Bronchos Meet Groom Tigers Here Friday Night In Broncho Stadium

Clarendon football fans will be right along with the Bronchos Friday night in looking for the first win of the season from the Groom Tigers when the two teams meet at 8 p.m. in Broncho stadium.

Clarendon will not be alone in the forefront as Groom has been on the losing side of the pigskin encounters so far this season also. They have lost to Gruver, Panhandle, McLean and Lefors which are all considered top teams in the area. The Tigers always put up a stiff battle against the Bronchos, so the encounter Friday night should be one of the better games of the season.

Coach Jack James said the Bronchos were not down the least bit and had been working hard to overcome their mistakes. Both the defense and offense looked much better at Shamrock last Friday night and if both show as much improvement this week, we should have a very good chance to defeat Groom Friday night, Coach James added.

Coach James' choice for the probable starting line-up Friday night will be: backfield, David Mooring, QB, Jack Robinson and Ronnie Longan, halfbacks, Teddy Graham at full. In the line will be Dennis Stewart and Lester Welch ends, Douglas Bradshaw and Larry Gray guards, Ronnie McAner and Steve Shelton, tackles and Kenneth Price as center. He said he would probably use Wilkinson as a defensive back, Horton and Gray as ends and Green as a guard on defense.

COLTS TO PLAY CANADIAN HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

The Clarendon Colts will play the Canadian Junior High School football team in a game at Broncho Stadium Thursday evening (tonight) at 6:30 p.m. This will be the second conference game for the Colts this season.

The Colts played their first conference game against the McLean Cubs at McLean Thursday night of last week. They lost the game by a score of 50-32. Mac McClellan scored 26 points for the Colts with Mike Sloan picking up the remaining six points.

Immediately following the Colt game the Clarendon High School "B" team will play Wellington. Price of admission for these two games is 50c for adults and 25c for students.

JAYCEES THANK VOTERS

The members of the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes wish to say thanks to you who went to the polls last Saturday. Chauncey Hommel, the Jaycee President, reports that the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes made an all-out effort along with many others to make sure that every eligible voter went to the polls to vote on this important issue, and the number who went to vote made them realize their efforts were not wasted.

Again they say thanks for the large turnout, and ask that you make it a necessity to vote at all times.

Clarendon Voters Commended

Editor's Note: Below is a copy of a letter received by the Leader Wednesday morning to the Mayor of Clarendon. We would like to add our commendation to every voter who had the present and future interests of Clarendon at heart and went to the polls Saturday and voted for the water contract and to the Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes who extended every effort to remind voters of the importance of their individual votes which were combined to show an overwhelming vote of confidence in our town and the future of this community. We want to include our neighbors at Hedley who went 100 percent for the project. It is solid thinking and doing such as this which will make this a better place in which to live.

1 October 1963
C. J. Lohoefer, Mayor
Clarendon, Texas
Dear Mr. Lohoefer:

I would like to express my appreciation to you, your council and citizens for the wonderful interest and work you have given in the Greenbelt Municipal, and Industrial Water Authority vote last Saturday. It would have been impossible for any one of us to have accomplished this great victory.

Working together as we have thus far the cities of our area can reach any goal and I am looking forward to continued cooperation with the citizens of your town.

Especially would I like to commend you on your Director, Carroll Knorpp. I have never seen a group of men who worked so close together as the Directors of the Greenbelt and it has been the united effort of all that has gotten us where we are today. I would appreciate your advice at anytime in helping to bring water to our towns as there are still some problems in front of us, the biggest one has passed.

Very truly yours,
S. H. TOWNSEND

12th Cotton Festival Expected To Be Biggest And Best

The people of Hedley are all set for their 12th, and from all indications their best and largest, Cotton Festival next week end. While the Festival proper is Friday and Saturday, Oct. 11th and 12th, the Midway and most of the exhibits and concessions will be in operation from Thursday night on. The Midway is by the Central State Shows of Hazelton, Kans. This is one of the larger carnivals and one of the best and cleanest on the road. They plan to bring their entire show.

Friday will be Old Settlers' Day. All the Old Timers in our area are invited to attend. The Donley County Pioneers Association will have charge of activities. A splendid program has already been arranged.

Saturday, of course, is the big day with the Grand Parade at 1:30 p.m. Several high school bands are expected for the parade including the Clarendon High School Band. Memphis High School has entered two bands.

A very colorful group will be the Matador High School all girl Drum and Bugle Corps. This unit 40 strong will give a performance on the street at 11 a.m. and appear in the parade.

Another very interesting parade unit is the Amarillo Air Force Jody Drill Team. This unit, 23 strong, will perform on the street at 11:30 a.m. and give another performance after the parade.

All Boys Scout troops, Cub packs and Explorer posts are invited to attend and march in the parade. The Indian Dancers from Explorer Post No. 62 of Amarillo will perform at 10:30 a.m., appear in the parade, and give another performance Saturday afternoon. This should stimulate scouting in the entire area.

Most of the old events will be back and several new ones have been added. A preview of the Festival will appear over TV Station KGNC, Channel 4, at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 5th, Cotton John's half hour.

CLARENDON JAYCEES VS. SHAMROCK JAYCEES IN FOOTBALL GAME

The Clarendon Jaycee Pot Bellies will play the Shamrock Jaycee No Winds in regulation football Friday, October 11th, which will be the open date for the Bronchos. The Pot Bellies have been in training for the big game, and only lack about 50 lbs. per man being trimmed down into shape.

The Jaycees ask that you keep the night in mind and come see this big game, and they promise you that you will see some roly poly football as many of the former Bronchos will be playing. Plans are being formulated for a halftime show that you will not want to miss.

Robert Bain and W. R. Bradshaw will be the Directors in Charge of the project with Melvin Housden serving as chairman. The starting lineup for the Clarendon Jaycees will be announced in the next issue of the Leader.

