Farm News

from County ASCS Com.

CERTIFICATION

As you know, Donley County will continue to use farmer certification for 1969. We are aware of the fact that this method of reporting your acreage gives more responsibility to you as far as measuring is concerned. It is our responsibility to stress the importance of accurate measuring and reporting your crops. After the certification date it is equally as important to report any change of acreage as a result of adverse weather conditions, etc.

Under new changes in procedure, it is vitally important that wheat producers know their intentions to substitute wheat for feed grain at the time the wheat certification is filed. An error in reporting could cause loss of payments under both programs.

As in the past, we will help you all we can in making sure your acreages are correct. We will, upon request and payment of the cost, visit your farm and measure any acreage you are not sure about.

RELEASE OF COTTON

Farmers who have cotton allotments which they do not plan to plant should consider releasing it temporarily to the county committee for reappportioning to other farmers who apply for additional acreage.

The final date to release or request extra cotton is March 8.

Bulldogs Win Three, Lose One On Road

Clarendon College Bulldogs have filled a heavy schedule the past week playing one game in Bulldog Fieldhouse and three road games.

Amarillo College Badgers invaded Bulldog Fieldhouse Wednesday night of last week. In a close game the Bulldogs defeated their foes 79-73 in their third game of the season against the Badgers.

In their game with Frank Phillips Clarendon College took the game 84-71. Monday night of this week the Bulldogs played New Mexico Military Institute at Rosewell and won the game 78-65.

The Clarendon College team experienced their second loss in conference play this season, Tuesday night of this week when they played Hobbs, New Mexico Junior College at Hobbs. The final score was 93-90.

The Bulldogs had the faithful support of their Cheerleaders and a number of students who made the trip with the team and despite the long drive were back for school this Wednesday morning. It is always an inspiration to a team to have the support of their fellow students and fans.

The last home game of the season for CC will be February 17 when a rescheduled game with Lamar Junior College will be played. All other games will be on the road. Friday night, February 21, there will be a game at Lubbock Christian College; February 25 the Bulldogs will play Howard County at Big Spring and February 27 Odessa Junior College. The final games of the season will be against South Plains and West Texas Freshmen the first week in March.

COLOR TV'S NEED HOME ADJUSTMENT

Most color television sets require special "setting up" color adjustments in the home before they function satisfactorily, reports a home management specialist with the Extension Service.

This service should be part of the purchase price of the set, says Wanda Meyer at Texas A&M. She says here is how to check if the servicemen has done his job:

PURITY — Tune in a black-and-white picture with a variety of shading but little action. Set the picture for moderate contrast. If, at six or eight feet, you see pronounced blotches of color with irregular outlines, purity is off.

CONVERGENCE — The convergence needs adjustment if, from normal viewing distance, you see colored outlines around objects in a black-and-white picture.

TRACKING — The slight color tint of the background in a black-and-white picture should be the same throughout, often grayish blue. If the tint varies across the picture — to green, for example, or to pink — the tracking is out of adjustment.

FOCUS — Viewed at a distance of a foot or two, the horizontal scanning lines should be clearly visible and of uniform thickness. If the serviceman cannot get good focus, your picture tube may be defective.

TUNING ACCURACY — If your set has a special device to make fine tuning easier, you can check it against your own manual fine tuning. Select a fairly strong station and fine-tune so you get a sharp picture. Then move the control slightly until the picture just appears to "worm" and move it back again to sharp.

Your tuning indicator should not be at its optimum position. If your set has Automatic Frequency Control, switch it off for this test. After you've tuned, switch on the AFC. It should make no changes in picture sharpness, notes Mrs. Meyer.

Fresh fruits and vegetables in good supply at the most economical prices include apples, oranges, grapefruit, bananas, avocados, potatoes, head lettuce, celery, cabbage, sweet potatoes, rutabagas, carrots, sweet potatoes and dry yellow onions, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

In the food market this week, Grade A large eggs offer the best combination of quality and economy for your egg money, according to Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Value Showdown:

Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

Built-in "guard rails"

There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood Estate Wagon, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood.

