Airport Referendum Election Saturday, March First

Saturday will be another big day in Clarendon with City voters going to the polls to vote in the Airport Referendum Election which will be at the City Hall. Voting hours will be from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Absentee voting has already started off at a good pace with 20 ballots being cast Tuesday. This number will climb today and Friday with a large number of citizens planning on being out of town Saturday attending the Regional Basketball Play-off at Lubbock. You can vote absentee until 5 p.m. Friday afternoon.

The ballot instructs voters to mark out one of the two statements on the ballot indicating the way you wish to vote. The Ballot will read: FOR The City of Clarendon accepting $63,533 in Federal and State Funds and the City of Clarendon issuing Time Warrants in the amount of $33,000.00 for its part in the construction of a Municipal Airport and AGAINST the same.

Those eligible to vote in this election are Qualified Voting Citizens of Clarendon for 1969 as the current registration is good for all elections commencing March 1, 1969 through February 28, 1970.

The voters were informed by Mayor Richard L. Gilkey in his column in the Leader last week that Taxes would have to be raised 20 per cent to retire the Time Warrants within a five year period of time.

It will be up to the voters to decide whether the new municipal airport would merit a 20 per cent boost in taxes or remain at the present status with the existing airport facilities south-east of Clarendon.

The main point is to go vote Saturday so a majority may decide the issue instead of a minority.

BENEFICIAL MOISTURE FALLS LAST WEEK

Beneficial moisture in the form of drizzling rain and snow last week brightened the outlook of farmers and ranchers when the total measured out an inch or more over most of the county.

The official measure here in town was .76 inch and it all soaked in. More moisture is in the weather forecast at the present time.

Wayne I. Riggs

Wayne I. Riggs Outstanding Donley S&WCD Rancher

Wayne Riggs, who runs the "Tiny Timbers" ranch north of Clarendon, has been nominated by the Donley County Soil and Water Conservation District governing body to represent this district in the Fort Worth Press Awards program.

This award is given annually to the individual which the District feels has accomplished more in regard to soil and water conservation than any other farmer or rancher. Riggs has operated this ranch since 1967. In October of that year he entered into a Great Plains Conservation Program contract with the Soil Conservation Service. Since that time he has root plowed 151 acres of mesquite and re-seeded 190 acres to native grass. He also has controlled 844 acres of sand sage by mowing with a "brush hog". He still has approximately 200 acres of mesquite which he plans to eliminate shortly.

Seeing the need for better distribution of his livestock, Riggs has constructed almost 4500 feet of cross-fencing.

With brush control and proper range management, Riggs has also increased his wildlife population two fold. Namely, quail, dove, turkey, and some deer. The mesquite he removed by hand (approximately 100 acres) has been raked into piles which offer added cover and enhance the wildlife even more.

Riggs is a determined and energetic conservationist and a good manager of his grass land. The improvements up to now are quite impressive and in a few short years he will have one of the real "show places" in this area.

Soil Conservation District News

A survey is being made as to how each soil is classified in Donley County. This survey is in progress now and will be completed sometime early in 1972. It is being made to learn what kinds of soils are in Donley County, where they are located and how they can be used. The Soil Conservation Service is making the survey as part of their assistance to Donley County Soil and Water Conservation District.

The general purpose of the survey is to help us remember the significant characteristics of soils to assemble our knowledge about them, to see their relationships to one another and to their environment, and to develop principles of their behavior and response.

We separate soils based on their characteristics. Soils contain layers or horizons within each profile. Most soils contain topsoil, subsoil, and parent material horizons. The texture or amount of sand, silt, and clay is also used to separate soils. Other features that are used to separate soils are chemical and physical characteristics such as the amount of acidity or alkalinity, soil color, warm activity, and slope.

The Donley County Soil Survey can be used too by many people in many different ways. It can be used for land evaluation for such things as appraisal of land for loans or farm purchases. The survey can also be used for engineering purposes such as highway construction, suburban development, and flood control programs. Engineers use physical soil characteristics such as depth to impermeable material, soil strength and soil drainage. Of course the survey in Donley County will be used mostly in making recommendations to farmers and ranchers for soil conservation developments.

In the months to follow, articles will be given on the benefits or uses to particular groups of people.

THE LEGISLATIVE LOFT

By Rep. Tom Christian

Now that the 61st session of the Legislature has convened, many bills covering a varied and wide range of issues are daily being introduced. Predictions are that over 2000 bills and possibly as many as 300 resolutions will be introduced before the session concludes in May. Naturally, many of these proposals will be of significant importance to all of us from the Panhandle area.

