Fireworks against law in Clarendon and Howardwick city limits

As the Fourth of July nears and as the fireworks stands begin to pop up around the country, many of us get the irresistible urge to celebrate with a bang, snap and pop as we light off fireworks. As usual, there are two things to put the damper on enthusiastic firework lighters.

First of all, it is against the law in the city of Howardwick and Clarendon to shoot off or light fireworks, roman candles, explosives of any kind, any loud noise fireworks, in short, anything except sparklers are forbidden.

Howardwick would like to remind all of you who consider going to the lake to shoot your fireworks, that it is against the law there. This includes Carrol Creek Acres and the new development area is also part of the city of Howardwick. If you want to go to the lake to shoot fireworks off, DON'T go to Howardwick, but go around to the lake area.

If you do go to Greenbelt Lake to shoot your fireworks, just remember that the grass is very dry and there hasn't been much rain lately, so your play could be dangerous in starting a grass fire. Since you are at the lake and all of that water is available, why not get a bucket of water to stand near by just in case you should accidentally start a little fire? Be prepared so that your evening of fun won't end in disaster for everyone concerned.

Secondly, it is against the law to sell within the city limits. If you do sell something and get caught, you are subject to a fine from $10.00 to $200.00 each day you are guilty will be subject to a separate fine. If you are caught shooting them off in the city limits of Clarendon, you could receive a $25.00 fine.

When you do shoot fireworks off in the country, remember that you are on someone else's property or on a road near someone's property. Should a fire break out as a result of your shooting fireworks off, you should contact the fire department at once and do all you can to stop the fire from spreading.

In addition to fire precautions, use safety precautions against shooting fireworks off. Don't risk your eyes or those of another by being careless, irresponsible or negligent. While the rockets and shooting fireworks are exciting, use them carefully so that you don't damage someone's eyes or face or property.

Enjoy the Fourth of July, have a good time and use your fireworks safely.

SADDLE BY BILL OLIVER to be given away at the St. Roost rodeo July 4th to the high point cowboy. Saddle is donated by Outdoors Entertainment Committee.

Saddle and Buckles ready for Rodeo

Once again the Outdoor Entertainment Association has outdone itself in the purchase of a beautiful saddle handcrafted by Bill Oliver of Amarillo. It will be given to the cowboy who enters in two or more events and is the high point cowboy of the rodeo.

There are some beautiful silver buckles that will be given away to the Outstanding Cowboy in each single event. The lucky cowboy should have a buckle or two as well as the saddle. It is possible that the saddle won't be given away, but we certainly hope that our rodeo this year is such a good one, such an exciting event with wild and wooly stock that we can have some champion cowboys compete and give away everything.

In addition to the buckles for the cowboys, there will be a buckle for the high point barrel race for the cowgirls.

In addition to the cowboys who will be out in the arena risking life and limb for the spectators, there will be a prize for the crowd, too! There will be one half of a big fat juicy beef given away to some lucky spectator each performance night. The beef can be picked up at ByLows grocery and enjoyed for the rest of the year as a great souvenir for the Saint's Roost Rodeo thanks to the Outdoor Entertainment Association.

Jail House Rocks Along

The concrete walls are up but it doesn't look much else is going on with the building of our new Donley County Jail. That is a correct observation. The progress is being held up waiting for the complete inventory from the Southern Steel Company. Without all of the steel, the rest of the walls inside can't be built.

The concrete outside walls are not all that will hold the prisoners inside. Once the steel arrives, it will be set inside blocks which will be cemented together. Insulation will fill the space between the concrete and the blocks. These steel bars run both horizontally and vertically so that there will be absolutely no way to break down or chip away any part of the walls.

The great big window facing West is not part of the security portion of the jail. It is part of the sheriff's office and behind it, the wall enclosing the jail will be the reinforced steel walls with two steel doors for security going into the jail property. There is a sallyport on the south side which will be fifteen foot chain link fences with a roof over part of it for an exercise area and also where the cars will drive in to bring the prisoners into the jail. They will be entered via a door which is operated by the dispatcher inside the jail. The prisoner will be brought in, processed and placed in whichever cell all under the observation of both those processing him and the people behind the bullet proof glassed in control area.

