WHEAT ACREAGE REPORTS

Less than two weeks remain before the deadline to measure and report wheat acreages. Remember, producers on all farms except soil bank farms must again measure their own wheat. Let us urge you to do this as quickly as possible as we are likely to be rushed the last few days.

Don't guess at your acreages. Accurate measurements are necessary. Incorrect measurements could cause payment reductions or complete loss of program payments.

DIVERTED ACRES

Remember that acreage to be designated as diverted may not be grazed during the period between April 30 and October 1, 1968. Cover on these diverted acres cannot be harvested in any manner, other than grazed during the approved period.

Last day to place 1967 cotton in CCC loan.

Wheat loans mature.

May 1—Last day to report wheat acreage.

May 31—Last day to place 1967 grain sorghum in CCC loan.

DR. JOHN L. WITT

Dr. John L. Witt To Be Honored At Groom April 28

Appreciation day for Dr. John L. Witt of Groom will be held Sunday, April 28, 1968. The program will be sponsored by the Groom Lions Club, and citizens of the community and area are invited to attend and pay homage to this country doctor who has served so many during the 33 years he has been in practice in Groom.

Master of ceremonies for the appreciation program will be C. L. Culver, pioneer banker of Groom who has been a resident since 1929.

Dr. John L. Witt arrived in Groom in 1935 fresh out of college and took up practice following the illness of the late Dr. Robert Foster. His training as an osteopathic physician and surgeon brought patients from a wide area of the Texas Panhandle and Oklahoma. In 1946 he was joined in his practice here by his cousin, the late Dr. John V. London, and the two doctors opened a clinic which soon was well known over the state. The City of Groom now has a thirty-two bed hospital built with Hill-Burton funds and donations from citizens of the area. Dr. Witt has been joined by Drs. Robert E. Clayton, Richard M. Hall, and David Levy and the four men have one of the most widely known medical centers in the area.

The appreciation program Sunday will be a recognition of the efforts of Dr. John L. Witt and his associates to give better health care to their many patients and friends.

Miss Melissa McCully of Dallas spent the holiday week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike McCully.

No Permit Necessary For Sight-Seers At Greenbelt Lake

Greenbelt Authorities announced this week that there will be no charge at present for sight-seers or visitors at the Greenbelt Lake area. It is understood that this policy will be followed unless mis-use of the public makes it necessary to do otherwise.

A recreation permit is required of all persons 6 years of age or older for fishing, swimming, boating, water skiing, aquaplaning, picnicking, skin diving, scuba diving, hunting of waterfowl, overnight camping, and any other recreational activity.

The fee for a daily Recreation Permit is $1.00 per person and such permit shall be valid until midnight of the date issued. The fee for an annual permit is $10 per person and good from date issued until Dec. 31. Annual recreation permit for a family is $20 which includes man, wife and their children, step-children or wards 14 years or younger living in the same household. When a child reaches 15, a separate permit shall be required.

The boat permit is $20 for annual, good from date issued until Dec. 31. Daily permit is $1. A permit is required for any boat operated on Greenbelt Lake.

It is understood that money has been appropriated for boat ramps and paved parking areas on each side of the dam and construction is expected to get underway within the near future.

DOG VACCINATIONS SET FOR APRIL 19

City Police Chief Gary Gerdes has announced that Dog Vaccination Day has been set for Friday, April 19, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the City Hall. The fee will be the same as last year. Vaccination will be $2 and the City Tax $1, for a total of $3. Residents will save $1 by taking advantage of this opportunity. Dogs within the City Limits are required to have both the Vaccination Tag and the City License. This is not, however, a permit to allow dogs to roam the City at will.

To be on the safe side, it would be well to have all pets vaccinated. There have been two positive cases of rabies reported in the Hedley area already this year. People are being asked to bring pets to the City Hall April 19 from 4 to 6 p.m. and help prevent an outbreak within the City of Clarendon.

NEWS FROM

Congressman Bob Price

18th District, Texas

Events of the last week were of historic, dramatic and tragic importance. The President's decision concerning his own candidacy for re-election changed the whole complexion of the Presidential campaign. An apparent overture from Hanoi raised hope of some kind of negotiations or discussions with the Communist North Vietnam regime. But even as the President prepared to leave for Hawaii, the senseless act at Memphis precipitated another crisis and one that will further test the strength of the nation to avoid domestic violence or even open insurrection. Probably never, since the War between the States, has a President been faced with a more formidable threat to law and order, life and property.

On top of the burdens of fiscal and monetary crisis at home and abroad, and the seemingly bottomless pit of U.S. involvement in Vietnam, the fuse to the powder keg of further and massive racial troubles was lit in Memphis.

Already stirred up by the over-emphasis of "white racism" in the National Advisory Commission Report on riots militant black power leaders could have asked for nothing more than the murder at Memphis by a crazed hate-monger to encourage the anarchists and rioters.

One of the Presidential primary candidates invaded the South at Nashville to accuse his own party member president of dividing the country and criticized the President for calling for an end to dissent.

"Debate is all we have to prevent past error from leading us down the road to disaster. How else is error to be corrected if not by the informed reason of dissent?"

This is fine rhetoric but not the solution for the double trouble we now face.

