LITTLE LEAGUE PLANS UNDER WAY

Hubert Kidd, president of the Clarendon Little League, released this week a financial statement in regard to the condition and prospects for the coming Little League season and stated that all are looking forward to another good season of play.

All parents and interested parties are asked to be present at the first Little League meeting to be held Monday night, January 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Fire Station. This is one of the finest community projects and helps provide wholesome recreation for our youth through the summer months.

Plan to attend this meeting and lend the project your support. With the present two fields and the concerted effort of the community, no one individual need be called upon for continual effort as in the past when there was only one playing field.

Little League Financial Statement may be found on Page 7.

CC Bulldogs Resume Conference Play Here This Week

The Clarendon College Bulldogs resume conference play here tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the new college gym. The New Mexico Junior College Thunderbirds will be their opponent. New Mexico is one of the top three teams in the Western Junior College athletic conference.

The Bulldogs are trying hard to recover from the Christmas vacation and a series of unjust injuries. Barring no further incidents, the Bulldogs will be at full strength. Thus far the team has shown a wicked defense and a very mediocre offense. This has cost the Bulldogs several victories. Jackie Baker, Richard Robinson and Mike Inmon are the three big guns for the Bulldogs.

Saturday night, January 18 at 8 p.m. Lubbock Christian College will be in town to continue the conference battle.

The game with Lamar, Colorado has been changed from January 21 to Feb. 17.

We want to invite all our fans to come out for an evening of good entertaining basketball this week, Coach Lawrence Overcast stated.

RANGE FIRE COSTLY ON JA RANCH THURS.

A costly range fire, reportedly to have been set by some motorist pitching a burning blanket to the side of the highway, took a toll of several hundred acres of choice grass on the JA Ranch southwest of Ashtola last Thursday afternoon.

Fire fighting equipment and firemen from Clarendon and Claude and numerous volunteers fought the blaze for several hours before bringing it under control.

The Ranch owners and hands have expressed appreciation for the help received in fighting the blaze and preventing it from covering a much larger area. Had the fire taken place the previous day with the strong north wind, it would have been disastrous.

Inaugural Parade To Be Big At Austin

Musical notes and the shuffle of marchers will reverberate along the inaugural parade route January 21 as groups from throughout Texas provide the sights and sounds following oaths of office for Gov. Preston Smith and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes.

The bands are among the 56 units which have accepted the special invitation to participate in the traditional Governor's Parade.

Starting time for the parade up Congress Avenue is 3 p.m. The parade is expected to continue for about two hours, according to Brig. Gen. James M. Rose, co-chairman of the parade committee.

"We are planning the biggest and best parade and inaugural festivities in the history of Texas," Gen. Rose said. According to just released figures the 56 parade units will include involvement of more than 4,200 persons.

Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop, state adjutant general, will again serve as parade marshal. Gen. Bishop served in this same capacity at the first inauguration of Gov. John Connally in 1962.

In addition to the marching bands, a special effort has been made to have as many college, high school and academy drill teams of all types, drum and bugle corps, horse mounted posses, quadrilles, rodeo clubs and other specialty type groups perform in the parade.

Already accepting are the world-famed Henderson Junior College entourage; Las Senoritas de las Rosas of Odessa College; the renowned "Show Band of the Southwest"—The University of Texas' 300-piece marching band; Prairie View A. and M. College's Marching Band, Naval ROTC Marching unit and the Army ROTC Pershing Rifles; Southwest Texas State College Band organization consisting of four elements; Texas A. and M. University's Ross Volunteers; Texas Southern University and Texas Tech's 200-member band, ROTC, AF ROTC and Red Raiders.

Five sheriffs' posses are planning to be counted with their horses and decorative uniforms.

Also included in the parade at present are 14 gaily decorated floats representing Buccaneer Days at Corpus Christi, Aqua Festival of Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Alabama Coushatta Indian Reservation of East Texas, Abilene, San Angelo, Bandera, Outdoor Drama Tettex of Canyon, Galveston, Fiesta San Antonio, Lower Rio Grande Valley float, Lubbock and New Braunfels.

Two military bands — the 236th Army-Guard — will add to the musical accompaniment during the parade. There will be one military academy represented in the extravaganza — from Allen Academy of Bryan.

Six National Guard units will march.