The police will check their guns immediately upon entering the security area so that no weapons will be on the person as they progress into the cell area. There are five cells, a drunk tank that can hold three, a holding cell, and the processing area can also be turned into a cell should it be needed. Each cell has a commode, a shower, a lavatory, a bunk and a small wall mounted table. To safeguard against smoke inhalation, there are exhaust fans that will carry out smoke to prevent that ruse being used to evacuate the prisoners. Also, to prevent the prisoners from flooding the areas, there are drains on the outside walls that lead into the plumbing walk-way where the water exits via a drain in the floor. Any repairs on plumbing can be done here without entering the cells.

Tampering with mail boxes a Federal offense

It is a Federal Offense punishable by Federal Authorities to tamper with the mail in any way whatsoever. This means that you must not put anything into a postbox other than mail with a stamp on it. You cannot use the boxes along the road to drop little gifts, little notes, packages, lost articles, feed or other items that is not stamped, addressed (with zip codes) and considered U.S. Mail.

It is also a Federal Offense to damage these mail boxes in any way. If you drive over one accidentally, you had better stand it back up and get it in good repair quickly because that is also punishable by Federal Authorities as damaging of government property and hindering the U.S. mail.

The purchase and upkeep of the mailboxes are indeed your duty and responsibility. Without the box, there will be no mail delivered to you. The purchase of that box is for the U.S. Mail Service, not for your personal use. This doesn't sound very fair, but remember that the mail service must have some means of control of what goes into and comes out of the mail boxes or there is no telling what could happen to those valuable checks, packages and letters.

It is also against the Federal Law to remove anything from a mail box that is not addressed to you or your family. You cannot reach into a mail box and take out the circular, the "trash" mail that is addressed to occupant just because you want to have some mail. You are not only stealing from the owner, but you are tampering with U.S. Government Mail Service. Watch your children so that they don't decide it would be fun to take mail out of someone's mail box. This is how checks or letters get lost that cost the owner money, time and security.

The U.S. Mail is indeed a service we pay for both ways, in postage and in effort. It is up to us to maintain our boxes in good condition, to keep them available for US MAIL ONLY and to prevent anyone from unauthorized removal of our mail. Cooperate and be safe; misuse your mail box and be liable for a Federal Offense.

Boating accident injures Clarendon man

Saturday at Greenbelt Lake a boating accident occurred which nearly cost Bill Moss the use of his left leg.

Bill Moss and his young three old son Jathon were up on the skis when they decided they had enough. They were down in the water and Carl Watson, the pilot of the boat, was making a slow turn as the ski rope was pulled in to return for the downed skier and his son.

Another boat, also pulling a skier, piloted by an Amarillo resident, was racing down upon the downed Moss. Watson and another passenger began to yell and point behind Moss who could not see the approaching boat. He quickly threw his son as far away as he could to avoid the certain impact.

The Amarillo man, attracted by the shouting, finally saw the man in the water. Just as Moss dove down to try and get away from the boat, the boat made a quick and sharp turn, but the propeller caught and mangled the left leg of Moss as he kicked away from the boat.

The boat quickly returned and the occupants from both boats dove into the water to rescue both Jathon and Bill. First aid was rendered on shore by Bill Hodges and the ambulance arrived quickly.

Bill Moss is recovering with one break, two fractures and many, many stitches in his left leg in Northwest Texas Hospital. It is expected that Bill will be on crutches for four to six months while the damage heals.

This accident which could have had horrible consequences should be a lesson to all of us who ski or use our boats in high gear. There are certain safety rules that each boater must adhere to in order to avoid such an accident from occurring.

First of all, have two people in the boat, one to watch the skier at all times in the event the skier goes down or is in danger, the other person must watch the front of the boat at all times

Howardwick man found dead

Any erroneous reflection upon the character of any person or firm appearing in these columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the management.

The jail is progressing and it will be adequate for our current needs. It can house women and juveniles without any problems because of the design, each cell is private. The doors are solid steel with small windows so that there won't be any way to see or hear who is in the cell next door.

When everything is finished, there will be an open house. Hopefully the new facilities won't look so nice that they invite visitors to the security area for overnight stays. We want five cells to be adequate, and not have to build more cells simply because the Donley County Jail is so comfortable.

to spot vessels, swimmers, downed skiers, logs, etc. in the way and so inform the pilot. Never should the driver of the boat turn around to watch the skier. A rear view mirror can be mounted so that periodic checks on the skier can be made, but the driver of a boat is like the driver of a car, eyes should be on the road in front of them.

