"HUNTER HOME" by James Ivey Edwards is owned by President Ronald Reagan and hangs in his ranch home in California.

Local Artist Painting in Western Whitehouse

Many Americans viewed television several weeks ago as President Reagan spoke to the nation from the 'Western Whitehouse'.

Few persons in this area were aware that the painting of an Indian which was shown on the wall where the president was speaking was the work of James Ivey Edwards, of Clarendon. Edwards is head of the Clarendon College Art Department and is also a private instructor. He has been painting for a number of years which date back to his college days.

In an interview, Edwards admitted he had known of the painting which was purchased about eight years ago by Amarillo Young Republicans as a gift to then Gov. Reagan. The appreciation gift for Reagan's campaign trip to Texas and Amarillo was bought from Webb Galleries in Amarillo.

Edwards was surprised when he received a letter, written on stationary with the Governor of California's letterhead, from Governor Reagan which told him where the picture was hanging in the then 'new' ranch house.

Four persons recognized the painting and called Edwards and many of his friends in Clarendon commented on it.

When asked about it Edwards had this to say, "I consider it the best work of that year. It was also the most inspired." He had been walking about the area, southeast of Calude on the Mulberry Canyon and looking at the site of an old Indian encampment. The scene of the painting is at the edge of Palo Duro Canyon and is not so deep as much of the area. James began the picture on the spot and it became the "Hunter Home" with the antelope across the saddle of the Indian hunter on horseback, pausing at the edge of the canyon.

Lone Star Files

Rate

Increase

Lone Star Gas Co. Manager, Robert Erdman, today filed an application for a rate increase which would raise the average residential customer's monthly bill in Clarendon about $2.98 in the winter and $3.98 in the summer.

Based on Lone Star's rate application, a residential customer who uses an average of eight thousand cubic feet of gas a month paid $21.67 for gas service in the winter. Under the requested rate, that same customer would pay $24.65.

Commercial gas customers' rates would also increase under the requested rate schedule.

"Our customers are accustomed to dependable natural gas service," says Erdmann. "This rate increase is necessary to continue a high performance level and for other necessary expenses, such as maintaining and improving the local pipeline distribution system, which are vital to dependable service."

Lone Star's last rate increase in Clarendon became effective December, 1977.

"Since that time, every business, including Lone Star, has experienced increased operating expenses," says Erdmann. "And, of course, unlike other businesses that can raise their prices as expenses go up, we must apply to the city council for a rate increase. No one likes rising prices, but any business must earn enough money to meet operating expenses and still achieve a reasonable profit. Even though our expenses have gone up, Lone Star still has one of the lowest average operating costs per customer when compared to any of the other major gas utilities in Texas."

Help For Old Courthouse

Probably more Clarendon residents had occasion to view the upper story interior of the Donley County Courthouse the first week of March 1981 than at any other time recent enough to realize the poor state of repair, (to put it mildly) of the district court room. The call of a large number of persons for jury duty brought out the residents, who were immediately made aware of the sad state of affairs.

Listed on the National Historical Register, the venerable structure is protected by law from modifications. Repair and restoration must be made according to the report of the architect sent by the state historical commission, Jane Laundry of Myer, Landry and Landry Architects.

As is properly done in any restoration process the exterior of an edifice must be made sound before the interior work is begun.

If the feelings of the persons who voiced opinions at the dismal surroundings is any indication county residents want the courthouse fixed up.

Once our courthouse was a source of pride and a thing of beauty with its stained glass windows, fancy oak woodwork and tiled fireplaces. Now like a neglected Grand Dame too long ignored the once proud building has become an object of embarrassment and to many, an eyesore. Its history has included, the presence of Colonel Charles Goodnight, when he was a county commission for a number of terms for Donley County Precinct 2, the custodianship of records which gave men and women the title to property and guaranteed

President Proposes Cut in SBA Lending

In the budget revisions sent to Congress this week, President Reagan proposes to reduce U.S. Small Business Administration programs by a total of nearly $3 billion over the next two fiscal years.

The Agency's financial assistance programs fall roughly into three categories:

- 1) Direct loans in which loans are made to eligible businesses using taxpayers money.
- 2) Guaranteed loans in which loans are made by private lenders and SBA agrees to reimburse the lender for up to 90 percent of any loss suffered.
- 3) Disaster loans, mostly direct loans made to victims of declared natural disasters.

All three of these areas will be impacted. Over the next two years, direct loans will be reduced by $128 million, guaranteed loans reduced by $2 billion, and disaster loans reduced by $830 million.

The President also proposes to increase the interest rates on both direct loans and disaster loans. Direct loans are now made at a 9 1/4 percent interest rate and various disaster loans are made at rates varying from 3 percent to 13 3/8 percent.

In the overall proposals to reduce outlays in commerce and economic development subsidy programs, the President mentioned these cutbacks at

"$45 million in 1981 and $116 million in 1982 reducing direct lending of the Small Business Administration. Guaranteed commitments for SBA would be reduced by $990 million in 1981 and $1.5 billion in 1982. The decrease for SBA direct loan obligations for disasters is $780 million in 1981 and $50 in 1982."

The President also proposed to end funding for SBA's non-physical disaster program.

"Given existing fiscal restraints," the budget proposals said, "the Administration believes that Federal disaster assistance should be provided only to those who are most in need."

Under today's budget proposals, SBA's new loan guarantee commitments would total $4.9 billion in 1981 and $4.4 billion in 1982, compared with the January proposals of $5.9 billion in both 1981 and also in 1982.

The President proposed to reduce SBA's employment to 4,700 employees in 1981 and 4,500 in 1982. In January, full-time employment was proposed to be 5,000.

The President said that the Administration "is developing ways to improve the collection of tax and loan payments owed to the Government." He said, "The accounting and servicing, collection and liquidation functions related to debt management can be handled more efficiently through private contractors." At present, law forbids SBA to use private contractors to collect loan debts.

From the Office of Senator Bill Sarpalius

Agriculture was the password in the State Senate this week as that body passed two bills introduced by Senator Bill Sarpalius. One bill deals with gasohol while the other regulates the application of pesticides.