LEADER CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS

In what is believed to be the most outstanding vote ever cast in this section of the state, four of the cities in the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority voted to accept the water contract by an unbelievable margin. The vote of the four cities ran more than 42 to one. Top honors went to Hedley where the vote was 188 to 0. Next was Childress where 1,379 voted for the contract and 13 voted against.

Here in Clarendon, progress-minded voters, cast 570 votes for and 27 against and at Quanah the voters favored the contract 684 to 27.

Voters, percentage-wise, favored the contract over 106 to one. In Quanah, the percentage was over 23 to one and over 21 to one in Clarendon.

The overwhelming vote is expected to have a great deal to do with action of the Texas Water Commission and the Texas Water Development Board.

Paducah is scheduled to vote on the project October 5. Some opposition has developed to the Greenbelt project in Paducah; however, the overwhelming vote of Childress, Hedley, Clarendon and Quanah is expected to have some effect on those who oppose the Greenbelt in Paducah. Crowell, a latecomer to the Greenbelt, plans to vote to join the Greenbelt and to vote on the contract both on October 15.

However, whether Crowell or Paducah votes into the Authority will not halt the project. All that was necessary was for Childress, Quanah, Hedley and Clarendon to vote favorably to go ahead.

Next action for the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority is a hearing before the Texas Water Commission for water rights at its new dam site. The new dam site is located north of Lelia Lake and is above the gyp beds on the Salt Fork of Red River. Other sites below were abandoned when engineers found gyp in the basin which would hold the water. Since the new site will store less water, the Texas Water Commission is expected to give approval of the change.

Following the meeting with the Texas Water Commission the Authority will go before the Texas Water Development Board to ask for a loan to build the project.

If that board agrees to the project, the state will sell the bonds to build the project, then loan the money to the Authority.

Chicago Cow Should Have Kicked Mrs. O'Leary Instead of Lantern

On October 9, 1871, Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lantern in a Chicago barn. The resulting conflagration killed 250 persons and destroyed 17,430 buildings at a cost of $168 million. Since it is common knowledge that cows kick and that hay is highly flammable, that was no accident. The lantern should have been placed well out of reach of flailing hoofs.

Fire Prevention Week - October 6-12 this year - has been observed annually since 1922 during the week in which the anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire falls. The object of Fire Prevention Week is to encourage millions of people like Mrs. O'Leary to understand and eliminate the causes of fire. Most fires can be prevented - they are not due to unpredictable accidents or unavoidable bad luck, any more than the Great Chicago Fire was.

Many Children Die

Figures compiled by the National Fire Protection Association, sponsor of Fire Prevention Week, show that every day of the year the average fire toll includes 1500 homes in the United States. More than half of the 11,800 fire deaths last year occurred in homes, and more than one-third of the victims were children.

Most of these fires could have been prevented, the NFPA points out. The great majority of fires is caused by uncomplimentary, preventable circumstances such as carelessly discarded cigarettes, overloaded and defective electric wiring, or poorly maintained heating and cooking equipment.

"We need to acknowledge the fact that fires are not only wasteful but avoidable, then go on to reform the habits and remove the hazards which cause them," says Percy Bugbee, general manager of the NFPA.

The steps to fire safety in the home are simple. They should start with the house itself.

Use Fire-Resistant Roof

Since combustible roofing is one of the major causes of conflagrations, according to the NFPA, fire-resistant roofing material such as tile, slate, rock, asphalt shingles, or asbestos cement is of prime importance. The NFPA particularly urges home owners in Arizona, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and other Southwestern states, where the use of combustible roofing has increased sharply in recent years, to make sure their homes are protected with fire-resistant roofing.

The widespread application of combustible roofing in communities where there are no local ordinances outlawing it has created exactly the dangerous condition that has been the chief contributing factor to most of the major conflagrations documented by the NFPA.

A fire-safe home must also be properly wired and have safe cooking and heating equipment that is kept in good working order.

Check for Hazards

The surest way to discover and eliminate dangerous conditions in a home is to have a fire department inspection of it. In the meantime, families can check their own homes and get rid of the most obvious hazards such as improper fuses, frayed extension cords, extension cords under rugs, piles of papers or clothing in closets, attics, basements and yards, and carelessly stored paint and flammable liquids.

Prevention must also include good family fire-safety habits. High on the list of family safety measures is a carefully prepared and rehearsed escape plan for fire emergencies. Alternate routes to safety from every room, and especially from every bedroom, should be familiar to each member of the family and to baby sitters.

One of the most dangerous fires is the clothing fire, whose most frequent victims are children and the elderly. To prevent them, the NFPA recommends selecting heavy, smooth-surfaced fabrics rather than light-weight, long-napped ones, and avoiding billowing designs and long, loose sleeves, particularly for wear when cooking.

Don't Run-Roll

But, since almost every kind of clothing can burn, safety from clothing fires calls for constant caution around stoves, heaters, fireplaces and outdoor fires, and in the use of matches and smoking. If clothing does catch fire, don't run. Roll on the ground or floor or smother the fire with a coat or blanket if there's one available.

The tragic death-by-fire toll among children is largely due to parents who leave youngsters alone. Since even a few minutes for chatting with a neighbor or a quick trip to the neighborhood store has resulted in many a child's death, the first fire safety rule for parents of young children is never under any circumstances to leave them alone. They should be kept constantly in sight and mind. In addition, baby sitters should have specific instructions to follow in case of fire, and older children should be taught how to use and respect fire.

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

Besides looks, ride and power - what's so special about it?
(It's so reasonably priced)

Kind of leaves the high-priced cars some explaining to do, wouldn't you say? Long and luxurious—with a fresh-crested look. Richer roe-my interiors with subtle new blendings of colors and fabrics. Like the ultra-soft vinyl upholstery in the new Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Series.

A choice of seven engines, no less, with output all the way up to 425 hp.* And a choice of four smooth transmissions to go with them.

And underlying it all, the opulent feel of this '64 Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride.

