DONLEY COUNTY 4-H Horse Project Club in Tri State Parade.

Donley County 4-H Horses win Fair Parade

In the wee hours of the morning Monday, 27 parents with their 27 kids and 27 horses and 27 trailers met at the Clarendon rodeo grounds to make the trek into Amarillo for the Annual Tri-State Fair Parade to be on Polk Street later that day. This was the kids' day off, yet they all got up about 4 a.m. to participate in this parade for their 4-H Horse Club project.

15,000 people lined Polk Street for the parade, all three TV stations filmed the event and the entire Panhandle area watched as the Donley Co. 4-H Horse project captured the Equistrian entry first place trophy! They were the only out of town entry in the parade and still they captured the huge first place trophy. The presentation occurred on the open air stage at the fair last night.

Preceding this grand event, our illustrious first place winning horse team took first place trophy at the Hall County Reunion parade

September 18th.

In addition to entering their green and white horse club, the kids and parents

Band Boosters will hold Chili Supper Oct. 1

As the frosty air nips at our toes and noses, the thoughts of homecoming, football and chili suppers pop into mind as the leaves flutter past our noses.

Band Boosters and chili are synonymous. The chili supper will be Friday, October 1 at the high school cafeteria. This annual hard-riding in of fall and football will begin at 5 p.m. and go until 7 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased at the door or from a band student. Prices for the

Hobby Rep cites voter apathy as major concern for re-election

Paul W. Hobby, son of Lt. Governor and Mrs. Bill Hobby, visited Clarendon Tuesday, Sept. 14 before going on to the Rotary Club in Memphis for lunch. Twenty-one year old Paul is helping his mother represent the Lt. Governor in Hobby's bid for re-election this fall.

"Voter apathy is the biggest concern we face," Hobby said. "We aren't as much concerned with opponents or issues as voter apathy." This is certainly something Clarendon is faced with in all elections. "We don't really care what the issue is if it will just turn voters out," the son of Bill Hobby remarked. The biggest problem voter apathy could produce is that the Lt. Governor will not be re-elected to continue his work on the new water issue proposal that will come before the State senate this spring. "Texans need to re-elect Bill Hobby because his plan will die in the water if he is not there to represent it," the young man said. "Water is the main concern of people in this part of Texas and the new proposal could be the solution to many of their problems. If Hobby is not re-elected, this issue

Broncho Backs Bolt by Bobcats

The Sunray Bobcats had heard of "white lightning," but they thought it had something to do with "moonshine."

There was no moonshine last Friday night at Sunray, though. There was, however, plenty of white lightning, both the real kind, created by God, and the Broncho kind, created by Ted Allen.

The visiting Clarendon team, wearing white jerseys, struck with quickness and great power, defeating Sunray 14-0 in a Panhandle rarity: a game called at half-time. Game officials, considering the thunderbolts all around them, declared the game ended after the first two quarters of play.

The flash of electricity that Bobcat fans and players undoubtedly remember the most, however, came not from the sky. It was, instead a blur wearing number 33, well-known to Broncho followers as David Weather-ton.

The speedy senior ran for an amazing 179 yards in only half a game! Even Hale Center's Joe Davis can't match that statistic.

Despite the surprising decision by the game officials, there was no question about the game's winner, except in the mind of Sunray coach Jim Cain, who expressed the opinion that his team could have come back to win the game if there had been a second half.

Of course, a coach is supposed to think his team can win, but even so, he deserves the "cock-eyed optimist" award for this football season.

Consider the facts: Clarendon led at half-time in first downs, 6 to 1; in rushing, 194 to minus-2 yards; and in passing, 25 yards to 7.

Clarendon scored its first touchdown on its fourth possession when David Weather-ton raced 70 yards on a first-down sweep play. David was cleared by crisp blocks executed by junior Tailback Glenn Weather-ton, senior Strong Tackle John Smith, and junior Strong Guard Creed Wright. Once outside, it was a footrace down the sideline. Broncho fans know how footraces with David usually turn out.

The extra point failed, however, leaving the score 6-0. Then Clarendon gave the Bobcats their best chance to score some points when on their next possession the Bronchos fumbled a wet football on their own 25-yard line.

But the maroon defense, which blanketed the Bobcat runners and receivers all evening as thoroughly as the dark clouds did the Panhandle sky that eerie night, doused Sunray hopes like so much rainfall a dry gully.

Speedy End Rodney Smith tackled a Bobcat runner on one sweep play to the opposite side of the field for no gain on a first-down play as the quarter ended. A few plays later senior Tackle Brad McGuire brushed aside a Bobcat blocker as if he were a bothersome gnat and crushed the ballcarrier at the line of scrimmage. Then senior End Todd Muse did about the same thing when they tried his side of the line, driving the runner back in perfect tacking form.