Sarpalius' first bill establishes a clearinghouse for gasohol information throughout the state. The Department of Agriculture will collect information on gasohol producing equipment that has a capacity of up to 1,000,000 gallons.

This information will include the name and address of the manufacturer, descriptions of the equipment and any claims the manufacturer makes about the equipment. If the equipment has been tested by a testing laboratory, the results of that test also will be reported, along with any other information the Commissioner of Agriculture may require.

Sarpalius said the purpose of the new law was to bring all the gasohol information under one roof. "Now there are several agencies handling most of this information in the state. Under this bill, all the information will be in one place. We think this will save a lot of time and trouble for people interested in gasohol."

Sarpalius said he did not expect the registration would cost the taxpayers very much money, because the manufacturers must pay a fee to register.

"Considering how confused the situation is now, and how we hope this will streamline the gasohol information system, we think this bill will save money in the long run," Sarpalius said.

The other bill by the Hereford lawmaker was passed by the Senate Monday, and regulates the application of pesticides. Sarpalius said the bill really just closed loopholes in the present law.

Control Pesky Nematodes in Gardens

If the roots of your garden plants are damaged or appear to be decaying, you may have a nematode problem, says Ronald Gooch, Donley County Extension Agent.

Nematodes are microscopic, worm-like animals that feed on plant roots. Damaged plants have decayed spots and stubby roots or enlarged root tips.

While several types of nematodes can infest a garden, the root knot nematode is the most damaging. Plants infested with root knot nematodes will have galls or swellings on their roots, are usually stunted and yellow in color, and may die prematurely.

Gardeners can use several methods of control to get rid of or at least lessen the number of nematodes, says Gooch. Using nematode-resistant varieties of plants helps as does rotating crops of corn.

Also, using a cover crop such as cereal rye, not common ryegrass, during the winter months, helps trap nematodes. Nematodes will enter rye roots, but because of the physiology of the roots, the nematodes cannot undergo further development and will die. Working the cover crop into the garden area a month before planting increases organic matter and at the same time causes an organic acid to develop which is toxic to nematodes.

While controlling nematodes by chemical means is not always effective, Gooch does recommend one method. Apply Vapam with hose-on sprayer at the rate of one quart per 100 square feet of ground area. Then immediately wash the chemical into the soil with a one-half inch application of water. Soak the treated area twice during the next 48 hours and then leave it alone for seven days before tilling.

Wait at least two weeks after applying Vapam before planting. Also, if the temperature is high, additional watering may be needed to keep the soil below 90 degrees F. for the chemical to be effective.

Of course, the best method of controlling nematodes in your garden is to never let them get started. Gooch warns against adding topsoil or any organic matter such as peanut hulls which might be infested with nematodes.

Recipes Wanted For 1981 Texas Beef Cook-Off

AUSTIN—Do you boast about your barbecue brisket? Does your family love your recipe for pot roast? If so, you may want to enter your favorite beef recipe in the 1981 Texas Beef Cook-off.

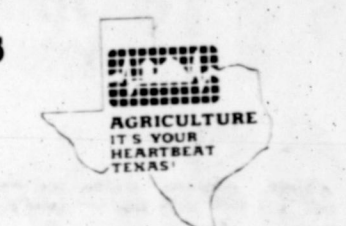

The Texas Cowbelles will sponsor the contest May 14-15 in El Paso where they will present $300 to the winner and $200 to the runner-up for dishes that use chuck, round, rump or fresh brisket in any form.

Entry deadline is April 1. Recipes submitted must be exclusively beef. They must contain two to five pounds of beef. Cooking time may not exceed four hours, excluding such preliminary preparation as marinating. Garnishes are permitted and should be included in the recipe. Recipes for outdoor cookery will not be accepted.

Contestants must be Texas residents, 18 or older. Cooks, home economists and other food professionals are not eligible.

Recipes will be judged on taste, appearance, originality and ease of preparation. An entry form must accompany the recipes. Write for one to Reagan V. Brown, Commissioner of Agriculture, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin 78711.

The winner will represent Texas at the National Beef Cook-off in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Sept. 23-25.

As vegetable gardeners in Donley County prepare for spring planting, their first step should be to control soil insects.

Soil insects can reduce vegetable quality and yields if left uncontrolled, points out Ronald Gooch, Donley County Extension Agent.

For effective control, mix insecticides into the soil at a depth of 4-6 inches at least two weeks before the garden plot is planted, suggests Gooch.

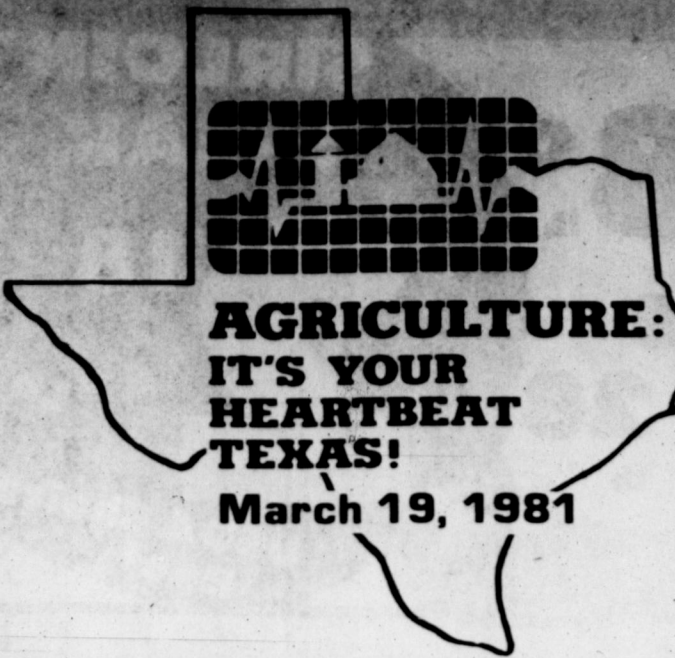

Among destructive soil insects are wireworms, white grubs, seed corn maggots, cabbage maggots, mole crickets, sowbugs, slugs, snails, and cutworms. Some destroy plant seeds, roots, tubers and underground stem parts while others cut off young plants at or near the soil surface.