Matter of fact, the most noticeable difference between this beautiful new 1964 Chevrolet and the high-priced cars is the price itself.

Let your dealer show you how much luxury that reasonable Chevrolet price now buys.

PARKS AND WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREA QUAIL HUNT DATES

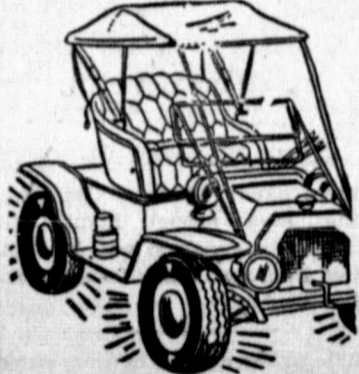

AUSTIN — Interested in hunting quail on one of the three wildlife management areas of the Parks and Wildlife Department? If so, here are the dates set by the Commission at a special September 16 meeting and instructions explaining how to get on one of the hunts.

On the Matador Management Area in Cottle County, 10 one-day hunts are scheduled: November 2 and 3; November 16 and 17; November 30 and December 1; December 28 and 29; and January 27 and 28. One thousand permits will be issued for these hunts.

It was pointed out by Watson that originally two of the 10 days were set for October 5 and 6. However he stated that with the time being so short these two dates would not permit a public drawing. Therefore, after re-evaluation of available dates, it was decided that the dates November 16 and 17 would replace October 5 and 6 in order to permit a public drawing making these hunts available to all the people throughout the State of Texas should they desire to make application for the hunt. Biologists of the Department have advised Mr. Watson that information obtained from the hunt to be held on November 16 and 17 will be of comparable value to that which would have been obtained on October 5 and 6.

Persons interested in hunting during one of these dates should

C., NATIONAL OBSERVER: "Government's growth has resulted in a hodge-podge of Federal offices with jealously guarded jurisdictions, expanding staffs, and mounting problems deciding which does what. Last week, a Presidential study group came up with a typical bureaucratic solution to conflicts among the 58 independent agencies — create another to supervise the others."

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM IS SCHEDULED AT SCHOOL

A demonstration lecture program, titled "This Atomic World," will be presented in an assembly program at Clarendon High School on Oct. 4. The program, sponsored by the United States Atomic Energy Commission, is presented by the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The Institute is a nonprofit, educational corporation of 39 Southern universities and colleges, operating under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission. The traveling exhibits units, which visit hundreds of high schools throughout the United States each year, are designed to provide the public with a better understanding of atomic energy.

James W. Bibb, an exhibits manager who has received special training in nuclear science, will present the program. Mr. Bibb holds a bachelor of science degree in naval and electrical engineering from the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Maryland.

The demonstrations and lectures are designed specifically to acquaint high school students with the basic principles and uses of atomic energy and to stimulate their interest in science.

Subjects to be covered include atomic structure, the nucleus and radio-activity, radiation biology and fission and fusion. The uses of radioisotopes are also included. The application of these isotopes in agriculture, industry, and medicine is an important aspect of the non-military use of atomic energy. Projections for the use of the atom in rocketry and space travel are also discussed.

Following the assembly presentation of exhibits and visual aids, Mr. Bibb is available for classroom sessions with science students.

COTTON HARVEST STARTS IN ALTUS TERRITORY

Cotton harvest is beginning to move in volume in many areas of the Altus classing territory, according to C. E. Cox, in charge of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Cotton Division office there. About 7,400 bales were classed from a 22-county area during the week ending September 27.