Another safety precaution was observed which saved the life of little Jathon: he was wearing a life jacket. It is a lake law that every occupant, regardless of age or condition, must wear a life jacket when the boat is on the water. If Bill had not had his jacket on when the boat mangled his leg, he could have drowned if he had lost consciousness. Certainly, little Jathon wouldn't have been able to stay in the water as long as it took to rescue him without a life jacket. The bright colors are also a way to spot downed skiers and should help in avoiding such accidents.

Water safety is not there to prevent fun, it is there to keep your activities fun by preventing ugly accidents. The Amarillo man was deeply affected by the accident and surely had his entire weekend ruined by his carelessness. Certainly the Watson/Moss families suffered from the tragedy. Follow water safety rules and regulations and keep your summer trouble free.

"It was as if a spike had been driven deep into my heart."

By J. B. Simmons

J. B. Simmons lives in Asheville, North Carolina.

LET'S RUN THE PREACHER OFF

MY FAMILY AND I HAVE BEEN hurt deeply from having been recently run off from the church we loved and pastored for the last two-and-a-half years. As the deacons put it when I received the chilling news of my dismissal, "The last twenty years we have run off four preachers. Most of us here at the church are sad to see you go. We have already begun to pray that God will lead us to the right man to lead our church through the crisis of your leaving."

This difficult experience made us painfully aware of an attitude which seems to be shared by many Baptist church members. As one member put it, "You preachers can come and go fairly easily. Remember, we have to live with these people."

As I struggled with my relationship to God after having been dismissed by my church, I raised four questions. Where is God? Who is God? How does God work? Who am I?

Few experiences in life can cause a sincere pastor to feel any more alone and rejected than to be told without forewarning that his church does not want him around anymore. It was as if a spike had been driven deep into my heart.

I remember the feeling of aloneness and cut-off-ness which came over me when I finally realized my church was throwing me out. Although I knew in my head that the vast majority of my people still loved me, I felt cut off from them because they allowed such a cruel thing to happen.

At the same time, I felt cut off from God. I could not find him. I could not understand how he could be present when I felt so alone and separated. Was God present in the lives of those I felt had betrayed their pastor and friend? Could God be with a church that behaved in such a way?

Before this crisis I had always found it easy to quote multiple Scriptures teaching God will provide for our material needs in times of hardship. I had preached sermons with this as the theme.

But I must admit a great difference between then and now. Then I did not know from experience how deeply one can be in severe financial need. But I learned something of the pain a father has seeing his children need a new pair of shoes because their old ones hurt their feet, but unable to buy shoes because there is no money. One's theology is seriously tested when telling a child he will have to be as comfortable as possible in his uncomfortable shoes until the family can buy new ones.

Did God know this was happening? Did he care? Would he do something about it? I had always believed the answer to those questions was "yes." I believed God cared for me and my family and felt our emotional and spiritual struggles. But would he work for us? Would he help find us another church to serve? Would God work through our established Southern Baptist channels of pastor placement? Or would the system work the same whether God was in the process?

Although pastors may often wish otherwise, the process of finding another church is often long and involved. With many "available" ministers at this time, the prospects even for "a good pastor" may not be favorable. After I prayed and pleaded with God hundreds of times to let me do the work I was called and trained to do, and still no church materialized, I felt rejected. "Trust God" was a phrase which began to ring hollow to my ears. I am still wondering, how does God work?

All this experience has forced me to face a very personal question: Who am I?

I have wondered, am I a "bounty hunter"? Are the attitudes and motives in my life and ministry such that I face the anti-Christian elements in our society and in my community with the hope of gaining personal reward from God? The Scriptures teach that God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek and serve him. Was I wrong wanting some reward when my need was so great?

I asked, am I an "honest trader"? Have I presumed that if I were faithful, developed my talents, and was a competent minister that God was obligated to repay me with equal shares of ministerial opportunity, worldly gain, and personal prestige? I have sometimes felt myself saying to God, "I have helped you. It is your turn to help me." But the "honest trader" does not seem to measure up in quality to motives possessed by the prophets mentioned by Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount.

I also saw myself as a concerned husband and father. I was haunted by questions. How will my wife and children be cared for? Will I have to crawl back to my family as a failure in order to have the basic necessities of life?

