Wreckage from tornado that hit Howardwick Sunday night.

Tornado Hits Howardwick

A tornado struck Howardwick on Sunday night, destroying about forty houses and scattering debris across a wide swath near Greenbelt lake. Yet, remarkably, there were no injuries. Many of the structures that were demolished were week-end homes that were unoccupied at the time.

Some residents were fortunate not to be injured. The powerful winds drove a sheet of corrugated steel through the side of one dwelling and into a mattress. The man on the mattress was asleep on the other side of the bed. The storm downed power lines, but no one was shocked or burned.

Twisters seem to behave in a bizarre and unpredictable manner. This storm was no exception. In some instances, one lot in a block was damaged, while the others remained unscathed. Some blocks were hit while all neighboring blocks were unharmed. A mobile home might be destroyed while the little travel trailer next door was not scratched.

Mayor Jim Sharrar and City Aldermen conduct city business the week after the City election.

Tornado Warning Signals

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department would like to remind residents of Clarendon of the meaning of siren signals for severe weather. On Sunday evening, when the Howardwick tornado struck, the severe weather siren was used for the first time in quite a while and there was some confusion as to what the siren signals mean. The following is an explanation of the meaning of these siren signals:

2 Blasts of Siren:
Two siren blasts of 10 seconds each will be sounded when severe weather is threatening Clarendon. When this signal is heard, residents should pay close attention to weather conditions by observing storm clouds and tuning to Amarillo TV and/or radio stations and should be prepared to take cover should conditions worsen.

2 Repeated Blasts of Siren:
Two siren blasts of 10 seconds each will be sounded repeatedly when dangerous weather is imminent. This signal of two repeated blasts will be continued constantly until the danger is over. This is your signal to take cover - SEEK SHELTER in a safe place immediately without hesitation.

1 Long Blast:
One long blast of the siren will be sounded for 30 seconds when the danger is past. This is your signal that everything is all clear and you can return to your residence from your shelter.

1 Long Repeated Blast:
One long blast of 30 seconds duration will be sounded repeatedly in the event that evacuation is necessary such as in a chemical or toxic leak. Residents should tune to Amarillo TV and/or radio stations for evacuation instructions. This is not a weather related signal.

3 Short Blast:
3 Short blasts of 10 seconds each will be used to alert firefighters of a fire in case of failure of their paging system. This is not a weather related signal.

In the event of power failure or failure of the siren warning system, emergency vehicles will be used in residential areas with their mobile sirens sounding. This will be a signal to take cover immediately without hesitation.

It is important that local residents have a plan of action BEFORE it is needed and that they memorize these warning signals. Please DO NOT call the sheriff's office dispatcher to ask what the situation is or for instructions on what to do. They are overloaded with coordinating with storm spotters and emergency crews and the delay you experience by calling may cost you precious time, and may hinder emergency crews from performing their tasks.

Storm Strikes Lelia Lake

Violent winds and heavy rains damaged the community of Lelia Lake late Monday night, June 12th. There may have been a small tornado embedded in the storm.

Fortunately the tempest did not wreck any homes, although it did tear off shingles, flatten fences and mangle trees. Generally people are not surprised when thunderstorms break the tops out of elm or black locust trees. Both are brittle and susceptible to wind. But the Monday night howler broke sizable limbs from mesquite, pecan and walnut trees.

Many residents of Lelia Lake took to the proverbial "friday hole", including many who had not played gopher in years. No one was injured. Sheriff Jimmy Thompson closed Highway 287 when heavy rains flooded Lelia Lake Creek. The stream was up over the road. Traffic was not restored until about 4:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Several farmers suffered damaged to crops or equipment. But there were lighter moments. Phil Lauderdale had to repair his fence in the middle of the storm to prevent his horses from escaping. He was reportedly curiously dressed for the occasion.

Evan Williams' dog moved her puppies into the house after the wind blew the front door open. Later - after being evicted from the house - she moved the pups to the storm cellar.

Teresa Dalyn Croslin

Croslin-Graham Wedding

Teresa Dalyn Croslin and Kevin Douglas Graham were united in marriage Saturday, May 20, at 1:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church Chapel in Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Croslin of Clarendon. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Don Graham of Artesia, New Mexico.