The 20 high schools so far are sending bands to the parade including six from Austin, Anderson, Austin, Crockett, Lanier, McCallum and Reagan; Bangs, Brownwood, Canton, Coleman, Comanche, Coronado High of Lubbock, De Leon, Del Rio, Dunbar High of Lubbock, Estacada High of Lubbock, Holliday, Lubbock High of Lubbock, Monterey High of Lubbock and Mount Pleasant.

Dr. Elmer C. Baum and Ben Ramsey serve as general chairmen of the inaugural committee. Serving with Gen. Rose as co-chairman of the parade is H. C. Pittman. Members of the committee include Joe A. Atkinson, Dr. John King, Fred Niemann, John D. Reed and C. B. Smith, Sr.

According to a check with the Paymaster Gins here and Lelia Lake and the West Texas Gin at Hedley, the three gins have turned out 8,141 bales of cotton up to the present time.

This figure shows an increase of 1,231 bales over the figure at this same time last year which was 6,910 bales. The big increase was in the Hedley area where the West Texas Gin reported an increase of 800 bales over the 1967 crop with approximately 20 bales yet to be ginned.

Plowing and preparing fields for the 1969 crop is the concern of most farmers at this time and most all would like to see some good, beneficial moisture to help the situation.

CHS Basketball Teams Make Ready For District Play

The Clarendon High School Basketball teams coached by Carl Irbeck played their final practice games this past week before entering District play.

Friday night of the past week, Phillips boys played on the local court, Clarendon was the loser by a score of 45-54, trailing throughout the game by quarters 6-7, 21-24 and 31-38. Everett Monroe and Charles Louis hit 15 points each. Mike Young was high for Phillips with 11 points.

The B boys game was won 74-44 with Mac Tomlinson and Ronnie Hill pacing CHS with 11 points each. Brian Tucker hit 10. Gower was high for Phillips with 19.

The margin widened in the third period to 60-32. Charles Louis was high with 26, followed by Jim Moore and Wayne Carter with 12 each. Alva Calvert hit 20 for Flomot.

CHS girls lost their game 44-59. By quarters the score stood 9-14, 13-36, and 30-49. Lee Ann McCracken dropped in 18 points for Clarendon followed by Sarah Windom with 10 and Kathy Mears with 8. Pam Morris hit 33 for Flomot. The local girls played an especially good game throughout the second half and the Clarendon boys played a fine game.

In the B game CHS took the game 54-33, leading at the end of the first period 16-9, the second by 37-13, and the third 43-25. Mack Tomlinson dropped in 14, Brian Tucker 10, and John Moore 7, Bob Cole and Earl Payne each hit 10 for Flomot.

The payoff begins Friday night with District play. These previous games have been in practice and work has been constant to overcome any weak areas. With Friday night games, scores from that point to the close of the season will really count. From all appearances Clarendon has another championship group and Coach Carl Irbeck and the team members are looking forward to a winning season.

Wheeler will play here Friday night. Both boys and girls will play. The girls' game is set for 6:30 p.m. to be followed by the Varsity boys. A B game has been set up for 5 p.m. Friday.

Joint Church Study Continues Sunday At Presbyterian Church

Approximately 85 or 90 members of the United Presbyterian and Methodist Churches met in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church last Sunday evening for a period of dining and fellowship together. Following the meal, an introduction was given to the study, NEW FORMS OF MISSION, and an appeal made that serious consideration be given to the needs of our churches and community in order that some type of mission be undertaken by these groups. The session closed with a worship service in the sanctuary directed by Rev. McGarity.

On January 19 at 5:30 p.m. the next study will be held in the Presbyterian Church at which time the play, "Miss Dangerfield Newby Moves Uptown," under the direction of Mrs. Norma Selvidge will be presented.

This play deals with an unwanted guest trying to break into an Institutional church and the consternation brought about. It ends with a type of ministry formerly thought impossible. You will enjoy this presentation and will receive a lesson from it. The worship service will precede the play on this evening and dialogue will follow in small groups.

Members and visitors are urged to be present for these studies. Needs in local churches and in the community will be discussed with the hope that some definite action may result. Young people, young adults, and parents of teen-age youth are especially needed in these discussion groups. Plan to be present. A nursery will be provided for small children.