We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.

That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.

Not a glamorous feature. But you'll have to admit, worthwhile.

Computer-selected springs

Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt. Or maybe you'll order it with hardly anything on it.

Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.

Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer.

The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed.

Chevrolet, the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.

Fenders inside fenders

We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.) But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.

So: Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set.

They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.

While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.

Astro Ventilation

The other two cars in our field give you air intakes down by the floor.

So do we. We also give you two up on the instrument panel.

And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it.

Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind.

Without noise. Astro Ventilation is standard, now, on all the big Chevrolets.

The theft-thwarter

On the steering column there's a lock.

Only Chevrolet has it, in Chevrolet's field. You turn the key and it locks three things:

Your ignition. Your steering wheel. Your shift lever.

When you own a car this tempting, you don't dare take chances.

Biggest standard V8 in our field

Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you: Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s.

And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire.

Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.

Show up for our Showdown. You can't lose.

From Your State Capitol

Immediate implementation of the Texas Water Development Board's $10-billion Water Plan (to take water to every part of Texas), lowering the voting age to 18, lifting the constitutional ceiling on state public welfare contributions, and a gradual revision of the State Constitution were some of the surprises Gov. Preston Smith offered the Legislature.

All 181 Legislators had been pacing themselves for the first two weeks of the session, waiting to see what their new governor wanted from them, and now they know his aims. But he has yet to reveal his budget and tax recommendations, which will have tremendous bearing on whether his programs are enacted.

Governor Smith lauded the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System's plan to provide upper-level senior colleges in Midland-Odessa, Corpus Christi, Houston and Dallas and a four-year college in San Antonio, but he did not adopt it specifically. However, he did embrace the board's recommendation for new state medical schools in Houston and Lubbock, a new dental school in San Antonio, and state participation in Baylor University's dental and medical schools.

He called for a state police certification program for prison parolees, an "implied consent" D.W.I. test to cut down on traffic accidents involving alcohol, "enlarging" the Parks & Wildlife Commission to obtain better geographical distribution, and raising workmen's compensation benefits from $35 to $45 a week.

Governor Smith endorsed the 1968 State Democratic platform (which had his approval), but he added: "I have read the Texas Republican Platform. I think you will find the two quite similar."

Smith's message to the Legislature left unanswered the question of spending and taxing. He called for economy, but conceded that new taxes may be needed. His recommendations as to what should be spent and where it should come from will follow in another message.

His legislative program was very extensive. Rural legislators who have been getting objections to the proposals for school consolidation made by Gov. John Connally's Committee on Public School Education were glad to hear Smith call that plan impossible to pass. He did agree with the Committee that there should be some school consolidations, but he felt they should be voluntary.

Attracting much interest was the fact that the new governor did not mention in his list of proposals constitutional amendments the one to allow optional liquor-by-the-drink. Instead, he merely gave legislators a copy of the Democratic platform which called for a statewide vote on the question.

His message came after a colorful inaugural program which brought thousands to Austin. A "victory dinner" attracted 6,000. As many as 40,000 may have attended the six inaugural balls. More than 100 units took part in the inaugural parade.

When Smith and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes took office, they give the Capitol the first West Texas team since 1947. West Texans were prominent among those in Austin to cheer for the men from Lubbock and DeLeon.

TUITION HIKE PROPOSED—Finance committee of Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System found tuitions of students must be doubled to help pay the expected $404.2-million biennial operating cost of higher education facilities by 1975-76.

Committee also proposed $165 a year student building fee to float bonds for a $401-million college construction program. Fee would apply only on six new campuses recommended during the next decade.

Tuition suggested by the committee would be $7 per semester credit hour for Texas residents and $20 per credit hour for non-residents. This would raise an additional $22-million a year. Present tuition rate, unchanged since 1957, is $50 a semester. It is one of the lowest in the nation.