Two incomplete passes, one broken up by Senior Safety Brett Bryant in the end zone, ended the only Bobcat scoring threat, and Clarendon took over the ball at their own 10-yard line.

On third down it was off-to-the-races time again. A quick pitch to David Weather-ton around right end resulted in a 55-yard sprint. Again, excellent blocking by the strong side of the Broncho line (Tight End Ray Crump, Tackle John Smith, and Guard Creed Wright) cleared the way.

The play will surely end up in this year's highlight film. Crump hooked the Sunray end, and Smith chopped the Bobcat cornerback as Wright chopped the linebacker, and D.W. sailed right between the two blocks and into the open field.

Two plays later, Rodney Smith, sophomore fullback, took a perfect pitch from junior Quarterback Dyrone Howell (who was immediately hit hard in the face) and raced 17 yards to the Sunray 15-yard line.

Showing his toughness, Howell came back to run the same play again on the next snap, took the same blow, but delivered the same fine pitch before being hit. This time David Weather-ton received the pitch and gained 10 more yards.

Two incomplete passes brought up a fourth down, though, and a Clarendon field goal attempt was no good.

Three defensive gems by Clarendon followed. Junior Linebacker Creed Wright mauled a Bobcat runner for no gain on first down. Then senior End Ray Crump personally destroyed a sweep play for a 2-yard loss. On third down, the other defensive end, sophomore Rodney Smith, sacked the Bobcat quarterback for a 7-yard loss on a roll-out. Needless to say, linebacker-defensive end coach Dudley Kelm was "singin' in the rain" on the Broncho sideline.

Sunray was forced to punt, of course. A high snap from center went into and out of the end zone, giving Clarendon 2 points on an automatic safety.

After receiving the free kick, Clarendon took to the air on offense. Senior Flanker Brett Bryant dropped a certain touchdown pass from Howell on first down (the ball was wet, remember?), but Tight End Ray Crump managed to hang on to the next Howell pass for a 20-yard gain to the Sunray 25-yard line. Another long pass, from Howell to senior Quick End Kelly Hill, fell incomplete at the goal line, and then Howell was dropped for a big loss on the next pass attempt.

Then, however, the quick pitch to David Weather-ton was called again by Coach Allen. And again it worked to perfection, with the Crump-Smith-Wright blocking combination leading the way for a 30-yard gain to the Bobcat 8 yard line.

David then ran for 4 yards and 2 yards on off-tackle plays. On third-down-and-goal from the 2, he ran the quick pitch again and scored his second touchdown of the game. Crump and Smith threw the scoring blocks. It was now 14-0.

At this point it seemed as though an early Fourth of July was being celebrated in the heavens. Flash after flash of light illuminated the stadium as the teams sought shelter at half-time.

It's too bad there was no second half. David Weather-ton & Co. might have set a single-game rushing record had there been one. Even so, 179 yards on 13 carries (almost 14 yards per carry) isn't bad for any game, half or whole.

And the Bronchos will call it a win for sure, bringing their record to 2-1 for the new season. Let's hope win number 3 comes next week at Boys' Ranch.

SUNRAY GAME was called at halftime, because of rain.

Fire Prevention Week Oct 3-9

October 3-9, 1982 is National Fire Prevention Week and the Clarendon Fire Department along with Clarendon EMS has scheduled several events commemorating this week including an open house on Saturday, October 2 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., a school fire drill, and several other events.

Included in these events is a poster contest with four divisions: (1) Preschool (2) Grades 1 & 2 (3) Grades 3 & 4 (4) Grades 5 & 6. In each division there will be a trophy awarded to the first place poster along with ribbons for 2nd, 3rd and 4th places. Additionally, a larger trophy will be awarded to the most outstanding poster overall. The winner of this trophy, the Chiefs Award, will also receive two $50.00 savings bonds, one each from the First Bank and Trust and the Donley County State Bank. The banks have donated these prizes to the fire department. A letter was handed out at school to students outlining the guidelines for the poster contest. Students are reminded that posters will be picked up at school for judging at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, September 24. All posters should be turned in to home room teachers by that time. All of the posters will be on display at the open house and the winners will be on display at the City Library during Fire Prevention Week.

Watch next weeks Clarendon Press for more details on Fire Prevention Week activities and a schedule of events for open house on October 2.

Bronchos Travel to Boys Ranch

After an unusual game with the Sunray Bobcats, the Bronchos will be going to Boys Ranch to continue their string of success. It was a case of lightning versus football and the lightning will win every time. The Bronchos had the game well in hand by the half as the Bobcats had only minus one yard total offense.