THIEVES HIT IRRIGATION WELLS IN HEDLEY AREA

Thefts which have been more common on the south plains showed up in the Hedley area Sunday night when Clyde Hoggard, who farms 1 mile northeast of Hedley and also 1 mile east of Hedley, reported the theft of two alternators, two batteries and a starter from motors on irrigation wells Sunday night. The loss was estimated at over $200.

Farmers in this area are warned by Sheriff Bill Cornell to keep a closer watch on their pump motors as such stripping of motors in the south plains area has been quite costly and the thieves may be moving their operations to this area.

BREEDLOVE TO WORK AMARILLO STOCK SHOW

Blood from March of Dimes Center Proves Lifesaver for 5-Year-Old Girl

When most five-year-olds have an "off" day, as all children do from time to time, adults tend to blame it on a need for more rest. But when pretty, brown-eyed Angela M. of Augusta, Ga., gets cranky, they're apt to think she needs a blood transfusion.

Angela has an hereditary birth defect of the blood called "thalassemia major" or Cooley's anemia. By the age of four, she had received a total of 80 pints of blood, and still requires a transfusion about every two to three weeks.

"Transfusions are such a 'way of life' for Angela that people tend to feel sorry for her and excuse perfectly normal misbehavior," says Dr. Dorothy Hahn, chief clinic physician of the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center at the Medical College of Georgia, where Angela is a patient.

"Instead of the mild discipline needed at school or elsewhere, she often gets misplaced sympathy. Like all bright, observant children she quickly learns to take advantage of this with adults outside her home."

Angela's young parents, East Indians who came to Augusta from New Delhi, cope very well with her condition and upbringing. Her father, an Oxford-trained biochemist on the faculty of the Medical College, and her attractive, sari-clad mother, treat their youngest child as firmly as they do her brother and sister—despite the seriousness of Angela's condition. Good behavior is impartially expected of each member of the family.

Victims of thalassemia major tend to die in their first or second decade. Their red blood cells last only one-third to one-half of the normal length of time. Frequent transfusions help, but children with the disease are vulnerable to infections and even a mild cold can develop into fatal pneumonia. An estimated 25,000 children and young adults in the United States are believed to have thalassemia.

Angela is too young to understand the words "survival" and "transfusions" in the sense adults do. But she does understand that she is different from normal children and knows that something may happen to her.

A caller at her family's pleasant suburban home quickly realizes, however, how much Angela's parents have helped her to learn to live with her condition. While the little girl played beyond hearing, her mother spoke frankly to a visitor about Angela's sometimes disturbing questions.

"Last year, Angela asked her father, 'Am I going to live or die?' My husband answered, 'Child if you want to live, you will live.' I think that was a beautiful answer, full of wisdom. Angela told her father she very much wished to live."

At the March of Dimes Center, Dr. Hahn and colleagues are doing everything they can to enable Angela to live normally. They have helped her overcome a natural fear of needles, bottles of blood and bandages. "She's a brave child," says Dr. Hahn. "She is no longer afraid of our white coats and equipment. She has learned to accept frequent transfusions and has come along to the point where she even 'super-vives' us and gives transfusions to her dolls."

Research in thalassemia is proceeding in several directions. Today some patients can be helped to live into their thirties. This was not possible a few years ago. Some investigators theorize that it may soon be possible to transplant hemoglobin-producing bone marrow or to use other techniques to fight the disease.

If Angela is to be granted her wish for life, researchers working on the problem have no time to lose.

Gene Howell of Dallas spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Howell.

The Hedley Lions Club will meet Thursday night, January 23, at 7 p.m. Attendance was low at last week's meeting but it was a very good meeting. Much work has been planned for the club for 1969.

The directors of the Highway 287 Association will meet in Amarillo this Friday and Saturday. Some of the members from Hedley plan to attend.

IRS Answers To Taxpayers Questions

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—When will I be getting my income tax forms?

A—The tax forms will be available at local IRS offices as well as many post offices and banks soon after the first of the year. Most taxpayers will receive copies of the forms and instructions in the mail.

If you receive a 1040 tax form in the mail, you may have a form that is printed in two colors. This is to draw attention to certain parts of the form that were troublesome to taxpayers last year.

Color is not used on the 1040-A Forms or the 1040 Forms that may be picked up at IRS offices and other locations.

Q—How did you get involved with the administration of Federal gun laws?