In evaluating my personal contact with many of you, it appears that education, liquor-by-the-drink and school consolidation are the issue areas that presently concern you most. Many of you have already expressed to me your interest in the much-publicized Governor's Report on Education. I can assure you, this Report will receive an in-depth inspection and analysis from members of the Legislature. In line with this, I feel indeed fortunate to have been placed on the Public Education House Committee — the very committee through which this report will pass.

In the area of committee appointments, I have been selected to serve on the Livestock, Juvenile Crime and Delinquency, Public Lands & Buildings, Criminal Jurisprudence and Public Education House Committees. All these, I feel, are committees which will be concerned with legislation important to the people, industries and businesses of the Panhandle.

As we get down to specific work on legislation here, I am hopeful that we as a body will direct the emphasis of our efforts to those matters which truly deserve our detailed attention. It seems in this era of rapid expansion and change, with astronauts virtually a step from the moon and major global developments occurring daily, that we too often have turned our attention to trivial matters, rather than concentrating on the larger and more immediate problems which affect us all.

er than concentrating on the larger and more immediate problems which affect us all.

I am looking forward to visiting with you regularly through these news reports — and am anxious to have your views and expressions on activity here at the Legislature. My mailing address is P. O. Box 86, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

IRS Answers To Taxpayers Questions

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I received my tax forms in the mail but my son didn't. Why is that? He started working last summer and taxes are being taken out of his wages.

A — A tax return is mailed to everyone who filed a return for the previous years. Your son would therefore not receive a tax form if he started working in 1968 as you indicate.

Copies of the 1968 tax forms and instructions are available at local IRS offices as well as many post offices and banks.

Q — If I file my 1968 return by the end of January can I forget about the fourth installment of my estimated tax?

A — Yes, if you file your 1968 return by January 31 paying any balance due at that time. But don't forget that 1969 declarations must be filed by April 15.

Q — Last year I sold some stock I had received from my father's estate. Do I have to pay tax on this money?

A — You will only have to include in income any increase between the value of the stock at the time your father died and what you sold it for.

The amount of the increase will have to be reported as a capital gain on Schedule D. However, if the stock decreased in value the loss may be used to reduce any other capital gains you might have to report for 1968. For details see the instructions on Schedule D.

Q — I got married last year and my wife and I both received 1040 tax packages. If we file a joint return, whose label should be put on the form, mine or hers?

A — On joint returns the account is primarily identified by the husband's social security number. Therefore, file the return with your label adding your wife's name to it but be sure also to enter your wife's social security number on the return in the space provided for it.

Q — Are farmers subject to the new surcharge?

A — Yes, they like all income taxpayers are subject to the tax surcharge.

Q — I can't find the W-2 form I got from my summer job. What should I do?

A — Contact your former employer and ask him for a duplicate copy of your W-2 statement.

Q — Is it true that if I have less than $100 a year in dividends I don't have to report them on my tax return?

A — All the dividends you receive should be reported but generally the first $100 in dividends is not subject to tax.

Q — I'm recovering from a serious illness and can no longer use public transportation to get to work. Since I now have to rely on taxis can I deduct this as a medical expense?

A — No. Transportation expenses to and from work are considered personal expenses and are not deductible. Transportation costs to the hospital or to a doctor for treatment are deductible as medical expenses, however. Check your Form 1040 instructions on how to handle these expenses.

You can stand on it, sit on it, store in it and then throw it away when you get tired of it. What is this material new to home furnishings? Paper. It is reinforced with nylon and impregnated with glass fibers, says Bonny Lay, Extension home furnishings specialist. Fiberboard can be coated with polyethylene film and paperboard can be finished with plastic. Storage units, draperies, rugs, chairs and tables of paper products are now on the market, she says.

Vote FOR The Airport

A vote on Saturday for Clarendon's Municipal Airport will be a positive step for progress in this community.

The need for the airport has been established by local authorities, planning engineers, and officials of State and Federal governments. The cost to the local taxpayer is small.

We must have the courage to plan, build, and move confidently into the future.

We solicit your support for the airport.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

Legislators are beginning to move along with some of the important decisions facing them.

A Senate committee gave approval to a constitutional amendment by which voters will be allowed to say "yes" or "no" at the general election, November 1970, whether they want liquor by the drink in Texas on a local-option basis.

A House committee gave the companion proposal a friendly reception, and is expected to approve it there, too. But sponsors agree that it will be hard to get the two-thirds majorities necessary in each house to pass the proposal on voters.

Next big proposal for the House Constitutional Amendments Committee is the $3.5 billion water bond proposal sponsored by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake. This is the state's share of financing for the $10 billion Texas Water Plan. It, too, will go to the voters in November of 1970, if two-thirds majorities in each House agree to submit it.

