Texas DPS Requests Extra Caution During Holiday

Major V. J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, urges Texas Motorists to use extra caution in driving this Thanksgiving holiday season. He says, "Because there is more traffic during holiday weekends, there is more exposure to accidents. Therefore, be alert and drive defensively. Stay alive and have something to be thankful for."

To help avoid speeding and stress, plan ahead, leave early, and allow ample time for arriving at your destination. Remember if you leave late, you will arrive late.

According to Major Cawthon more alcoholic beverages are consumed during holiday periods. A drinking driver is less skilled and more dangerous than a sober driver. Remember that approximately 50% of all traffic fatalities involve a drinking driver. So please, do not drink and drive!

It has been proven in recent years that wearing seat belts saves lives. Develop this habit of "buckling up". It may be the best habit you can have.

Take it upon yourself this holiday season to observe traffic laws and regulations and help the law enforcement agencies make this a safe, happy holiday for everyone.

Clarendon FmHA Office Has New Hours

The Clarendon Farmers Home Administration Office has changed its office day to every Monday in lieu of every Tuesday, starting November 28, 1988. Office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

West Texas Utilities to Hold Open House

As the holiday season approaches, the employees of West Texas Utilities invites the public to attend their annual Christmas Open House. It will be held at the WTU office on Tuesday, November 29 from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Homespun gifts are made with loving hands. Homemade cakes, cookies, and breads of all kinds filled the log cabins in pioneer days. This Christmas you too can create your own batch of homemade gifts and decorations. With this in mind, the Electric Living consultants at West Texas Utilities Company have prepared a collection of kitchen tested recipes, inexpensive packaging ideas and decorations to help you in spreading season's cheer.

During the open house, copies of the new '88 "Holiday Delights" recipe/decorations booklet will be available. Also other items such as a door prize and small household gadgets, will be given away, and refreshments from the "Holiday Delights" booklet will be served.

Mark your calendar now, and plan to come visit us at WTU to enjoy the holiday.

NO ONE WAS SWINGING last Saturday, as snow settled on the playground equipment in city park and on all of Donley County.

CLARENDON GETS SNOWED

Clarendon got its first snow of the season on Saturday, November 19th. The grey sky started spitting snow about 8:30 in the morning and drifted down much of the day. But total accumulation was only around three or four inches in most places.

The snow did not cause much of a problem for traffic. There were no serious accidents reported to the sheriff's office.

This cold front finally and decisively killed the cotton plants, so as soon as the fields dry, harvest can begin in earnest. Although some fields have already be stripped, they had to be defoliated.

Cattle raisers did not have to haul much feed, since the cover lasted such a short time.

By Sunday morning, skies were clear and the weather was beautiful, if slightly chilly. By Sunday evening, much of the snow had melted away, and Clarendon should enjoy several days--or possibly a few weeks--of beautiful weather before another spell of ice or snow. Maybe a day or two of slush makes the balmy days better by contrast. Donley County is, indeed, blessed with a great number of delightful days each year.

Community Thanksgiving Service.

The Donley County Ministerial Alliance will hold a Community Thanksgiving Service on Wednesday, November 23rd at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Terry Tamplen of the First United Methodist Church will preach. There will be a community choir. Everyone is invited.

Clarendon FFA To Have Poinsettia Sale

The Clarendon FFA will begin a Poinsettia Sale, Monday, November 21st and will run through December 2nd. FFA members will be taking orders during this two week period. The poinsettia plants will be delivered on December 2nd and 3rd. The FFA greenhouse will also be open on these two days if you would like to come by and pick out your own plant. The cost of the poinsettias will be $7.50 per plant.

The Clarendon FFA will not be having their annual fruit sale this year and have replaced it with the poinsettia sale. The poinsettias were raised by members of the Clarendon FFA in the FFA's greenhouse. The greenhouse was bought last year and was in partial operation. This year the greenhouse has been put into full operation by raising a poinsettia crop of 750 plants. In January and February the members of the FFA will have planted close to 72,000 tomato, pepper and flower plants. These plants will be wholesaled during the months of April and May.

FFA members will begin contacting people Monday, November 21st for poinsettia orders. If you are not contacted, please get a hold of an FFA member or come by the Clarendon FFA building and place your order.

