze. The serving table was covered with a beautiful white lace cloth and appointments were of brass and crystal. The centerpiece was of white mums, spangled with gold, and gold leaves and grapes in a brass container. Brass candelabra holding white tapered tapers flanked the floral arrangement. Mrs. Clough Shelton of Dallas and Mrs. L. B. Schwartzback of Houston, a great-niece of the Sheltons, served the cake while Helen Shelton Little of San Antonio and Mrs. Richard J. Ecuier of Lubbock, a granddaughter, poured punch.

Mrs. H. T. Burton greeted guests at the door and in turn, the Sheltons greeted their many friends.

Assisting with the tea were Mesdames L. N. Cox, Bill Thornberry, Charles Lowry, Frank Phelan, Sr., and Wm. J. Lowe. Debbie McCandless, granddaughter of the Sheltons, presided over the guest book. She was assisted by Cindy Lowe. Mrs. John Bass played appropriate piano selections throughout the afternoon. Approximately 130 guests called during the receiving hours. Then the film of their game with Memphis when they were in the 8th grade. It was very interesting and entertaining. They well remembered the score of that game—it was 22-0 for the Colts.

Local Farm Bureau Directors Meet

The Directors of the Donley County Farm Bureau met in regular session Tuesday night in the County Agent's office. Present were: Coleman Shields, Pres.; Maurice Risley, Vice Pres.; L. B. Snyder, insurance agent; Hubert Rhoades, Blue Cross-Blue Shield Group Hospital Insurance Agent; Sue Rhoades, Sec.-Treas.; and Directors, Clarence Ayers, Lacy Noble and Lee Shaller. Guests present were: Mrs. Clarence Ayers, Mrs. Lacy Noble and Mrs. L. B. Snyder.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, also the report of the secretary. Lee Shaller reported that the membership drive went over the top with 211 members, leaving 15 members needed to reach a quota of 226 members which will give Donley Co. three voting delegates to the State convention next fall.

Mrs. Rhoades expressed their appreciation for the flowers sent to the services of Mary Sue.

Coleman Shields having called Lee Shaller inquiring into the possibility of ordering flowers. It was suggested that the directors chip in and purchase them, rather than pay out of the treasury.

Resolved to strive to send flowers to all past or present directors or their wives in their passing.

E. W. Anglin and Earl Myers were elected to the Board of Directors.

Two directors are needed to fill the Class of '65, replacing Ira Self who has moved to Collingsworth Co. and Stanley Lamb, who declined to serve, and one to fill the Class of '66.

Resolved to move the meeting night up to the 2nd Tuesday night of each month because of its conflict with the meeting of the Young Farmers Organization. Lee Shaller was named Publicity Chairman.

L. B. Snyder gave a report especially concerning auto insurance and uninsured cars involved. Insurance on cotton trailers. We were also informed that delinquency in Farm Bureau membership dues have been cut to two months instead of six months, where members are participating in the Farm Bureau Insurance Program.

May I remind you that Farm Bureau is a democratic organization, and membership is voluntary, but the insurance program is set up by regional and state directors and for its members.

Marked increases were recorded in all major categories of FBI accomplishment in the past year, according to Director J. Edgar Hoover. There were rises in convictions in FBI-handled cases and in the apprehension of fugitives. Fines, savings and recoveries exceeded $200 million as compared with $148,421,690 in 1961. This figure, Mr. Hoover added, far exceeds the funds spent to operate the bureau.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Cotton Allotment Notices To Be Mailed

Notices of individual farm acreage allotments for the 1964 upland cotton crop will be mailed to farmers in Donley County within the next few days. Any questions about the allotments should be taken up immediately after receiving the allotment notice with the ASC County Committee.

The intention is to let farmers know how the allotment program will effect their farms well in advance of the Dec. 10 referendum on marketing quotas for the 1964 upland cotton crop. The law requires a favorable vote by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in order to keep marketing quotas in effect.

Growers eligible to vote are all those farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1963.

If the vote is favorable quotas will apply to the 1964 upland cotton crop, with penalties on any "excess" cotton produced; price support to growers who comply with their farm allotments will be available at a level within the range of from 65 to 90 percent of parity.