BILLS ADVANCE — A bill to raise retirement benefits of state employees to 25 per cent (up 10 per cent) landed on the governor's desk following passage by both houses.

Another measure approved by both houses raises the maximum interest rate on state and local bonds from five to six and a half per cent.

Senate has passed proposed constitutional amendments to guarantee equal legal rights for women, grant state funds to governors-elect and to exempt rural water supply districts from taxation.

Bills passed by the Senate include measures to transfer 45 acres from Harris to Waller County, permit Texas A&M University to issue revenue bonds for water and sewage facilities on its campuses and authorizing sale of a Texas Woman's University lot in Denton to finance a music scholarship.

BILLS GALORE — Usually the number of bills filed at the Capitol slackens after the first few weeks. So far this session, it hasn't happened.

Rep. Grant Jones of Abilene has introduced a bill to add at least 50 per cent to the tuition fees of non-Texas students at state colleges while increasing tuition for Texans only slightly.

Rep. George Hinson of Mineola has a bill through committee to allow school districts to get full state aid for students taking vocational courses in another district.

Rep. Carl Parker of Port Arthur has dropped a bill into the House which would allow public employees to have labor unions. Four House bills to strengthen the obscenity law have been inroduced. Rep. Cletus Davis of Houston has announced that he will introduce a bill to replace article 1220 of the Texas Penal Code (known as the paramour statute) which allows a husband to murder legally a man "taken in the act of adultery with his wife."

Two bills to up the punishment for firearms crimes have been introduced by Sens. Jack Hightower of Vernon and Henry C. Grover of Houston.

Representative Parker also has introduced a bill to regulate and license private detectives and guards and their employers.

Sen. Criss Cole, Houston, has introduced a bill providing that subdivision plats in unincorporated areas must be approved by the county commissioners court before they may be filed and recorded.

Senator Cole also has introduced a bill providing for improved control of solid waste disposal and giving authority to counties, the State Health Department and the Water Quality Board. Rep. Rex Braun of Houston also has introduced some pollution control bills and opposition between the two has arisen.

SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION OP- PONENTS — The Little Red School House Committee, made up of rural landowners, farmers and ranchers from all over Texas, will lobby against the companion bills by Sen. A. R. Swartz of Galveston and DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. Their bills would reduce the number of school districts in Texas from 1,218 to 353.

Charles Schreiner III, Mountain Home rancher and chairman of the Committee, said, "More bigness is not an absolute guarantee of excellence."

COURTS SPEAK — Texas Supreme Court refused a hearing on the State of Texas' plea to put some 4,000 acres of land on Matagorda Bay into the public domain class.

Other half of the case is H. P. Baxter Jr. who owns a tract of 4,505 acres which was originally about 355 acres. State says the land was "grown" by dredging and the like, while Baxter's lawyers contend it was a gradual process since 1803. So far, Baxter has won in the lower courts, so will keep the land.

COLLEGE KNOWLEDGE CLIMBS — Higher education planners handed the Legislature an explosive new issue — higher tuitions and steep building use fees for college students.

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System adopted by a wide margin the finance committee proposal to double tuitions and establish a $165 a year fee for students at six proposed new schools. Fee would go to retire building bonds. Levies are necessary, Board concluded, to finance a $401 million building program and college-university operating costs expected to reach $404.2 million by 1975-76.

Board is asking the Legislature this year not only to approve controversial fund-raising methods but also to appropriate $6 million to begin coordinated master planning for new institutions. Latter would be located at San Antonio, Midland-Odessa, Dallas, Corpus Christi and two at Houston.

Opposition outcries already have been raised against the recommended $7 per semester credit hour (about $210 a year) tuition for residents and $20 an hour for non-residents. Milder protests have been lodged against building use fee as discriminating against new college enrollees. Board claims both increases are necessary and that new school students really will be saving money by having higher education brought to their hometowns.

APPOINTMENTS — Forrest W. Reece, former Texas newsman, has been named assistant to the administrator of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration.

Gubernatorial appointees to the Board of Regents Frank C. Erwin Jr. of Austin, Jenkins Garrett of Fort Worth and Dan Williams of Dallas were confirmed by the Senate.

Gov. Preston Smith nominated Tom Hamilton of Plainview district attorney of the 64th judicial district. Hamilton is a native of Matador.

Dr. Joseph R. Smiley, president of the University of Colorado, will become president of the University of Texas at El Paso next June, says Chancellor Harry Ransom.

