MORE MOISTURE ADDED TO TOTAL THIS WEEK

Spotted showers the past week have added substantial amounts of moisture in some areas while other localities have received only negligible amounts and are still in a critical condition as far as crops and grass are concerned.

Areas to the west and north have been favored most with up to two inches being recorded. Here in town our official weather observer measured out a total of .63 inch and a total for the year of 4.95 inches.

More moisture is forecast and we hope it is general and covers the areas where it is most needed.

Miss Dolfia Sue Vallance And Billy Frank Hearn Exchange Nuptial Vows Saturday Evening

Miss Dolfia Sue Vallance became the bride of Billy Frank Hearn in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening, June 17, 1967 at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon. Rev. John Stout of the First Baptist Church officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Vallance, Clarendon, Texas. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hearn, also of Clarendon.

Vows were exchanged before an archway of greenery topped with white lace wedding bells against a background of greenery, white gladioli, Killian daisies, and white candelabra bearing white tapers. Centering the archway was a satin covered kneeling bench. Pews were marked by white satin bows and greenery and the bridal pathway was covered with white aisle cloth.

Tapers were lighted by James and Joe Shadle, nephews of the bride. Ushers were Richard Vallance of Amarillo, brother of the bride; Eddie Dennis of Borger, nephew of the bride; and Keith Dishman of Houston.

Mrs. Beryl Clinton, organist, presented a prelude of traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Jan Word of Canyon who sang "Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Duane Hearn of Brownfield, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the registrar.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white satin trimmed with re-embroidered lace encrusted with seed pearls. The gown was fashioned along slim lines with slender backfolds sweeping into a chapel train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of elegance carnations and ivy centered with a white orchid. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed, blue and a penny in the shoe were observed. In keeping with these traditions she carried a handkerchief given to her grandmother, Mrs. L. O. Dennis of Memphis, by her great grandfather.

Miss Jill Benson, a student at Stillwater, Oklahoma, attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Vallance, sister of the bride; Mrs. Bobby Lewis of Guymon, Oklahoma; Miss Shirley Hearn and Miss Sharron Henson, both of Clarendon. They wore floor length dresses of pale yellow satin designed with empire waistlines and slim skirts and complemented by matching headpieces accented by spring flowers. Each carried a single long-stemmed yellow rose.

Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Duane Hearn of Brownfield. Groomsmen were Steve Richerson, Danny Ray, Jerry Elmore, all of the University of Houston, and Bobby Lewis of Guymon, Oklahoma.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vallance chose a lime green linen suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white glamelias. Mrs. Hearn, mother of the groom, wore a pale gray and pink linen suit with pink and black accessories, and a corsage of pink glamelias.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple was honored at a reception at Patching Club House. Guests were received by the wedding party, Mrs. Joe Shadle, sister of the bride, presided at the registrar.

The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth accented by a floral arrangement of yellow carnations, white snapdragons and daisies with greenery. Appointments were silver and crystal. The four tiered white wedding cake topped with white rosebuds, yellow poms and yellow daisies was served by Mrs. Richard Vallance of Amarillo sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Pamela Palmer of Clarendon dispensed punch. Miniature rice bags tied with yellow ribbon were handed guests by Cheryl and Barbara Shadle nieces of the bride.

For traveling the bride chose a yellow and orange linen suit dress with yellow accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Clarendon High School and attended Clarendon College and the University of Texas Dental School at Houston. The groom attended Clarendon High School, Clarendon College and the University of Houston. He is now stationed at the Army Base at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. The couple will be at home at Lawton, Oklahoma.

Among the out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Dennis and W. C., Susan Chick, and Mrs. A. W. Howard, all of Memphis, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carson of Quail, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Dennis, Eddie and Gary of Borger, Texas; Steve Richerson, Jerry Elmore, Danny Ray, Keith Dishman, and Judy Pittman, all of the University of Houston, Houston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lane, Groom, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lewis of Guymon, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Duane

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

A task force of federal officials, here for a conference on federal-state relations, got an earful from disgruntled state agency officials who complained of poor communication between Austin and Washington.

Gov. John Connally opened the conference by telling the men from D. C. that the federal grant system is characterized "by misunderstanding, disharmony and, in some instances, utter confusion."

Other state officials got down to specifics when the conference broke up into small groups to discuss intergovernmental coordination, health and welfare, education, water development, outdoor recreation, economic opportunity and manpower development.

They said they want to be consulted in advance about proposed programs; they want federal agencies to work through state agencies on local programs; they want block grants which would give state agencies greater latitude in tailoring federal programs to fit local needs; and they want specific, unconflicting instructions from Washington as to what is expected of them.