I believe God is as concerned about my situation as I am. I believe he has as much capability as I to provide for my needs. Anxiously I say to him, "Don't play with me! Use your power now to provide for us." But I have not seen his response.

I have come to realize I am in part "bounty hunter," and "honest trader," and a great deal "concerned husband and father." At times I can sense within myself a calm in the midst of this storm.

Even if there are no immediate rewards for my faithful stewardship of life, I can, for some reason, reluctantly but willingly give them up.

I have few concrete answers to questions raised as a result of having been forced from my church. My personal theology is in the turmoil of formation and reformation.

Yes, one basic answer I have received so far is, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." In an indescribable way, this answer satisfies.

Who am I? Maybe I am also "man of faith." I believe I am beginning to have some new understanding of what it means to be a Christian. I am frightened at what I sense to be a genuine commitment to a life of faith and trust.

When I do serve a church again as pastor, I would say this to my congregation. Should you get restless with me as your pastor and consider "running me off," please understand that I am a pastor-person, not a pastor-thing. Do not treat my family and myself coldly and harshly as if we were plaster religious images.

Hopefully you will have felt our personhood in the way we have shared ourselves with you. We have feelings which enable us to love you. Those same feelings enable us to be terribly hurt by you. We feel, we hurt, we cry, and we bleed just like you do. How much better if all of us could heed the words, "Brethren, love one another."

Selective Service

Board seeks Members

Austin, Texas-As part of the revitalization of the Selective Service System, Colonel Paul Dean Aiken, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas, says he expects almost one thousand individuals and organizations in Texas to receive a letter from him asking for help in recruiting local board members.

Persons being considered for membership must:

- Be citizens of the United States between 18 and 60 years of age.
- Not be members of the Armed Forces (including reserve and retired status).
- If previously a local board member, having served not more than 15 years.
- Be willing to attend a few hours on the boards without pay (probably one to two hours per month, or less).

Colonel Aiken urges each individual and organization receiving his letter to respond as soon as possible with names of qualified persons, both men and women. He also asks anyone interested in serving to contact him by mail at Box 5218, Austin, TX 78763 or phone area code 512-397-5945.

The boards will not be activated immediately, but selected members will be placed in standby status for possible future need.

FISH TALES

BY KATIE DVORAK
The heat and wind have taken its toll. It's difficult to find any fishermen who have had any success because the recreational boaters are out, the wind is up and it's been so hot that many find fishing from the arm chair more comfortable. Patten's Landing reports that there have been very few minnows and they are not keeping their schools pretty backed up. In fact, there are a few vacancies available for July 4th, but just a few and these are not in the best locations.

The white bass are schooling so that is a good reason to get up early to fish. The Water Wagon people were out in a tournament again this weekend. They had such a good time the last weekend that they were here that they decided to return to our fair lake.

Friday, Moorings weighted in a 5 1/2 pound and a 3 1/4 pound black bass. There have been some big channel catfish brought in, one of them 9 pounds!

Divine exploits often defy scientific explanation or comprehension.

A miracle is beyond the bounds of ordinary knowledge, mysterious, outside the laws of the natural world.

Three Family Reunion Held

ATTENDING THE JOHNSON-REXRODE reunion last week were: W. C. Rexrode, Billie Rexrode, Grace Gregory, Lesale Salmon, Winnie Floyd and Judy Fowler Jones

Three families, Johnson, Rexrode, and Salmon, who are inseparably intertwined, came together for their second annual reunion last Saturday in Clarendon at the home of Everett and Tillie Anglin.

The clan arrived in Hall County just after the turn of the century from Collin county. W.H. Johnson and his second wife Dora Mack Rexrode Johnson came with their combined families, along with their friend Morgan Salmon who would marry Kitty Johnson, the daughter of W.H. Johnson and his first wife.

Relatives, who have never seen each other, mingled with long-known kinsmen in joy and welcome.

The matriarch of the tribe, Ora May Johnson Sachse, age 84, came from El Paso, while the youngest, Will Bromley, age 2, was from the local area.

Judge and Mrs. Lindsey Martin and their son David Opie came from Oklahoma City. His brother O.Z. Martin arrived from Ft. Worth.

Freda Woods Roberts and her husband Bill and their children Kamie, Billie and Mark came from Bishop, Texas.