The team is continually improving, especially in the skill areas and linemen are improving day by day according to the coaches. It will be a title contender by the district games.

Boys Ranch is an up and down team, winning the first game with Sunray 21-0, then losing to Friona 34-6, before settling on Vega for an 8-0 victory Saturday afternoon due to lightning Friday night.

They have several outstanding players; Ed Ransom, a 190 lb. fullback that has good speed and strength, Dale Horner, a 205 lb. halfback that has been injured the last two games but will play against the Bronchos, Bill Baron, a 185 lb. middle guard on defense and tight end on offense, John Gaines, a 160 lb. split end-safety, is an outstanding player.

Boys Ranch does an outstanding job of executing their offense and will keep the ball in a ground control. On defense, they use an aggressive front that is headed by a 270 lb. defensive tackle, Brady Fisher and the other defensive tackle James Pyle a 185 lb. Senior.

They have settled down in their personnel and the Bronchos and their fans can expect a very tough game with both teams playing good defense.

First Aid Course offered

A first aid course will be given in Clarendon if 10 people sign up to attend. The dates are Monday and Tuesday nights on October 11th and 12th from 6:30 to 10:00. A Red Cross instructor from Pampa will give the course.

This course is being sponsored by the Girl Scout Neighborhood of Clarendon. ALL LEADERS SHOULD SIGN UP as it would be well to have first aid knowledge if working with a group of girls. Any other adult may sign up. All those interested please contact Mary Neal Risley at 874-2284 or 874-3581, so the instructor will know the packets to bring.

Young Hobby is just one of several voices campaigning for his father. "My mother and I are both his eyes and ears because we contact him each night and tell him what people in other areas of Texas think and feel. He can't possibly be in all of Texas at once because of the size of this great state."

Hobby's campaign is more a "people oriented campaign rather than a money campaign," Paul said. "Voters aren't interested in the political debates and pom-pom waving that usually accompanies elections, they are interested in how things can help them out and that makes the campaign a people oriented one."

Hobby has been re-elected in the past with overwhelming numbers. "His past is the best indication of his future achievements," son of Hobby said, "I think that more people know his record, the more they will appreciate his work on their behalf."

Paul is a graduate from the University of Virginia in Charlottesville with a degree in history. He played linebacker on the university's varsity football team for three years and was president of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity during his senior year.

The good-looking young man encouraged voters to turn out for the November elections because "voter apathy will eventually dissolve good government."

Broncho Booster Club has meeting

The Clarendon Broncho Booster Club began its regular Tuesday night meeting with an ice cream supper on September 14, at eight o'clock in the school cafeteria. Special guests for the evening were members of the Varsity and Jr. Varsity Football teams. Officers elected for the coming year were Tom Harguess, President; Doug Wright, Vice-President; and Tiny Alderson, Secretary.

Head Football Coach and Athletic Director Ted Allen introduced his staff and narrated the showing of films from the Clarendon-Canadian game.

During the business meeting projects were discussed to support the athletic programs in Clarendon High School. Highlighting the discussion was the purchase of an activity bus for the use of all students. Discussion was tabled until more information could be obtained.

The following Tuesday night, the Booster Club met again with Coach Norman Wright narrating the films from the Kress game. In the business meeting led by President Tom Harguess, it was decided to raise the dues and to organize a Business Booster Club with football helmet plaques to be presented for display in businesses who join. Plans were made to conduct a Christmas tree sale. Mrs. Betty Muse, owner of Harlans Flowers, has trees ordered which she has graciously offered to the Booster Club and will furnish a site to sell them in the rear of her shop.

General other projects were discussed as were ways to spend the money. The purchase of an activity bus was again discussed as well as video equipment and rebuilding of the visitors seating in Broncho Stadium. A consensus of opinion in the community was to be brought before a definite decision is made.

Coach Sam Haynes announced we still have a number of Clarendon Broncho caps available for sale at $6.00 each. These can be purchased through Booster Club members. Reserved seats are also available for all home games at $4.00. Contact Cula Jo Trout at the Superintendent's office.

Remember that the Broncho Booster Club meets each Tuesday night during football season at 8:00 p.m. in the Clarendon School cafeteria. Please attend and give the Bronchos your support!

The Lions Tale

A sumptuous feast of fried chicken and all of the trimmings were served to Lion Sweetheart Jessie Adams, three guests and 27 Lions Tuesday, Sept. 21.

Lion Chrystal was amused at the initiative of Lion Baldwin when he split the table in two so that Lions Chrystal and Baldwin could be seated at their place of "imminent domain", the end of the table. Lion Cowan Briester poured for his companions.

