Mrs. Homer Glascoe Observes 95th Birthday

Mrs. Homer Glascoe Passes Her 95th Milestone Aug. 16

Mrs. Homer Glascoe, who has lived in Clarendon for the past 58 years, celebrated her 95th birthday August 16, 1969. Due to her aging physical condition she was unable to formally hold open house for her friends.

During Saturday and Sunday many friends called to pay her respects. She is pictured with a beautifully decorated cake, one of the many lovely gifts presented her.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Glascoe came to make their home here in 1911. Mrs. Glascoe now lives alone. Mr. Glascoe having died in 1936 and all close members of her family deceased. She is still vitally interested in affairs of Clarendon and proud of its progress and fine citizenry.

Through the years she has been very active in church and club work. She is a member of St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church, a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, and an honorary member of Les Beaux Arts Club.

It is always a pleasure and an inspiration to visit her. Her cheerful outlook on life, her determination to meet and face each day's problems to a solution, and her intense interest in the world of today are but fractional tributes to her deep and abiding faith in God. And in reminiscing over the days and years she has lived here, this faith shines through from the days when she first taught a missionary class of young people in the Presbyterian Church, through the trials of the depression and her husband's illness and death, to the celebration of this wonderful occasion of her 95th birthday. It will be with her always.

It is the wish of your many friends here, Mrs. Glascoe, that you have many, many more such happy occasions.

Red Cross Appeals For Camille Victims

The Red Cross answers the call for help each time a disaster strikes anywhere.

We, here in our county, know how much it means for we have had help more than once, stated Mike McCully, local chairman.

Right now, the victims of the hurricane "Camille" need help. Our share—the amount asked for—is $69.00, he added.

We don't have that much! In fact, we lack $67.00 having zero—for that much was borrowed against our hope of YOUR HELP. The money was borrowed for two purposes: (1) To send a mother with an ill child to Dallas for treatment, and (2) To pay for repairs on a soldier's car so that he could get to his family. He will repay the $17.00, McCully pointed out.

Will you help now by donating what you can so that the $69.00 can be sent from this Red Cross County to the victims of "Camille"?

A drive will be made soon for funds to run this county's needs for another year. We know you care. Give now—at either bank or at the Rexall Drug Store—or mail a check. Don't put this off, he concluded.

SOME BUSINESS PLACES TO CLOSE LABOR DAY

Labor Day is listed as one of the regular closing dates for local merchants but it is one date that is not observed by all. Some places, including the banks, county and state offices and public schools, along with other private concerns will be closed so if you have business to transact Monday, September 1, it will be best to check first.

A number of business firms including the Donley County Leader office will be open Monday. If we take the day off, the paper would be published a day late which causes considerable confusion for the public as well as the advertisers featuring week end specials beginning on Thursday.

Since the rural mail carriers will not be making their routes Monday, all correspondents are asked to bring their items to the Leader office along with any other news items due in on that day.

JA Ranch Building Donated To Texas Tech Museum

The Ranch Headquarters Committee has announced that the Meat and Milk House from the historic JA Ranch will become a part of the collection of authentic ranch buildings re-creating on the Texas Tech campus an outdoor museum of ranch life.

M. H. W. Ritchie, current owner and operator and grandson of the original owner, Cornelia Wadsworth Ritchie Adair, made the gift to the Ranch Headquarters, established to preserve the ranching history of the Southwest.

In making the gift, Ritchie said, "I am conscious of the historic significance of the JA Ranch headquarters buildings and loathe to part with any of them but by letting the Ranch Headquarters at Texas Tech have the milk house and meat cooler, I feel it will be a very appropriate and permanent monument to my ranch and to my family."

The cooler is the third acquisition made by the committee, the first a blacksmith shop and the second the headquarters of the Capote Ranch near Gonzales.

The structure of stone reveals the pioneer ingenuity credited so often to the builder of the JA Ranch, Charles Goodnight. It was serviced by spring water piped down grade.

Public Schools Open With Smooth Start

Supt. Arling Cordell reported Wednesday that the local public schools got off to one of the smoothest, uninterrupted starts in recent years this week with regular classes on regular schedule Wednesday morning following registration Monday and Tuesday.