Rev. Paul Heil of Amarillo performed the double ring ceremony. Jim Shadle of Clarendon sang "The Wedding Song," "Meet Me Halfway," and "Through The Eyes of Love". He was accompanied by Margaret Evans of Lubbock.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a white satin gown with a chapel-length train. The dress was trimmed in chantilly lace, sequins, and pearls. It was cut low to the waist in the back with a large bow. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses mixed with sprays of royal blue.

Matron-of-honor was Jennifer Croslin, sister-in-law of the bride, of Canyon. Bridal attendant was Brenda Hefley, cousin of the bride, of Briscoe. Both attendants wore identical tea-length dresses of royal blue taffeta with matching shoes.

They carried white lace parasols trimmed with pearls, royal blue rosebuds, and ribbons. Their wrist corsages were of white roses.

The groom was attired in a black tuxedo with tails and a royal blue cummerbund. His boutonniere was a white rosebud.

Best man was Joel Bach of Artesia. Groomsman was Ron Johnston of Lubbock. Guests were seated by Randy Croslin, brother of the bride, of Canyon; Kelly Pirkle, of Lubbock, and Tommy Chaney, of Portales. They wore black tuxedos with royal blue cummerbunds. The candles were lit by the attendants.

Flower girl was Tera Hefley, cousin of the bride, of Briscoe. She wore a tea-length dress of royal blue taffeta with matching shoes. She carried her flower petals in a white lace parasol trimmed with pearls and streamers of royal blue and white ribbons. Her wrist corsage was of white roses.

Ring bearer was Colby Croslin, nephew of the bride, of Canyon. He wore a black tuxedo with royal blue cummerbund and carried the ring on a white cane trimmed with royal blue.

The mother of the bride wore a tea-length dress of periwinkle blue. The groom's mother wore a red crepe dress. Both corsages were of white roses.

A reception was held immediately following in the vestibule of the church. The bride's table was draped in a royal blue cloth and topped with white lace. The traditional wedding cake and punch were served from appointments of crystal and silver. Servers were Shanay Hernandez of Lubbock and Debbie Meinke of Artesia. German chocolate cake, made by a friend of the groom, and fruit were served at the groom's table by Shanna Chaney of Portales. Guests were registered by Juanita Webb, aunt of the bride, of Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Helium balloons were distributed to the guests by Nathan Hefley, cousin of the bride, of Briscoe. They were released as the bride and groom left for their honeymoon trip to California.

The bride received her BA degree from Texas Tech in journalism and Spanish. She is currently employed at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock as secretary of the Food & Nutrition Department.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents. A bridal shower was given in the home of Mrs. Rogers Hester in Clarendon. Another miscellaneous shower was given in the home of Sarah Bennett in Artesia. A surprise wedding shower was held in Methodist Hospital. Also, a bridal party was given in the Barcelona Court by the attendants and friends.

Reunion To Be Held

Cleo Russell will be hosting the 27th Air Depot Group of W.W.II's 6th Reunion, at the Fifth Season East, in Amarillo, Texas. The reunion will start Tuesday, June 20th and will last until June 22nd. Registration will start at noon on June the 20th.

The first days events will be at "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon, June 20th. The group will go to the Panhandle Historical Museum in Canyon on the 21st. Afterwards there will be a photo session at 5 p.m. to take individual pictures of each person. A banquet will be held at 7 p.m. at the Fifth Season Banquet Room.

There will be a memorial service held June 22nd to finish up the reunion.

27th Air Depot Group

On July 5, 1942, the Distinctive Insignia for the 27th Air Depot Group was approved by the Secretary of War. Shield: Azure, on a mound in base a peacock amidst wheat, in the beak an ear of wheat. Motto: Gloria Sumus Servire.

The shield is in the colors of the Air Corps. The peacock was anciently identified with Indra, the Hindu mythological god of the thousand eyes, of heaven, of thunder and lightning, also of Durga, "Giver of Victory in Battle." It was believed by the ancient races that the peacock was a destroyer of serpents. These attributed traits are symbolic of the characteristics of our Organization. The wheat is symbolic of Plenty, being the basis of the "Staff of Life" and its plenteous representation of our maintenance.