If the vote is unfavorable, there will be no quotas or penalties on the 1964 upland cotton crop, and price support to growers who comply with their farm allotments will be available at 50% of parity.

If you have any questions about your eligibility to vote or if you wish additional information about the cotton program, see your ASC Committee.

AREA ONE JAYCEES TO HELP BOYS RANCH

For the third straight year, Area One Jaycees are teaming up with farmers, ranchers, and businessmen of the Texas Panhandle to help the more than 300 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

Clarendon Jaycees are among the more than 30 Junior Chambers of Commerce who are collecting grain and roughage from area producers, and helping with the delivery to Boys Ranch for the livestock there.

The "Jaycee's Grain-Sorghum for Boys Ranch" program is now an annual project that began in 1961 to help the boys care for their livestock. The Ranch does not have the pastureage needed to grow the large amount of feed necessary for the animals each year.

At the present time, 312 boys are being cared for, trained and educated at the Ranch. The 52 dairy cows milked by the Ranchers provide over 100 gallons of milk daily for them. The boys also fatten the heaves that are donated to the Ranch, averaging about 20 at a time in the pens.

The livestock program also includes 45 horses and more than 400 hogs. The FFA swine production program alone averages more than 2000 pounds of feed daily. Many of the boys raise 40 sows and gilts are kept for breeding. Around 275 hogs are processed each year by older boys who take butchering and meat-cutting for their vocational training.

Chauncey Hommel is president of the Clarendon Jaycees, and Don Parsons of Dimmitt is Area Project chairman. Currently, three boys from the Clarendon area are being cared for at Boys Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simpson and family from Bethany, Conn., spent two weeks with Mrs. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allison, and her sister, Mary, and family, all of Amarillo. Mrs. R. W. Borchardt of Route 2, Plainview, Texas, who reads our column on Southwestern Crop & Stock, requests a copy of a poem which begins as follows:

THE HERITAGE
"The rich man's son inherits lands

And piles of stone and brick and gold,
And he inherits soft white hands
And tender flesh that fears the cold."
If you have a copy of this poem please send it to Mrs. Borchardt or to this column and we will pass it along to her.

"The voice of the majority is no proof of justice." —Schiller
I am not sure in which century Mr. Schiller wrote the above words, but they could never be more true than about this modern day. Our greatest fear of this age could well be that some evil leader with a well packed bag of promises might stir the voice of the majority. It seems such an easy and natural thing just to be one of the gang, the club, the group, the party, or even the church. The majority of the people said "Away with Christ, and Crucify Him" but this was no proof of justice.

Mr. Cummings, our pen-friend from Tampa, Florida, sends us a book full of Chinese proverbs. From time to time we will use some of the ones we like best. "Swiftest horse cannot overtake the word once spoken."
"Before you beat the dog, learn the owners name."

A good way to keep from "Flipping one's lid" is to always keep both feet on solid ground.

A sure way to wind up with your nose to the grindstone is to start out with it too high in the air.

Mrs. D. E. Colbert of Rt. No. 3, Box 84, Altoona, Pa., asks if we know the difference between a tight shoe and an oak tree. It seems that one makes corns ache while the other makes acorns. She would like to hear from some ladies in the Lone Star State. She has six children, three of which are ham radio operators.

The above lady had these 4-D's on her letter; D-liver, D-letter, D-sooner, D-better.

The trouble with being a Good Joe, is that you can easily go busted trying to prove it.

One father said that he loved the groom like he should his own son, and didn't mind at all giving the bride away... but it seemed that the gift wrapping just about broke him up.

You can tell a man's physical condition by what he takes two of — stairs or pills.

Two grandmothers were bragging on their grandchildren. Greatly impressed one asked the other; "And just how old are your grandsons?" "Well," replied the other, "The lawyer is four and the doctor is two."

FEMALE HOUSEFLIES PRODUCE ATTRACTANT

COLLEGE STATION — Science has moved a step closer to biological control of houseflies with the discovery that female flies produce a chemical substance that attracts male flies, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Entomologists have found that the substance is highly specific in its attraction, not attracting female houseflies or flies of other species. The Department says that though more work is needed before the attractant is practical, it could be a preliminary step in developing new ways to control this insect pest.

