A Fine Paper For Fine People

Editor G. W. Estlack is shown here with the First Place Award Plaque for Editorials presented at the Texas Press Association meeting in Galveston June 23. The plaque was given by the Dallas Morning News in memory of the late J. J. Taylor.

Editor G. W. Estlack Receives First Place State Award

Editor and Publisher of the Donley County Leader, G. W. Estlack, received the First Place State Award and a beautiful plaque for Editorials in publications for towns 3,500 population and under at the Friday morning Awards Breakfast at the State Press Association meeting held in Galveston beginning June 23rd.

Editor Estlack stated that he was quite proud to receive this honor in face of the competition which was state-wide. The program included "shop talk" and clinics with fine speakers for morning sessions. Afternoons were free and entertainment provided for the evenings.

Among the outstanding speakers were Orville Roberts, Jr. of Houston. His subject was "Speaking of Progress." He pointed out that Honesty and Truth hold our great nation together; however, the trend of the times is to "conform" and fear the truth.

The handsome plaque is hanging in the Leader office and all are invited to examine it.

July 4th Parade Is Huge Success

The western parade, which almost got rained out, was a huge success in spite of the inclement weather. It was scheduled for 10 o'clock but postponed until 1 o'clock. The weather cooperated nicely and a large crowd was on hand to see the entries parade down main street.

County Judge R. E. Drennan, assisted by Hubert Kidd and J. G. McAnear, are to be complimented on a fine job. The Perryton Riding Club called to let Mr. Drennan know they had planned to come but could not be here on account of the storm they had the previous night.

Parade winners were: Sloats—Boy Scouts, 1st, Clarendon College 2nd; Riding Clubs—Plainview Comancheros 1st, Silverton 2nd; General—Longhorn Model A Club 1st; Amarillo Model A Club 2nd; General, kids—Will and Sam Lowe.

We appreciate the efforts of everyone and numerous members of the "Saint's Roost Saga" cast who helped to give the parade more color and attraction, Drennan commented.

OLD-TIMERS TURN OUT FOR BARBECUE

Ernest Kent reported only 70 old timers coming out early July 4th to register but that approximately 300 were in the special Old-Timer line for the barbecue after the rain had stopped. There was lots of visiting and every one reported a wonderful time.

Adam Risley was recognized as being the oldest old-timer present for the registration.

We hope to have a different time arrangement next year so our elder citizens won't have to get up and register by 8:30 Kent stated.

"Saint's Roost Saga" Acclaimed Wonderful

Approximately 2,000 persons were in attendance for the "Saint's Roost Saga" production which was presented in Broncho Stadium Sunday night. Many of those who did attend, expressed that it exceeded their expectations and was a wonderful production in every way.

"We, who were in the cast and worked in the preparation of the production, received our reward for our efforts by the wonderful turnout and the many kind expressions that were extended our way," stated Mrs. Vera Lewis. "We hope to make it an annual affair" she added.

In speaking for the production committee, Mrs. Lewis expressed appreciation to all who took part in the production or helped in any manner to make it a wonderful success. First, we want to thank Virginia Browder for writing the script and directing and Norma Selvidge for assisting in the direction and we want to thank the following outside of the cast for their assistance: Don Melius of Amarillo for the 1901 Merry Olds, John Jones for scaffolding, John McCauley of Memphis for mules and wagon, Mrs. Thomas Bugbee for the buggy, Bill Rhee for sound effects, etc., KGNV TV and other news media for publicity, Martin Hendrix for stage and sound equipment, friends in Memphis, Canadian and surrounding area for their attendance.

The proceeds from the production, which will amount to several hundred dollars, will go into the Donley County Museum fund and anyone wishing to give or loan museum objects which will be preserved for future generations, may contact the Museum Committee composed of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Douglas Shelton, Mrs. Hall Hardin or Mrs. Harold Phelps.