The motto "Gloria Sumus Servire" is an urge for the Group for proudful service rendered. The record of our Group bears out just how well we have lived up to our motto.

The 27th Air Depot Group received The Presidential Unit Citation. The citation is as follows.

The Papuan Forces, United States Army, Southwest Pacific Area, are cited for outstanding performance of duty in action during the period July 23, 12942, to January 23, 1943. When a bold and aggressive enemy invaded Papua in strength, the combined action of ground and air units of these forces, in association with Allied units, checked the hostile advance, drove the enemy back to the seacoast, and in a series of action against a highly organized defensive zone utterly destroyed him. Ground combat forces, operating over roadless jungle-covered mountains and swamps, demonstrated their courage and resourcefulness in closing with an enemy who took every advantage of the nearly impassable terrain. Air forces, by repeating attacking the enemy ground forces and installations, by destroying his convoys attempting reinforcement and supply, and by transporting ground forces and supplies to areas for which land routes were nonexistent and sea routes slow and hazardous, made possible the success of the ground operation. Service units, operating far forward of their normal positions and at times in advance of ground combat elements, built landing fields in the jungle, established and operated supply points, and provided for the hospitalization and evacuation. Service units, operating far forward of their normal positions and at times in advance of ground combat elements, built landing fields in the jungle, established and operated supply points, and provided for the hospitalization and evacuation of the wounded and sick. The courage, spirit, and devotion to duty of all elements of the command made possible the complete victory attained.

The gold-framed blue ribbon of the Presidential Unit Citation is worn on the right breast above the pocket, whereas all other decorations of the United States services are worn on the left breast. For regiments, groups and units entitled to individual flags or colors, the citation is indicated by a blue streamer with the name of the action embroidered in white.

Use Of Aspirin During Pregnancy

There is increasing debate as to the safety of aspirin use during pregnancy. Two studies published within the past four years indicate that low-doses of aspirin taken during pregnancy may help prevent problems encountered during pregnancy and fetal growth retardation. According to a recent article in Patient Care, aspirin is the drug most commonly taken during pregnancy.

There is growing concern, however, about adverse effects that could be associated with the use of aspirin during pregnancy. Recent studies are suggesting that aspirin use during pregnancy may be responsible, in part, for prolonged pregnancies, bleeding problems, and congenital defects. Researchers are being cautious, however, since much of the research has not been conclusive. Until more definitive findings are made available, some physicians are recommending that their pregnant patients avoid the use of aspirin.

A recent issue of the FDA Consumer reports that the federal government has recommended new aspirin labeling requirements that warn against the use of aspirin products during the last three months of pregnancy unless there are specific directions to do so by one's physician.

Dear Editor

To the good Christian who had my grandchildren's little dog's picked up, Wednesday morning, June 7th. Why didn't you call them? They would have picked them up if they were bothering you. Those little puppies wouldn't bother anyone, and have had their shots, also. I guess some people don't know the meaning of the Golden Rule or they wouldn't do such thing a thing especially to your neighbors children and their pets. Susie Kid

Make A Difference

Don't just make a living--make a difference. If you are interested in being a vital part of the health care profession, now is the time to take action. Many people see a Licensed Vocational Nursing Certificate as the first step to a fulfilling career. Clarendon College is currently in the process of determining students for the Childress 1989-90 LVN classes. This is a highly selective process that entails a pre-nursing examination and interview with the LVN Instructor. Three test dates have been set for your convenience. They are June 17, 21, and 30. Individualized filing for financial aid is also available at this time. Health care is a high demand employment area for the rest of the 20th century and on into the 21st.

For additional information, contact LVN Instructor Carole Ward at (806) 874-3571 during the day and 856-5257 evenings and weekends. L.D. Selvidge, Registrar at Clarendon College, will also be available for questioning.

Santa Fe District Holds Day Camp

Santa Fe District of the Golden Spread Council of Boy Scouts of America held its annual Cub Scout Day Camp at Camp M.K. Brown near Wheeler during the week of June 6-9. One hundred and forty Cub Scouts, as well as approximately seventy youth and adult leaders, attended the camp, which had Indian Lore as its theme. Units represented were 480, 416, 410, 413, 404 and 401 from Pampa; 479 from Miami; 403 from Skellytown; 437 from Clarendon; 472 from Wheeler; 473 from Shamrock; and 485 from Mobeetie.