Songs were roughly sung, led by competent tenor Lion Johnston and accompanied by Sweetheart Jessie Adams. The pledge was led by Boss Lion Bivens and opening invocation led by Lion Turner.

Guests were introduced, noting that these guests were by far better looking than usual. Dee Cox, guest of Lion Cox, Jill Turner, guest of Lion Turner and Katie Dvorak, guest of J.C. Woody were presented to the appreciative group.

Business was discussed. Boss Bivens noted that the cornice was in dire need of replacement and assured us that Lion Lovelady could, "with a whip and four lions" replace the cornice. Also, the roof needs to be replaced but, as Boss Bivens said, "we are not that suicidal and will not do that ourselves," so that was bid on and a low bid was presented to the club.

Nine new members were presented to the club and formally "sworn in" by Lion Homer Estlack. Those receiving their packets and

Ice Capades: Show of Champions

Ice Capades celebrates its all-new musical revue "Light Up The Ice" with an internationally-acclaimed cast of skating champions opening Thursday, September 23, through Sunday, September 26 at the Amarillo Civic Center for 6 exciting performances.

Reflecting years of amateur and professional polish, the performers in this year's production have been selected from among the world's greatest stars.

Headlining this year's brand new show is U.S. Junior Men's Champion Richard Ewell. He is the first black to participate in international competition and one of the few to perform professionally. Richard's strength and grace on the ice is matched by few in the ice skating world.

Ice Capades newest star, 1982 World Professional Champion Robert Wagenhofer, makes his professional skating debut with Ice Capades. Amazing everyone with his quadruple jumps that only he can make look easy, Robert is said to be one of the best freestyle skaters in the world.

U.S. National Junior Champion Carrie Rugh comes to Ice Capades after having garnered an enviable list of credits as an amateur skater, including both Bronze and Silver Medals in international competitions.

The list of champions continues with Frank Sweiding and his partner Beth Flora who combine skating athleticism with balletic grace. This new pair team is beginning their first year together. Each has skated with a different partner and accrued many championships separately. Now together, they present pair skating at its finest.

Other featured performers in the all-new spectacular are lovely new soloist Judy Shaul, adagio artists Tony Paul and Terry Pagano and statuesque Jennifer Eckman. In an unusual championship category, Ice Capades presents Danny Rosen -- an amazing juggler who intrigues audiences with his display of dexterity while on a unicycle!

Comedian Tommy Miller guarantees side-splitting laughter as he skates mischievously as a mad-cap fireman. And, if there were awards for clowning, certainly ice comedians Biddy and Baddy would be in "laugh place" with their slapstick humor.

Tickets, priced at $6.50 - $7.50 and $8.50 are now on sale at the Amarillo Civic Center Box Office and Sears in Sunset Plaza. Substantial discounts are offered for youths (16 and under) and Senior Citizens for certain performances. Charge by phone (use Visa or M/C) call 378-3096.

Wellington Shocks JV 38-6

The Clarendon High School Junior Varsity football team learned what "adversity" means last Thursday night at Broncho Stadium.

The pass-happy Wellington team struck for two quick scoring passes to make the score 12-0 before the game had hardly begun. Then things got bad.

An ambulance appeared suddenly on the field to whisk freshman Broncho Quarterback Leland Howell off to an Amarillo hospital.

Leland suffered a severely broken right arm. But he showed fine courage as he waited relatively calmly on the field for the ambulance, and his parting words were of encouragement to his teammates.

Inspired by their team captain, the Broncho players promptly drove the ball down the field. Freshman Tailback Robert Youngblood took over Howell's signal-calling role and reserve Brent Hayworth came in as the new Tailback.

Neither has had much playing experience at these positions, but both performed admirably under the difficult circumstances.

Youngblood quickly threw a 16-yard pass to freshman Flanker Mark Luttrell that gave the Broncos their initial first down of the game. Then on a fourth-and-long play, Youngblood dropped back and threw a screen pass to freshman Tight End Richard Torres that resulted in an eight-yard gain but was still short of a first down at the Skyrocks' 10 yard line.

But Youngblood was not to be denied. He intercepted a Wellington pass on their first play to give the ball back to the Broncos at the visitors' 35 yard line. Then he moved the team down to the 5 yard line, where he ran an option play and kept the ball, going into the end zone standing up.

This made the score 12-6, with teams having failed at their conversion attempts. It looked for a moment then that the Broncos might come back to challenge for the lead, especially when sophomore cornerback Shane Klinnert tipped a Skyrocket pass and Brent Hayworth, playing safety in place of Leland Howell, intercepted it at the Broncho 30 yard line.