A—IRS has administered Federal gun laws since 1934 when the National Firearms Act was enacted. The basis of this law, which imposed taxes on the transfer and making of firearms, was the taxing authority given the Federal government by the Constitution. As IRS is responsible for collecting other Federal taxes, it was given the responsibility of administering the gun law.

Q—Business has been good the past few months and my income is considerably above what I declared on my estimate. Should I make a change on my next quarterly payment?

A—Yes, you can file an amended estimated tax return when the next quarterly payment is due January 15, 1969. Make the change right on the notice you receive.

You do not have to pay the fourth installment if you file your 1968 tax return by January 31, 1969, and pay the balance due at that time.

Q—I make several business trips a year for my company and get reimbursed for what I spend. How do I handle this for tax purposes?

A—The general rule is that these reimbursements must be included in income. However, you do not have to report them on your tax return if you account for your expenses to your company.

If your reimbursements exceed your expenses, then the excess must be reported as income on your return. If your allowable expenses exceed your reimbursements, report the reimbursements as income but also deduct the expenses.

Q—Are year-end dividends on stock reported the year declared or the year received?

A—Report them in the year they are constructively received. If you received a dividend or had it credited to your account in 1968 it must be reported on your 1968 return.

Aquaculture New Field For Ag Extension

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is getting into the relatively new field of aquaculture.

Aquaculture is only one of several names. Call it development of marine resources or even sea farming, but what the practice amounts to is commercial production of such delicacies as shrimp, crabs and oysters along the state's coastal areas.

The Extension Service will be administering an activity known as the Advisory Services. Heading the project is Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, an assistant director of the Extension Service.

An aquaculture advisory service is an outgrowth of a program recently authorized by Congress to push national development of marine resources. Overall organization of the plan is similar to that used to establish the land-grant institutions.

Texas A&M University is one of six institutions which has received a National Science Foundation grant to set up the "Sea-Grant" program. Under this project, A&M will conduct education, research and advisory services.

The National Science Foundation has granted $475,000 to help the university develop a highly integrated program on marine resources.

Advisory Services administrative personnel in addition to Pfannstiel are Wallace Klussmann, program leader, and Jack Parker, marine advisory specialist. Klussmann is Extension wildlife specialist at Texas A&M.

During the first year of operation, the Advisory Services will focus on practical application of research data in the development of commercial production of shrimp and crabs, Klussmann said. Field demonstrations are being started.

Results of the demonstrations will be used to organize educational programs for individuals and groups interested in aquaculture.

Parker is the prime investigator and leader in getting the aquaculture project on the ground and underway. Klussmann pointed out. He has five years experience working with marine organisms in the bays and estuaries of Texas.

Klussmann said the aquaculture program will be conducted in an area of coastal marsh near Angleton. Protection of ponds and marshes will be emphasized. "Conservation of these coastal waters is one of our biggest aims. Not only do we want to learn to use these places for commercial production of shellfish for food, but we also want to maintain the marsh and estuary areas for fish, birds and other wildlife. Call it a multiple approach," the wildlife specialist said.

The Angleton site was chosen because of marsh utilization research there by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Cooperating with the station are the A&M Wildlife Science and Entomology Departments, the AM University Agricultural Research Station at Angleton, the Brazoria County Mosquito Control District, Dow Chemical Company and the Texas Company (Texaco).

Klussmann said such a "team approach" should provide considerable information for determining the economic potential of marshland for beef production, waterfowl utilization, mosquito control — and aquaculture.

THE FACESETTERS IN AGRICULTURAL NEWS COVERAGE

Another legislative session is just around the corner.

Lawmakers are due back in town Tuesday (January 14) for their 61st biennial meeting, and most observers predict it will be a lively session.

Senators and representatives soon will be bickering mightily over the following, and probably hundreds of other less spectacular matters:

Spending and taxation. Nearly everybody is convinced there will be a big tax bill. But one of those who isn't is none other than Gov.-elect Preston Smith.

Recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, particularly those of district consolidation and tax burden equalization.

Liquor - by - the - drink legislation. What again? This time, apparently, proponents will try the constitutional amendment (let - everybody - vote - on - it) route.

Minimum wage legislation.

Constitutional revision.

Increasing workmen's compensation from $35 to $49 a week maximum and broadening coverage to public employees.

Air and water pollution control measures.

Implementing the statewide water plan.

Raising the public welfare spending ceiling.