Most soil insects can be controlled with diazinon 25 percent liquid concentration or Spectracide 6000 applied as a 5 percent granule. Granules usually give the best control, says Gooch. If cutworms or sowbugs become a problem after the garden has been planted, broadcast 5 percent Sevin Bait over the soil surface. This bait containing metaldehyde will also control slugs and snails. However, it is not formulated to be mixed into soil.

Garden sites planted for the first time or those previously in grass or weeds are more likely to harbor damaging numbers of soil pests. Before treating with an insecticide, inspect the garden site by taking soil sample at several locations to a depth of 5 to 6 inches. Remove one square foot section of soil from each location and record the number of soil insect pests present. As a general rule, an average of one or more soil insects per sample suggests the need for insecticide treatment.

Before applying any pesticide always read and follow label instructions, adds Gooch.

Additional free information on gardening is available at the County Extension Office, phone 874-2141.

Federal Intermediate Credit Bank

There is no superstition at the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Texas. Friday, March 13th marked the FICB reaching one billion dollars in loans outstanding to Texas farmers, ranchers and commercial fishermen. The bank, a part of the Farm Credit System, provides money to 30 member-owned lending cooperatives called Production Credit Associations, as well as to 18 other financing institutions such as Agricultural Credit Corporations and Commercial Banks. Any money provided by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank must be loaned to Agricultural Producers or Agriculturally Oriented Businesses.

While this marks the first time in its 60 year history that the FICB of Texas has had a billion dollars in loans outstanding at one time, the bank made more than $2.3 billion in total loans during 1980. Jack H. Barton, president of the FICB of Texas said "It has taken us sixty years to reach the billion dollar outstanding milestone, but it says something about Texas agriculture that with sound, aggressive growth plans, we expect to reach our second billion within five years."

The Farm Credit System provides about a third of all agricultural credit, amounting to more than $69 billion in 1980. The system includes 12 Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, 12 Federal Land Banks and 13 Banks for Cooperatives. Notwithstanding the names, these banks are not government agencies, and do not use any tax dollars. The Farm Credit System is owned by farmers and ranchers, and is financed through Farm Credit Bonds in the public money markets. The system is second only to the Federal Government in the amount of money it used from the money markets.

Soil Survey

The Soil Conservation Service (SCS) has been authorized to conduct a flood hazard study on Clarendon Creek in Donley County. The study is in response to a request by the Mayor, the County judge and the Chairman of the Donley County Soil and Water Conservation District desiring the SCS to make the study.

The flood hazard study will determine the area subject to flooding by the 100 year frequency flood under present conditions.

Flood hazard studies are one of several alternatives that the SCS considers in trying to resolve flood problems. Flood hazard studies to not reduce flood losses, but the land use and management can be better controlled. Individual homeowners and local, state and federal governing bodies find

Foreign Ownership in Texas Ag. Lands Less Than 1%

AUSTIN—Less than one percent of the agricultural land in Texas is registered under foreign ownership, according to a report prepared by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown announced that .5 percent of the state's farmland is owned by foreign individuals or corporations which have at least five percent foreign investment. The report includes purchases reported to the Department as of December 31, 1980.

The total amount of foreign-owned agricultural land is 653,962.4 acres, out of 135,949,925 in farms and ranches in counties with foreign owners, according to the 1978 U. S. Census of Agriculture, the latest official figures by county available.

Throughout the state, Canadians have made the largest purchase in terms of value with a total of $202,962,959. Brown said. The largest amount of acreage has been bought by individuals or corporations based in the Netherlands Antilles. This acreage amounts to 148,888.1

Brucellosis Program

A year of revised regulations in the Texas brucellosis program is highlighted by a sharp increase in vaccination of heifer calves, promising research developments, and improved cooperation with producers and other segments of the livestock industry.

Commissioners of the Texas Animal Health Commission adopted major changes in the Texas program a year ago. "We believe much progress has been made in that time," John Armstrong, Kingsville, chairman, TAHC, said. He explained the program has six basic thrusts:

1. To provide a practical and affordable program for the Texas cowman that meets scientific criteria for control leading to eventual eradication of brucellosis;
2. Significant increase in the use of the reduced dose of Strain 19 vaccine;
3. Expanded and improved laboratories;
4. Improved surveillance;
5. Individual herd plans;
6. Meet federal regulations for interstate movement of breeding cattle.

Brucellosis is a highly contagious disease, affecting mainly livestock, and centering in the reproductive organs. It causes abortions, sterility, weakened calves, and partial loss of milk. In humans, it is called undulant fever. "Vaccination of heifer calves during the last calendar quarter of 1980 has shown an almost 100 percent increase compared to the same time period in 1979.

This is due in large part to the approval of the reduced dose of Strain 19 vaccine. Vaccination is a key element in the Texas brucellosis program, but it alone will not provide the answer. We must also have an excellent surveillance program to locate and eliminate infection.

"We have seen great strides in this area of the Texas program. More than 90 percent of the state's livestock markets are now voluntarily participating in first-point testing. Slaughter plant operators have also greatly expanded their cooperation," Armstrong explained.

A new test to improve accuracy in detecting field strain infected animals is being incorporated in to the TAHC laboratory in Austin on a trial basis. "The vast majority of livestock producers in Texas are to be congratulated for their efforts in making progress in controlling brucellosis," Armstrong said.

Taxing Farms & Ranches

Taxing farms and ranches according to their agricultural use rather than their fair market value can mean substantial savings to farm families on the death of the landowner.

Savings in estate taxes can be as much as 50 percent for those that qualify, said Dr. Lawrence L. Bravencat at an Estate Planning Seminar held recently at Texas A&M University. The seminar was sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Services of the Texas A&M University system.

The opportunity for farm and ranch families to reduce their estate taxes came about with Internal Revenue Code

Section 2032 A enacted in 1976. The law set forth provisions for special use valuation for farms and ranches. Purpose of the provision was to help family farms survive financially and not be taxed out of existence.