McCAULEYS OF MEMPHIS BRING MULES FOR SAGA

John McCauley of Memphis brought his wagon and team of mules to Clarendon for Saint's Roost Saga. The McCauleys have had the wagon and team for the past three years and have taken them a number of places for public exhibition. At the Hedley Cotton Festival they have taken a first place trophy and have received several trophies at Play Days, among them that at Childress. Mr. and Mrs. McCauley are Dr. Pepper distributors in Clarendon.

The Memphis Trail Riders were also here and took part in the Grand Entry at the Rodeo Saturday night. We appreciate the help our neighbors have given the Clarendon residents in making this year's celebration a huge success.

THANKS TO MANY EXPRESSED BY OUTDOOR ENTERTAINMENT ASSN.

Pete Borden, president of the Outdoor Entertainment Association, and other officers and directors have expressed their desire to thank everyone who assisted with the celebration in any manner and helped make it one of the most enjoyable yet.

We, along with a lot of visitors, appreciate the fine job by County Commissioners in bringing out equipment to clear the mud from the Rodeo arena. The job had to be done in a hurry and they accomplished the feat.

We appreciate the county's help along with the city water truck at the barbecue and elsewhere to help make things more enjoyable; in fact we would like to single out each individual who helped but we know someone would be missed and we value and appreciate the efforts of everyone. I didn't ask a person to help do a job that didn't respond immediately, Borden added.

Frank Wooten, secretary of the association, is asking everyone who has a bill against the organization, to turn their statement in to him just as soon as possible so a complete tally can be made of the entire celebration.

This was Frank's first year to serve as secretary and he did an excellent job... and it is a big job.

"We Have Grown Because We Have Helped Others To Grow"

Washington Report

Bob Price
Newspaper Editor, Clarendon, Texas

1967 LAMARSON OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 222-3764

In a one hour special order on the House floor last Wednesday, a group of Republican Congressmen, including myself, urged the President to make a final effort to negotiate an honorable peace in Viet Nam but this time with an "or else" attached.

This time Ho Chi Minh should be told that if he does not cease hostilities now and negotiate his troops will have no sanctuary and that we will use whatever means necessary—with no holds barred—to defeat him.

He should be told that every effort will be made, including all necessary naval, air and ground measures, to cut off all supplies reaching North Viet Nam from outside sources.

Soviet party leaders have recently called for a world communist conference for increased support of North Viet Nam and said that communist support is making itself felt more and more strongly.

And the irony of the situation is that while we have a half-million troops tied down there, the major hostile powers, Russia and Red China, have no military units involved.

There are three major courses of action open to the United States in Viet Nam: First, pulling out completely; second, using all necessary and appropriate measures to achieve quick victory; or third, muddling along as we are now doing with the prospect that the war will drag on, as has been predicted by the administration, for 10 years. A fourth course—negotiation—is closed to us, so far at least, because there has been no one with whom to negotiate.

Few, with the exception of the communist and the most ardent "doves," favor our unilateral withdrawal. To do so would be to totally destroy our credibility with our friends and allies with whom we have mutual defense agreements or other commitments. The image we now present to them is tarnished enough as it is because of our vacillation and indecision.

It is abundantly clear, as shown by polls across the country, including the one I have just conducted, that a vast majority of American's favor winning the war in Viet Nam, and winning it as quickly as possible with a minimum loss of American lives.

To them—and to me—it is incredible that the United States, the mightiest power in the world, has allowed itself to become bogged down in a hit-and-run, skirmish-type war where we are held at bay by a tiny, backward, and impotent country. We have, however, brought this situation upon ourselves because of our declared no-win policy and our violation of three fundamental military maxims.

First, we are fighting, primarily, a defensive war. Second, we are insisting that the war be fought on friendly soil rather than on enemy territory. And third, we have provided the enemy sanctuary and other advantages by publicly stating self-imposed limitations on our military operations, rather than keeping them guessing.

To term the Viet Nam conflict a civil war is completely false. It is not, and the presence of large numbers of North Vietnamese Army units in South Viet Nam proves this. Also, no parallel can be drawn between our presence there and the presence of North Viet Nam. We are there—500,000 strong—because we were asked by the duly constituted government of South Viet Nam to help preserve its territorial integrity. The North Vietnamese are there in open invasion, with intent to conquer. It matters not that there has been no declaration of war. The fighting is just as real: the dead are just as dead.