Incoming governor has indicated he will attach personal priority tags to these major program areas; education (with emphasis on vocational and technical training), law enforcement, finance, pollution measures and water matters.

NEW BUDGET PLAN DRAWN - Legislative Budget Board has recommended $1.1 billion in general revenue spending for 1970-71 - about $77 million more than the bare bones minimum level estimated by Gov. John Connally.

LBB calculated its own modest version of appropriations needs would leave $90.7 million in unearmarked general revenue, but that takes into account no new major programs such as implementation of the governor's public school study or teacher pay boosts.

Board decided to order a stop to salary supplements for major college officials from private funds and to recommend the state pay whatever is needed to get top men. This would cost about $308,500 a year.

Under LBB proposals the governor would get a pay raise, too, from $40,000 to $55,000 a year. That would keep ahead of lesser appointed officials, some of whom actually have been paid more than the chief executive considering their incomes from private sources.

Budget proposals also includes $8.2 million in state office building (to cut down on $1.5 million annual rentals paid by the state to house agencies in Austin) and an $850,000 state records storage center.

APPOINTMENTS - Hawthorne Phillips, formerly of Harlingen, has been named executive assistant attorney general. He succeeds A. J. Carubbi Jr. who joined a Houston law firm.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin also named Pat Cain of Austin to serve as his administrative assistant, replacing W. E. Wells who will take a Houston finance job.

Martin said Odessa District Judge George Kelton will join his staff as co-chairman of the opinions division.

Robert Owen, former Crockett County attorney, will head the consumer protection division and Phil Warner will be assigned to the attorney general's insurance, banking and securities division.

Governor Connally appointed Paris attorney Henry Braswell judge of the Sixth Judicial District (Lamar and Fannin Counties).

Connally, moving fast to catch up a backlog of appointments, also announced these selections: William B. Blakemore II of Midland to Public Safety Commission replacing J. C. Looney of Edinburg.

James L. Luther of Burnet to the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

George Dillman of Dallas, Ed Hunter of Houston, Gene Lehmann of Kerrville and Don Russell of San Marcos to the Texas Tourist Development Agency. Reappointed to the same agency was John McCarty of Dallas.

Judge Peter M. Curry of San Antonio and Judge Raleigh Brown of Abilene, reappointed as presiding judges of the Fourth and Seventh Administrative Judicial Districts.

Paul Fulks of Wolfe City, reappointed to the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

L. P. Sturgeon is the new executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association. This former New Boston school superintendent succeeds the late Charles H. Tennyson, longtime head of TSTA, who died last month.

Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop, adjutant general of Texas, has been reappointed a principle member of the Army Reserve Forces Policy Committee.

TECHNICAL TRAINING BOOSTED - House Education Committee has urged at least $30 million outlay during the next biennium for vocational-technical education in Texas.

HEC, which conducted study and 10 hearings, found that 16 vocational schools should be provided in 10 years to furnish 180 such facilities. It said all private technical and business schools ought to be regulated by the Texas Education Agency and that James Connally Technical Institute at Waco should be operated as a separate entity for training scarce vo-tech instructors and counselors.

WATER HYACINTH ERADICATION - A plant hormone called "2-4-D" will be used in the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department's campaign in the spring to eradicate water hyacinths in the Nueces, Frio and Atascosa Rivers.

Marion Toole of the P&W Department says that state workers, cooperating with the Galveston office of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, will apply the hormone when the plants are just beginning active growth. No harmful side effects are expected to result from the program, he said, since "2-4-D" is a hormone, not a poison. "We've sprayed Caddo Lake and areas around Houston and Beaumont," he said, "and never had reports of anything injured."

Toole says that the department plans to carry the program to other areas of the state after the South Texas work. He reports that the department has been getting pressure from Louisiana about the problem with the Sabine, and since the upper Sabine is in Texas, this state must deal with the water hyacinth infestation there for Louisiana can get approval for control where the river links Texas and Louisiana.

INAUGURATION - During the pre-session lull, secretaries and other workers in the Legislature are busy addressing invitations from Governor-elect and Lt. Gov.-elect Ben Barnes to the January 21 inauguration festivities.

Smith's inauguration promises to be the most public of any such event since Austin became the capital of Texas. He wants everybody to come help him celebrate his assuming the chief executive's office.