Range weeds are large enough to spray now in parts of South Texas and as spring arrives on other sections, ranchers are reminded by Extension range specialists that range weeds should be sprayed before they are six inches in height. BUY FOOD SPECIALS

Want to stretch the budget while shopping for the family food supply this weekend? Here are some food marketing tips from Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Some retail meat counters offer best beef values on chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks and roasts, ground beef and beef liver. Pork values include loin roasts and chops, shoulder steaks, ham and fresh and cured picnic.

Fryers remain a good buy in most markets and Grade A large size eggs offer the best combination of quality and economy for your egg money, notes Mrs. Clyatt.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in best supply at economical prices include oranges, grapefruit, apples, bananas, potatoes, head lettuce, celery, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, dry yellow onions, collards, mustard greens, turnip tops, sweet potatoes, radishes and salad tomatoes.

An upright broiler that operates like a toaster is new on the market, report Extension home economists. The broiler's two heating elements cook both sides of meat simultaneously. The broiler rack is self-adjusting to allow easy broiling of thick or thin meats. Grease drips to the pan at the bottom away from the heating unit.

A newly marketed completely covered zipper features both nylon and metal parts. Extension clothing specialists say the metal teeth and nylon chain are covered front and back with fabric tape.

The award was presented at the Sweetheart banquet held Saturday night in the High School Cafeteria. The charm was awarded from General Mills. Miss Autry is also eligible for state and national scholarships.

NEW ARRIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Richey announce the arrival of a son, Sean Len, Saturday, February 15. The young man weighed 8 lbs. 6 oz. and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Richey of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Snyder of Groom.

Anna Beth Simmons

RECEIVES OUTSTANDING HOME EC AWARD

Anna Beth Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett O. Simmons, has been named the Outstanding Homemaking Student of Clarendon High School. The announcement was made at the annual FHA Sweetheart banquet held Saturday evening.

The award is made on the basis of scholarship, participation in FHA activities, class work, and service to the department. A trophy from the Crisco Co. was presented Miss Simmons by her advisor, Mrs. Velma Bourland. This is the first year for this award to be given in Clarendon High School.

A new process developed by U. S. Department of Agriculture chemists gives cotton fabric the capacity to dry smoothly when hung on a line while damp. Before this, drip dry garments could not be put in the spin-dry cycle on the washing machine, reports Dr. Graham Hard, Extension clothing specialist.

Many taxpayers fail to take advantage of the revised law on health-insurance premiums. It permits deduction of such premiums, up to $150, even if you do not have enough other medical costs to claim a deduction, says Wanda Meyer, Extension home management specialist.

New Philosophy In Park Planning

It used to be that all you had to do to make a State park was to bulldoze a road into some land and build picnic tables.

Not so any more. A new philosophy of what a park should be and should offer is manifesting itself, and the key word is "interpretation."

"Interpretation," now a big consideration of the master planning section of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, for many years came as an afterthought — after the roads were built, after the concrete was poured, and after sewer and water pipes was laid.

But the realization that certain types of development might destroy the very reason for a park to be in an area brought about a new kind of thinking.

"Interpretation," ideally, begins when a park site has been selected. In the older parks, of course, this is impossible, but in the new parks a survey can be made to determine why an area is unique, what areas can be developed, and what areas should be kept natural.

A second facet of interpretation affects park visitors more directly. This takes the form of interpretive centers and nature trails.

The interpretive center is the focal point of the interpretive program. More than a museum or park headquarters, it is an information center, exhibit area, audiovisual room, and staff office.

The purpose of the park interpretive program is: "(1) to develop the visitor's appreciation, perception, curiosity and understanding of the natural environment and the historical heritage of an area; and (2) to broaden the visitor's mental and spiritual horizons."

This can be done by giving essential facts about the park, its program and its facilities; helping visitors understand, appreciate and enjoy the park; awakening public awareness of park purposes and policies; developing a concern for conservation; and acquainting the public with the needs and problems of natural areas management.

This philosophy was embodied in a paper presented by William Colpitts at the American Recreation Congress. Colpitts is an Information Specialist for the U.S. Forest Service.

"Interpretive and educational programs," said Colpitts, "are of proven value in promoting appreciation and understanding of parks and encouraging visitor use in ways consistent with the high purpose of public reservations of open land. Intelligent use reduces litter, vandalism and abuse of public property."

Colpitts says "interpretation" has other dimensions besides the relaying of information. "Interpretation is not the mere transfer of information about history or natural science to others, although it must be based on honest knowledge and information. It is rather the helping of the visitor to feel something that the interpreter feels — a sensitivity to the beauty, complexity, variety and inter-relatedness of the environment; a sense of wonder; and a desire to know."

"It should help the visitor develop a feeling of being at home in the environment. It should help the visitor develop perception."