Preparation of Holiday Turkey

Turkey is one of today's best meat buys, both nutritionally and economically. Whole turkeys are sold oven-ready: dressed, washed, inspected and packaged. After turkeys leave the processing plant, no hands touch them until time for kitchen preparation.

A defrosted whole turkey requires only six minutes to prepare for roasting (without stuffing).

If stuffing is desired, we suggest it be prepared separately, placed in a covered casserole and cooked with turkey during last hour of roasting time.

Following label instructions for roasting, or use these simple directions to obtain a beautiful golden brown, ready-to-serve-and-eat turkey.

1. Thawing: (if turkey is not frozen, begin with step 2.) DO NOT THAW POULTRY AT ROOM TEMPERATURE. Leave turkey in original packaging and use one of the following methods:

No Hurry: Place wrapped turkey on tray in refrigerator for 3 to 4 days; allow 5 hours per pound of turkey to completely thaw.

Fastest: Place wrapped turkey in sink and cover with cold water. Allow about 1/2 hour per pound of turkey to completely thaw. Change water frequently.

2. Preparation for Roasting: All equipment and materials used for storage, preparation and serving of poultry must be clean. Wash hands thoroughly with hot soapy water before and after handling raw poultry. Use hard plastic or acrylic cutting boards to prepare poultry.

Remove plastic wrapping from thawed turkey. Remove giblets and neck from the body and neck cavities. To remove neck, it may be necessary to release legs from band of skin or wire hock lock. Rinse turkey inside and out with cool water, pat dry with a paper towel and return legs to hock lock, band of skin or tie loosely. Tuck tips of wings "akimbo" under back of turkey. Neck skin should be skewered with a poultry pin or round toothpick to back of turkey to provide a nice appearance for serving at table. The turkey is now completely ready for roasting to a delicious golden brown.

3. Open Pan Roasting: Place turkey, breast side up, on flat rack in shallow roasting pan, about 2 inches deep. Insert meat thermometer deep into thickest part of thigh next to body, not touching bone. Brush turkey skin with vegetable oil to prevent drying. Turkey is done when meat thermometer registers 180 to 185 degrees F. and drumstick is soft and moves easily at joint.

Approximate Roasting Time (325 Degrees F. Oven)

Ready-to-Cook Weight	Roasting time
6 to 8 pounds	2 1/4 to 3 1/4 hours
8 to 12 pounds	3 to 4 hours
12 to 16 pounds	3 1/2 to 4 1/2 hours
16 to 20 pounds	4 to 5 hours
20 to 24 pounds	4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours

When skins of turkey is golden brown, shield breast loosely with rectangular-shaped piece of lightweight foil to prevent over-browning.

Carving a Turkey: Here are two excellent carving methods: the "traditional," often used for carving at the dining table, and the "kitchen method." As the name implies, the "kitchen method" is done in the privacy of kitchen and prepared slices are served at dining table. Dark meat is carved the same way for both methods.

Carving Dark Meat: 1. Remove drumstick and thigh by pulling leg away from body. Joint connecting leg to backbone will often snap free or may be severed easily with knife point. Cut dark meat from body by following body contour carefully with knife. 2. Place drumstick and thigh on cutting surface and cut through connecting joint. 3. Tilt drumstick to convenient angle, slicing down toward cutting surface. 4. Hold thigh firmly on cutting surface with fork. Cut slices evenly and parallel to bone.

Carving White Meat: Traditional Method: 1. Hold turkey breast firmly on cutting surface with fork. Place knife parallel and as close to wing as possible. Make deep cut into breast cutting toward ribs. This makes a base cut. Each breast slice will stop at this horizontal base cut. 2. Slice breast by carving downward, ending at base cut. Keep slices thin and even. Kitchen Method: 1. Hold turkey breast firmly on cutting surface with fork. Using a sharp knife, carve each breast half away from ribs by cutting along keel bone and rib cage. 2. On cutting surface, carve each breast half into thin, even slices against grain of meat.

Storage: Cut all turkey meat from bones before storing leftovers. Cooked turkey will keep up to 2 days in covered containers when refrigerated at 40 degrees F. or below.