But Wellington silenced such hopes. They retaliated by intercepting a Youngblood pass at the Broncho 40 yard line. Then Wellington quarterback Joe Bill Munn, living up to the Skyrocket nickname, threw another sub-orbital missile to wide receiver Jamie McKay for the duo's third touchdown. A conversion pass made the score 20-6.

At this point there was less than a minute left in the first half. Playing to win, the Broncos tried to pass they ball down the field quickly in hopes of scoring again before halftime.

The gamble failed. Again, Wellington intercepted, this time at the Broncho 35-yard line. One pass play was all it took for Munn and McKay to score their fourth touchdown pass of the game.

Hayworth again intercepted an enemy pass on the conversion play to end the first half's scoring at 26-6.

The second half was anticlimactic. The game's outcome was a foregone conclusion, but the outmanned Broncos never gave up, despite obvious fatigue and disappointment.

Sophomore nose guard Joe Torres and freshman tackle Dan Nichols played inspired defense at times, and led the team in tackles with five apiece. Reserves Brett Herbert and Donald Brogdon blocked a punt and a conversion kick, respectively, to spark second-half play.

Wellington halfback Chuck Brown scored twice on short runs in the second half to end the game's point production at 38-6 in favor of the visitors.

It was simply a case of too much speed (McKay) and too much arm (Munn) for the young Broncos to handle. Munn, a junior who is playing JV ball only because of grade ineligibility, may be the finest long passer in the district, varsity included. He put on quite a show last Thursday night.

It's too bad Leland Howell had to miss it.

[The Clarendon-Wellington JV game was omitted last week - due to an error by The Clarendon Press. For this we apologize. Due to circumstances beyond our control there will not be a write-up on JV, 7th & 8th grade this week. But hopefully next week, all three will be back.]

Colts Corral

By Trisha Clifford

Hi there Colt fans!! The Colts did an excellent job last Thursday night against the Whirlwinds. The 7th graders have improved a lot and if they continue progressing at this rate, they'll beat Shamrock next week!! The 8th graders fought hard, and Memphis had to fight for every inch they got. Marcus

Smith, #27, scored two touchdowns, also running a third which was called back. Keep up the good work, Marcus!! We are also proud of the other players, who made many good blocks, tackles, passes, etc. That's the way to hustle, guys!! Everyone come and watch the mighty Colts show you how to make Irish Stew. Our Jr. High pep squad is doing very well thanks to Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Mondragon. They helped us all to remember to spend our time yelling for our team instead of against the other team.

We'd like to ask that this next week, everyone follow school rules, and not run in the halls, etc. Hopefully, then we'll be allowed to attend the High School pep rallies. Those really do help everyone's school spirit, and it's a big disappointment when, because of misbehavior no one is allowed to attend this exciting event.

Achievement tests were taken early this year, and we hope everyone did well on them. It can be nerve-racking filling in those little circles, so to pass the time and relax between tests, several of the girls streaked their hair with purple highlighter, courtesy of Tina Copelin. Thank you Tina-- too bad some of it didn't wash out!!!

Now for this weeks gossip! Derek H. Gaggling on a worm.

Billy W. Purple ears? Pam H. Insects!!! Kyndle L. Running in the rain! Sounds interesting.

If anyone in Jr. High would like to buy a mum or garter for homecoming contact a senior.

Farm Picture Bleak

Texas livestock producers are faring a little better than crop growers. Hog prices are up 21 percent and beef cattle prices are holding even compared to the first half of 1981 while milk prices are off slightly. Prices for calves, sheep, turkeys and eggs are averaging 5 to 10 percent less while wool prices are off 20 percent.

Along with poor prices, farmers continue to face high interest rates when compared to returns of investments generated from their operations, and high exchange rates have destroyed growth in the export market, Anderson said.

With this overall dismal situation, how can there be hope for farmers?

"Economic health can return from either lower supplies or increased demand that will boost market prices or through more favorable farm program prices," said Anderson. "Either adjustment may take up to three years to develop fully."

"Currently, Texas farmers are looking to Commodity Credit Corporation loan rates, farmer-held reserve loan rates and target prices as their main hope for surviving the most severe financial pressure in half a century," he said. "Unfortunately, earlier this year many of them did not recognize the benefits of support prices and the looming financial dangers."

According to Anderson, failure of more than half of the sorghum farmers to take part in the farm program has caused grain prices to fall sharply below the CCC loan rate. This resulted because nonparticipants were ineligible to put their grain into the loan program and thus had to dump large amounts on the open market, driving prices down.