Committee strongly recommended a uniform building system and standardized construction components for new campuses, as well as new procedures to cut down operating costs.

Report will be acted on at the February 10 Coordinating Board meeting, together with a request to merge South Texas College of Law at Houston with Texas A&M University.

DIES SECRETARY OF STATE—Governor Smith's first official appointment was his secretary of state. He selected former Lufkin Sen. Martin Dies Jr., and Dies was immediately confirmed by the Senate.

Smith described Dies, who did not seek reelection in 1966 after eight years in office, as one of the most popular senators in recent history. His main work has been in the areas of retardation in children and parks development.

"I have turned to one of the most able and dedicated men in public life during this era of government," Smith said. "I am sure Senator Dies is destined to become one of the great secretaries of state in Texas history."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—Freshman Rep. Lynn Nabers of Brownwood plans to introduce a proposed constitutional amendment to allow the state to give aid to private colleges and universities.

In the proposal, a committee would determine what it costs to educate the average student at state-supported schools. State then would deduct from that the tuition students pay at state institutions—now $100 per year—and send the rest to the private schools as credit toward the educational costs.

System would be complicated at those private schools which teach religion courses. Some state aid would have to be deducted for that, because of the constitutional provision on separation of church and state.

AG OPINIONS—Tech Technological College may create a medical school on the Lubbock campus without passage of implementing legislation, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said in an opinion requested by Governor Smith.

Martin warned, however, that the legislature, through its control over appropriations of funds, has the power to "accept or reject this method" of creating medical facilities.

In another opinion he also ruled that a school board has the authority to expel a student for violation of a published policy against drug use, after fair hearing. But he said an indictment alone is not grounds for expelling.

Legislative committee appointments now have cleared the way for lawmakers to get down to the real business of the 61st Texas session.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes announced 27 senate committees which assured increased power for liberals, urban areas—and the presiding officer.

Speaker Gus Mutscher followed up two days later with a sweeping reshuffling of all major House panels, leaving only three chairmen in their old places of authority.

Barnes picked veteran Senators Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and William T. (Bill) Moore of Bryan to head the "Big Two" senate committees—finance and state affairs. Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr. of Paris, however, remains as finance vice-chairman and head of the working sub-committee which actually conducts hearings on the budget.

El Paso Sen. Joe Christie, prospective sponsor of a constitutional amendment to legalize sale of liquor by the drink, heads the constitutional amendments committee. Alkin is chairman of the education panel which probably will handle important school legislation.

Sen. Charles Herring of Austin heads the jurisprudence committee; Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, water and conservation; and Sen. J. P. Word of Meridian, nominations.

All 45 chairmanships in the House went to veterans of two or more terms of service.

For the fifth time, Rep. W. S. (Bill) Healy of Paducah will be chairman of the budget-writing, appropriations committee, and Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas will chair revenue and taxation which originates tax measures. Only other chairman retained by Mutscher was Rep. John E. Elaine of El Paso, liquor regulations.

Rep. Rayford Price of Palestine, who came to the legislature with Mutscher in 1961, has been designated chairman of the busy House state affairs panel. Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, who headed state affairs last session, is in charge of the rules committee which controls the flow of legislation to the House calendar. Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth directs the House administration committee with offices close to the speaker and his top staff assistants.

BILLS PASSED—Even while awaiting committee assignments during the third week of the session, legislators boomed through two bills of a semi-emergency nature.

First passed was a $965,815 appropriation measure to forestall a welfare cut (in aid to dependent children), to assist growing junior colleges and to help finance legislative and governor's office operations this year. A fund transfer of $35,000 headed off a $28 cut in aid to needy families. Governor's office got $130,000 for new personnel, equipment, travel and postage. Colleges got $335,815, the Senate $325,000 and House $115,000.

Second bill urged by Gov. Preston Smith increased retirement benefits of some 6,500 retired state employees an average of 10 per cent. Minimum benefit would be raised from about $30 to $50 a month. A retirement boost for elected officials will be the subject of a separate bill.