Stuffing: For those whose Thanksgiving is not complete without stuffing a turkey, follow these directions. Spoon prepared dressing loosely into body and neck cavities of turkey just prior to roasting. The stuffing should reach an internal temperature of 160 to 165 degrees F. to be sufficiently cooked. Remove stuffing from turkey immediately after roasting. Approximate Roasting Time for Stuffed Turkey (325 Degrees F. Oven)

Ready-to-Cook Weight	Roasting Time
6 to 8 pounds	3 to 3 1/2 hours
8 to 12 pounds	3 1/2 to 4 1/2 hours
12 to 16 pounds	4 to 5 hours
16 to 20 pounds	4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours
20 to 24 pounds	5 to 6 1/2 hours

Factors affecting roasting times are types of ovens, oven temperatures and degree of thawing. Begin checking turkey for doneness about one hour before end of recommended roasting time.

It's hard to believe that this year of 1988 is drawing to a close so fast.

It is Thanksgiving time again. I am sure that if each of us would just stop for a few minutes to think, that we would all see just how much we really have to thank God for.

When you get to the place that you don't feel that you have much to give thanks for, just stop and look around you. No matter what our problems or burdens we bear, if we would just stop and look (really look) at the burdens and trials others are having to bear, then we would truly be thankful. I hope each and every one of you have a very happy and safe Thanksgiving Holiday.

Mixed Emotions

by Jon Leggitt

Someone once said that the classic example of mixed emotions was seeing you mother-in-law go over a cliff in your new Cadillac. I don't know about that. I don't have a mother-in-law or a new Cadillac. Sounds a bit cruel. But when autumn rolls around, I often have mixed emotions that are almost that strong, and almost that mixed.

Another autumn is over half-gone now, and I still can't decide. I hate autumn! No, I don't. I love it. Which is it?

Dad always said that October was his favorite month because of the beautiful weather. Good choice! But think about how many times what we called "winter storms" were actually late fall storms. I love the fall. No, I hate it.

Autumn is harvest time—the time when the labors of our agricultural community come to fruition, the time for (we hope) a little money in the bank, the time to catch one's breath before planning another crop. But what is more desolate-looking than a stripped cotton patch? I love (no, I hate) autumn.

Have you ever seen more beautiful leaves than there have been this fall? Reds, golds, yellows, even silvers and pinks mixed in with the remaining greens. Have you ever seen them hang on as long as they have this year? And when the early-setting sun (How I have short days!) backlights those leaves, the scene is absolutely breathtaking. But if I were asked to provide a one-sentence description of bleakness, it might well be this: The north wind howled through the barren limbs of the old elm. I love/hate autumn.

How I dread the cold! But at autumn's end, the days start getting longer again, and even though we still have to endure January and February, spring is getting closer and closer. I hate/love the fall!

Love or hate—which is it? Actually, in spite of all the mixed feelings, there's no contest. Love wins easily! How can one hate any time that is so obviously touched by the Lord's hand? No artist, no film, can begin to catch all those leaf colors, all those stunning sunsets. And even if one could see none of the beauty of autumn, its very appearance, right on schedule, should remind us that our loving Father is in complete control. "While the

Seminar on Suicide - Drugs and Prevention for Parents

Suicide is the third leading cause of death among teenagers. Only auto accidents and drug overdoses cause more teenage deaths. The abuse of alcohol and drugs is closely related to each of these killers. The use of a mind-altering chemical may cause a teenager to act on a suicidal impulse that otherwise might pass with time.

The Drug Free Schools and Communities Coop at Region XVI Education Service Center in Amarillo is sponsoring a seminar "Suicide - Drugs and Prevention for Parents". The seminar is scheduled for Tuesday, November 29, 1988, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the ABC Conference Room at the Service Center, 1601 S. Cleveland.

Mrs. Esther Quine, Director of the Amarillo and Suicide and Crisis Center, will be the speaker. Parents of teenagers and preteens are invited to attend. There is no registration fee. Reservations may be made by contacting your local school district.

earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease" (Genesis 8:22).

Perhaps hymn writer Henry Lyte also had mixed emotions about autumn. One wonders if the plants and animals entering their dormant stage were partly in mind when he wrote, "Change and decay in all around I see: O Thou who changest not, abide with me!"

How can one not love a reminder that, in spite of life's swirl around us, God remains rock-solid, ever-loving, the same yesterday, and today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8)?

I love the fall. Thank you, Lord, for the fall.

Tuesday the 8th was opening night for the Clarendon College Lady Bulldogs and the Fighting Bulldogs. The season started off right with victories for Clarendon in both games against Western Oklahoma.