Five of the six inaugural balls scheduled will be free. The formal ball in Austin's Municipal Auditorium, featuring Henry King and His Orchestra, will be the only one for which admission will be charged.

But the "free" balls sound like more fun. Television Star Jimmy Dean, a native of Plainview, Texas, will entertain at each of them. And other famous Texans - Glen Campbell, Buck Owen, Ray Price, Charlie Pride and the Casino Brass - will play for dancing.

COURT SPEAKS - Texas Supreme Court threw out orders of a Shelby County court which attempted to invalidate Department of Public Safety drivers' license suspensions of 83 who did not live in the county.

High court exonerated two Victoria doctors sued by a woman who broke her hip in a fall from a hospital bed after electric shock treatments.

Thirty-two death penalty cases were pending as of the end of the last fiscal year says the Board of Pardons and Paroles in its annual report.

GUARD UNITS PRAISED - Texas' Army National Guard is at the "highest state of efficiency and readiness ever achieved," Fourth Army spokesmen commented.

Annual general inspections of 121 units reflected that more guard units were rated "superior" than last year, despite massive reorganization. Twenty-one units received distinction in Fourth Army judging.

All statewide elective officials (except the governor and lieutenant governor) who serve two-year terms began new terms on January 1.

More got out than in state prisons last year. A total of 5,485 inmates were released (1,921 through parole) while 4,736 were admitted.

Forty-one applications for permits to sell $29 million in securities in Texas were filed during the last two weeks with the State Securities Board.

We extend our thanks to all of the friends and neighbors who were so nice while Jan was in the hospital. The many cards, flowers, food, visits, and other kindnesses were sincerely appreciated. God bless each of you. The Earnest Barbees

I want to thank dear friends for the cards, letters, and visits while I was in Groom Memorial Hospital. Thank you all. God bless each and every one of you. Mrs. Edith Longan

Highlights and Sidelights

From Your State Capitol By Vern Stanford

Now that the Legislature is back in session, Austin is back to normal. At least it seems normal for Austinites and veteran lawmakers. But 30 of the 34 new members of the 181-member Legislature still are about as confused as a lost child at the state fair.

Two "new" House members know their way around very well indeed — Doyle Willis of Fort Worth formerly served in both House and Senate, and Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio also is making a comeback.

Sen. W. E. (Pete) Snelson of Midland served in the Senate in 1965-66, then was restricted out of business and defeated by former Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo. Last year, however, Snelson turned the table for a return match in the upper House. Sen. Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi was a long-time House member before he defeated the late Sen. Bruce Reagan.

For the other 30 newly-elected legislators it's a brand new ball game. They began work in the usual maelstrom of activity, trying to learn the names and faces all at once of 151 other lawmakers. Also, about the same number of full-time lobbyists, some 300 secretaries and committee clerks, and more than 100 state officials who work with the Legislature.

Texas' stately old Capitol finally has been renovated to provide offices for all members. But finding these offices and committee rooms, scattered all over four stories and basement of a block-long building, is not easy on any newcomer.

For the first couple of weeks, most new members walk everywhere with a diagram of the Capitol in one hand and a list of members' desk numbers in the other.

Activity at the session really won't be heavy until Speaker Gus Mutscher and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes appoint their committees. And Mutscher has said he won't get to that until about the last week of January. So this first week the big excitement is the upcoming inauguration of Gov. Preston Smith and Barnes.

INAUGURATION — Gov. Smith expects more than 4,200 persons in about 100 marching and performing groups to participate in the Inauguration Parade down Congress Avenue at 3 p.m. Tuesday (January 21).

At least three times that many will be dancing in six inauguration balls for Smith and Barnes that night. But the Inauguration won't be all frolic. A 7:30 a.m. prayer breakfast at the Terrace Motor Hotel starts the big day. Inaugural ceremonies then take place at noon.

GAS STORAGE SAFETY—Rep. Charles Jungmichel of La Grange says his House State Affairs subcommittee will ask the Legislature to pass a bill requiring that all service station gasoline storage tanks be located underground.

Recommendation resulted from several subcommittee hearings around the state on recent explosions and fires caused by storage tanks. As the proposal now stands, service stations with above-ground tanks would be given six months to comply with new safety regulations.

MIGRANT SCHOOL PROGRAM—Eight summer weeks of all-day school would be offered the children of migrant workers under a federally-funded migrant school program approved by the State Board of Education.