SENATE REFORMS RULES—Senate lost no time in adopting rulebook reforms designed to curb free-wheeling conference committees and to relax its own secret-vote provisions.

They voted 25-6 for new joint rules. Most dramatic change would limit conference committees named to adjust differences between House and Senate bills to doing just that—rather than writing totally new legislation behind closed doors. The House has yet to act.

Senate later approved 30-1 revisions of its own operating procedures which for the first time direct open committee hearings on appointments by the governor (unless a majority of the nominations committee votes for executive session).

Senators also were authorized to announce how they voted on confirmation of appointments. LEGISLATION RAINS IN—Bulk of legislation proposed by Governor Smith—and a lot he didn't ask for—in his first message to the 1969 Legislature already has rained into hoppers of both houses.

Constitutional amendment proposals would lower the voting age to 18, shore up women's legal rights and authorize horse track betting on a local option basis in Bexar and Harris Counties.

Among other bills introduced in the House and Senate are: A proposal by Sen. Criss Cok of Houston to make air and water pollution a misdemeanor offense—for corporations as well as individuals.

A Texas Meat Inspection Law, sponsored by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg. (Without a state act, the federal government will take over meat inspection in Texas.)

Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria wants to abolish common-law marriages and permit divorce because of unsolvable discord between husband and wife.

Liberals will try again for a minimum wage with a bill sponsored by Reps. Raul Longoria and Lauro Cruz setting a state minimum of $1.10 per hour.

Senator Bates also has a bill prohibiting private clubs—including country clubs—in "dry" areas (based on his premise that if an area votes to be dry, it ought to be completely dry).

Sen. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio wants to extend until 2 a.m. every day the time in which alcoholic beverages may be sold. (Such a bill passed in 1967 but was vetoed by Gov. John Connally.)

Affirmative action is expected on the industry-labor compromise bill to increase the maximum weekly payments under the Workmen's Compensation system to $49.

Reps. Hillary Doran of Del Rio and Guy Floyd of San Antonio will run with a bill exempting Texas from Daylight Saving Time.

Representative Cory wants a code of ethics for teachers and a state commission to enforce it. A proposal by Rep. Neil Caldwell well of Alvin to require cities and counties to designate the right of way at intersections and put up traffic signs within two years to help establish blame in accidents.

Representative Caldwell also would prohibit games, puzzles and other advertising techniques.

There has been a shortage in only one field. Nobody is rushing forward with tax ideas. Although that may seem the subject of a new address to the Legislature by Governor Smith.

BUDGET WORK BEGINS—A record $5.6 billion in spending proposals of the Legislature Budget Board has been placed before the House appropriations and Senate finance committees as a starting point in 1970-71 budget-making.

Bill calls for $1.1 billion in general revenue spending, an increase of $170.4 million, but it does not provide for teacher pay raises, new senior colleges and many other high-priority items.

Starting bill calls for $14.9 million for the judiciary; $27.2 million for health, hospitals, special schools and youth institutions; $2.67 billion to executive and administrative departments and agencies of state; $2.63 billion for education; and $16.7 million for the Legislature.

COURTS SPEAK—Federal district court judge here ruled that a college student with a I-S deferment from the draft may finish out his academic year.

State Supreme Court told a San Antonio judge he could not order an insurance company to reveal its auto liability policy limits when involved in a lawsuit.

Supreme Court upheld lower courts rulings that a Victor who promoted an illegal drag race was not entitled to damages for injuries received when he was hit by one of the racers.

Life sentence given a Wichita County in 1928, for assault, was thrown out by the Court of Criminal Appeals because the man had no lawyer in two prior convictions cited in his trial.

Attorney General Martin obtained a permanent injunction in an Austin district court against an aluminum concern to halt "bait and switch" selling tactics or misrepresenting price cuts.

Third Court of Civil Appeals held constitutional a 1935 law against synthetic milk that includes both vegetable oil and dry milk solids.