For an estate to qualify, numerous requirements must be met:

1. The property must be used actively for farming or ranching.
2. The owner or a close relative must be actively involved in working the property.
3. The owner must have some "risk" involved or have an "economic interest" in the operation.
4. The property must pass from the decedent to a close relative.

5. It must be owned and used for agricultural purposes at least five years before the decedent's death.

6. The owner or a close relative must be paying self-employment tax and must work the land full-time or do all the necessary work if less than full-time.

In addition to these requirements, there are numerous other factors involved in establishing a farm or ranch estate for special use valuation. A landowner that is interested in this special IRS treatment of agricultural land should contact his tax lawyer or accountant for further details.

OUR THANKS

TO THE AMERICAN FARMER

The American farmer is the lifeblood of our country; his industry — agribusiness — touches each of us in our daily lives. He is truly a great American!

Responding to increasing demands for food from our own nation and from other countries around the world, our American farmers have managed to maintain the highest quality of meat, produce and dairy products we as a nation have come to expect.

On the occasion of American Agriculture Day, March 19, 1981, we want to salute our farmers, ranchers, growers, and all those involved in agribusiness who have made our country a leading agricultural nation!

The Lions Tale

By GENE ALDERSON
The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall with 23 members, 3 guests, and Lion Sweetheart Viola Graham present.

Max Brown of Stinnett was the guest of Lion Carter. Following the regular opening ceremonies, Boss Lion Davidson told the club about a proposal which would be presented to the District Convention in regard to an annual assessment. The club voted to instruct our delegate to vote against the proposal.

Following a brief explanation by the Boss Lion and Lion Alderson, prospective member program, originally suggested by Lion Homer Broom sale date were announced to be May 8 and 9. Lion Frank White introduced our program which was brought by Woodrow Argo, who along with his wife, Louise was a guest of the club today.

Mr. and Mrs. Argo left Dumas to spend 2 years in England while he was involved in oil and gas operations in the North Sea. They moved back to make their home in Clarendon 3 years ago.

The program consisted of a very interesting slide film presentation on drilling operations in the North Sea.

Those Crazy Episcopals

and some folks, today, make jokes

Are They Living in the Past?

Outwardly, Episcopals are pretty steeped in tradition. But in their relations with the world about them, they're a "today" sort of bunch.

They're usually among the first to address "compassionate ministry to 'people problems'" wherever those problems crop up.

Take alcoholism. It's no accident that one of the founders of Alcoholics Anonymous was a sympathetic Episcopalian minister, Sam Shoemaker... and some folks, today, make jokes about "Whiskeypals".

It's true that this denomination is a bit more tolerant than some. They nourish a strange belief in guidelines-not straight-jackets-for a Christian life. They're not interested in condemning... but in helping people.

It isn't really a new idea. Just a timely one.

At St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church, 3rd and Park St., we have room for anybody. During Lent, (the 40 days before Easter) services and a meditation will be held at 5:00 p.m. every Wednesday. This would be a great time to meet the Vicar, the Rev. J. Scott Turner and ask that burning question you've always wanted to.

FOR A SMALL MONTHLY CHARGE, HE COULD'VE ANSWERED IT IN BED.

Jerry Ryan figures he's saving a lot of money by doing without an extension phone. But the fact is, he's paying an even higher price for not having one.

Think about it. For much less than you'd expect, you can reach rather than run for your phone. Whether you're doing laundry, watching the tube or taking a snooze.

What's more, you know you've got a phone that's as reliable as the phone company. So call your General Telephone business office and ask for an extension phone. You'll sleep better.

Extension Homemakers Council Met

The Extension Homemakers Council held their monthly meeting March 12th, at 4:00 in the Donley County Courthouse.

The meeting was called to order and the minutes of last month's meeting were read by Neva Spier. Frieda Tucker announced that the cookbooks, which consists of recipes from the Extension Homemakers Clubs of Clarendon, will be arriving in April. The cookbooks will be sold by club members and the price of these books will be $6.00 each. Members of the council then discussed the booth rental for the 4th of July Country Craft Fair. It was decided that the council would turn this project over to the Young Homemakers Club. Following this decision the meeting was adjourned

King

On March 10, at 7 p.m., 305 people filled the Clarendon High School Gymnasium to honor Kenneth King, a running back for the Oakland Raiders and graduate from Clarendon High School Class of 1975.

Trey Chamberlain, president of the Chamber of Commerce in Clarendon introduced Rev. Paul Hancock who spoke the invocation and sang the National Anthem. Mayor Tex Selvidge was introduced and read a telegram sent to Kenneth King from the Oakland Raiders head Coach, Tom Flores congratulating King on his success.

Trey Chamberlain then introduced Jerry Courtney who in turn presented a beautiful plaque of the proclamation from the city of Clarendon and Donley County declaring March 8-14 as Kenneth King Week. Mr. and Mrs. Walter King, the parents of Kenneth King, also received a plaque with the proclamation embossed on it.

A plaque was presented to the Volunteer Fire Department for their outstanding work in the county and community. It was received by Owen Johnson. Diane Chamberlain received a plaque in appreciation for her work on the advisory board of the Library. Francis Dehyle and Betty Palmer received thanks for their work in the Friends of the Library.

Jerry Courtney then introduced John McKissick from Channel 7, News Director at KVII TV, who was the main speaker. McKissick came to Amarillo from Farmington, N.Mex. His first assignment as a sports caster had been to interview Kenneth King who had just signed his letter of intent to go to the University of Oklahoma. It seemed fitting that McKissick should have the honor of speaking at the banquet honoring the same Kenneth King for playing in the Super Bowl and the Pro Bowl. Praises and anecdote flew faster than a football in the last quarter of a tied game.

Allen Estlack reported to the guests what things the Chamber of Commerce has done for Clarendon such as sponsoring the First Monday Sales, the Outstanding Salesperson of the Month, and the July 4th parade. They also put up flags on special occasions and are responsible for the signs on both ends of town bragging that Clarendon is The Home of Kenneth King, Super Bowl 15.