He reported a total of 564 students enrolling Monday and Tuesday as a tentative count with more showing up Wednesday morning and still more expected before the end of the week.

Jeff Walker, high school principal, reported 202 students enrolling in High School and Stina Cain, principal of Jr. High, reported 362 for Jr. High and Elementary grades.

With school underway again, Supt. Cordell is asking the public to be more watchful for youngsters crossing streets while walking to school and also when driving around the school.

The first holiday to be observed by the school is Labor Day, September 1. The school administration office will be closed Labor Day also.

DOVE SEASON TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 1ST

Nimrods of the area will be polishing up their guns this week end in preparation for the opening of the Dove season Monday, September 1. The season will continue until October 30 in the North Zone of which the Panhandle is a part.

The daily bag limit on doves is 10 per day and 20 in possession. Shooting hours are from 12 noon to sunset. All hunters are reminded to obtain their hunting license and be sure to have proper permission to hunt on any property before entering thereon.

There appeared to be a good crop of doves prior to the rain but what the situation will be by next Monday will be anyone's guess as more watering places become available and the doves change their daily routine from hot dry weather.

SURVIVES HURRICANE

Long, Dry, Hot Spell Broken By Big Rains Since Sunday

Attendance Records May Be Broken At Boys Ranch Rodeo

A new attendance record is expected to be set for the annual Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch over the Labor Day week end.

This is the 25th year for the rodeo that is believed to be the only one of its kind in the nation in which the only contestants are boys competing under R.C.A. rules on professional rodeo stock. The Ranch's nearly 350 boys have been preparing for the rodeo for about three months, making their qualification rides on broncs, Brahma bulls, steers and calves. All of the boys will participate with approximately 180 riding as contestants. Trophies will be awarded riders with the best times in each division. The two-day performance will be climaxed by the naming of the Senior and Junior All-Around Cowboys.

"We believe this will be the most exciting rodeo the boys have ever put on," Ranch president Virgil Patterson, said. "The barbecue beef sandwiches will be sold for $1 again this year, so there will be plenty to eat for those wishing to picnic at the Ranch."

Among those attending the rodeo will be many of the more than 2,500 boys who have lived at the Ranch since its founding by Cal Farley in 1939. A special section of bleachers have been reserved for them and their families. Rodeo highlights will also include the initial appearance of the Boys Ranch Band and the crowning of a rodeo queen.

Tickets for the rodeo are on sale at the Boys Ranch office at 600 West 11th St., 372-2341. Reserved box seats are $2.50, and $1.50 general admission for adults, and 75c for children and servicemen in uniform. The dates are August 31 and September 1. Each performance will begin at 2:30 p.m.

MARTIN COMMUNITY PLANS BARBECUE FRI.

The Martin Community Chicken Barbecue will be held Friday, August 29, at the church. All planning to attend should have their chickens at the church by 1 p.m.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

Gentle Ben, the 650 pound trained bear, star of the "Gentle Ben" TV series, is among the free acts at this year's Tri-State Fair, Sept. 15 - 20, in Amarillo. Gentle Ben will perform on the final three days of the six-day exposition.

The prolonged hot and dry spell that has been with us since the latter part of June was finally broken Sunday when a frontal system moved across the area and dropped the first appreciable moisture since that time.

Up to Wednesday morning we had received a total of 4.14 inches of moisture since Sunday night which brings our monthly total to 4.26 and the years total to 15.59 inches. From all reports the entire county along with the entire Panhandle area has received large amounts of precipitation.

Some parts of the county have received up to eight and ten inches since last week and farmers are now confronted with the possibility of a prolonged wet, cool spell that could possibly reduce the cotton crop prospects with a spurge of new growth and the possibility of an early Fall season. Grain crops are expected to thrive on the moisture and some fields that were almost gone due to the heat will go ahead and make.

Frank Drummond, Greenbelt Filtration Plant Engineer, reported Wednesday morning that the run-off from rains had brought the lake level up three-fourths of a foot since the rains started and water was still coming in from the downpour early Wednesday morning. He said two inches was measured at the plant and 2.25 at the dam which shows quite a difference in amounts received over a short distance.

Here in town we received 2.80 Sunday night and 1.20 Tuesday night. More rain is in the forecast.