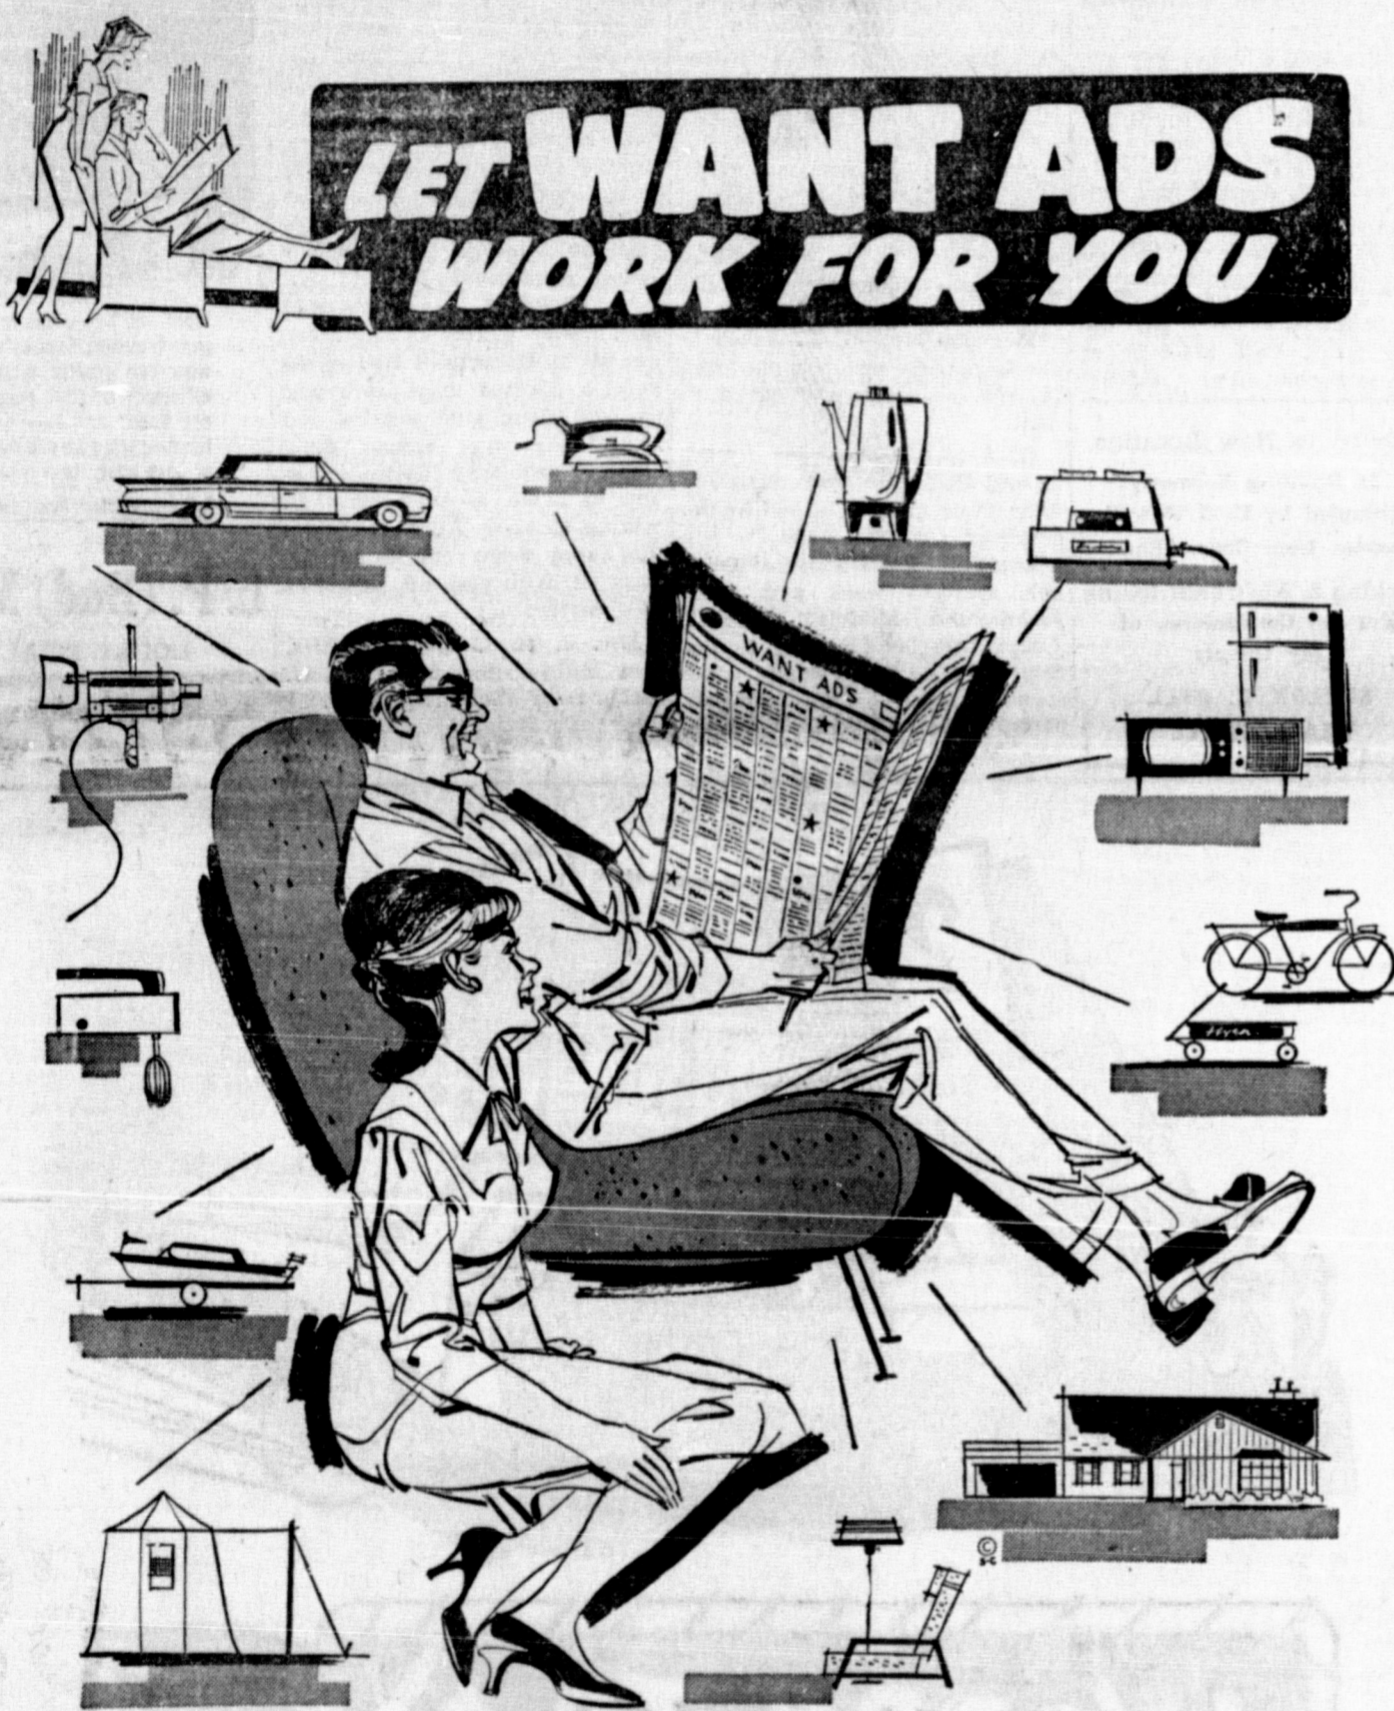

Total for the season for new crop cotton is more than 14,000 bales. These figures are three to four times above last year's volume to the same date, but are still only about 65 percent of two years ago.

According to statistical information prepared by the Agricultural Marketing Service, grades during the week ranged from Strict Middling to Low Middling Tinged, although the heavy colored cottons account for much less than one percent of the total. Predominant grades are White and Light Spotted, with White accounting for 12 percent of the total, and Light Spotted grades 80 percent. Average is about Middling Light Spotted.

Staples range from 7/8 to 1-1/8 inches, with the average about 15/16. Five percent was called 7/8, and 17 percent was one inch longer, the remaining 78 percent falling between these two lengths.