In his paper Colpitts quoted Aldo Leopold the great ecologist-educator known as the "Father of Wildlife Management."

"To promote perception," said Leopold, "is the only truly creative part of recreational engineering. Recreational development is a job not of building roads into lovely country, but of building receptivity into the still unlovely mind."

Vote Against AIRPORT

Why vote extra taxes for a project to serve such a few people when money is needed to bring City Employee salaries up to a standard living level, new equipment is needed, streets and sewer system need much improvement.

Also in view of the fact that once taxes are raised and this debt is paid, we know from past experience, they will not be lowered again as there will continue to be a demand for that extra revenue for Airport upkeep and other possible unnecessary spending.

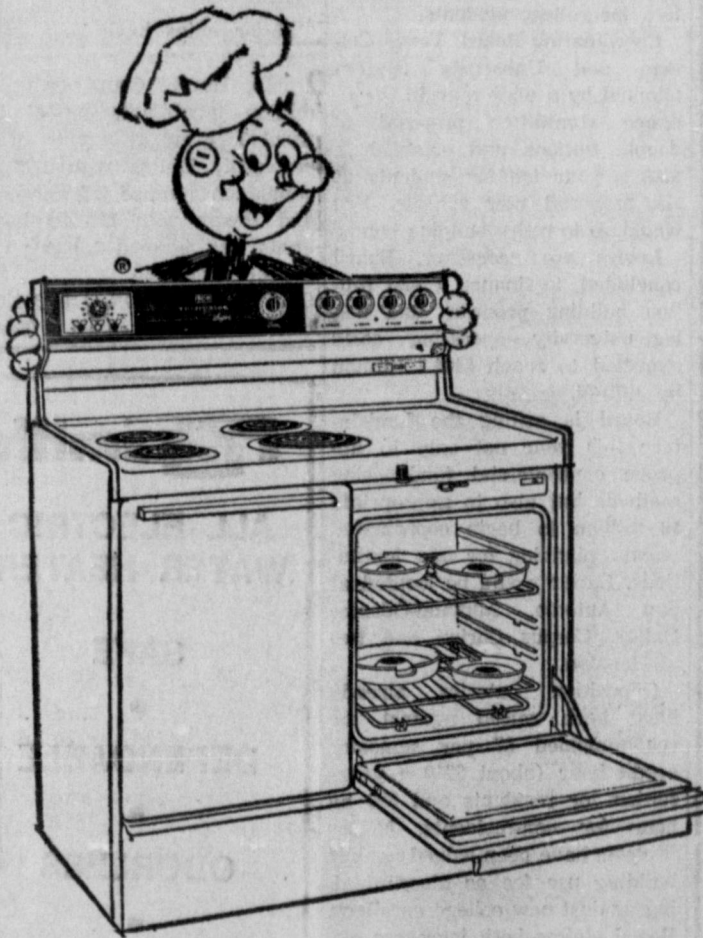

There is a good possibility later this year an election will come up for a new hospital with a possible Tax of 75c per $100 valuation. Add this to the City Tax Increase of 20 to 30 per cent and see what your tax increase will be in such a short time.

Certainly we need progress but that progress should be planned to fit the financial status of the majority of local residents.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes joined Governor Smith in doubting that the forced consolidation of school districts would pass. And mail the legislators are getting from parents and administrators in the smaller districts leads others to agree that the proposal will have to be modified.

Smith is urging reform of the basis on which state aid is given to local school districts. PSE Committee's study revealed that a great many school districts are getting bonanzas from the state by failing to properly tax their own property. It seems that the less they collect locally, the more they get from the state.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris and Rep. George Hinson of Mineola have signatures of more than half of the members of each house on the Texas State Teachers Association pay raise bill for school teachers. This package of changes will cost the state's taxpayers some $206 million a year, plus $20 million increased state funds for school operation, maintenance and transportation.

Smith said that he will recommend new taxes to finance projects he will recommend in his spending program. But he is not yet ready to say what sort of tax he will suggest.

WETS ACT FAST - Liquor by the drink legislation received instant action in the Senate. Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso introduced a proposed constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to legalize mixed drink sales on a local option basis, then minutes later, his senate constitutional amendments committee set it for hearing Wednesday (Feb. 12).

A similar amendment was introduced in the House at the same time by Rep. Cletus Davis of Houston.

Both Lieutenant Governor Barnes and Governor Smith gave the amendment a cautious approving nod.

Barnes said he viewed prospects for approval of liquor-by-the-drink as improving and added he feels "people ought to have an opportunity to decide the issue" by popular vote.