Now farmers must look ahead to the 1983 farm program. Specifics of the program are being developed, said Anderson, and should be available soon for planning next year's crops.

However, farmers can use expected target prices and loan rates for various crops in their early planning. Expected target prices are $4.30 per bu. for wheat, $2.86 per bu. for corn, $4.91 per cwt. for grain sorghum, 76 cents a lb. for cotton and $11.40 per cwt. for rice. Regular CCC loan rates will be close to $3.65 per bu. for wheat, $2.65 per bu. for corn, $4.50 per cwt. for grain sorghum, 55 cents per lb. for cotton and $8.55 per cwt. for rice. Anticipated farmer-held reserve loan rates are $4 per bu. for wheat, $2.90 per bu. for corn and $4.91 per cwt. for grain sorghum. There is no reserve loan for cotton and rice.

Using these anticipated figures, maximum deficiency payments (difference between target price and CCC loan rate) that farmers could expect are 65 cents per bu. for wheat, 21 cents per bu. for corn, 41 cents per cwt. for grain sorghum, 21 cents a lb. for cotton and $2.85 per cwt. for rice.

"Since reduced production will be a major goal of next year's farm program, it will likely call for laying out 15 to 25 percent of the base acreage for each eligible crop," said Anderson. "Farmers should take this into consideration as they begin land preparation and fertilizer and herbicide applications for next year's crops."

1983 farm income could improve some with increased participation in the farm program since reduced production would help the supply situation and allow loan rates to be more effective in setting price floors. On the demand side, lower interest rates should give a boost to the marketplace. And improved economic climate could spur the demand for farm products, said the economist.

Meanwhile, farmers will be looking at controlling or minimizing operating expenses, evaluating alternative crops for highest returns while taking as little price risk as possible, foregoing capital purchases and taking a hard look at full participation in the government farm program, Anderson said.

FAMILY HEALTH

MOLES

Most young adults have at least 40 moles scattered across their bodies. About two percent of light-skinned infants are born with one or two of them, and up to 16 percent of dark-skinned children have them at birth. During childhood and adolescence more develop until the mid-thirties, from when the numbers remain stable until they regress later in life.

Many people ask, "Will my moles turn into skin cancer?" According to the American Academy of Dermatology, the answer to this is that it is most unlikely unless the mole was present at birth and is of large size (20 cm in diameter or more).

If a mole increases rapidly in size, changes color, becomes hard, bleeds, crusts or changes in any other way, a dermatologist should remove it and examine it under a microscope. Some people wish for their moles to be removed for cosmetic reasons. This can usually be done.

Hedley School Board met

Hedley CISD Board of Trustees met in regular session to set the 1982 tax rate. The Board decided to set a 64 cent per 100 dollar tax rate for the 1982 tax year. This rate would levy a total of 22,473 dollars for the sinking fund at a 13 cent per 100 dollar evaluation. The operating levy would be 88,164 dollars at 51 cents per 100 dollar evaluation. The district total tax levy would be 110,637.00 on a taxable base of 17,287,139.00 dollars. This represents a decrease of about 10,000 dollars in the total tax levy as compared with 1981 figures. The 1981 levy was 120,544.00 dollars. The 1982 tax rate also represents a decrease from the 1981 tax rate. In 1981 the rate was 70 cents per 100 dollar evaluation. The 1982 rate is six cents per 100 dollar evaluation below the 1981 amount. The 1981 taxable base was 17,221,971 dollars. The 1982 tax base represents an increase in value of about 65,000 dollars.

Because of the reappraisal of property and the granting of several exemptions as mandated by the legislature, the Effective Tax Rate for Hedley CISD was calculated at approximately 62.5 cents per 100 dollars of evaluation. Therefore, in using the formula provided by the state, the 64 cent per 100 dollars of evaluation tax rate set by the Board reflects an increase in the effective rate of slightly less than three percent.

The Board decided that considering current economic conditions and the reduction in personnel that had already taken place, the school should be able to operate at the reduced level without hampering programs for the current school year.

On September 2, 1982, the F.T.A. Chapter hosted a watermelon party for prospective members to motivate new students. All who attended had a good time. Some items discussed were when to hold our meetings and what F.T.A. is about.