High school-age students would attend regular summer schools, with the federal government paying tuition fees for families who cannot afford them.

An estimated 11,500 children of migrants would participate in the $1.6-million summer school program.

Dr. Jack Winston, Houston, re-appointed to the Dental Board; and

Dr. J. C. Litrell, Waco, re-appointed to the Podiatry Board. Joe R. Darnall of Austin was appointed to the legal staff of the Texas Liquor Control Board and Claude L. Webster, formerly of Fort Worth, will handle insurance programs for the Texas Hospital Association.

James F. Ray of San Antonio is the new assistant director of University of Texas Institute of Urban Studies at Arlington.

BOYS SCHOOL PROBED — A House investigating committee marched up the hill and back down again in exploring charges of brutality by guards at Gatesville-Mountain View School for Boys.

Juvenile Delinquency panel headed by Rep. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls aired allegations in a public hearing. After House Speaker Ben Barnes ordered an on-the-spot midnight check, lie detector tests were ordered for complaining inmates.

Stewart acknowledged two days later that polygraph tests showed the boys were not telling the truth. Guards said they used only what force was necessary to disarm youths of homemade knives after they tried to escape.

Texas Youth Council said the ill-timed probe was damaging to its efforts. Barnes agreed TYC had been unfairly tried in the press. He recommended better pay for school guards, more counseling services for inmates.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court refused to alter an intermediate court order directing re-trial of a suit brought by the widow of a Pasadena doctor against his one-time hospital partners alleging malicious prosecution.

High court upheld Henderson County real estate man's claim to a $6,574 commission on the sale of property on which he had exclusive listing. Decision concluded unenforceability of contract is no defense to action for tortious interference with its performance.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed four-year sentence given a Beaumont woman for assault to murder because the jury doubled punishment under state law authorizing extra sentence where a knife is used in attack.

Gulf and Western Industries Inc. lost its bid to buy controlling interest in Sinclair Oil Corporation when stockholders at Atlantic Richfield and Sinclair agreed to a merger, says the U. S. District Court here.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Texas laws which permit officials other than the governor to call out state military forces, including the National Guard, without the chief executive's prior approval are unconstitutional, says Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

Independent school district may borrow money from its school depository if a member of the school board is an officer in the bank, providing the board adopts appropriate statute and the officer-member does not vote on the contract.

Houston has fire, safety and police power over the Harris County-Houston Ship Channel Navigation District within corporate limits, Harris County may enforce all state laws in the district, and either the city or the county may bring suit under Texas' clean air or water quality (anti-pollution) acts. District can also sue under the water quality act and has jurisdiction over fire, safety and police powers to the extent that it owns or operates terminal facilities outside city limits.

COLLEGE GROWTH TOLD — Top officials and legislators were told by the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System that higher education will double in size and cost by 1980.

Board laid its "blueprint for progress in higher education" before executives and lawmakers. Details include proposals for six new state colleges, 53 community junior college districts and additional medical-dental education facilities.

It is predicted by the Board that enrollments will grow from 375,000 in 1969 to 707,800 in 1980. Additional facilities will require $401.4 million in expenditures by 1980. Annual spending on educational programs will rise from $203.5 million to $404.2 million by 1975, study indicated. As a means of financing part of the $132 million cost of new senior colleges, the Board apparently will suggest an $80 million bond issue secured by the $18 a month student activity charge.

Ninety First Congress Convenes

In one of the first House roll call votes of the 91st Congress, Panhandle Congressman Bob Price voted against sending Adam Clayton Powell of New York.

"My views are the same as they were two years ago when I joined 306 other members in denying Mr. Powell his seat," Price said. "The fact that he was elected again does not right the wrongs for which he has not been absolved."

Price's first bill in the 91st Congress hopper was the same as his first bill in the last session. The resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution that would allow prayer in schools and other public buildings.

Senator Everett Dirksen has been the main exponent of an amendment in the other House. Price said he believed it is a necessary and proper function of our public schools to provide the opportunity of prayer. "There is no reason to believe the founding fathers felt voluntary prayer in a public school was an evil to be prevented by the First Amendment."

Other "first-day" bills introduced by Price included a package of import bills which would set quotas on oil, meat, textiles, cotton, dairy products and steel. A leader in both oil and meat import legislation for the past two years, Price has testified in hearings on both.