The substance may be used to lure male flies into traps, to poison baits, or to a chemical sterilant. A prime advantage of attractants is that any chemicals

National Infant Testing Program Helps Prevent Mental Retardation

A major advance in early detection of one of the hidden causes of severe mental retardation is fast proving its worth, thanks to the "help" of thousands of newborn babies.

These children are among the first to benefit from a new, nationwide screening program for early detection of PKU (phenylketonuria), an inherited error in body chemistry which causes severe mental retardation unless treated in time.

The screening program, started in recent months, will eventually include some 600,000 newborn babies in the United States. Already 137,000 newborns have undergone the simple test which was devised by Dr. Robert Guthrie of Children's Hospital, Buffalo, N. Y., with the help of a grant from The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

Without the blood test, no one might have realized until too late that an infant had PKU. Such babies seem normal at birth and for several months thereafter.

But they lack a liver enzyme which enables the system to process an essential nutrient found in all protein foods.

Within a day or two after the PKU infant's first milk feeding, the nutrient, called phenylalanine, begins to build up in his system. If the accumulation is not checked by special diet, abnormal amounts of phenylalanine soon begin to damage the developing brain.

First outward signs of mental deficiency usually show up when the PKU victim is three to six months old. At that age, a low-phenylalanine diet can halt the deteriorating process but cannot repair the harm already done.

The problem is to detect PKU not only before damage is evident but before it has any chance to start. Until recently this has been extremely difficult.

A hereditary condition, PKU is transmitted through defective genes from both parents. Although the parents are "carriers," they themselves do not show any symptoms of the condition. Statistically, one in every four children of such a union may inherit PKU.

Kits for early detection in babies of PKU, which can cause severe mental retardation, are assembled for distribution to U. S. hospitals by Sheila M. Kuhn, lab technician. March of Dimes contributions supported research in this health area by Dr. Robert Guthrie, Children's Hospital, Buffalo, N. Y.

Before development of the Guthrie test, with the aid of a March of Dimes grant, it was common for the first defective child in such a family to go undiagnosed and untreated until he was beyond help. Alerted by the first tragedy, doctors would then test subsequent children of the same parents and in most cases could prevent brain damage in the younger ones.

The usual test for PKU was the well-known "diaper test" involving the reaction of an infant's urine to ferric chloride. But that test is not effective until several weeks after birth—after enough phenylalanine has built up to "spill over" into the urine, and long after most newborns have gone home from the hospital.

The new Guthrie test, however, requiring only a speck of blood from a prick on a baby's heel, can be done on the fourth or fifth day of life. This makes it possible to screen all babies before they leave the hospital, thus detecting even the first-born of unknown PKU carriers before a deadly excess of phenylalanine starts its ravages.

The current field trials of the Guthrie test, sponsored by the Children's Bureau of the United States Public Health Service, are being conducted with the cooperation of 30 state health departments in this country. The PKU Central Laboratory in Buffalo is shipping 300 kits each week to hospitals throughout the United States. Each kit contains materials for 500 tests. Dramatic results are already becoming apparent.

Of a little girl in New York State, who was among the first 850 babies routinely tested after the field trial started in that area, Dr. Guthrie has said: "This is probably the first baby in medical history to be diagnosed within the first month of life without sacrificing the brain of an older brother or sister."

combined with them do not come in contact with people, crops, livestock, fish or wildlife, the USDA explains.

Scientists of the USDA tested the attractant with the use of a device which did not allow the male flies to see the females. Female flies were also frozen so that they made no sound and placed in the device and the male flies once again were attracted to them. From these tests researchers conclude that the smell emitted by the females was the attracting force.

Future work on the project will attempt to isolate, and chemically identify the substance and learn where it is produced in the female fly's body. By the use of such attractants USDA scientists hope to be able to develop insect control methods that are specific in their action and thus lessen the danger to beneficial forms of life.

AUSTIN — Now you can call him "Governor Crump!"

Sen. Louis Crump of San Saba has joined the list of "Governor for a Day" honorees. Friends of the popular senator poured into Austin until it practically was "San Saba Day" at the Capitol.

It is customary for Texas' top-ranking State Senator to take over the reins of government when both the governor and the lieutenant governor are out of the state. That happened Thursday.