The boys were divided into the Tejas, Comanche, Hopi, Navajo, Kiowa, Sioux, and Cherokee tribes while the leaders made up the Apache tribe. During the first three days the boys made shell and bead necklaces, leg bands with bells, sand paintings, and simulated deer hides. They also participated in water games, games, singing, archery, and rifle shooting.

On Friday, Wes Phillips, a park ranger from the Alibates National Monument near Lake Meredith, presented a demonstration on arrowhead making and discussed the importance of stone tools to the Indians of this area.

Other activities for Friday included water games, pillow fights, and fishing. The camp closed with a picnic with families and a campfire. During the campfire each tribe presented a song and a tribal cheer. Awards were presented.

During the week the Webelos earned the Geology and Readyman Activity Badges. They also earned the Texas Badge, a special patch for learning about the history of Texas. The boys visited the jail and museum at Old Mobeetie to fulfill the requirement to visit a historical place.

Twenty-six Webelos and their adult partners spent Friday night at the camp. They spent Saturday morning fishing, boating, and cooking breakfast and lunch.

Camp Directors were Linda Radcliff of Pampa and Helen Estlack of Clarendon.

Santa Fe District Executive Keith Cook would like to thank all merchants and leaders who contributed to the camp and its success.

Golden Spread Council held a Dad and Lad campout Saturday night. Approximately 70 attended.

Cotton Crop In The Balance

Many Donley County farmers are having to make a tough decision about replanting cotton due to a disease that much of the cotton has. The disease is called "Ascochyta Seedling Blight" or

"Wet Weather Blight". Because of the continued cool, wet weather, this disease has thrived and virtually took some of the cotton stands out.

On Friday, June 9, 1989, Dr. James Supak, Extension Agronomist and Cotton Specialist, assisted the Donley County Extension Service and local farmers in evaluating the damage to cotton fields in the Hedley and Lelia Lake area where damage is extensive. Despite rain showers throughout the day several fields were looked at to determine the cause of the problem and if replanting would need to be done. Dr. Supak indicated that much of the cotton damage looked to be a combination of wind and sand burn, which allows the blight to enter much more rapidly into the leaves. The blight would then weaken, defoliate and even kill many plants.

"Wet Weather Blight" is a fungus disease that can be seed-borne or survive in the soil on plant residues. The disease attacks cotton in cool, wet weather, similar to the weather that we have been having, and causes tissue damage to the leaves, stems and branches. When the weather warms back up after a cool spell is when damage becomes most noticeable. That is why many of the cotton stands have seemed to die overnight.

Since Friday, we have had continued rains and some hail which will likely add to the cotton producers problems. Many producers have already decided to replant, and it is just a matter of drying up to get back in the fields. Open, sunny weather is needed to bring that cotton that has a blight problem out of it, if in fact it is not already too late. Farmers are also faced with having to replant late in the season which means they will have to use quicker maturing varieties and hope that we don't have an early freeze. June 20 is the general cut off time for replanting.

It is expected that 80 - 90 percent of the cotton in Donley County has been affected by "Wet Weather Blight" to some degree. But probably 30 to 60 percent (6,000 to 12,000 acres) will have to be replanted, depending on weather conditions for the next few weeks. At this point a good estimate would be 50 percent, or approximately 10,000 acres, will have to be replanted.

The First Juneteenth

In early June 1865, Confederate Major H.A. Wallace heard that Southern troops in Houston had laid down their arms in surrender. He boarded the boat, Island City, and went to find out if indeed the Civil War had ended.

Learning that indeed the Union had defeated the South and realizing that neither federal nor confederate authorities were in control of affairs, he commandeered the Island City as his own and proceeded to use it to establish a water-borne freight business between Houston and Galveston.

When Wallace arrived in Galveston on Sunday, June 17, 1865, from a distance he could see Blacks on the wharf throwing their hats into the air. When he approached close enough, he called out to them, "What's the matter?" One replied, "We's free now."

"What makes you free?" he yelled out to one of the former slaves.

"Yankces come down on ships on the outside to free us," the joyous Black answered.