Among those in attendance were representatives from the Chamber of Commerce from Memphis, Abernathy and Amarillo. Ray Wilshire, the backfield coach for the Raiders was introduced. Roy Turner presented King with a flag that had flown over the state capitol and read resolution 308 from the State to King.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jones, Mrs. Emma Deover, Ed Foxhall, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robin McClung from Memphis were noted present. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lemons from Colorado City came. Coach Lemons had been a high school coach for King. Brad Mink and his wife from Pampa Radio station KJRO taped the entire proceedings.

Making the evening complete, Billie Clinton played some lovely piano music for the assemblage. The meal was catered by Dyer's of Pampa.

RE: WATER SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS, 1981
Proposed Utility Rates

Dear Council:

Your review of the City's Utility Income and Expense report for 1980 indicates that there was a loss of about $17,380. This deficit was expected generally and it was due largely because the Sewer changes are below expenses and the practice of classifying improvement materials and the costs to expenses rather than Capitol Improvements along with Inflation will account for most of the remainder of the deficit.

To overcome the annual difference in the Utility Income and expense operations AND to provide for the Proposed Water System Improvements, we are proposing WATER AND SEWER RATE CHANGES

AS FOLLOWS:

WATER
Minimum for 5M Gallons		$ 8.00
Next 5M Gallons	M Gal.	0.00
All over 10M Gallons	/ M Gal.	0.00
SEWER
Residential w/ 4 Fixtures		$ 2.00
Residential per fixture over 4		0.00
Commercial		2.00
TRASH
Basic Charge		$ 4.00

A typical Resident using 10,000 gallons of water would pay:

WATER	$ 12.00
SEWER	2.00
TRASH	4.00
TOTAL	$ 18.00

It is projected that this new Rate Schedule annual expenses and will also yield the net the proposed bond requirements as follows

WATER	BILLING
0 - 5 M Gallons	3840
5 - 10 M Gallons	2880
10 - 16 M Gallons	1530
Over 16 M Gallons	1530
30,000 M Gallons over 16 M

WATER	$126,759.00	(1980)
SEWER	$ 21,054.00	(1980)
TRASH	$ 46,662.00	(1980)

Foster Whaley Capitol Comments

Teachers will be interested to know the Education Committee passed out their appropriation recommendation to the Appropriation Committee. Here are their recommendations. This does not include the built in step increase. For pay grades seven, eight and nine -- 8.5 percent increase the 1st year and 6.8 percent the 2nd year. This would give between 26 - 27 percent increase for the two-year period when the step increase is considered. For pay grades 1 - 6 and 10 - 18, a 6.8 percent increase per year. With the step increases added, this would mean about a 25 percent increase over the two-year period. Keep in mind this is not final, only a figure for the consideration of the Appropriation Committee and the House to start the debate. In my opinion, passing an additional bill for insurance benefits will be tough sledding. The reason? Many teachers are now insured under the regular family plan. Since one cannot collect double benefits, much of the cost of providing an insurance program would be a big subsidy to the insurance companies. Many legislators feel any thing to be considered for insurance would be better spent on salary increases.

Unemployment Insurance
A bill was passed in both Houses this week that will cut out many of the abuses that have been in existence for the past several years in the area of unemployment insurance. Many

Questions & answers on water improvement

Q: How will the water improvement project be paid for?

A: Application was made for a grant of $500,000 by the City of Clarendon some time ago. The grant, would have paid 75% of the amount with 25% to be funded by the city. Such grants are not being made at this time. Funding would come from water meter users with the rate increases listed in the letter from the engineers.

Q: I have good water pressure why would I vote for the measure?

A: If neighbors do not have good pressure my fire protection might not be adequate with present facilities.

Q: I understand we are lucky in that we have all the water supply we can use why?

A: While other communities had to ration water last summer our supply was good. The Greenbelt Lake, source of our water gets its supply from runoff and from springs which run well in the winter to replenish water used in warm weather.

people ave been abusing the system and this causes the employers insurance to be hiked. This bill will be a much-needed improvement. Union Dues Checkoff
On Wednesday, the House passed Senate Bill No. 118 which will prohibit any state agency from making a dues checkoff for any union or association dues. There are about 4,500 State employees that are AFL-CIO members. Prison Appropriations
The House passed a bill today that appropriated $35 million for the purpose of building additional prisons. Governor Clements vetoed this legislation last year. The liberal members of the House chided the Governor for vetoing the same legislation two years ago when the request was for $24 million to build the same system.

Creative Quilting Workshop

Patched In OK

The Extension Homemakers' Council sponsored a "Creative Quilting Workshop", March 12th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Clarendon High School Home-Ec room. Seven ladies attended and enjoyed the program presented by Mrs. Allene Leathers and Mrs. Henrietta Richardson. The Mrs. Leathers and Richardson had attended a "Fashion Trends Workshop" for 4-H leaders at the Texas State 4-H Center in Brownwood in late January. They enjoyed it so much they wanted to share some of what they had learned with others in their community.

Mrs. Leathers showed how to make approximately 3 1/4 yards of continuous bias from a 15" x 25" rectangle of woven fabric. Mrs. Richardson showed the ladies how to strip quilt using the sewing machine. The fabric pieces used by everyone to sew samples to take home were prepared before the meeting by 4-H members interested in the sewing project: Marcy Helms, Katrina and Christina Leathers, Deniece Richardson, Tammi Deen, and Debra Slavin. Katrina, Christina and Deniece modeled garments their mothers had made using the techniques shown during the program. The garments were then passed around for inspection while seam finishing techniques were discussed.

Homemakers Club

Lakers Homemakers Club met on Monday, March 9, 1981 in Howardwick City Hall. There were eleven ladies present, including one new member.

Betty Muse, of Harlan's Flowers, gave our program on flower arranging. She showed us how to dress up a green plant for any season or occasion. She also created an Easter arrangement, using a green plant and fresh flowers plus colored plastic Easter eggs. She created two corsages; showed us how to make a ribbon bow, and explained the difference in corsage prices depending on how fancy the leaves, decorations and ribbon used. We enjoyed her program very much, and appreciate her time and effort in bringing it to us.

We had a short business meeting. President Lois McVicker announced the 4-H dress review and asked for a volunteer from our club to help. She also mentioned the quilting workshop. We are asking Roxanne Shields from Judy's Hair Design to give our program on April 13, 1981.