Micronaire averages show less than one-half of one percent classed as Wasty during the week. However, about nine percent is "miking" below 3.5. Nineteen percent reads in the 3.5 to 3.9 range, 52 percent 4.0 to 4.9, and 20 percent 5.0 and above.

Marketing of the new crop appears to be getting underway rather slowly, but some trading is reported. Prices quoted show an average of 30.75 cents per pound is being paid to farmers for Strict Middling Light Spotted 15/16; 31.25 cents for Strict Middling Light Spotted 31/32; 30.05 cents for Middling Light Spotted 15/16 and 30.55 cents for Middling Light Spotted 31/32.

AUSTIN — Finance companies which hope to operate in the State under the new Texas Regulatory Loan Act must be licensed by November 21.

The so-called "Loan-Shark" law, passed by the 58th Legislature, allows a much higher rate of interest for lenders. But it saddles them with stiff licensing requirements.

Regulatory Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell predicted that 2,000 loan offices would come under the act. Already he has received more than 2,000 letters of intention to file application for a license. And letters still are flowing in at the rate of 30 or more a day.

One reason for the big response is that many automobile financing companies want to up their interest rates, too. Question of whether they are eligible to operate under the act has not been settled. But they are signing up just in case.

NURSING HOME INVESTIGATION — House General Investigating Committee will explore possible scandals in nursing home construction according to its chairman, Rep. Bob Fairchild of Center.

Investigation was requested by Speaker Byron Tunnell after a series of stories on sub-standard nursing homes for old people appeared in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

A separate check by the State Department of Public Safety has been ordered by Gov. John Connally.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr also has promised support.

TEC ATTORNEY QUILTS — C. W. Turlington, long-time Marshall attorney, resigned as general counsel of the Texas Employment Commission.

Turlington complained that he was not consulted by commissioners before they hired a new attorney for his staff.

"In order to render the best possible service to the State it is necessary for the general counsel to have a voice in the selection of his staff, regardless of the prospective employee's race or color of his skin," said Turlington.

Hamah King of Houston, the new attorney, is scheduled to start work in October. King, a Negro, is a former vice president of United Political Organizations.

Turlington, who has served five years on the commission, says he has no immediate plans for the future.

RAINMAKING AGENCY PROPOSED — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler thinks the State should have an official rainmaking agency. He says he has discussed the subject with the Governor and hopes to soon have a "concrete proposal to offer."

The Land Commissioner feels that his success with several cloud-seeding experiments warrants serious consideration of a rainmaking agency.

DROUGHT POSING PROBLEMS — Texas, with 53 reservoirs completed since 1950 and 12 more under construction, needs a stronger water development program says Governor Connally. He proposes that the State harness surplus flood water for the protection of persons and property in areas which have too much water, then transport it to areas which have too little.

"We have the water resources to meet future demands. But only if they are properly developed, conserved and managed," the Governor stated.

According to the Texas Water Commission, reservoirs in the state stand at 65 percent of capacity. That's nine percent less than last year at this time. As of the end of August (before Hurricane Cindy) streamflow was deficient for the entire state.

OPPOSES POLL TAX REPEAL — Rep. George Hinson of Mineola has come out swinging against repeal of the poll tax. Furthermore, he has volunteered to join any state-wide organization which might develop to retain it.

Hinson said his district — Wood, Upshur and Camp Counties — is two-to-one against repeal. He charged that voter registration laws are not strong enough at this time to justify dumping the poll tax.

Republicans, fearful that repeal might help the voter registration drive of the Democrats, dodged the issue at their recent meeting and left the decision "up to the individual voter."

FORM VOTER EDUCATION GROUP — A new statewide political organization, stressing the need for voter education in the interest of land and mineral owners, has been formed here. The name: Texas Land and Mineral Owners Political Education Committee.

John J. Shaw of Lovelady is temporary chairman. C. Y. Jacobs of Yoakum is co-chairman.

Group will pinpoint issues concerning members, study voting records and size up decisions of legislators and judicial office holders.

LAW ENFORCERS MEET — District and county attorneys, sheriffs, judges and other law enforcement officers from over the state are meeting in Austin this week.

Occasion is the 13th annual attorney general's law enforcement conference. Attorney General Carr is in charge.

COUNTY PAY RAISE VOID

ED — A pay raise for county officials in Crane County was declared unconstitutional by the attorney general.

The salary hike bill, sponsored by Rep. Gene Hendryx of Alpine and Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, is what is called a "population bracket" bill. It applies only to counties having between 4,600 and 4,750 persons and a minimum tax valuation of $45,000,000.

Carr said this means Crane County only.

State constitution bans bills regulating the affairs of a single county, city, town, ward or school district.

FINAL VETERANS LAND SUIT — The last ($200,000) State penalty suit growing out of Veterans Land Scandals is set for trial here on October 14.

Former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, now living in Minnesota, may be brought into court again. The defendants, B. R. Sheffield of Brady and L. V. Ruffin of Shreveport, La., want Giles to pay a share of any judgment the State might win.

WILSON REPLACES WATSON — John H. Winters, commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare, has named Herbert C. Wilson as his assistant. Wilson replaces Weldon Watson, who left to become executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

OPERATION TIPS — Irving civic leaders attended the first Texas Industrial Planning Seminar here. Gonzales representatives will be on hand for the second one, October 18; and Odem leaders will be in Austin for the third meeting on October 25.

PRESS QUARTERS — The Capitol press corps is in new temporary quarters, awaiting completion of remodeling and enlarging of the old press room just outside the Governor's Office.

Present location is downstairs on the main floor in the west wing of the Capitol building.

All correspondents will get a little more elbow room when the remodeling project is completed. Active competitors have been working side by side in cramped space.

Tetanus Deaths Unnecessary, Says AMA Health Official

Despite the outpouring of new "wonder" drugs, man's ancient enemy, tetanus, has not yet succumbed to a cure.