Two days later, on June 19, 1865, federal General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston formally to take charge of Texas, although federal troops had preceded him in the city by two weeks. On this day, Juneteenth as we now know it, Granger made official the emancipation of the slaves in Texas.

According to Granger's "General Orders No. 3" issued on June 19, "The people are informed that, in accordance with a proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free." The enunciation also stated that "this involves an absolute equality of personal rights and property between former masters and slaves and the connection theretofore existing between them becomes that between employer and hired labor."

Granger's announcement additionally advised the freedmen to remain at their homes and to work for wages. Galveston, however, soon became a magnet for freed slaves from the hinterland of Texas, and hundreds of them soon began gathering in the port city.

The real day of celebration for the former bondsmen in Galveston wasn't June 19th, but rather on the Sunday, June 17th, when Maj. Wallace saw the men tossing their hats into the air on the Galveston wharf. The Galveston Tri-Weekly News reported, "Last Sunday the people of Galveston were astonished at the number of colored individuals of all shades congregated here. The like had not been seen since the war began."

Condescendingly, the paper commented, "The dress, airs and swagger of this motley multitude would have done credit to the shoddy aristocracy of the North."

Many of the newly freed slaves, however, were interested in far more than merely celebrating their newly-found freedom. They sought to become their own masters.

"There seems to be a very general ambition among the Negro women of the city to go to housekeeping for themselves," reported the Galveston Weekly News on June 28. "Some of them have rented very genteel cottages at a rent fully twice as high as before the war," the paper noted.

At first it seemed surprising that the former slaves would have the money to rent such houses, but then it became apparent that some of them had scrupulously saved any money that they had accumulated over the years, some of them having more cash on hand than their bankrupt former owners.

Bemoaning the loss of the Black slaves, the Weekly News concluded in self-pity, "Some of our wealthiest and most respectable citizens have not a servant left, and... ladies are now to do their own cooking and housework."

Mosquitoes And More To Come

By now I'm sure most of Donley County residents have been pestered by numerous mosquitoes and this is likely to be a continuing problem. With the continued late afternoon and evening rains that we have been getting for the last several weeks mosquito populations can be expected to increase.

There are two types of mosquitoes that are likely to be causing you problems. One is known as the flood-water species and the other is the container-breeding species. Both are likely to be present.

Breeding sites for the flood-water mosquitoes can be in fields, roadside ditches or home lawns, anywhere that a depression holds water for any period of time during the year. Eggs can remain in these areas for as much as a year and hatch in 5 to 10 minutes when flood water covers them. Flood-water species are very prolific and may cause as many as 500,000 to one million eggs to hatch in a one acre area. The problem will not likely lessen until these wet areas dry up or when the major emergence subsides, usually in 10 to 15 days. For these types of mosquitoes very little can be done short of a city or county wide control program which will usually give limited and temporary relief.

On the other hand there are recommendations for controlling the container-breeding mosquitoes. These mosquitoes can develop wherever standing water is available such as in old tires, tin cans, bird baths or any place that will hold enough water to provide breeding sites. To help control this type of mosquitoes it is important to drain any standing water or change it on a weekly basis, in the case of bird baths or watering troughs. Where there is water that is serving as breeding site but cannot be eliminated, then treatment with a larvicide is a possibility. But, these must be used according to label directions in order that they not be hazards to fish, other animals or humans.

Control of adult mosquitoes offers the most immediate relief. Inside the home, aerosol bombs containing pyrethrins offer quick knockdown of adult mosquitoes. The killing effect of pyrethrins is very short-lived so frequent ap-lications will be necessary to keep adult mosquitoes inside the house under control. The "pest stripe" offers effective control for long periods of time. One strip per room is necessary.

Persons who are active where and when mosquitoes are a problem should use repellents. These repellents will protect one from biting mosquitoes for 1-3 hrs. depending on the type of activity of the person.

Adult mosquitoes around the home can best be controlled by space or residual treatments of insecticides such as malathion, Dibrom^R, methoxychlor, or Dursban^R. Space treatments, generally fogs, have very little residual activity and it will be necessary to retreat at frequent intervals. Space treatment should be done during the cool hours of the night or early morning and when the wind velocity is less than 5 miles per hour. Residual treatment applied as mists or sprays to the resting site of adult mosquitoes give longer-lasting control than space treatments. Residual sprays should be applied to vegetation, eaves of roofs, under porches, and similar shaded areas where adult mosquitoes rest by day.