Attending were Miss Betty Veach, advisor, Annette Watson, Dyanne Johnston, Wayne Chambliss, Tim Cole, Lynn Alderson, Missy Johnston, Jill Wallace, and Janet Risley. District XVI Executive Officers met September 13, 1982, at Clarendon College at

10:00 a.m. for the purpose of a planning session for events the coming year. Clarendon HS F.T.A. hosted the five schools of District XVI that were represented. Annette Watson, District XVI President presided over the meeting. Dr. Ken Martin, Dean of Instruction of Clarendon College gave remarks and greetings from Clarendon College as did Mr. Tex

Selvidge, Dean of Students. Miss Watson introduced all officers and their advisors. A calendar of events scheduled for District XVI was handed to all officers and assignments were made and completed. Each district officer knows what they are responsible for during the District XVI Convention, November 9, 1982 at WTSU. Attending were Amy Morris, District XVI F.T.A. Vice-President from Tulsa and her advisor, Dorothy Hulsey; Teresa Lowry, F.T.A. historian from Borger and her advisor, Sharon Gillian; Kim Tye, T.F.T.A. Financial Secretary from Kress and her advisor, Connie Jackson; Sandy Kingham Recording Secretary from Panhandle and her advisor, Elizabeth Smith; and Annette Watson, President and Dyanne Johnston, Corresponding Secretary from Clarendon and their advisor Miss Betty Veach. Lynn Alderson, Tim Cole and Jill Wallace of Clarendon F.T.A. helped host the meeting.

Monday, September 13, the F.T.A. chapter for Clarendon met to elect officers and discuss plans for the 1982-83 school year. Elected as President was Dyanne Johnston; Vice President, Brad McGuire; Secretary, Debbie Payne; Treasurer, Lynn Alderson; Historian, Wendy McCombs; Parliamentarian, Tim Cole; and Reporter, Janet Risley.

This year we are planning to sell candy, raffle $100 worth of gas, and to sell Smurf Christmas wrapping paper to raise money for the district and state conventions. On the district level there will be Mr. and Mrs. F.T.A. contest and the winners will receive $100 scholarships. This would be a good idea for anyone who would like a chance at a scholarship. Our next meeting will be Monday Sept. 27. We encourage anyone in high school who would like to be in F.T.A. to join.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 2, 1982

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 1 proposes a constitutional amendment that prohibits any state ad valorem tax. Receipts from previously authorized state ad valorem taxes that are collected after the effective date of the proposed amendment shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the county collecting the taxes and may be expended for county purposes. Taxes collected before that date shall be distributed by the legislature among educational institutions eligible to receive those funds under prior law. The proposed amendment also repeals a section of the Constitution levying an ad valorem tax for a construction fund for 17 state colleges and universities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing the state property tax."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 62 as amended by Senate Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would eliminate the $80,000,000 ceiling on state welfare aid during any fiscal year.

The amendment would set the state welfare spending limit at $160,000,000 for the 1982-1983 biennium.

The amendment further provides that, for each subsequent biennium, the maximum amount spent for state welfare shall not exceed one percent of the state budget.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to provide assistance through the appropriations process to needy persons and to place a ceiling on payments for needy dependent children at one percent of the state budget."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt machinery and equipment used in the production of farm and ranch products from taxation. No dollar limits would be imposed and the exemption would apply to corporations and partnerships as well as to families and individuals.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment exempting implements of husbandry (agricultural machinery and equipment) from ad valorem taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 77 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to set a four year maximum term of office for board members of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide terms not to exceed four years for members of governing boards of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 119 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize Tarrant and Bee counties to hold county-wide elections to abolish the county treasurer's office by majority vote.

Should the county treasurer's office be abolished, the duties, powers, and functions of that office would be transferred to the county auditor or the successor to the auditor's functions.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Tarrant and Bee counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would raise the constitutional interest rate limit on state general obligation bonds from 6% to 12%. The new 12% ceiling does not, however, apply to bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment increasing the maximum interest rate allowed on state general obligation bonds to a weighted average annual interest rate of 12%."

Square meals provide sufficient vitamins

The word itself sounds healthy--vitamins. And for years, television commercials have urged everyone to take them regularly. Vitamin stores sprang up everywhere, and some people began taking large amounts of these essential organic compounds.

But the Texas Medical Association says some people receive the necessary vitamins if they eat well-balanced meals. Vitamin intake beyond the small amounts needed for life, growth and health has no known benefits. In fact, excessive amounts of vitamins A and D can be toxic.

Vitamins do not provide energy or build any part of the body. What they do is transform foods into energy and body maintenance. If a vitamin is missing, a deficiency disease becomes apparent. Rickets, pellagra and scurvy once were common diseases, caused by deficiencies in vitamin D, niacin and vitamin C, respectively. These days, vitamin deficiency diseases are rarely found in the United States.

The measuring stick for vitamins (and minerals) is the U.S. Recommended Daily Allowances, a listing commonly found on labels of foods and vitamin supplements. The RDA table gives the percentage contained of the daily requirement for each vitamin in the product.