Smith made an almost identical observation and noted the proposal advanced by Christie and Davis gives voters "several checks" through local option elections.

Constitutional amendments must receive a two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature before they can be submitted for approval or rejection of a majority of qualified voters.

The Christie-Davis proposition would delete the old constitutional ban on "open saloons." It would empower the Legislature to "regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors, including the power to establish a state monopoly on sale of distilled liquors."

A separate bill spelling out the recommended regulations to take effect on passage of the constitutional amendment will be introduced later. If the amendment fails to get two-thirds support, the sponsors will try to pass the bill anyway and risk a law suit challenging constitutionality.

Barnes predicted some senators who oppose liquor-by-the-drink will go along with submitting the issue to a vote. One of these, Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas, is a co-author of the proposed amendment.

TEXAS AND JUSTICE - Governor Smith has announced the beginning of detailed studies by the Criminal Justice Council to develop a State plan for improving all segments of law enforcement and the criminal justice system. Such a plan must be submitted to the U. S. Justice Department by June 1 for Texas to take part in the $1.3 million Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968.

Smith also announced several appointments to the Criminal Justice Council. He named Hugh W. McLeland, Austin management consultant, as program director for research and development. C. G. Conner, inspector of the Inspection and Planning Division of the Department of Public Safety, was named program director for Law Enforcement and Crime Prevention. William H. Gaston, of the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, was selected to serve as program director of post sentence processes.

BILLS AND MORE BILLS - Chief clerk of the House and the secretary of the Senate both were deluged with more bills, many of them of statewide import.

-Rep. Temple Dickson of Sweetwater wants to prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion or national origin by barber or beauty shops.

-Sen. Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi and Rep. James Nowlin of San Antonio dropped in separate bills lowering the voting age to 19, and Rep. Carlos Truan of Corpus Christi, Sen. Joe Bernal of San Antonio and Rep. Joe Allen of Baytown want to drop the age to 18.

-A state board to regulate private trade schools was introduced by Rep. John Wright of Grand Prairie.

-Fourteen senators are co-sponsoring a minimum-wage bill sponsored by Bernal, but 16 will be needed to pass the law and 21 to bring the bill up for a vote.

-Measures toughening the dangerous-drugs laws were filed by Rep. Burke Musgrove of Breckenridge and Sen. Charles Herring of Austin.

-Judges would not be able to grant probation to persons convicted of driving while intoxicated, under a bill by Rep. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio. Those convicted would have to go to jail for at least three days.

-Freshman Rep. John R. Bigham wants to add investment income of insurance companies to the factors considered when the state Board of Insurance sets auto-insurance premium rates.

-Rep. Ace Pickens of Odessa will try once again to create Permian State College in the Midland-Odessa area. He introduced two bills - one putting it in Odessa and the other "in the Odessa-Midland area."

-Oral confessions would be allowed in court under another Christie bill.

COURT SPEAKS - Texas Supreme Court said the Legislature can provide different amusement tax rates for different types of entertainment.

High Court will hear arguments March 5 between two banks over control of the $300 million Sarita Kennedy East estate in South Texas pending outcome of will contest.

Harrison County Commissioners must canvass result of a justice of peace election even though it had ordered the office abolished, Supreme Court found. J. P. was not ordered reinstated. He will have to go to district court for remedy.

Austin federal district judge once more has held a law student previously granted deferment for an academic year cannot be drafted until the year ends.

APPOINTMENTS - Gov. Smith named Alton D. Ice to succeed Wayne Gibbens as his assistant representing the state in Washington.

Smith appointed Murray L. McWhorter of Austin to the Veterans Land Board.

Lieutenant Governor Barnes named Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon and Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth to the Multi-State Tax Compact Advisory Committee. FEDERAL RESEARCHERS IN TEXAS-OWNED GULF WATERS -Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler telegraphed Secretary of Interior Walter J. Hickel, declaring that oil, gas, other minerals and sunken vessels which belong to the school children of Texas might be jeopardized if a federal coastal survey being conducted is made public. He asked Hickel to work with the state on the lands which are part of the Permanent School Fund and Sadler's to administer.

"UNEQUALLED PROSPERITY" - Dr. Francis B. May of the University of Texas at Austin Bureau of Business Research reports last year was one of "unequaled prosperity in Texas and in the nation." In every quarter of 1968, the index of business activity was above the corresponding figure for the year before. And each quarter pushed the index higher than the preceding quarter.

In all but two of Texas' 20 largest cities, business activity showed an increase. Austin led with a 34 per cent increase. Beaumont had the lowest increase - two per cent. Houston was up 13 per cent, San Antonio and Dallas gained 15 per cent each and Fort Worth rose 16 per cent. As a whole, business activity for the state was 219.7 per cent of its 1967-68 base level.