Who needs milk? Everyone, answers Extension foods specialists at Texas A&M. Milk provides calcium — the mineral that helps form bones and teeth and keeps them strong. Milk protein builds body tissues, helps the body fight infection and supplies energy. It's also rich in riboflavin, B vitamin that helps keep skin healthy and clear. Children need three or more glasses of milk each day; teenagers need four or more; and adults need two or more.

Here's a simple rule to keep in mind as you shop for table lamps: table height plus lamp base height (to the lower edge of shade) should equal the eye height of the person using the lamp. This advice is from Texas A&M University Extension housing specialists.

Care of Vinyls
Read the label before you buy vinyls, advises Extension clothing specialist Hazel Roberts. Some vinyls are machine washable; some come clean with the swish of a sudsy cloth. She recommends no machine-drying or dry cleaning for vinyls.

Mrs. Bob Lemons, the former Miss Joan Gover, was honored at a bridal shower held Saturday morning, August 23, 1969 from 9 to 11 a. m. in the home of Mrs. Naomi Gilbreth.

Many lovely gifts were presented the honoree including the hostess gift.

I must not let you go, Dear Lord, Except you bless my day. Please hear my prayer, forgive my sins, Take all my cares away . . .

Mistakes have a habit of happening to us when the most people are looking on.

It is not so bad to make mistakes as long as we put the blame where it belongs, but when we start blaming the other fellow then we are in trouble.

We should profit by the other fellow's mistakes because life might be too short for us to make them all ourselves.

It is bad to open our purse and find there is no money inside. It is worse to open our mouth in public and find we have nothing to say.

When we make a mistake our batting average goes down — when we admit the mistake our average goes up a bit.

Mistakes are missing the target — failure is when we stop shooting.

One of the poorest kind of memory to have is one that remembers all of the bad things and forgets the good. A good thing to forget is the faults of our friends.

We know not what the day may hold

On where life's path may lead. But we believe the Master will supply our daily need.

BEST FOOD BUYS FOR AUGUST

For best food values for week end shoppers Gwendolyn Ciyett, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A&M University, says meat prices remain firm.

With careful comparison of featured cuts, however, a variety of meats for the outdoor grill and for indoor cooking can be found at reasonable prices. Beef chuck steaks and various boneless roasts, ground beef and round steak are among the specials. Ham portions, fresh picnics and weiners usually are good values too.

Lamb shoulder chops will help stretch the meat dollar. They can be broiled as well as braised. Fryer prices are a bit lower with specials in some markets, especially on the cut-up pieces.

Ice cream is the all American dessert so serve it often. It's easier to scoop ice cream or slice it if it is taken out of the freezer and put it in the refrigerator a while to soften, the specialist suggests. Allow twenty minutes for a half gallon, ten minutes for a pint.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in good supply at most economical prices include peaches, pears, oranges, cantaloupes, watermelons, white seedless grapes, bananas, avocados, limes, tomatoes, head lettuce, green cabbage, celery, green onions, red potatoes, cry onions and russet potatoes. Cucumbers, corn, bell peppers, squash, and broccoli are generally available at moderate price levels.

AUSTIN—September 1 is the date suggested by Gov. Preston Smith for the special committee, now investigating auto insurance rates in Texas, to report its recommendations to the governor.

Former Governor Price Daniel, chairman of the committee, has expressed doubt that the group will be able to make that deadline. But he says "we are going to try."

Lots of insurance industry representatives showed up to listen, chat with reporters, and speculate as to just what was likely to come out of the committee's work.

Governor Smith, in his address to the committee, stressed that the investigation was not a "witch hunt" nor was it an attempt to "punish" the insurance industry. But he also said that unless increases in auto insurance rates were "absolutely essential," they should not be made — and if they were absolutely necessary, the people deserved to know why.

Capitol press rooms were deluged with memoranda and bulletins from various insurance associations, giving background information, stating positions and generally pledging support and assistance to the committee.

First meeting of the committee produced little information, except a show of determination by its seven members to find a way to lower auto insurance rates or to present a "concise and clear explanation" to Texas drivers as to why their rates are going up.