Parents in the Edgewood School district in San Antonio brought a federal court suit challenging constitutionality of the tax system under which some school district property owners pay higher taxes than others for the same or inferior educational opportunities.

FARMERS PROBLEMS

At times past in the history of this nation, rural areas in general and farm people in particular were in firm control of the political power of this nation. This has long since changed and now rural Americans, especially farmers, find themselves in a distinct minority.

According to the latest figures from the U. S. Department of Commerce, less than 6 per cent of this country's total population is considered rural. Farmers of today are under extreme pressure. The economic position of farmers has worsened because of the cost-price squeeze. Parity is extremely low. Not even a spectacular increase in productive efficiency has enabled the farmer to offset production and living cost brought on by spiraling wage and price increases.

Mrs. Bill Hutson of Hereford and Mrs. Ola Dennis visited Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John White.

CITIES IN FLAMES

Short of nuclear war, it would be hard to imagine fire destroying nine American cities in the next 70 years. Yet, the Insurance Information Institute notes that between 1835 and 1908 fire destroyed major portions of New York City, Charleston, S. C., Portland, Me., Chicago, Boston, Jacksonville, Baltimore, San Francisco and Chelsea, Mass.

Noble-Holland Nuptials Solemnized In Church Ceremony

The United Methodist Church, Clarendon, Texas, was the scene for the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage, Miss Janie Sue Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Noble of Lelia Lake, Texas, and David Theron Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Holland of Clarendon, Texas, Saturday afternoon, February 1, 1969. The Reverend Carl Nunn, pastor, officiated.

She wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed, blue and a penny in her shoe. Her cascade bouquet of pom mums was centered with a white orchid and showered with streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Kathy McCrary was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Laveta Formway, Rhonda Goodman, and Laura Holland, sister of the groom. They wore dresses in an A-line design of red peau de soie, and matching headpieces. Flower girls were Anna Harrison and Leann Holland, sister of the groom. They wore dresses of pink velvet with matching headpiece, and Danielle Baldwin, who lighted tapers wore red peau de soie.

Theron Holland attended his son as best man. Groomsmen were John Holland and Jerry Holland, brothers of the groom, and Gale Gray. Serving as ushers were Dennis Harrison and Clyde Helton.

Mrs. Noble, mother of the bride, wore a dress and cape of pastel green with matching hat and bone accessories. Mrs. Holland, mother of the groom wore pastel blue, complimenting hat, and black patent accessories. Each mother was presented a single, long-stemmed red rose by the bride.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony. The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth and accented by a floral arrangement of pink carnations flanked by candelabra and white tapers. Appointments were crystal and silver. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Dennis Harrison, Mrs. Lloyd Leeper, and Miss Tam Baldwin. Mrs. Donna Mears registered the guests.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Holland are attending Clarendon High School where they are active in many school activities. The couple will be at home in Clarendon while continuing their education.

Mrs. Jerry Wayne Robison — Nee Johnny Shields

Miss Johnny Shields Is Bride Of Jerry Wayne Robison

Miss Johnny Ralpine Shields of Amarillo, Texas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Shields of Clarendon, Texas, became the bride of Jerry Wayne Robison of Amarillo, Texas in a double ring ceremony performed in the Clarendon Church of Christ February 7. Minister Robert C. Jones of Clarendon officiated.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Robison of Amarillo.

Vows were exchanged before a large red heart outlined by a ruff of white meline. Flanking the heart were baskets of white gladioli with red ribbon and candelabra bearing white tapers. Pews were marked with red velvet nosegays. Candles were lighted by Randy Hamner of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, and Earl Wayne Clark of Amarillo, nephew of the groom.

Wedding music included a duet by Mrs. Arthur Shields of Lelia Lake, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Bright Newhouse of Clarendon. Selections were "I Love You Truly," "True Love," "O Promise Me," the processional "Wedding March" and as a recessional, "Walk Hand in Hand."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of princess design fashioned of imported satin brocade with an all-over rose design. The bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and was accented by long tapered sleeves of Alencon lace closed with small satin buttons. The back panel was accented by a Cathedral train. Her formal tiered veil of illusion was secured by a rose coil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white pom mums centered with a white gladiolus and satin streamers tied in love knots. Her only jewelry was a necklace of seed pearls and gold given her by the groom. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed, blue and a penny in the shoe were observed.