Since the federal officials had been through similar sessions in 39 other states, they took the criticism without flinching.

ENOUGH OIL?—Texas Railroad Commission is keeping an eye peeled on the Middle East Crisis in case it becomes necessary for Texas to help make up for crude oil shortages growing out of the hostilities between the Israelis and the Arab nations.

Commission Chairman Jim C. Langdon said Texas has enough reserves to meet any emergency; but while increasing oil allowances is easy, overcoming logistical problems would require ingenuity.

INSTITUTE OF TEXAN CULTURE—Newest state office to open in Austin is the Institute of Texan Cultures. It's task is to assemble educational exhibit material for the ITC building at the HemisFair in San Antonio.

After HemisFair '68 closes its six months' run, the educational program by the State of Texas will be continued there as a permanent feature.

Institute is under the direction of H. Henderson Shuffler, former West Texas newspaperman who has been heading the UT Texana program for the past five years. Exhibits will portray the colorful history of Texas in terms of the people who made that history.

AGRICULTURE AND THE URBAN LEGISLATURE — Although the lawmakers turned down a proposal for creation of a coordinating board to study problems in agriculture, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White was given the job—and the money—to make the sort of studies envisioned for the proposed super-board.

In the appropriations bill, funds were earmarked for studies on ways to expand marketing outlets for Texas commodities and research on boll weevil eradication, aflatoxin control, peanuts, plums, peaches, dairy products, fire ants, castor beans, vegetables, mohair, wool and statistics on county farms.

In addition, appropriations were bigger and better than ever for the Texas Animal Health Commission, A&M's Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service, salaries for teachers of veterinary medicine and the Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Texas gas and oil production taxes do not apply to gas and oil which is severed in Texas, but produced from reservoir located entirely out of state, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin held.

In other opinions Martin concluded that:

- "Cable tv" concerns are not required to pay gross receipts tax charged telegraph message companies.
- Parks and Wildlife Department has authority to control and protect marl, sand, shells, gravel and oyster-bed resources and to seek action to protect fish and shell-fish breeding grounds against disturbances (except those necessary to navigational purposes.)

• Lamar County Hospital district may pay private institutions located within its district for medical care rendered to needy and indigent in district's own facilities.

• State Board of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists has authority to refuse to issue a license for operation of a business which has same name as one previously licensed and still in operation.

Because you love to save stamps you ought to know...

Side-by-side comparison shows what makes Heritage Stamps different and more valuable than ordinary trading stamps

THIS IS A HERITAGE SAVINGS STAMP

THIS IS A CONVENTIONAL TRADING STAMP

It's different and better because:
 * Each Heritage Stamp has an actual cash value of one-half (1/2) cent. Thus two Heritage Stamps are worth one cent (1c); twenty of them equal a dime in cash; one hundred of them equal fifty cents (50c) cash. You get one Heritage stamp with each 25c purchase.
 * A starter book filled with Heritage Stamps is worth $2.50 in your personal savings account at participating banks and savings institutions. Or it is worth $2.50 in merchandise or $2.25 in cash at any store which gives them. Heritage Stamps may also be collected in regular savers books worth $7.50 in savings, $7.50 in merchandise, or $7.00 in cash. It takes 1500 stamps to fill a regular Heritage savers book.
 * You can redeem Heritage Stamps in your own hometown at any place which gives them. Heritage Stamps are redeemable for a wide, wide range of merchandise and services. Many merchants who give Heritage Stamps (supermarkets for example) allow their customers to apply their stamps to their charge account. Thus, each store which gives Heritage Stamps is its own redemption center. It is convenient for you, and it keeps the money at work in your own hometown.
 * Heritage Stamps give you the option of saving for many important purposes. When deposited as personal savings, they can build an educational fund for your children. They can finance vacations. They can be the foundation of your own retirement fund.
 * Heritage Stamps are versatile, practical, valuable. They work like money for you.

This is the way it works:
 * The usual trading stamp has an actual cash value of one mill which is one-tenth (1/10) of a cent. Thus it takes ten to be worth a penny; one hundred have a cash value of ten cents. Usually, you get one conventional stamp with a ten-cent purchase.
 * A filled book of ordinary trading stamps has actual cash value of about $1.20, but they are rarely redeemed for money.
 * A filled book (1200 stamps) is worth about $2.40 when redeemed for merchandise at a redemption store. The apparent difference between cash value and redemption value is due to the mark-up which the redemption store puts on its merchandise in order to make a profit.
 * Usually, you must travel some distance to redeem conventional stamps. In some cases the redemption center may be in another city, miles away from you.
 * While many redemption stores are attractive and well stocked, the merchandise offered is necessarily limited.
 * You can redeem conventional stamps, only at the redemption store established for that purpose. You have no opportunity to shop for better selection or better value.