The Lady Bulldogs had a real close game with a one point victory, the final score was 67-66. The Lady Bulldogs were behind at the half by eight points but came back in the second half to win by one point. The Lady Bulldogs statistics were as follows: Jacquetta Fuzze #11 had 1 foul, 1 rebound, and 4 points; Filisha Lilly #23 had 4 fouls, 2 steals, 6 rebound, 7 assists and 7 points; Stacy McCord #30 had 1 foul, 3 steals, 3 rebounds, 2 assists and 16 points; Jamie Caldwell #33 had 3 fouls, 3 steals, 6 rebounds, 1 assist and 11 points; Twana Malone #40 had 1 steal and 1 assist; Michelle Maes #43 had 5 fouls, 4 steals, 5 rebounds, 1 assist and 17 points; Janice Strickland had 1 assist; Wendy Edwards #50 had 5 fouls, 1 steal, 6 rebounds, 1 assist and 10 points; Dee Farmer #55 had 2 fouls, 3 rebounds, 1 assist and 2 points.

The Lady Bulldogs had a lot of new faces this year with only 3 players back from last year with one red shirt. Alisha Lilly is a soph. from Lake Charles, La.- Jacquetta Fuzze is a freshman from Lake Charles, La.- Filisha Lilly is a freshman from Lake Charles, La.- Stacy McCord is a soph. from Childress, Texas and was here last year- Jamie Caldwell is a freshman from Clinton, Oklahoma- Twana Malone is a freshman from Smyrna, Tennessee- Michelle Maes is soph. from Farmington, N.M. and was here last year- Janice Strickland is a freshman from Tulia, Texas- Wendy Edwards is a soph. from Garland, Texas and was here last year- Dee Farmer is a freshman from Chicago, Ill.

The Lady Bulldogs have a new coach this year. His name is Joel Zehr and he came to us from Helena, Okla. The Lady Bulldogs played an excellent game and really deserved this hard earned victory.

The Bulldogs had 3 players in the double figure column. All players received plenty of playing time. We have several new faces this year in the Bulldogs line-up. The Bulldogs had a win outscoring Western Okla. 72-50. Peter Sam #10 had 3 fouls, 3 rebounds, 2 steals, 2 assists, took 3 charge fouls and 14 points; Rodney Phelps #11 had 2 fouls, 2 steals, 1 assist and 2 points; Tim Prewitt #12 had 2 fouls, 2 steals, 4 rebounds, 2 assists, and 9 points; Lamont Lherrison #15 had 1 rebound and 1 point; Danny Lazos #20 had 1 rebound, 3 steals, and 9 assists; Martin Ortiz #22 had 1 assist and 2 points; Jerome White #24 had 3 rebounds and 6 points; Cleveland Phelps #30 had 11 rebounds, 1 steal, 1 assist and 10 points; Elgin Leslie #32 had 8 rebounds, 3 steals, 3 assists and 5 points; Horace Stacey #34 had 4 rebounds, and 2 points; Russell Winters #40 had 7 rebounds, 1 steal, took 1 charge foul, 1 assist, and 13 points; Tracy Walker #44 had 8 rebounds, 1 steal, took 2 charge fouls, 1 assist, and 2 points; Laparka Langston #50 had 2 rebounds, and 6 points.

The Bulldogs have some real talent this year with depth on the bench. The Bulldogs play well together and I predict they will have a good year. The coach this year and for the last 4 years is Joe Mondragon. He is also the Athletic Director for the College.

We really had a good crowd Tuesday night but there was room in the stands for a lot more. This year we have a lot of good athletes who will give us their best. Let's give them something back by coming to the home games and give them our support. You won't be sorry you came to the game and you will enjoy it.

Hope to see you at the game! I'll be there!

Wilma Lindley attends Tax Assessor-Collector Seminar

College Station - Donley County Tax Assessor-Collector Wilma Lindley joined some 175 other tax officials at the College Station Hilton for the Sixth Annual County Tax Assessor-Collectors' Seminar, November 13-15. The seminar serves as a forum where county tax assessor-collectors from across the state can share ideas and discuss common issues related to their offices.

Wilma Lindley explained that Tax Assessor-Collectors can prepare themselves to meet future challenges by participating in professional seminars such as the one at Texas A&M University. "The best way to insure smooth operation of the Tax Office is to stay proficient in your field and this requires training on a continual basis," said Wilma Lindley.