FAMILY PLANNING SERVICE -Southwest Region Office of Planned Parenthood has printed its first directory for migrant workers. It includes information on over 700 counties in 34 states.

Directory contains names and addresses of agencies where migrant families may obtain family planning services. It also contains information about schedules, birth control methods offered and fees.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin indicated that the state of Texas probably will accept a $45 million settlement of its federal anti-trust suit against five major drug companies charged with over-pricing tetracycline.

Jack Ross of Edinburg was elected chairman of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles for a two-year term.

First of 1.5 million new 1969 highway maps are being distributed by the Texas Highway Department.

Tyler Junior College will retain 11 trustees under a bill passed by the Senate. Bill to establish a state regulatory commission over Texas public utility rates and practices has been introduced by Sen. Charles Wilson of Lufkin. Senate passed a bill to raise the maximum rate on state and local bonds from five to six and a half per cent.

To The Good People of the City of Clarendon

I want to take this means to say thanks for having allowed me and my family to enjoy another wonderful year in Clarendon. I still believe this is the best place in the world to live. We have a good school system, including Clarendon Junior College, a beautiful lake, with the Country Club and Golf Course. These are just a few things which I'm thankful for. Most towns our size would hock themselves for several generations to have these things.

In fact we are envied by the whole Panhandle for the things we now have; this is why I am tickled that I live in Clarendon, Texas. If you like it here and have hopes and dreams of a progressive and enticing city please vote YES for the Airport Referendum. If you are confused about the 20 per cent increase in City Texas, do as I did, and find out the truth about it. Taxes will be increased anyway with or without the Airport. Some are saying the Airport will raise taxes. This is not true...

Notice - Voters City of Clarendon

THE TOWN OF CLARENDON AND DONLEY COUNTY certainly need a good airport and we now have the opportunity to get one paid for principally by FEDERAL and STATE FUNDS, but first let us take care of the following:

1. Pay the City Employees at least wages above poverty level, as suggested by our former President.
2. Provide city services (sewer, water, etc.) for everyone living in the city limits who now pay city taxes and do not have sewer and water lines to their premises.
3. Make street improvements.

additional fire plugs and sewer services for the residences North of the Railroad tracks.

4. See that the present facilities (streets, sewer, water lines and water storage are in good condition.

5. See that the services such as trash disposal, etc. are improved.

6. Lower the charges for water and services rendered in the Town in order to make such charges competitive with that of our neighboring small Towns.

7. A Public swimming pool. We were told at the time of voting on the first referendum that the taxes would not need to be raised in order to secure the Air Port. Now we are told taxes will have to be raised 20 per cent for five years. There seems to be a credibility gap. Will $200.00 take care of the up keep?

We have an Air Port available in Memphis, Texas, which is only 30 minutes away and most Cities would be very pleased to have an Air Port in which it took only 30 minutes for passengers to get to the Business District.

From a business standpoint you would not buy a Cadillac car because 2/3 of the cost was being donated, when the re-sale of said car would be less than your one-third investment. Let's all go to the polls and by our vote let our City Administration, which is a good one, know that we are not ready for the Air Port.

SOME UP SOME DOWN

There were more cattle, hogs and turkeys on Texas farms and ranches January 1, 1969, than a year ago but fewer sheep, goats and chickens, reported the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Cattle numbers were up 50 per cent; hogs 1 per cent; turkeys 6 per cent while sheep numbers were down 7 per cent; goats 18 per cent and chickens 10 per cent. Total value of livestock and poultry on Jan. 1 was placed at $1,696.8 million, 12 per cent above a year ago.

A&M To Start Cattle Feeding Career Program

Texas A&M University's Animal Science Department will start a new program this spring which will prepare students for careers in the expanding cattle feeding industry.

It will be the first of its kind in the United States.

Dr. O. D. Butler, head of the A&M Animal Science Department, said the project will train graduates to manage large commercial feedlots, or service this growing industry as feed company representatives, consultants or in other roles.

"Texas is the fastest growing state in cattle feeding," Butler said. "Numbers of feedlots with more than 10,000 head capacity have mushroomed, and Texas now ranks fourth among all the states in total cattle feeding."

He said Oct. 1 data released by the USDA show that more than 1 million cattle are on feed in Cattle, a 34 per cent increase over 1967. New packing plants are springing up in the High Plains. Greater supplies of cheap grains, plus almost ideal feedlot conditions, assure the state of a leadership role in the feedlot business.

The new program will start with the 1969 semester. Students can begin at the sophomore or junior level, or return after graduation if they wish to take advanced training.