Doesn't it make sense to save Heritage Stamps? The merchants who give them in your town are listed below.

SKIBOATERS ALERTED TO MAGAZINE ERROR

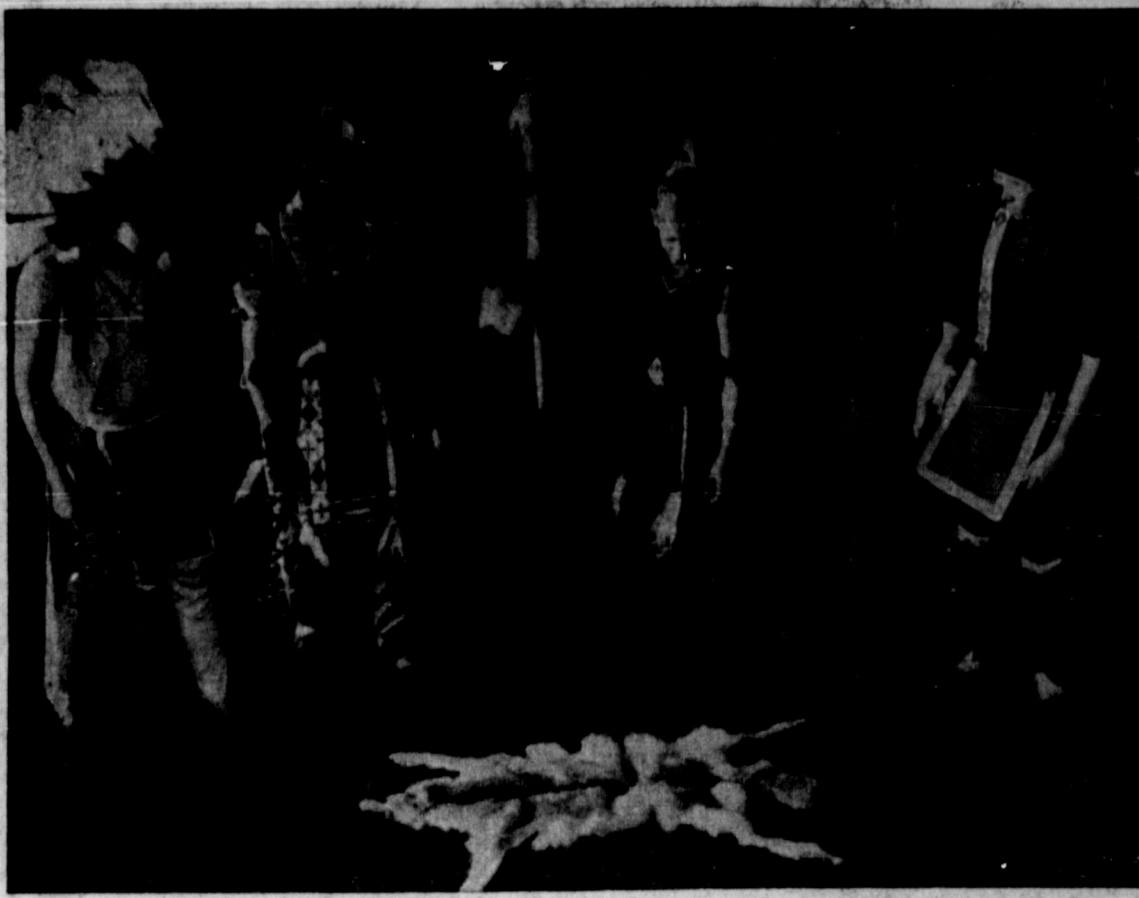

Subscribers and readers of TEXAS PARKS AND WILDLIFE magazine are alerted to state law requiring that all skiboats MUST have rear view mirrors.

This fact was contradicted in the June issue of the magazine in an article "Legalize Your Boat." It stated that all motorboats towing persons on skis are required to carry an observer or to be equipped with a rear view mirror.

The Parks and Wildlife Department reminds readers of the monthly magazine that, in fact, no such prerogative exists under the Texas Water Safety Code. The law states the following:

"Every motorboat towing a person or persons on water skis, aquaplane or similar device shall be equipped with a rear view mirror of a size no less than four inches (4") in measurement from bottom to top or across from one side to the other. Such mirror shall be mounted firmly so as to give the boat operator a full and complete view beyond the rear of his boat at all times."

The use of an observer is not required.