Bridal attendants were Miss Theresa Allen and Mrs. James Akers of Amarillo. They wore dresses of red brocaded satin of the same design as that worn by the bride. Their headpieces were short tiered veils held by a white rose coil. Each carried a colonial bouquet of red carnations. Flower girls were Tonda Mahaffey, of Dumas, niece of the bride, and Tracy Clark of Amarillo, niece of the groom. They were dressed in the same manner as the bridal attendants, and wore wristlet corsages of white pom poms carrying baskets of nower petals.

Attending the groom as best man was Larry Thaxton of Amarillo. Groomsmen were Danny Shields of Claude, Texas, brother of the bride, and Joe West, Amarillo.

Ringbearers were Tony Floyd of Hedley and Danny Shields, Jr. of Claude, Texas, both nephews tifully decorated with white doves and ange's was topped with a miniature bride and groom and had been baked by the bride's sister, Mrs. James B. Mahaffey of Dumas, Texas. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Faylon Watson, Mrs. Bill Spier, Mrs. Becky Eaton, and Miss Shirley Moss, all of Clarendon.

For the wedding trip the bride wore an aqua green and off-white wool suit with bone accessories and the corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended school at Alameda and graduated from Clarendon High School in 1964. She is employed by Bell Telephone Company of Amarillo. The groom graduated from Tascosa High School in Amarillo and West Texas State University. He is employed by Bell Helicopter in Amarillo where the couple will be at home.

Members of the wedding party were feted at a rehearsal dinner at Mrs. Bromley's Dining Room the evening of February 6. Hosts for the courtesy were the prospective groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Robison of Amarillo. Thirty were in attendance.

To all of you who remembered me with cards, flowers, visits, and other kindnesses during my stay in the hospital, I extend my sincere thanks. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered. Mrs. Joe Downs

With respectful loving remembrances of my Dear Wife, may I use this method to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for all of the many kindnesses shown in the death of her brother, Fred G. Watt, May God bless every one. Malcolm Glass

Clarendon Members Host Delta Kappa Gamma Meeting

Gamma Kappa Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Saturday in the Clarendon College Library. Mr. Leonard Selvidge, registrar, conducted the members on a tour of the new college facilities and explained the course offerings to the group of women teachers who represent four counties.

A luncheon was served at the noon hour in the College Cafeteria preceding the regular program. Approximately twenty members and two guests were present.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Velma Bourland led the devotional, "Which Way America." She was assisted by Lynn and Beth Bourland. It was pointed out that there will always be "foreign lands" and people who need our help. As individual citizens we must not only share our culture, but we should "give the cup of cold water in His name." We must not give gifts unless we give the Christ with it to protect people from each other.

Following the remainder of the program a White Elephant Sale was conducted netting the society $64. This provides a $50 grant in aid to a high school senior who plans to enter a Texas college after high school graduation.

Clarendon members present were Mrs. Lucile Naylor, Miss Edgar Mae Mongole, Mrs. Clyde Gilbreth and Mrs. Fred Bourland.

Prices are coming upward on red meats and poultry, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Is it more economical to buy convenience soups or to make your own? Both are equal in price if the same ingredients are used, answers Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. Homemake soups tend to be more expensive because they use more expensive ingredients and a higher proportion of meat.

Rh Vaccine Prevents Birth Defects, Infant Deaths, Says March of Dimes

PREVENTIVE VACCINES for certain birth defects bring a turning point in modern medicine. Vaccine against Rh disease is now available. A forthcoming German measles vaccine will protect future children from multiple defects like those affecting this little boy.

Turning points have a way of slipping by unnoticed. Their significance is often apparent only after years have passed.