When we finally do see the hot, dry days of summer then we should get some relief from the mosquito problem.

Graveside services and interment were held at 3:00 p.m. in Dreamland Cemetery in Canyon with Rev. Bob Ford, Pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Canyon, officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of Robertson Funeral Directors.

Mr. Delaney died at 11:30 a.m. on Monday, June 12, 1989 in Westgate Care Center in Amarillo following a lengthy illness. He was born October 25, 1906 in Graham, Texas and married Oressa Hastings on July 10, 1938 at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He retired in 1970 from the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad. He lived in Clarendon for 15 years before moving to Canyon in 1986. He was a life member of the United Transportation Workers. He was a member of the Childress and Clarendon Masonic Lodges and the Chapter and Council in Clarendon. He was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and of the First United Methodist Church in Clarendon.

Survivors include his wife, Oressa Delaney of Canyon; one daughter, Rita Wynn of UMBarger; one son, Larry H. Delaney of Amarillo; one sister, Ruby Walker of Cherry Valley, California; four grandchildren; and four great grandchildren.

Members of the Clarendon Masonic Lodge served as casket bearers.

Members of the Methodist Men's Sunday School Class served as honorary bearers.

The family requests that memorials be to Faith City Mission in Amarillo or to a favorite charity.

Vacation Safety

It's vacation time and time to start thinking about our summer travels and those year-long planned vacations. Major Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety adds that there are things we can do to insure that our summer plans are not ruined by some type of tragedy.

"Whether your plans involve travel by car or just a trip to the lake for a little swimming and boating, remember that these activities require a sober mind. While drinking, it is best to stay out of the water and if operating a car or boat use the "Designated Driver". It may just be your life that is saved," Major Cawthon stressed.

Travel plans should include a safety check of your vehicle, both under the hood and on the outside. Trips should be planned, so that you are not rushed to get to your destination. Plenty of rest and frequent breaks make for a safe driving combination.

Be familiar with highway designations. Because of the different posted speed limits, it is important to know if you're on the Interstate roadway system or another type of road. Road appearance alone will not give you this information, so it is important that you know what road you are on.

To sum it all up, drive defensively, constantly watching out for the other driver and please, buckle up. It is the Texas way of doing things.

Deuteronomy 6:7-9

Christianity Lite

by Mack Garrison

Have you ever noticed how many diet products there are available to the general public? There's sugar free drinks, low fat milk, potato chips with less salt, and many, many other items too numerous to mention. And although these are, no doubt, produced with the health of the people in mind it's all too amazing that the products with the least always cost the most. Take gasoline for example. Just a few years ago the oil companies couldn't give "white gas" away, now it cost more than regular. Our minds are slowly but surely being bomb-boarded with the concept that "less is best".

The world desperately wants the church to think like they do: That they can have their cake and eat it too. A low fat, sugar free cake at that. And learning all these concepts from the world we then tend to apply them to the church. We learn to "Go For The Gusto" and "It tastes great and it's less filling!" Wow! What a deal! Now we can walk with Jesus and still hold hands with the world!

Jesus said, "I am the Bread of life, he that cometh to me shall never hunger and he that believeth on me shall never thirst." and "I am the living Bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this Bread, he shall live forever and the Bread that I will give is my flesh which I will give for the life of the world."—John 6:35,51

How much of God do you have? It has been said that every man has as much of God as he or she wants. Or maybe we are all on a Christianity diet: Taking just a little low-fat milk of the word and very little if any meat. And just nibbling at the crust of the Bread. Are we God's people, becoming malnourished Christians? Starving for the real Word of God and thirsting for the real Jesus?

King David wrote in Psalms 34:8a, "O taste and see that the Lord is good..."

In Matthew 5:6 Jesus said, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled."

I know that the new life that Jesus gives tastes good but taste is not enough for me. I want to be filled. I'm tired of the old bland Christianity Lite that the world is dishing out. I want the real, whole life that God promised through His Son.