And this will take a lot of explaining. State Board of Insurance has agreed to a 30-day delay in its auto rate decision, usually made on August 1. Board has proposed a minimum rate hike of 11.4 per cent. This increase would apply only to drivers of private passenger cars. Individual rates would fluctuate in keeping with the accident experience record in each area.

Education Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System has increased the rate for loans to students from six to seven per cent. This rate applies to all future loans granted under the Hinson-Hazelwood Act.

Board also approved a common calendar for all state supported colleges and universities. Such schools will begin classes the first week of September. Final examinations for the fall semester will end just prior to the Christmas holidays.

Integration More than thirty school districts around the state are threatened with losing federal funds if federal desegregation guidelines, proposed by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, are not followed.

A Houston Federal Court may have found a way for the Houston School Board to get around losing funds because of integration problems.

Bob Reynolds, project director, said no contract has yet been made and noted that this is the first time the federally-financed center has been ordered by a court to work with a local board.

Courts Sundaco, the "only-on-Sunday" retail firm which leases other stores on a once a week basis, can stay in business until Attorney General Martin proves it is illegal.

State Supreme Court has turned down Sundaco's appeal of a lower court's refusal to say whether Sundaco is violating anti-trust laws. And the Supreme Court endorsed the appellate court's decision not to issue an opinion on antitrust or Sunday Closing laws until the State Attorney General takes action.

Sundaco "buys" merchandise from certain stores every Saturday night, and "sells" it back to the owner every Sunday evening, thus circumventing the Sunday Closing law and allowing the merchandise to be sold seven days a week.

State Supreme Court also has reversed the decision of an appeals court in the George Rivera Santana case.

Santana was tried as a juvenile delinquent in a Texas Youth Council hearing and convicted. An appeals court reversed that decision saying he should have been tried as an adult—in which case he might have gotten off.

However, the Supreme Court reversed the appeal's court decision and said the trial court should decide if a trial or hearing was needed and upheld his conviction as a juvenile delinquent.

Attorney General Speaks Schools that participate in diet experiments with white rats do not come under laws requiring their projects to be checked with the State Anatomical Board, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture, requested the opinion to see if a bond had to be posted under the Anatomical Board rules and if the experiment could be considered as "cruelty to animals" as defined by law. Attorney General Martin ruled that no bond is needed and cruelty would have to be decided on each individual case.

Oil Depletion Most Texas government leaders publicly denounced action by the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee that would, if accepted by both houses of Congress and the President, cut the oil depletion allowance from 27.5 per cent to 20 per cent.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Atty. Gen. Martin "deplored" the action. Barnes condemned it, and cited the contributions the oil industry has made and will make to Texas.

Martin charged that it will cut the amount of state taxes coming from the oil industry.

James Wilson, a researcher for the State Comptroller, disagreed. He says more money would come to the state if the depletion allowance was lowered. He figures that the oil and gas companies will raise prices to make up the difference and since state taxes are based on the price, the amount of money coming in should increase.

Governor Smith is withholding comment until more action is taken by Congress.

Hunger State Department of Public Welfare officials declined to comment on huge report of hunger in Texas, as made by the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights, since they had nothing to do with the study.

Report says that out of every ten families who live in poverty in Texas, nine get no assistance from Federal Food Programs. It further estimated that 26 per cent of the families in Texas live in poverty compared to a national average of 15 per cent.

Air Service A new kind of air service may soon be available to Texas.

For the first time in its history, the Texas Aeronautics Commission has received applications for certificates for "cargo only" air service. Applications filed by American Courier Corp. of Richmond, Virginia and Hallmark Freight of San Antonio propose to service every major city in the state.

August 5 Ballot Attorney General Martin says that Amendment No. 1 on the August 5 ballot, proposing to remove obsolete provisions from the Texas Constitution, should not be adopted because of the effect it will have on land titles.

He agrees that some of the Constitution's programs are obsolete, but believes that removal of one section would raise serious questions on the validity of some titles to land.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Sharp division between the Texas Senate and House was responsible for the tough tax fight in the final days of the special session of the Legislature.

It was not possible to get a majority of the Senate to agree on a tax bill tilted toward sales taxes, while House majority favored that route.

In past years it has been the other way around, with the Senate sales-tax minded and the House reluctant.

This attitude goes back to the 1930's, when 59 members of the House blocked the "transaction tax" proposed as a constitutional amendment by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, and approved by the Senate.