Among the hundreds of people coming to call on "Governor" and Mrs. Crump in the Capitol, and during an evening reception in the Driskill Hotel, were some 200 who drove from San Saba in a caravan of cars.

More than 15 State Senators were on hand, together with a goodly number of other elected state officials, to congratulate the 47-year-old attorney. Crump, now in his fifth year of office, represents an 18,000-square-mile district containing 18 counties. That's an area bigger than many of our states.

Featured speakers at the testimonial dinner, during which the modest Crump was regaled with tributes and gifts, were Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo. Hardeman is from a neighboring district that is even larger than Crump's.

Crump issued one proclamation. It commended the screw-worm eradication program. He urged Texans to continue supporting it. He said the program reduced infestations from weekly totals exceeding 2,000 a year ago to an average of 300 per week this fall.

OIL PRODUCTION UP — Texas Railroad Commission has increased allowable oil production for December to 28 percent of potential. This will permit Texas oilmen to produce more oil during 1963 than any year since 1959.

Commission's new order set December allowable production at 2,856,214 barrels. November's was 2,808,183 under a 27.5 percent order.

Total 1963 production is estimated at 918,000,000 barrels. That's the highest annual figure since the 944,400,000 barrels in 1959. Partial credit for the increase was given to success of the percentage factor adopted in place of the shut-in day method of Commission calculation on production last January.

AGENCIES PICKED — Board of Advisors of the Texas Tourist Development Agency has selected the advertising firms which will compete for the State's first $200,000 travel promotion account.

They are: White and Shuford of El Paso; Goodwin, Dannenbaum, Littman and Wingfield of Houston; Pitluk Advertising Agency of San Antonio; Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborne of Dallas; McCann-Erickson of Houston; and Fuller, Smith and Ross of Fort Worth.

At a Board meeting to be held here January 16-17 each agency will submit a detailed presentation showing how it proposes to advertise Texas' tourist attractions. State contractor will go to the agency whose presentation is judged best by the Board.

NEW LEGISLATORS — Recent special elections sent three new members to the State House of Representatives.

Dallas picked two more Republicans, Jack Sampell and Hughes Brown, leaving Ben Atwell as the only Democratic House member from Big D.

Travis County voters selected a young Democrat, Bob Armstrong. He came out first in a big field, by a narrow margin, over Republican Pete Hord. No runoff is necessary in the legislative contests.

DROUGHT PUTS DAIRYMEN IN DANGER — Agriculture Commissioner John White said denial by railroads of an urgent request for freight-rate reductions on hay to be shipped into drought disaster areas "squeezed out the last hope of our dairymen to stay in business during the present emergency."

"Without a freight rate reduction to ease their costs during the next three critical months," says White, "our dairymen apparently must look for an increase in raw-milk prices, or be forced out of business."

White said hay costs have increased from 75 to 100 percent over normal and probably would go higher due to high freight charges on bringing in hay from other parts of the country.

STATE DEFICIT — State's General Revenue Fund was $18,500,000 in the red at the end of October. Receipts totaled $5,000,000 less than revenue.

State governmental expenses totaled $128,800,000 last month. Income from various taxes and collections came to only $123,900,000. Cigarette, beer and wine taxes provided $9,700,000. A total of $10,000,000 came from the sales tax. Other big income producers included: crude oil production tax, $10,200,000; motor fuel taxes, $16,800,000; federal highway grants, $15,000,000; and federal public welfare grants, $14,300,000.

KEEP POLL TAX — A lopsided majority of Texas counties voted in favor of retaining the poll tax as a qualification for voting. In all, only 25 — mainly in South and Central Texas — wanted to repeal it.

Rural areas voted strongly against repeal. Metropolitan areas voted to repeal the tax — but very few took the time to vote. Other explanations as to how-come vary widely:

Not enough hard work by the proponents, suggested Mrs. Maurice Brown of Waco, head of the League of Women Voters. A light vote, apathy and disinterest, said Sen. Ralph Yarborough. The race issue was the downfall of the amendment, figured Clarence Laws, NAACP regional director. Republicans are "solidifying their vote in Texas," said Horace Houston, GOP candidate for lieutenant governor. Failure of poll tax amendment cannot be credited to partisan efforts, concluded Rep. George Hinson.