"I am a firm believer in reciprocity," Price said, "but we need some better rules-of-the-road to keep our domestic industries healthy. The Oil Import Program as now amended and administered threatens to impair the national security which is the basic concept upon which the program was established."

"The Meat Import Act of 1964 has been ineffective because the roll-back figure was too high to begin with," Price said. "The Department of Agriculture estimates meat imports for 1969 will be more than a billion pounds—up 4½ per cent from 1968—and this does not include fresh lamb or canned and cured meats which add another billion. Beef is our biggest agricultural product and cannot be sold down the river in the interest of industrial exports."

Other bills in Price's first-day legislative proposals included:

—A resolution banning employment of known communists in defense plants.

—Making it a felony offense to carry firearms or explosives aboard a commercial aircraft.

—Tax credits for teachers in college improvement courses.

—Tax credits to employers for job training programs.

—Prohibit political influence in the appointment of postmasters and rural carriers.

—Double personal income tax exemption from $600 to $1200.

—A Hoover Commission type bill, the Executive Reorganization and Management Improvement Act.

—Two bills to change retirement credits for Veterans Administration physicians and dentists.

Price said he believed the 91st Congress would be more selective in approving legislation but that there would be a real push for import quotas, particularly on oil, meat, cotton, and textiles. Hearings were held during the last session but no committee action was taken.

SERVICES HELD WED. FOR GAINES INFANT

Graveside services for Ben Arthur Gaines, 9 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Gaines, were held Wednesday afternoon in Citizens Cemetery with Rev. R. E. Manning of Amarillo officiating. Services were under the direction of Murphy Funeral Home of Clarendon.

The infant died Monday morning in Plains Clinic at Lubbock after having pneumonia for about three weeks. He was born March 20, 1968 in Clarendon and had been in Lubbock for 2 days.

Survivors besides the parents are one sister Glenda Ruth; three brothers, Alton Lee, Jr., Johnny Lee, and Richard Darrell, of the home.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Fire breaks out somewhere in the United States every 13 seconds, the Insurance Information Institute reports. Of the $2,396,550 fires recorded in 1966, 970,800 were in buildings.

IRS Answers To Taxpayers Questions

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I'm expecting a bonus this year at the office. Will it be taxable?

A—Yes, this will be taxable income and your employer will withhold taxes on it.

Q—The holiday job our son is taking may put his earnings over $600 when it is added to what he made last summer. He's a full-time college student and I pay for his room, board and tuition. Could his earnings cost me the deduction I've been taking on him?

A—If your son is under 19 at year-end or was a full-time student during some part of each of 5 calendar months of the year and you provide more than half his support, his earnings will not cause you to lose the exemption you claim for him. Your son must file a return if he has gross income of $600 or more. He should also file a return if his income was less than that but taxes were withheld from his wages. He cannot obtain a refund of these taxes unless he files a return.

Q—Do I have to report tip income to my employer?

A—If you have tip income of $20 or more a month while working for any one employer then be sure you report it to this employer each month. Otherwise, you may be subject to a penalty of up to 50 per cent of the Social Security tax on the tips.

Q—I am a farmer and I donated a young steer I raised to a church bull roast. How do I figure the value of this contribution?

A—Use its fair market value at the time of the donation as the amount of your charitable contribution. However, the costs and expenses of the steer incurred in the year of contribution must be removed from your deductible farm expenses.

Q—Can I spread over several years the profit I made on the sale of farmland?

A—Yes, you may be able to report your profits on the installment basis. Then you would only be taxed on that part of the profit you received in 1968.

This installment method can only be used when you receive payments of not more than 30 per cent of the selling price in the year of sale. If you receive more than 30 per cent, the entire gain must be reported in the year of sale.

Q—My brother and I help support our mother. Who gets to claim her as a dependant this year?

A—Under the support test for claiming a dependent, the person who provides more than half the total support for the calendar year is entitled to claim the exemption. To determine whether you or your brother qualify, add up your mother's food, clothing, shelter and other items of support for the year. Then find out whether you or your brother supplied more than half of them.

If neither you nor your brother furnished more than half of this support but your combined contributions totaled over half the support, then you may want to consider the multiple support agreement. Such an agreement enables one of you to claim your mother as a dependent providing certain conditions are met.

Be sure to check this provision of the law, as well as the other dependency tests, before you file your return next year.