Students will receive at least 1 1/2 years intensive training beyond the B.S. level in nutrition, beef production, marketing, accounting and financial management, together with engineering courses to prepare them for mechanized feedlots. Also emphasized will be animal health, disease prevention, grain chemistry and environmental control.

Butler said a unique approach will be a "work study" requirement, with the student spending at least one semester working in commercial feedlots. Here, he will get the feel of management and the problems involved.

Protect the evergreen plants in the landscape from excessive winter damage by providing adequate soil moisture to prevent leaf damage caused by the drying effects of cold winter winds. Using a mulch in the shrub border will help conserve soil moisture.

MORE COWS PER HERD AND MORE PRODUCTION IN TEXAS DAIRIES

The Texas dairy industry is growing, according to Dairy Herd Improvement Association figures for 1968.

The report, prepared by J. W. Davis, Extension dairy specialist with Texas A&M University, shows that the average dairy herd has almost doubled from the 57.5 average of 1958 to 97.4 cow years in 1968.

During the same period, the average milk yield per cow rose from 8,112 to 11,156 pounds per year.

The average yearly milk per herd more than doubled from 466,440 pounds to 1,085,594 pounds per year for the ten-year period, and the average daily milk per herd went from 1,278 to 2,976 pounds. Butterfat per herd increased from 19,550 to 39,837 pounds.

Butterfat per cow went from 340 to 409 pounds per year during the 1958-68 decade, and the daily butterfat average went from 53.6 to 97.4 pounds.

The statistics for the ten years were tabulated from annual reports of the DHIA's test year ending Sept. 30, 1968. The comparisons are made to show the progress made through the DHIA, Davis pointed out.

Bobby J. Traweck, Dublin, had the high milk herd in 1968 with 45.3 cow years producing 16,475 pounds of milk and 593 pounds of fat. J. Chester Elliff of Tullia owned the high fat herd with 85.5 cow years producing 11,574 pounds of milk and 658 pounds of butterfat.

Davis said that of the cows on test in 1968, 78.9 per cent were Holstein, 13.4 per cent Jersey and 7.7 per cent were other breeds.

The past statewide results are good yardsticks by which dairy producers can make their own comparisons. All records should be complete, accurate and used in making management decisions, the specialist stressed. Records can show the producer which cows to cull, how to make better decisions in management and breeding.

With the trend toward larger operations, the purchase of more feed and greater use of mechanical equipment, these records will play an even larger role, Davis added.

NEED A GUIDE Traveling down life's rugged pathway We so often need a guide; Need that someone who can help us— Can hold back the raging tide.

NEWS FROM Congressman Bob Price 18th District, Texas

Prediction on our part; the much talked about Peyton Place will be replaced by this coming fall... Just a feeling on our part... We should live our life for others. Make both our days worthwhile. To take the sorrow from each heart. Replace it with a smile... Three bills I introduced early in this session of Congress are strongly supported by other members.

When the subcommittee is organized, the Census and Statistics Subcommittee of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee will probably schedule hearings on the 94 such bills that have been introduced. Of the other two bills, the Program Information Act, would require the Executive Branch of the Federal Government to provide Congress with an annual comprehensive compilation of all Federal programs.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES FARM MORTGAGE DEPARTMENT

1285 Avenue Of The Americas, New York, N. Y. 10019

January 28, 1969

Mr. J. P. Pool Box 292 Clarendon, Texas 79226

Dear Mr. Pool:

Each year the Farm Mortgage Department extends a special thanks to loan correspondents who have done an outstanding job in assisting Equitable to obtain farm and ranch loans. It is a real pleasure to offer my personal congratulations to you.

Extremely unsettled conditions characterized the credit markets during the past year. Demand for money in all sectors of the economy competed strongly for Equitable's available investment funds.

We sincerely appreciate the cooperation you have given Equitable. You have also made a valuable contribution to your local community by the leading role you played in arranging for long-term credit required for the progress of the Nation's biggest single industry, agriculture.

We hope 1969 is a successful year for you. If you should be in New York City, we in the Farm Mortgage Department would welcome your stopping in for a visit.

Sincerely yours, E. E. McLEAN Vice President

Dear Clarendon Voters:

We are not eligible to vote in your airport election because we do not live in the city limits. However, we own property in the city, and pay city taxes and believe that gives us the right to express ourselves.

We truly hope that the funds will be provided to enable construction of a community airport. Use of aircraft in agriculture is well known to farmers and ranchers in this area, and air transportation is already so much a part of commerce in small towns which have prepared for them.

We strongly support the airport project, and will gladly pay our share of any increased taxes.