The educational program is sponsored by the V.G. Young Institute of County Government, of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Persons who attended all sessions received 1.2 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) by the Office of Continuing Education at Texas A & M University and 8 CEUs by the Board of Tax Professional Examiners" said Wilma Lindley. County Tax Assessor-Collectors are required by law to achieve certification by successfully completing continuing education courses.

The three-day program included training on topics such as "Inventory Control"; "Records Retention in the County Tax Office"; "Voter Registration"; "Delinquent Tax Collections"; and "Auditing and Tax Accounting". Most of the training during the seminar was provided by various state agencies that work closely with the Tax Assessor-Collector's office on a daily basis such as the State Highway Department-Motor Vehicles Division, the Secretary of State's Election Division and the State Property Tax Board.

IT'S A FACT!

Protecting America: The U.S. Air Force needs to use the safest tires around on its fighting planes. It uses retreaded tires.

Nearly 100 percent of the free world's commercial airlines use retreaded tires, reports the Tire Retread Information Bureau. The Blue Angels, the crack U.S. Navy fighting team, have been using retreads for years. All retreaded tires, including those for trucks and passenger cars, are processed to Federal Safety Standards. They offer safety and excellent mileage at a very economical price.

THANKSGIVING DINNER SHOWS TEXAS' AGRICULTURAL BOUNTY

Thanksgiving may have started in Massachusetts, but the foods that are eaten at this traditional meal have also become important Texas agricultural products.

The star of Thanksgiving dinner is the turkey and about 7.4 million of these are grown in Texas each year.

According to Dr. David Mellor, a poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas is about the 11th largest producer of turkeys in the country.

However, chances are that the whole turkey carved at your Thanksgiving table won't be from Texas.

"Most of the Texas-grown turkey ends up in value-added products such as cooked boneless breasts, luncheon meat and prepared products which are sent to the East and West Coasts," said Mellor.

In the meantime, fresh and frozen whole birds are shipped in from Arkansas, Missouri and other producing states for the Thanksgiving feast.

From the corn meal for cornbread stuffing to the whipped cream for your pumpkin pie, just about every dish served at Thanksgiving is produced in some form in Texas.

For example, if you're making candied or whipped sweet potatoes or sweet potato pie from fresh sweet potatoes bought earlier this fall, they're probably from Texas.

Sweet potatoes are produced in central Texas around Elgin, in the Lubbock area and in east Texas where they're harvested in the early fall.

White potatoes are grown in Texas too, although by Thanksgiving most white potatoes are coming from Idaho and other northern states. The Texas white potatoes are harvested in July and August.

Fresh fall vegetables for your dinner, especially winter squash, cauliflower, broccoli, carrots and spinach come from Texas' Rio Grande Valley and the winter garden area of southwest Texas.

Although many of these vegetables are shipped out of state for processing, they are also offered fresh through stores and farmer's markets.

For dessert, both pumpkin and pecan pies are Thanksgiving favorites. This year Texas produced about 39 million pounds of pumpkin. Many of them wound up as jack o'lanterns, but others will find their way into fresh pumpkin pie.

Pecans are grown commercially in 183 Texas counties. This year's crop is estimated at 45 million pounds. Although the pecans are slightly smaller due to the drought, they're of excellent quality.

It's unlikely that cranberries will ever be grown in Texas because they require a cold, wet climate.

If you make cranberry-orange relish, however, you can add a touch of Texas by using oranges from the Rio Grande Valley. The Texas citrus harvest began in October and will continue through June.

The Thanksgiving meal illustrates the fact that Texas agriculture is increasingly diverse. Although meat animals and cotton are still the major income-producers for the state, Texas produces hundreds of other crops.

In addition to producing food, agriculture provides another kind of bounty for the state. Dr. Carl Anderson, an agricultural economist with the Extension Service, said the economic impact of agricultural production in Texas is estimated at about $33 billion and businesses related to agriculture employ more than 20 percent of the state's work force.

Statistics Service to Research Farm Conditions

Texas Agricultural Statistics Service will be contacting farmers and ranchers

The Texas Agricultural Statistics Service will begin contracting farmers and ranchers across the state in late November for 1988 acreage, yield and production totals and end-of-year livestock and poultry inventories.