From Brice were life-long residents J.C. and Alice Johnson and members of their progeny, Judy and Leslie Fincher and Terrie Bromley and son Will of White Deer; Flora Johnson and Lessie Salmon.

From Memphis were Freddie Starr Johnson and Mrs. Joe Wood.

Representing Amarillo were Winnie Rexrode Floyd and her husband Buford; Jack Wayne and Sally Moss;

William C. and Billie Mae Rexrode; Courtney and Pam Bell and Shan and Amber; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Salmon; and Grace Rexrode Gregory and husband Elmer.

David L. Davidson of Tulsa brought along a manuscript of the Rexrode family to share.

Judy Fowler Jones and Dink came from Lakeview.

Sharing the day from Clarendon were Billie and Chuck Penix and the host and hostess Everett and Tillie Anglin.

Coming from out of state were Nell Sachse Woodard and her husband K.R. of Oceanside, California. Mrs. Woodard has compiled a 15 foot chart of the combined family tree. She will be conducting a genealogical workshop all day Saturday the 20th in Amarillo at the Hilton Inn. The workshop is sponsored by the Amarillo Geneological Society.

The family expressed its appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Anglin and to Virginia James for taking photographs and to Helen Woody who published the account in the Clarendon Press.

Many of the family members have resided in Clarendon since prior to 1920 when W.H. Johnson moved the family here from Brice.

Lynn Thompson Deans Roll at York

Lynn Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thompson of Clarendon, has achieved academic recognition by being named to the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring semester at York College.

According to Dr. Mabrey L. Miller, vice president for academics, Thompson posted a 4.0 grade point average on a 15-hour semester load.

To be eligible for the Dean's Honor Roll, a student must carry 12 or more hours of work with an average scholarship level of at least 3.30 on a 4.0 scale, with no grade marked incomplete and no grade below "C" for the semester.

season, finishing second in regular season play with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses, and capturing the league title in the post-season tournament at Skellytown last week.

The teams which participated in both league play and the tournament were McLean, Lefors, Skellytown, Panhandle, and Clarendon. In regular season play, Clarendon and Panhandle had identical won-loss records, but Panhandle defeated Clarendon both times the two teams met, by scores of 13-7 and 14-11. However, the league tourney turned things around for the Clarendon team.

Clarendon defeated Lefors in the first tournament game, 13-3. Brett White was the winning pitcher. In the second game, Clarendon suffered their only loss of the tourney, losing to Panhandle in a hard-fought game by a margin of 10-11. Clarendon then defeated Lefors again by a score of 23-12, to advance into the finals against Panhandle. Once again, Brett White was the winning pitcher against Lefors.

In order to win the tournament, Clarendon had to win both games of a double-header against Panhandle. If Panhandle had won the first game of the double-header, they would have been the champions, but Clarendon's team eliminated that threat. In the first game, Clarendon defeated Panhandle 11-0 in five innings, taking advantage of the ten-runs ahead rule. Arlis Thomas was Clarendon's successful pitcher. In the second game, Clarendon won the league championship outright by defeating Panhandle 23-12, in an extremely exciting game. Rodney Keown was the pitcher credited with the win.

The local team's leading hitter was Arlis Thomas, who averaged .650 for the season and hit three home runs in the tournament. Other team members who hit home runs during tournament play were Stanley Gardner and Dryon Howell.

All-Star selections were announced by the league president at the conclusion of the tournament. Leland Howell, Randy Crump, Doug Hawkins and Brent Hayworth were selected to the area's thirteen year old all-star team. Chosen for the fourteen and fifteen year old all-stars were Richard Gaines, Rodney Keown, Arlis Thomas and Doug Walker.

Hudson receives 1981

Cooley Award

Dr. Keith Hudson was presented the 1981 Cooley Award by the Texas Dental Association for his outstanding table clinic at their annual meeting in Corpus Christi.

The award is presented to the dentist who makes a lasting contribution to the quality of dentistry in Texas by sharing his ideas, personal techniques, and trade secrets with his colleagues.

Dr. Hudson's clinic presentation concerned the preservation of tooth roots after the tooth crown has been lost to disease or accident. This is accomplished by the use of a custom made root post.

Dr. Hudson graduated from Clarendon High School in 1958 and was presented the Knorpp Award for the outstanding student. He graduated from the University of Texas Dental School in Brophy personally appeared "to reassure this commission of GTE's commitment to seeing that General's customers, here in Texas, receive good service. I'm also here to ask you for your support in that effect."