But the one-man, one-vote decision of the U. S. Supreme Court made the Senate more city-minded, and switched the role of the two houses.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Speaker

Gus Mutscher and Gov. Preston Smith all were anxious to get the tax-and-spend issues settled by Tuesday's adjournment, because they had other engagements.

Barnes is president of the National Legislative Council, which opened its annual meeting in St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday.

Mutscher planned to head a delegation of House members to the same conference.

And Governor Smith was ready for the National Governors Conference in Colorado Springs, Colo., starting Sept. 1.

Anti-Crime Project Funded Criminal Justice Council of the governor's office has recommended $252,499 in action grants for new local programs to fight crime.

Council voted funds from $1.1 million allocated Texas by the federal government under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968. State and local matching funds also must be provided.

Largest of grants, $127,000, would go to Houston for an area-wide information and communication system to be tied into a computer and connected with a state and national system.

Fort Worth will receive $60,000 for a police-community relations program; Travis County $35,000 to expand its model adult probation project; North Central Texas Council of Governments $21,000 for a police training program;

San Antonio police department $19,680 for a police-community relations seminar program and $7,339 for a Bexar County juvenile delinquency prevention project; Galveston $9,360 for a police department management survey; Houston $6,550 for a state school for prosecutors; and Alamo Area Council of Governments $1,500 for a four-week course offered 20 police officers in the region.

Council also accepted a study and report by Systems Science Corporation on a proposed state-wide communication and information system to link the criminal justice system including police, courts, corrections and rehabilitation services.

Oil Allowable Trimmed For third straight month, Railroad Commission cut statewide oil allowable, setting it at 52.1 per cent of potential.

September allowable allows maximum per day of 3,237,997 barrels. This compares with 3,284,263 barrels daily under August 53.1 per cent order.

Six of 14 major crude purchasers sought more oil next month than in August, three wanted less and five the same amount.

Allowable reached 21-year peak in June when it rose to 63.5 per cent, but was cut to 54.7 per cent in July and 53.1 per cent for August. Railroad Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said Texas crude oil stocks early this month totalled 104 million barrels, 200,000 more than a week ago.

Treasure Hunt Probe Expanded Three member commission named by district court to inventory the treasure recovered from a Spanish galleon which sank off Padre Island 400 years ago heard testimony that:

"There probably is a lot more treasure beneath waters of the Texas coast."

"There is not much chance any two-man submarines carted off an appreciable amount of treasure as charged by Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler."

Diver Jeff Burke of Rio Hondo told the Commission several items not reported on the log of Platoro Inc., the exploration firm which brought up artifacts, were recovered. Burke predicted Platoro will win its lawsuit claiming title to the treasure and "open the door for every treasure hunter in the country."

Secretary of State Martin Dies said Platoro had no license for exploration from the state, and its find belongs to Texas.

Meanwhile, Rep. Frances Farntoth of Corpus Christi offered a House resolution proposing censure of Sadler for his handling of legislative committees and legislators seeking to probe the treasure case.

U. S. Bureau of Customs jumped into the controversy with a demand for an inventory of items salvaged, and claimed they are the property of the U. S. until matters in controversy (including processing of entry forms) are resolved.

Nearly 100 miles of irrigation canals were lined last year to save water by conservation district cooperators.

Conservation Beautification
We hear a lot these days about natural beauty and beautification. Quite often, we read in the paper where some group beautifies a park with trees and flowers or plants grass on a bare area. Which is as it should be. All of us are for beautification. I believe, though, that you do more for beautification in Texas than any other group—and you probably get less credit for it than anyone.
After all, what's more beautiful than conservation on the land? Parallel terraces, for example, have a unique gracefulness, even to the non-technical eye. Fat cattle grazing on well-managed grasslands are always attractive. Floodwater retaining structures, firm ponds, pine forests, crimson clover, land being irrigated, stubble mulching, range seeding—all these and most other soil and water conservation practices add to the beauty of the countryside, don't they?
On the other hand, think how ugly these eyesores are: a system of gullies; a muddy, polluted stream; a burned-over wheat field; bare rangeland; or a flooded valley. Every time you apply a conservation measure that helps cure one of these ills, you are taking positive action to beautify America.