But in 1968, a major turning point in modern medicine was immediately recognized when a vaccine to prevent "Rh disease" was approved by the Federal Government.

For the first time in history, doctors have the means to prevent a major cause of birth defects. The remarkably effective Rh vaccine, called "Rho-GAM," promises to eradicate a condition which each year threatens an estimated 40,000 babies with death or damage before or soon after birth.

"The Rh vaccine is so important to potential parents and to the health of so many future children, no one can afford to overlook its availability," says Dr. Virginia Applegate, president for medical affairs for The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

The voluntary health organization, which initiated a national campaign against birth defects ten years ago after the conquest of polio was assured, has undertaken an aggressive education program to inform the public about the new preventive for Rh disease. Through radio, TV, magazines, newspapers and leaflets distributed at marriage license bureaus and other outlets, young people are urged to have a doctor or clinic check their blood for Rh factor identification.

The Rh factor is a part of the blood which is found in about 85 per cent of the population. Those who have it are called Rh positive; those who don't are Rh negative. Whether an individual has the Rh factor or not makes no difference to his or her own health. But it can cause serious Rh disease in children if a mother is Rh negative and the father Rh positive.

In such a case, if the unborn child inherits the father's blood type, the mother's system may react against the child she is carrying. This rarely occurs in a first pregnancy.

For those women who have already been sensitized by previous births, the Rh vaccine is ineffective. But new techniques of giving blood transfusions to unborn babies can save many Rh babies who might otherwise be stillborn. And exchange transfusions immediately after birth protect 95 per cent of the babies born alive with Rh disease.

Effective as these corrective measures are, The National Foundation-March of Dimes considers prevention of birth defects through universal use of the vaccine far more desirable.

For the same reason, March of Dimes volunteers are already preparing for another turning point in medicine, hopefully within the next few months, when Federal approval is given to a vaccine to prevent German measles.

This deceptively mild infection, also known as rubella, can cause serious birth defects of the heart, eyes, ears and other organs when an expectant mother contracts it during the early months of pregnancy. More than 20,000 damaged babies were born to mothers who had the virus infection during the epidemic which swept the United States in 1964-65.

German measles vaccines are now being tested. As soon as a safe and effective one is licensed, March of Dimes volunteers will spearhead efforts to make sure that every potential mother is protected against the disease, thus chalking up another advance in their unrelenting campaign to prevent birth defects.

"Grid" Map Being Prepared By SCS

Soil Conservation Service personnel are now completing a topographic or "Grid" map of the Homer Hardin Farm, located 7 miles north of Clarendon. Many hours of marking, staking and instrument work were necessary to prepare the map. Homer intends to put parallel terraces on as much of the farm as possible. These are some old terraces presently on the farm. These were checked and found to be doing more harm than good. They were not level and were broken in several places. This has caused some bad gullies in places.

Since the old lines were in such a condition, it was decided to make the grid on the entire field. When the design is completed, all of the old terraces will be destroyed. Parallel terraces will be constructed on all feasible acreage. Where the slopes are too steep or variable, conventional terraces will be constructed.

Homer also plans to put the steepest parts of the field and the gullies, to grass.

Homer realizes the advantages of a terrace system such as this. Under the present system his farm is eroding and his crops suffer from poor moisture distribution. Also, the existing terraces are very crooked. This causes him to spend a lot of time turning and working point rows.

With the parallel systems, point rows will be eliminated saving him time and money. He will raise better crops due to the more even distribution of water. His terraces will have a greater storage capacity than conventional lines due to the decreased slope.

Homer recently signed a Great Plains Conservation Program Contract to do this work. Under this program he will receive 70 per cent of the construction cost share payments, allowing him to do more work at one time without being a financial burden. He has worked closely with the SCS personnel in making the grid map. When the lines are finally designed he will lay them off on the land with his own tractor and equipment.

There are several other Donley County farmers interested in constructing parallel terraces. Some of them plan to use GPCP funds for cost share while others will use ACP funds.