Of the four amendment submitted, only one passed. It raised to $60,000,000 the State fund ceiling on aid to the needy and liberalizes administration of the programs.

TEXAS TRAFFIC — Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the State Department of Public Safety, told Governor Connally, "It is almost certain that the death toll in traffic in Texas for 1963 will be the greatest on record.

"From July 5 to November 3, there was an average increase of motoricides of 8 percent over the same period in 1962. On this basis, a projection to the end of this year indicates a death toll of 2,613, which would exceed the 1956 record of 2,611."

In reply, Connally issued his ideas on priority traffic safety needs:

- 1) Improve competence and responsibility of drivers by revision of present obsolete driver licensing law.
- 2) Improve police supervision of traffic on rural highways by increasing the salary and benefits of DPS patrolmen and increasing the number of patrolmen by 200 each two years to an eventual strength of 1,800.
- 3) Include approved high school driver education courses in the Foundation School Program.
- 4) Improve administration of justice and public respect for traffic laws through the creation of modern Traffic Courts of Record, as recommended by the American Bar Association.

DREDGING ISSUE — Republican National Committeeman Albert B. Fay charges that the three-member Parks and Wildlife Commission is made up of Central and South Texans, thus leaving "most of the State with no regional representation."

He sharply criticized Governor Connally for the Commission's decision permitting dredging of shell within 300 feet of live oyster reefs in Galveston and Trinity Bays.

A coastal group, "Save Our Shell," formed to fight the decision through court action, demanded resignation of the Commission. Connally said he had faith in the members or he would not have named them in the first place. Dredging dispute is shaping into a major issue, with strong statewide political implications.

HISTORICAL JOURNAL PUBLISHED — Texas State Library announced publication of the first of two books about the 9th Legislature, which was in session during the Civil War. Title is "The Senate Journal of the 9th Legislature of the State of Texas, First Called Session." Volume is available, for $4.50, from the State Library.

One of its interesting features is publication of the complete address Gov. Francis R. Lubbock gave before the 9th Legislature on February 5, 1863.

WATER RIGHTS EXPANSION SOUGHT — State water rights of the Lower Neches Valley Authority would be clarified and expanded under an application filed with the Texas Water Commission for a permit to use the entire yield of Sam Rayburn Dam and Dam "B" Reservoirs.

Irrigated area below Beaumont would be expanded by 55,000 a year. Bed and banks of the Neches and Pine Island Bayou would be used to transport the water to the LNVA canal system.

Original authorization in 1914 was to irrigate 60,000 acres annually, from within an area of 190,445 acres. If the new permit request is granted, this would be expanded to 115,000 acres annually, to be selected from a 432,985 acre area.

SHORT SNORTS — Judge Jack Pope, associate justice of the San Antonio Court of Civil Appeals, will run for the State

Supreme Court post to be vacated by Judge Frank P. Culver, Jr. Dr. A. B. Templeton, Alvin Junior College president, is the new executive director of the Governor's 25 member Committee on Higher Education.

The notion that massive federal intervention is the only solution to the problems confronting American education has been called "bunk" by Ladd Plumley, President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He pins the same label on ideas that Russia is turning out super-scientists "while our own schoolmasters fumble along with inadequate schools and inept students (and) that everything will be worse tomorrow."

BULLDOGS WIN SECOND STRAIGHT — MIDWESTERN IS NEXT

A large crowd of local fans were treated to a fast playing defensive game with the Bulldogs putting the damper on Wayland's revenge effort. The Bulldogs went into the second half with a one point lead falling behind in the early part of the period. After rallying to overcome the battling Pioneer's lead, the home boys were able to go on to a victorious 69-54. The Pioneer's were successful in stopping the ball control displayed in last week's game, but were unable to stop the fast sideline shooting of the Bulldogs. Jimmy Boyd was high point man for Clarendon with 17 points for his team-mate, Randle Murry, William Holder collected 22 points for Wayland.

The Bulldogs take to the road for the next two games, Saturday (November 30) with Midwestern University "B" at Wichita Falls and the West Texas Freshmen at Canyon on Monday (December 2). Midwestern comes to the local court Dec. 5 for a return match. Game time is 8 p.m. in the college gym.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

Two more memorial gifts and a book have been given to the library dedicated to the memory of Mrs. C. B. Morris.