So remind people occasionally, when it's appropriate, that you are doing something about conservation and beautification—that the best way to beautify America is to conserve its soil and water resources.
SCS Trained to Check Radioactivity in Area
If the U. S. were ever attacked by nuclear weapons, most rural areas would get local information on radioactive fallout from surveys made by Soil Conservation Service personnel.
In Donley County, for example, the Clarendon SCS office keeps ready a variety of instruments for measuring radioactivity.
We would use them in case of attack or other emergency involving radioactive material. Our findings would be relayed to the USDA County Defense Board, of which we are a team member. The Board would in turn give this information to the public.
Although the first reports on radioactivity would be vital to everyone, the main defense job of SCS would be starting after things had "cooled off" a bit.

We would check soils, crops, and livestock feed and water to see if they were contaminated by fallout and how much. These surveys would determine whether these resources were safe to use. For example, in an area contaminated by fallout, the soil may be too 'hot' to grow vegetables, but might be all right for cotton or feed crops.
Personnel at the Clarendon SCS office have received special training in civil defense procedures and are equipped with five different kinds of instruments for measuring radioactivity. The best known of these is probably the Geiger Counter. We call it a low-range survey meter. It's not used much for 'hot' areas, but is so sensitive it can detect small traces of radioactivity in water, food or on a person's clothing.

Safe Driving Urged For Labor Day Week End Travel

Governor Preston Smith today offered four suggestions to motorists planning trips over the Labor Day holiday week end. Noting that traffic will be heavy, the Governor urged all drivers to "stay within established speed limits, avoid fatigue, avoid drinking if driving, and drive defensively."
"As your Governor, it is my responsibility to lead our state efforts in traffic safety. I urge all Texans and visitors who will be driving this week end to use utmost care and good judgment," Smith said.
The Labor Day holiday will officially begin at 6 p.m. Friday, August 29, and run through midnight Monday, September 1. During this time the Texas Department of Public Safety estimates that 44 will be killed in traffic mishaps within the state.
Colonel Wilson E. Spier, director of the Department of Public Safety, joined the Governor in urging all motorists to obey the law. He noted that the DPS would have all available uniformed patrolmen on duty over the holiday week end in a special "Operation Motoreide."

NEW TEXAS LAW SETS 'SLOW-POKE' RIGHT

"Slow-poke" drivers—a long-time hazard and source of irritation on the state's high-speed roads—will soon have to speed up or keep right when traveling on divided highways in the Lone Star State, the Texas Safety Association noted today.
Under a new law, going into effect Monday, September 1, vehicles traveling at less than the normal speed of traffic on divided highways must be driven in the right-hand lane or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway—except when passing.
In commenting on the new law, the Safety Association expresses hope that the traffic measure will be a practical solution to the mounting problem of slow drivers who tie-up traffic on heavy traveled roads and are frequently a contributing factor in traffic crashes.
The new law should also ease the tension of drivers who use the high-speed inside lanes on divided highways and not only find it mechanically difficult, but also emotionally difficult to cope with such drivers, the Safety Association continued.

Many drivers become quite irritated when there is no safe way to pass a slow driver. They often take risks that they would not ordinarily take and wind up in trouble.
Another provision of the new traffic law calls for all moving traffic to stay right of the center line on roadways having four or more lanes of traffic—except when authorized to go to the left by traffic control devices, or when making left turns into or from an alley, private roads or driveways, regardless of whether there is a double yellow stripe or not.

Effective grub control, points out Gooch, depends upon the proper use of systemic insecticides—chemicals fed or applied to the animal's body which are then distributed through the body tissues to control grubs inside the animal. Best results are obtained when animals are treated as soon as possible after the termination of the heel fly activity and when the grubs are small.
Several chemicals and methods of treatment are available, including dips, sprays or backline pour-ons. Others can be used as free choice block or granular mix for range animals or others are available which can be used in the animal materials; certain of these materials also effectively control horn flies, lice and ticks when used in the recommended manner, says the county agent.
Because of the number of insecticides available, the county agent suggests that interested persons come by his office for copies of MP-961, "Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry" and Fact Sheet L-725, "Common Grubs of Cattle." These publications outline in detail recommended chemicals and their use.