Letter to the Editor

The University of Texas At Austin
 Bureau of Economic Geology
 Austin, Texas 78712
 March 13, 1981

The Honorable W.R. Christal
 County Judge of Donley County
 P.O. Drawer U
 Clarendon, TX 79226

Dear Judge Christal:
 I have previously informed you that there was interest in drilling some stratigraphic tests in order to core salt beds in the Palo Duro Basin. Two drill holes are scheduled for this spring of 1981. It is expected that the actual coreing will take place in May, first in central Donley County and second in central Oldham County. I will attempt to visit you before that time in order to discuss your concerns. As this work relates to deep geological burial of nuclear waste, you may believe that some kind of public meeting with county commissioners or citizens is appropriate. I will arrange to have the outside participants represented. This would include one or all of the following: the Department of Energy, the Office of Nuclear Waste Isolation (ONWI) of Battelle Memorial Institute, Stone and Webster Engineering Company who is the Geologic Program Manager, and the Bureau of Economic Geology.

The Palo Duro Basin remains a back-burner possibility in the viewpoint of the DOE and ONWI as of this time. Enclosed for your study is our 1980 Annual Report which we received this week. On pages 8 and 9, the Palo Duro Basin program is described briefly. I would be pleased to respond to any of your questions or concerns about our work which is ongoing or which may be planned.

Sincerely,
 E.G. Wermund
 Associate Director

Girl Se outs at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday March 15.

A Story of Endurance

Few young organizations have endured when the struggle for survival was as constant and against such odds as that of the Donley County Day Care Center. Latest threat to their existence was the disaster-ous fire which completely wiped out the home and business of the Steve Rogers also. The Day Care Center was totally wiped out too.

On the morning after the fire mothers who usually took their children to this facility turned to a temporary 'sitter' such as Grandmother, a helping hand neighbor or conventional baby sitter. Jobs do not wait until you can make arrangements for your children's supervision.

Most of the parents realized that without the services of the Day Care Center they could not afford to keep working. Payment at the center is based on the earnings of the parents and number of children who stay at the center.

Donley County Day Care Center is licensed under Title XX and was licensed in November 1977 for the year February 1, 1978-January 31, 1979. The center was started in 1975 and located in the rear of the building now occupied by Skinners Saddlery Co.

Although they remember the times now with humor, the early days of the center had Robbie Hill, Eureka Mays and other persons connected with it digging ditches, sawing, hammering, painting, scrubbing, sweating and intermittently crying as efforts to get and keep everything going seemed futile. Progress was made however slowly. When the building was sold by the City of Clarendon to Skinners the move was made to the site which burned due to the generosity of Steve Rogers.

At the dramatic end of the fire and housing for the Day Care Center, help came. It arrived in the form of state personnel who relicensed the center as soon as they had received rental permission from Mrs. Guy White for the building she previously used for her nursing home.

This is a perfect site for the Donley County Day Care Center, even if it is temporary, since the building is on the market. A large expanse of yard, horses across the street, a view of fruit trees in bloom and wild flowers at hand are lovely companions for children.

Enrollment at the center is 35 children from 23 families who qualify for the services. There are 12 one parent families represented. Some of the parents are going to school while others work, some work and go to school too, in order to better provide for their families. The majority of these parents have more than one child and work at employment making very little more than the minimum wage. Babysitting costs have to be as low as possible for them to continue working. Without the Learning Center at Day Care they would be forced to quit work. Some could probably live with relatives, others would be without any funds and would be necessary have to resort to welfare.

Working parents are employed at Gibsons, Texas Saddlery, Wallace Monument, Dairy Queen, grocery stores, doctors offices, cafes, as nurses, clerks and secretaries.

Almost 100% of these salaries are spent in Clarendon to boost the economy. Also the food bills, utilities and various and sundry supplies are purchased almost 100% in Clarendon. Income from 23 families adds many dollars to the cash register tapes of local merchants.

Part of the funds at the Day Care Learning Center does come from state and federal sources. It is common knowledge that the Learning Center has regular fund raising activities and there are several supporters whose generous contributions are heartwarming and badly needed. They are so very much appreciated by the Center.

The Donley County Learning Center has not received any notice of curtailment or cessation of funds (Pat Foster, director said early this week). Many persons have a vital reason to pray this will not be done.

Again Thanks are given to the supporters of the Donley County Learning Center, for those who although they have no need for services themselves have an interest in community progress which includes assistance in areas where they are not obligated as individuals.

Should I Go To Church?

From Faith, Prayer, & Tract League

Used by WAYNE NAYLOR

Sometimes people say and think, "I don't have to go to church to be a good Christian." What they say amounts to this: THE BIBLE DOES NOT ASK ME TO GO TO CHURCH, for surely, a good Christian wants to do what the Bible asks of him.

But is this true? We answer, "No, the Bible does very plainly ask you to go to church." Let us go to our Bible together and find out about it. First turn to Eph. 4:11-13; "And He (that is, Christ) gave some apostles; and some prophets; and some evangelists; and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." Question: If Christ gave pastors and teachers, for the purpose of edifying his disciples, and causing them to grow in faith and in knowledge, doesn't it follow that He wants us to use them?

Let us turn next to Hebrews 10:24-25. "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and unto good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more as ye see the day approaching." Question: How can we be provoked to love and good works? The Bible says here: "Through the assembling of ourselves together."

Let us turn now to Romans 10:13-17. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach except they be sent? as is written: How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! . . . so then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." Question: Is it not true that the Bible teaches here that Christ sends preachers to awaken the faith and strengthen the faith in Jesus Christ?

Over in Matt. 16:18 Jesus says, "And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven." Questions: Does Christ want a church? "I will build." Does he like His Church? "My Church". How does He build it? Through the disciples: "I will give thee the keys." What are the keys? Preaching the gospel and exercising Christian discipline. (To be continued next week)

A Moment for Meditation

By INEZ G. LAWRENCE
"If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed." Jno. 8:31
For more than fifty years I have listened to my husband's weekly sermons. They have covered the entire spectrum from tropical to thematic subjects. Until now I have never referred to one of them in this column. Recently he called attention to chapter eight of John's gospel. He singled out eleven "IF'S", direct quotations from Jesus in conversation with the religious leaders of that day.