In a report published from the library in Amarillo you read that they had almost as many adult non-fiction readers as they did fiction readers. Wish they would let us in on their secret as we have worlds of really good non-fiction reading but ever so few folks will read them.

The American Medical Association has sent two books to the library. To say these books are slanted is a wild understatement but they do present their case against Medicare well. Few of us are so ignorant that we don't know who will foot the bill if the bill passes — you the taxpayer. We also know that any federal aid program costs millions of dollars more than it should because of waste, mismanagement, etc.

Yet we can not over look the fact that there are lots of our aged who simply are not financially able to keep up the payments on health insurance. Health insurance comes high that is if it is the kind that will pay anything if you have to use it. The Blue Cross policy that use to cost 75 cents a month now costs around 9 dollars according to "The Saturday Evening Post." Also those against Medicare seem to over look the fact that anyone over 65 has to be as healthy as a horse before they can get any kind of a health policy. And until this all started any insurance they had was canceled at 65 no matter how long they had had it or how few times they had used it.

Maybe one writer came up with the perfect solution to the whole deal that was: vote against Medicare, put what money you would be paying for health insurance, if you were in good enough health to get it, in the bank and stay out of the hospital.

In the November 9 issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" is an article that may be important to you and your child. It is "The Scandal of Educational Testing." As most of you know this is by no means the first article written against I. Q., aptitude, etc., test and some of the dangers that have been uncovered in the past about any such test.

A quote from the article: "From kindergarten to college, millions of students are being denied the education they deserve by tests which are poorly made, out of date and incorrectly used."

It took forever to sell the public on such testing now if they are of doubtful value and in some cases even harmful it will again take forever to get something done about them.

CHEMICALS USED TO MAKE SMALL PLANTS COLLEGE STATION — With emphasis today on making plants grow faster and bigger, it seems strange that scientists are working on chemicals to make them grow less. But the U.S. Department of Agriculture says that growth retardants have been developed that make garden flower annuals compact and more desirable for beddings and small landscape areas.

The studies conducted at Beltsville, Md., showed that the retardant's could be sprayed on the leaves of annuals to control their growth without regard for the day length to which the plants were exposed. However, on certain perennials the treatment is ineffective unless it is combined with the application of supplemental light in a greenhouse, says the Department.

Retardants used in these experiments were B995 and phosphon-S. The B995 has been available to the public since July of 1963 but phosphon-S is not yet commercially available. The flowers used in the experiments were bachelor buttons, China asters, cleomes, cosmos, marigolds, petunias, salvia and zinnias.

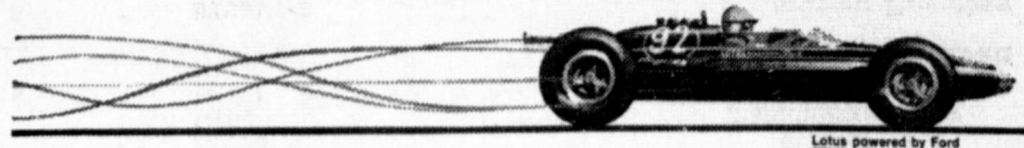

Leaf spray applications of B995 were extremely effective and nontoxic on all varieties when applied in a dosage range from 0.08 to 1.0 percent by volume, the USDA says. Stronger dosages were no more effective and left unsightly white deposits on the leaves. Phosphon-S was effective only on petunias and damaged the foliage of other annuals.

The time of application of the retardant was extremely important in obtaining best results, according to the Department. The best time was when the stems began to elongate. Though the chemical delayed flowering three to seven days, it produced compact plants that were not easily knocked down by wind or rain. Foliage sprays applied before stem elongation were not effective, the USDA explains.

CONSTRUCTION...

Evidence of growth in WTU communities

Where is all the construction coming from in our service area? Well, a survey shows that $89 million worth has been completed recently in new and expanded factories, stores, motels, shopping centers, schools, churches, public buildings, street paving, and other such improvements. Add to this figure the amount invested in new residences and apartment houses, as well as State and Federal expenditures, and you have truly great evidence of growth in the 166 communities we serve. Such facts as these again explain why we say our service area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.