A lesson we must draw from Viet Nam is that our current policy there does not set a viable posture in handling wars of liberation. We cannot tolerate such wars being dragged on indefinitely. We could not possibly handle two or three such wars at the same time using current methods. We must handle them with dispatch and finality.

History has proven that the only thing the communists respect is strength. Each and every time that a communist probe has been confronted with a show of strength, they have backed down. It has only been when weakness was shown that they have continued their forward thrusts.

It is long overdue, but it is not too late. With resoluteness and courage among our policymakers in Washington—and with a re-kindled determination to win—we can end this bitter struggle.

We must, I believe, take our chances on an all-out effort to end this bogged-down war that the communists would like to extend until we are slowly bled to death.

leveling of eroded areas to where it can be planted to grass. This stabilizes these silt-producing and severely eroded areas.

These areas should be fenced and protected from grazing until the grass is well established. Grasses planted in shaped areas should be encouraged to make the maximum growth in the shortest period of time. Sometimes it is better not to graze these areas because of the erosive nature of these soils. These ungrazed areas provide a good wild life habitat. Areas left ungrazed provide excellent food and shelter for nature's wild life.

WEDDING PLANS ANNOUNCED

Miss Janelle Robinson And Ronald Logan Exchange Nuptial Vows

Miss Janelle Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Robinson, Clarendon, Texas and Ronald Logan exchanged nuptial vows in a double-ring ceremony performed Friday evening, June 30, in the home of the bride's parents, Robert C. Jones, minister of the Clarendon Church of Christ, officiated.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Loggan, also of Clarendon.

Vows were exchanged against a background of white gladioli and white Killian daisies flanked to either side by branched candelabra bearing turquoise tapers, and greenery.

Miss Kay Pfeiffer, organist, provided nuptial music and accompanied Miss Laveta Formway who sang "All My Love," and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white lace over a silk sheath fashioned with a fitted bodice, round neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore a Madonna headdress of matching lace scalloped to the edges, and carried a bouquet of white daisies showered with turquoise velvet streamers atop a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed, blue, and a penny in her shoe were observed.

Miss Linda Palmer attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a dress of turquoise chiffon with matching slippers and carried a bouquet of glamelias and white Shasta daisies.

Rod Stone attended the groom as best man.

Following the ceremony the couple was honored at a reception. The bride's table was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth edged in lace. An arrangement of Shasta daisies with a branched candelabra bearing turquoise tapers and entwined with greenery extending to the wedding cake provided the floral decor. The tiered wedding cake topped with white wedding bells was placed on a cake pedestal surrounded at the base by meline and turquoise rosebuds. Appointments were crystal and silver. Miss Carol Cornell and Miss Lynna Carter served the cake and dispensed punch.

For the wedding trip to Red River, Mrs. Loggan chose a white knit suit with cerise jacket and white accessories. The corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet complimented her costume. The couple will be at home after July 4th at Pampa, Texas where they will reside for the summer.

Mrs. Loggan is a 1967 graduate of Clarendon High School. Mr. Loggan attended Clarendon College and Sul Ross at Alpine.

Vanderburg-Walters Wedding Solemnized July 1 In Pampa

Miss Debra Jean Vanderburg, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Vanderburg of Dallas and former residents of Clarendon, and William E. Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walters of Dallas were united in marriage the afternoon of July 1 in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Barrett and the late Mr. Barrett, Pampa, Texas. Rev. Vanderburg, father of the bride officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Vows were pledged against a background of yellow mums and yellow tapers. Tapers were lighted by Miss Denese Vanderburg, sister of the bride, who also presided at the registrar.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Charles Adkinson, cousin of the bride. She also accompanied Paul Barrett, uncle of the bride, as he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a street length dress of white crepe with jewel neckline topped with a coat of white Italian lace. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a coil of matching fabric. For something old she wore her maternal grandmother's gold wedding ring on a chain. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and white stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Jimmy Johnson of Midland. She wore an aqua sheer whipped cream dress with matching veiled circlet and carried a long stemmed yellow rose.