Brophy told the commissioners during the hearing in Austin on the final order that the continuation of the service penalty imposed on the company by the August 1980 commission order significantly weakens the company's ability to invest for service improvement.

"I think the penalty has served the purpose it was intended to serve. It surely has gotten the attention of the people at General and it has surely gotten the attention of the people at GTE. It's also deprived General of $5 million of capital at a time when capital is both scarce and expensive. I believe that a continuation of that penalty at this particular time serves more as an impediment to improved service than as a stimulus for improved service."

The GTE chairman also said continuation of the penalty would be unfair in light of the dollars that have already been committed and the progress that has already been made in compliance with the clear mandate of the commission to improve service.

The hearing examiner recommended a return on equity of 14.14 percent, before penalty, which Brophy said is neither reasonable nor fair when investors in money market funds are earning 17 percent, and A-rated utility bonds yield over 16 percent.

Following the PUC's ruling, R.W. Britt, GTSW president, said, "I was sincerely hopeful the commissioners would allow us a return adequate to meet the obligation we have to serve our customers and earn a profit sufficient to compete for investors' dollars."

"I am particularly disappointed about the continuation of the service penalty in view of the service improvements and the commitment GTSW and GTE have made to meet service objectives."

Bagworm damage

Bagworm damage to evergreens such as arbovitae, cedar, and other shrubs is being found now, says County Extension Agent Ronald Gooch.

Evergreens should be watched carefully at this time of year, especially if old worm bags are found on the tree. Wingless females crawl out and die after laying eggs inside the bag. In this case, each bag may contain hundreds of eggs which hatch into tiny larvae.

The newly hatched larvae immediately start to make bags by chewing off small pieces of the tree. Young worms carry the bags wherever they go. The larvae can be killed with insecticide applied when the bagworms are still small. Chemical controls are ineffective when worms are full grown. Chemicals suggested as

GTE request reduced

The Public Utility Commission of Texas reduced General Telephone Company of the Southwest's request for additional revenues from $44.6 million to almost $2.1 million despite concern voiced by GTE Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Theodore F. Brophy during the final order hearing in Austin June 17.

The additional revenues will be received through new rates for services such as mobile telephones, foreign exchange service (service in one exchange with a direct line to another), and a charge for the telephone company to pick up telephone instruments when customers discontinue service. Customers controls include Sevin, Malathion or Texaphene. The insecticide applications should be applied at 7 to 10 day intervals until the bagworms are eliminated. Directions on the container should be followed carefully, the county agent emphasized.

The feeding worms, when infestations are heavy, will remove the foliage from all or parts of a tree or shrub, resulting in death of the plant or the heavily infested parts. If control measures are started too late, hand pick and burn the bags, because the worm goes through the winter in the egg stage within the bag, said Gooch.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas effective July 21, 1981, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 15.8 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 21 de Julio de 1981, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado rendirá un aumento de 15.8 por ciento en los ingresos intraestatales de la compañía.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interexchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell.

GENERIC DRUGS

Most drugs have a generic name, a chemical name, and one or more brand names. Generic Drugs have received much attention in the news media during the past decade.

And little wonder... generic drugs often cost must less than drugs bearing brand names. These exists a controversy, however, as to the quality of generic drugs. Are they as good as their branded cousins?

It has been determined that at least 30 drugs vary in quality from brand to brand and from branded to generic product . . . they are not absorbed, metabolized, or eliminated from the body at the same rates.

The Food and Drug Administration has maintained that, outside these drugs, there are no serious differences in quality between generic and brand name drugs.

Only 25 to 30 percent of the most commonly used drugs are available as generics. Each year, however, more generic alternatives are made available. Also, physicians seem to be writing more prescriptions of generic drugs than in past years.

At this time, the value of generic drugs is debated by pharmacists, physicians, drug manufacturers, and the government. This debate is expected to continue.

Summer and vacation are two items that run together like bread and butter. But it is also a time when fire, theft and vandalism runs the streets in the hot evenings.

The first step you should take is to notify the sheriff's department that you plan to be away and the exact times you will leave and return. They can keep an eye on your

Books for Texans

The Texas Legislature Budget Board estimates the Federal addition to state funding for the starved public libraries of Texas will be $3,456,292, but there is reason to believe this will be reduced by $919,000.