Most of us pay little attention to the word "IF". We use it in ordinary conversation with no thought of semantics. But the dictionary defines it as a conjunction of condition or choice, a possibility depending upon one's choice.

Jesus said to the pharisees, "If you believe not that I am He, ye shall die in your sins." He offered a choice here. To His disciples He said, "If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed." The possibility depended on their actions. To all the people He said, "If a man keep my sayings he shall never see death." This brought an angry response from His critics. Everybody died sooner or later, even the revered Abraham and all the great prophets. They felt they had trapped Jesus. He answered that even Abraham had rejoiced to see His day and would have been surprised at their rejection.

Reading that encounter we too are surprised at their rejection. But we are confronted by the little word "IF" in our daily lives too. "IF" we want to know God's will for us, we can. If we want to attend church, we can. If we want to visit the sick, we can find time. If we want to be better informed about the community we can become so. If we care about a thing, we rearrange schedules to fit it. So, we have a choice every time the word "IF" enters conversation or thought. The word is much more powerful than it first appears. It may even control destiny. Think upon it.

FISH Tales

By KATIE DVORAK
Everyone knows what it's like to be a fisherman, the skill, the dedication and money a fisherman has to have to be successful. One of the most important things a good fisherman has to have is a cooperative wife. That is what this column is all about, cooperative wives of some of our famous fishermen.

Dorothy Breedlove is one of the more tolerant wives in town. She used to go with Flip quite often, but one incident several years ago may have been the turning point in their aboard fishing trips. Flip never fishes seriously when Dorothy is along in the first place, but one hot day in the summer, things came to a head.

The day was hot, the lake was afloat with sweaty fishermen who were trying their best to catch a big fish before giving up. Dorothy was dangling her line in the placid waters when Flip decided to move on. Dorothy said, "I'll just leave the line in and troll some", suddenly, her pole bent and the line snapped tight and she reeled in a nice 2 1/2 pound bass. The other men nearby were livid with heat and rage. Flip decided then that Dorothy would be happier on the golf course so he could do a better job at fishing for those bass. Dorothy agreed.

As a matter of fact, whenever Flip takes a trip to Mexico or Colorado, Dorothy goes along with her own personal gear: golf clubs. This week the two are loading up for an attack on Lake Proctor, which just happens to have a beautiful golf course nearby. Dorothy Breedlove said that she is "so happy that at this time in Flip's life we have this nice lake so near so that he can go fishing without going long distances." Flip and Dorothy do take fishing trips to other lakes. But the best trip is the two weeks they take in Gunyson, Colorado where Flip does some trout fishing and Dorothy sight sees or plays golf for takes a true rest. They rent a cabin and often take side trips to various places nearby. Flip has recently begun to get into fly fishing and ties his own flies and is now making his own fly rods. "I wouldn't have the patience to tie that silk thread around the pole. But, they do look neat to me," Dorothy remarked.

The accumulation of fish in the freezer is not much of a problem to this star wife. "I never see the fish until they come out of the freezer as filets or whole bass", and that makes it nice. Dorothy likes to bake the bass whole or to charbroil them outside on the grill. Flip has made an unique contraption for cooking large amounts of fish in an outdoor deep fat fryer. He has a very large cast iron dutch oven over a burner that is fueled with butane. When the oil gets really hot, he can deep fry pounds and pounds of filets. They crank this up whenever the kids and grandkids come over for a fish fry.

Since Dorothy doesn't go along with Flip to fish, Flip has a companion that helps with the chores; Bill Watson. Dorothy says that Flip sure has learned alot since he has been going out with Bill. I'd guess that Dorothy is mighty glad of that so that she can spend her free hours improving her long drive.

TIRED BLOOD
Iron deficiency anemia affects many children, men, and nearly 20% of all women (up to 50% of women during pregnancy). Many radio, television, and magazine advertisements portray this as tired blood. There are many reasons why people may have iron deficiency anemia. An inadequate supply of iron may be present in the diet (a baby or child fed only milk would develop an iron deficiency anemia). Adequate iron may be present in the foods one eats but, for some reason, the body simply refuses to absorb it into the bloodstream. An anemia may also occur as a result of chronic blood loss (for example, during heavy menstruation) or when the body's need for iron increases (as occurs during pregnancy).

Iron poor blood cells are often smaller and weaker than their healthy counterparts. The anemic cells become less able to carry oxygen through the bloodstream. The owner of such cells becomes easily fatigued. Iron supplements are available without prescription for infants, children, and adults. Most are inexpensive and pleasant tasting.

FTA Back From State

On the morning of February 26, ten members of the Clarendon H.S. F.T.A. Chapter and 2 sponsors embarked on a trip to San Antonio-our 32nd Annual F.T.A. State Convention. We arrived in San Antonio around 5:00 p.m. "Did we see the traffic!" We stayed at the Holiday Inn Alamo Area.

Thursday night the group went to the restaurant Casa Rio, on the San Antonio River and had a very nice and delicious Mexican dinner. The young men of our F.T.A. group sent 2 guitarists over to Miss Veach's table to serenade her with 3 songs. Enjoying the serenade were Peggy Anderson and Diane Havens, sitting at the same table. The group took in a few of the night sites of downtown San Antonio before returning to our hotel.

Friday, February 27, 1981, the group got to the San Antonio Convention Center, Mission Room, to register around 10:00 a.m. We toured through the exhibits. Diane Havens took our scrapbook to be entered into competition on the state level.

The First General session started at 2:30 p.m. in the Banquet Hall #1, San Antonio Convention Center. The address was given by Cerven Cramer, Ph. D., Professor Dept. of English, The University of Southwestern Louisiana, Lafayette, LA. Following the First General Session, each District met in a caucus District meeting. District XVI met at 4:00 p.m. in Room 2, River Level with Jerry Elizardo, president of District XVI, presiding. Rick Hayes, District XVI Parliamentarian, helped him conduct the meeting. In the caucus meeting, our delegates were to be certified for the election of officers Saturday. The district also met Karl Travis from Tulia who was campaigning for State President of T.F.T.A. He asked for District XVI to help him in his skit.