Even so, death from tetanus, or "lockjaw" as it is commonly called, is "almost entirely unnecessary," says Raymond L. White, M.D., Director of Environmental Medicine for the American Medical Association.

"As a disease, tetanus is completely preventable," Dr. White noted. "The only reason it persists is that people fail to get immunized, or fail to maintain their immunity. Out of sheer neglect, three-fourths of the people don't have the protection they need."

"If it weren't for medicine's continual concern over the possibility of tetanus—if practically every time a physician saw a wound he didn't take precautions against tetanus—the disease would rank much higher among human killers."

Tetanus is caused by a deadly poison emitted by certain bacteria which contaminate certain types of wounds—especially puncture wounds, or wounds with imbedded dirt.

The bacteria itself cannot survive long enough in the open air to infect wounds. But its seeds or spores can.

Tetanus spores are usually produced by bacteria growing within the air-free intestinal tracts of mammals, including man, and reach the ground in animal manure. Within the intestines, bacteria cause no harm to their host, other than to serve as factories for the production of spores.

Once on the ground the spores, which are unaffected by air, and are borne great distances on the wind, can survive for as long as 11 years. Besides cultivated land, they are commonly found in household dust and the grime of city streets.

Puncture wounds are a common cause of tetanus.

Some have even been detected in hospital operating rooms—tracked in on street shoes.

The spores in some sections of the country are nearly as common as dirt, and await only the right kind of wound to start their chain of infection.

Because of its peculiar nature, tetanus has never been a mass killer like some infectious diseases. It is, however, a vicious enemy, killing 60 per cent of those it strikes.

Development of immunity against tetanus, says Dr. White, requires a series of inoculations —three injections four weeks apart, followed within six to twelve months by a booster dose. To maintain this protection, additional booster shots are necessary every four years.

"Protection," he said, "should begin early in life—one to two months after birth—for the scrapes and falls of childhood offer tetanus many opportunities."

"But adults need protection, too. With the new emphasis on outdoor living, with accidents on the increase and with the spore of tetanus in the dust and dirt all about us, we can only look forward to an increase in this deadly disease unless we make better use of our good sense, get immunized and keep immunized."

Short Snorts

Bill Stinson, executive vice president of the Texas Tourist Council, resigned to become an administrative assistant to Governor Connally.

October oil production will remain at 28 percent of potential. Railroad Commission set the October allowable at 2,878,206 barrels a day.

LURE IN PREDATORS

Calling predators has become a popular sport. But you need not wait until darkness — or use a caller — to get results.

Put several baby chicks in a wire box and place the box in sparse cover. Then conceal yourself well.

The loud chirp of the chicks will attract any predators in the neighborhood.

Teach Dogs To Hunt By Nose

A young dog often refuses to use his nose when in training. Take such a pup out at night and carry along a pocketful of his favorite tid-bits. Let him sniff a piece of it, then throw the piece away from you.

In the dark he can't see where you tossed the tid-bit and will be compelled to use his nose to find it.

Can Be Prevented!

FIRE PREVENTION SHOULD BEGIN AT HOME

- NEVER LEAVE MATCHES NEAR CHILDREN
- DON'T HAVE THAT LAST SMOKE IN BED
- EXAMINE AND REPLACE FAULTY ELECTRICAL WIRING
- DON'T STORE COMBUSTIBLES IN YOUR CELLAR & ATTIC
- COOPERATE WITH YOUR LOCAL FIRE AUTHORITIES

Plan a thorough fire survey. Plan too to prevent total fire loss with adequate fire coverage. See us for complete fire insurance today.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

Bronchos Lose To Irishmen, 12-0

By Rod Stone, Staff Reporter

The Bronchos traveled to Shamrock Friday night and tangled with the Shamrock Irishmen in El Paso Stadium. The Bronchos came out on the short end of the scoring, but they undoubtedly played their finest game of the season as they made the Irishmen work exceptionally hard for every yard gained against the Broncho defense.

The Bronchos showed great improvement in both offense and defense over previous games this season, as they faced what might possibly be the strongest competition of the 1963 season.

The Bronchos held the Irishmen scoreless during the first half. The Irishmen were able to push inside the Broncho 20 yard line, but their bid for paydirt was nipped when Broncho halfback, Richard Bell, intercepted a pass at the five yard line. Both the Bronchos and the Irishmen picked up four first downs in the first half.

With less than one minute of play left in the third quarter, the Irish reached paydirt as Irish fullback, Gary Benson, carried the pigskin across from the six yard line. The Irish's attempt for the extra points failed when Bell and Graham met an Irish halfback head on at the line of scrimmage.

Gary Benson scored the second touchdown for the Irish with only 50 seconds remaining in the game. After a 31 yard run for the touchdown, Benson was stopped just inches short of the two point conversion.

Murray Wolfe left for his home in Los Angeles, Calif., Wednesday after visiting several days in the home of his cousin, Mrs. Frank White, Sr.

LIBRARY NOTES:

EDITH BARNES

A memorial gift has been given to the library to be dedicated to the memory of Mr. Milton W. Mosley.

Mr. Charles A. Gholz, field consultant for rural libraries of the Texas State Library, was here last week. Among other services the State Library offers is the "Talking Book." If you know any one who is blind or tell them that they can get a record player and the records with out it costing one penny. The State Library even pays the postage both ways.

They also have Braille books that can be obtained the same way.

It is time again for parents and teachers to give the home work problem a lot of thought.

Those of you who take a Sunday news-paper with the supplement "Parade" have probably already read the article about home work in the September 22 issue. For those of you who have not read it and want to it is on file at the library.

Here are some quotes from it: "Do you expect to spend much time with your children this school year?"

If so get the idea right out of your head. Dismiss any thought of happy family evenings or fireside recreations. Forget about plans for the week end or parent-and-child outings.