This Christianity diet might "Taste great!" But it's "Less (Holy Spirit) filling."

Naomi's News

by Naomi Green

Helena Catoe went to Altus Oklahoma last week for business.

J.R. and Hazel Brandon and Myrl and Frank Reger of Hedley were guests in the Don Matherson home at Claude Sunday.

David Green celebrated his thirteen birthday Memorial Day at Garski's Restaurant in Amarillo with Don, Katherine and Brad Williams and Clint and Lindsay Green. A birthday brownie with ice cream was served to the birthday boy with all in attendance and waiters singing the traditional birthday song.

Mary Green was among the seven persons taking training for the Train, the Trainer Camp Course at Camp Cibola Girl Scout Camp over the weekend.

The Jerry Green family visited with the Haskell Talleys Sunday at Memphis. They returned by way of Hedley and brought Josh Talley back to spend the night with them.

Naomi and Larry Green had a doctors appointment in Amarillo Monday afternoon.

Royce Hall has returned home from St. Anthony Hospital. Mae Naylor brought him in Monday and went on to Memphis to visit Thelma at the Nursing Home.

Duane, Ronnie and Dannie Naylor were rained out on cotton planting at Foard County and drove to Amarillo to see Royce Sunday visiting Thelma enroute. Another three inches of rainfall in Foard County delays the planting. Fortunately, the wheat is already harvested.

Here at the house we had another two inches or more of rain latter part of the week. East of town, the Williams don't have a rain gauge, but the beds and fields too wet to get in to.

Martin Baptist pastor Rev. Johnny Hoggat is living in the Martin parsonage now with his wife, Cathy, daughter Mary and sons Johnny and James.

Larry and Betty Watson have moved back to Larry's farm house. His daughters Rene and Janet will be with them most of the summer and Betty has a daughter Amy and sons Oren and Cael.

Rose Lee and L.A. Watson attended a family reunion at Roaring Springs and visited afterwards with cousins in the vicinity.

Monday, Rose Lee fixed lunch for the Larry Watson family. Annette and Michael Walker came out from Clarendon to join them.

Laura Tucker has in the past described to me the complexity of living with oneself by addressing lectures from "She" to "Her." Although I share a household with others I find myself lecturing "her" about some of the things "she" finds unacceptable.

For instance, Saturday morning "she" tells "her" that the Lord is not going to look at "her" face in church Sunday morning with chores last day of the week. A few things have got to be accomplished to keep the Health and Welfare office from seeking injunctions.

So "her" feels very put-upon but mopping gets done and it is 3 p.m. before the weeds the Lord watered so generously this week get tackled. Along about twenty to four it starts to rain seriously.

Another thing "she" jumps "her" about is spending good money for bird feed to call the birds in and more money for shotgun shells to run the crows off. "Her" tells "she" that we have never before had a sparrow hawk nesting in the elm tree and standing vigil on the electric wire that runs from meter pole to the barn. Nor have we had mockingbirds singing from the brush pile and the apple tree. Nor have we had larks with repetitive plea keeping company in the garden.

"She" told "her" that grandchildren had to be told that shoes with metatarsal pads had to be reserved for Grandmas and not end up in the dress-up box. "Her" told "she" not to get too rough on grandchildren as they have been known to grow into pretty fair haired hands and are next best company to grumpy "crop-bound" husbands.

Last Wednesday Ethel Reid of Claude spent the day with Viola Graham.

Patricia and Elena Doerrie of Perryton had lunch with H.A. and Naomi Green Wednesday. Larry Green, Charolette Payne and Hoss Watt were also guests. In the afternoon Patricia and Elena visited with Mary, Christel and Jerry Green.

Beth Stepp came Friday and spent some time with the H.A. Greens before returning to Amarillo Sunday with Charolette Payne and Hoss Watts.

Truett, Fern and John Hall and Truetta Brandt, Tish and Tonya and Tish's friend, Veronica of Amarillo went to Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, to see their grandson Billy play in the greater Tulsa all-star football game. His team South won. They enjoyed shopping, sight-seeing and culminated the trip with a visit to the Cowboy Hall of Fame and Zoo in Oklahoma City.

Billy Hall of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, grandson of Truett and Fern Hall will be leaving 18th of July for the Marines.