Former President Eisenhower is quoted in a Reader's Digest article as saying that he has "never encountered a situation more depressing" than the present spectacle of an America deeply divided over Vietnam. The title of the article is "Let's Close Ranks on the Home Front."

And whatever may be or may have been our opinions or criticism of President Johnson's policies or actions, never was the need more dire and urgent than now for support of our President in the double crisis of violence and threatened insurrection at home and a complicated, controversial and confusing war in Vietnam.

We must now close ranks on the home front.

HINTS OFFERED ON GROWING 'MUMS'

Proper planning now can assure a strong, sturdy plant to support the flower heads of blooming chrysanthemums this fall, says E. E. Janne, Extension horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

Large clumps of small green plants will soon appear where plants were carried over from last fall. Dividing these clumps and saving only the best ones to replant is best. The entire clump should be removed from the perennial border with a spading fork or shovel and placed in the shade, out of the wind, while the beds are prepared for the coming season.

Fertilizer should be incorporated into the soil at a rate of two to three pounds per hundred square feet of bed area. Several inches of coarse sphagnum peat moss or well decomposed compost should also be added over the entire bed.

Raking and leveling the bed after spading is important in order to assure removing all trash and debris. The selected plants from the clumps can be spaced about 15 inches apart. As each is set out, they should have the tops pinched off. After planting, the beds should be watered thoroughly. A mulch such as coarse peat moss, redwood bark, or pine bark will provide an attractive and effective mulch to aid in conserving moisture and eliminating weed growth.

Each time a new shoot produces about three sets of leaves, the top set should be pinched out to encourage side breaks after.

from the leaf axil. The pinching out of the tip growth should continue until mid or late July and then no further pinching should be done so that flower buds can properly develop.

Fertilizing every three to four weeks and watering at regular intervals will produce strong stems and large leaves. These compact and bushy plants will have little tendency to fall over when the flower heads are produced.

For insect and disease control practices to use on chrysanthemums ask your county agricultural agent for a copy of MP-574 and L-199.

F.H.A. REPORTS RECORD LOANS

Rural residents in Armstrong, Gray and Donley Counties benefited from a record $627,800.00 in loan funds advanced by the Farmers Home Administration in the 1967 calendar year. This represents an increase of $36,840.00 over the previous year, reported Claude Moore, County Supervisor.

Also, 1967 saw the first rural recreation loan made in the three-county unit. A loan of $48,000.00 was made to a group of 60 farm and rural families in Gray County to develop the McLean Country Club and build a club house and swimming pool.

Water Safety Act Is Made Clearer

Amendments were made to the Water Safety Act by the 60th Legislature according to J. B. Phillips, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department law enforcement coordinator.

The definition of motor boats now includes documented vessels which must now abide by the regulations provided for motor boats. Documented vessels are those registered with the U.S. Bureau of Customs.

All watercraft are included in the definition of vessels. All vessels, including row boats, rafts, or barges, which are operated at night, must exhibit at least one bright light, lantern, or flare.

A third amendment provides that the certificate of number or facsimile thereof required by the Act must be carried on board the vessel at all times. The facsimile must be a reproduction made by the Texas Highway Department.

A rotating blue light has been authorized for Parks and Wildlife Department boats and police vessels. A blue light on any other boat is a violation of the law.

The blue light on a boat is the aquatic equivalent to the red light on patrol cars, ambulances, and fire trucks. Since bow lights on boats must be red, blue was selected as the color of authority. Other lighting requirements for boats vary with the length of each boat and are unamended.

Boats up to 26 feet must have a red bow light capable of being seen from the front in a 112.5 degree radius to the port side and green bow light capable of being seen from the front in a 112.5 degree radius to the starboard side.

A white stern light capable of being seen in a 360 degree radius must be displayed on vessels required to have the above lights.

Boats 26 feet and over must display a white bow light capable of being seen from the front in a 225 degree radius, a red light on the port side capable of being seen from the front in a 112.5 degree radius, and a green light on the starboard side capable of being seen from the front in a 112.5 degree radius.

Mrs. Ester Galloway of Truth or Consequences, N. Mex., visited friends here Friday and spent Easter with her sister in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson and Marcy of Canyon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Estlack, here, and with his parents at Groom Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Blackburn, Tammy and Butch and Mrs. Lloyd Virgil Risley and baby of Kansas City, Mo., visited Mrs. Edith Longan Saturday morning.

FERTILIZER GIFT IMPROVES GREENS AT GOLF COURSE

Frank White, Jr. has donated enough fertilizer to cover 7200 square feet of Putting surface on No. 4 hole at the County Golf Course. Last year T & M 66 Oil Company donated fertilizer for No. 7 hole. These fertilizers have contributed greatly to the improvements being made each year at the Golf Course. If you have not enjoyed Golfing at the local course then you should make a visit there. Several grass greens are now established.

Anyone wishing to demonstrate their product for the improvement of No. 6 hole may do so as that is the present area of work. Dr. J. Gordon Stewart has spent many hours in establishing and increasing the number of these grass greens for the course each year.

Contributions such as those made by White and T & M help keep the project going.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bailey and family spent the Easter holidays with his mother, Mrs. Inez Bailey, of Brownfield, and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, at Matador.