Reginald Kendrick of Dallas served as best man. Others in the wedding party included Dr. Charles Barrett of Santa Ana, California, Raymond Barrett and Floyd Barrett of Pampa, all uncles of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony. The serving table was laid with an organdy cloth and centered with an arrangement of aqua carnations in a silver vase with matching tapers. Appointments were crystal and silver. Mrs. Jimmy Free and Miss Martha Barrett presided.

For traveling the bride wore a yellow shift dress with complimentary accessories and the corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is employed by Collins Radio Corp. of Dallas. The groom is employed in the Engineering Department of Collins Radio Corp., Dallas. The couple will be at home in Plano, Texas.

Young Homemakers Attend College Day At Amarillo

"College Day", an annual program especially for Area 1 Young Homemakers, was held in Amarillo Thursday. The program is planned to help individuals in the organization to develop their abilities. Mrs. Jo Schollenbarger Mrs. Fred Bourland, and Miss Lynn Borland represented the Clarendon Chapter.

Dr. A. B. Marun, president of Amarillo College, explained the role of Vocational Schools in education at the morning session. Field trips to several businesses filled the morning schedule.

The afternoon session featured speakers who discussed "What To Tell Your Child About Sex," "Basic Wardrobe Planning," and "Kitchen Planning". Following this session the group visited Southwestern Public Service for a discussion of Home Lighting. Light fixtures made from poly resin, broken glass, waste baskets, gold fish bowls, and plastic bottles were exhibited. Door prizes were furnished by business firms in Amarillo.

Delegates felt that the day was an outstanding and worthwhile way to get new ideas and make homemaking more challenging and interesting.

A good way to carve our own tombstone is to start chiseling our way in heavy traffic.
We will never find anyone just exactly like our own self, and if we did we wouldn't believe it.
Even the little fly that does the most buzzing, usually gets swatted first.
Nowadays the hands that rock the cradle most generally gets paid one dollar an hour.
Most folks wrap themselves up in their own righteousness and then complain about being cold.
It's good to have an open mind, provided we don't let someone shovel something bad into it.
Enough of everything is all we would want if the neighbor didn't have more.
The fish he caught was almost a whale.
And to think he caught him by the tale.
About the worst manners is to confess that we have heard the other fellows joke.
It's alright to stop and think, but we need to remember to think to start again.
A minor operation is one that has been performed on the other fellow.
All of us want praise—most of us need praise, and it is alright to receive praise provided we earned it.
I wouldn't mind the speaker admitting that he didn't know much about the subject if only he wouldn't spend the next forty-five minutes proving it.
Remember—seven days without prayer makes one weak.
A popular man is one that wher. He's heard the joke will laugh again.

DRY FLIES IN THE EVENING
Most wonderful way to fish for bass is with a dry fly. True, the dry fly, as a rule, is not nearly as successful in catching bass as the wet fly. But if you use a large dry fly, especially of the spider type, late in the evening, you might be surprised.

DPS Needs Young Men For Law Enforcement

The Texas Department of Public Safety still has an ever present need for young men who are interested in the field of law enforcement as a career. Major Luther C. Moore, Regional Commander of the DPS, said today.

Employment practices have been drastically changed to allow qualified applicants to take the examination immediately, in contrast to previous policy of not holding examinations until time for a patrol training school to begin.

"We realize," Moore said, "that a person looking for career employment often needs to know immediately if he is acceptable for the job. For this reason we have made the changes necessary in our procedure to tell an applicant within ten days if he has been accepted for employment."

Training schools will be held at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin in July and August and periodically thereafter. This training is designed to equip the cadet to handle any of the various situations he may encounter as a patrolman, and will start him off on the right foot toward a rewarding career in law enforcement. Pay will be $571.00 per month upon completion of training.

Moore encouraged all interested high school graduates from the ages of 20 through 35 to contact their nearest Department of Public Safety Patrolman for complete details on becoming a commissioned officer with the DPS.