Robert and Aline Partain returned from Leedey, Okla. and brought her mother Minnie Taylor with them. While in Okla., they attended Minnie's sister's 88th birthday celebration. It was held at Hamon, Okla. with over 210 friends and relatives registering at the home of Ada Dean, the honoree.

Tena Powell of Goodnight entered High Plains Baptist Hospital and underwent surgery Monday morning.

Gloria and Jerry Gray of Canyon came Sunday to have lunch with Ismanell, Vance and Buster Gray.

Ismanell and Vance Gray had business in Amarillo, Monday. They went by to visit with Jeanene Tittle of Canyon, Terri Tittle at Amarillo was also there visiting.

Willard and Willa Cook of Claude visited with Helena Catoe last Wednesday.

Dick Shelton was in the hospital last week but it at home now and recuperating.

Another inch and a half of rainfall, Monday night sent us all nervously to the cellar and left us with lower fields flooded. It is so hard for me to holler "nuff" after so earnestly petitioning the Lord to break the drought. If He is waiting for me to holler "calf-ropes" I assure you, I am ready to acknowledge it.

When I was in Montrose, Colorado for Ben's graduation, the topic of contention was who was going to get the scarce snow melt run off, the eastern slope or the western slope of the mountain. I do wish I could ship a little West Texas drouth relief run off to them to settle the issue.

Picking blackberries in my patch takes determination, gloves for thorns, long sleeves and mosquitoes repellent and a hoe for weeds and snakes. In addition I am looking for a deterrent for a friendly barn cat so lonesome for affection that she tries to climb in the berry bucket. H.A. took some to his Dad and Frankie when he went to Canyon Friday. He claimed he had picked them. The only berries I ever catch him picking go straight to his mouth.

Several people have noted that there was no news in last weeks paper. Well, the editor and I have this understanding that his full page ads get in, in place of my prattle. He claims to laugh all the way to the bank. Since it is not far to the bank and he does not get there that often, I allow him that little pleasure. He usually allows my week late news, the following week.

Bradward on Classifieds 13

Where have all the salesmen gone? Far, far away, the old song says. A Czechoslovak named Thomas Bata (1897) visited the USA. He asked why all our workers wore shoes and Czechs went barefoot. We told him: Czechs were too poor. Selling shoes, Bata asked himself the same question.

One morning, on the deck as the sun came up, he made a profound observation. Czechs don't refuse to wear shoes because they are too poor, he said, but because there are no shoes. I will become shoemaker to the world. He did. Today Bata accounts for 26.8% of all shoes sold the world over. Bata sent a man who said he was a salesman to Africa. Month later he called Bata: COMING HOME. NO ONE IN AFRICA WEARS SHOES. Bata sent a real salesman. Week later cable arrived. SEND FIVE MORE SALESMEN. TOOK UP FOR BIG PRODUCTION. NO ONE IN AFRICA YET WEARS SHOES. Bata did. Now 81.1% of all shoes sold in Africa are Bata shoes. So you need salesmen/ladies who can sell. Right off, don't look for people who want to sell. Forget that! Seek for people who want to earn. Then run, do not walk, to your newspaper classified ad office. Take a classified that focuses on what your sales staff can earn. How often they are paid. What kind of bonuses they can earn. How you will support them for more sales for their increased take-home cash. Highest paid people in America have always been those who sell. Don't fight the system! Capitalize on it! What does an employment agency charge for finding a super salesman/lady? Ten percent? How about 25% to 35%. Sometimes more. Worth it? Often yes. But why not go to the classifieds yourself. Invest your time to create that very special classified to find those miracle workers? Nothing in all America accounts for the growth of this great nation quite like high earning salesmen/women. Get a few! And you are on your way! With the classifieds, of course.

A $1.00 charge will be added if statements are sent on classified ads. If you want your classified ad blocked, there will be an additional $1.00 charge on the first ad. Classified ad rates are $3.50 for 15 words or less, 10 cents per word over 15 words. Cards of thanks, average length is $4.00. Subscription rate in Donley County is $13.00 a year. Subscriptions for outside of Donley County and out of state are $16.00 a year. Six month subscriptions are $8.00 and three month subscriptions are $6.00. Display ads on request.