The Legislature appropriated $4,381,035 or 36¢ per capita. This is an increase of 81% over the 1981 amount of $2,423,573 which was 17¢ per capita.

Librarians are the one professional group dedicated to keeping people interested in reading. Senator Roy Blake of Nacogdoches worked long and hard to get more money for our public libraries. Let's all of us get involved with our libraries and let our state senators know that we want more money to support them. If you haven't met your librarians, now is the time to get acquainted.

Whether your freezer is a separate appliance or part of a refrigerator-freezer it has the potential for great time and money savings. But to get the most from it you have to practice good freezer management and be familiar with freezing techniques. Here are some tips to keep in mind.

FREEZER WRAPS

Frozen foods lose moisture if not adequately protected, so choose your packaging materials with care. They should be airtight, moisture-proof and non-porous. Aluminum foil and freezer-

...are especially good for poultry and other irregularly shaped foods. They mold easily to the food so you can press out as much air as possible from the package. Be sure to seal the ends of plastic wrap with freezer tape as the wrap may not cling to itself at freezer temperatures.

Plastic bags are convenient for individual foods like rolls and cookies because you can take out only what you need and leave the rest frozen. It's convenient to freeze just until firm hamburger patties on a cookie sheet then put them into a baggie then take out just enough for your meal.

Rigid plastic containers with tight fitting lids won't leak and they make efficient use of freezer space. Leave about 1 inch head space to allow for expansion of liquids during freezing. Jars work just as well, but there is always the danger of some butterfingers dropping one. FREEZER ORGANIZATION Label and date all packages. You may even want to include such information as ingredients to be added, the heating time and temperature and the maximum storage time.

Make an inventory checklist of the frozen food and store the list right in the freezer or tape it to the outside.

Try to organize your freezer space into sections for meats, vegetables, prepared dinners, desserts, beverages, leftovers, etc. This reduces the time spent searching for frozen foods and lowers operating costs. The longer the door is open, the more energy is required to maintain freezer temperatures. Freezer temperatures should be maintained at 9 degrees or lower. Remember the golden rule of freezing: FIRST IN, FIRST OUT. CLEANING AND DEFROSTING In a manual defrost freezer the frost shouldn't build to more than 1/4 inch thickness or efficiency is reduced. After defrosting, clean the interior with a solution of 1 quart warm water to 4 TBS baking soda. For stubborn stains sprinkle baking soda on a damp sponge and scrub. Rinse and dry thoroughly.

Frostless freezers also need a periodic cleaning. Refer to your care manual for specific directions, here are some general guidelines. First, remove the frozen food to any other freezer space you may have or transfer it to the refrigerator. I generally do my defrosting in mid winter so I can put my food in coolers outside in the cold weather. I cover them with a heavy tarp and even the smallest packages never thaw. Wrap several sheets of

...to help prevent freezing. Turn the freezer control off and leave the door open 10-15 minutes for the interior to warm slightly so the cleaning cloth or sponge won't stick. Wash the inside of the freezer, rinse and dry. Don't use utensils to chisel ice off of the racks or sides of the freezer. A fan set facing the open door will help defrost quicker. Be sure your drain hose is hooked up. I generally get to clean my carpet after I start defrosting because I inevitably forget to hook that hose up.

IF YOUR FREEZER FAILS Electric power service seldom fails these days and even an unusual interruption of several hours would not cause food spoilage in a well insulated freezer. If the failure is in the household circuit or in the freezer mechanism and there is delay before repairs can be made, observe the following precautions: Keep the freezer closed to conserve as much cold as possible. A well-filled freezer will keep most foods frozen 2 or 3 days, the exact time depending on the room temperature. If dry ice is available, arrange about 25 pounds of ice on top of the frozen food packages. If partial thawing has occurred before refrigeration is resumed, you can refreeze any packages in which some ice still remains. However, such packages should be used as soon as possible. Identify these for using first. Never refreeze meats that have thawed out all of the way. Cook the meat and then refreeze for use later in a casserole.

...an event one would not want to miss. Don't forget to collect your tarapins now for the annual turtle race. There will be open air dances three nights with a warm up Pre-Western dance June 27 at 8 p.m. Watch for the winner of the Saint's Roost Celebration Queen contest.