A reasonable dietary supplement contains from 50 to 150 percent of the RDA for vitamins and minerals. Many physicians and nutritionists consider those with higher percentages as drugs, not dietary supplements. Examples are those with 3,000 percent of the RDA for vitamin B1 (thiamin) or with 2,500 percent for vitamin B6 (pyridoxine). Despite claims in ads, large amounts do not increase vitality or strength. But they occasionally cause poisoning.

Vitamin E has been the subject of exaggerated claims in some cases. The National Academy of Sciences says "adequate amounts of vitamin E are supplied by the usual diet... Self-medication with vitamin E in the hope that a more or less serious condition will be alleviated may indeed be hazardous," particularly when medical treatment is delayed.

Some people who eat normally still may want a vitamin supplement. Doctors often suggest a daily multiple vitamin tablet.

IT'S A SMALL WORLD

Medicines are typically available in a variety of dosage forms, flavors, and strengths. A primary reason for this variety is the existence of the small world that surrounds us...the world of infants and young children.

AMOUNT OF MEDICINE: Children are not small adults and, therefore, usually cannot be given smaller doses of medicine on the basis of weight. Their bodies contain more water on a weight-to-weight basis... this changes the way many drugs act in the body. The function of the liver and kidneys in the young may also differ from that of adults and this necessitates a change in the amount of medicine given (the liver and kidneys help remove many drugs from the body.)

DOSAGE FORM OF MEDICINE: Because infants cannot usually be given tablets or capsules, other dosage forms are used. Liquids in the form of drops, suspensions, and syrups can be measured to provide an exact dose (amount of medicine) and can be easily administered. Flavoring aids in acceptance of the medicine by the infant or child. Rectal suppositories bypass the mouth altogether and are especially useful when upset stomach is a problem.

age yield of 2020 lbs/acre and energy expense was $5.040/lb. with LEPA and basin tillage; sprinkler plus basin tillage yields ran 1778 lbs per acre; energy cost $5.062/lb. according to data collected by Lyle and his research associate, Jim Bordovsky. Furrow irrigation plus basin tillage gave yields of 1317 lbs/acre and energy cost $5.059 per lb.

In the same year, LEPA with basin tillage gave a net return over irrigation energy expense of $236.30 per acre, compared with $146.66 for sprinkler/conventional tillage and $164.67 for furrow/conventional tillage.

The very wet year of 1981 by High Plains standards, with 16.5 inches of rain between July and October, nearly equalled the average total yearly rainfall of 18 inches.

In such conditions, LEPA with basin tillage made 44.7 bushels/acre with a relative energy expense of $5.49/bu. Sprinkler/conventional tillage made 35.7 bu/a with a relative energy expense of $5.50/bu.

Under the extra wet conditions furrow/conventional tillage gave yields of 48.6 bu/a with relative energy expense of $5.30/bu.

However, total yields for the two years of '80-'81 were 1) 78.4 bushels/acre LEPA; 59.6 bu/a for sprinkler/conventional tillage; and 3) 71 bu/a for furrow conventional tillage. Relative energy costs for the three systems were 1) 5.63/lb; 2) $1.05/lb; 3) $5.65.

Average application efficiency ran 1) 98.9%; 2) 80.9%; and 3) 86.2%. Water use efficiency ran 1) 72.9; 2) 54.9; and 3) 76.4.

Lyle says that by almost every measure the LEPA system has shown itself to be capable of producing higher yields, with less energy and more efficient use of irrigation water and rainfall.

The Scientists Tell Me...
LEPA Irrigation System Saves Water, Energy and Money

By Robert L. Hancy
TAES Science Writer

A new irrigation system, developed by engineers with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, has been shown to be superior in efficiency and cost of operation to existing methods of irrigation.

"The LEPA (Low Energy Precision Application) irrigation system has now proven it saves water, energy and money," says Dr. William Lyle, the engineer in charge of development.

"A major objective in the LEPA design was to eliminate the adverse influences that soil and climatic factors have on irrigation efficiency.

"It was also designed to maximize rainfall utilization, used with micro-basin tillage.

"The system distributes water directly to the furrow at very low pressure through drop tubes and emitters which are located at a height of 2 to 4 inches above the furrow.

"An essential part of the system is the micro-basin machine, that makes small dams in the furrow to hold rain or irrigation water, while it soaks into the soil."

To check uniformity of distribution, with the winds varying from 2.5 mph to 22 mph in 14 different tests, sprinkler irrigation had an average distribution uniformity of 91, furrow was 54 and LEPA was 96.

However, when winds were at 22 mph, sprinkler efficiency dropped to 66, whereas LEPA was not adversely affected.