"For your children — virtually regardless of age, grade level, or where you live — are going to have previous engagements. They are going to be staggering under the harvest loads of class and homework in their school careers."

And a great deal of what they will be doing — in the view of at least one group of educators — will be needless, wasteful, time-killing and possibly dangerous.

"... 'It is no coincidence,' says Anne Hoppock of the New Jersey of Education, that the American Medical Association the past two years has felt compelled at its convention to have special symposia on peptic ulcers in children.' Dr. William T. Grhun of the University of Connecticut quotes junior high counselors as reporting a sharp upswing in mental crack-ups — and suicides."

And Dr. Harold Moore, superintendent of schools in Littleton, Colo., predicts that if the present trend in workloads continues, we will see an increase in 'mental health problems beyond any scope now existing.' He adds: 'Children do have a right to childhood.'

To take liberties with an old saying, not only does too much work and not enough play make Jack a dull boy it can make him a mighty sick one.

The Canadian Wheat Deal

A call is being made by some Americans for a re-examination of United States export policies in the wake of Canada's half-billion-dollar sale of wheat to the Soviet Union. Strictly from a business standpoint the deal was a good one for Canada; the Canadians will receive good, hard currency — not soft Russian rubles — just as they're receiving good, sound dollars in their $700 million past and future grain deals with Communist China. Strictly from a business standpoint, Canada's deal makes it possible to move more of our own wheat into world markets — some of it to Canada itself to replace depleted reserves.

But business is not strictly business where the Communists are concerned. Despite talk that Canada's deal amounts to a political setback for the Soviets, whose agricultural failures are thus pointed up for all the world to see, the deal can only strengthen the economic position of the Soviet and its Iron Curtain satellites — and Cuba. The Soviets have plenty of gold. They can afford to part with some of it in exchange for the grain they must have if Russians and satellite peoples are not to become restive.

Food is as much a weapon in the Cold War as is the military. It is a cruel fact of life in the modern world that warfare — hot or cold — involves the total commitment of national resources, populations as well as industrial and agricultural productive capacities. The current phase of the East-West conflict amounts to an imposing test of the abilities of two opposite systems to provide for the well-being of humanity. Our conviction, and certainly that of the Canadians, is that freedom under democratic government is the best way for man to attain his material and spiritual goals. The Communist belief is that state supremacy through totalitarian control is the only course through which man can attain an abundant, if soul-less, existence. The conflict between the two systems will continue through the foreseeable future, and as it goes on the capacities of the Free and Communist worlds to provide for their peoples will continue to be tested.

Some argue that for humanitarian purposes we should modify our export policies to sell foodstuffs to Iron Curtain countries, including the Chinese Communists. It is an appeal that bypasses the dominant fact that these nations are bent on the destruction of free men and their governments, including the United States.

At the moment, the United States — in assessing Canada's action — is in the same position as would be a sporting goods store owner who sees his competitor across the street sell a basket of revolvers to a gang of known criminals. We wish we'd gotten the dollars in our till, but we know that the effect of the sale may be to hasten the day that the gang returns to stage the promised hold-up.

I regret that the Canadian government can't see that point. And I trust our own government, despite our wheat surplus and balance-of-payment problems, will not lose sight of it.

"I Say Yes! To America"— Letter Contest Winners

Appearing below are the names of "flag" — first-place — winners in the contest I announced several weeks ago. The purpose of the contest was to encourage thought on the meaning of America and to encourage expressions of patriotic conviction. I went over the letters with several of my colleagues in the Congress. They were deeply impressed by the sincere words of the fine Panhandle folks who wrote, and they helped to select the flag winners. I will place the four winning letters in the Congressional Record so that many other Americans may see them. I wish only that it were possible to place all of these fine letters in the Record, but space would not permit.

To each of the following Panhandle residents I am sending a U.S. Flag once flown over the Capitol:

Adult Division: The Rev. Lloyd M. Hearn, Pastor, The Methodist Church, Tell.

Senior High Division: Miss

Shielda Richards, 1031 Fryor, Amarillo.

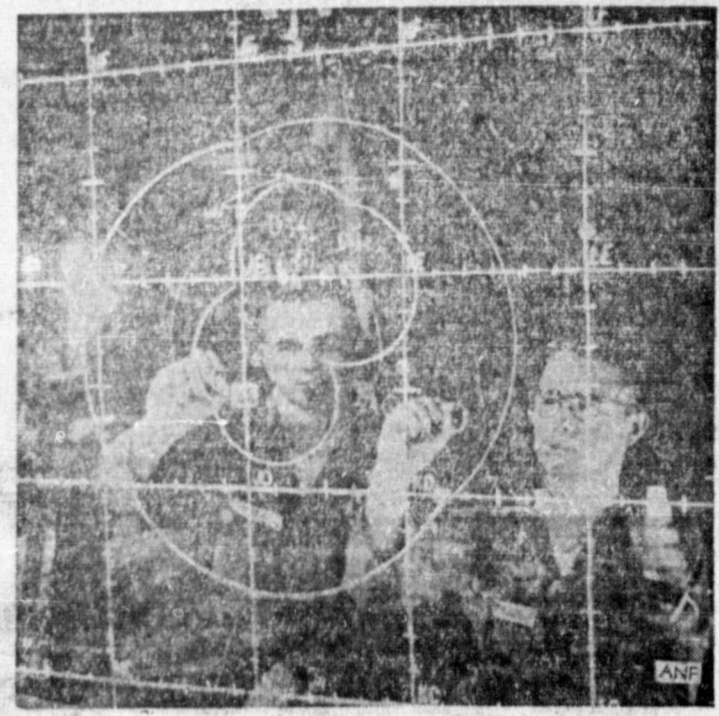

Junior High Division: Miss Janice Colson, Route 6, Wellington.

Grade School Division: Bynum Morris, 2630 11th Avenue, Canyon.