The Second General Session started at 6:30 p.m. in the Banquet Hall #1, San Antonio Convention Center. Skits and speeches for candidates for state office were presented. T.F.T.A. planned a dance for entertainment starting at 9:00 p.m. to midnight. It featured Richard Scott and his "Disco Extravaganza".

Saturday, February 28, 1981, there were 2 sessions of workshops, one session from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. and from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. the workshops were on various topics.

At 1:15 p.m. the House of Delegates were seated. Delegates from Clarendon were Rick Hayes 1980-81, District XVI Parliamentarian and Diane Havens 1981-82 District XVI

Historian. The House of Delegates took care of any business, their most important business being the election of 1981-82 State officers. Sixteen candidates filed for 1981-82 TFTA state office. The 1981-82 TFTA state officers are: Karl Travis, Tulia, District XVI-President; Happy Witsell-Vice President; Wendy Greiner, Cuero-Recording Secretary; Edward Lazaro, San Antonio-Financial Secretary; Beth Wells, Austin-Parliamentarian; Roxann Kille, Fort Worth-Historian. This session was lengthy because of electing officers.

Excellent workshops were set up for F.T.A.; such as Careers in Education, Fundraising Projects, Campaigning for office, How to Be A Winner. . . And Be Yourself, Publications and Newsletters, Scrapbooks and Historians, Teacher Aide Program, Texas Student Education Association, Time Management--How To Cope With College Curriculum, and What Makes a Good Leader?

Highlight of the convention came at 5:00 p.m. with the awards program in the Banquet Hall of the San Antonio Convention Center. The new Mr. and Miss F.T.A. will be announced and later given $1,000 scholarship by TSTA. Winners of the top 10 projects, scrapbooks, and yearbooks will receive trophies.

Also, the John H. Lovelady Liftermer for Youth Awards will be presented to outstanding advisors who are retiring from TFTA work. Lovelady, who retired in 1976 after 24 years of service on the TSTA staff, was the first TFTA State Consultant after the group affiliated with TSTA.

TFTA will also recognize the advisor who has made an outstanding contribution to TFTA work and TSTA local association which promotes its TFTA chapter. The latter award honors Dora Rose Jones of Clarksville, TFTA Advisor of the Marion A. Lawson Chapter and former TSTA Region 14 Uni-Serv Director-Consultant and former TFTA state Consultant.

Overall the convention was a huge success and TFTA members learned what the meaning of an opportunity to serve meant.

Attending from Clarendon FTA Chapter were Rick Hayes, Dan Hansen, Steve Nance, Randy White, Eddie Bright, Debbie Johnston, Penny Swearingin, Kim Gay, Pat Ritchie, Diane Havens, Miss Betty Veach, Advisor and co-sponsor Peggy Anderson. F.T.A. thanks Peggy Anderson very much for going with us. Everyone had a very informative and very enjoyable time.

FTA Members attended meeting in San Antonio to R Dan Hansen, Steve Nance, Rick Hayes, Eddie Bright, Dianne Havens, Pat Ritchie, Randy White, Penny Swearingin, Kim Gay, Debbie Johnston and advisor Miss Betty Veach.

It has housed proceedings which have proved in a public court of law the innocence and guilt of persons who have been put on trial and has given shelter to countless persons who exercised their right to vote, paid taxes to complete their responsibility of property ownership and to those who looked for a loved one's name on the Armed Services Roster.

Now the leading is loose and some of it missing from the stained glass, the plumbing is antiquated, woodwork is covered with various coats of paint. Plaster on the walls is broken, cracked and loosening from the strips to hold it on the walls.

Scars reveal the color of numerous paint jobs over the years and the peeling paint is joined by the dust which sifts in around the window units. In the courtroom itself, where district court is held, the lighting is far from adequate, broken chairs are in the spectators section and some of those in the jury box are coming loose from the floor.

Recent court proceedings were punctuated and sometimes drowned out by the steam hissing and escaping to an alarming degree from the radiators. On this occasion the bailiff was kept busy turning down the steam for the sake of hearing the proceedings or turning up the steam to keep the court warm enough.

"Well for goodness sakes spend a little money and do SOMETHING", you say. My friends it is not that simple.

The rundown at the heels state of the one time stately old courthouse did not occur overnight. For a number of years the repair that would have been relatively inexpensive and only ordinarily complicated was not attended to. When such work was undertaken the cheapest was deemed the best and a 'lick and a promise' bit of paint, a board or two nailed in place or such other taking of a problem has led to the ultimate result as it exists today.

Today much must be done to return it to a state of basic utility. This must be done under the supervision of the state historical commission and will protect the integrity of the old structure.

A large number of Donley County residents have great affection for the 'Grand Dame' and have worked to aid in the beginning of her restoration. For some of them it has meant frustration because of the waiting, the round-a-bout authorization of progress and the procedures. For one of the interested parties the patience has paid off.

Donley County Judge W.R. Christal has worked for grant money to help in the restoration of the courthouse and has followed the applications all the way through PRPC. He has made several personal appearances to aid the applications which have been approved in the A-95 Committee and the General Committee where he appeared.

A very recent hitch developed in receiving the word about the grant due to the resignation of the individual with whom Christal had been in contact. Steve Tillotson, had replaced Berry Waggoner, and after a personal tragedy he himself was put in a position where he needed to attend to personal matters and resigned.

Opperman, with the Historical Society in Austin, called Judge Christal to say the time was right for bids to be let on the repair and restoration of the old courthouse exterior, as set by Myer, Landry & Landry in Dallas.

Two grants in the total amount of $26,223, (one for $11,223 and the other for $15,000) are matching fund grants. Matched with revenue sharing funds the money available will be $52,446.

If there had been co-operation between the Donley County Commissioners Court and the Texas Historical Commission when revenue sharing first started enough of the restoration could have been done by this time, in all likelihood, to begin work on the district courtroom by now.