"Changes in the national farm program and this summer's dry weather certainly had an impact on Texas agriculture, and these surveys should help us summarize where the industry stands at the end of 1988," State Statistician Dennis Findley explained.

"Sound production and marketing decisions require good, reliable information and some advanced planning, and our reports provide producers with solid facts and figures they can incorporate into their plans," Findley added.

The Texas service will be trying to keep survey costs at a minimum this year because of budget cuts, so Findley is urging producers to return their mailed questionnaires as soon as possible.

"Remember, these are sample surveys, so if you are contracted it is important to provide the requested information, since on producer represents similar operations of the same type and size our estimates can be no better than the numbers producers provide," Findley noted.

Results of the surveys will be published in early 1989. Anyone wanting a copy of the results can write Information Section, Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, P.O. Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767.

One of the most common fallacies is that water is best in an untreated form as nature provided it. The fallacy of such thinking is crystal clear. In fact, water from a cool, clear spring may be appealing to the eyes, but at the same time the water may contain contaminants.

Sore Throat Relief

A sore throat is one of the most common of all health complaints. The throat may feel scratchy, dry and painful, especially when swallowing. The majority of sore throats are associated with colds or other viral infections that clear up in a few days without treatment.

Less frequently, a severe sore throat may be caused by the bacterial infection commonly referred to as a "strep throat." This infection (caused by beta hemolytic streptococci), if left untreated, can lead to rheumatic fever and possibly heart and kidney damage in children. The only sure way to know whether or not a child has an infection is to obtain a throat culture in a physician's office or the health department. When oral antibiotics are prescribed, they should be used for several days.

Minor sore throats often can be relieved by treating other symptoms that may be present. A topical nasal decongestant (drops or sprays) may reduce nasal congestion and secretions into the throat. Sour, hard candy or throat lozenges are often helpful in stimulating saliva production, easing throat dryness. Excessive coughing may be relieved with nonprescription cough medicines. Gargling with warm salt water will soothe irritated throat tissue.

GTE Southwest Incorporated News

San Angelo - Seventh through twelfth grade math and science teachers in Texas are eligible for a grant program providing opportunities for school enrichment and professional development.

The program, called Growth Initiatives for Teachers (GIFT), is entering its fourth year in Texas under the sponsorship of GTE and GTE Southwest.

Texas Water Development Board To Conduct Water Conservation Workshops at Farm and Ranch Show

Workshops to help farmers learn about efficient irrigation methods will be conducted by the Texas Water Development Board at the Amarillo Farm and Ranch Show on Nov. 29-Dec. 1.

"At the workshops, we'll discuss modern irrigation techniques and show how they can save water and money for farmers," said Comer Tuck, head of the state agency's Agricultural Conservation Unit.

"Information about assistance programs that are designed to help farmers evaluate existing irrigation equipment and buy new equipment will also be provided," Tuck said.

Through its Agricultural Conservation Unit, the Board administers the state's Grants to Districts program. Grants are available to local soil and water conservation districts, surface water irrigation districts, and underground water conservation districts for the purchase of portable testing equipment. Tests can evaluate the efficiency of on-farm irrigation systems and other water conservation practices.

The Board also administers another state program that provides local conservation districts with money to loan to farmers for the purchase of efficient irrigation equipment.

The Amarillo Farm and Ranch Show workshops will begin at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 29, and Wednesday, Nov. 30, and at 3 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 1.

Since starting the program in 1983 as a pilot effort in North Carolina, GTE has expanded the program to eight states and the District of Columbia. Over 500 math and science teachers, including 128 from Texas, have won the grants.

The GIFT grants allow experienced math and science teachers to broaden their subject knowledge, network with other talented teachers, and carry out a classroom-based project for the benefit of students and school. The program is designed to offer new opportunities and enhance secondary school teaching.

A feature of the program is its team approach with a GIFT team composed of one math and one science teacher from the same school. Each team submits a school enrichment program and two professional development proposals.

The school enrichment portion of the grant is $7,000 while the professional development portion is $2,500 for each team member. Unlike previous programs, the grants do not have to be matched by the school or community.

In addition to the grants, GTE will bring together all GIFT teachers from throughout the country in late June 1989 for a week-long seminar in Boston and Washington, D.C., including a tour of GTE laboratory facilities.

Science and math teachers interested in applying for the program may call 215-750-8480, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. (EST) Monday through Friday.