To all of you who wrote, I wish to express my gratitude for a wonderful response. Booklets and books on phases of our national government are being sent to all those who took part.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

WALTERBORO, SC., PRESS AND STANDARD: "Americans should not be overly shocked, nor critical of the British for their current sex scandal. This country has its own scandal, only it does not involve too much sex. The scandal is the buying of votes and support through promises of governmental aid, military installations and the like. Too often elections are determined not on the merits, or issues at hand, but on the politicians' promises. Such is not right, and until the voters realize that they are being paid off with their own money, the taxpayers lot will not improve."

Everybody out of the rut ...the '64 Buicks are here!

New Wildcat: Wildest, sportiest yet. Three hefty engine choices (up to 360 hp). Hot new Formula V wheels (optional at extra cost).

Buick Special: New longer wheelbase, safety box frame, roomier body. Still low priced.

Buick Skylark: A very personal car with a flair for action. Now in 3 models.

Buick LeSabre: Stunning new looks, new gas-saving engine. Probably 1964's best full-size value.

Electra 225—Most luxurious Buick. Splendidly contemporary in taste and performance.

Our happiest problem for '64 was: how to beat a winner? According to thousands of owners, the 1963 models just about had it made in all departments. But—when your name is Buick—you just don't rest on your laurels. You keep pushing to make a great car greater.

So . . . the '64 Buicks are new—but new. New engines, V-6 or V-8 (you'll like their new gas economy), new, smoother, extra-cost option, Super Turbine Transmissions (and who, but Buick, would build in an altitude compensator?). SAVING WATER FOR LIVESTOCK

COLLEGE STATION — Several methods for collecting and storing rainfall for livestock use in areas of low precipitation have been developed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The low cost techniques involve harvesting water from areas where soil has been treated to increase rainfall runoff, the Department says. The methods include ground covers to collect rainfall, soil treatments to increase rainfall runoff, and storage equipment to eliminate evaporation and seepage of the collected water.

The USDA points out that this economical way to store water for livestock will be especially valuable in the low rainfall areas of the West, where grazing land often is not fully utilized because there is no dependable water supply. Ranches in areas of 16 inches of annual precipitation may be able to collect the water at a cost of 36 cents per thousand gallons, and the cost will be about 18 cents in areas of 20 inches of rainfall.

Early research found that rubber sheeting and asphalt-coated jute fabric are highly effective for water collection and that a butyl-coated nylon bag could be used to eliminate evaporation and seepage of the water. Scientists also discovered that cationic asphalt emulsions sprayed on the soil made it impervious to water and that these same emulsions could be combined with ground covers of aluminum foil, synthetic rubber, or plastic.

The initial costs of these treatments, including site preparation, materials and installation, ranged from about 10 cents to 45 cents per square yard and annual repairs and periodic replacement should cost about three to five cents per yard, says the USDA.

"A wise man of the Orient once remarked, 'There are three kinds of people in all types of organizations — rowboat people, sailboat people, and steamboat people. Rowboat people need to be pushed or shoved along. Sailboat people move when a favorable wind is blowing. Steamboat people move continuously, through calm or storm. They are usually masters of themselves, their surroundings, and their fate.'"

We should have the patience to explain very carefully to our children about all the wonderful things we are spending their future tax dollars for.

It is estimated that the government spends over 22 billion on crimes directly connected with liquor... The government takes in taxes of about 2 1/2 billion, or only about one-tenth of what it spends...

To belong to a church doesn't make one a Christian, any more than owning a fiddle makes anyone a musician...

Dignity is one thing that can not be preserved in alcohol.

One of the easiest places to waste our sympathy is on ourselves.

The restyled Ford Fairlane for 1964 presents a big-car appearance and boasts engine performance that was proved in the Indianapolis "500." Although new styling makes the middleweight Fairlane look bigger, it remains about the size of the 1956 Ford on the outside and the 1959 Ford on the inside. Five engines are available, three of the same basic design as the Fairlane V-8 that powered Lotus cars to second and seventh places in the gruelling Indianapolis race. These include two 289-cubic-inch V-8s, one 260-cubic-inch V-8, plus 170 and 200-cubic-inch six-cylinder engines. Combined with five transmissions, these power plants offer a full array of performance and economy choices for 1964. Eight Fairlane models—hardtops, station wagons and sedans—will be introduced in Ford dealer showrooms September 27.

We flatter those we scarcely know, We please the fleeting guest, And deal many a thoughtless blow, To those we love the best.

What this country needs is for more people to be raising beans instead of spilling them.

The worst thing about the future is that the older we get the quicker it gets here... Just remember for a moment how slowly the years passed by as we waited to become 21. Then, how fast time went by afterwards... Someone wanted to know our age... Now that isn't a fair question... Anyhow, we are younger than Jack Benny, and he claims to be only 39...

This morning's man brought a note of appreciation about this column from Mrs. Ella Castleberry of Star Rt. No. 2, Morton, Texas... She reads our column in Southwestern Crop & Stock. We appreciate such kind words very much, and of course it is only natural that we were glad to have this reader order our books...

I guess it wouldn't be fair to give any names, but the other day a comparatively young fellow made the following statement; "I have always enjoyed working with my father. I have learned a lot from him already, and I am still learning."... What greater compliment could be paid a father?

Almost within the same week another similar statement was made. This time a father said; "Nothing has given me so much pleasure in life as having my son become a partner with me in the business."... What finer compliment could a father pay to a son?

Just for the record: both of the above parents were honest hard-working and upright citizens... Neither gambled or drank either socially or any other way. Both were Christians and belonged to different churches... The lives of both sons are following a similar pattern...

The other day a young friend made this statement: "God made man to live and work in the great outdoors. All of the other work has come about through the inventions and thoughts of man himself." It is something to think about. Of course all work that is honest and honorable is necessary and worthwhile, but there is something good and uplifting about the outdoor life... This young man was a member of a group considered the indoor type. Bless him both in his work indoors and out in the open spaces... We Thank God for the thoughts that come to our own life from other folks... Bless You All...
